"she's the only one who cared about me. There's no reason for me to live anymore."

Last November 6, while his stepfather was at work and his mother was out shopping, Morris turned from brooding to deadly action.

In any event, as he looked out the window of his home, he spotted Beebe.

Beebe was shoveling dirt from a shallow trench across the way. He was one of an eight-man crew, of which his father was foreman, digging a pipe trench.

"But when I looked out the window and saw him over there, I just aimed the rifle and fired."

The shot hit Beebe in the left shoulder, knocking him down.

Terrified and unaware of where the shot had come from, Beebe staggered to his feet and spent more than two hours conferring.

According to the Times, Weissman had been asked by one reporter to comment on Lane's statement.

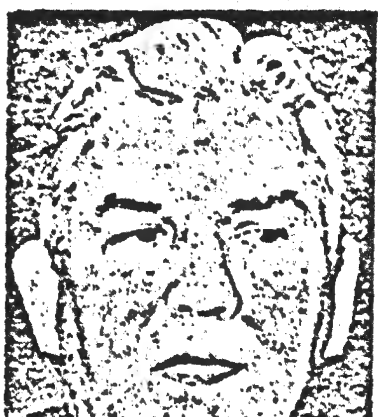
Weissman said that he had never met Tippitt or Ruby or Oswald.

And Weissman also said he had never been in Ruby's Carousel Club.

Then columnist Dorothy Kilgallen raised this "important question" in her nationally syndicated column on April 14:

"Why did Lee Harvey Oswald, presumably fleeing from the police after the assassination, approach Patrolman J.D. Tippitt's car — in broad daylight, with witnesses standing by — and shoot the policeman three times, although Officer Tippitt had not said a word to Oswald?

"A man who knows he is wanted by the authorities after a spectacular crime does not seek out a policeman, usually, unless he has decided to give himself up, and certainly Oswald was not doing that.



HENRY WADE

"By shooting Officer Tippitt, instead of trying to make himself inconspicuous, Oswald put himself in double jeopardy. His act almost guaranteed his arrest.

"Why?

"A whodunit fan would infer that the policeman knew something about Oswald that was so dangerous he had to be silenced at any cost, even Oswald's chance of escape and freedom."

Oswald's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, pointed to still another possible explanation for the murder of Tippitt.

When Mrs. Oswald was asked, "Who killed Tippitt?" by Bob Considine of the Journal-American, she replied in his column of March 13:

" 'Nobody seems interested in how Lee got out of the Book Depository the day of the assassination. The place was surrounded by police, absolutely surrounded. Yet Lee walked right by them.

" 'You know how?

" 'Because Tippitt took him out.

Blocked Their Arres

By JOHN HENSHAW — ENQUIRER Washington Bureau Chief

WASHINGTON — The hottest story making the rounds here is that the U.S. Justice Department prevented the arrest of Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby BEFORE the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Oswald and the man who killed him, F[illegible]y, were suspected of being partners in crime seven m[illegible]ths before the President's death.

The incredible details of the story are so explosive t[illegible] officials won't even answer "no comment" when q[illegible]ed about it. But the story being discussed by top-l[illegible] government officials reveals:

1. That the Justice Department deliberately kept Oswald a[illegible] Ruby out of jail before the assassination.

2. That Dallas cops suspected Oswald of being the gunman and Ruby the paymaster in a plot to murder former Major General Edwin A. Walker — seven months before the President was assassinated.

3. That the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency was using Ruby to recruit commandos for raids against Castro's Cuba. To prevent this explosive information from being disclosed, the CIA asked the Justice Dept. to step in and stop the Dallas police from arresting Jack Ruby, as well as

EXCLUSIVE

There is a suspicion among the American public that there is more to the story behind the assassination of President Kennedy and his slayer, Lee Oswald, than has been disclosed.

The ENQUIRER prints this article in the hope it will lead to the solution of the mystery surrounding these tragic events.

And it was from a sixth-floor window of that depository that Oswald, last November 22, fired the shots that killed President Kennedy and wounded Texas Governor John Connally.

Oswald escaped and was captured an hour and a half later, but not before he had shot Dallas policeman J.D. Tippitt to death.

Two days later, as a stunned world watched on television, Jack Ruby dashed up and shot Oswald to death as police were leading the handcuffed Oswald through a basement corridor of City Hall.

Ruby, the Dallas night club owner, went on trial for that killing on March 4. He was convicted of "murder with malice" on March 14.

But after the assassination of President Kennedy and the killing of Oswald the investigations he was shot in the temple with a bullet fired from a .22-caliber rifle.

The Journal-American said that "a local desperado named Garner was picked up by the police after the shooting but was cleared."

And this resulted in the second startling revelation: Garner's girl, Betty (Mooney) McDonald, took a lie detector test that helped to clear him. And this same Betty McDonald had worked as a stripper in Jack Ruby's Carousel.

In early February, Betty was arrested for engaging in a public brawl with a roommate — and a week later she hanged herself in her cell.

Another person who has added to the deepening mystery of the Ruby-Oswald link is Mark Lane, a former New York Assemblyman, who claims to represent Oswald.

According to the New York

[illegible] straddling both sides of the fence — as a double agent for both the Communists and the CIA.

So both Oswald and Ruby were left at liberty.

For the next few months Oswald took part in demonstrations in support of Castro, then went to Mexico City and tried to get a visa to visit Russia by way of Cuba.

Crowe's application for a visa was turned down.

Last October 3 he arrived back in Dallas. A week earlier it had been announced that President Kennedy would visit Dallas on November 22.

On October 14 Oswald got a room in a rooming house near the Texas School Book Depository in Dallas. The next day he came.

And no satisfying answers were really found, except that evidence was overwhelming that the President had been killed by Oswald.

The same Oswald who had gone to Russia in 1959, pledged allegiance to the Soviet Union and tried to become a Russian citizen.

The Russians supposedly, for whatever reason, turned him down and he finally came back to America with his Russian-born wife, Marina, and their baby daughter in June 1962.

From then on he tried to get mixed up in left-wing activities, ordering all kinds of Communist literature and eventually becoming a loud supporter for Castro's Cuba.

He and his family lived first in Fort Worth, Tex., and then moved to Dallas.

In addition to the apartment he had with his wife and child he rented a room under the name of "A. Hidell."

On March 20, 1963, he received a rifle under that name from a mail-order firm located in Chicago.

On April 10 a sniper fired a rifle bullet through a window of the Dallas home of Gen. Walker.

Gen. Walker was working at his desk on his income tax returns.

The bullet missed his head by scant inches, went through a 9-inch wall and came out in another room.

Dallas police investigation showed that the sniper shot from an alley 150 feet from the Walker home, using a fence to steady the rifle.

Dallas police also had the report of a witness who was near

The witness told them shortly after the attempt on Walker's life that he saw two men, not one, run to an auto and make their getaway.

And within a few days after the shot was fired Dallas police felt they had a complete case.

Then came the fantastic series of maneuvers cloaked in secrecy which kept Oswald — the man who was to assassinate President Kennedy — a free man.

After the slaying, President Johnson appointed a seven-member commission, headed by Justice Warren, to inquire into the assassination.

Then, just after the commission began work, it was reported by United Press International on December 6 that Oswald's wife, Marina, had informed the FBI that her husband told her excitedly in April 1963 that he tried to kill Gen. Walker.

The FBI declined to comment

OFFICER J.D. TIPPITT

The New York Times reported, in a story datelined from Dallas on December 7, that "evidence developed this week showed that it (the rifle used to kill President Kennedy) was first used April 10 to fire into the home here of Edwin A. Walker."

On February 4, the day after Marina Oswald's first appearance before the Warren commission, Chief Justice Warren told reporters that Marina's testimony "may not be released in your lifetime."

The Chief Justice said that the testimony would be preserved for the public but that it may be suppressed for decades. He finished his statement to the press with: "I say this seriously."

J. Lee Rankin, general counsel to the Warren commission, also talked to reporters on that day. He said that Mrs. Oswald's testimony dealt with her husband's activities in the U.S. after he returned from Russia. Rankin also said that Mrs. Oswald offered the commission some "new evidence."

Later that same day Warren refused to confirm Rankin's reference to "new evidence."

Two fantastic turns in the Oswald-Ruby mystery were front-paged in the New York Journal-American of Sunday, February 23.

First, the paper revealed that one of the men who put the finger on accused assassin Oswald also had been shot.

The man, Warren Reynolds, said he saw Oswald running away, putting new shells into a pistol as he did, after officer Tippitt was shot to death.

Then, in January, Reynolds was closing up his office when

According to the New York Times of Thursday, March 5, Lane gave sensational evidence in Washington to the Warren commission.

The Times said that Lane, who has frequently challenged the view that Oswald was guilty of shooting Kennedy, had told the commission he'd heard of a secret meeting in a Dallas night club eight days before the President was killed.

Lane told the commission that at the secret meeting November 14 were J.D. Tippitt, the Dallas patrolman who was slain while trying to arrest Oswald; Bernard Weissman, a New York resident who had placed an anti-Kennedy advertisement in a Dallas newspaper the day the President was shot, and a third person.

The mystery deepened even further when Lane would not state publicly who this third person was.

But the commission knows the identity of the Mystery Man because Lane told it to them after the hearing room was cleared of newsmen and spectators.

Lane had said that the secret November 14 meeting was held in Ruby's Carousel Club, and when the public hearing of the commission resumed, Justice Warren asked a question loaded with dynamite:

"Mr. Lane, what was the PURPOSE of this meeting in Dallas?"

But the purpose remains a secret, because Lane answered that his information did not indicate what they were talking about.

But, Lane said, Tippitt, Weissman and the Mystery Man

Oswald.

A top-secret document — a letter signed by a high official of the Justice Dept. — was sent in April 1963 from the Justice Dept. to Dallas Chief of Police Jesse E. Curry requesting the Dallas police NOT to arrest Oswald and Ruby in connection with the attempted slaying of General Walker.

LEE OSWALD

JACK RUBY

After a sniper shot at, but missed, General Walker in Dallas, April 10, 1963, Dallas police suspected that Oswald was the sniper and Ruby the payoff man.

The cops were set to arrest the pair. But they never got the chance because of the heavy pressure brought to bear by the Justice Dept. And so Oswald and Ruby were allowed to remain free. And seven months later, on last November 22 in Dallas, Oswald was able to kill the President of the United States.

The top-secret document — a copy of it is reportedly in the hands of the Presidential commission investigating the assassination — bares a web of intrigue that involves the Federal Bureau of Investigation, along with the Justice Dept. and the Central Intelligence Agency.

It is so politically explosive that the Presidential commission, headed by Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, has even withheld it from one of its own members, Senator Richard Russell (D., Ga.).

It is feared that Senator Russell, who leads the South in the fight against the civil rights bill, might use the document as a weapon against the Justice Dept. and its chief, Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, a leader in the fight for civil rights.

The document — requesting the cops not to arrest Ruby and Oswald — contradicts the FBI report on the assassination and the subsequent murder of Oswald.

According to the New York Times, the FBI report, which was turned over to the Justice Dept. on December 4 and then to the Presidential commission five days later, concludes "that there was no link between Oswald and Jack Ruby."

The Times added, in its issue of December 10:

"Speculation that Oswald and Ruby knew each other, or in some way were part of a prior vendetta or association, is completely discounted in the report."

The ENQUIRER learned, however, that on the day Ruby killed Oswald, a man named Bill DeMar told reporters he saw Oswald in Ruby's Carousel night club.

DeMar, under the stage name of Bill Crowe, was then master of ceremonies at the club.

The ENQUIRER traced DeMar to an Evansville, Ind., night club and questioned him on April 11. He told our reporter that he had seen Oswald sitting in the Carousel on the night of November 21 — the night before Oswald assassinated President Kennedy.

DeMar said: "I gave the FBI a statement about seeing Oswald in the club and that was it. I told them the same thing I'm telling you.

"I signed it and have heard nothing more about the incident to this day."

And, on March 17, just three days after a jury voted the death penalty for Ruby, the Associated Press reported from Dallas:

"District Attorney Henry Wade has disclosed how prosecutors made the 'big decision' of the Jack Ruby murder trial.

"The decision: They would not call witnesses who swore they saw Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald together before a sniper assassinated President Kennedy here.

"Testimony from these witnesses would have made worldwide headlines. And, if jurors had believed the testimony, it would have provided a motive for the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald.

"Wade said FBI agents and other investigators provided him with a list of witnesses who insisted they had seen Ruby and Oswald together at various times.

"The district attorney said he decided not to call these witnesses because he had doubts about the accuracy of their statements."

And the New York Times, in an article from Dallas dated March 15, reported:

"Some law enforcement officials in Dallas continued to believe that a connection (between Ruby and Oswald) was possible but, if so, that it was personal and did not necessarily involve the assassination."

The FBI became involved in the undercover maneuverings to stop the arrest of Oswald and Ruby shortly after the attempt to snuff out the life of Gen. Walker, who had been preaching ultraconservatism since he was relieved of his command in Germany.

Walker then resigned from the Army.

Teenager Wants Cops to Kill Him, So He Murders A Stranger

By LOUIS MANSON

Sixteen-year-old Charles Morris stood at a window of his home with a rifle and looked out.

The first person he saw was Kenneth Beebe, 18, who was digging a ditch nearby. Morris had never seen Beebe before in his life. But he aimed a rifle at him — and shot him to death.

And when police came for Morris he told them:

"I killed him because I wanted to die.

"I knew if I killed someone the police would have to come and get me — and I wanted to be killed myself."

Police asked him: "If you wanted to die why didn't you just shoot yourself?"

Morris replied: "I knew I'd never have the nerve.

"This was easier. I just wanted the police to kill me."

And that's why he murdered a stranger.

It was a broken teenage romance that led to Morris' murder and suicide scheme in Walled Lake, Mich.

He had been going with a 15-year-old girl and last October they ran off to Kentucky to try to get married.

But authorities caught up with them and brought them back. The girl's parents then refused to let their daughter see Morris anymore.

Morris brooded about it for

He Takes Nap & Is Trapped 8 Days in a Shaft

By MANUEL HERRERA

Evaristo Maldonado was tired out. All he wanted was to find a place where he could take a long, uninterrupted snooze.

And he found just the spot — an unused brick shaft in a hospital basement. So the 60-year-old laborer crawled through the opening and settled down for the night.

Nobody interrupted him because nobody knew he was there.

Not even the two men who came along early the next morning and bricked up the only opening to Evaristo's makeshift bedroom in the Juarez, Mexico, hospital.

It was too dark inside for them to see clearly and Evaristo had crawled well inside the narrow shaft to avoid being seen.

Evaristo slumbered on. There was plenty of air coming through a ventilation grille and Evaristo had no problem with breathing.

But when he woke up, he soon found he had a more urgent problem. He couldn't get out.

He screamed but nobody heard him even though the hospital's doctors and nurses were working only 10 feet above him.

By the fourth day, the starving Evaristo was eating the dirt he managed to scratch out from the walls. When that gave out, he ate his own clothes.

For water, he sucked the sweat from his hands and face.

He lost track of time in the endless silence and the pitch black made him go blind from the effort of straining his eyes.

Evaristo might still have been in the shaft if, on the eighth day, Emilio Gomez and Julia Gua hadn't gone into the cellar to check the heating and ventilation.

They found that one of the shafts had been blocked by mistake. It took only a few minutes to knock out the bricks.

Gomez shined a flashlight inside and its beam fell on the face of Evaristo.

"It's a ghost," he screamed.

Their cries were heard by hospital workers who ran down to the basement and found Evaristo, now a 90-lb. bag of skin and bones, crouching on all fours.

"I was tired," he moaned. "I just wanted to rest."

Carefully the living skeleton was carried upstairs and put to bed after being given stimulants and injections of liquid food.

Within a few days of his rescue — last November 1 — his sight returned and he was on the way to recovery.

Synopsis:

Resident of Marathon Shores, Fla., in 12/63 reported rumor that LEE HARVEY OSWALD docked a boat at Marathon Shores a year or two ago at the dock of a man named TOPENO (Ph.). OSWALD then reportedly made long distance call from TOPENO's house to JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas. One WILLIAM HUFFMAN, employed at boat fueling dock on Stock Island, Key West, Fla., on 11/25/63, claimed he had fueled OSWALD's boat sometime after FIDEL CASTRO came to power, and OSWALD called "RUBEN" in Key West to come to dock and pay for fuel. Bookkeeper for fueling dock stated no records now exist covering period of alleged fueling by OSWALD. Bookkeeper described WILLIAM HUFFMAN as person with abnormal imagination. PHILLIP TOPPINO, owner of the fueling dock during pertinent period, as well as owner of property in Marathon Shores, Fla., on 4/27/64 stated the rumor that OSWALD docked at his property is completely without foundation.

DETAILS:

The following investigation supplements information furnished on December 11, 1963, by Mr. JAMES STEVENS of Box 2536, Marathon Shores, Florida, who, at the time he furnished the information, was located in Jackson, Mississippi, where his wife was undergoing surgery:

Mr. STEVENS advised that several days previous to December 11, 1963, his wife was informed by BETTY FOLSOM of Marathon Shores, Florida, of a rumor which Mrs. FOLSOM had heard from the owner of the "Little Grocery Store" at Marathon, Florida. STEVENS stated the rumor, as received by his wife, alleged that about one or two years ago a boat docked at the dock of a man named TOPENO (phonetic) in Marathon Shores. The dock was said to be located at TOPENO's house. On the boat were nine Cubans and an American, and the American reportedly went to TOPENO's house and asked to make a long distance call. The call, which was said to be collect, was allegedly to JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, and TOPENO has reportedly said the man who made the call was LEE OSWALD, whom he recognized from television pictures.

Mr. STEVENS said that his wife had no other details pertaining to this rumor. Mr. STEVENS stated that the man named TOPENO owned a concrete ready-mix plant on Aviation Boulevard in Marathon Shores.

On November 25, 1963, Mr. WILLIAM HUFFMAN, employed at the Sands Marine Fueling Station, Stock Island, Key West, Florida, advised Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation(FBI) that he recalled LEE HARVEY OSWALD to have gassed up a boat at Key West, sometime after FIDEL CASTRO came to power in Cuba. HUFFMAN related that OSWALD, accompanied by four or five Cubans, was in a 43-foot Chris Craft diesel boat when he gassed up at the Standard Oil Company dock on Stock Island. He said OSWALD did not have money to pay for the fuel, and so made a phone call to "RUBEN" in Key West, who came to the dock and paid for the fuel. HUFFMAN described "RUBEN" as a white male, 5'3" tall, heavy build, "pot-belly", with brown hair. HUFFMAN said that although "RUBEN" paid cash for the fuel, he (HUFFMAN) "had OSWALD sign the fuel delivery ticket and told him I wanted his autograph in case he should become famous at some later date".

On November 26, 1963, GEORGE REENA, Bookkeeper, Charley Toppino and Sons, Inc., Stock Island, Key West, Florida, advised that the TOPPINO family had owned the fueling docks, known as the Standard Oil docks, until August of 1960, at which time they were sold to Mr. SANDS. Mr. REENA stated that the cash sales of fuel were handled by BILL HUFFMAN by making out a ticket in the name of the boat or in the name of the boat owner, and inserting the amount, type of fuel and price per gallon. He stated that a complete search of the records still in his custody, which included delivery tickets for cash sales, during the period 1959 through July 31, 1960, resulted in confirming that such delivery tickets had all been destroyed.

Mr. REENA stated that BILL HUFFMAN, at times, displays an abnormal imagination. He stated that in his opinion, HUFFMAN is a "nut".

PHILLIP TOPPINO, President of Charley Toppino Construction Company, Key West, Florida, advised on April 27, 1964, that CHARLEY TOPPINO, his father, has been deceased for several years, but the company continues to be referred to as the Charley Toppino Construction Company. He advised that the rumor that a boat containing LEE HARVEY OSWALD and some Cubans had docked at his dock in Marathon Shores, Florida a few years ago is completely without foundation. He stated his company has a branch office and rock plant on Aviation Boulevard in Marathon Shores, but the plant is located three to four hundred yards from the water, and has no dock facilities. He stated he has no residence in the area, and has never had any contact with JACK LEON RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

TOPPINO stated that one of his employees had previously been interviewed concerning a similar allegation that OSWALD had landed at the Standard Oil docks at Key West, which are owned by his company, and possibly the rumor had traveled to his other plant at Marathon Shores by means of other employees. He stated that to his knowledge, none of his employees had ever had any contact with either RUBY or OSWALD.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent JAMES J. O'CONNOR, dated April 4, 1964, at Miami, Florida in the above caption, wherein JOHN V. MARTINO, Miami Beach, Florida, attributed various information regarding the activities of OSWALD in Miami and in Mexico to a Cuban source, whose identity he would not reveal. Information attributed by MARTINO to this source included an allegation that OSWALD had made a telephone call to the Cuban Intelligence Service in Cuba from a private residence in Miami, and that OSWALD had pamphlets of a pro-FIDEL CASTRO character printed in Miami, Florida, paying the printer by check drawn on the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. MARTINO, during the period March 21 to 31, 1964, was contacted on several occasions in an effort to elicit the identity of his Cuban source. He said he intended to solicit his source to consent to interview by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). He said he had been unable, however, to locate the source during that period.

A characterization of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) can be found in the Appendix of this memorandum.

On April 18, 1964, Mr. MARTINO was again contacted. He claimed his source was then in California, and that he had sent an airmail letter to his source on April 17, 1964, telling him to telephone on receipt of the letter relative to consent to FBI interview.

On April 22, 1964, Mr. MARTINO was recontacted and advised his source was then en route to Miami by car, and was expected to arrive on April 24, 1964.

COPIES DESTROYED

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

MARTINO indicated his source had left California prior to delivery of the letter, and that the party in California at whose home the source had stayed telephoned Mr. MARTINO, advising him of the departure of the source.

On April 27, 1964, Mr. MARTINO stated he still had not heard from his source, but had been talking to a Cuban friend at Miami, who informed him that the source and friends of the source, all of whom were traveling together from California, were coming to Miami for the purpose of joining the forces of the Movimiento de Recuperacion Revolucionario (MRR), an anti-CASTRO organization at Miami.

It was explained to Mr. MARTINO that inasmuch as it was essential that the allegations regarding OSWALD's activities be resolved, it might be deemed necessary that he (Mr. MARTINO) be called to appear before the President's Commission on the assassination of President KENNEDY. Mr. MARTINO said he could not be forced to reveal the identity of his source. He said he would be leaving on April 27, 1964, for several days, to fulfill lecture engagements in Boston, Minneapolis and Charleston, South Carolina, but that if his source contacted his home, his wife in turn would instruct his source to contact the FBI Office in Miami.

On May 1, 1964, ALFREDO BORGES, Executive Officer of the MRR at Miami, Florida, advised no one arriving from California had recently appeared at the offices of the MRR for the purpose of affiliating themselves with the organization, and he had no knowledge that individuals were being expected from California to join the forces of the MRR.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 6, 1964, Mr. JOHN V. MARTINO, who continues to reside at 2326 Alton Road, Miami Beach, Florida, advised that he had received no word from his source, and he believed his source had probably not yet arrived in Miami. He said he would continue his efforts to locate the source, and in the event he was unsuccessful, he would probably furnish the name of his source to the FBI in the matter of a week or so.

APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. Charles A. Santos-Buch identified himself and Robert Taber as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and Taber obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the afore-mentioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by Vincent "Ted" Lee, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed Lee has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, Lee has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. Lee feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Mrs. Dorothy Naccari, Export Division, U. S. Customs, Customs House, 423 Canal Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on April 27, 1964 that a search of the records of her agency reveals no ship listing of a ship called the "Cotton Queen". Miss Naccari said her records are only of vessels engaged in foreign commerce.

A. Trehan, Investigative Division, U. S. Coast Guard, Customs House, 423 Canal Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on April 27, 1964 that according to a booklet entitled "Merchant Vessels of the United States", published in 1963, by the Bureau of Customs, there is only one vessel named the "Cotton Queen" listed in these records. This vessel is listed as a "towing" vessel, #261523, owned by the Tennessee Towing Company of Louisville, Kentucky.

Don Edmondson, Edmondson Towing Company, Harvey, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on April 28, 1964, that to his knowledge the Tennessee Towing Company maintains no office in the New Orleans area, and he has never heard of a vessel named the "Cotton Queen".

A. J. Simmons, Streckfus Steamship Lines, Carondelet Building, 226 Carondelet Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on April 28, 1964 that his company operates vessels in the New Orleans area for tourists on trips of the Mississippi River and bayous; however, he has never heard of a vessel named the "Cotton Queen". He stated there is a vessel called the "Delta Queen" owned by Greene Lines, Inc., of Cincinnati, Ohio, which ship runs between Cincinnati and New Orleans, Louisiana, carrying passengers and is built on the style of the old river ships.

E. A. Martinez, Harbor Master, New Orleans Dock Board, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on April 23, 1964 that the records of his agency contained no information regarding any ship known as the "Cotton Queeen". He said he has personally never heard of any vessel by this name, and the records of his agency reflect that in 1964 the "Delta Queen", out of Cincinnati, Ohio, has arrived in New Orleans on only the following two dates: March 27, 1964, left March 30, 1964 and April 17, 1964, left April 20, 1964. He said that the "Delta Queen" was not in New Orleans during the Mardi Gras season, and that the only ships that were visiting New Orleans other than oceangoing vessels, who allowed visitors aboard, were U. S. Navy ships.

It should be noted that Mardi Gras day in New Orleans, Louisiana, was Tuesday, February 11, 1964 and for a week preceding this date Mardi Gras festivities were held.

SUBJECT: BRIEF ON FBI INVESTIGATION OF THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY

In connection with the captioned Brief prepared for the Director, there are attached the following revised pages which have been prepared in order to update the Brief.

Page 30. This page has been revised to include information received from Mr. James J. Rowley, Chief of Secret Service, to the effect that Secret Service would not have placed Oswald under surveillance during President Kennedy's visit to Dallas even if it had possessed information that Oswald was in Dallas, inasmuch as there was nothing in Oswald's background to indicate possible physical violence by him.

Also attached are a revised cover page dated 4-24-64 and pages 191, 191a, and 192 of the Index. Attached pages are for inclusion in Volume I and Volume II of the Director's copy of the Brief. Copies of the above pages are being furnished to other officials by ticklers.

The file indicated that ELSE (MARY) MICHAILOWITSCH had been assigned alien file number A 8320382.

The file contained a letter from DONALD L. BURT to INS dated 7/3/52, Fort Riley, Kansas. He enclosed address record cards of his wife, LYDIA BURT, and step-daughter, ELSE MICHAILOWITSCH. He stated that to that date, no alien registration number had been received by either of latter since their entry into the country on 6/4/52, and was inquiring re same.

On 5/8/64, Contact Representative ABE KRICHEFSKY, Central INS, WDC, advised IC ADDINGTON, that alien file number A8320382 for ELSE (MARY) MICHAILOWITSCH is charged to the District Office of INS, Kansas City, Missouri, as of 11/22/55.

The Kansas City Office is requested to immediately review Alien File A8320382 for ELSE (MARY) MICHAILOWITSCH, and furnish all background info contained therein to Bureau and Dallas.

It is felt a review of this file is pertinent since ELSE would now be 20 years old; further, since there is no indication of any previous marriage in INS file of LYDIA BURT, the possibility exists that she may have been adopted.

Dallas is requested to handle the reporting of WFO INS information if subsequently necessary.

Miami files contain letter by Legat, Madrid, to Bureau, 9/26/63, in caption BRAULIO JOAQUIN RICARDO CUESTA MARRERO, born 2/7/19, in Camaguey, Cuba, who is evidently identical with Dr. CUESTA at Clinton, Okla. Legat Letter contained no derogatory information on CUESTA.

Enclosed for Oklahoma City are FD-302, and cover letter both dated 4/21/64, at San Francisco, reflecting the interview of LEE DAUGHTERTY.

Oklahoma City at Clinton, Okla. interviewed Dr. BRAULIO CUESTA for basis and details of his purported knowledge that LEE HARVEY OSWALD went to Mexico , and met CASTRO Agents for instructions onhow to assassinate the President.

Other offices discontinue efforts to identify and locate the Cuban doctor destined for Oklahoma City.

Re New Orleans airtel to Bureau 4-29-64, and Dallas airtel 5-6-64, both pertaining to information furnished by LEE DAUGHERTY at Pebble Beach, California on 4-17-64.

Dr. BRAULIO J. CUESTA, Resident Physician, Oklahoma General Hospital, Clinton, Oklahoma, was located on 5-8-64 and interviewed briefly before being called away from interview to perform surgery. Dr. CUESTA furnished information which virtually positively identifies himself and Dr. JOSE HERNANDEZ, Western Tuberculosis Sanitarium, Clinton, as the two doctors who conversed with (LEE DAUGHERTY) an American male (name unrecalled by Dr. CUESTA) on an Eastern Airlines flight on or about 2-23-64.

Dr. CUESTA did enter the United States by way of Spain. He served an internship at St. Joseph's Hospital in Yonkers, N. Y. during 1941-45; however, he received his medical schooling in Cuba.

Dr. CUESTA stated Dr. JOSE HERNANDEZ and the unknown American (DAUGHERTY) did discuss the assassination of President KENNEDY during this flight. Dr. CUESTA stated to the best of his recollection, Dr. JOSE HERNANDEZ may have mentioned as his theory that LEE HARVEY OSWALD went to Mexico and met with some of CASTRO's agents, etc. Dr. CUESTA explained that Dr. HERNANDEZ speaks very broken English and one could easily have misunderstood his expression of circumstances as representing facts; whereas, they merely consisted of a theory expressed by Dr. HERNANDEZ.

Dr. CUESTA will be reinterviewed and Dr. JOSE HERNANDEZ interviewed at Clinton, Oklahoma, as soon as their schedules permit, for full facts.

Offices conducting investigation to identify the two Cuban doctors will discontinue that phase of their investigation.

PETER CASSISI, 12 Pleasantville Avenue, Ossining, New York, was interviewed on 5/1/64 by SA JAMES E. GORDON at Bronxville, New York. CASSISI, a Patrolman with the Bronxville, NY PD, was born 11/28/37 in Ossining, NY. He served in the US Marine Corps, 9/14/55 to 1/13/60. MSU #1568496. [redacted]

CASSISI was attached to Marine Air Control Squadron Number 1 at Atsugi, Japan, and served there from about 11/4/56 to 12/10/58. He recalled that OSWALD was attached to the same unit and he had a recollection that OSWALD was with the unit in November, 1957 and he believed OSWALD was still with the unit in December, 1958 when he, CASSISI, left Japan to return to the US.

CASSISI was assigned to a Transportation Unit as a mechanic and driver, while OSWALD was in a Radio Unit. The Radio Unit serviced radios used for radar sets and operated a radio relay station.

CASSISI pointed out that the men in the unit usually were close and stayed together both on duty and off duty.

CASSISI lived in a barracks which housed 72 men. OSWALD lived in the same barracks. The barracks was divided into cubicles by the arrangement of wall lockers. CASSISI was one of eight men in a cubicle, all of whom were assigned to Motor Transport. He does not recall the men who shared a cubicle with OSWALD but would assume that they were men from the Radio Section.

CASSISI stated that he had limited contact with OSWALD. Motor Transport drove radio men to duty in the radio shack and brought them back at the end of shifts. They also brought food to the radio shack from the mess hall. CASSISI probably drove OSWALD and others to the radio shack and occasionally saw him when he delivered food from the mess hall.

CASSISI stated he had absolutely no contact with OSWALD during off duty hours and had no recollection of ever having spent any time with him or associating with him in any way.

CASSISI had no recollection that OSWALD had any associates. He described him as an "odd" type, who appeared to like being alone. CASSISI had the impression that OSWALD used to go to Yokahoma occasionally during his off duty periods. On a few occasions, OSWALD returned to the barracks, after being on leave, in a completely drunken condition.

CASSISI said that he was sure of this because when someone came in and woke up every man in the barracks with his drunken shouting there was no doubt as to the identity of the person.

Other than this, CASSISI had no information as to OSWALD's activities during his off duty time. Other than on a few occasions when OSWALD appeared to be drunk, he was a very quiet person. CASSISI had no recollection that OSWALD was a fighter or was ever involved in any difficulties getting along with other men.

CASSISI said that OSWALD was very thin while in service. CASSISI did not immediately recognize OSWALD as a former Marine associate when his pictures were published after the assassination. It was only later that he realized that OSWALD was the same man he had served with in the USMC.

CASSISI had a vague recollection that an individual (FNU) (possibly RICHARD) CYR might possibly have associated with OSWALD in the Marine Corps. He pointed out that this was a very vague impression but it was the only name that came to his mind as a possible associate of OSWALD. He had no information as to the present wherabouts of CYR.

CASSISI stated that after an article appeared in "Life" magazine in February, 1964, in which his name was mentioned, he received a letter from a former associate in the USMC, SIDNEY S. ROBINSON. ROBINSON, in the letter, without being specific indicated that he had some recollection of OSWALD. ROBINSON, according to his letter, was to attend the Federal Aviation Agency's Academy in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and would be there until either June 20th or July 4, 1964.

Above interview with CASSISI will be set forth in report being prepared by NY.

Dallas review available information to determine if (FNU) CYR and SIDNEY S. ROBINSON have been interviewed. If not interviewed, determine desirability and set forth leads.

For information of Bureau and Dallas, CASSISI had no knowledge as to whereabouts of ALLEN FELDE or DONALD GOODWIN.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It appears that Lee Harvey Oswald first became acquainted with members of the so-called "Russian Community" in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area through his contacts with Mr. Peter Gregory and Mr. Max Clark of Ft. Worth. Mr. Clark testified that he thought that Oswald had obtained his name, as well as Mr. Gregory's, through the Ft. Worth office of the Texas Employment Commission.

Would you please verify Mr. Clark's testimony by interviews with the appropriate personnel of the Texas Employment Commission office in Ft. Worth. We would like to know the identity of the person or persons who provided Oswald with the names of Gregory and Clark and the reasons that they did so.

We are most appreciative of your continued cooperation with the Commission.

Dallas should immediately initiate investigation to develop the information requested by the President's Commission and submit letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination.

In conducting this investigation your attention is called to the fact that Max Clark's testimony appears to be at variance with information previously furnished by him to your office. Page 262 of Dallas report 11/30/63 contains information from Clark to the effect that when Oswald telephonically contacted Clark's wife, Oswald stated he had obtained Mrs. Clark's name through some contacts at the Fort Worth Public Library. Page 290 of that report contains information that Oswald claimed he obtained Peter (Paul) Gregory's name from some person at the Fort Worth Public Library.

If your inquiry at the Fort Worth office of the Texas Employment Commission fails to develop the information desired by the Commission, you should reinterview Max Clark and, thereafter, conduct inquiry at the Fort Worth Public Library in an effort to determine identity of person or persons who provided Oswald with the names of Gregory and Clark and the reasons therefor. OSWALD REVISITED

The assassination of President Kennedy may after all have been the work of Right Wing extremists, according to Mr. Thomas Buchanan, an American author and mathematician.

Mr. Buchanan says that the conspiracy was organized with the connivance of at least some of the police by Dallas oil millionaires, financiers of the John Birch Society. He believes that two gunmen, of whom Oswald was not one, fired at the President. Oswald's role was to assist one of the killers. He was then to be killed by Police Officer Tippitt and, as a known Communist sympathizer, be blamed for the assassination. But this plan misfired when Oswald was captured alive. The police then arranged for him to be killed by Ruby, who himself is now in danger of being killed.

Mr. Buchanan, whose conclusions are now before the Warren Commission set up by President Johnson to investigate the Kennedy murder, suggests that the murder could not have been the work of one man. The police say that three shots were fired all from the sixth floor room in the municipal warehouse in which Oswald worked; several people reported that they had heard four shots. No human could have fired four shots with Oswald's rifle in the five and a half seconds which the FBI say elapsed between the first and the last shot.

Mr. Buchanan suggests that some of the shots came from the railway bridge towards which the presidential car was driving. He argues that the official story that only three bullets were fired fails to explain the fact, if it be one, that two journalists saw a bullet hole in the car windscreen.

Moreover, he says that the official story of the President's throat wound — that it was caused by a bullet which first entered his back—fails to explain how a bullet following such a trajectory could have been fired from a sixth floor window. He concludes therefore that of four shots fired at least two were fired from the bridge.

Mr. Buchanan thinks that Oswald's part was to smuggle the gunman into the warehouse overnight, to bring him the gun in the morning, and to keep guard. This would explain the half-eaten meal left by the presumed assassin which the police say was left from the previous night, the half-smoked packet of cigarettes when Oswald did not smoke, and the fact that when arrested Oswald had no trace of gunpowder on his cheeks.

Mr. Buchanan says that, amazingly, at 12:35 p.m. Oswald was allowed by the police to leave the warehouse. At 12:36 p.m. a radio call was put out for his arrest with a detailed description. The police say that it had then realized that Oswald was the only employee missing. This, Mr. Buchanan says, means that in the space of one minute the police must have assembled all the 90 employees — which is plainly impossible. It is more likely, he suggests, that the description was issued as soon as Oswald had been allowed to leave the building—because that was the pre-arranged plan.

Oswald was to meet Tippitt, who, he had been told, would help him escape. In fact Tippitt was to make to arrest Oswald and then shoot him "in self - defense." Oswald must have become suspicious of a doublecross and shot Tippitt instead.

OKLAHOMA CITY DIVISION

AT OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA

Will locate and interview SIDNEY S. ROBINSON at Federal Aviation Agency's Academy in Oklahoma City for all information he possesses about OSWALD. Find out how well he knew OSWALD. Where were they assigned together? What was OSWALD's work in Marine Corps when ROBINSON knew him? Who was OSWALD's closest friend at that time? How did OSWALD spend his off-duty hours? Question ROBINSON thoroughly for his recollections of OSWALD. Also determine from ROBINSON if he knew an individual named CYR and obtain complete name and present location if possible.

ST. LOUIS DIVISION

Will review files at the Military Records Center for the name RICHARD CYR in an effort to locate his last known address and set forth lead for appropriate office to interview him along same lines as set out in lead for Oklahoma City.

Synopsis:

OSWALD received payroll checks from William B. Reily and Company, New Orleans, on Friday of each week during time he was employed. ROLAND J. MARTIN, Proprietor, Martin's Restaurant, New Orleans, identified one Texas Employment Commission Warrant and 10 checks of William B. Reily and Company as having been cashed at his restaurant. MARTIN charged 10¢ fee for each check cashed and does not cash personal checks. Employee of restaurant recalls OSWALD eating lunch alone and usually ordered a hamburger and soft drink. Manager, Winn-Dixie Store #1425, New Orleans, identified five Texas Employment Commission Warrants and one William B. Reily and Company check as having been cashed at his store and no fee charged for cashing these checks. Manager did not know if OSWALD had attempted to cash other checks nor did he know how often OSWALD visited the store. Manager of Winn-Dixie Store #1404, New Orleans, identified one Texas Employment Commission Warrant as being cashed at his store. No fee charged for cashing this check and indications are that OSWALD used Marine Corps Card for identification. Manager did not know if OSWALD had attempted to cash other checks nor did he know if OSWALD had made any purchases or how many times OSWALD may have visited his store. Manager, Winn-Dixie Store #1439, New Orleans, identified two Texas Employment Commission Warrants as having been cashed at his store. No fee charged for cashing checks. Manager recalled OSWALD attempting to cash check in either May or June, 1963, which Manager refused to cash and could not recall how often OSWALD was in store. Employee of Winn-Dixie Store #1439 recalls OSWALD in store at least several times a week to purchase milk and bread. Another employee of Store #1439 recalls OSWALD and wife in store about twice a week during Summer of 1963.

ROLAND J. MARTIN, Proprietor, Martin's Restaurant, 701 Tchoupitoulas Street, New Orleans, identified the following checks as having been cashed in his restaurant:

Texas Employment Commission Warrant

Number	Amount
G281852	$66.00

William B. Reily and Company, Inc. Checks

Number	Amount
1079	$53.72
1274	$53.72
1486	$55.59
1684	$52.97
1941	$53.72
1995	$53.72
2185	$53.72

He said that normally employees of the William B. Reily Company were not required to exhibit identification in order to cash a check at his restaurant. He charged a 10¢ fee for each check cashed. He advised that he had not cashed any other checks for OSWALD since he does not cash personal checks for anyone. He only cashes payroll checks and unemployment checks.

He advised that he did not know if OSWALD attempted to cash any other checks in his restaurant because he does not recall OSWALD at all. He said that his brother-in-law, ANTHONY MARTIN or his wife, Mrs. ROSE MARTIN, remember that OSWALD used to eat lunch there but that he, himself, cannot place him. Mr. MARTIN said that he understood from speaking to his wife or brother-in-law that OSWALD spent about 50¢ a day for lunch and he does not know how often OSWALD visited his establishment. Mr. MARTIN could furnish no further information regarding expenditures made by OSWALD.

ANTHONY MARTIN, Martin's Restaurant, 701 Tchoupitoulas Street, advised that he remembers seeing OSWALD eat lunch in the restaurant and recalled that he always sat by himself. He usually ordered a hamburger and a soft drink for lunch and would normally be in the restaurant from about 11:30 to 11:45 AM almost daily. He said that a hamburger costs 35¢ and a soft drink 8¢ and that this was the usual expenditure made by OSWALD for his lunch.

ANTHONY MARTIN did not recall cashing any checks for OSWALD and said that the only time he saw OSWALD in the restaurant was when he came there for lunch.

Mr. J. D. FUCHS, Manager, Winn-Dixie Store #1425, 4303 Magazine Street, identified the following checks as having been cashed at his store:

Texas Employment Commission Warrants

Number	Amount
G246347	$33.00
G323653	$33.00
G353037	$33.00
G421381	$33.00
G459698	$33.00

William B. Reily and Company, Inc., Check

Mr. FUCHS advised that either he or his assistant, J. S. GUILLOT approved these checks for cashing. He said that no fee was charged for cashing these checks. Mr. FUCHS advised that he did not know if any other checks were cashed for OSWALD, but he doubts that there were. He said that a person cashing a check would have to have some form of identification such as a Social Security Card. He said that OSWALD did not have a Winn-Dixie Courtesy Card which would permit him to cash checks at the store because if he had a courtesy card, the front of the check would bear the number of the Winn-Dixie Courtesy Card. FUCHS advised that he did not know whether or not OSWALD had attempted to cash any other checks at his store. He stated that he did not know whether or not OSWALD made any purchases at his store and said that he had checked with each one of his employees including all his cashiers, and that none of them remember OSWALD being a customer in the store. He advised that he did not know how often OSWALD actually visited the store and could furnish no other information concerning OSWALD's expenditures.

Mr. R. W. MASSEY, Manager, Winn-Dixie Store #1404, 3920 South Carrollton Avenue identified Texas Employment Commission Warrant #G386726 in the amount of $33.00 as being cashed at his store. He said that actually the check was approved for cashing by HENRY H. MURPHY, SR., a clerk, but in all probability, MURPHY obtained his, MASSEY's, authorization to cash the check. He said that no charge was made for cashing the check and noted that the front of the check bore the notation USM Card 1653230. He advised that this indicated to him that OSWALD had used his Marine Corps Card as identification in order to cash the check. He said if OSWALD had used a Winn-Dixie Courtesy Card that the number of the courtesy card would have been placed on the front of the check. He said that he did not know if OSWALD had cashed any other checks at his store, however, he does know that OSWALD did not fill out an application for a courtesy card at his store because he checked these records and could find no application in the name of OSWALD. He stated that he did not know if OSWALD had attempted to cash any other checks at his store. He informed that he did not know if OSWALD had made any purchases at his store however, he thought that probably OSWALD had made a small purchase when he cashed the above Texas Employment Commission Warrant since he doubts seriously if MURPHY would have okayed the check for cashing if OSWALD had not made any purchase.

Mr. MASSEY was unable to state the number of times OSWALD may have visited his store. He said that he had checked with all of his employees and that none of them recall seeing OSWALD.

He was unable to furnish any further information concerning OSWALD's expenditures.

ROBERT TEMPLET, Manager, Winn-Dixie Store #1439, 4901 Prytania Street, identified the following checks as having been cashed at his store:

Texas Employment Commission Warrants

Number	Amount
F819610	$33.00

He said the first check was approved by him for cashing and the second check was approved by Mrs. RHEA DRAGO. He said that no charge was made by the store for cashing these checks and that he did not know of any other checks cashed by his store for OSWALD. Mr. TEMPLET recalled that OSWALD had tried to cash a check which he thought was issued by a coffee company in New Orleans in the amount of approximately $56.00 in either May or June, 1963. He refused to approve the check for cashing at which time be gave OSWALD an application for a courtesy card which would permit him to cash checks at the store. He stated that he had searched his records but was unable to find the application. He said that he thought that OSWALD had made purchases at the store but he himself, was unable to state how often or in what amount. He was unable to furnish any further information concerning OSWALD's expenditures.

She stated that their purchases usually amounted to about $5.00 and as best as she can recall, these purchases were made about twice a week.

A review of the results of interviews of former Marine Corps associates of Lee Harvey Oswald has been made at the Bureau. Thirty-six men, both officers and enlisted men, who were in a position to know Oswald have been interviewed. Most of these men who recalled him knew him when he was at Marine Air Control Squadron 9 (MACS-9), Santa Ana, California, just prior to his discharge. Eight men have been interviewed who knew him when he was assigned overseas in 1957 and 1958. Two have been interviewed who knew him when he attended the service schools at Jacksonville, Florida, and Biloxi, Mississippi, in 1957. Although the names of other former Marine Corps associates who might have known Oswald have been received, the Bureau does not believe it desirable or necessary to interview all of these men. However, interviews with some of these men should be conducted because of allegations indicating they had some special reason for recalling Oswald.

For example, a careful review of Bureau files fails to disclose that former Marine Corps Lieutenant Michael Anthony DePadro was ever interviewed, yet three enlisted men who recalled Oswald at MACS-9, Buddy Allen Sinco, Nelson Delgado and Erwin Donald Lovis, all mentioned Lieutenant DePadro as a man who was upset by the literature Oswald was receiving and who questioned him regarding this. According to records at Military Personnel Records Center, DePadro's last known address (1959) was 1512 S.E. 10th Street, Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He was born 5/12/33 at Chicago, Illinois. Since it appears some efforts were made to locate DePadro, Dallas advise if he was interviewed and where results reported. If it appears he has not been interviewed, set forth appropriate leads.

Also, Bureau files fail to disclose that Robert Demurs and Jerry E. Pitts were ever interviewed. According to Peter Francis Connor, 27 Plaum Drive, West Haven, Connecticut, who was stationed with Oswald at MACS-1, Atsugi, Japan, in 1957 and 1958, Oswald was in "a few fights" there, one with Robert Demurs. According to Connor, Demurs was believed to be from Lewiston, Maine.

Connor also furnished information that a close friend of his, Jerry E. Pitts, Memphis, Tennessee, apparently furnished his, Connor's, name to the press in Memphis, Tennessee, as a person who knew Lee Harvey Oswald. From what Connor said, it is possible Pitts also knew Oswald.

With regard to Demurs and Pitts, St. Louis should review records at Military Personnel Records Center for their last known addresses and set forth leads for appropriate offices to locate and interview them for all information concerning Oswald.

Results of all interviews should be set forth in report form.

NOTE:
Because it is believed a representative number of former Marine Corps associates of Oswald's has been interviewed, it is not deemed necessary to interview all men who allegedly might have known him. However, it is felt that where it is alleged a man might have a special reason for recalling Oswald, that then he should be interviewed. Such is the case regarding DePadro, Demurs and Pitts.

The following investigation was conducted on 5/5/64 by SA GEORGE W. HUTCHISON:

The Louisville telephone directory lists a Tennessee Towing Company, Memphis, Tennessee, giving a mobile radio telephone number.

Mrs. RITA HOFELICH, U.S. Coast Guard, Louisville, Kentucky, telephonically advised that a directory of Merchant Vessels of the U.S. listed the Cotton Queen as an oil screw tow boat whose home port was Louisville, Kentucky. Mrs. HOFELICH located the address for the Tennessee Towing Company as Post Office Box 612, Cattletsburg, Kentucky.

Lee Harvey Oswald

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of April 30, 1964, requesting that this Bureau interview Miss Yaeko Okui.

Enclosed for the Commission are two copies of a memorandum dated May 6, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, which sets forth results of our interview on May 5, 1964, with Miss Yaeko Okui. Your attention is directed to page two of the enclosed memorandum which reports that Miss Okui advised she was employed by Nippon Service, Incorporated, New York, New York, under the direct supervision of Mr. Michio Kushi, President of that company, until her return to Dallas in August, 1962. Miss Okui stated that she returned to Dallas, Texas, at the request of Mr. Kushi to act as the Southwestern representative for Nippon Service, Incorporated.

For your information, we are contacting Mr. Michio Kushi to determine the circumstances under which Miss Okui came to Dallas and to obtain additional information Mr. Kushi may possess as to the background of Miss Okui. Results of our interview with Mr. Kushi will be promptly furnished to the Commission upon receipt.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

NOTE:

Lee Harvey Oswald attended a Christmas-New Year's party December 28-30, 1962, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Declan Ford in Dallas. We learned through our investigation a Japanese woman was at such party and conversed with Oswald. Such Japanese woman has been identified as Yaeko Okui. At request of the President's Commission we interviewed Miss Okui and determined that she did attend the party in question and did have a conversation with Oswald concerning Japanese culture and art. Miss Okui indicated this was her only contact with Oswald and the only reason she recalls such conversation is because of the notoriety involved in Oswald's assassination of President Kennedy. Commission in its letter of 4/30/64 requested we identify Miss Okui's employer who sent her to Dallas and determine circumstances surrounding such assignment. This has been done and it appears her residence in Dallas was strictly in a business capacity. We have developed no information indicating Okui involved in any way with Oswald.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On December 7, 1963, Captain O. A. JONES, Forgery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised that a student named "DIRK" at the University of Dallas, several days prior to the publication of the same news in the United States newspapers, received a copy of the Munich Free Press, a German-language newspaper, which stated that Mrs. MARINA OSWALD had stated that her husband had admitted to her that he had taken a shot at General EDWIN WALKER.

According to Captain JONES, the Munich Free Press newspaper reportedly had contacted General WALKER in Louisiana and WALKER had stated that OSWALD had taken a shot at him. According to Captain JONES, a Dr. KUBEK on the staff at the University of Dallas was believed to be the source of the above information.

On December 10, 1963, [redacted] University of Dallas, Post Office Box 1339, Dallas, Texas, advised that the student named "DIRK" is actually DIRK THOMAS KUNERT. She stated that KUNERT is a German exchange student who is attending the University of Dallas on a scholarship. She described him as a student who is very egotistical. She made available her file on DIRK THOMAS KUNERT, which revealed the following information:

Home address, Kuppersheide 8, 43 Essenbredemy, Germany; date of birth June 25, 1941, Kiel, Germany; religion, protestant; father, GERD KUNERT, same address as above.

[redacted] advised that the records reflect that KUNERT attended the University of Hamburg from 1961 to 1963 and listed the following references:

The records reflect that KUNERT was admitted to the University of Dallas on September 16, 1963, and he indicated that his major would be in Liberal Arts and Sciences.

On February 14, 1964, Mrs. RAMONA FLORES, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Dallas, Texas, made available her file concerning DIRK THOMAS KUNERT. It reflects that his alien registration number is A 13-530-112 and was born June 25, 1941, at Kiel, Germany. He was admitted to the United States at New York City on September 11, 1963. As of November 5, 1963, he was registered for a full course of study at the University of Dallas, Dallas, Texas. He had been awarded a scholarship or a grant in the sum of $1,230.00 per year until June 1964. He claimed support by private financial means, which was not otherwise identified. A friend or relative in the United States was indicated as a Dr. ANTHONY KUBEK, 1513 Park Place, Irving, Texas. His local address was shown as University of Dallas, Post Office Box 1330, Dallas 21, Texas.

On May 4, 1964, [redacted] University of Dallas, advised that KUNERT was still attending the University of Dallas and residing on the campus.

The President's Commission has indicated the necessity for making public the FBI investigative reports which have been furnished to the Commission and which detailed our investigation of Oswald prior to the assassination. The Commission pointed out that these reports made a powerful case for the FBI in that they reveal nothing was uncovered during that investigation to indicate the capability of Oswald to assassinate the President.

These reports and letters are as follows:

(1) Report of Special Agent John W. Fain dated 5-12-60 at Dallas captioned "Funds Transmitted to Residents of Russia, IS - R." This report was classified "Confidential" as it disclosed the FBI's investigative interest in persons in the U. S. who transmitted funds to residents of Russia. Declassification of this report at this time would not seriously jeopardize the Bureau's interest and this report contains no information which would result in embarrassment to the Bureau if it is made public.

(2) Bureau letter to Office of Security, State Department dated 6-3-60. This letter referred to a State Department Foreign Service Dispatch concerning Oswald's renunciation of his American citizenship at the U. S. Embassy, Moscow, and requested the State Department to furnish any current information State possessed concerning Oswald. There are no objections to publicizing information contained in this letter.

(3) Bureau letter to Office of Security, State Department, dated 2-27-61, captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, IS - R." This letter advised State that information had been received from the Office of Naval Intelligence that Oswald had been given an undesirable discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve and requested any additional information contained in the files of State Department be furnished to the Bureau. There are no objections to publicizing information contained in this letter.

(4) Report of Special Agent John W. Fain dated 7-3-61 at Dallas captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, IS - R." This report was classified "Confidential" in order to protect our Legat operations as it contains information obtained from the Swiss Federal Police (concealed by T symbol) by Legat, Paris, and because it referred to information obtained from two Dallas confidential informants. This report was declassified at the time it was previously furnished to the Commission as disclosure of information in this report would not jeopardize Bureau operations or adversely affect Bureau's informant coverage. Page nine of this report contains information from Mrs. James E. Although Mrs. Taylor at the time she furnished this information on 6-28-61 did not request her identity be concealed, she might object to this information being made public. This report contains no other information to prevent its being made public. This is merely your assumption. H

(5) Report of Special Agent John W. Fain dated 7-10-62 at Dallas captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, IS - R." This report was classified "Confidential" as it contains information from Navy which is so classified. That information concerned Oswald's having been given an undesirable discharge. Since this information is now public knowledge, this report was declassified at the time it was previously made available to the Commission. This report contains results of our several reviews of State Department records as well as information obtained from other U. S. Government agencies' records and results of our first interview with Oswald. There would not appear to be any objections to this report being made public.

(6) Report of Special Agent John W. Fain dated 8-30-62 at Dallas captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, IS - R." This report was classified "Confidential" as it contained results of our contact with two confidential informants familiar with Communist Party activities at Fort Worth concerning subject. This report was declassified at the time it was previously furnished to the Commission as disclosure of its contents would not adversely affect Bureau's informant coverage. This report contains results of our reinterview with subject and background data concerning Marina Oswald as obtained from Immigration and Naturalization Service records. There would be no objections to this report being made public.

(7) Report of Special Agent James P. Hosty, Jr., dated 9-10-63 at Dallas captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, IS - R." This report revealed information that subject was a subscriber to "The Worker," an East Coast communist newspaper, and that on 4-21-63 subject was in contact with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) in New York.

Although this latter information was obtained from an anonymous source, the information is paraphrased in such a manner that this source is protected. Attached to this report is a current Bureau approved documentation of the FPCC, the accuracy of which has been verified by the New York Office. There would be no objections to this report being made public.

(8) Report of SA Warren C. De Brueys dated 10-25-63 at New Orleans captioned "Fair Play for Cuba Committee - New Orleans Division, IS - Cuba; RA - Cuba." This report contains a current documentation for the FPCC, Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, and for Corliss Lamont. New York has verified the accuracy of these documentations. No objections to making public.

(9) Report of SA Milton R. Kaack dated 10-31-63 at New Orleans captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, IS - R." This report was classified "Confidential" as it contained security information from current informants. This report was declassified at the time it was previously furnished to the Commission, as disclosure of its contents would not adversely affect the Bureau's informant coverage. Page three of this report contained information from an anonymous source, however, public disclosure of this information would not jeopardize that source since this information could have come from a live informant. This report also contained current documentations for the FPCC, the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, and for Corliss Lamont, all three of which New York has verified as to their accuracy.

(10) The Commission referred to the report of SA James R. Hosty, Jr., dated 12-11-63 at Dallas captioned "Ruth Hyde Paine" as containing additional investigation conducted by the Bureau concerning Oswald immediately prior to the assassination, consisting of interviews with Mrs. Paine. The Commission noted that this information is duplicated in the report of SA Warren C. De Brueys dated 12-2-63, Dallas. The Commission expressed the desire to make public Hosty's report of 12-11-63 rather than De Brueys' report of 12-2-63, in view of the tremendous volume of the latter report (737 pages) most of which consists of information developed subsequent to the assassination. Public disclosure of Hosty's report dated 12-11-63 could create some real problems for the Bureau. For example, page three contains information from Mrs. Paine's brother, Dr. Carl D. Hyde, to the effect that Ruth Paine was experiencing marital difficulties. Page four contains information from Dr. Hyde that all members of his family, including himself, were "tolerant of others' point of view" and explained by this he meant that, should a person make it known that he is a communist and not engaged in subversion, they would not feel duty-bound to advise authorities of this person's views. Included in this report and covered by a T symbol was information furnished by the Columbus Regional Office, 109th Counterintelligence Corps, in December, 1952, that Mrs. Carol Hyde, Mrs. Paine's mother, had admitted to neighbors that she was a communist. No further clarification of that statement is contained in this report, however during an SGE investigation of Sylvia Hoke, sister of Ruth Paine, in 1956 - 1957, no information was developed to verify that Mrs. Carol Hyde was a communist. Some persons interviewed reported that Mrs. Carol Hyde was suffering from a mental ailment. Reports concerning Sylvia Hoke have been furnished to the Commission. SA Hosty's report of 12-11-63 also includes a statement from a Mrs. Joan Barker, a neighbor of Mrs. Carol Hyde, that in 1960 Carol Hyde had been committed to a sanitarium as a mental patient by her ex-husband. We have not verified that Mrs. Hyde was, in fact, committed. Page nine of this report reveals that in 1953 we conducted a Conscientious Objector investigation concerning Carl D. Hyde. This report shows that he based his objections to military service on religious convictions and beliefs. Although this report does not reveal results of that Conscientious Objector investigation the Bureau's file in that matter disclosed that persons interviewed expressed the belief that Carl D. Hyde's objections to military service were legitimate. The reports prepared during that investigation have been furnished to the Commission. This report also contains a documentation of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. That documentation disclosed that on 5-8-40 information was received that this organization was suspected of being a communist front organization. The most recent information contained in that documentation is dated 5-16-57 from another informant to the effect that, while the Communist Party in Cincinnati had expressed an interest in this organization, that interest did not exist at that time and that the Communist Party was making no attempts to infiltrate or control that organization.

(12) The Commission also requested clearance to make available to the public the following reports and Bureau communications:

(a) Reports of SA John R. Wineberg dated 12-10-63 and 2-12-64 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. These reports set forth results of our interviews with Joseph Goulden, reporter "Philadelphia Inquirer" newspaper concerning a story Goulden reported in his newspaper inferring that FBI had approached Oswald to be informant. Goulden refused to disclose his source for such scurrilous allegation and denied that he had furnished any information along such line to Lonnie Hudkins, reporter for the Houston "Post" who also reported in his newspaper a story indicating FBI had contacted Oswald to become informant. There is no objection making either of these reports public.

(b) This is a letter to the Commission from the Bureau dated 2-11-64 setting forth results of interview with Lonnie Hudkins concerning an article Hudkins reported in the Houston "Post" 1-1-64 entitled "Oswald Rumored as Informant for U. S." Hudkins indicated his story was based on information he received from Assistant District Attorney

William Alexander in Dallas. He refused to name another source who allegedly indicated Oswald was on payroll of either FBI or Central Intelligence Agency. Hudkins stated that even if he were called to appear before the President's Commission, he would decline to furnish source of his information. Hudkins also claimed to have received information from Joe Golden, a reporter for the "Philadelphia Inquirer," to the effect that Golden indicated Oswald was a symbol number informant. There is no objection to having results of our interview with Hudkins put in the public record.

(c) This is a letter to the Commission from the Bureau dated 2-13-64 reporting that we had interviewed Joseph Goulden of the "Philadelphia Inquirer" and that Goulden denied furnishing any information to Hudkins to the effect that Oswald was an FBI informant. There is no objection to making this letter public.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

We are now approaching the very delicate and crucial stage in the Commission's analysis of the Oswald case. It goes without saying that we must weigh with extreme care every request now made of us by this Commission. This memorandum has been prepared because the Commission has indicated the necessity of making public the FBI investigative reports which have been furnished the Commission and which detailed our investigation of Oswald prior to the assassination.

It is definitely not in the Bureau's interest to have these investigative reports made public as they are raw material and not prepared for public examination. We will remember the flood of comment, speculation, etc., following the publication in the court records of some of our reports in the Judith Coplon case which likewise were not prepared for public consumption. These reports do tend to reveal some of our investigative techniques and will reveal information furnished to our Agents which, although not stated to be furnished in confidence would probably not have been furnished if the person interviewed thought the information would be made public. Examples of this are statements regarding Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, the marital difficulties of Ruth Paine, Mrs. Paine's mother admitting she was a communist, Mrs. Carol Hyde suffering from a mental ailment, etc. The publication of the WFO airtel of 11-19-63, in light of the current Congressional interest in mail covers, could well result in criticism of the Post Office Department and the loss of Post Office Department cooperation in highly delicate investigative techniques.

I don't share your concern about these matters.

SECRET

Despite the above, it is recommended that Mr. Belmont and Mr. Malley advise Mr. Rankin that as previously stated we have no desire to restrict the activities of the Commission in any way and the decision as to whether these documents are introduced in the record is the decision for the Commission to make. At the same time we will point out, as indicated above, the criticism that can arise some of which, of course, will be directed to the Commission and the Commission should be prepared to stand up to this. With reference to the WFO airtel of 11-19-63 we should frankly point out that this will cause real investigative problems and explore whether this cannot be handled in another way such as the introduction of the letter itself as furnished by the Soviet Embassy following the assassination.

Special Service Bureau
Dallas Police Department

Sir:

On November 22, 1963 I was present and accompaning Lieutenant Jack Revill in the basement of the City of Dallas, City Hall located at 2000 Main Street. Lieutenant Revill and myself along with several other Officers had just completed searching the Texas School Book Depository from which Lee Harvey Oswald assasinated the President of the United States, Lieutenant Revill and myself were enroute to the Special Service Bureau Office.

Upon entering the basement of the City Hall Lieutenant Revill and myself met Federal Bureau of Investigation Agent Hosty who had already parked his car and was walking very fast toward the entrance of the City Hall from the parking area. At this time Agent Hosty made the statement that Lee Oswald had killed the President and that Oswald was a Communist. Hosty also said that he knew that Oswald was a Communist and that he knew Oswald was working at the School Book Depository.

While we were in the basement Hosty also said several things to Lieutenant Revill that I could not hear as there was a lot of excitment and commotion there.

Lieutenant Revill and myself then accompanied Hosty to Captain Fritz's office and Lieutenant Revill introduced Hosty to Lieutenant Ted Wells. We, Lieutenant Revill and myself then went to the Special Service Bureau Office where Lieutenant Revill made a Report of the incident and turned the report into Captain W. P. Gannaway who is in Charge.

Sir:

On November 22, 1963, at approximately 2:50PM, the undersigned officer met Special Agent James Hosty of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the basement of the City Hall.

At that time Special Agent Hosty related to this officer that the Subject was a member of the Communist Party, and that he was residing in Dallas.

The Subject was arrested for the murdor of Officer J.D. Tippit and is a prime suspect in the assassination of President Kennedy.

The information regarding the Subject's affiliation with the Communist Party is the first information this officer has received from the Federal Bureau of Investigation regarding same.

Agent Hosty further stated that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was aware of the Subject and that they had information that this Subject was capable of committing the assassination of President Kennedy.

SUBJECT: THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

Yesterday, former SA John Fain, and SAs John Quigley and James Hosty reported to the offices of the Commission on the President's Assassination, for the purpose of going over their proposed testimony with the Commission staff members. Inspector Malley and I sat in, particularly as the Commission has asked me to testify on Wednesday morning, 5/6/64.

Mr. Stern of the staff conducted the questioning, which consisted of going over the investigation conducted by these agents relative to Oswald, with considerable stress on the interviews of Oswald by Fain and Quigley, and their impressions of Oswald. Both of them stated there was no indication that Oswald possessed a potential for violence.

In connection with SA Hosty, Mr. Stern went into his handling of the case in Dallas, including his reopening of the case in March, 1963, and subsequent interviews with Mrs. Paine, and the location of Oswald. Mr. Stern also talked to Hosty regarding his conversations with members of the Dallas PD and Sorrels of Secret Service, subsequent to the assassination.

Hosty identified his affidavit denying that he had made the statements attributed to him, and reiterated that he had not made such statements. All three agents flatly stated that they had no information regarding potential violence on the part of Oswald, and if they had possessed such information, in accordance with Bureau instructions they would have seen that it was sent to Secret Service immediately upon receipt. As a matter of fact, Hosty told Stern that about a week or ten days prior to the assassination, the Dallas SAC, at a conference of agents, instructed that any information of possible threats to the President or Vice President be furnished immediately to Secret Service. Again on the morning of 11/22/63, the SAC reiterated to all agents that any such information must go immediately to Secret Service. Hosty said that, while there was no basis to furnish any information about Oswald, he did participate in the preparation of one memorandum which was sent to Secret Service, and he actually delivered leaflets to Secret Service which had been distributed on the streets of Dallas.

Mr. Tolson

Last night, following the Director's approval, Volume I of the Oswald file was shown to Mr. Stern of the Commission and was compared, serial by serial, with the list briefly describing the contents of the file which we prepared in letter form to Rankin yesterday afternoon. Stern appeared well satisfied and, in accordance with his request, I will take the file with me to the Commission hearing to answer any further questions they may have and to make it clear that we are not hiding anything.

Last night, Mr. Stern advised he had talked to Mr. Rankin and they suggested that Malley and I attend the hearing on 5/5/64 when the agents testified, so that I would be in a position to explain any policy questions that might arise which the agents could not answer. Stern said that Rankin and he proposed that I be put under oath, along with the agents, and thus be in a position to participate where necessary. I told him I would be glad to do this.

This morning, however, when we reported to the Commission offices, Mr. Rankin came out of the hearing room and advised that the Chief Justice did not consider it advisable for Malley and me to be in the hearing, as this would indicate that we were supervising the agents while they testified. I told Mr. Rankin this was the prerogative of the Chief Justice, and that I would stand by in case any questions arose.

Former SA Fain testified this morning, and he advised me that it was along the same lines as the rehearsal with Mr. Stern yesterday. During his testimony Mr. Rankin came out and apologized for the fact that I was kept waiting. I told him that I was completely at the disposal of the Commission. Following Fain's testimony, Mr. Stern came out and said the Commission wished to excuse me for the remainder of the day, to report back in the morning, and if any questions arose as a result of the testimony of Quigley and Hosty, he would let me know.

Last night, Mr. Stern brought over copies of the affidavits of Lt. Revill and Detective Brian, of the Dallas PD, which we had requested several days ago and which we again asked for yesterday. They are attached. It is noted that they differ considerably from the newspaper account in the Dallas News. However, Revill's affidavit, in the last paragraph, quotes Hosty as stating that the FBI had information that Oswald was capable of committing the assassination of President Kennedy. Brian's affidavit does not go this far, although Brian says, as does Revill, that Hosty related that Oswald was a communist.

In discussing this with Stern, we pointed out that Hosty had already submitted a sworn affidavit denying that he had said or that he possessed information that Oswald was capable of assassinating the President. Agent Hosty will be questioned, during his testimony, concerning his alleged statements to Lt. Revill and Detective Brian, and Hosty was therefore shown these copies of the affidavits, for his assistance.

On the way out from the Commission offices I ran into Congressman Ford, who had been present, and we chatted briefly about the weather. Congressman Ford mentioned to me that he thought the hearing was going along well.

For information.

Mexico City cable No. 544 dated 4/13/64, which recorded data requested by Presidential Commission Representatives.

ADMINISTRATIVE

On 4/11/64, while at the Legat's Office, U. S. Embassy, Mexico, D. F., W. DAVID SLAWSON and other Representatives of the Presidential Commission inquired concerning the exact time of arrival, if available, of the Flecha Roja bus No. 516 on which OSWALD arrived in Mexico City on 9/27/63. In this connection inquiry also was made as to whether or not Flecha Roja buses cross the International Bridge at Nuevo Laredo, State of Tamaulipas, Mexico, in order to pick up passengers in Laredo, Texas, and deliver them thereto.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

A confidential source abroad has advised that the baggage manifest of bus No. 516 of the "Servicios Unidos Autobuses Blancos Flecha Roja, S. A. de C. V.," (The Unified Services of White Autobuses Red Arrow, Incorporated) commonly referred to as the Flecha Roja bus line, which departed from Nuevo Laredo, State of Tamaulipas, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, and arrived in Mexico, D. F., (D. F. refers to "Distrito Federal" - Federal District or the Mexican Federal Capital) the following day included as a passenger thereon the name of "LEE HARVEY OSWALD."

According to source, several persons who traveled on that bus as passengers have definitely identified photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as being of a young American who was a passenger thereon.

TIME OF ARRIVAL OF FLECHA ROJA BUS NO. 516 AT MEXICO, D. F., ON SEPTEMBER 27, 1963

A second confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On April 16, 1964, JULIO CASTRO, employee of the accounting department in the offices of the Flecha Roja bus line located at Heroes Ferrocarrileros No. 45, Mexico, D. F., made available the ledger of arrivals at Mexico, D. F., for the Flecha Roja bus line. This ledger contains separate entries for each day, recording the exact time of arrival of each bus in Mexico, D. F., at the terminal.

CONFIDENTIAL

Group 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

Declassified 10/30/97

COPIES DESTROYED
21 JAN 26 1972

These records disclosed that bus No. 516 of the Flecha Roja bus line, on which LEE HARVEY OSWALD reportedly traveled from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., on September 26-27, 1963, arrived in Mexico, D. F., at the Flecha Roja bus terminal, Heroes Ferrocarrileros No. 45, at 10:00 AM on September 27, 1963.

JULIO CASTRO advised that Flecha Roja bus No. 516, which departed from Nuevo Laredo, State of Tamaulipas, Mexico, at 2:00 PM, September 26, 1963, had a scheduled arrival in Mexico, D. F., of 9:45 AM, September 27, 1963, but, according to the entry in the ledger book, this bus was late in arriving at Mexico, D. F. He mentioned that the buses from Nuevo Laredo often arrive well in advance of their official schedules.

CASTRO made available another record contained in the office files of the Flecha Roja bus line which is captioned "Control de Llegada" (Arrival Control) and which registers the mechanical condition of a bus upon arrival in Mexico, D. F. This record revealed that upon arrival in Mexico, D. F., on September 27, 1963, one of the operators of bus No. 516 in the portion of the form captioned "condition of the bus" had made the notation "arreglar suspension" (repair suspension). A blank space on this form for time of arrival had not been filled out. CASTRO stated that the notation made by one of the bus operators at the completion of the trip to Mexico, D. F., possibly would explain the reason that bus No. 516 was behind schedule.

CROSSING OF INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE AT NUEVO LAREDO, STATE OF TAMAULIPAS, MEXICO, BY FLECHA ROJA BUS LINE

On April 16, 1964, JULIO CASTRO furnished information concerning the crossing of the International Bridge between Nuevo Laredo, State of Tamaulipas, Mexico, and Laredo, Texas, by the Flecha Roja equipment as follows:

There are two trips daily by the Flecha Roja bus line which leave Mexico, D. F., for Nuevo Laredo, but with a final terminal point of Laredo, Texas. This schedule was in effect in September, 1963. On both of these trips the Flecha Roja buses cross the International Bridge over the "Rio Bravo del Norte" (Rio Grande River) between Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, and Laredo, Texas, with the buses stopping in Laredo where they discharge passengers and also pick up new passengers in Laredo for the return trip into Mexico with Mexico, D. F., as the final terminal point.

CASTRO advised that on the return trip to Mexico, D. F., Flecha Roja bus No. 516 had a scheduled departure from Laredo, Texas, on September 26, 1963, of 1:30 PM, arriving in Nuevo Laredo a few minutes later, with departure from Nuevo Laredo for the trip to Mexico, D. F., scheduled for 2:00 PM.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following investigation was conducted concerning two traveling bags believed to have been the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, which have been designated Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254. These articles are described as follows:

A-1 is a cloth zipper bag, blue in color, with black plastic stripings and two plastic handles. This bag has a zipper at the top and on one side. It measures approximately 21" long, by 11" high, by 9 1/2" wide. There are no markings on this bag.

Exhibit C-254 is a cloth bag, green in color, known as a "Bee 4" bag. It measures approximately 24" long, by 18" high, by 11" wide. Exhibit C-254 has markings in yellow on one side of the bag. These markings are the date "3/26" and an unreadable mark above the numeral "26" which may be an initial.

On the top portion of C-254 are two fragments of what appear to be bus company stickers and a small decal believed to be the trademark of the bag. The printing on the fragments of the stickers is red in color and the fragment located above the decal appears to be a form of the Continental Trailways Company. Attached to the handle of C-254 is the top portion of a baggage check of the Continental Trailways.

On April 30, 1964, SEAN BENTLEY, Supervisor, Stationery Supplies, Continental Trailways, 1500 Jackson Street, Dallas, Texas, was exhibited photographs of the two above-described traveling bags. Upon viewing photographs depicting portions of two paper stickers affixed to the top surface of Exhibit C-254, and a photograph depicting the top portion of a baggage check tied to the handle of Exhibit C-254, BENTLEY identified the adhesive stickers as sensitized identification labels utilized by Continental Trailways for customers' convenience in further identifying their baggage, and BENTLEY identified the baggage check tied to the handle of Exhibit C-254 as the top portion of a Continental Trailways baggage check.

BENTLEY furnished samples of the adhesive-backed identification labels and it was noted they are printed on slick white paper in red ink and the words "Continental Trailways" appear across the top of the sticker, followed by three ruled lines and the words "Name, Address, City." Printed across the bottom of the sticker are the words "Route of the SILVER EAGLES." BENTLEY advised these stickers have a sensitized adhesive back, indicating the stickers are affixed to the baggage by peeling off a paper backing which protects the adhesive surface. BENTLEY advised the adhesive-backed identification label has been in use by Continental Trailways since May 1962 and that previously the company utilized string-tie identification labels similar to the baggage checks.

BENTLEY stated his records reflected that the first order for the new sensitized identification label was placed in April 1962 for one million labels, and that delivery was made on May 23, 1962, at which time the labels were immediately dispersed to all Continental Trailways outlets. The labels are described as 1 1/4" x 2 7/16" in size and are shipped 1,000 per roll. BENTLEY stated these labels are purchased from the Printer, Allen, and Company, Post Office Box 169, Arlington, Texas.

With regard to the photograph depicting a torn upper portion of a baggage check, BENTLEY advised that the baggage check affixed to the handle of Exhibit C-254 in the photograph bears the number 2-1125-2 in the upper right-hand portion and the note "Form No. T-13" in the upper left-hand portion, indicating that this is a portion of a baggage check discontinued since January 1964.

BENTLEY stated the baggage check now in use is identical in format with the exception that the printer's mat number set forth in the upper right-hand corner is now Number 2-4672-3, and that the upper left-hand corner now bears the Continental Trailways symbol instead of the note "Form No. T-13." BENTLEY added that in addition, the new tag is printed in black ink, whereas the discontinued tag was printed in blue ink. BENTLEY advised the first order for new baggage check number 2-4672-3 was first placed with the printer August 31, 1963; however, due to the large backlog of old tags in the hands of the printer, this baggage tag was still in use as of January 1964, and, in fact, the last order of the old tag was received in early January 1964. BENTLEY was unable to advise as to the significance of the printer's mat number located in the upper right-hand corner of the baggage check; however, BENTLEY stated baggage checks for the Continental Trailways system are printed by the Ennis Business Forms Company, Ennis, Texas.

BENTLEY observed further that the brown manila patch at the top portion of the baggage check bears the words "Continental Trailways, Dallas, Texas." BENTLEY advised that all baggage checks for the Continental Trailways system which are dispersed through the Stationery Supply Center in Dallas bear the same designation, "Continental Trailways, Dallas, Texas," and that this indicates simply that the baggage checks are handled through the Dallas Stationery Supply Center. BENTLEY stated that the Dallas Stationery Supply Center supplies all Continental facilities throughout the States of Texas and Arkansas and the Rocky Mountain area. He stated that other Stationery Supply Centers are located in Omaha, Nebraska; Alexandria, Virginia; Wichita, Kansas; and, Los Angeles, California, and that supplies, including baggage checks, dispersed through those centers would accordingly bear the name of the supplying city.

With regard to the photograph of Exhibit C-254 depicting yellow chalk markings on the side, BENTLEY advised he is sure the Continental Trailways, within the realm of his experience, does not utilize such system. He feels sure this method of identification is not in use by any other bus company.

On April 30, 1964, Mr. CYRUS H. TOLMAN, Director of Traffic and Sales, Continental Trailways, 315 Continental Avenue,

Dallas, Texas, was exhibited photographs of the two above-described traveling bags. Upon viewing the photographs depicting two partial stickers affixed to the top surface of Exhibit C-254, Mr. TOLMAN readily identified these stickers as portions of sensitized adhesive identification labels which are furnished to customers at the time they check their baggage into the bus station, preparatory to their departure. The customer is requested at that time to fill in his name, address and city on the face of the label and to affix the adhesive-backed label to his baggage. Mr. TOLMAN advised that these sensitized labels are the only such labels utilized by Continental Trailways in the general course of business, and that the two photographs of the portions of the top surface of Exhibit C-254 may be the top right-hand portion of one label and the other portion represents the lower left-hand corner of an identification label.

TOLMAN pointed out further that the sensitized adhesive identification label has only been in use by Continental Trailways Company since the spring of 1962. Prior to that time, TOLMAN advised, the company had utilized a string-tie identification tag similar in appearance to the baggage check.

With respect to the baggage check, TOLMAN advised the torn baggage check portion depicted in the photograph as being affixed to Exhibit C-254 is of a type discontinued by Continental Trailways about January 1964, indicating this tag was undoubtedly issued to a customer prior to that time.

TOLMAN advised the format of both tags is identical with the exception that the note "Form No. T-13" set forth in the upper left-hand corner of the discontinued tag have been replaced with a Continental Trailways symbol and the new tag is now printed in black ink, whereas the previous tag was printed in blue ink.

TOLMAN viewed the photograph of Exhibit C-254 reflecting markings in yellow chalk consisting of the numerals "9/26" and a third indistinguishable mark above the "26". TOLMAN advised that Continental Trailways has a strict policy against marking or defacing the customers' bags in any way, and all identifying markings and data are affixed to the customers' bags by string-ties or adhesive labels. TOLMAN stated further that he was not aware of any system of marking customers' bags with chalk utilized by any bus company, railroad, or airline operating in the Continental United States. TOLMAN suggested, however, that this system of marking would be unique in itself and might possibly be prevalent in Mexico or used by other foreign travel services.

On May 1, 1964, LEONARD F. GEHRIG, Financial Vice President, Ennis Business Forms, 214 Knox Street, Ennis, Texas, advised that for the last two years his company has been commissioned by Continental Trailways to print baggage checks, as well as other material for that company, in accordance with a nationally adopted format. GEHRIG exhibited a Continental Trailways baggage check formerly printed for and utilized by Continental Trailways bearing in the upper right-hand corner of the tag the number 2-1125-2 and bearing in the upper left-hand corner "Form No. T-13." GEHRIG explained that the note "Form No. T-13" represent a format recommended by the Interstate Commerce Commission for use by all common carriers and is a generally accepted and widely used form. GEHRIG explained that the number set forth in the upper right-hand corner represents a printing mat number and that all baggage checks printed according to that format bear a printer's mat number for reference purposes.

GEHRIG stated the initial order for this tag was received by his firm from Continental Trailways on March 14, 1962, requesting a printing of 600,000 baggage check tags using printer's mat number 2-1125-2 for format. GEHRIG advised there was a total of two orders under printing mat number 2-1125-2 and that periodic shipment of these orders was made in 1962 and 1963, as follows:

Order of March 14, 1962 - For 600,000 tags - blue ink
Series 300-001 through 900-000

Shipments	Amount	For
4/11/62	200,000 tags	Dallas Continental Trailways
5/25/62	200,000 tags	Dallas Continental Trailways
5/28/62	200,000 tags	Dallas Continental Trailways

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Order of January 11, 1963 - For 750,000 tags - blue ink
Series 100-001 through 850-000

Shipments	Amount	For
3/29/63	250,000 tags	Dallas Continental Trailways
7/15/63	250,000 tags	Dallas Continental Trailways

Third shipment completed
10/30/63 - Break-down as follows:

10/8/63	- Two cartons	- Shipped	-	10,000 tags
10/9/63	- Two cartons	- Shipped	-	15,000 tags
10/18/63	- Seven cartons	- Shipped	-	70,000 tags
10/30/63	- Sixteen cartons	- Shipped	-	155,000 tags
	TOTAL			250,000 tags

GEHRIG advised that the initial order for the new tag under printer's mat number 2-4672-3 was placed August 31, 1963, by Continental Trailways and indicated only minor changes from the previous baggage check in that Continental requested the new tag be printed in black ink and that the note "Form No. T-13" in the upper left-hand corner be replaced with the Continental Trailways copyrighted symbol. GEHRIG advised the first shipment of the new baggage check was made on January 13, 1964, for 175,000 tags which were shipped to Continental Trailways, Dallas.

GEHRIG advised that the printer's mat number 2-1125-2 has no significance in establishing when a particular tag was issued or through what Continental Trailways station other than to signify the tag was furnished to a customer sometime between April 1962 and January 1964. GEHRIG advised that all baggage checks furnished to the Dallas Office of Continental Trailways likewise bear the words "Continental Trailways, Dallas, Texas," on the brown reinforcing patch at the top portion of the baggage check.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 1, 1964, Mr. JOE R. MC REE, Secretary of Residence, Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), 605 North Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that a check of his receipts for October 3, 1963, reflect that RAE G. BARKER, Desk Clerk, registered LEE HARVEY OSWALD on October 3, 1963. MC REE stated that to the best of his recollection he did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD when he registered at the YMCA on October 3, 1963, or when he checked out on October 4, 1963.

MC REE was exhibited color photographs of Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254, after which he stated to the best of his recollection he has never seen either of these traveling bags.

On May 1, 1964, Mr. RAE G. BARKER, Desk Clerk, Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), 605 North Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, advised he was on duty as Desk Clerk from 4:00 P.M. to 12:00 Midnight, on October 3, 1963. BARKER said, upon a review of receipts for October 3, 1963, he would estimate that he registered LEE HARVEY OSWALD into that YMCA, Room 601, between the hours of 4:00 P.M. and 4:30 P.M. He said he could not recall registering OSWALD, inasmuch as he registers numerous people throughout the day.

Mr. BARKER was exhibited color photographs of Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254, described above, after which he stated he could not recall ever seeing these bags, and stated he does not know what type luggage LEE HARVEY OSWALD had at the time he registered into the YMCA on October 3, 1963.

On May 1, 1964, Mrs. EVA MARSHALL, 5932½ Oram, Dallas, Texas, advised she worked part-time as a Desk Clerk at the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), 605 North Ervay, Dallas, Texas. Mrs. MARSHALL said she was so employed between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 4:00 P.M., on October 4, 1963. Mrs. MARSHALL said she recalls the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD and recalls she checked him out of the YMCA sometime between noon and 4:00 P.M., to the best of her recollection. She said she recalls the incident because she thinks the name OSWALD is a very ugly name. She said to the best of her recollection OSWALD was alone.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Mrs. MARSHALL was exhibited color photographs of Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254 and, after viewing same, stated she does not recall what bags OSWALD might have had with him when he checked out of the YMCA on October 4, 1963. She stated he probably placed any bags he had on the floor on the other side of the four-foot high desk from where she was standing. She stated she would not have been able to see any bags so placed.

On April 30, 1964, Mrs. MARY BLEDSOE, 621 North Marsalis, Dallas, Texas, advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD formerly rented a room at her residence from October 7 through 14, 1963.

Mrs. BLEDSOE viewed photographs of two traveling bags identified as Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254. She stated she recalls that at about 3:30 P.M. on Monday, October 7, 1963, OSWALD entered the house at 621 North Marsalis, Dallas, Texas, carrying a small, zipper-type bag similar in appearance to Commission Exhibit A-1; however, she was unable to state positively the bag in his possession at that time was identical to the photograph of Commission Exhibit A-1. She stated she could not recall any name tags or other identifying data being affixed to the bag and has no way of further identifying such bag.

Mrs. BLEDSOE stated that same Monday afternoon OSWALD left the rooming house shortly thereafter and returned in a short while, carrying a second, larger bag, but she stated she is unable to state if this bag was identical to the photograph of Commission Exhibit C-254. Mrs. BLEDSOE stated she paid little attention to the second bag and would be unable to state whether the bags were of the same type. She further stated she does not recall observing any tags or labels or other markings on the other bag which she observed OSWALD carrying, and has no way to further identify it.

On April 30, 1964, Mrs. GLADYS JOHNSON, 1026 North Beckley Street, Dallas, Texas, owner of a rooming house at that location where LEE HARVEY OSWALD formerly resided in October and November 1963, was exhibited photographs of two traveling bags identified as Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254. She stated she recalls seeing OSWALD in possession of a bag similar in size, type and color to Commission Exhibit A-1. She does not recall observing OSWALD in possession of this bag at the time he rented the room, but stated she believes she observed him leaving the rooming house at about 11:30 A.M., Saturday morning, November 16, 1963, which she believes was the only weekend OSWALD spent at the rooming house. She stated she observed him walk across the street in the direction of a coin-operated laundromat. She was of the impression at that time that the bag contained dirty laundry and that OSWALD was taking the bag and contents to the laundry to wash his clothes. She stated OSWALD returned to the rooming house about forty-five minutes to one hour later and took the bag to his room. Mrs. JOHNSON stated she does not recall any tags or other marks of identification on this bag.

Mrs. JOHNSON advised she does not ever recall seeing a large bag similar to Commission Exhibit C-254 at any time in her rooming house in the possession of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On May 1, 1964, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information after examining colored photographs of Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254, previously described herein:

On October 4, 1963, when Mrs. PAINE arrived at her residence in Irving, Texas, LEE HARVEY OSWALD had already arrived at her home and she did not see what luggage, if any, he brought with him at that time.

On October 7, 1963, when OSWALD left Mrs. PAINE's home for Dallas, Texas, he had with him a bag similar to that depicted in the photograph of Commission Exhibit C-254, and she believes this is a photograph of the bag which he had with him at that time.

Mrs. PAINE advised she does not recall seeing the figures "9/26" at any time on the bag carried by OSWALD on October 7, 1963, or on a similar bag at any time.

At the time RUTH PAINE and MARINA OSWALD moved some of the OSWALD effects from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Irving, Texas, in Mrs. PAINE's Chevrolet Station Wagon, she does not specifically recall any bags resembling Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Photographs of the fragmentary stickers and tag on Commission Exhibit C-254 were shown to Mrs. PAINE, at which time she stated she does not recall seeing these before and does not know when they were put on Commission Exhibit C-254.

On April 24, 1963, RUTH PAINE recalls taking LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the Continental Trailways Bus depot in Dallas, Texas, at which time he took his luggage into the bus station, apparently checked it, and returned to her car. She recalled he had two green duffel bags, a tan, portable, Russian-made radio, and some suitcases, but cannot specifically recall whether these suitcases resembled the photographs of Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254.

Mrs. PAINE advised, after examining replicas of the fragmentary tag and stickers found on Commission Exhibit C-254, that she cannot recall seeing any such items, or fragments of such, at any time on Commission Exhibit C-254 or any bag resembling this exhibit.

Mrs. PAINE advised that she is unable to explain the significance of the number "7" appearing in the photograph of a fragmentary sticker found on Commission Exhibit C-254, and advised that if this is a part of an address, she has no idea as to what address it is.

On May 4, 1964, MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at her residence, 629 Belt Line Road, Richardson, Texas.

MARINA was questioned concerning the traveling bags used by OSWALD on his trip to New Orleans, Louisiana, in April 1963 and on his trip to Mexico in September-October 1963. She said she cannot recall exactly, but believes OSWALD took two bags on his trip from Dallas to New Orleans in April 1963 when he preceded the family on that move. She emphasized that her memory on this point was not very good. She said she believed OSWALD took the blue canvas zipper bag which he owned and which is depicted in the photograph labeled Commission Exhibit A-1, and the larger folding green canvas bag, which is labeled Commission Exhibit C-254. She was exhibited both of these photographs and identified each as being the property of OSWALD.

She said again she cannot remember well, but believes OSWALD took only the blue zipper canvas bag (Commission Exhibit A-1) on his trip from New Orleans to Mexico. She emphasized that she had not been in New Orleans at the time OSWALD left, and, therefore, could not be sure what he had taken with him. She seems to recall that the larger green canvas bag (Commission Exhibit C-254) was at the PAINE garage at the time OSWALD was in Mexico, but again she cannot be sure of this. She said she cannot recall what bags or bag OSWALD had in his possession at the time he first came to the PAINE house after his Mexico trip, but she believes that he did have the blue zipper bag with him (Commission Exhibit A-1).

MARINA was also exhibited photographs depicting torn baggage stickers and check, each labeled C-254, and she said she cannot recall specifically that she had seen these torn stickers or check on any bags owned by her husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She was also exhibited the new and unused stickers and baggage check obtained at the Continental Trailways in Dallas, but she could not identify them as being similar to any stickers or tags she had previously seen on any bags owned by LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MARINA was again questioned concerning the method of transportation of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the PAINE house on his first visit after his Mexico trip. She said she recalled she previously had advised in an interview with the FBI that Mrs. PAINE had picked OSWALD up at the bus stop in Irving, Texas, after he telephoned the PAINE house and brought him to the PAINE house. She said she cannot be definite in this, however, because she does recall that on one occasion OSWALD caught a ride with a Negro person somewhere in Irving and was brought to the PAINE house. She said it was possible that Mrs. PAINE had not driven OSWALD from the bus stop in Irving to the PAINE house on the occasion of his first visit to the PAINE house after the Mexico trip. She said she recalled on one occasion when OSWALD visited the PAINE house that Mrs. PAINE's automobile was being repaired. She said it was possible this was the same occasion that OSWALD had caught the ride with the Negro person. She said, however, that she is not completely sure of this as she has no way of connecting the two incidents.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

MARINA OSWALD was questioned as to which bus line OSWALD had used when he traveled from Dallas to New Orleans in April 1963. MARINA said she cannot remember the names of the bus lines but can recall that she and Mrs. PAINE accompanied OSWALD to the bus station on the day before he left when he checked a bag or two bags at the bus station. She said this bus station was located near the bridge separating Oak Cliff from downtown Dallas and the buses in the terminal were large, light-colored buses with a picture of a running dog thereon. She also recalls the bus station was quite near the Texas School Book Depository Building where OSWALD held his last job.

In this connection, it is noted the Greyhound Bus Station is located within a few blocks of the bridge separating Oak Cliff and downtown Dallas, and within a few blocks of the Texas School Book Depository Building, whereas the other bus station in Dallas, the Continental Trailways, is located a few blocks east of the Greyhound Bus Station and further away from the described bridge and the Texas School Book Depository Building.

MARINA was asked if the numbers "9/26" which appear on one side of the valise depicted in Commission Exhibit C-254 bore any significance or if she recalled seeing these numbers. She said that these numbers had no significance to her and she could not specifically recall them appearing on the bag.

MARINA also advised that the partial number which appears on the address sticker of Commission Exhibit C-254 does not have any significance to her because she cannot recall seeing this sticker on the bag.

MARINA was questioned as to what valise OSWALD took with him when he left the PAINE residence for Dallas immediately following his visit to the PAINE residence after his Mexico trip. She said she believed OSWALD took his blue zipper case to Dallas, and perhaps also the other green valise, but she cannot now recall which he took or if he took both.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 5, 1964, ROBERT OSWALD was interviewed at the office of WILLIAM A. MC KENZIE, attorney, Fidelity Union Life Building, Dallas, Texas, at which time he furnished the following information:

He examined colored photographs of items designated as Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254.

OSWALD advised that he is sure that these are photographs of two bags belonging to his brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, deceased, and that he first saw them about June 1962, at which time LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA, moved into the ROBERT OSWALD home at 7313 Davenport Street, Fort Worth, Texas. This was after LEE and MARINA had returned from Russia. They stayed at ROBERT OSWALD's house for three or four weeks, leaving about July 1962 and taking the two bags, depicted in the photographs, with them when they moved.

ROBERT OSWALD examined the photographs of fragmentary stickers and a tag found on C-254 and stated that he does not recall ever seeing these items on Commission Exhibit C-254. He further stated he does not know when they were affixed to Commission Exhibit C-254. He examined what appears to be a "7" in the photograph of one of the fragmentary stickers and stated that while he had never noticed this sticker before, he believes that the "7" is a part of the address 7313 Davenport Street, Fort Worth, Texas, which is ROBERT OSWALD's previous address where he lived from May 1, 1957, to March 4, 1963. He stated that from time to time, his brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, used this as a home address since ROBERT OSWALD was the only one in the family whose residence was fixed during this period. On March 4, 1963, ROBERT OSWALD moved to Route 5, Box 140, Malvern, Arkansas.

ROBERT OSWALD examined the marking "3/26", above which appears an initial in the photograph of Commission Exhibit C-254, and stated that he does not recall seeing this marking previously and does not know the significance of this marking and does not know when it was placed on the bag.

ROBERT OSWALD examined replicas of the fragmentary tag and stickers found on Commission Exhibit C-254 and stated that he cannot recall seeing any such items or fragments thereof at any time on Commission Exhibit C-254.

ROBERT OSWALD stated that he has no idea whether LEE HARVEY OSWALD had the bags, identified as Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254, with him in New Orleans, Louisiana, or in Mexico City, or whether he had them in his possession when he arrived in Dallas in October 1963, since he did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD from Thanksgiving 1962 until November 22, 1963, when he saw him in the Dallas City Jail.

ROBERT OSWALD advised that he has no knowledge of what, if any, buses were utilized by LEE HARVEY OSWALD between Dallas and New Orleans, New Orleans and Mexico City, or Mexico City and Dallas; and, in fact, knows first-hand of no bus trips made by LEE HARVEY OSWALD using Continental Trailways buses.

On May 6, 1964, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, personally accompanied a Special Agent of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to the Greyhound Bus Depot at Jackson and Lamar Streets, Dallas, Texas, and to the Continental Trailways Bus Depot, 1500 Jackson Street, Dallas, Texas, in order that she could positively identify to which of these two bus depots she took LEE HARVEY OSWALD on April 24, 1963.

After viewing both of the above-mentioned bus depots at Dallas, Texas, Mrs. PAINE stated that she is positive she took OSWALD to the Continental Trailways Bus Depot.

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

If not already done, will make inquiry of appropriate sources at Continental Trailways Bus Company to determine when the format of baggage checks previously identified by printing on the checks as Form Number T-13 was changed to delete this printed identification. It is noted Continental employees at Houston believe this change was made "several months ago", which might assist in determining the period at which the fragment of baggage check was attached to the "Bee 4" bag under consideration.

SAN ANTONIO:

AT LAREDO, TEXAS:

Will interview employees of the U. S. Customs service and INS at Laredo, Texas, to determine if the yellow chalk markings appearing on the side of the above "Bee 4" bag is typical of any system of marking used by either of these agencies at Laredo.

AT NUEVO LAREDO, MEXICO:

Will make similar inquiries through established sources in the Mexican customs agency to determine if the yellow chalk markings are typical of any system of marking utilized by that agency.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Investigation has identified two traveling bags as possibly having been the property of Lee Harvey Oswald, and possibly used by him in traveling between New Orleans, Louisiana; Mexico City; and Laredo, Texas. These articles have been identified as Commission Exhibit A1, a blue cloth zipper bag, and Commission Exhibit C254, a green cloth bag, known as a "Bee 4" bag. Photographs made available of these two bags revealed one side of the green cloth bag carried what appeared to be markings made in yellow chalk which consisted of the numerals "9/26" and a third mark above the numeral "26" which could not be read. These photographs disclosed the top surface of the green cloth bag contained portions of two fragments of what appeared to be bus company stickers of the Continental Trailways Bus Company. Also attached to the handle of the green cloth bag was a portion of a baggage check of the Continental Trailways, Dallas, Texas, identified in the upper left hand corner as Form Number T-13.

On April 29, 1964, E. R. Cobb, Station Manager, Continental Trailways Bus Terminal, Houston, Texas, viewed the above photographs and made the following comments:

The markings made in yellow chalk on the side of the green cloth bag held no significance to Cobb, who stated the Continental Trailways Bus Company does not follow a practice of making such markings on the surfaces of customers' luggage, but that all identifying marks are made on printed forms which are either attached by adhesive or tied by string to the luggage involved. Mr. Cobb stated he was aware of no system of marking utilized by any bus company involving the marking of luggage with chalk. Cobb suggested that such a system of marking could possibly be used by the Immigration and Naturalization Service or by the Customs officers of the United States or other countries in connection with baggage being transferred across international boundaries.

COPIES DESTROYED

With respect to the two photographs of fragments of paper stickers affixed to the top surface of the green cloth bag, Mr. Cobb readily identified these fragments as being portions of Continental Trailways identification stickers which are normally affixed to the luggage of travelers by adhesive in order to identify the luggage and its destination in the event the baggage tags should become lost. Cobb stated these stickers are normally presented to the traveler with the request that he write his name and address on them, after which the backing is removed and they are stuck by adhesive to the surface of the bag. Cobb made available blank copies of these identification stickers and it is noted they are printed on slick white paper in red ink. The words "Continental Trailways" appear across the top of this sticker, followed by three ruled lines and the words "Name, Address, City." Printed across the lower edge of these stickers is the phrase "Route of the SILVER EAGLES." These identification stickers measure 1¼" by 2½". Mr. Cobb noted that the photograph of a portion of one of these stickers contains the lettering "..oute of the SILVER" which is identical with the phrase printed along the lower edge of the identification sticker. Cobb also pointed out that the two fragments of these stickers appearing on the green cloth bag were located on opposite ends of the bag, which suggested to him that they could have been affixed at different times and at different places, although Cobb could not state this as a definite conclusion.

Cobb readily identified the photograph of the top portion of a baggage check tied by string to the handle of the green cloth bag as being a portion of a baggage check regularly used by Continental Trailways Bus Company. Cobb stated the fact the words "Dallas, Texas" appeared after the words "Continental Trailways" carried no significance whatever inasmuch as these baggage checks were all printed in Dallas and distributed from Continental's Dallas Headquarters to various bus stations in other cities. Cobb noted that the words "Form Number T-13" appear on the upper left side of the photograph of this baggage check, and he exhibited copies of other baggage checks which contained identical printing. Cobb pointed out, however, that the format of this particular form had apparently been changed "several months ago" inasmuch as the words "Form Number T-13" have been replaced on baggage checks recently received by other writing. Cobb stated the headquarters of Continental Trailways Bus Company at Dallas, Texas, should have a record of the date at which this change was made. Cobb made available blank copies of Continental Trailways baggage checks which he stated were identical with the check partially shown in the photograph of the green cloth bag mentioned above.

Cobb pointed out that inasmuch as the identification number appearing on the baggage checks used by Continental Trailways had been torn from the fragments of the above check appearing in the photograph of the green cloth bag, there was no information available on that photograph which could serve to identify the cities involved in this travel or the date on which the travel was performed.

On April 29, 1964, Jim Duke, Supervisor of Baggage Department, Continental Trailways Bus Terminal, Houston, Texas, also examined the photographs mentioned above and verified the information furnished in detail by E. R. Cobb. Duke stated from carefully examining these photographs he could add nothing to the comments made by Mr. Cobb.

On November 23, 1963, an application for the rental of Post Office Box 6225, located at the Terminal Annex, Post Office Station, Dallas, Texas, dated November 1, 1963, and signed LEE H. OSWALD was obtained. This application is identified as Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory Exhibit D-17.

This application stated that the name of the firm or corporation for which the box was being rented was the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and American Civil Liberties Union. LEE H. OSWALD's home address reflected on this application was "3610 N. Beckley."

On May 5, 1964, a check of the 1963 Dallas City Directory failed to reflect any 3600 block of North Beckley Street in Dallas, Texas.

On May 5, 1964, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation made a physical check of North Beckley Street, Dallas, Texas, and ascertained that such street continues north to the 3000 block. There is no 3600 block of North Beckley Street.

Would you please send me any information that you might be able to give me about the gun used by Lee Oswald to assasinate our late President Kennedy? - We took our 7th & 8 grades to Harold Warps "Pioneer Village" at Minden, Nebraska & they had a gun on display which was supposed to be the gun used by Lee Oswald. I would like to know if this was the actual gun, and if so, how does it happen to be at the "Pioneer Village" and not in some big museum? Also, if this is the gun, can you tell me what Harold Warp had to pay for it & just exactly how he obtained it? I would appreciate an early reply. Thank you.

Mr. Lee Rankin, Counsel
Special Commission for Investigation of the Kennedy Assassination
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Briefly and directly, I want to suggest a possible factor in the terrible events of last November which, to the best of my knowledge, has not been previously discussed, at least not in the open literature. I want to apologize at the outset for what may strike you or any member of your staff who might read this as "crackpot." Frankly, I cannot weigh the extent to which my thinking here reflects my professional background (I am a psychologist) or my interests and possible biases as a private citizen. I can only note in advance that my writing is sincere and not capricious nor whimsical, whatever its other merit might be.

The notion of interest occurred to me when I first heard of the alleged attempt of Oswald to assassinate General Walker early last year. My question then and now is: To what extent has the complicity of General Walker in the Kennedy murder been ruled out? I recognize that, at first blush, my question must appear as an extraordinary non sequitur. Please let me suggest the following set of possibilities:

1. The so-called "attempt" on Walker's life was a sham job designed by Walker himself. Does it seem reasonable that Oswald, the sharp-shooting and persistent gunman of the President, could have been so easily deterred by a momentary movement of Walker's head? Or, in view of the probable mental condition of Walker, especially his paranoid "need" to be a persecuted, heroic figure, is it equally, if not more, likely that Walker was not sitting at his desk that evening, that Oswald fired at a blank wall, and that the shot was the signal to Walker to feign his near-martyrdom? What, after all, is the evidence that Oswald made a genuine attempt on Walker? Is there anything more convincing than the easily misunderstood or distortable testimony of Oswald's pitiable widow? Have eyewitnesses to the Walker incident testified before the

Warren Commission?

2. Walker had a clear-cut motive, particularly in view of his mental state, to want Kennedy dead. Can anyone doubt that Walker sought revenge for what must surely have appeared to him to be a series of abject indignities at Kennedy's hand, i.e., the forced resignation from army service, followed by his hospitalization after his vile and mad exhibition in Mississippi?

3. Nothing could have served Walker's various needs better than to have Kennedy killed by a "communist," no matter how petty or perverse, especially the same man who "tried" to kill him! Obviously, this could only be a triumph of the first magnitude for Walker.

There are a number of ways that this "plot" could have been brought to fruition. Oswald, fancying himself a double or triple agent, could have volunteered his services to Walker. Or, Walker could have sought out Oswald, perhaps on a blackmail basis, perhaps offering other favors. Then, when the Kennedy trip to Dallas was known, Walker would have encouraged and supported a mind at least as sick as his own to do the assassination. What a curious coincidence, that Walker should be out of town on November 22nd. I cannot envision beyond this but that, in itself, should not obviate the general idea.

Once again, I fully recognize that the foregoing may be nothing more than pure fantasy. Yet, because the notion has occurred to me so frequently in the past few months, and because I read recently that the Commission is pushing for a July 1 report date, I wanted to communicate it to you as responsibly as I know how. I would most particularly appreciate assurance from you or your staff that this idea is thoroughly unfounded, for example, on the basis of unambiguous contrary evidence that has not yet been divulged or well-publicized. Other than that, I think the possibilities raised above could be checked out empirically, if that is a facet of the Commission's activities not yet undertaken or completed.

Very truly yours,

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

A confidential source abroad has advised that the baggage manifest for bus No. 516 of the "Servicios Unidos Autobuses Blancos Flecha Roja, S. A. de C. V." (The Unified Services of White Autobuses Red Arrow, Incorporated), commonly referred to as the Flecha Roja bus line, which departed from Nuevo Laredo, State of Tamaulipas, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, and arrived at Mexico, D. F. (D. F. refers to "Distrito Federal" - Federal District or the Mexican Federal Capital) the following day, included as a passenger thereon the name of "LEE HARVEY OSWALJ."

According to source, several persons who traveled on that bus as passengers definitely identified photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as being a young American who was a passenger thereon.

EFFORTS MADE AT MONTERREY, STATE OF NUEVO LEON, MEXICO, TO OBTAIN PASSENGER LISTS OF FLECHA ROJA BUS NO. 516, WHICH TRAVELED FROM NUEVO LAREDO TO MEXICO, D. F., SEPTEMBER 26-27, 1963.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on November 26 and 27, 1963, a check had been made of the passenger manifests for the following bus lines in Monterrey for the period of September 26, 1963, to October 3, 1963, for the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his known aliases of O. H. LEE and ALEK JAMES HIDELL, and source had been unable to locate any record for the foregoing names:

(4) "Transportes Frontera, S. A. de C. V." "Border Transports, Incorporated).

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on December 16, 1963, TESIFONTE LAZCANO, manager of the Flecha Roja bus line terminal in Monterrey, advised that the offices of the Flecha Roja bus line in Monterrey maintain only the list of passengers who purchase bus tickets at Monterrey and no manifest is maintained of all passengers who travel from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., aboard Flecha Roja buses. LAZCANO stated that sometimes a carbon copy of the passenger list is kept at Monterrey, but these are not always available and if located may not be legible.

A second confidential source abroad advised that on April 16, 1964, JULIO CASTRO, employee of the accounting department in the offices of the Flecha Roja bus line terminal, located at Heroes Ferrocarrileros No. 45, Mexico, D. F., placed a long distance telephone call to TESIFONTE LAZCANO, manager of the Flecha Roja bus line terminal in Monterrey, for the purpose of obtaining copies of the passenger lists of Flecha Roja bus No. 516 for those passengers who boarded at Sabinas Hidalgo, State of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and at Monterrey on the bus trip for September 26-27, 1963.

CASTRO advised that LAZCANO informed him these passenger lists were not available because shortly after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, a Mexican Government agent, whose exact name and identity he could not recall, picked up those lists, which were never returned to him, and he did not know who was in possession of those lists.

EFFORTS MADE AT MEXICO, D. F., TO OBTAIN PASSENGER LISTS OF FLECHA ROJA BUS No. 516, WHICH TRAVELED FROM NUEVO LAREDO TO MEXICO, D. F., SEPTEMBER 26-27, 1963.

A third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 16, 1963, that ROBERTO MORALES, driver of Flecha Roja bus No. 516 on which OSWALD reportedly was a passenger on the September 26-27, 1963, trip, stated he could not recall the passengers on this trip; that he makes two round trips each week between Nuevo Laredo and Mexico, D. F.; and that he delivers the original passenger manifest made at Nuevo Laredo to appropriate authorities of the Flecha Roja bus terminal at Mexico, D. F. The duplicate copy of the passenger manifest is filed at the Flecha Roja office in Nuevo Laredo.

A third confidential source abroad advised that on March 7, 1964, JESUS SAUCEDO, comptroller of the Flecha Roja bus terminal, Mexico, D. F., explained that separate passenger reservation lists for a particular bus or trip are prepared at each point of embarkation, and, in the case of bus No. 516, separate lists probably were prepared at Nuevo Laredo, Sabinas Hidalgo and Monterrey, for passengers initiating travel on the bus at those localities. The original from each locality is picked up by the bus driver, who, upon arrival, delivers the originals to the main office in Mexico, D. F., where they are stapled together for use in the audit of tickets, passenger lists and ticket sales in connection with a particular trip. According to SAUCEDO, these three passenger lists were reviewed and taken from the Flecha Roja terminal offices by unidentified investigators of the Mexican Government.

SAUCEDO advised that he would contact the Flecha Roja bus terminals at Nuevo Laredo, Sabinas Hidalgo and Monterrey and attempt to obtain the carbon copies of the lists of passengers for bus No. 516 from those terminals. On March 15, 1964, SAUCEDO advised that he had received reports from the three localities mentioned that no copies of the passenger lists for the bus in question had been located.

A fourth confidential source abroad advised that on March 14, 1964, ROBERTO MORALES, driver of Flecha Roja bus No. 516, stated in Mexico, D. F., when shown the baggage list of Flecha Roja bus No. 516 trip for September 26-27, 1963, from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., that he was not acquainted with any of the names on this list. He stated that the passenger baggage list does not include all the names of the passengers, but the original passenger manifests and duplicate copies made at Nuevo Laredo, Sabinas Hidalgo, and Monterrey do list the names of the passengers.

MORALES stated that he always delivers the original passenger lists collected for each bus trip to the main terminal in Mexico, D. F., when traveling from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., and the duplicates of these passenger lists are left at the Flecha Roja bus terminals where they are originally made.

The third confidential source abroad advised that on March 19, 1964, ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO, manager of the Flecha Roja bus terminal in Mexico, D. F., advised that the original passenger manifests of bus No. 516, which had traveled from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., on September 26-27, 1963, had been borrowed by investigators of the Mexican Government soon after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He could not recall the identity of the investigators, two in number, and he did not know when they were to return the lists.

SAUCEDO stated that the duplicate copies of these passenger lists were maintained in the offices of the Flecha Roja bus line at Nuevo Laredo, Sabinas Hidalgo and Monterrey, where they were originally made, and that he would attempt to obtain these copies.

The third confidential source abroad advised that on March 24, 1964, ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO stated he had determined from the Flecha Roja bus line office in Nuevo Laredo that the duplicate copy of the passenger list made for bus No. 516 also had been borrowed by unidentified investigators of the Mexican Government and had not been returned.

SAUCEDO stated he had assisted the Mexican Government investigators in searching for the passenger lists relating to the trip of September 26-27, 1963, and was quite certain the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not appear thereon. He added, however, that the Flecha Roja bus line makes connection at Laredo, Texas, with the Continental Trailways bus line in the United States, and if a passenger who had purchased a through ticket to Mexico, D. F., from a point within the United States were to board the Flecha Roja line at Laredo or Nuevo Laredo, no record of that passenger by name would be made on the passenger list. He explained that the passenger list would include a seat designation and ticket number in the name of "Continental."

The second confidential source abroad advised that on April 2, 1964, and thereafter, ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO furnished the following additional data:

He recalled that shortly after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, two investigators, whom he described as being with the "Policia Federal Judicial" (Federal Judicial Police), appeared at the Flecha Roja terminal, Mexico, D. F., and requested the original passenger lists of bus No. 516 of September 26-27, 1963, for review. SAUCEDO remembered that the two investigators examined the passenger lists, filed by dates, in a storeroom at the offices of the Flecha Roja bus terminal, found the originals for the pertinent date, and borrowed same. He could not recall the names of the investigators or the exact date they appeared at the office.

SAUCEDO now recalled clearly that these two investigators, whom he could only describe as being "in their thirties," had the duplicate copy of the passenger list which apparently had been at the Flecha Roja bus terminal office in Nuevo Laredo when the trip for September 26-27, 1963, began. The investigators stated they wanted the original list because the duplicate copy made at Nuevo Laredo was not completely legible. SAUCEDO stated they had the original copies of the passenger manifests for Flecha Roja bus No. 516 for September 26-27, 1963, when they left.

SAUCEDO stated the investigators did exhibit to him some government credentials, agency not recalled, and advised they were interested only in finding the passenger lists for the incoming trip of bus No. 516 for September 26-27, 1963. When SAUCEDO asked them if they were interested in locating a departure trip, they stated they were not, explaining they had just been at the bus terminal of Transportes Frontera in Mexico, D. F., where they had located the passenger list for OSWALD's departure from Mexico.

SAUCEDO advised that he would devote his free time to attempting to locate among all the passenger lists maintained in the storeroom of the office of the Flecha Roja bus terminal any possible list of the passengers for bus No. 516 which traveled from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., on September 26-27, 1963.

On April 9, 1964, ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO stated he had not been able to devote the necessary time to locating possible copies of the passenger lists for bus No. 516 which traveled on September 26-27, 1963. He stated that on April 9, 1964, he would make available for review the records of all passenger lists at the Flecha Roja office in Mexico, D. F.

On April 9, 1964, JULIO CASTRO, employee of the accounting department in the offices of the Flecha Roja bus line terminal, Mexico, D. F., made available to the second confidential source abroad, on instructions of ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO, the original passenger lists of the Flecha Roja bus line, which were kept in a storeroom across the hall from the accounting office and were maintained in a disorganized manner, bound with heavy string in bundles and stored in bins.

Each of the bundles contained passenger lists for trips made by buses of the Flecha Roja bus line for recent months. Each bundle was dated and included passenger lists for trips made on dates ranging from one to twenty days immediately preceding the date of the bundle.

The available bundles for the period September and October, 1963, were reviewed without locating passenger lists for bus No. 516 relating to September 26-27, 1963.

During this search and review, an untied, loose bundle dated October 5, 1963, was located, thrown aside in a cardboard box on the floor of the storage room outside the bin area. This bundle was reviewed and found to include passenger lists for dates September 21, 1963, to October 3, 1963, but no passenger lists of bus No. 516 for September 26-27, 1963, were found.

When asked about this bundle, JULIO CASTRO replied that this might have been the bundle from which the two investigators of the Mexican Government had taken the original passenger lists, but he had no definite knowledge of this.

CASTRO stated that when the investigators for the Mexican Government appeared at the Flecha Roja bus line terminal shortly after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, they reviewed several bundles containing passenger lists. It was his opinion that the two lists of passengers who boarded bus No. 516 at Sabinas Hidaldo and Monterrey on the September 26-27, 1963, trip to Mexico, D. F., were taken, with the list made at Nuevo Laredo, by the two unidentified investigators, because the lists are always stapled together at the Flecha Roja office in Mexico, D. F.

CASTRO was able to provide a payroll record for bus No. 516, which reflected that bus No. 516 began a trip in Mexico, D. F., on September 25, 1963, destined for Nuevo Laredo, and this same bus made the round trip and arrived back in Mexico, D. F., on September 27, 1963. The drivers of the bus on that trip were listed in the payroll records as ROBERTO MORALES and ERNESTO HERNANDEZ.

On May 14, 1964, ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO advised the second confidential source abroad the following, after the Flecha Roja baggage manifest of bus No. 516, which departed from Nuevo Laredo for Mexico, D. F., at 2:00 p.m. on September 26, 1963, was exhibited to him:

SAUCEDO stated that this baggage manifest was prepared for bus No. 516, which was driven by Flecha Roja bus driver ROBERTO MORALES, and that the number "18," encircled at the bottom of the list, indicates that 18 pieces of baggage were checked and that baggage claim checks were issued for storage and handling in the baggage compartment of the bus and for revision by Mexican Customs officers. This list does not account for any hand-carried bag taken by a passenger with him in the bus.

SAUCEDO affirmed that the number of passengers departing on the bus at Nuevo Laredo is not specified on the baggage list and that only the persons who check and become responsible for one or more articles of baggage are listed thereon. He pointed out that unaccompanied baggage also may be sent in this manner and the presence of a name on the baggage list does not insure that the person actually traveled on the bus. This baggage list is made up at Nuevo Laredo for the use of Mexican Customs, and in the event there is any infraction of Mexican Customs laws, responsibility can be placed with the listed person who had the baggage put aboard the bus.

It was SAUCEDO's understanding that four or five copies of the above baggage list are made and that these copies are left by the driver of the bus with Mexican Customs at the appropriate Mexican Customs check stations.

SAUCEDO advised that he was not acquainted with any of the names on the above-described baggage list which was exhibited to him.

He explained that another system is utilized for the handling of baggage from points of embarkation such as Sabinas Hidalgo and Monterrey, which he cited as the only two other places in the bus route between Nuevo Laredo and Mexico, D. F., where passenger lists are compiled of those passengers who take the bus trip to Mexico, D. F. He exhibited a copy of the type of baggage list made at Sabinas Hidalgo and Monterrey and stated that this is made up for the identification and handling of baggage only and is not made up for the Mexican Customs service. This list has a number at the top for record purposes and it sets out the hour of departure, the destination, the bus number, and the date. Following this is a list for the number of suitcases or bundles, the description of the same, the destination of the baggage, the name of the passengers and the number of the claim check for the baggage. He added that inasmuch as passenger manifests are made up at Sabinas Hidalgo and Monterrey, the passengers' names are not listed on the baggage lists made at these points, even though there is space designation on the baggage lists for them.

He advised that since he was contacted last on April 9, 1964, he had been interviewed by a representative of the Mexican Government, who was making inquiries to locate the missing passenger lists for bus No. 516. He repeated he was quite certain that the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not appear as such on the passenger lists he furnished the investigators. He could not recall anything further to assist in identifying the investigators who took the passenger lists. He stated that it was his understanding from the representative of the Mexican Government who had interviewed him about giving up the passenger lists that the exact identity of the agency in the Mexican Government for which the unknown investigators were working had not been determined, even though SAUCEDO remembers them as being with the "Policia Federal Judicial" (Federal Judicial Police).

REQUEST MADE TO MEXICAN GOVERNMENT FOR PASSENGER LISTS

On March 24, 1964, Captain FERNANDO GUTIERREZ BARRIOS, Sub-Director of the Mexican Federal Security Police (DFS), advised the third confidential source abroad that his agency had conducted no investigation in connection with the travel in Mexico of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and did not have in its possession any passenger lists from any bus lines.

On April 1, 1964, Attorney MANUEL ROSALES MIRANDA, Director of the Department of Preliminary Investigations of the Mexican Federal Attorney General's Office, advised a fifth confidential source abroad that the Federal Judicial Police had conducted no investigation with respect to OSWALD's travels in Mexico and did not have any copies of passenger lists relating thereto.

On April 3, 1964, Attorney FERNANDO ROMAN LUGO, Attorney General for the Federal District of Mexico, advised a sixth confidential source abroad to the effect that he had made inquiries of officials in the Judicial Police of the Federal District and had failed to locate anyone who had information concerning the whereabouts of the Flecha Roja passenger lists for the September 26-27, 1963, trip. He added that his agency had not conducted investigation in connection with the OSWALD case and would have no reason for having the passenger lists.

The third confidential source abroad advised on April 14, 1964, that the fact the passenger lists of the November 26-27, 1963, Flecha Roja trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., had never appeared and were alleged to be in the hands of an unidentified investigative agency of the Mexican Government was brought to the attention of the Acting Minister of Government, Attorney LUIS ECHEVERRIA, who issued instructions to the Chief of the Inspection Department of the Immigration Service, Attorney SANTIAGO IBANEZ LLAMAS, to make every effort to locate the passenger lists described above.

On May 1, 1964, Inspector JOSE MARIO DEL VALLE advised source that he had been instructed to attempt to locate the Flecha Roja passenger lists and was making every effort to do so.

DEL VALLE, who is employed in the Inspection Department of the Ministry of Government, advised that he had interviewed Captain MANUEL LECUONA, supervisor of the Presidential Investigative Staff, who had advised him that he had no information concerning any passenger list from the Flecha Roja bus line and that inquiry among investigators in that agency had failed to locate anyone who had any knowledge concerning such lists.

ReBucab No. 68 of 4/30/64, which outlined requests of the Presidential Commission in latter's letter to the Bureau of 4/24/64. Section (5) of this letter covered request for copy of "dossier" on OSWALD furnished to Ambassador THOMAS MANN by the Bureau shortly after the assassination.

A review of the Mexico City file on this matter discloses the following documents were furnished to Ambassador MANN by this office and may constitute the "dossier" to which reference was made by the Commission:

1. One copy each of two undated memoranda, one captioned "Assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, Dallas, Texas, November 22, 1963," and the other captioned "JACK L. RUBY, also known as Jack Leon Ruby, Jack Rubenstein; Murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, November 24, 1963." Both memoranda were prepared at the Bureau. The first consisted of 11 pages plus a two-page list of exhibits. The second consisted of 17 pages. Copies of the two memoranda were brought to Mexico City on 11/27/63 by Bureau supervisor LAURENCE P. KEENAN for use in briefing Ambassador MANN. Following the briefing of the Ambassador by KEENAN and Legat ANDERSON on 11/28/63, one copy each of the two memoranda was given to Ambassador MANN at his request since under the circumstances of the moment this request could not be logically declined.

3. A memorandum was furnished the Ambassador on 12/3/63 concerning allegations of a walk-in mental case who gave the name of LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ. Subsequently, investigation revealed FERNANDEZ to have been lying in this particular instance and to have a background of fabrication. Information concerning the FERNANDEZ allegations was being included in the summary being prepared here; however, in view of the Commission's interest in the "dossier," a separate letterhead memorandum concerning the allegations has been prepared and is being forwarded. Mexico

The above-listed items are the only documents furnished to Ambassador MANN by this office which could possibly appear in his "dossier." It is entirely possible the latter also contains memoranda sent to him by the CIA here and copies of cable messages sent by him to the State Department and vice versa. While in Mexico City the three Commission representatives mentioned that they had conferred with Ambassador MANN immediately prior to coming here, and it is presumed he made available to them for reading all the material in his possession.

ReBucab instructed that copies of material furnished to Ambassador MANN be furnished the Bureau. It is believed the two memoranda mentioned in No. 1 above are available at the Bureau and probably have already been made available to the Commission. Mexico City memorandum of 12/11/63 mentioned under No. 2 above is in possession of the Bureau. A complete letterhead memorandum concerning the LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ allegations, which includes the information furnished to Ambassador MANN, is going forward in this pouch and will be available for dissemination to the Commission if the Bureau so desires.

All other pending matters here are being vigorously pursued in order to bring this case to a logical conclusion at the earliest possible date.

In accordance with instructions set out in Bucable No. 87, dated 5/13/64, there are transmitted herewith 12 copies of revised LHM dated 5/5/64 (two for Dallas, 100-10461).

The carbon copy of the passenger list made at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, for Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) bus No. 516 for September 26-27, 1963, trip, listing passengers who boarded at Monterrey, which was located recently, is not set out in the attached LHM because many of the names are illegible. By separate cover this carbon copy list is being forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for examination.

Efforts are continuing to locate the passenger lists made up at Nuevo Laredo and Sabinas Hidalgo for Red Arrow bus No. 516, September 26-27, 1963, trip.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Attached is a copy of the May 9, 1964, issue of the "National Guardian" which contains an article on pages one and twelve captioned "Oswald case: A new angle."

According to the article, Mark Lane claims that the United States Secret Service deliberately planted a false story in the press to cast further guilt on Lee Harvey Oswald. The article also reports that Lane has stated that he has written to the President's Commission about this allegation and has offered to testify.

This Bureau is taking no action on Lane's allegation in the absence of a specific request from you.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Lee Harvey Oswald

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter of May 8, 1964, which advised that Dallas Police Chief Jesse E. Curry denied that he ever received a letter from the Justice Department and that he had been requested by any official of the FBI not to arrest Oswald or Ruby, as alleged in an article from the May 17, 1964, issue of the "National Enquirer."

By letter dated May 13, 1964, from the Deputy Attorney General we were advised that a check of the files of the Department of Justice discloses no reference to an alleged letter from a high official of the Justice Department to Dallas Police Chief Jesse E. Curry nor any reference that an FBI official was asked to request the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald or Ruby.

This completes our inquiry in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

By letter dated April 30, 1964, the President's Commission requested that Miss YAEKO OKUI be interviewed, as witnesses had testified to her presence at a year-end combination Christmas - New Year's Party, December 28 - 30, 1962, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. DECIAN P. FORD, at 14057 Brookcrest Drive, Dallas, Texas, at which party MARINA and LEE HARVEY OSWALD were also in attendance.

On May 5, 1964, Miss YAEKO OKUI, 5646 Loring Drive, Apartment 149, Dallas, Texas, was contacted at her residence for interview.

Miss OKUI advised she was born January 19, 1933, Tokyo, Japan, and resided at the residence of her parents, 843 Yamashita-Cho, Sumoto City, Hyogo Prefecture, Japan, until her travel to the United States in 1959.

As a matter of background, Miss OKUI advised her father was a practicing attorney in Sumoto City, Japan, until the time of his death approximately four years ago, and that her mother, Mrs. TOZO OKUI, is presently a Certified Public Accountant operating accounting firms in Sumoto City and Wakayamac City. Miss OKUI advised she attended Waseda University in Tokyo for three and one-half years, majoring in Business Administration and Economics. She advised she did not receive a degree from this university, but lacks only the submission of a thesis, which she plans to submit upon her return. In addition, Miss OKUI completed seven years of study at the Sogetsu School of Professional Flower Arrangement at Tokyo, for which she received a Teacher's Certificate, allowing her to practice professional flower arrangement teaching throughout the world. Miss OKUI advised she is further proficient in Koto music, which Miss OKUI described as a large, thirteen-string instrument, which is quite popular in Japanese symphony orchestras. Miss

OKUI stated she, likewise, holds a Teacher's Certificate in this instrument and she, accordingly, has conducted several classes in Kato-music during her residence in Dallas.

Miss OKUI advised that in the Spring of 1959, upon completing her studies at the Sogetsu School in Tokyo, she came in contact with a Mr. OZAWA, President of Ozawa & Company, Osaka, Japan, which company is the Japanese agent for Schwabach Perutz & Company, a Dallas corporation dealing in cotton exchange. Miss OKUI expressed a desire to Mr. OZAWA to visit the United States for cultural purposes and, accordingly, Mr. OZAWA arranged for her employment with Mr. GERARDO WEINSTEIN, President of Schwabach Perutz & Company, in his offices in the Cotton Exchange Building, Dallas. Mr. WEINSTEIN agreed to act as Miss OKUI's sponsor for a two-year period during her employment by him in the United States and, accordingly, she arrived in the United States and Dallas, Texas, in the Summer of 1959.

Miss OKUI explained that, due to the diversity between her home land and that of the United States, she requested Mr. WEINSTEIN employ her as a governess in his home in the beginning to allow her to acquaint herself with western world customs, such as buying her groceries and other domestic differences.

Miss OKUI stated she continued her employment with Mr. WEINSTEIN until approximately June or July, 1961, when she obtained a position with Nippon Service, Inc., 13 West 46th Street, New York City, whereupon she took up residance in New York at 22 East 95th Street. Miss OKUI explained that Nippon Service is operated as an American representative for the Takashamaya (phonetic) Department Stores, Japan's largest department store chain. Miss OKUI advised she was employed for Nippon Service under the direct supervision of Mr. MICHIO KUSHI, President of that company, until her return to Dallas, in August, 1962. She advised she returned to Dallas at the request of Mr. KUSHI to act as the southwestern representative for Nippon Service, Inc. She explained her duties were primarily in the public relations field, in that she was required to make numerous contacts with southwestern firms having Japanese connections in the name of her company.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Miss OKUI stated that, upon her return to Dallas in August, 1962, she took up residence with the family of Mr. & Mrs. WARREN LESLIE, 11415 Hillcrest, Dallas, Texas. Mr. LESLIE, at that time, was Vice President of the Neiman-Marcus Department Store in Dallas. She advised she resided with the LESLIE family until the Spring of 1963, when Mr. & Mrs. LESLIE became separated and she then occupied a guest house to the rear of the residence of Mr. & Mrs. LEE STARR, 5710 Chatham Hill, Dallas, President of Titche-Goettinger Department Stores, at their invitation. Miss OKUI stated she has lived at her present address for about six months.

Miss OKUI stated further she is no longer employed by Nippon Service, Inc., as she has terminated her position with that firm in preparation for return to her home in Japan. Miss OKUI is scheduled to depart the United States on June 10, 1964, via NYK Lines from San Francisco, California; however, she intends to remain in Dallas until the end of May, 1964.

Miss OKUI related that, in addition to her services with Nippon Service, Inc., in the southwestern area of the United States, she lectures on an average of two to three times a week before ladies' clubs and other similar groups on the art of Ikebana, the Japanese art of flower arrangement, and in Origami, the Japanese art of paper folding. Miss OKUI engages in these teaching lectures as a free-lance speaker, for which she receives a fee.

Miss OKUI stated that, while attending a chamber music concert in Dallas approximately four years ago, she became acquainted with a Mr. LEV ARONSON, who is a widely acclaimed cellist and music teacher in the Dallas area. Miss OKUI characterized Mr. ARONSON as a Latvian by birth, who speaks Russian fluently, and is conversant in several other languages, and it was through Mr. ARONSON she had occasion to become acquainted with Mr. & Mrs. DECLAN FORD. She advised she has attended several functions in the company of Mr. ARONSON as a guest of the FORD family, and she recalls attending a party at the FORD residence, in the company of Mr. ARONSON, in the latter part of December, 1962. Miss OKUI advised this party was held at the North Dallas residence of Mr. & Mrs. FORD, 14057 Brookcrest Drive, and that this party was occasioned by the celebration of the Russian holiday season which, she explained, is held a few days following the Christmas season in this country.

Miss OKUI recalled that, upon arrival at this party, she was introduced to a large number of people in attendance, none of whom she can recall now, but she does recall being introduced to an individual, who she now knows was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and his wife, MARINA, who were also in attendance at the party. Miss OKUI stated she recalls further having a conversation with MARINA OSWALD, through Mr. ARONSON as interpreter, and she received a good deal of attention from the guests at the party, inasmuch as she was the only Oriental in attendance. Miss OKUI recalled she discussed with MARINA OSWALD the fact that she, MARINA, had recently arrived in the United States and had had little or no opportunity to see the country and get acquainted with the people.

Miss OKUI further stated she does recall having a discussion with MARINA's husband, whom she now knows to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD, concerning Ikebana, or flower arrangement, and OSWALD, to the best of her recollection, queried her about how she liked the United States in relation to Japan, insofar as the customs of the people were concerned. She stated OSWALD did not, at any time, broach the subject of politics and, if he had, she would have been inadequate in that regard, as she takes little interest in that subject.

Miss OKUI stated that, if there was some consternation by any of the guests at her discussion with OSWALD, she was not aware of it and, in fact, feels certain Mr. ARONSON was at her side at all times that evening. Miss OKUI stated further that that was the first and last time she had ever met or talked to either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his wife, MARINA OSWALD, and, in fact, did not, at any time, know his name until OSWALD received notoriety as a result of the assassination of President KENNEDY. Miss OKUI also stated that, to the best of her recollection, Mr. ARONSON did not, at least not to her, express any displeasure over her discussion with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she stated she feels certain he would have mentioned it had that been true.

New Orleans is instructed to advise the Bureau by return airtel when results of your investigation concerning laundry mark "30 030" will be received. It is noted referenced airtel indicated this project would be completed by May 6, 1964.

Furnish the Bureau a letterhead memorandum revealing pertinent results of your investigation. However, to preclude a voluminous communication, the letterhead memorandum should indicate the number of laundries and dry cleaners contacted which were negative contacts. The identities of specific individuals and Agents making such contacts should be included in your inserts, in detail, along with the results of the entire investigation, and furnished to Dallas for inclusion in the report.

Handle promptly so that this matter can be logically concluded and the President's Commission advised.

Interview of EDWARD G. KOSCHMANN Concerning His Knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and OSWALD's Two Brothers While Wards of the Bethlehem Children's Home, New Orleans, Louisiana

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

(1)

Mr. EDWARD G. KOSCHMANN, 5511 Morningside Drive, Parma, Ohio, advised that from August, 1940 to July, 1958, he was associated with the Bethlehem Children's Home, New Orleans, Louisiana, first in the capacity of a teacher, and from 1949 until his departure he was the superintendent of this establishment.

Mr. KOSCHMANN is presently Principal of the St. Mark Lutheran School, 4464 Pearl Road, Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. KOSCHMANN related that it was sometime after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY that he learned through newspaper publicity that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his two brothers had at one time been wards of the Bethlehem Children's Home in New Orleans, Louisiana. He specifically noted that prior to this publicity he never associated the alleged assassin of President KENNEDY with anyone he may have had personal contact with at the orphanage.

However, Mr. KOSCHMANN further related that this newspaper publicity did refresh his memory, and he was able to recollect his association with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and OSWALD's half-brother, JOHN PIC. In this respect he advised that he was definitely able to recall LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JOHN PIC from newspaper and magazine photographs; however, he noted that he has no recollection whatsoever of ROBERT LEE OSWALD, Jr. LA. TEXAS

In preface to the following remarks, Mr. KOSCHMANN noted that during the period the OSWALDs were at the Bethlehem Children's Home, New Orleans, Louisiana, there were only two teachers at the Home. He advised that he taught the upper grades, and a Miss ANNA WEGNER taught the lower grades. There were approximately 40 wards who resided at the Home and an additional 30 children were brought to the school each day by their parents, making a total of approximately 70 students who attended the school conducted by the Bethlehem Children's Home.

Mr. KOSCHMANN advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was never in any of his classes and, therefore, his contacts with him would have been limited. He also noted that because of LEE OSWALD's age he would not have attended school while he was at the orphanage.

Mr. KOSCHMANN stated that the one thing he recalls about LEE OSWALD was that "LEE was a very good looking boy for his age." He also noted that the only incident he can directly and personally relate concerning LEE OSWALD was that he had some concern over LEE OSWALD's physical appearance. He explained that on occasion he supervised the bathing of the children at the home in the absence of the regular housemother, IDA STOLTE, since deceased. He noted that during one of these bathing sessions in about 1944 LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who at that time had a chubby build, had what he considered a "protruding stomach". He brought this to the attention of IDA STOLTE, who advised him that this was perfectly normal for a child of OSWALD's age, and this was a sign that the OSWALD child was healthy. Mr. KOSCHMANN pointed out that at the time of this incident he was barely 23 years of age, unmarried, and his knowledge of children was meager.

Mr. KOSCHMANN advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD does not stand out in his mind as a particularly good or particularly bad child and therefore concluded he was an average, normal child. In this regard, he stated that he considered LEE OSWALD to be normal in consideration of his having been placed in an orphanage at a tender age and therefore lacking parental guidance. He stated he recalls that it was necessary on a few of the bathing sessions to use "force" to have LEE HARVEY OSWALD take his bath. However, he again pointed out that this was not uncommon for a child of OSWALD's age, and attributes this to the lack of parental training.

Mr. KOSCHMANN stated he did recall that LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not crave attention and love, which most children in orphanages seem to require, although he does not necessarily recall him as an individual who preferred not to mix with the other children in the orphanage. He stated that he can recall no instances wherein LEE OSWALD showed tendencies of being a "loner".

In regard to OSWALD's abilities, Mr. KOSCHMANN stated that OSWALD seemed to be a bright enough child and seemed to pick up and comprehend instructions quite readily. He stated that he did not know of any of OSWALD's interests; however, he stated that OSWALD was approximately only three years of age at the time, and he was not in a position to readily discern any of his interests.

Mr. KOSCHMANN stated that he cannot recall any individuals who may have been closely associated with OSWALD at the orphanage and concluded by saying that he never observed any indications which would account for his alleged assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. KOSCHMANN related that he has no strong recollections of JOHN EDWARD PIC, although he does recall him from photographs which he has seen in publicity concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY. He stated he feels that he taught JOHN PIC for at least a part of the time he was at the orphanage inasmuch as he, KOSCHMANN, taught the upper grades at the school.

He stated that the only thing he can specifically recall concerning JOHN PIC is that he was an extroverted individual who was a "brassy show-off". He explained that this is only his general impression of the boy, and he can recall no particular incident other than the fact that JOHN PIC was always "big mouthed and had nothing to back it up with." He stated he cannot recall what kind of a student JOHN PIC was other than he recalls him as an average boy and therefore concludes that he was probably an average student.

Mr. KOSCHMANN stated that he was not sufficiently acquainted with JOHN PIC to make any appraisal of his interests and abilities.

In regard to ROBERT LEE OSWALD, Jr., Mr. KOSCHMANN stated that he has seen numerous photographs of this individual appearing in various newspapers and periodicals concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY; however, he cannot associate this individual with anyone he may have come in contact with at the Bethlehem Children's Home, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Appearance of Subject's Mother, MARGUERITE OSWALD, on Radio Station KYW, Cleveland, Ohio, on February 24, 1964.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mr. PERRY BASCOMB, General Manager, Radio Station KYW, Cleveland, Ohio, related that MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, appeared on a KYW Radio program known as HARV MORGAN's "Contact" on February 24, 1964, between 10:00 PM and 12:00 midnight.

He explained that the specific topic of the "Contact" program on February 24, 1964, was entitled "LEE OSWALD - Killer or Victim" and that the special guest, MARGUERITE OSWALD, was on the program via a long distance telephone line from New York City. He stated the program is moderated by a member of the KYW Staff, HARV MORGAN, and that the radio audience telephones the radio station with questions they put directly to the special guest, and both the radio audience participant as well as the answer of the special guest are heard by the radio audience. In addition, he noted that a Mr. NELSON G. KARL, a Cleveland attorney, appeared on the program as sort of a special moderator and as a quasi legal advisor to MARGUERITE OSWALD solely in connection with her appearance on this program. The radio audience participants telephoning the radio station with their questions are not identified by name.

Mr. BASCOMB furnished a tape recording of the broadcast of February 24, 1964, which is summarized as follows:

Mr. HARV MORGAN on February 24, 1964, identified his program as the "Contact" program and stated that the topic of the evening was "LEE OSWALD - Killer or Victim". He announces that the special guest for the evening is Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and that she is participating via a long distance telephone line from New York City.

In her initial comments Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD advises that her son had been exploited and that he should not have received the exceedingly large amount of publicity which occurred following the assassination. She advises that on TV she heard her son say "I didn't do it" and noted that no one can be proven guilty in a few hours time; no one saw him shoot President KENNEDY and she just knows that he is innocent. Mrs. OSWALD advises that she is fighting for our American way of life and that "a man is innocent until proven guilty". She states that it was this factor which motivated her to help represent her son before the Warren Commission.

Mr. MORGAN then interjects a few comments in his opening statement to the effect that an individual is innocent until he is proven guilty and that this is the question of prime importance, and noted that monumental efforts are being taken in this direction.

Mr. MORGAN then introduces NELSON G. KARL, who describes himself as an attorney who is interested in civil liberties and Constitutional rights. Mr. KARL advised that he subscribes to the thought that a man is innocent until he is proven guilty and that his appearance on the program is not in the defense or prosecution of LEE OSWALD and, until all the evidence is accounted for, we must reserve judgment in this matter.

On a pre-recorded statement of Mrs. OSWALD she states that her son was tried, convicted and murdered within a few hours time. She states the case is not closed and that her son is not guilty until proven so. She then advised that I want to retract my story of MARINA OSWALD --- she is a beautiful woman --- I do not see MARINA as a Washington socialite but I recall her as the plain Russian girl with stringy hair. The first few days after LEE was accused of the assassination of the President MARINA did not believe that he was guilty. However, after eight weeks of protection by the Secret Service and FBI, during which period no one could see her, she now believes that OSWALD killed KENNEDY and has stated that even if the Warren Commission says her husband is innocent, she will always believe that LEE killed KENNEDY. I say she was brainwashed and that she could only know facts that were given to her by the Secret Service as to what was going on as she only reads Russian. She is now a modern American girl and she is not permitted to see me and she has avoided seeing me.

At this point Mr. NELSON G. KARL points out that Mrs. OSWALD has the right to express her opinion in free speech under the Constitution. He states that to date the Warren Commission has not issued a report and we have had only a smattering of information from the newspapers concerning these hearings. My purpose is to afford her legal representation as though I were her attorney.

MARGUERITE OSWALD then states that her purpose is to bring her case before the American people. I feel sorry about this and firmly believe in the American way of life and believe justice should be done. When records are released America will see a different boy than previously pictured. This boy has been exploited and not one good thing has been said about him. His living philosophy will be shown in letters written to me from Russia..

I have known and felt since 1959, but have no proof, that LEE was not a defector but a government agent. I did make a mistake in Washington when I said he was a CIA man. Now I know he could have been with any one of the many U. S. intelligence agencies. Why wasn't LEE under surveillance by the FBI; he was not under FBI surveillance because he was a government agent.

In January, 1961, I went to the State Department and received "red carpet treatment" from high State Department officials, which also led me to believe he, LEE OSWALD, was in the employment of the United States Government, as I don't believe this is the treatment afforded ordinary citizens like myself. Also, LEE implied to a Mrs. BATES, who was helping him write a book about his experiences in Russia, that he was a government agent. I also believe he had Russian language training in the Marine Corps because of a letter I received from the Albert Schweitzer Institute while he was in Russia which indicated that he had the equivalent of one year's training in the Russian language. LEE was always fond of the Marines and spoke highly of his relationship with the Marine Corps, which also led me to believe that he was a government agent.

Further, OSWALD was not on the "FBI List", and no one could understand this but myself. (inference that OSWALD was a government agent)

I also believe that LEE OSWALD was "set up" to defect to Russia and that when he returned to the United States he attempted to obtain an honorable discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps, and I felt that he was doing this in order to make a living and not to expose his connection with the government.

Following the above remarks the "Contact" program enters the question (Q) and answer (A) phase of the program. It will hereafter be assumed that the questions are by the participants of the radio audience and that the answers are by MARGUERITE OSWALD, unless specifically noted to be otherwise.

Q. After LEE HARVEY OSWALD was arrested, paraffin tests proved he had gunpowder on his fingers. How does Mrs. OSWALD account for this?

A. I am a layman fighting for justice. As such I do not know about guns and paraffin tests and, therefore, I am unable to answer this question for you.

Q. I would like to know about Mrs. OSWALD's personal feelings concerning her son's getting blamed for this accident and all the people thinking he did it.

A. MORGAN: Actually, Mrs. OSWALD has been talking about this for the last 15 to 20 minutes. This has already been answered.

Q. Did LEE OSWALD on the day before the assassination express any hatred toward President KENNEDY?

A. I did not see LEE the day before the assassination. His landlady states that he never expressed any hatred against KENNEDY, and his landlady's husband said that LEE expressed that President KENNEDY was making much progress in the way of civil rights.

Q. MORGAN: Is it possible that because of LEE OSWALD's letter to Governor CONNALLY of Texas he harbored any antagonism? (This question is relative to letter written by OSWALD to Secretary of the Navy CONNALLY as to righting the type of discharge he received because of his defection to Russia.)

A. No, Governor CONNALLY was not governor at this time but Secretary of the Navy. If he, OSWALD, did harbor a grudge and had killed President KENNEDY, he would have said "Yes, I killed the President." He was of the same nature as I, straightforward. During his arrest LEE kept repeating "I didn't do it", and he also told his brother that he did not kill the President.

Q. How can Mrs. OSWALD in her right conscience say her son was not guilty when it was proven he owned the gun that killed the President and he was seen carrying a long package into the Book Depository building?

A. This doesn't mean he used the gun, and it is only hearsay that he carried a gun in the package. With all the beatings he took, which I saw from his bruised face and eyes on TV, he still said I didn't do it. Why would he be so foolish to have a witness see him take a gun wrapped in paper to the Book Depository building?

A. KARL: The gun evidence is the weakest link we have. This gun was mass produced and easily obtained by anyone. I don't know if the paraffin tests tied it in with the gun that murdered President KENNEDY.

Q. Relative to an article appearing in a recent issue of "Time" Magazine, which states that Mrs. OSWALD asked President JOHNSON for legal representation at the trial, she is quoted as saying to a reporter --- You know what I got back --- I got a note to direct any inquiries in the future to the Warren Commission and not to the White House --- Can you imagine, I have as much right as any citizen to petition the President and, let me tell you this President JOHNSON, I am not just anyone and you (Mr. JOHNSON) are only President of the United States by the grace of my son's actions.

A. This quotation is an error. I intend to sue "Life" Magazine and "Time". This is what I said: "Dear Mr. President, I can now address you as such because your good friend was shot 11/22/63. I find myself the mother of the accussed assassin. I simply hope you will be so kind as to consider my request."

She states that the article indicates she knew that LEE HARVEY OSWALD killed the President and that she did not speak as she is quoted in the article.

Q. What is Mrs. OSWALD's explanation as to the killing of Officer TIPPIT?

A. I will comment that Mr. MARK LANE does the investigation, but I do not think that LEE killed Officer TIPPIT; this is the key. There has been no autopsy on TIPPIT, relatively little information about the gun that killed TIPPIT, or any news about his burial. She specifically notes that there has been very little said in the news media concerning the TIPPIT aspect of the case.

Q. MORGAN: Is it not a fact that ballistics show that the bullet that killed Officer TIPPIT was from the gun found on OSWALD in the theatre?

A. The way I have it figured out although TIPPIT was an exceptionally good police officer, when he was given the suspect's description following the President's assassination, he did not have his gun available when stopping a suspect on the street and LEE was supposed to have shot him three times and TIPPIT did not shoot back.

Q. I understand the FBI is holding a man that actually saw OSWALD kill the President. I wonder if Mrs. OSWALD knows about this.

A. No - has this been in print?

Q. If LEE OSWALD was a government agent, wouldn't the fact that he ran out on his rent bring attention to him?

A. We read this in the newspapers and do not know if it is true or not. Let's speculate that it is; he would do this on purpose to throw reflection from himself. He read everything from Communism to (NORMAN) VINCENT PEALE. He had to know this for his work with the government, and he had a wide variety of Communist material.

Q. If OSWALD did not do this, why did he leave his place of employment immediately following the assassination and, secondly, I feel many persons fitted the assassin's description, and I don't feel the officer was justified approaching a suspect with a drawn gun.

A. All I know is what I read. Mr. MARK LANE is of the opinion that LEE was never in the Book Depository building. He could have had the day off to do something --- this is a frame-up and this could have been part of it. We can't believe everything we hear. He was offered the job at the Book Depository building and he did not apply for it. This could have been a part of the frame.

Q. When he, OSWALD, was in the theatre why did he jump up when the police entered and the lights were turned on, and when he jumped up he stated "This is it", then tried to shoot a policeman.

A. This is debatable about LEE getting out a gun. Again, LEE was an agent and he was waiting for somebody in the theatre, and, when he got caught, he said "This is it" meaning that his position as an agent had been compromised. He didn't have time to kill the President and then get over to the theatre in 29 minutes; he would have had to have been a modern-day Superman; this is the most ridiculous part to me.

Q. What is your opinion of MARINA OSWALD's statement that OSWALD had fired the shot at General WALKER?

A. All I know is what was written in the papers. MARINA had a note from LEE in which he stated that he may be involved in something which may cause me to be arrested and in that event contact the police station and the Russian Consulate. This was blown up --- he may have been a government agent and may have known about the plot against General WALKER.

Q. MORGAN: When he returned next day, did he in fact advise MARINA that he had shot at General WALKER?

A. This was not the original story. This was fabricated and, after she was brainwashed, believed OSWALD had shot the President. At first she did not identify the gun (that is to say the rifle that shot President KENNEDY), then eight weeks later identified the gun. The case is full of contradictions.

Q. Was LEE when a boy emotionally disturbed?

A. I do not know this is a fact. I would think this to be so but it was not told to me. He was picked up for truancy in New York City. One story I have never told was while LEE was in a Lutheran school in New York City one day he said he rode the subway all day and didn't go to school. LEE was telling the truth. The point I want to make is that he had the courage to tell the truth. About two weeks later he was picked up at the Bronx Zoo while playing hooky from school...

At this point the "Contact" program was broken for a regular news broadcast and, at the resumption of the program, Mrs. OSWALD did not continue to answer the above question, although some aspects of the same material were brought out later in the broadcast.

Q. Did you think JACK RUBY killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD because he was in a murder plot with him?

A. I do not have any thoughts on JACK RUBY because I cannot do anything on that particular subject. I do feel the authorities will take care of that.

Q. Is it true that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was dishonorably discharged and could not have been buried in the Arlington National Cemetery?

A. That's controversial. He had his honorable discharge but, because of his defection to Russia, he was later given an undesirable discharge. I think of him as a government agent, and this was done to show that he was not a good citizen.

Q. The January 27th issue of "The Nation" carries an article entitled "Oswald and the FBI", which reflects that small sums of money were sent from an unknown source in the United States to OSWALD in Russia. Can Mrs. OSWALD comment on this?

A. No, I didn't read the article. I did see an article that a Western Union employee had said that money had been sent to OSWALD.

Q. Does Mrs. OSWALD know anything of the circumstances which indicate that LEE OSWALD was picked up by the Dallas Police Department for the attempted shooting of General WALKER and that his release was demanded by the Attorney General?

A. I know nothing about this. I would like to hear more about it.

At this point the participant who asked this question advised that she had heard this information through a Canton, Ohio radio station which was carrying a radio program of a BOB SECREST originating from Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. OSWALD then thanked the audience participant for supplying her source of information and made the comment that this is why she comes before the public.

Q. Why did OSWALD resist arrest at the theatre if he was innocent?

A. I don't think he resisted arrest. The police surrounded him. They did not see him with a gun, although one officer claims to have seen the gun.

Q. When you testified at the Warren Commission you said you had information that would change their mind. I would like to know what this information is.

A. The information I referred to was as to the character of this boy. I have his life because I was his mother, and I have all of LEE's documents.

Q. KARL: I would like to pursue this psychiatric bit a little further. OSWALD was examined by Dr. HARTACK (phonetic), appeared before the Children's Court, and was sent to the Children's Home. Wasn't it recommended that LEE OSWALD be committed to an institution not only for his protection but for the protection of the community?

A. Only in this regard - I only knew he was confined for five to six weeks and must have had psychiatric treatment. The judge didn't confine LEE and nothing was said to me about psychiatric treatment. If he needed psychiatric treatment, the judge wouldn't have let me have him.

Q. Did he ever have occasion to be further examined?

A. No, however, a change of environment was suggested in that we leave New York and return home. I don't think that LEE received a complete psychiatric examination and I was never told of Dr. HARTACK's (phonetic) examination.

Q. What are your feelings toward OSWALD's wife as to her opinions?

A. I will always be waiting for MARINA when she is ready. I respect her wishes if she don't want to see me.

Q. 1. If LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a government agent, why didn't the government come forward that he was an agent?

2. Why did LEE HARVEY OSWALD choose to contact the Russian authorities instead of ours in case of trouble??

3. Why did Mrs. OSWALD contact an attorney known for his representation of a known Communist to dig up the facts? (The name of this attorney unknown to participant)

A. 1. I don't have an answer. It is up to our government to come forward with the answer.

2. He is telling his wife for her to contact the Russian Consulate for her own protection.

KARL: This is newspaper speculation.

3. Mrs. OSWALD: Because this attorney represents the underdogs.

Q. I am a juvenile probation officer, does she know if psychiatric examination was given and psychiatric examination is only given when necessary and not to all children?

A. I would have to assume psychiatric examination was given because Dr. HARTACK (phonetic) made it public. However, I was never told that this is the fact.

Q. By whom was he set up and who had the best advantage of the President's death?

A. In my own way, I don't have proof, but I believe he was set up. I believe the leak is in our own government.

Q. Is it true that LEE OSWALD was in JACK RUBY's Cafe?

A. This was in the newspapers. No one can answer this.

Q. KARL: Was LEE OSWALD a "loner" and did not have close friends?

A. I will bring this out in another program. It is too long a story for the present program. I have a wonderful thing to relate that happened to LEE, and it is something that has never been made public. I intend to make this known on Radio Station WBZ, Boston, on BOB KENNEDY's "Contact" program next Wednesday (2/26/64) from 6:30 to 8:00 PM or, if we cannot do the program on this date, it will be on the following Monday (3/2/64). He had normal relations with all people.

Q. If LEE OSWALD was a government agent, why did he shoot the officer (TIPPIT)?

A. We do not believe he did.

Q. What is the basis for Mrs. OSWALD's reasoning that she has conclusive evidence her son did not kill President KENNEDY?

A. Briefly, LEE could not have done this; he would have had to have been a modern-day Superman to have done all the things they claim he did that day.

Q. MORGAN: Actually, it was an hour and ten minutes and not 29 minutes between the time the President was assassinated and the time of OSWALD's arrest in the theatre.

A. My information is from many, many people. I am going by information I have. The only answer I have is that there are many variations.

Q. Wasn't there a witness to the TIPPIT slaying who positively identified LEE OSWALD as the slayer?

A. This witness went to the police car radio to broadcast for help, therefore, could not possibly have seen the man who killed TIPPIT. I believe OSWALD was tried and killed by public opinion because the President was killed, and he was a Marxist and defector. We jumped to the conclusion that he killed the President. If a so-called good man was picked up, would the public readily say that he was the man?

I will answer this question --- They would say that he could not have killed the President and he was one of our fine businessmen. My point is this boy was tried by the public --- I am not saying he is not guilty; however, I am saying I believe he was innocent.

Q. Mrs. OSWALD still believes that her son was not in the Book Depository building although evidence indicated he was. She believes everyone that's seen him are wrong. Why would anyone be carrying window shades to work, and they were never found, and why did he run away?

A. I will have to refer you to Mr. MARK LANE. LEE worked at the Book building and his fingerprints could have been there from another occasion. That box with fingerprints could have been trumped up. We read that witnesses seen LEE in the Book Depository building but the police haven't produced them. A witness stated that LEE advised him that the package contained window shades, but is this the fact?

That is the purpose of cross-examination at the Warren Commission. This way it brings out both sides. There was no cross-examination at the Warren Commission; that's why I object to it. If they had someone do the cross-examination, they would have brought out a lot more.

Q. MORGAN: I've heard it speculated that you want this cleared up as psychiatric reports put the blame on you for the cause of OSWALD being what he was, and supposition is that you want to clear any indirect guilt on yourself.

A. It is not a fact and it is immaterial to me what my neighbors think. I have lived my life alone. It would not mean a thing to me what people think. I have supported my family without help and do not feel guilty in any way. I think I did a good job raising my boys.

Q. KARL: Are you satisfied the way the Warren Commission is conducting these hearings, and do you believe the approach is judicial enough so that a decision can be relied on?

A. No, I do not believe the decision of the Warren Commission can be relied upon as I think it is a one-sided affair. We are just testifying, and you must have cross-examination.

The conclusion of the Warren Commission will be speculation and rumor as all the witnesses sit in their chairs and talk to the Commission, then they, the Commission, analyze what they hear.

The above was the final question in the "Contact" program, and Mr. NELSON G. KARL made the following comment: that he was very proud of his fellow Clevelanders and that only in America could this be expressed with its precept and concept of a fair discussion. He further stated that he believes it a tragedy that JACK RUBY deprived America, the public and LEE HARVEY OSWALD of trial by jury and the proper judicial inquiry.

Mr. HARV MORGAN concluded the program by thanking MARGUERITE OSWALD for her participation.

NOTE:

We cover Lane's public appearances at request of President's Commission. In his Upsala College talk, Lane continued to state that the assassination and the investigation thereof were poorly handled by the Secret Service, the FBI and the Dallas PD. Lane, in his comments, implied that there was a conspiracy by authorities to find Oswald guilty of the assassination. Lane also mentioned that he had been approached

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated April 22, 1964, concerning two pieces of luggage believed to have been the property of Lee Harvey Oswald which have been designated Exhibits A-1 and C-254. In connection with requested investigation concerning the aforementioned Exhibits, there are enclosed the following items:

(1) Two copies each of memoranda dated April 30, 1964, and May 7, 1964, and two samples of adhesive address labels issued by the Continental Trailways bus line which are described in enclosed memoranda.

(2) Two copies each of color photographs of Exhibit A-1; of four color photographs depicting both sides of Exhibit C-254 and three black and white photographic enlargements depicting a portion of a baggage check and two fragments of address labels which were affixed to the top of Exhibit C-254.

We have been advised that the yellow marking on one side of Exhibit C-254 was made by Mexican Customs officials at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, and that the mark indicates the bag was checked by Mexican Customs at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, presumably 1963, the date Oswald entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo. For your information there are no discernible markings on Exhibit A-1.

NOTE:

Letterheads were prepared by Houston and Dallas and describe the fragments of address stickers on C-254 and establish that these were Continental Trailways forms. Commission in its 4/22/64 letter suggested the fragments may have been forms of other bus lines. Dallas 5/7/64 letterhead shows that Marina Oswald, Oswald's brother and Mrs. Ruth Paine could not furnish positive information concerning bags taken by Oswald to Mexico. Information re the yellow marking "9/26" on C-254 is from San Antonio teletype 5/11/64. This will be reported by Dallas later. Letterheads have been approved for dissemination by Messrs Belmont and Malley.

BUREAU NOTE:

We cover Lane's public appearances at request of President's Commission. Lane, in his appearances on Station WMEX and at Harvard University on 4-30-64, continued to attempt to cast doubt on the guilt of Oswald for the assassination of President Kennedy and the slaying of Dallas Police Officer Tippit. Lane continues to state that Oswald would not have received a fair trial had he lived and that the President's Commission is a "highly political" group which in Lane's opinion should be "nonpolitical" in nature. Lane claims, as in the past, that numerous facts in the investigation of the assassination have been shrouded in secrecy. He also claimed that a story had been planted in the press by means of Michael Howard, a Secret Service Agent, to the effect that a Negro janitor in the Texas School Book Depository Building had seen Oswald "pull the trigger" to kill President Kennedy (Lane's allegation above appeared in the 5-9-64 issue of the "National Guardian." Previous inquiry has failed to identify any such witness, and the President's Commission has been advised of this as well as of Lane's claim in the "National Guardian"). Lane continues to claim that doctors at Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, originally stated that the throat wound of President Kennedy was an entrance wound, but that later, on insistence by Secret Service Agents, these doctors changed their statement and referred to the throat wound as an exit wound. Items being furnished President's Commission furnished by Boston airtels 5-8-64 captioned "Mark Lane, SM-C" and 5/11/64 captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, IS - R - Cuba."

General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter to you dated May 11, 1964, which forwarded a copy of an article by Thomas Gittings Buchanan, Jr., in the April 9, 1964, issue of the French newspaper, "L'Express," as well as two copies of a translation thereof.

For your information there is enclosed a copy of an article by Buchanan in the April 23, 1964, issue of that newspaper which deals with photographs of Lee Harvey Oswald appearing in the public press. Also enclosed are two copies of a translation of the article prepared by this Bureau.

Sincerely yours,

and translations thereof have been furnished to the Commission. Last article being sent to Commission discusses two photos of Oswald holding a rifle which appeared in (1) "Life" magazine 2/21/64 and (2) "Detroit Free Press, 2/17/64 and "Newsweek" 3/2/64. These are apparently copies of photos admittedly taken by Marina Oswald in Spring of 1963 and seized by Dallas PD after assassination which were obtained, retouched and published by press. Buchanan notes that "Life" photo shows telescopic lens on rifle, while "Detroit Free Press" photo does not appear to have a telescopic lens on the rifle held by Oswald. At the request of the Commission we conducted inquiry as the source of photos in the press and found they apparently emanated from an unidentified source in the Dallas PD. Bureau representative has already testified before Commission re the original photo and the retouching of the photo for publication purposes. The Commission being furnished copy of Buchanan article and translation thereof for its information.

Enclosed is one copy of a letter from Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) dated 5/11/64, CIA file CSCI-3/781,172, and the enclosure to this letter. These are being furnished for analysis and review by your office. Data contained in the CIA enclosure should not be included in any of your reports concerning Oswald, but should be set out in cover pages of your reports where pertinent along with statements bearing upon the significance of the item concerned. In the event you have questions concerning any of the data in the CIA enclosure or desire further investigation by CIA regarding certain of the data, advise the Bureau and specifically request the Bureau to contact CIA in such matters.

The data furnished by CIA should be of assistance to your office in any future interviews with Marina Oswald concerning various items appearing in her address book. This data should also serve as a cross-check on the reliability of the information furnished you by Marina Oswald.

You should not, of course, reveal to Marina Oswald or any other individual data furnished by CIA in regard to any entries appearing in Oswald's address book. If at some future date you feel it desirable to confront Marina Oswald in connection with statements she might make regarding entries in her address book and desire to use data furnished by CIA, specifically request the Bureau to obtain clearance from CIA to use such data as desired.

Re Bureau airtel, 4/28/64, captioned as above.

Set forth is a summary of the alleged Anti-Castro military training camp established in the New Orleans area in late summer, 1963, referred to in a transcript of the testimoney of CARLOS BRINGUIER, which transcript was enclosed with referenced Bureau airtel.

Information was received by the New Orleans Office on 7/30/63, that approximately 10 Cuban refugees arrived in New Orleans from Miami during the latter part of July, 1963, for the purpose of attending a training camp near New Orleans after which they were to be transferred to a training camp in Guatemala.

These refugees were disappointed after their arrival because they did not have training weapons and this group allegedly returned to Miami shortly after their arrival in New Orleans.

For the information of the Bureau and Miami the details of this alleged training camp is set forth in the report of SA WARREN C. DE BRUEYS dated 10/3/63, at New

The Bureau's attention is called to pages 40 and 41 of the transcript of the testimoney of BRINGUIER wherein BRINGUIER claimed that OSWALD got into an argument at the Habana Bar over the price of lemonade.

At the time ~~OSCAR~~ ORESTES PENA, the owner of the Habana Bar, was interviewed on 12/5/63, PENA stated he could not recall the month or day OSWALD and either a Mexican or Cuban came into his bar together. He recalled OSWALD ordered a lemonade and was charged .25 and the man with OSWALD ordered tequila and was charged .50, after which this man with OSWALD complained to the bartender that .50 was too much to pay for tequila. PENA said he never talked to OSWALD or to this other man.

The above interview with PENA is contained on page 43 of the report of SA JOHN T. REYNOLDS dated 12/6/63, at New Orleans, in the OSWALD case.

EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ, the bartender at the Habana Bar, when interviewed by Bureau Agents on 12/20/63, stated that the Latin appearing man with OSWALD he observed at the Habana Bar in early August, 1963, became irritated by the fact that he had to pay .50 for one drink of tequila and this was the reason he recalled OSWALD and the unknown person with OSWALD.

The results of the interview with RODRIGUEZ are set forth on page 48 of the report of SA JOHN T. REYNOLDS dated 12/30/63, at New Orleans.

Efforts continuing to resolve questions raised by Commission and Buded of 5/8/64, will not be met; however, it is anticipated that inquiries will be completed and results submitted in report form by 5/15/64.

Nat Ruby & Oswald

In an article in the 5-17-64 issue of the "National Inquirer," there is a wild story by John Henshaw in which it is alleged that the Dallas Police knew in April, 1963, that Oswald and Jack Ruby were linked in the assassination attempt against General Walker; that they were about to arrest Oswald and Ruby but were dissuaded from this action by a "Top Secret" letter sent to Chief Curry by the Department at the behest of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). It also alleged that a high Bureau official at the Department's request interceded with Chief Curry, asking that Oswald and Ruby not be arrested but that the Dallas Police desired this request in writing which resulted in the Departmental letter.

Concerning this story, the Director inquired "Have we checked our files just to be on safe side."

The main point of the article in the "National Inquirer" is hinged on the fact that the Dallas Police had developed Oswald and Ruby as suspects in connection with the assassination attempt on General Walker in April, 1963. This is completely at variance with information in our files and from our check of Dallas Police files and our interviews of Dallas Police officials. Neither Ruby nor Oswald were suspected by Dallas Police of any participation in the Walker incident prior to the assassination of the President. The only suspect developed by them prior to 11-22-63 was a 22-year-old Scotsman named William McEwan Duff, who was befriended by Walker and worked for him for a period of time as a chauffeur and houseboy. Duff was questioned by Dallas Police and was exonerated on the basis of a polygraph examination.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. SULLIVAN
RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

As to the allegation that a high Bureau official contacted the Dallas Police and urged them not to arrest Ruby and Oswald, this, of course, is a complete absurdity and nothing in our files could support such a story. Likewise, there is nothing in our files to support the allegation that a "Top Secret" letter was sent by a high official of the Justice Department requesting them not to arrest Ruby and Oswald. Furthermore, CIA has formally denied that Oswald was an informant of their organization or connected with them in any way and we have no information that CIA was ever interested in Ruby at any time.

This is to brief a wild and unsupported article in the 5-17-64 issue of the "National Enquirer" claiming that the Department of Justice at the request of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) blocked the arrest of Oswald and Ruby by the Dallas Police in April, 1963. The article cites no specifics as to the basis for the imaginative charge and is loaded with filler material consisting of numerous hoaxes and false reports which have been discredited. It is recommended that the article not be brought to the attention of the President's Commission or the Department as it is patently false and unworthy of consideration. The "National Enquirer" is a well-known sex-type of newspaper, is totally unreliable and is known to feature wild sensational stories.

The story in question was written by John Henshaw, described as Washington Bureau Chief of the "National Enquirer," weekly published in New York City. The article alleges that Dallas Police knew in April, 1963, that Oswald and Ruby were linked in the assassination attempt against General Walker; Oswald as the assassin and Ruby as the paymaster. It alleges that CIA was using Ruby to recruit commandos for raids on Cuba and to prevent Dallas Police from arresting Ruby as well as Oswald, they petitioned the Department to step in. It alleges that a high Bureau official received a signed directive from the Department as a result of which he contacted the Dallas Police in April, 1963, and urged them not to arrest Ruby and Oswald. As the Dallas Police desired a signed communication, a "Top Secret" letter was signed by a high official of Justice and was sent to Dallas Police Chief Curry requesting them not to arrest Ruby and Oswald. The article thereafter attempts to establish that Ruby and Oswald knew each other long before the assassination and as filler information it repeats the allegation that Oswald was a double agent for CIA and Bureau, the false claims of Mark Lane, the New York attorney, and the wild speculations that have appeared in the foreign press. This article is pure sensational trash and there is no substance to it.

SHOCKED OFFICIALS HEAR:

.U.S. Justice Dept. Letter Blocked Their Arrest Seven Months Before JFK Slaying

A Vicious Stranger Hurls Acid And Blinds a Blind Man's Dog

By THOMAS KNOWLES

Police are hunting for one of the cruelest of all people — someone who blinded the guide dog of a blind man by throwing acid into the animal's eyes.

And because the dog's owner, Luigi Molteni, 33, a telephone operator, cannot see, the police have no clue as to who might have done it.

It wasn't until a month after the dog, Prima, had been blinded that anyone noticed anything was wrong with her.

Molteni entered Prima, a 7-year-old German shepherd, in an international dog show at Turin, Italy, last October 27.

Instead of behaving in her usual well-trained manner, Prima didn't obey commands, nearly bumped into obstacles and barely saved her master from being run down by cars driven along a mock road.

A spectator joked loudly:

"That guide dog looks as if it needs a guide dog for itself!"

Officials of the show didn't think it was a laughing matter, however.

A veterinarian took one look at Prima, passed his hand in front of her eyes and said: "This dog is blind."

Molteni, who has been blind for six years, wept behind his dark glasses.

"She's been like this for a month," he said. "She's frightened and uncertain every time we come to the edge of a sidewalk, a busy street or some unexpected obstacle.

"But she's still managed to take me to the center of Milan

Prima had cataracts on both eyes.

Then an eye specialist examined her and found she had been

Within two days, wearing a special muzzle to prevent her from scratching the eye, she and then back again.

"We walk together through crowded streets, travel together on buses and trains in the rush hour.

"How can she be blind?"

The surgeon told Molteni that Prima had been guiding him all that time from memory.

"She's been making her way from your home to work and back again for so long that she is able to make the trip from memory," he said.

"She's also aided by familiar sounds and smells and by recollection of danger spots she knew when she could see."

At first, it was thought that Prima had been blinded by someone.

Last January 15, the specialist operated on Prima free of charge.

With the dog under anesthetic for 5½ hours, he removed the upper layer of the left eyeball, uncovering healthy tissue underneath.

When the operation was over and the effects of the anesthetic had worn off, Prima scrambled to her feet and staggered around the operating room peering at her master to and from sight.

An operation on Prima's right eye is planned for later this summer.

Said Molteni: "I'd like to meet the person who threw the acid at Prima.

"He must hate either dogs or blind people.

"I would offer him my hand in friendship, because a person with that kind of twisted soul needs a friend."

AFTER SURGERY: Luigi stands by as eye specialist's assistant pats Prima after dog's left eye was operated on. A special muzzle kept her from scratching the eye.

Gripes to City About His Taxes — Should Be Higher, He Says

PROUD: LeRoy Neal, standing in front of his house, says it was a matter of pride for him to have his taxes as high as those of his neighbors. So he had his raised.

By STAN HAYES

LeRoy Neal argued bitterly when the tax on his home was increased.

But Neal's complaint shocked the tax board — because he insisted his tax was too low.

"My increase was only $21 while my neighbors had to pay from $53 to $95 more a year," said Neal, 55.

"It isn't fair, because we're taxed according to the value of our homes. Since my house is worth as much as theirs, I should be taxed just as much.

"It's a matter of pride."

Last March 20 Neal appeared before the tax board of review in Lansing, Mich., and waited his turn to speak while dozens of angry citizens complained that their tax increases were too high.

When Neal stood up to speak, officials expected him to argue about the $21 increase over his previous year's tax of $160.

But Neal gave them the surprise of their lives.

"I've got a nice, six-room house I've just improved with a recreation room with a soundproof ceiling," he said.

"As a result, my home is worth at least as much as my neighbors' homes — and I ought to get a much bigger tax increase."

Board officials were shocked.

"We just didn't know what to do," said County Tax Assessor Gerald Ernst.

"It was the first time any of us had ever heard a citizen complain his taxes were too low."

Neal was asked to think the matter over and come back a few days later, but he insisted that his mind was already made up.

"I'm being taxed at the rate of owning a home worth $8,000, and that's an insult," Neal complained.

"Because my home is now worth at least $12,000."

When Neal kept complaining, board members finally examined the improvements that he made in his home.

Last March 30 they gave him what he wanted — they added another $42 to his tax.

"Now I pay a tax of $223 on my home — an increase of $63 over last year," Neal said.

"But I'm a happy man. Because now all my neighbors know my home is worth just as much as theirs."

He Takes Nap & Is Trapped 8 Days in a Shaft

By MANUEL HERRERA

Evaristo Maldonado was tired out. All he wanted was to find a place where he could take a long, uninterrupted snooze.

And he found just the spot — an unused brick shaft in a hospital basement. So the 60-year-old laborer crawled through the opening and settled down for the night.

Nobody interrupted him because nobody knew he was there.

Not even the two men who came along early the next morning and bricked up the only opening to Evaristo's makeshift bedroom in the Juarez, Mexico, hospital.

It was too dark inside for them to see clearly and Evaristo had crawled well inside the narrow shaft to avoid being seen.

Evaristo slumbered on. There was plenty of air coming through a ventilation grille and Evaristo had no problem with breathing.

But when he woke up, he soon found he had a more urgent problem. He couldn't get out.

He screamed but nobody heard him even though the hospital's doctors and nurses were working only 10 feet above him.

By the fourth day, the starving Evaristo was eating the dirt he managed to scratch out from the walls. When that gave out, he ate his own clothes.

For water, he sucked the sweat from his hands and face.

He lost track of time in the endless silence and the pitch black made him go blind from the effort of straining his eyes.

Evaristo might still have been in the shaft if, on the eighth day, Emilio Gomez and Julia Gua hadn't gone into the cellar to check the heating and ventilation.

They found that one of the shafts had been blocked by mistake. It took only a few minutes to knock out the bricks.

Gomez shined a flashlight inside and its beam fell on the face of Evaristo.

"It's a ghost," he screamed.

Their cries were heard by hospital workers who ran down to the basement and found Evaristo, now a 90-lb. bag of skin and bones, crouching on all fours.

"I was tired," he moaned. "I just wanted to rest."

Carefully the living skeleton was carried upstairs and put to bed after being given stimulants and injections of liquid food.

Within a few days of his rescue — last November 1 — his sight returned and he was on the way to recovery.

By JOHN HENSHAW — ENQUIRER Washington Bureau Chief

WASHINGTON — The hottest story making the rounds here is that the U.S. Justice Department prevented the arrest of Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby BEFORE the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Oswald and the man who killed him, Ruby, were suspected of being partners in crime seven months before the President's death.

The incredible details of the story are so explosive that officials won't even answer "no comment" when queried about it. But the story being discussed by top-level government officials reveals:

1. That the Justice Department deliberately kept Oswald and Ruby out of jail before the assassination.

2. That Dallas cops suspected Oswald of being the gunman and Ruby the paymaster in a plot to murder former Major General Edwin A. Walker — seven months before the President was assassinated.

3. That the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency was using Ruby to recruit commandos for raids against Castro's Cuba. To prevent this explosive information from being disclosed, the CIA asked the Justice Dept. to step in and stop the Dallas police from arresting Jack Ruby as well as

There is a suspicion among the American public that there is more to the story behind the assassination of President Kennedy and his slayer, Lee Oswald, than has been disclosed.

The ENQUIRER prints this article in the hope it will lead to the solution of the mystery surrounding these tragic events.

Months before JFK

A top-secret document — a letter signed by a high official of the Justice Dept. — was sent in April 1963 from the Justice Dept. to Dallas Chief of Police Jesse E. Curry requesting the Dallas police NOT to arrest Oswald and Ruby in connection with the attempted slaying of General Walker.

After a sniper shot at, but missed, General Walker in Dallas, April 10, 1963, Dallas police suspected that Oswald was the sniper and Ruby the payoff man.

The cops were set to arrest the pair. But they never got the chance because of the heavy pressure brought to bear by the Justice Dept. And so Oswald and Ruby were allowed to remain free. And seven months later, on last November 22 in Dallas, Oswald was able to kill the President of the United States.

LEE OSWALD

JACK RUBY

The top-secret document — a copy of it is reportedly in the hands of the Presidential commission investigating the assassination — bares a web of intrigue that involves the Federal Bureau of Investigation, along with the Justice Dept. and the Central Intelligence Agency.

It is so politically explosive that the Presidential commission, headed by Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, has even withheld it from one of its own members, Senator Richard Russell (D., Ga.).

It is feared that Senator Russell, who leads the South in the fight against the civil rights bill, might use the document as a weapon against the Justice Dept. and its chief, Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, a leader in the fight for civil rights.

The document — requesting the cops not to arrest Ruby and Oswald — contradicts the FBI report on the assassination and the subsequent murder of Oswald.

According to the New York Times, the FBI report, which was turned over to the Justice Dept. on December 4 and then to the Presidential commission five days later, concludes "that there was no link between Oswald and Jack Ruby."

The Times added, in its issue of December 10:

"Speculation that Oswald and Ruby knew each other, or in some way were part of a prior vendetta or association, is completely discounted in the report."

The ENQUIRER learned, however, that on the day Ruby killed Oswald, a man named Bill DeMar told reporters he saw Oswald in Ruby's Carousel night club.

DeMar, under the stage name of Bill Crowe, was then master of ceremonies at the club.

The ENQUIRER traced DeMar to an Evansville, Ind., night club and questioned him on April 11. He told our reporter that he had seen Oswald sitting in the Carousel on the night of November 21 — the night before Oswald assassinated President Kennedy.

DeMar said: "I gave the FBI a statement about seeing Oswald in the club and that was it. I told them the same thing I'm telling you.

"I signed it and have heard nothing more about the incident to this day."

And, on March 17, just three days after a jury voted the death penalty for Ruby, the Associated Press reported from Dallas:

"District Attorney Henry Wade has disclosed how prosecutors made the 'big decision' of the Jack Ruby murder trial.

"The decision: They would not call witnesses who swore they saw Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald together before a sniper assassinated President Kennedy here.

"Testimony from these witnesses would have made worldwide headlines. And, if jurors had believed the testimony, it would have provided a motive for the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald.

"Wade said FBI agents and other investigators provided him with a list of witnesses who insisted they had seen Ruby and Oswald together at various times.

"The district attorney said he decided not to call these witnesses because he had doubts about the accuracy of their statements."

And the New York Times, in an article from Dallas dated March 15, reported:

"Some law enforcement officials in Dallas continued to believe that a connection (between Ruby and Oswald) was possible but, if so, that it was personal and did not necessarily involve the assassination."

The FBI became involved in the undercover maneuverings to stop the arrest of Oswald and Ruby shortly after the attempt to snuff out the life of Gen. Walker, who had been preaching ultraconservatism since he was relieved of his command in Germany.

Walker then resigned from the Army.

GEN. EDWIN A. WALKER

A high FBI official w asked by a top official in t Justice Dept., after it was n fied by the CIA of the poten ly volatile situation in Da to request Dallas police not arrest Oswald or Ruby.

The FBI official refused to it, saying it would be obstruct justice and therefore would a crime.

The FBI man said he make the request only if officially directed to do so in communication signed by official.

The FBI official then receiv a signed directive. He contact Dallas police and urged the not to arrest Oswald and Rub

But the Dallas police al wanted an official signed co munication.

Thereupon the Justice De sent the communication to D las Police Chief Curry aski that Oswald and Ruby be l strictly alone.

The department explained didn't want Oswald and Ru arrested because of "reasons state."

The Justice Dept. was the request on behalf of

Because the CIA was deep involved with Ruby — and pr ably Oswald, too!

CIA agents had been usi Ruby to recruit men in the D las area to serve as commanc against Castro's government Cuba.

And they didn't dare let Ru be arrested and chance such formation getting out.

There were also indicatio that Oswald himself might ha

been working both sides of the fence — as a double agent for both the Communists and the CIA.

So both Oswald and Ruby were left at liberty.

For the next few months Oswald took part in demonstrations in support of Castro, then went to Mexico City and tried to get a visa to visit Russia by way of Cuba.

Oswald's application for a visa was turned down.

Last October 3 he arrived back in Dallas. A week earlier it had been announced that President Kennedy would visit Dallas on November 22.

On October 14 Oswald got a room in a rooming house near the Texas School Book Depository in Dallas. The next day he were really found, except that evidence was overwhelming that the President had been killed by Oswald.

The same Oswald who had gone to Russia in 1959, pledged allegiance to the Soviet Union and tried to become a Russian citizen.

The Russians supposedly, for whatever reason, turned him down and he finally came back to America with his Russian-born wife, Marina, and their baby daughter in June 1962.

From then on he tried to get mixed up in left-wing activities, ordering all kinds of Communist literature and eventually becoming a loud supporter for Castro's Cuba.

He and his family lived first in Fort Worth, Tex., and then moved to Dallas.

In addition to the apartment he had with his wife and child he rented a room under the name of "A. Hidell."

On March 20, 1963, he received a rifle under that name from a mail-order firm located in Chicago.

On April 10 a sniper fired a rifle bullet through a window of the Dallas home of Gen. Walker.

Gen. Walker was working at his desk on his income tax returns.

The bullet missed his head by scant inches, went through a 9-inch wall and came out in another room.

Dallas police investigation showed that the sniper shot from an alley 150 feet from the Walker home, using a fence to steady the rifle.

Dallas police also had the report of a witness who was near ly after the attempt on Walker's life that he saw two men, not one, run to an auto and make their getaway.

And within a few days after the shot was fired Dallas police felt they had a complete case.

Then came the fantastic series of maneuvers cloaked in secrecy which kept Oswald — the man who was to assassinate President Kennedy — a free man.

After the slaying, President Johnson appointed a seven-member commission, headed by Justice Warren, to inquire into the assassination.

Then, just after the commission began work, it was reported by United Press International on December 6 that Oswald's wife, Marina, had informed the FBI that her husband told her excitedly in April 1963 that he tried to kill Gen. Walker.

The FBI declined to comment

OFFICER J.D. TIPPITT

The New York Times reported, in a story datelined from Dallas on December 7, that "evidence developed this week showed that it (the rifle used to kill President Kennedy) was first used April 10 to fire into the home here of Edwin A. Walker."

On February 4, the day after Marina Oswald's first appearance before the Warren commission, Chief Justice Warren told reporters that Marina's testimony "may not be released in your lifetime."

The Chief Justice said that the testimony would be preserved for the public but that it may be suppressed for decades. He finished his statement to the press with: "I say this seriously."

J. Lee Rankin, general counsel to the Warren commission, also talked to reporters on that day. He said that Mrs. Oswald's testimony dealt with her husband's activities in the U.S. after he returned from Russia. Rankin also said that Mrs. Oswald offered the commission some "new evidence."

Later that same day Warren refused to confirm Rankin's reference to "new evidence."

Two fantastic turns in the Oswald-Ruby mystery were front-paged in the New York Journal-American of Sunday, February 23.

First, the paper revealed that one of the men who put the finger on accused assassin Oswald also had been shot.

The man, Warren Reynolds, said he saw Oswald running away, putting new shells into a pistol as he did, after officer Tippitt was shot to death.

Then, in January, Reynolds was closing up his office when

Times of Thursday, March 5, Lane gave sensational evidence in Washington to the Warren commission.

The Times said that Lane, who has frequently challenged the view that Oswald was guilty of shooting Kennedy, had told the commission he'd heard of a secret meeting in a Dallas night club eight days before the President was killed.

Lane told the commission that at the secret meeting November 14 were J.D. Tippitt, the Dallas patrolman who was slain while trying to arrest Oswald; Bernard Weissman, a New York resident who had placed an anti-Kennedy advertisement in a Dallas newspaper the day the President was shot, and a third person.

The mystery deepened even further when Lane would not state publicly who this third person was.

But the commission knows the identity of the Mystery Man because Lane told it to them after the hearing room was cleared of newsmen and spectators.

Lane had said that the secret November 14 meeting was held in Ruby's Carousel Club, and when the public hearing of the commission resumed, Justice Warren asked a question loaded with dynamite:

"Mr. Lane, what was the PURPOSE of this meeting in Dallas?"

But the purpose remains a secret, because Lane answered that his information did not indicate what they were talking about.

But, Lane said, Tippitt, Weissman and the Mystery Man

got a job at the depository as an order filler.

And it was from a sixth-floor window of that depository that Oswald, last November 22, fired the shots that killed President Kennedy and wounded Texas Governor John Connally.

Oswald escaped and was captured an hour and a half later, but not before he had shot Dallas policeman J.D. Tippitt to death.

Two days later, as a stunned world watched on television, Jack Ruby dashed up and shot Oswald to death as police were leading the handcuffed Oswald through a basement corridor of City Hall.

Ruby, the Dallas night club owner, went on trial for that killing on March 4. He was convicted of "murder with malice" on March 14.

But after the assassination of President Kennedy and the killing of Oswald the investigations came.

on this news but said its investigation was continuing.

he was shot in the temple with a bullet fired from a .22-caliber rifle.

The Journal-American said that "a local desperado named Garner was picked up by the police after the shooting but was cleared."

And this resulted in the second startling revelation: Garner's girl, Betty (Mooney) McDonald, took a lie detector test that helped to clear him. And this same Betty McDonald had worked as a stripper in Jack Ruby's Carousel.

In early February, Betty was arrested for engaging in a public brawl with a roommate — and a week later she hanged herself in her cell.

Another person who has added to the deepening mystery of the Ruby-Oswald link is Mark Lane, a former New York Assemblyman, who claims to represent Oswald.

According to the New York

Teenager Wants Cops to Kill Him, So He Murders A Stranger

By LOUIS MANSON

Sixteen-year-old Charles Morris stood at a window of his home with a rifle and looked out.

The first person he saw was Kenneth Beebe, 18, who was digging a ditch nearby. Morris had never seen Beebe before in his life. But he aimed a rifle at him — and shot him to death.

KILLER: Charles Morris, 16, killed a youth he had never seen before.

And when police came for Morris he told them:

"I killed him because I wanted to die.

"I knew if I killed someone the police would have to come and get me — and I wanted to be killed myself."

Police asked him: "If you wanted to die why didn't you just shoot yourself?"

Morris replied: "I knew I'd never have the nerve.

"This was easier. I just wanted the police to kill me."

And that's why he murdered a stranger.

It was a broken teenage romance that led to Morris' murder and suicide scheme in Walled Lake, Mich.

He had been going with a 15-year-old girl and last October they ran off to Kentucky to try to get married.

But authorities caught up with them and brought them back. The girl's parents then refused to let their daughter see Morris anymore.

Morris brooded about it for

'I Did It Because I Didn't Have the Nerve to Shoot Myself,' He Says

He took a .32 caliber deer rifle his stepfather had recently bought, loaded it and went to a window on the second-floor landing of the home. He later explained:

"Rather than cause anyone any trouble I decided I'd get myself taken care of.

"I was going to shoot somebody — anybody passing by on the road."

Morris didn't explain just how he thought no trouble would be caused by shooting an innocent

Beebe's father had gone for some extra equipment, while the other men had just gone for lunch. Young Beebe had eaten earlier and was all alone at the ditch.

Said Morris: "I could see I had hit him but then he started to run.

"So I shot again, and then again. And he fell."

The second shot missed but the third broke Beebe's spine.

ment and upstairs.

They found Morris sitting in the kitchen — smoking a cigarette and drinking a glass of milk.

Morris then told police all about his weird reason for shooting Beebe and finally said:

"I did it because I didn't have

"She's the only one who cared about me. There's no reason for me to live anymore."

Last November 6, while his stepfather was at work and his mother was out shopping, Morris turned from brooding to deadly action.

In any event, as he looked out the window of his home, he spotted Beebe.

Beebe was shoveling dirt from a shallow trench across the way. He was one of an eight-man crew, of which his father was foreman, digging a pipe trench

"But when I looked out the window and saw him over there, I just aimed the rifle and fired."

The shot hit Beebe in the left shoulder, knocking him down.

Terrified and unaware of where the shot had come from, Beebe staggered to his feet and Neighbors heard the shots and called police.

A dozen police raced to the scene and surrounded the Morris home.

They called to the boy to come out but he refused. So police crept through the base-of the way, that's all."

Last February 12 Morris pleaded guilty to second-degree murder.

And on March 18 Judge Philip Pratt put him out of the way — but with a life sentence.

Washington Insiders Are Talking About Story Calling...

Jack Ruby and Lee Oswald Pals

According to the Times, Weissman had been asked by one reporter to comment on Lane's statement.

Weissman said that he had never met Tippitt or Ruby or Oswald.

And Weissman also said he had never been in Ruby's Carousel Club.

Then columnist Dorothy Kilgallen raised this "important question" in her nationally syndicated column on April 14:

"Why did Lee Harvey Oswald, presumably fleeing from the police after the assassination, approach Patrolman J.D. Tippitt's car — in broad daylight, with witnesses standing by — and shoot the policeman three times, although Officer Tippitt had not said a word to Oswald?

"A man who knows he is

wanted by the authorities after a spectacular crime does not seek out a policeman, usually, unless he has decided to give himself up, and certainly Oswald was not doing that.

"By shooting Officer Tippitt, instead of trying to make himself inconspicuous, Oswald put himself in double jeopardy. His act almost guaranteed his arrest.

"Why?

"A whodunit fan would infer that the policeman knew something about Oswald that was so dangerous he had to be silenced at any cost, even Oswald's chance of escape and freedom."

Oswald's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, pointed to still another possible explanation for the murder of Tippitt.

When Mrs. Oswald was asked, "Who killed Tippitt?" by Bob Considine of the Journal-American, she replied in his column of March 13:

" 'Nobody seems interested in how Lee got out of the Book Depository the day of the assassination. The place was surrounded by police, absolutely surrounded. Yet Lee walked right by them.

" 'You know how?

" 'Because Tippitt took him out.

" 'Then the higher-ups in the conspiracy ordered somebody to kill Tippitt. Part of the master plan, the way I figure it. Marina's (Oswald's widow) part of it, too. CIA or one of those agencies.' "

Speculation that Oswald was not working alone was also voiced in a United Press International dispatch from London which was printed in the Newark, N.J., Star-Ledger on April 19.

"Millions of Europeans refuse to believe that the assassination of John F. Kennedy was not part of a larger conspiracy that has still not been exposed," the dispatch said.

"The most respectable newspapers and radio and television stations in western Europe feed this viewpoint by giving prominence to reports that insist that the late President was slain as part of a left-wing or a right-wing plot.

"On both sides of the Iron Curtain, the belief is widespread that Lee Harvey Oswald was not a psychopath who acted alone. Many think he was the agent of a ring which most definitely included Jack Ruby as one of the conspirators."

The UPI report also notes that Serge Grussard, "one of France's best known journalists," wrote from Dallas:

" 'Very probably Ruby killed him to shut his mouth forever, for Oswald could not have acted alone.' "

In the United States, the Warren commission continues to listen to testimony from the many people concerned in the case.

But the most fantastic revelation to come to the commission was the communication from the Justice Dept. to the Dallas Police Department.

If this document exists, The ENQUIRER feels it is the right of the American public to know of it.

Is the Warren commission — and all other interested agencies and officials — keeping the lid on this shocking secret?

Only time will tell.

BUREAU NOTE:

Legat has three SA's on special assignment handling phases of Oswald case. It was originally contemplated they would complete investigation by first of May. However, additional investigation requested by Commission and any leads which may develop if Legat finds manifest of Red Arrow Bus may necessitate holding men on special assignment in Mexico City for additional period. We cannot assess Legat's needs here.

RE: ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER

Re Washington Field airtel 4-10-64.

Enclosed for the Bureau are eight copies of a letterhead memorandum setting forth a contact with the original source regarding "ARNOLD" in Mexico City and showing that this source positively identified ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER as the "ARNOLD" who allegedly had dinner with LEE HARVEY OSWALD while the latter was in Mexico City. (See San Francisco airtel 3-20-64.)

Enclosed for Dallas are 25 copies of an insert setting forth the full details and background regarding this incident as well as certain data regarding KESSLER from the files of the Passport Office of the United States Department of State and from the records of the University of California at Berkeley, California. Instant insert is being furnished to Dallas for incorporation in an investigative report on OSWALD.

The source who furnished the data set forth in both the letterhead memorandum and the enclosed insert is [redacted] who furnished the information on 3-20-64 and 4-14-64 to SA FRANK S. FERRONE.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On March 20, 1964, an individual, who has requested his identity not be divulged but who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that while recently in Mexico City he met one Arnold (last name unknown) in the Casa de los Amigos operated by the American Friends Service Committee in Mexico City.

Arnold related on the occasion of the above-mentioned meeting that he had had dinner with Lee Harvey Oswald during the time that Oswald visited Mexico City prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. Arnold furnished no other details to this source regarding this dinner but source stated that Arnold claimed to be from Berkeley, California.

On April 14, 1964, a photograph of Arnold Louis Kessler dated September 10, 1963, which was obtained from the Passport Office of the United States Department of State by Investigative Clerk David L. De Weese on April 7, 1964, was exhibited to the above-mentioned source who immediately positively identified the photograph of Kessler as being a photograph of the individual named Arnold that he met at the Casa de los Amigos, Mexico City. Passport records of the United States Department of State reflect that Arnold Louis Kessler was born September 23, 1942, Detroit, Michigan, and was issued a passport at San Francisco, California, on September 10, 1963, at which time he indicated he intended to travel to Brazil, Peru and Argentina, staying abroad approximately six months.

Los Angeles teletype to Dallas dated 4/2/64, captioned "JACK LEON RUBY; LEE HARVEY OSWALD - VICTIM, CR", reflects a lead for the Dallas Office to locate and interview CHARLES A. LASATER at the Cabana Hotel in Dallas, Texas. It is, therefore, possible that Dallas has had previous contact with CHARLES A. LASATER and may know his current whereabouts.

Los Angeles is of the opinion that the rumor regarding plans to film a motion picture regarding the life of MARINA OSWALD may be without foundation. It would seem that prior to filming such a production this firm would have obtained rights to MARINA OSWALD's life from her and would have, therefore, been BUCK HARRIS, Publicity Director for the Screen Actors Guild, Hollywood, California, advised that Cinema International Productions (CIP) also known as Tex-Italia Productions (TIP) with offices in Rome, Italy, is rumored to be planning a film on the life of Mrs. MARINA OSWALD, widow of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

CIP has until recently, maintained offices at the Samuel Goldwyn Studios but according to HARRIS, now, merely operates out of an unidentified address, using telephone number HO 4-5161.

The corporation is reported to have offices in Rome, as well as in Hollywood, is headed by CHARLES LASATER and GEORGE DOUGLAS is reported to be the Vice President. HARRIS has no information concerning the background on previous film activities of either of these individuals.

BUCK HARRIS, Publicity Director, Screen Actors Guild, Hollywood, California, advised that a report alleging that Cinema International Productions (CIP) also known as Tex-Italia Productions (TIP) was planning to film a picture on the life of Mrs. OSWALD first came to him in February, 1964, from LARRY GLEN, Los Angeles correspondent for the New York Times newspaper.

HARRIS advised that this reporter had picked up the tip from an undisclosed news source and was requesting confirmation from HARRIS. According to this reporter, HARRIS stated this production company is headed by two men named CHARLES LASATER and GEORGE DOUGLAS, who in February had office space at the Samuel Goldwyn Studios.

HARRIS stated that since February, 1964, he has learned that LASATER and DOUGLAS were asked to leave the Samuel Goldwyn Studios lot for unknown reasons without having produced a motion picture. HARRIS has not been able to identify this company or the men heading it with any previous credits in the motion picture industry.

EARL S. DIETSCH, Comptroller, Samuel Goldwyn Studios, 1041 North Formosa Avenue, Hollywood, California, advised as follows:

On February 8, 1963, Onajet Productions, also known as Cinema International Pictures rented office space at the Samuel Goldwyn Studios in Hollywood, California and were ousted on February 21, 1964, for non-payment of rent. Principals of this firm were CHARLES A. LASATER, who claimed to be representing unnamed financial interest in Texas, GEORGE V. DOUGLAS, a writer, and WESLEY B. BLANKENSHIP reported to be the principal financier. BLANKENSHIP drew a check in payment for rent, drawn on the City National Bank of Lubbock, Texas Account #0675328, which reflected his address as 330 College Avenue, Lubbock, Texas, telephone No. PO 2-5221.

On February 17, 1964, CHARLES A. LASATER was notified by letter that the rental of this office was being closed out. This letter was sent to LASATER in care of the Cabana Motel, Dallas, Texas.

LASATER replied to the above letter on April 14, 1964, stating he would take care of the overdue rent. This letter revealed LASATER is associated with Tejano Productions, Inc. and Tex-Italia Films, 54250 Burnett Road, Austin, Texas, GL 2-5678.

GEORGE V. DOUGLAS sent a postal card to Mr. DIETSCH dated February 22, 1964, regarding past due rent which showed a return address of c/o Atlanta Cabana Motor Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia. DIETSCH said that none of the above persons had produced any films while at Goldwyn Studios and had not made any requests for facilities or technical crews since they departed Hollywood. DIETSCH said they did not appear to be doing any filming while in Hollywood, however, there were reports that women were being entertained in their offices on the studio lot from time to time.

DIETSCH said the only one of this group whom he had personally observed was GEORGE V. DOUGLAS and described him as male, white, age about 35 years, 5' 7", weight 160 -165 pounds, full head of dark hair, dark complexion and dark eyes. DOUGLAS claimed to be writing a story which he hoped would be produced into a film. DIETSCH knew no details as to the theme of this story.

DIETSCH stated he had no knowledge of any plans that this firm may have had to produce a film regarding MARINA OSWALD. DIETSCH stated that JACK FOREMAN, Samuel Goldwyn Studios Manager, had handled the original deal and may be able to furnish any additional details.

JACK FOREMAN, General Manager of the Samuel Goldwyn Studios, Hollywood, California, was aware that CHARLES LASATER and GEORGE V. DOUGLAS, representing Cinema International Pictures had rented office space at Samuel Goldwyn Studios. FOREMAN stated that LASATER and DOUGLAS first came to his attention a little over a year ago when they came to the Samuel Goldwyn Studios with the actor HORST BUCHHOLZ. They discussed a plan involving a circus film which had been made in Germany and on which BUCHHOLZ had obtained an option on the distribution rights. They planned to edit and distribute this film in the United States. FOREMAN stated this deal did not materialize and LASATER, DOUGLAS and a financial backer, WESLEY B. BLANKENSHIP, retained office space at the Goldwyn Studios for the stated intention of producing a film if the story property could be obtained. DOUGLAS was to have developed a story. Neither was, however, developed and no film was produced and when they failed to pay their rent they were closed out at the Samuel Goldwyn Studios.

FOREMAN stated that LASATER appeared to be the promoter of the above scheme. He described LASATER as follows:

Age	30's or early 40's
Sex	Male
Race	White
Height	5' 10"
Weight	160 pounds
Hair	Brown
Complexion	Medium
Build	Thin
Characteristics	Well dressed, and wore glasses.

FOREMAN described DOUGLAS as male white, about 40 years, stocky build, dark hair and eyes, dark complexion, full head of hair which grew low on his forehead.

BLANKENSHIP was described by FOREMAN as:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Weight	170-180 pounds

FOREMAN stated that at no time did any of these three persons mention interest in, or filming, a picture concerning the life of MARINA OSWALD. FOREMAN said he had no knowledge of anyone else in the motion picture industry planning such a film.

FOREMAN stated he had no knowledge of the present activities of the above three men and had made no inquiry regarding obtaining technical crews for filming since they left the Hollywood area.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

MAURICE OUELLET, Police Chief, Samuel Goldwyn Studios, Hollywood, California, advised as follows:

He recalls CHARLES LASATER and GEORGE DOUGLAS, who had an office at Samuel Goldwyn Studios lot for about a year. CHARLES LASATER who was associated with DOUGLAS merely came and went, staying only a short time. LASATER spoke of being from Texas and representing financial interest in Texas interested in making motion picture films. LASATER claimed to be travelling back and forth between Hollywood and Texas and usually arrived at the Samuel Goldwyn Studios in a cab or with some other person, name not recalled, in what appeared to be rented automobiles. OUELLET advised that GEORGE DOUGLAS also appeared to drive rented automobiles except when he first came to the Studio when he drove an old white Cadillac convertible.

OUELLET advised that frequently DOUGLAS appeared at the Goldwyn lot with an entourage of young men who were for the most part, flashily dressed. He described these young men as "Hollywood characters," who hang around the studios and do not appear to be working in the industry, moreover, their identities were unknown to OUELLET. He stated that DOUGLAS usually dressed in a "flashy" manner and wore high-top, pointed shoes. On numerous occasions DOUGLAS was observed bringing onto the Goldwyn Studios lot, "flashily dressed" women, and, in the opinion of OUELLET, DOUGLAS was using the studio as a place to hold parties. LASATER was also observed at the studio during some of the times that these parties were thought to be in progress. The identities of these women were not known to OUELLET.

OUELLET was aware that there was another man from Texas who reportedly was financing DOUGLAS and LASATER, however, he could neither describe him or furnish his identity.

OUELLET advised he had no knowledge of any of the above men or anyone else at the Sam Goldwyn Studios or elsewhere who was planning to produce a film regarding the life of MARINA OSWALD.

Synopsis:

CHARLES ALDEN SCHMIDT located at La Puente, California and interviewed May 5, 1964. SCHMIDT states that he and associate, JOHN O'BRIEN, drove his automobile from Omaha, Nebraska to Monterrey, Mexico during latter part of September, 1963, and returned to the U. S. at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963. SCHMIDT accompanied by owner of cafe at Encinal, Texas named "JATO", who acted as guide during trip to Monterrey, Mexico. Purpose of trip to Mexico was to have a "lark" with friend O'BRIEN. SCHMIDT denies that he met or was associated with either OSWALD or RUBY during above trip. SCHMIDT is certain he did not observe OSWALD nor was he in contact with OSWALD at Mexican Border Crossing Station, Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963. JOHN O'BRIEN now living in motel and employed Fullerton, California.

Sheriff RUSSELL BROOBERG, Otter Tail County Sheriff's Office, Fergus Falls, Minnesota, advised on April 29, 1964, that CHARLES SCHMIDT is the son of HERMAN SCHMIDT, who resides at 1102 East Vasa Street, Fergus Falls, Minnesota. BROOBERG advised that CHARLES SCHMIDT has not been in the Fergus Falls area for a considerable period of time and the last he heard, SCHMIDT was reportedly operating a liquor store in Omaha, Nebraska. SCHMIDT, when in the Fergus Falls area, was somewhat of a problem to his parents and is a somewhat irresponsible individual. The records of the Otter Tail County Sheriff's Office reflect CHARLES SCHMIDT was arrested on August 2, 1950, and charged with Reckless Driving, four Stop-sign violations, and three Speeding violations. He was arrested by the Minnesota Highway Patrol at Fergus Falls, appeared in court subsequent to his arrest, where he received a fine in the amount of $370, court costs of $40, and a 90-day jail sentence was suspended, with SCHMIDT being placed on probation for a period of one year.

Mrs. HERMAN SCHMIDT, 1102 East Vasa Street, Fergus Falls, Minnesota, advised April 29, 1964, that her son, CHARLES, formerly operated a liquor store in Omaha, and subsequent to this, a Tastee Freeze, also in Omaha. When these two business ventures failed, he was engaged in the construction of houses, with an unknown partner, at Papillion, Nebraska. She said the last actual contact she had with her son was when she and her husband, HERMAN, visited him at Papillion, Nebraska, which was in the latter part of October, 1963. She advised that at this time CHARLES was having marital difficulty and was living alone at Papillion. She was aware her son, CHARLES, had departed from Papillion approximately the latter part of November, 1963, and she had been informed by her daughter, Mrs. CLIFFORD STENERSON, 18611 1st Avenue South, Seattle 88, Washington, that CHARLES had spent Christmas with the STENERSONs at Seattle. She stated that last correspondence she had received from CHARLES was during Easter, 1964, when she received a postcard from him from Baldwin, California. She commented that she was unable to locate this card and was unable to remember the exact address in Baldwin.

Mrs. SCHMIDT stated that she was in receipt of a telephone call from CHARLES April 25, 1964. She advised that she assumed CHARLES and his wife were again living together, as when she had conversed with him, she had inquired relative to the health and welfare of his wife, PATRICIA, and CHARLES had replied that she was home. Mrs. SCHMIDT stated her son's parents-in-law, the HARM MEISTERS, reside at Baldwin, California. She stated that she did not know their residence address in Baldwin, California.

Mrs. SCHMIDT stated that although she was not certain, she would assume her son would be engaged in construction work in Baldwin. She had no knowledge that he had been in Mexico and stated that she did not know any individual by the name of JACK O'BRIEN.

AT BALDWIN PARK, CALIFORNIA

On May 5, 1964, Mrs. RACHEL MEESTER, [illegible]er of the Baldwin Park Hotel, 14211 East Morgan Stree[illegible]ed as follows:

She and her husband, HARM MEESTER, manage this small hotel. CHARLES SCHMIDT is their son-in-law, having married their daughter, PATRICIA. CHARLES SCHMIDT resided at this hotel with his wife from January, 1964, to the first week in April, 1964, when they moved to a residence in La Puente, California. Mrs. MEESTER advised that she does not know the correct residence address or the name of the street where CHARLES SCHMIDT and his wife reside and they have no telephone. She stated that she is currently caring for her granddaughter, DAWN SCHMIDT, and was planning to drive to the SCHMIDT residence on the afternoon of May 5, 1964. She stated she would personally contact CHARLES SCHMIDT and his wife and arrange for them to telephonically contact the Los Angeles Office of the FBI.

During the evening of May 5, 1964, CHARLES SCHMIDT telephonically contacted the Los Angeles Office of the FBI and furnished his residence address as 18653 Bellarita Street, La Puente, California, and agreed to an interview by a Special Agent of the FBI.

AT LA PUENTE, CALIFORNIA

1 Date 5/6/64

CHARLES ALDEN SCHMIDT, 18653 Bellarita, La Puente, California, advised he was born December 5, 1933, at Fergus Falls, Minnesota. He is currently employed as a carpenter for Transa Structures, Inc., 130 North Magnolia, Fullerton, California. He is married and has three children.

In 1963, he resided at 721 Jane's View, Papillion, Nebraska, a suburb of Omaha, Nebraska. He came to California from Nebraska on January 2, 1964, and lived with his wife, PATRICIA, at the Baldwin Park Hotel, 14211 East Morgan Street, Baldwin Park, California. His mother-in-law, Mrs. HARM MEESTER, manages this small hotel. In early April, 1964, he moved to his current address.

SCHMIDT stated that during, 1963, he suffered several financial business losses at Omaha, Nebraska, where he was a building contractor. He also was having serious marital difficulty which culminated in a temporary separation from his wife and family during 1st> September, 1963. At the time of this separation, he and a close friend, JOHN O'BRIEN, decided to travel to Mexico on a "lark". He and O'BRIEN departed Omaha during the last week in September, 1963, driving his 1960 Ford station wagon bearing Nebraska license plates.

He recalls that enroute to Mexico, they spent one night at a cheap hotel in downtown Dallas, Texas and got drunk at a beer tavern located next door to this hotel. He does not remember the name of either the hotel or the bar. At Encinal, Texas not far from the Mexican border, a front wheel bearing on his car had to be replaced. It was repaired at a garage and near this garage was a cafe and "beer joint". He and O'BRIEN drank beer while the auto was being repaired and they became acquainted with the owner of this cafe, a man of Mexican descent named "JATO". He does not know this man's correct name. This man was rather fat. They discussed their plans to drive down to Monterrey, Mexico for several days and "JATO" agreed to come with them and act as their guide since he was familiar with the Spanish language and knew his way around Monterrey.

SCHMIDT and O'BRIEN obtained a Border Crossing Permit and drove into Nuevo Laredo, Mexico that same evening, about September 30, 1963, and spent the night at a motel. "JATO" had to remain at his cafe, but joined them the following morning in Nuevo Laredo. SCHMIDT, O'BRIEN and "JATO" then drove in SCHMIDT's auto to Monterrey, Mexico, a distance of about 150 miles.

The three of them registered and stayed at a hotel in Monterrey, Mexico, the name of which SCHMIDT could not remember. SCHMIDT recalls that the day of their arrival at Monterrey was the first day of the World Series Games. He recalls they spent about five days at Monterrey, during which time they watched the World Series on television, drank beer at several Mexican clubs and generally cavorted around Monterrey.

SCHMIDT stated he did not meet nor was he associated with any other Americans at Monterrey. They did most of their drinking at "The Monterrey Bar". After the first two games of the World Series, they drove back to Nuevo Laredo and spent the night on the Mexican side, having registered at a motel. He recalled getting drunk at a Mexican bar in Nuevo Laredo not far from the motel, but fails to recall the name of the motel or bar.

The following morning SCHMIDT and O'BRIEN departed Nuevo Laredo in their auto and entered the U. S. across the border station. He said this was about 10:00 a.m. "JATO" had his own auto in Nuevo Laredo and returned to Encinal separately. He said this would have been about October 3, 1963. He recalled that just after crossing the border, he stopped at a Phillips 66 gasoline station and bought a new tire for his auto.

From Laredo he and O'BRIEN drove back to Omaha,

FBI/DOJ

Nebraska, arriving at his home on the following Sunday. He recalled they drove through Dallas, Texas enroute to Nebraska, but did not stop or stay overnight at Dallas.

SCHMIDT stated that he is certain that at no time during this trip did he meet or was he associated with either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK LEON RUBY. He observed photographs of OSWALD and RUBY and stated he is certain he has never met or been associated with either of these men. SCHMIDT said that during this trip there were no other riders in his auto except himself, O'BRIEN and "JATO".

SCHMIDT stated he knows nothing more regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY than what he saw on television and read in the newspapers. He also has no personal knowledge regarding either OSWALD or JACK LEON RUBY. SCHMIDT stated he has never been associated with the Communist Party or any other subversive organization in any manner.

SCHMIDT stated that JOHN O'BRIEN now resides in a motel in Fullerton, California and works at the Transa Structures, Inc. in Fullerton. He has known and associated with O'BRIEN for many years and states he is certain that O'BRIEN has no personal knowledge of OSWALD or RUBY.

SCHMIDT advised he has been arrested for minor offenses such as drunkenness, speeding and fighting with his wife in Minnesota during 1958, but denies that he has been arrested for any serious crime.

The following description of SCHMIDT was obtained by observation and interview:

Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Born:	December 5, 1933 at Fergus Falls, Minnesota
Age:	30
Height:	5'9"

Weight:	150 pounds

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

A confidential source abroad has advised as follows:

Arnold Louis Kessler, whose permanent residence is 18266 Pinehurst, Detroit 21, Michigan, on April 30, 1964, in Sao Paulo, Brazil, advised that he at no time, at any place, had been in contact with Lee Harvey Oswald and advised he had made no statement to anyone that he had had such a contact in Mexico, D. F. Kessler stated that he may have made the remark to someone that a friend of his, Homobono Alcaraz Aragon, had once remarked that he had met Oswald in Mexico City. Kessler advised that approximately the middle of February, 1964, Aragon had told him, Kessler, that he had been contacted by representatives of the U. S. Embassy in Mexico City concerning his contact with Oswald and that he had told the Embassy representatives that he had, on one occasion, been introduced to Oswald. Kessler stated he had no details of the meeting between Aragon and Oswald but that his recollection is that Aragon had stated he had been introduced to Oswald sometime in the fall of 1963 and that it is his, Kessler's, recollection that Aragon had stated that Oswald and the person who introduced them had had coffee with him at that time at an unidentified place in Mexico City. Kessler stated he could recall no other details of Aragon's statements and that he has no other details concerning such a meeting between Aragon and Oswald. Kessler noted that he does not know whether Aragon actually met Oswald or not. He advised that Aragon had been worried in mid-February, 1964, during the reported conversation, as he was at that time attempting to obtain a temporary U. S. visa and feared that he would not obtain the visa as a result of his reported contact with Oswald.

Kessler stated he had gone to Detroit from California approximately September 17, 1963, and that he was in Detroit, Michigan, on September 28, 1963, his birthday. He stated he departed Detroit during the first week of October, 1963, spent one day in Chicago, two days in St. Louis, and approximately one week in Guanajuato, State of Guanajuato, Mexico, after which he had taken a bus to Mexico City. He advised that upon arriving in Mexico City he had checked into the Casa de Los Amigos and that as near as he could recollect this was approximately the middle of October, 1963.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Kessler stated he had worked for the "Mexico City Times," a Mexico City newspaper, from November, 1963, to the first part of February, 1964, at which time he had gone to Veracruz, Mexico, for approximately one week during Carnival. He stated he returned to Mexico City about the middle of February, 1964, and it was at this time that Aragon had made the statements concerning his having met Oswald. Kessler stated he had made a hitchhiking and commercial travel trip through Central America, arriving in Sao Paulo, Brazil, approximately March 17, 1964. He further advised that since he has been instructed to report for his Selective Service physical examination in Detroit on May 22, 1964, he plans to depart Sao Paulo on May 5, 1964, for Buenos Aires, Argentina, where he will spend approximately one week, after which he will return to Detroit by air via Lima, Peru.

Kessler reiterated that he has at no time met Lee Harvey Oswald and knows of no other person who met Oswald, other than possibly Aragon. He stated he could furnish no information as to other persons who might have information concerning a possible contact between Aragon and Oswald.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

DATE: 5-4-64
1 - Mr. DeLoach
1 - Mr. Rosen
1 - Mr. Sullivan

1 - Mr. Lenihan
1 - Mr. Branigan

Reference is made to the memorandum from Assistant Director DeLoach 4-30-64 which reported information that Walter Jenkins, Special Assistant to the President, had a friend who allegedly met one of our Special Agents. The Agent had formerly been assigned to the New Orleans Office. The Agent told Jenkins' friend that he had been transferred from New Orleans as a result of getting into difficulty with a woman in the French Quarter. The alleged Agent told Jenkins' friend that he assisted in the investigation of the Oswald case and that Oswald, prior to his murder, was definitely an FBI informant. The Agent stated that FBI files in Washington would prove this fact.

It was recommended and approved that we review personnel files to find out if any of the Agents who have been transferred there from New Orleans is a type of disciplinary problem as described above. If there is such an Agent, he should be interviewed re this matter.

A review of personnel files discloses there were 3 Special Agents transferred directly from New Orleans to Dallas. Of these three, the following two cases are noted:

[redacted] was transferred from New Orleans to Dallas 5-31-60. This action was taken inasmuch as [redacted] was the subject of an allegation in the New Orleans Office to the effect that he had spent a weekend at a hotel with a female stenographer. This allegation was denied under oath by [redacted] and by the stenographer and the records of the hotel did not support the allegation.

SA Will Hayden Griffin was transferred from New Orleans to Springfield 5-28-58. This was later changed to Dallas, Texas. At the same time, SA Griffin was censured, placed on probation and suspended without pay for five days. This action followed misconduct on the part of the Agent while attending the 809 Club located in the New Orleans French Quarter. Allegations, which were not established conclusively, were made against him to the effect that he remarked he would see Jean Rose, one of the dancers at the club, in jail and that he patted her on the derriere when she was dancing near his table.

It was concluded that SA Griffin had used poor judgment in calling New Orleans detectives, in becoming involved in a discussion with police and management of the 809 Club and in making remarks which had been misconstrued as threats against the owner and a doorman at the club. It was also found that his personal conduct at the club was not in keeping with that required of a Special Agent and he was derelict in failing to report the matter to his SAC.

ACTION:

It would appear that SA Griffin meets the description of the Agent described by the friend of Mr. Walter Jenkins. Accordingly, in the absence of the SAC, Kyle Clark, ASAC, Dallas, was instructed to arrange for the immediate interview of SA Griffin to determine if he made the statement that Oswald was definitely an FBI informant and he was instructed to obtain an appropriate statement from SA Griffin. It was pointed out to ASAC Clark that he was not at liberty to disclose the name of Walter Jenkins but that the interview should cover any contacts SA Griffin may have had with persons and conversations held with them which could be interpreted as indicated above.

Dallas was instructed to promptly advise of the results together with their recommendations.

FROM : A. H. Belmont

cc Mr. Belmont

SUBJECT: THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

Regarding the letter from the President's Commission, dated 5/1/64, requesting me to testify on 5/6/64, it is noted that Mr. Stern of the Commission staff was to make arrangements to give me further details as to what the Commission would cover.

On 5/4/64 Mr. Stern advised that, after establishing my connection with the Bureau, I would be asked to discuss the organization of the Bureau into divisions, field offices, et cetera; the opening of an investigative case; the supervision of the investigative agent in the field and at the seat of government; an explanation of the office of origin versus auxiliary offices; how information flows between field offices and between the seat of government and the field; a brief discussion of our filing system; and the volume of our work.

Thereafter they will come to the Oswald case and establish my qualifications. I will point out that I am responsible for investigations and, therefore, responsible for this case. They will then introduce the Director's letter of 4/6/64, which sets forth answers to the thirty questions posed by the Commission relative to our investigation of Oswald. Stern said he will discuss particularly questions 1, 2, 3 and 4, dealing with our interest in Oswald prior to his return to this country and our location and interview of Oswald after his return.

They will also go into questions 22, 23, and 24, as to our investigation to locate Oswald in October, 1963; our reaction to CIA's report of his visit to the Soviet Embassy in Mexico; and as to our degree of interest in Oswald's application for a passport in June, 1963.

They will then take up the letter we furnished Rankin today showing the contents of our file on Oswald prior to the assassination on 11/22/63. They will then ask as to our evaluation of Oswald during the time we were investigating him.

NOT RECORDED
79 MAY 8 1964

At this point I am going to discuss the Bureau's approach to security work and the requirement for good judgment both in investigative procedures and the handling of security information; that we only investigate in security cases when there is a reason, and the type of investigation is based on this reason. I will discuss why we investigated and how we went about it.

AHB:CSH (2)

79 MAY 13 1964

Mr. Tolson

They will then introduce the Director's letters of 2/6, 10 and 12/64, and affidavit, refuting the allegation that Oswald was an informant. They will then introduce the Director's letter of 3/31/64, dealing with our liaison with Secret Service and criteria for dissemination to Secret Service, prior to and subsequent to the assassination, and the fact that we have provided agents to assist Secret Service in protecting the President.

At this point I will, as I have previously done with Messrs. Rankin and Stern, discuss the continuing need to balance security measures against the rights of the individual; that the increase in security controls inevitably diminishes the area of individual liberty, and the FBI handles its responsibilities in the field of security as a trust--to effect and preserve the internal security of our country and its people to the maximum degree possible, but within the law and in such a manner as to strengthen, not weaken, our free society. It is noted that both Rankin and Stern have advised me that a discussion along these lines, of the FBI's approach to security work, will be a most telling point with the Commission.

For information.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY
11/22/64; DALLAS, TEXAS

In accordance with the telephonic request of Mr. Richard Mosk, Commission Staff Attorney, evidence items numbered 201, 202, 303, 305 and 324 were delivered to the Commission on 5/4/64. These items consist of pamphlets entitled "The Crime Against Cuba," a booklet entitled "The Socialist Worker's Party," a Russian book and several pages from another foreign language book. Lee Oswald

It is understood that these items were to be made available to the National Security Agency by the Commission for examination as to whether they contain any codes or ciphers for use by Oswald. These items have previously been examined in the Laboratory and no code of cipher material was found. As previously reported, certain pages do have small "cut-out" portions, and while it is theoretically possible for such pages to serve as the basis for a type of cipher, nothing was found to indicate that such was the intended purpose of the cut-out pages. On the contrary, it is considered more likely that the cut-out portions were merely for the purpose of securing printed letters or words.

The delivery of these items to the Commission has been confirmed by letter 5/5/64.

On May 5, 1964, Mr. Melvin Eisenberg, a Commission Staff Member, called Section Chief Roy H. Jevons of the Laboratory Physics and Chemistry Section, and requested that a Bureau representative take custody of the listed exhibits. Mr. Eisenberg further requested that the Commission be furnished with three photographs of each exhibit not previously photographed.

As a matter of record, SA Robert E. Neill received from Mr. Eisenberg on 4/5/64, the listed exhibits which are now in Bureau custody.

The photographs will be handled by an Agent Examiner of the FBI Laboratory Document Section.

ACTION: Exhibits will be photographed and three copies will be supplied to the Commission as requested. Those items originally supplied to the Commission by the Bureau will be kept in Bureau custody. Items not originating from the Bureau (designated by *) will be returned along with the photographs.

ReBuairtel to Dallas, 4/22/64, instructing Dallas to advise by return airtel what additional progress had been made in an effort to identify the white man wearing a brown raincoat and hat, who was allegedly seen by Mrs. JEAN LOLLIS HILL running west away from the Texas School Book Depository Building in the direction of the railroad tracks immediately following the shooting on 11/22/63.

This individual has not been identified.

Pages 43 - 45, of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, Dallas, dated 4/15/64, contained the results of reinterview of Mrs. HILL, and thereafter in this same report on pages 47 - 49 there are reflected results of additional investigation conducted in an effort to identify the individual referred to by Mrs. HILL.

All logical investigation appears to have been conducted in an effort to identify the alleged individual and no further investigation is being conducted, UACB.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter dated April 2, 1964, which enclosed copies of a memorandum revealing the results of a reinterview with Mrs. Jean Lollis Hill. Mrs. Hill commented she observed a white man wearing a brown raincoat and a hat running west away from the Texas School Book Depository Building following the shooting. Mrs. Hill did not closely observe this individual; did not know who he was; and never saw him again. Mrs. Hill described this man as "average height and heavy build."

Additional investigation has been conducted by this Bureau endeavoring to identify this individual. This investigation included a review of all available film taken near the Texas School Book Depository Building following the shooting; a re-examination of the results of all interviews with individuals who were in the vicinity of the shooting; a review of an additional film taken by Mr. Thomas P. Alyea, WFAA-TV newsman; and interviews with Dallas Police Department and Dallas County Sheriff's Office personnel, none of which revealed the identity of the man described by Mrs. Hill.

Investigative results appear on pages 43 through 49 in the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated April 15, 1964. This report was furnished to you by letter dated May 4, 1964, and no further action is being taken in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE:

On 2/18/64 a meeting was held at the Town Hall, New York City, sponsored by the "National Guardian." Mark Lane criticized the investigation conducted by the FBI and Secret Service. He played a tape recording of a telephone conversation with Mrs. Hill who claims she heard four to six shots. In a reinterview with Mrs. Hill she described a man she observed running from the TSBDB. Dallas conducted investigation which did not reveal the identity of the man described by Mrs. Hill. The Laboratory advised the Commission by letter 4/21/64, the film taken by Alyea is available if desired. This film reveals scenes outside the TSBDB immediately after the assassination, as well as photographs inside the building during the search for the assassin; the finding of the rifle in its original position; and the dusting of the rifle for fingerprints by the Dallas Police Department.

TO: Mr. Conrad

DATE: May 6, 1964

FROM: R. H. Jevons

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS

Reference memorandum dated February 26, 1964, from W. D. Griffith to Mr. Conrad concerning a continuing project wherein the Bureau has undertaken to furnish the Commission with photographs of all Commission exhibits.

On May 1, 1964, Mr. Melvin Eisenberg, a Commission staff member, called SA Marion E. Williams of the Laboratory's Physics and Chemistry Section and requested that a Bureau representative take custody of the listed exhibits.

Eisenberg further requested that the Commission be furnished with three photographs of each exhibit not previously photographed.

As a matter of record, SA Cortlandt Cunningham received from Mr. Eisenberg on May 1, 1964, the listed exhibits which are presently in Bureau custody.

The photography will be handled by an Agent Examiner of the Laboratory's Document Section.

It is noted that De Mohrenschildt Exhibits 1 through 15 and Commission Exhibits number 337, 391 and 392 did not originate from the Bureau, therefore, they will be returned to the Commission along with the photographs.

ACTION: Exhibits will be photographed and three copies will be supplied to the Commission as requested. Those items originally supplied to the Commission by the Bureau will be kept in Bureau custody. Exhibits not originating from the Bureau will be returned along with the photographs.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This is in reply to your letter of April 30, 1964, with reference to a report that Mr. Mark Lane has in his possession photostatic copies of certain FBI investigative reports. The last paragraph of your letter requests that we review Mr. Lane's testimony before the Commission to determine whether Lane gave any indication that he had access to or possession of FBI reports.

We have reviewed Mr. Lane's testimony and find that he did not indicate in any way that he had access to or possession of FBI reports. For your convenience, we are enclosing herewith a copy of the transcript of Mr. Lane's public testimony. The only information which Mr. Lane provided in the private portion of his testimony was provided to you in our letter of March 18, 1964, dealing with the meeting which Mr. Lane claims occurred in the Carousel Club, allegedly involving Officer Tippit, Bernard Weissman and Jack Ruby.

We would appreciate the return of the enclosed transcript after you have completed your examination.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin

NOTE: On 4-27-64, Mr. Eisenberg of The President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy telephonically advised Special Agent William D. Griffith that three copies of Commission Exhibits 760 through 772 would be needed instead of two copies as indicated in Commission letter dated April 24, 1964. Mr. Eisenberg stated that Xerox copies of Commission Exhibits 760 through 772 would be an acceptable means of duplicating these exhibits. Since the submitted exhibits are not original Bureau exhibits, they are being returned to the Commission.

ASSASSINATION OF JOHN F. KENNEDY
11-22-63, DALLAS, TEXAS
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING

Lee Oswald

PURPOSE:

To advise you Negro attorney Arthur Davis Shores, National Legal Counsel, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), furnished information to our Birmingham Office on 5-2-64, alleging one Jerry Coleman furnished information that Governor Wallace of Alabama was involved in the assassination of President Kennedy. Shores is a known communist sympathizer and has associated with communists on the national level. Efforts to locate Coleman negative.

BACKGROUND:

Arthur Davis Shores is a Negro attorney from Birmingham, Alabama. He was born 9-25-04, and is National Legal Counsel for the NAACP. He is reported to have [redacted] and has associated himself with known communists as well as individuals on the national level of the Communist Party. (61-3176-3924) Shores has been the victim of three extortion cases investigated by this Bureau, the earliest being in February, 1956, (9-29733) the second in March, 1956, (9-29805) and the most recent in September, 1963, (9-41389). These cases emanated primarily from Shores' involvement in racial matters. Shores was also involved in a bombing of his home on 9-4-63, which was extensively investigated by this Bureau. (157-998)

DETAILS:

Birmingham by teletype 5-2-64, advised Shores alleged that on Friday, 4-24-64, an individual identifying himself as Jerry Coleman came to Shores' office inquiring for Shores, and in his absence, furnished a receptionist information that Governor Wallace, two days before the assassination of President Kennedy, went to Texas and gave Jack Ruby $35,000 which was to be divided between Ruby, Oswald and a "cop." Coleman is reported to have proof of his allegation primarily because he worked in "the Governor's office." Coleman allegedly asked Shores to get in touch with him at 353 Smith Street in Detroit, Michigan.

Shores could not recall the name of the receptionist who reportedly took this information, and he also stated Coleman went to see U. S. Commissioner Louise O. Charlton of Birmingham, furnishing her the same information. U. S. Commissioner Charlton never heard of Coleman and never received the information alleged.

According to Shores, on Sunday, 4-26-64, this same individual called him long distance from Detroit, however, he was not available but his wife remembers the call.

Our Detroit Office has advised that the alleged address in Detroit for Coleman is nonexistent and that no record identifiable with one Jerry Coleman could be located in the Detroit area. Efforts to substantiate Shores' allegations negative to date.

ACTION:

Our Mobile Office is contacting the Governor's office to see if Coleman was ever employed there and our Birmingham Office is endeavoring to develop additional information on this alleged incident.

OBSERVATIONS:

It would appear that the allegations made by Shores have no basis in fact. It appears quite unusual that he can not recall the name of a receptionist in his own office. His purpose in furnishing this information is not known, however, it is noted Shores has a history of communist sympathies and could possibly be furnishing this to confuse the Bureau or in an effort to seek publicity.

RECOMMENDATION:

This matter is being followed closely by the Bureau, and, when the results have been received, it will be appropriately reported and furnished to the President's Commission.

Memorandum

TO: Mr. Belmont

DATE: May 7, 1964

FROM: A. Rosen

SUBJECT: PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION
ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

Mr. J. Lee Rankin called Malley from New York today and advised that the members of the Commission sincerely appreciated the testimony of Assistant to the Director Belmont. He stated the members of the Commission were very favorably impressed with the testimony and they were very pleased to have the Bureau's position concerning this matter.

Lee Harvey Oswald
Internal Security - R - Cuba

Mr. Rankin stated that some day next week he intended to get in touch with the Director and will come to the Bureau to talk to the Director relative to having the Director appear before the President's Commission for a brief period of time. He stated that he would furnish Mr. Hoover full details concerning this when he talked with him.

Submitted for information.

ADDENDUM (5/7/64), AHB:csh -
In view of the fact that the Commission staff had previously advised me that my appearance before the Commission would suffice, and the Director would not be called upon to appear, I called Mr. Rankin back and reminded him of this.

He said that the Commission, prior to my appearance, had held a further discussion and had decided it was desirable to call both the Director and Mr. McCone of CIA before the Commission. Rankin said that, after my testimony yesterday, the Commission members had held a discussion and had indicated they were impressed by the Bureau's approach and position in the field under discussion.

RE: PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON ASSASSINATION

I told Mr. Rankin that, as he knew, the Director does not take his appearances before a board or hearing lightly, and takes time to thoroughly prepare himself; therefore, I asked what the Commission would be covering with the Director. Rankin said it would be very limited and pertaining to the question whether Oswald was an informant and perhaps whether the Director thought there was any conspiracy involved in the assassination. Rankin said that there was no intention of covering the full scope of this matter, as this had been covered with me.

Mr. Rankin said that he would endeavor to contact the Director this Monday, 5/11/64, in order to personally advise the Director as to what is desired and to arrange for the Director to appear at his convenience, if possible sometime next week.

With reference to the question whether Oswald was an informant, it is noted that the Director's affidavits and affidavits of the Agents in the field were introduced into the record yesterday. The brief on the FBI investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy, (which the Director has) on page 95-1, deals with the subject of the allegations that Oswald was an informant and again pages 95-y and z cover our interviews with Lonnie Hudkins and others re these allegations.

Concerning the question of a conspiracy involved in the assassination, this question is answered on page 37 of the brief and also on page 22 of the brief.

In addition, both of these items are covered in my testimony before the Commission.

Sources used in letterhead memorandum are:
First source:
Second source: [redacted] Upsala College, East Orange, N.J. (by request), who furnished information orally to SA ELDRED W. COX.

LHM covers appearance of LANE at Upsala College on 5/6/64.

Enclosed tapes were made at Newark Office from an original tape furnished by [redacted] (protect identity; has furnished reliable information in the past), [redacted] to SA ELDRED W. COX on 5/7/64. The original tape was made by student engineers of the radio station. The original tape is being maintained by Newark as an exhibit in file 100-47801.

The original tape is thin and not suitable for transcription by stenographers because such handling is likely to "stretch" the tape. For this reason, the copies are being furnished to the Bureau rather than original.

Newark has not stenographically transcribed or monitored the tapes, it being considered desirable to transmit them to the Bureau without delay for such purposes.

In addition to information in LHM, [redacted] further advised that towards the end of his prepared speech, prior to the question period, LANE recounted a recent incident. LANE claimed that he had been accosted on the street by two men claiming to be FBI Agents. These men accused him of taking or stealing FBI documents. LANE claimed he told these men that if government wished to communicate with him, it should write to him, and he would answer in due course.

This appears near the end of reel number 2 of reels being furnished to the Bureau. The incident is told in a manner ridiculing the FBI.

If Bureau desires Newark to stenographically transcribe the recording, the Bureau is requested to so advise. UACB, Newark will not transcribe.

MARK LANE

The "New York Herald Tribune" newspaper dated January 15, 1964, page 7, column 1, contained an article entitled "Oswald's Mother Hires Lane." This article stated that on January 14, 1964, Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald, mother of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, announced she had hired Mark Lane to represent her slain son before the Warren Commission investigating the murder of President John F. Kennedy. According to this article, Mrs. Oswald stated she had been in contact with Lane during his stay in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. It was also pointed out that Lane had accepted the case although Mrs. Oswald stated she had no funds with which to pay him.

The "New York Times" newspaper dated April 2, 1964, page 37, contained an article stating that Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald had dismissed Mark Lane, her New York lawyer.

On June 10, 1963, a source advised that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) held May 28, 1963, at 74 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Mark Lane was elected to the position of Vice Chairman of the organization.

Characterizations of the NYCAHUAC and the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee appear in the appendix hereto.

A second source advised on May 7, 1964, that Mark Lane spoke in the chapel of Upsala College, East Orange, New Jersey, on May 6, 1964, at the invitation of the Student Council of Upsala College. Lane spoke concerning the circumstances of the assassination of President Kennedy. Following the speech, Lane answered questions of the audience. The presentation extended over two and one-half hours. This source estimates that from 250 to 300 persons attended, both students and faculty.

XEROX

MARK LANE

One of Lane's main points, according to the second source, was that the assassination and the investigation thereof were poorly handled by the Secret Service, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Dallas Police Department. Lane claimed that he had possession of affidavits from various individuals which cast doubt upon information released by public authorities.

The second source further stated that throughout the presentation by Lane there was an implication that there was a conspiracy by the authorities to find Oswald guilty. Lane claimed that certain questions regarding the assassination may never be answered because authorities state that disclosure would injure the security of this country.

The second source also advised that Lane said his purpose was to inform the public of the deeper possibilities involved in the situation of the assassination and the investigation.

Lane also mentioned that two individuals who identified themselves as FBI Agents had recently approached him on the street and accused him of taking or stealing FBI documents. Lane claimed that he told the two men that if the Government wished to communicate with him it should do so by writing a letter to him.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City, on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of Frank Wilkinson, Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that Frank Wilkinson was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC), which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the HUAC" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and coordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at Communist Party club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the Summer of 1960 to lead and direct the COMMUNIST PARTY's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Several of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists."

(Communists on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film "Operation Abolition", Part I, October 3, 1961, pg. 5.)

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE (NCAHUAC). A national meeting of this organization was held in Chicago, Illinois, on April 27 and 28, 1963.

The above-captioned person telephoned me from Waldorf, Maryland, and said he has been in Dallas looking into the Oswald case and has talked to Marina Oswald. He told me that as a result of talking to Marina Oswald he had some information which the FBI might not possess and he wanted to pass it on to us. I told him we would be glad to receive this information. An appointment was set up for him to come in to my office at 11 a.m. tomorrow, Saturday, May 9, 1964.

As we know, Levine is an author of many books. He was born in Russia and has been in this country for many years. He is a professional anticommunist, specializing in writing. We have not had any close relations with Levine; on the other hand, there has been no real problem.

Needless to say, I will be extremely circumspect and merely receive whatever he has to offer us without comment.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

ASAC Kyle Clark, Dallas, called this afternoon to advise that Marguerite Oswald was requesting to see a Bureau Agent.

Marguerite Oswald is the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald and she was last contacted 1-7-64. At that time she was uncooperative and since them has been making public appearances and writing articles maintaining the innocence of her son.

According to ASAC Clark she contacted the Resident Agency in Fort Worth, Texas, 4-30-64, requesting that an Agent contact her. Clark stated that the Agents called her back advising that she was welcome to contact them at their office in Fort Worth. At that time Mrs. Oswald said she was unwilling to do this and said that she would take the matter up with her attorney.

On 5-1-64 she recontacted the Resident Agency requesting that an Agent come out to see her since she has something that she wants to give him.

After checking with you, SAC Shanklin was advised that we should have two mature Agents contact Mrs. Oswald at her home in accordance with her request and listen to what she has to say. SAC Shanklin was cautioned that the Agents should be most careful in their contact with her and should not make any statements to her. They should listen and accept any information that she wants to give.

On February 6, 1964, Stanley Ross, Editor of "El Tiempo", a New York City Spanish language weekly, appeared as a guest on the Barry Gray radio program, Station WMCA, New York City. During the course of the program, Ross made a comment to the effect that he thought Castro was responsible for the death of President Kennedy, directly or indirectly, or both. Ross also remarked during the program that "El Tiempo" had published a story to the effect that Jack Ruby had been in Cuba twice since Castro came to power.

In connection with these statements, Stanley Ross was interviewed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on April 24, 1964, and furnished the following information:

He stated that he recalls the statements he made on the Barry Gray radio program and explained that his statement pertaining to Fidel Castro's responsibility, directly or indirectly, for the assassination of President Kennedy was prompted by the fact that on or about November 25, 1963, one Pascual Enrique Ruedolo Gongora, a Cuban, was detained by Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), New York City, and through arrangements with the Spanish Consulate in New York City, was deported to Spain. He advised that when he had heard of Ruedolo's detention, he contacted his friend, Mr. Garcia Banon, the Spanish Consul, who confirmed that Ruedolo had been detained by INS and at the request of unidentified United States officials, Spain agreed to accept Ruedolo for return to Cuba.

Ross stated that he was informed by Mr. Banon that during an interview with Ruedolo the latter stated that he was one of five or six groups sent to the United States to assassinate President Kennedy at the direction of Fidel Castro. Gongora reportedly stated that Castro was fearful that President Kennedy was trying to assassinate him and further stated that the United States had been involved in previous assassinations, such as the assassination of the husband and brother-in-law of Madame Nhu of Vietnam.

COPIES DESTROYED
21 FEB 27 1973

Ross advised that through his correspondent for Cuba, one Enrique Cervantes, he had ascertained that Cuba would not accept Ruedolo from Spain because Cuba did not want to get involved in the investigation concerning the assassination of President Kennedy.

Ross further advised that relative to his statement that Jack Ruby had been in Cuba twice since Castro came to power, he explained that he received this information from one Rolando Masferrer, who had obtained it from Dr. Carlos Marquez Sterling, who in turn had obtained the information from a letter received from Cuba.

It is to be noted that Dr. Carlos Marquez Sterling had previously been mentioned by Nathaniel Weyl, 4201 Ocean Boulevard, Delray Beach, Florida, when Weyl was interviewed by Special Agents of the Miami office of the FBI on March 13, 1964. Weyl was interviewed at that time relative to a statement he made to the effect that Jack Ruby had made a trip to Havana, Cuba, to deal with an individual named Praskin. Weyl stated that he had received this information from an old friend, Carlos Marquez Sterling.

On April 20, 1964, Dr. Carlos Marquez Sterling, 355 East 72nd Street, New York City, New York, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that he is not the original source of the information pertaining to a visit by Jack Ruby to Havana, and his alleged meeting there with one Praskin. Sterling stated that he saw the letter which contained this information and he identified the original source of this information as Evidio Pereira. Sterling stated that Pereira formerly lived in Miami, Florida, and while he was residing there, Sterling instructed him to furnish this information to Sterling's friend, Nathaniel Weyl.

Sterling remarked that Pereira is employed in a factory in Newark, New Jersey, but added that he does not know his address. He commented that Pereira is a member of the Free Cuba Patriotic Movement, of which he, Sterling, is the leader.

Sterling stated he would obtain Pereira's address and advise the FBI of same.

In an effort to determine the present whereabouts of Pascual Enrique Ruedolo Gongora, heretofore mentioned, and to interview him concerning his remarks, the following investigation was conducted:

On April 27, 1964, inquiry at INS, New York City determined that Gongora had been deported to Cuba via Spain on November 28, 1963, but subsequently had been unable to obtain travel documents to return to Cuba and was, therefore, returned to the United States at New York City on February 21, 1964. INS advised that Ruedolo was subsequently committed to Bellevue Psychiatric Hospital, New York City, and later transferred to Creedmoor State Hospital, Queens, New York, where he is presently confined.

On April 28, 1964, Mr. Moses Andre Walker, Superintendent, Bellevue Psychiatric Hospital, New York City, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that hospital records disclose that Gongora had been admitted to the hospital on March 11, 1964, for observation; that Gongora's diagnosis was reflected as Paronoid Schizophrenic and that he was discharged from Bellevue on March 23, 1964 and transferred to Creedmoor State Hospital, Queens, New York. Mr. Walker stated that Ruedolo was transferred from Bellevue because it had been determined that he was in need of further psychiatric treatment and that Creedmoor State Hospital had more propitious facilities for such treatment.

On April 28, 1964, inquiry at Creedmoor State Hospital, Queens, New York, disclosed that Ruedolo is presently confined to the Disturbed Ward, Building S10, and is expected to remain at Creedmoor for further treatment for probably at least another six months.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Articles by Thomas Gittings Buchanan, Jr., on his version of the assassination of President Kennedy have been appearing in recent months in the French newspaper "L'Express." Copies of past articles received from the Legal Attache, Paris, with translations thereof, have been furnished to the President's Commission. Buchanan was a reporter for the "Washington Evening Star" from 1946 to 1948 when he was dismissed after admitting Communist Party (CP) membership to an official of that paper. In 1952 and 1953 he admitted CP membership, but in 1956 advised that he had left the CP. His name is carried on the Reserve Index.

Previous articles by Buchanan have set forth his theory, based on speculation and unfounded material, that President Kennedy was the victim of a right-wing conspiracy, that Lee Harvey Oswald was an agent of the FBI and/or the Central Intelligence Agency and that the investigation of the assassination was covering up discrepancies which cast doubt on Oswald's guilt.

In his latest article in the 4-9-64 issue of "L'Express" entitled "I Accuse," Buchanan blames a "Mr. H." for the conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy because the latter's policies were counter to the thinking of "Mr. H." and other extremists. According to Buchanan, "Mr. H." and his sympathizers stated that it was impossible to negotiate with the communists and that co-existence with communists was impossible. Buchanan infers that "Mr. H." is H. L. Hunt, the wealthy Dallas oilman who Buchanan identifies as the head of an oil business worth two billion dollars.

Buchanan states that "Mr. H." in the past had three principal enemies. The first was the Italian industrialist and Head of the Italian Government Oil and Gas Agency, Enrico Mattei. Buchanan speculates that "Mr. H." had something to do with Mattei's death in an airplane crash in Italy in October, 1962. Mattei was reported by "Time" magazine 11-2-62 to have been the "most powerful man in Italy," with extensive financial holdings and operations in Italy and other countries. Mattei, prior to his death, had signed an agreement with the Soviet Union to receive Russian oil in Italy at a price below the American oil prices. Buchanan infers that Mattei's business deals upset and disturbed "Mr. H."

9 MAY 1 1964

According to Buchanan, the second enemy of "Mr. H." was President Kennedy because he held opposing beliefs on political, financial and international matters. The third enemy of "Mr. H." was Khrushchev, Head of the communist Russian nation. Buchanan states that "Mr. H." thought that he would be able to accomplish a "double stroke" in the assassination of President Kennedy. One would be to get rid of President Kennedy and the other would be to discredit Khrushchev and negate his efforts to release world tensions.

Buchanan lists a number of "conspirators" whom he accuses of having aided "Mr. H." in executing his plan. They are: (1) The policeman who issued the warrant of arrest against Oswald when there was no reason whatever to suspect him in the assassination; (2) The "murderer" who fired at least one shot from the top of the railroad bridge in front of the President's motorcade; (3) Another "murderer" who fired at least two shots from the Texas School Book Depository Building; (4) An "accomplice" who was ordered to kill Oswald in cold blood(apparently Dallas Police officer J. D. Tippit who was killed by Oswald); (5) Lee Harvey Oswald, whom Buchanan claims was a former informant of the FBI; (6) An"accomplice" who permitted Oswald to leave the Texas School Book Depository Building despite the orders of Police Chief Curry; (7) A policeman in civilian clothes who followed Oswald for an hour but who did not arrest him; (8) A number of "municipal police and Federal investigators."

Buchanan claims at the end of his article that dozens or perhaps even hundreds of witnesses were instructed by authorities on the manner in which they should testify.

The claims in this article by Buchanan are unfounded, exaggerated and/or speculative without basis in fact. It is noted his position has been advanced in the communist and left-wing press here and abroad.

The President's Commission is being furnished a copy of Buchanan's article in "L'Express" of 4-9-64 along with two copies of a translation thereof.

RECOMMENDATION: That the attached letter be sent to the President's Commission.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Would you please have your Dallas office interview Miss Yoico Okui. We do not have her address. However, we do have her telephone number which is Fleetwood 7-0367.

We obtained her telephone number from Mr. Henry Rogatz who resides at 407 Corcoran Chapel Road in Dallas. His telephone number is Fleetwood 2-6615. He is a self employed geologist. His business telephone number is the same as his residence number, above given.

Our interest in Miss Okui arises out of the fact that witnessess, whose depositions we have taken, have testified to her presence at a year-end combination Christmas-New Year's party December 28 - 30, 1962, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. DeClan T. Ford at 14057 Brookcrest Drive, Dallas, Texas. Among other guests were Marina and Lee Harvey Oswald. (See Special Agent Gemberling's Report #100-10461, pages 153-163.)

Witnessess have emphasized that Miss Okui arrived at the party with a male escort (whom we have not as yet been able to identify) and that Lee Harvey Oswald immediately took an interest in her and engaged her in conversation off in a corner for a considerable period of time during the evening; that the private attention given Miss Okui by Oswald was so extended that it caused comment on the part of other guests; that Marina Oswald became incensed and evidenced her displeasure by remarks to Oswald; that Miss Okui's escort (as indicated above, presently unknown to us) likewise, evidenced pique; and that Marina in the days and perhaps weeks that followed this party, accused Oswald of having seen Miss Okui from time to time.

Witnessess have testified that Miss Okui came to Dallas and served as a domestic in the home of a Dallas couple whom none of the witnessess could identify for us. All of the witnessess report that their impression is that Miss Okui came of a fine family in Japan; that she appeared to be well educated and genteel; and that they were under the impression that she was serving as a domestic, understandably in their minds, in order to establish herself in the United States before seeking employment or interests more suited to her apparent education and gentility.

However, the witnessess expressed wonderment about the fact that Oswald struck up an immediate acquaintance with Miss Okui and continued that acquaintance that evening.

In a telephone conversation, April 28th, 1964, between Albert E. Jenner, Jr. of our staff and the above mentioned Mr. Rogatz, the latter reported to Mr. Jenner that Miss Okui was in Dallas, that she was an accomplished musician, that she was earning a living teaching flower making and other Japanese handiwork, that he was aware that Miss Okui had attended the party in question and that, in his opinion, the tete-a-tete between Oswald and Miss Okui was a pure coincidence.

We are advised that Mr. Lev Aronson, who lives at 8418 Swananoah Road, Dallas, and whose telephone number is Fleetwood 7-5150, is acquainted with Miss Okui. Mr. Aronson is the chief cellist of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra. He can be reached at the McFarland Building at Southern Methodist University or at Atkins Hall at SMU where he is employed as a music teacher. We believe his telephone number at the University is Emerson 3-5611.

We are also advised that Mr. Igor Voshinin, who lives at 3504 Mockingbird Lane, Dallas, Texas and whose telephone number is Lakeside 1-2504, may be an acquaintance of Miss Okui's, though slight, if any. He is a civil engineer with Mulland and Powell, Room 604, 505 North Ervay (Reliance Building), Dallas, Texas. His business telephone number is Riverside 1-4451.

If in your interview of Miss Okui you should discover the names of her initial employers in Dallas who presumably were her employers at the time of the DeClan Ford party in December 1962, we would be pleased to have you interview those employers so that we may be advised as to the circumstances under which Miss Okui came to Dallas and be afforded whatever information they have as to her background.

For the moment we are not interested in extending the interview and investigation respecting Miss Okui beyond the limits indicated in this letter. We do not have any information at the moment which would lead us to suspect Miss Okui, that is, information beyond the incident which is described above.

We greatly appreciate your continued cooperation and the immeasurable assistance which you have afforded the Commission.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin

There are enclosed two copies of letter from the Commission dated 4/30/64. The party referred to in incoming is undoubtedly the affair at the Declan Fords between December 28-30, 1962, which is treated on pages 153 through 163 of your 1/7/64 report in this case. Miss Okui (Bureau indices negative) may be the Chinese woman who was in attendance at party in company of Russian man who was referred to on page 160 of aforementioned report.

Interview Miss Okui, developing full background data and all information in her possession concerning Oswald and the party in question. Identify her male escort. Ascertain nature of her conversation at party with Oswald and determine whether or not she met with Oswald or Marina subsequent to the party. Identify Miss Okui's employer at time of party and conduct interview of employer as requested by Commission. For present, limit inquiry to foregoing. Should you encounter difficulty in locating Miss Okui, it will be permissable to contact the other individuals identified in incoming who reportedly are her acquaintances.

Should revelations of Miss Okui suggest advisability of interviewing her male escort, furnish summary of facts to Bureau and await instructions. Handle immediately. Submit LHM.

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964

On April 17, 1964, a source advised that a permit had been issued on April 16, 1964, by the authorities at Harvard University for a "Speech on Oswald" by Mark Lane, a New York attorney, to be sponsored by the Harvard-Radcliffe Socialist Club, at Emerson Hall, Room D, for April 30, 1964. This meeting was scheduled to run from 2:30 PM to 5 PM, was to be open to the public, and no admission was to be charged.

The source advised that the Harvard-Radcliffe Socialist Club is an approved student organization, whose members favor a Socialist form of government and economy in the United States and whose speakers favor such a program.

On April 30, 1964, sources advised Attorney Mark Lane commenced his lecture by stating that he had been "accosted" by two FBI Agents on April 29, 1964, as he left his New York residence. The two agents "surrounded" Lane, asking him if he had in his possession illegally secured documents from the files of the FBI. Lane's answer to the FBI was that he had testified before the Warren Commission and had turned over all information to that Commission. When the agents further questioned him concerning the documents from the FBI files, Lane stated he did not know what they were talking about. He terminated the interview by getting into a cab and leaving the agents.

Lane stated that the February 21, 1964, issue of "Life" magazine contained a photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald holding a rifle and a pistol. The photograph, according to Lane, had been taken in the Spring of 1963. Lane stated that, according to the FBI, the pistol had not been purchased until September, 1963. He added there were no indentations on the stock of the rifle which Oswald was holding.

The same photograph appeared in a Detroit newspaper, with deep indentations on the stock of the rifle.

Lane added the identical photograph appearing in "Life" magazine had subsequently appeared in the "New York Times." However, the telescopic sight on the rifle did not appear in the "New York Times" photograph.

Lane determined that the "New York Times" photograph had been obtained from the Associated Press. However, the Associated Press informed Lane they could not disclose the original source of the photograph.

Lane stated that the March 2, 1964 issue of "Newsweek" carried the same photograph of Oswald but that there was a metallic material on the rifle, which made it different from the other rifles.

Lane also cited inconsistencies in the April 13, 1964 issue of "Life" magazine (Spanish issue) concerning Oswald's rifle. He referred to this as the "Rifle Sweepstakes," which provoked laughter from the audience.

Lane stated that on November 23, 1963, on the Associated Press wire, it was announced that Dick Goodwin, Oswald's superior officer in the Marine Corps, had described Oswald as a "crack shot." However, they were glad to have him leave the unit, since he was a "hothead." This story was later changed and Goodwin stated he had someone else in mind. Lane added that the correct story was never printed and that Oswald's military record reflects he was only an average shooter.

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964

Lane cited the following as an example of the changing evidence in the case: On November 22, 1963, District Attorney Henry Wade announced that the murder weapon was a German Mauser of 7.65 millimeters. On November 23, 1963, the FBI announced that the murder weapon was an Italian carbine of 6.5 millimeters. Lane stated that overnight the nationality and the size of the rifle had changed. Wade's story now was that the gun allegedly used by Oswald was an Italian carbine.

Jesse Curry of the Dallas Police Department told the press that a paraffin test had proved that Oswald was the assassin. According to Lane, however, a paraffin test cannot actually prove whether or not a person is an assassin, but may show that this person had been near a weapon that had been fired; thus, this was a ludicrous statement by Curry. According to Lane, no nitrate was found on Oswald's face and, although he may have fired a revolver, he did not fire a rifle.

Lane stated that District Attorney Wade, who had formerly been associated with the FBI for four years, had made the statement that he has sent twenty-three men to their death with less evidence than they had on Oswald. On November 24, 1963, Wade announced that, inasmuch as Oswald was dead, the case was closed.

Lane further stated that in Europe there was considerable doubt of Oswald's guilt. The Europeans felt that Oswald was part of a conspiracy, or else he was innocent. The Justice Department then directed Wade to reopen the investigation and prove that Oswald was guilty.

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964

Lane commented on the Warren Commission, with its "star chamber, closed door" tactics. The hearings are conducted in absolute secrecy, and Lane doubts that the American people will ever know all the facts. He stated that the members of the Commission are all connected with the Government. Mr. Allen Dulles, former Director of the Central Intelligence Agency; a former FBI Agent who is an ardent Goldwater man, residing in the Michigan area; and two Southern Democrats, who have never attended any of the hearings, are some of the Warren Commission members.

Lane stated that not one of the Warren Commission members would be allowed to sit on a jury because of their Government affiliation. He was refused permission to represent Oswald before the Commission, which is contrary to the American system of justice. He said the Commission advised him that Oswald was not entitled to counsel.

He went on to say that Oswald has been denied all his rights, including the right to counsel at his own trial. Even the Nazis during their trials had counsel, which is good law and the only way to arrive at the truth.

He stated that, even though he was not permitted to represent Oswald before the Commission, he, himself, was called to testify before the Commission. In this connection, he requested that his testimony be open to the public, even though the testimony by others was not. He was granted his wish and he gave his testimony in a room open to the public, although the only ones there were a few Government agents and a few reporters. Subsequently, he received a transcript of his testimony before the Commission, but the first four pages of the testimony were missing. He asked for these first four pages and, subsequently, they were sent to him and he was advised that they were considered to be a "Top Secret" document, in spite of the fact that all of his testimony was given openly.

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964

He said he cannot give out any information concerning his appearance before the Commission, even though members of the Commission periodically give out press releases concerning the testimony of witnesses.

He stated that perhaps one of the most interesting items was that Oswald was arrested originally for the murder of Patrolman J. D. Tippit and was not charged for several hours thereafter with the murder of President Kennedy.

Lane stated that the only eyewitness to the shooting of J. D. Tippit, the Dallas police officer, namely, a woman named Markham, identified the killer as a short, stocky man, with bushy hair, which is not the description of Lee Harvey Oswald. Markham told Lane she was ordered by the Secret Service, the FBI and the Dallas Police Department not to discuss this with anyone. Lane stated that Markham is no longer residing at her address in Dallas and has disappeared.

Lane commented on an article that appeared in Bob Considine's column in a New York newspaper on February 23, 1964. Considine related that a witness named Reynolds, who had observed the Tippit slayer running from the scene of the crime, was, himself, shot through the head in his used-car lot in Dallas. Lane stated that Reynolds has survived. According to Lane, the man who was arrested in connection with the shooting of Reynolds claimed he was in the company of a Betty MacDonald, a strip-tease dancer, at Jack Ruby's nightclub at the time of the shooting. Betty MacDonald was subsequently arrested for disorderly conduct and hung herself in a cell of the Dallas Police Department.

In discussing the method by which President Kennedy was shot, Lane stated that the police theory was that Oswald was the assassin and acted alone. The first theory was that President Kennedy was shot from the front. Dr. Perry, who was present at the hospital when Kennedy was brought in, performed a tracheotomy, enlarging the wound in the Adam's apple. At that time, the wound in the throat was considered to be the entrance wound. A month passed, however, before any of the physicians who tried to assist the President were ever questioned by anyone, which, according to Lane, is most remarkable, because it is the usual procedure to question the doctors in this type of matter immediately.

Theory No. 1, however, had to be abandoned when Governor Connally, who was riding with the President, said the car was on Elm Street, having passed the Book Depository, when the President was shot. A full-page article on December 6, 1963, appeared in "Life" magazine and "solved" this by saying that Kennedy had been shot from the front, but, at that time, was turning around and facing the rear. Lane contended, however, that this would have been impossible for the President to do, inasmuch as he was wearing a brace at the time he was shot, which completely restricted his movements.

Thereafter, on December 29, 1963, "Life" printed a photograph taken by an amateur photographer, which repudiated their earlier story, since this latter-mentioned photograph showed the President facing straight ahead. Thus, since Theory No. 2 had been dissipated, the authorities talked to the physicians and thereafter the doctors "confessed" their error. It was now theorized that the President had been shot from the rear.

Subsequently, representatives from "Newsweek" magazine interviewed Dr. Perry and asked him as to why he now thought the wound in the President's throat was an exit rather than an entrance wound. Dr. Perry at this time, however, refused to discuss the matter.

Lane also raised the question why the area in the vicinity of where the President had been shot was not sealed off immediately, as it should have been. In this connection, he contended that the only place ever sealed off after the President was assassinated was the Mexican border, and this was by the Mexican Police. He said that the only thing that the Dallas Police Department did after the President was shot was to send out a description of Oswald.

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964

He said that there had been a story in a Dallas newspaper that there had been four shots fired and that these shots had come from a concrete wall near the freeway. He said that the officials from the Book Depository also had stated that the shots fired did not come from the Depository but, rather, came from the area of the concrete wall.

He said in this connection a Dallas schoolteacher, who had been observing the President as he went by just beyond the Book Depository, said that there had been four to six shots fired. At this time, she had been standing on Elm Street and she claimed that the shots came from a grassy knoll near the concrete wall in the vicinity of the overpass. She has been identified as the woman who was wearing the red raincoat at the time the President was shot. Lane, during the course of his talk, introduced a recording of an interview that he had with this woman. During this interview with Lane, she said that there had been four to six shots fired. She stated that later on, when she had been questioned by the authorities, they told her that there had been only three shots fired and that only three cartridge cases had been found, so possibly the extra shots she might have heard were firecrackers exploding.

Lane related that ammunition for firearms can be purchased at drugstores in Dallas and you can buy firearms very easily in that city without ever giving your name, and no record is ever made of the purchase. He contended that it would have been foolish for Oswald to have gone back eleven miles to Irving, Texas, to pick up his rifle, realizing it could be traced, and then even purportedly leaving it behind after the shooting took place. Lane also questioned how, on the morning of November 22, Oswald could have walked in the front door of the Book Depository with the rifle in his hand, it being over three feet in length.

Lane related that in Dallas there was considerable ill feeling against the President and on November 22, 1963, prior to his death, posters had been given out in Dallas inquiring as to why Gus Hall of the Communist Party supported many of the President's measures. At that time in Dallas, there had also been distributed leaflets charging that the President was "wanted for treason." He pointed out that, while the FBI was well acquainted with Oswald's background, he was not watched on the day the President was assassinated, and the only ones who were watched prior to the slaying were those persons who spoke out in favor of integration.

Lane further contended that originally the Presidential parade was supposed to have proceeded down Main Street without turning on Houston Street, which would have made it a difficult shot from the Book Depository. Instead, however, for some unknown reason, a detour was made and, as the parade proceeded up Main Street, it took a right turn on Houston Street and, thereafter, made a sharp left turn on Elm Street. In going up Houston Street, the parade had to go by the Book Depository, although the general public, including Oswald, had no prior knowledge that the parade was going to detour and go up Houston Street on that particular day.

Lane also questioned how, in a matter of thirty seconds, Oswald could have left the rifle on the fourth floor of the Book Depository after the slaying, walk down the four flights, buy a Coca-Cola, and have a conversation with the switchboard operator on the ground floor--all in this brief period, as alleged.

He related that the authorities also contend that Oswald, after leaving the Book Depository, rushed to his home to pick up a grey jacket and also to change his shirt. Yet, when he was subsequently arrested, he did not have on the jacket. In addition, he questioned why he would have ever been wearing a jacket on that day, when Mrs. Kennedy had commented on how hot it was.

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964

Lane further questioned why Oswald, realizing that he was a wanted man, would have walked up to Officer Tippit, who was seated in a police cruiser, and engage him in conversation prior to shooting him.

Lane stated that he has no theory of his own on what actually took place in Dallas on November 22, 1963. However, he stated that the American people are entitled to all the answers and that he will travel abroad and throughout the United States to find the answers.

At the conclusion of his talk Lane agreed to answer questions and, thereafter, someone in the audience inquired as to what happened to the Presidential car after the shooting. Lane's answer was that the Secret Service Agents pushed some reporters away from the car and subsequently flew it to Washington. Since its removal from Dallas, a new windshield has been installed in it.

In reply to another question concerning the ballistics test, Lane stated that the Dallas Police Department had reported that it was impossible to make any tests of a ballistics nature. He said that he understood that the FBI Laboratory had made ballistics tests, but he never found out what the results were of these latter-mentioned tests.

During the question-and-answer period, Lane said that all the statements made by the Dallas Police Department in connection with the Oswald case had been found to be wrong by the Warren Commission. Lane further mentioned that originally Oswald's wife had felt that her husband was not guilty. Thereafter, however, she had been held nine weeks incommunicado by the Secret Service and, when released, she had changed her story to say that she now felt that her husband was guilty. He pointed out that originally, when the story was fresh in her mind, she felt he was not guilty; yet, nine weeks later, she had changed her story to say that he was guilty.

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964

At the conclusion of the talk by Lane, copies of the "National Guardian" were passed out. This was self-styled as "a Guardian special." It further mentions that it is a special 8-page tabloid-size pamphlet, published by the "National Guardian" news weekly as a public service. It is based largely on a 5-page brief on the Oswald case published in the December 19, 1963, issue of the "Guardian," written by Attorney Mark Lane.

This pamphlet goes on to give Lane's version of the Oswald case. A characterization of the "National Guardian" is contained in the Appendix hereto.

On May 1, 1964, "The Boston Herald", a daily newspaper published at Boston, Massachusetts, carried an article concerning Lane's appearance at Harvard, which reads as follows:

"ATTORNEY TELLS SOCIALISTS
OSWALD DIDN'T KILL KENNEDY

"Lee Harvey Oswald's guilt as assassin of President Kennedy in Dallas last November was staunchly denied yesterday as an apparent mixture of fact and fiction.

"Atty. Mark Lane, representing Oswald's mother, told more than 300 persons attending a lecture sponsored by the Harvard-Radcliffe Socialist Club, Dallas police 'did not have sufficient evidence to convict Oswald of either the assassination, the shooting of Governor Connolly or of Patrolman Tippit.'

"'Oswald's death,' he said, 'was the case of the prisoner, the only man who could show whether he was innocent or guilty, being executed while in custody.'

"Lane said that the Warren Commission, investigating the assassination, would 'release the verdict that Oswald was guilty, but we'll never, in my lifetime, see the evidence.'"

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964

The "New York Herald Tribune" newspaper dated January 15, 1964, page 7, column 1, contained an article entitled "Oswald's Mother Hires Lane." This article stated that on January 14, 1964, Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald, mother of accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, announced she had hired Mark Lane to represent her slain son before the Warren Commission investigating the murder of President John F. Kennedy. According to this article, Mrs. Oswald stated she had been in contact with Lane during his stay in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. It was also pointed out that Lane had accepted the case although Mrs. Oswald stated she had no funds with which to pay him.

The April 2, 1964 issue of the "New York Times," page 37, column 5, contained an article captioned "Mother of Oswald Ends Tie With Lane." The article indicated Mrs. Marguerite Oswald said she had dismissed Mark Lane, her New York lawyer, and that he should stop any "organized campaign" on behalf of her son through his "Citizens Committee of Inquiry."

On June 10, 1963, a source advised that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC), held on May 28, 1963, at 74 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Mark Lane was elected to the position of Vice-Chairman of the organization.

Characterization of the NYCAHUAC is contained in the Appendix hereto.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HUAC" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5.)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Memorandum

TO: Mr. Belmont

DATE: May 11, 1964

FROM: Rosen

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

On May 8 and 9, 1964, members of the President's Commission, Senator John Sherman Cooper; John McCloy; Allen Dulles; President's staff member David Belin; accompanied by Inspector Tom Kelley of Secret Service and Malley, visited a number of locations in Dallas relating to the assassination of President Kennedy. No difficulties arose of any nature which would affect the Bureau.

DETAILS:

The above-mentioned group visited Parkland Memorial Hospital and observed in detail the room where President Kennedy was given emergency treatment and also asked the head nurse who was on duty on 11/22/63 several questions concerning the type of stretcher used, where the bullet was found, and other miscellaneous questions.

The group next visited the area at the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building and observed in considerable detail the park area adjoining the Elm Street thoroughfare which runs in front of the TSBD. The group was interested particularly in the site from which the Abraham Zapruder film was taken and also went out into the middle lane of traffic in order to observe what could be seen from the sixth floor window from which it is believed Oswald shot the President. In addition, the group inspected the TSBD from all sides and looked at the various exits by which an individual might have left the building. A more detailed inspection of the TSBD interior of the building was made on Saturday morning, May 9, 1964.

Observations were made from the railroad overpass and numerous comments were made about the distances involved and the fact that it would be almost impossible for a shot to be fired from the overpass without hitting the windshield of a car.

Memo to Mr. Belmont from A. Rosen
Re: Assassination of President Kennedy

Mrs. Marina Oswald was residing with Mrs. Paine at Irving, Texas. On the occasion of this visit neither the Frazers nor the Paines were at their residences.

A stop was made at the residence of Mrs. Johnson, who operates the rooming house at 1026 Beckley Street, where Oswald had been living in Dallas at the time of the assassination.

A detailed inspection was made of the location on tenth street near Patton Street where Police Officer Tippit was shot by Oswald. A check was also made of the Texas Theater where Oswald was located by Dallas police officers following the shooting of Officer Tippit.

Personal calls were made on Erik Jonsson, present Mayor of Dallas, and president of the Dallas Citizens Council which was the principal sponsor of President Kennedy's visit to Dallas. Mayor Jonsson described in considerable detail the various considerations which were gone into concerning President Kennedy's visit and the fact that there was some speculation on the part of Governor Connally as to whether the President should or should not visit Dallas.

The members of the Commission insisted on visiting for a short time with members of the U. S. Attorney's office staff and also called on William Alexander, First Assistant in the Dallas County District Attorney's office, and James Bowie, of the District Attorney's staff. Henry Wade, the District Attorney, was out of the city at the time this call was made. During this visit Mr. Alexander mentioned that one of the psychiatrists had recently visited with Jack Ruby in his cell for a period of several hours and advised that Ruby is completely disenchanted with the defense attorneys who handled his case and is alleged to have stated that he wanted to take the stand in his own behalf during his trial but was not permitted to. Ruby is alleged to have remarked that had he been permitted to testify he would have told the court that he had no connection of any kind with Lee Harvey Oswald, had never seen the man before, and that he shot Oswald only because he wanted to be a hero.

A personal visit was also made to Chief of Police Curry and Captain Will Fritz of the Dallas Police Department. Detailed observations were made at the police department of where Oswald was detained in the police department jail and the route which was taken by Oswald from the jail to the police department garage where he was shot by Ruby.

On Saturday morning, May 9, 1964, State Attorney General Waggoner Carr appeared at the hotel and greeted Commission members. He stated he would like to render any assistance possible to them while they were in Dallas on Saturday and he stayed with members of the Commission until they completed their observations.

Re: Assassination of

A detailed observation was made of the interior of the TSBD Building. The Commission members were particularly interested in seeing the ease with which shots could be fired from the window at a car passing on Elm Street down below, also, the fact that when standing on the fifth floor exactly beneath the window which Oswald utilized, it was impossible to hear empty shell cases hit the floor when dropped. It was also observed that with the windows open on both the fifth and sixth floor, it was possible to hear the bolt action of a similar type rifle when the firing of the gun was simulated. In this connection, two colored boys furnished information to the effect that they had heard what appeared to be rifle shells hit the floor and the bolt action of the gun on November 22, 1963, at the time the shots were fired at President Kennedy.

The Commission members commented that they felt the firsthand inspection had been of considerable value in that it firmly resolved in their minds any questions they had previously had. They stated that while they had seen photographs and received results of interviews, the firsthand inspection definitely eliminated any questions that were in their minds.

During a conversation with Staff member David Belen, Belen indicated that Lt. Revill of the Dallas Police Department would be called before the Commission in Washington for testimony in view of the information which was set forth in a memorandum indicating that Agent Hosty had made remarks to the effect that the FBI had knowledge of possible violence on the part of Oswald. Belen stated the Commission definitely felt Agent Hosty's testimony was completely satisfactory regarding his actions but that the affidavit of Revill was on record with the Commission and this matter needed to be clarified by having him testify before the Commission.

Submitted for information.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

My memorandum of May 8, 1964, referred to the letter from the President's Commission dated May 7, 1964, advising that Mr. J. Lee Rankin would be personally available in Dallas to supervise additional work the Commission desired with reference to the taking of films, measurements and other items which would deal with the placing of an automobile on the Elm Street thoroughfare which would simulate the location of the President's car at the time the shots were fired.

As a result of the visit of Commission members on May 8 and 9, 1964, they were satisfied from their personal observation that events could have taken place as had been described but they still desired additional photographs and measurements to be taken in order to pinpoint as nearly as possible the locations where the shots were actually fired.

Messrs. Gauthier and Shaneyfelt have studied the letter of May 7 from Mr. Rankin and estimate that the work desired will require a maximum of two to three working days. This would include preliminary work being done prior to Mr. Rankin's arrival in order that the actual checks requested by the Commission could be made in the shortest possible time and with the least amount of inconvenience from the standpoint of traffic control. It is noted that the letter from the Commission refers to plotting trajectories from the railroad overpass. This work should be handled by a firearms expert and Assistant Director Conrad has indicated that SA Robert Frazier would be available for this purpose.

With regard to the actual request of Mr. Rankin, it is noted that Mr. Rankin was previously advised that the Bureau did not desire to participate in a re-enactment of the President's assassination. Instant request is not for a re-enactment as such, but does request additional technical data for the Commission's use in their final report. Mr. Rankin feels the steps requested are necessary to properly complete this project. Mr. Rankin, in his letter, has requested the FBI to make all the necessary arrangements for this project and has directed a copy to Chief Rowley of the Secret Service in order that they will be aware of the request as well as to furnish any assistance that the Bureau might desire. If the Bureau refuses to carry out this request it places the Bureau in a position where considerable criticism may result.

In handling this request it will be necessary to utilize an automobile similar to the car that the President was traveling in, namely, a seven-passenger open car and Inspector Kelly of Secret Service has indicated that Secret Service will make arrangements to have such a car available in Dallas if desired.

It will also be necessary to have available a qualified surveyor and in previous work done in Dallas, a county surveyor, Robert H. West, was utilized and arrangements for this were made by Secret Service.

RECOMMENDATIONS: (3)

1. That Mr. Rankin be advised the Bureau will make arrangements to handle the request set forth in his letter of May 7, 1964. If approved, the Dallas Office will be issued necessary instructions for arrangements that will have to be made in Dallas, including the arrangements for handling traffic while photographs are being taken and other work is being performed. Because of traffic conditions on this busy thoroughfare, efforts will be made to perform this work in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 17, 1964, providing it can be worked out with Mr. Rankin.

2. That Messrs. Gauthier, Shaneyfelt, and Frazier, along with whatever technical assistants Messrs. Gauthier/need, be utilized to proceed to Dallas to handle this project. and Shaneyfelt

3. Inspector Kelly of Secret Service will be requested to make necessary arrangements to have an appropriate seven-passenger open automobile available in Dallas.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Memorandum Rosen to Belmont dated 5/11/64 made certain recommendations concerning personnel to be sent to Dallas over the coming weekend to obtain additional technical data needed by the President's Commission. One of the items recommended was that Inspector Tom Kelley of Secret Service be requested to make arrangements to have an appropriate seven-passenger open automobile available in Dallas.

This matter was discussed with Inspector Kelley of Secret Service today and he advised that arrangements were being worked on today and he would see to it that one of the Secret Service automobiles, seven-passenger open car, would be available in Dallas no later than Saturday for the work to be performed in Dallas.

Kelley also advised Bailey that J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission had requested that he, Kelley, be available in Dallas for the work to be done there and also desired Secret Service Agent John Howlett, who has participated in a great deal of photography and measurements for Secret Service, be available.

This morning Bailey received a call from Mr. Arlen Specter of the Commission staff who stated that Mr. Rankin was agreeable to handling a large portion of this project on Sunday morning, May 17. He requested that the Dallas Police Department be advised that it would probably require the greater part of the day on Sunday to complete the project. He was desirous of knowing if this was agreeable with the Dallas Police Department.

After appropriate contact with the Dallas Police [illegible] Dallas Office advised that the Police Department was in full agreement with handling this project on Sunday and stated it would be perfectly agreeable to utilize the entire day if necessary to complete the project and they would make appropriate arrangements for handling the traffic problem.

The Dallas Office also advised that they had been in touch with County Surveyor Robert H. West and he advised he would be available Sunday for whatever services were needed. West indicated he would appreciate being advised in advance of as much detail as possible as to the work he would be required to perform in order that he could be appropriately prepared to carry out his duties.

In addition to the above items, Mr. Specter desired that a dummy of a size similar to that of President Kennedy be available in order that certain photographs and other examinations could be made, making use of this dummy. Such a dummy is available and will be available in Dallas in order to handle this project.

Mr. Specter indicated that numerous questions were being raised by various Commission staff members and that he was working out more details relative to the entire project and would like to have a conference with personnel who would be going to Dallas prior to any departures from Washington. He advised that he would notify Kinley as soon as possible what date this conference could be held and the time for such a conference.

MISC. - INFO CONCERNING

There is enclosed herewith a letter from the President's Commission signed by J. Lee Rankin dated 5/7/64. You will note that this letter outlines a project to obtain certain technical data that the President's Commission needs for their final report. It is also noted the letter contains the statement that Mr. Rankin will be in Dallas to personally supervise this project on 5/18-19/64.

This project is still the subject of considerable discussion between the Bureau and the President's Commission. At the present time it is contemplated the majority of this project will be handled in Dallas on Sunday, 5/17/64, in accordance with the telephone call made to Dallas today.

To assist in this project Messrs. Leo Gauthier and Roy H. Rose of the Exhibits Section, Firearms expert SA R. A. Frazier and SA Lyndal L. Shaneyfelt will be available in Dallas. In addition, the President's Commission has requested Inspector Tom Kelley assigned to Washington Headquarters of U. S. Secret Service and SA John Howlett of the Dallas Secret Service to be available for assistance.

In accordance with the telephone call received by your office today, you should make necessary arrangements with Mr. Roy S. Truly, Warehouse Superintendent at the Texas School Book Depository Building, to be available early Sunday morning to assist in this project. A specific time will be furnished to you as soon as this

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The Commission would like the Bureau to conduct a limited background investigation of Officer J. D. Tippit of the Dallas Police Department, who was killed by Lee Harvey Oswald on November 22, 1963.

In the course of this investigation we would like the Bureau to do the following:

(1) Obtain a copy of the personnel file of Officer Tippit maintained by the Dallas Police Department for the use of the Commission.

(2) Interview Sgt. C. B. Owens, Oak Cliff Station, and other officers with personal knowledge regarding Officer Tippit's assignments, reputation and associates. In this respect we would like to know whether the absence of any promotions since October 28, 1953 (see Report of Manning C. Clements, dated December 14, 1963, at pp. 43-44) reveals that he was an above average, average, or below average patrolman in the Dallas Police Department.

(3) Interview Mrs. Tippit regarding the interests and associations of her late husband.

(4) Interview those persons identified as Officer Tippit's closest associates outside the Police Department regarding his interests, attitudes, leisure activities, and general background.

In the course of each of these interviews, as well as any others which you believe are appropriate, we would like the Bureau to inquire whether Officer Tippit had any associations with Lee Harvey Oswald or Jack L. Ruby. As I am sure you are aware, this request is designed to obtain certain basic information which can be relied upon to refute unfounded allegations which have developed in the course of this investigation.

Thank you for your assistance.

- Enclosed for the Bureau are twelve copies of a letterhead memorandum entitled "MRS. FLORA FILKO HYATT, also known as Flora Filke Hyatt, Mrs. William Harvey Hyatt, MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING" dated 5/7/64 at Houston. This memorandum sets forth the letter received by the Attorney General from Miss PHILLIPS dated 4/17/64, results of interview with Miss PHILLIPS and Mrs. HYATT, and information from the Houston files regarding Mrs. HYATT.

Six copies of this letterhead memorandum are enclosed for the information of Dallas. There are also enclosed for Dallas 25 copies of an insert reflecting the same information for utilization by Dallas in a subsequent report for the President's Commission.

Two copies of this letterhead memorandum have been furnished to Secret Service, Houston, and one copy has been furnished to Immigration and Naturalization Service, Houston, due to Mrs. HYATT's alien status.

Since it appears quite evident from the interview with Mrs. HYATT that she is mentally disturbed, no further action is contemplated by the Houston Office in regard to this matter under either one of the above captioned investigations.

MISCELLANEOUS
INFORMATION CONCERNING

The following letter was received by the Attorney General in Washington, D.C.:

"Houston, Texas, April 17, 1964.

"Honorable Attorney General,
Mr Robert Kennedy,
Hickory Hill, McLean, Vi.

"Dear Sir;

"I am enclosing the address of a lady who says she has important information concerning the death of your brother, the late President. The assination she claims, is still well guarded secret. It was a Plot, --carried out by the members of the Highest Echelon of the Synddicate, called The Members of the 'House of Ax.'

"Details are available by --Mrs Filko Hyatt,-402 Valentine,-Apt. 1008,-Houston, Texas. Telephone Fa 3 1765.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RE: MRS. FLORA FILKO HYATT

"She has tried again and again to bring this to your attention; she has called your office five times and left her number three times. Feb. second, 1964, she called the WHITE HOUSE BETWEEN eight-thirty and nine, and asked for you, but was refused.

"She also claims her mail has been sabetaged since June 1959, when she first tried to bring the technique of the Syndicate to the attention of Mr. Herbert Hoover. She asked me to refer this knowledge to you for her. She has the information, but will not discuss it with anyone but you. If you can get in touch with her, you may get some valuable information. 'Why don't you go to the F.B.I.?' I asked. 'I was there November 13th, 1963.'

"Mr. Kennedy, please, I do not want any publicity; I know nothing about these Organizations,-am just trying to help, I hope. My impression is it is family affair,-She spoke of book that is being written.

"With best wishes, am,
"Sincerely,

"/S/ Berta Phillips

"/T/ Miss Berta Phillips,
2517 Taft Street,
Houston, 6, Texas.

"The lady mentioned in letter, lived next door to me in same Apt Building, in 1963; she is German, but came to America about 1935.

"I am well known in city; Captain Willis of Police Dept. knows me well.

RE: MRS. FLORA FILKO HYATT

On May 4, 1964, Miss Berta Phillips, 2517 Taft Street, Houston, Texas, advised she had written the above letter to the Attorney General at the request of Mrs. Flora Filko Hyatt. She stated she did not know whether or not Mrs. Hyatt was a "mental case," but Miss Phillips stated she "talked of people dressed in black." She stated Mrs. Hyatt had informed her that she "heard voices" and received much of her information in this manner. Miss Phillips stated she had at first thought Mrs. Hyatt was a spiritualist but has now decided she is not because Miss Phillips stated that she is a spiritualist and for this reason knows Mrs. Hyatt could not be one.

Miss Phillips stated that according to Mrs. Hyatt it had been "told to her ear" that the plot to assassinate President John F. Kennedy was made in Houston. She stated Mrs. Hyatt told her that the main individuals involved in this plot were Mr. Sakowitz, head of Sakowitz Department Store, and Fred Nahas, a local news reporter.

Miss Phillips stated that Mrs. Hyatt was divorced from her husband and she feels this divorce was brought about by Mrs. Hyatt's peculiar actions. She stated in her conversations with Mrs. Hyatt she could get no actual sense out of her. Miss Phillips pointed out that she herself had no information whatever bearing on the assassination of President Kennedy and her action in directing a letter to the Attorney General was based solely on her desire to assist Mrs. Hyatt who was apparently reluctant to write this letter herself. Miss Phillips pointed out that she is 88 years old and due to her frail condition is unable to go about the town without assistance.

On May 4, 1964, Mrs. Flora Filko Hyatt, 402 Valentine, Apartment 1008, was interviewed and furnished the following information:

Mrs. Hyatt stated that she had requested Miss Berta Phillips, a friend of her's, to write a letter to the Attorney General to bring to his attention certain information which had come to her attention through demons who spoke into her ear.

She stated she has learned that the Attorney General was interested in the syndicate known as Cosa Nostra but she wanted to point out to the Attorney General that the Cosa Nostra was actually the lowest echelon of the syndicate. It dealt only with the physical aspects of the criminal situation in the United States and the world. She stated she was in touch with the highest echelon of the "syndicate" through demons and "werewolves" who were continually with her and spoke to her when she was in private, in her left ear. Mrs. Hyatt repeatedly referred to what she called her frequent contacts with the metaphysical world, pointing out there are sometimes five or six "beings" speaking to her at once and imparting information concerning happenings outside the physical world, to which normal people are restricted.

Mrs. Hyatt stated that she felt she could be of assistance to the Attorney General in his investigations of Cosa Nostra and had in the past endeavored to contact him by telephone and through the FBI.

Mrs. Hyatt advised that the higher echelon of the "syndicate" was made up of members of the House of Ax. She stated that in 1959 she had tried to bring this information to the attention of former President Herbert Hoover by letter. She stated since she has not received answers from letters of this type she feels that her mail has been delayed or misdirected through activities of members of the House of Ax.

She stated she had "explored" the syndicate and has determined that there are only two men who are willing and able to act against the syndicate and these are the President of the United States and the Attorney General. Mrs. Hyatt explained that her efforts to relate this information personally to the Attorney General were based on her belief there were very few people capable of understanding the metaphysical world, and she doubted that FBI Agents had had adequate training in this specialized field to equip them to handle such information.

In regard to the assassination of President Kennedy, Mrs. Hyatt states that as is frequently done by werewolves, she feels that such a demon could have entered the body of Lee Harvey Oswald, assassinated the President, and then returned the body to Oswald. She stated in several murder cases which received considerable newspaper publicity in the Houston area she feels that the accused in these murders was not actually the one involved but his body was being used by werewolves.

She stated it is also possible that President Kennedy was not shot from the Texas Book Depository Building because werewolves could shoot him with a soundless gun from any position.

Mrs. Hyatt advised that the Attorney General could learn a lot from her through the study of the activities of the members of the House of Ax.

When questioned for specific statements concerning the circumstances of President Kennedy's assassination, Mrs. Hyatt related that a voice told her on November 18, 1963, that two businessmen from Houston had gone to Dallas on that date. She identified these men as Lewis Lechinger, owner of a large jewelry store in Houston, and a Mr. Sakowitz, one of the owners of the Sakowitz Department Store. Mrs. Hyatt stated she felt these two men were top leaders of the House of Ax and the trip to Dallas was undoubtedly related to the plans for the assassination of President Kennedy. Mrs. Hyatt does not believe either of the above men were personally involved in the actual shooting but they had exerted their power through metaphysical forces acting on Lee Harvey Oswald. She stated information of this nature is received by her not only from voices but also from "the stars."

Mrs. Hyatt stated that she had had difficulty in bringing the above information to the attention of any responsible people because it seemed that no one wanted to listen to her story. Mrs. Hyatt stated she had been able to relate this information to Mrs. Oswald, the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, and she understood that Mrs. Oswald had recorded her information on tape. Mrs. Hyatt stated she expected Mrs. Oswald would turn this tape over to the Attorney General.

Mrs. Hyatt advised that she was born and raised in Germany and came to the United States in 1927.

RE: MRS. FLORA FILKO HYATT

The files of the Houston Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation reflect that Flora Filko Hyatt was interned on December 29, 1941, by an Alien Enemy Hearing Board sitting in the Southern District of Texas. This board held that Hyatt entered the United States as a quota immigrant at Houston, Texas, on December 22, 1927, under her maiden name, Flora Filko. Prior to her marriage and after her separation from her husband, she did household and domestic work for moderate compensation. She also received help from the Family Service Bureau in Houston after separation from her husband.

The Hearing Board set out that based on information furnished, Mrs. Hyatt is almost fanatical in her loyalty to Hitler and to Germany and has so expressed herself on numerous occasions. They point out that the only excuse for her attitude might be that she is mentally unbalanced on this subject. She has also been in frequent touch with German propaganda agents, if not one herself. The board pointed out there were found in her possession several photographs of Hitler and of German troops in action, and writings containing Nazi propaganda.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Houston, Texas, reflect that Mrs. Hyatt is an alien.

Mrs. Hyatt is described as follows:

Name	Flora Filko Hyatt
Aliases	Flora Filke Hyatt, Mrs. William Harvey Hyatt
Born	February 21, 1895, Forst, Germany
Age	69
Height	5'3"
Weight	135 pounds

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
11-22-63, DALLAS, TEXAS
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING

Enclosed for your assistance are two copies of a self-explanatory letter from the President's Commission dated 5-12-64, requesting a limited background investigation of Officer J. D. Tippit of the Dallas Police Department who was killed by Lee Harvey Oswald. In conducting this investigation, you should insure that the following basic investigative steps are included; such as, date of birth, education, marital status, military service and prior employment. You should limit the scope of this investigation to that period Tippit was actually a member of the Dallas Police Department. It is suggested that the Dallas Police Department personnel file on Tippit may include much of the information desired by the Commission, and you should be guided by the availability of this information in conducting your investigation.

Every effort should be made to expedite this investigation, insuring that the Commission's specific requests are appropriately compiled with in each instance.

Results of investigation should be incorporated in a suitable LHM for immediate dissemination to the Commission without need for revision and/or correction.

NOTE: Commission in relet indicates this investigation of Tippit requested to "refute unfounded allegations" (presumably linking Tippit with Oswald and Ruby) which have developed since assassination. Some of the more pertinent aspects of the Commission's requests are as follows: 1. A copy of Tippit's police file should be obtained. 2. Tippit's associates inside and outside the police department, as well as his wife, should be interviewed concerning his reputation, interests, assignments and associates. 3. Each person interviewed should be queried as to whether Tippit had any association with Oswald or Ruby.

While Commission has requested limited background investigation, it is felt any such investigation should include the above indicated investigation and encompass the period while Tippit was on the Dallas Police Department.

This matter will be closely followed at the Bureau, and when the results are obtained, the Commission will be notified.

NOTE CONTINUED:

Police Officer Tippit. Lane claims there is no credible case against Oswald today which is counter to our inquiry in the assassination matter. Lane claims the hearings by the President's Commission are secret and deny the accused (Oswald) the right to counsel or to an attorney to cross-examine witnesses, to examine evidence and to present witnesses of his own. Lane also states that the doctors at Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, first indicated the wound in President Kennedy's throat was an entrance wound, but at a later date, after contact by Secret Service agents, changed their statement and indicated the throat wound was an exit wound. Lane also claims that several witnesses state that the shots came from the opposite direction from the Texas School Book Depository Building, although our inquiry shows preponderance of evidence that the shots did come from the above building.

SUBJECT: MARK LANE
SM- C

The "National Guardian" issue 5-9-64 contains an article captioned "Oswald Case: A New Angle" which reports a statement made by Mark Lane to that paper on May 4. Lane is a New York attorney who has injected himself into the assassination matter and has been making irresponsible statements in this country and abroad. He is on the Reserve Index.

Lane's statement to the "National Guardian" alleges that the Secret Service deliberately planted a false story in the press to cast further guilt on Lee Harvey Oswald and that a second rifle, not the one attributed to Oswald, was found on the roof of the Texas School Book Depository building the day the President was assassinated.

Lane alleges that Thayer Waldo, reporter for the Fort Worth "Star-Telegram," was asked by him (Lane) to accompany Mrs. Marguerite Oswald from Fort Worth to Dallas airport on her trip to Washington, D.C., to testify before the President's Commission in February, 1964. Lane states that Mrs. Oswald and Waldo were accompanied on the trip to the airport by Secret Service agent Mike Howard. We have learned that Secret Service agent Michael Howard, formerly assigned to the Fort Worth area earlier this year, has been transferred to the White House detail of Secret Service in Washington, D. C., subsequent to the alleged incident.

Lane alleges that Pat Howard, Deputy Sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, who is the brother of Secret Service agent Mike Howard, advised Waldo that same day at the Dallas airport lunch room that when the Ruby trial was completed he would give Waldo a piece of news to "blow the top off everyone's head, if it hasn't come out from the Warren commission yet." Pat Howard allegedly told Waldo that he could only say that the news had to do with a witness who had actually seen the assassination of President Kennedy and could identify Oswald as the assassin. Lane also alleges that on the return trip to Fort Worth with Pat Howard and Waldo, Mike Howard indicated to Waldo that the witness in question was a Negro who had been looking out a window on the same floor of the Texas School Book Depository building as Oswald and that after the first shot the Negro looked and saw Oswald and then ran and hid behind boxes to avoid being shot by Oswald. Lane alleges that Mike Howard claimed the Negro janitor had been arrested in the past for gambling and that Mike Howard had seen him in a cell under control of the Dallas Police Special Services Division (Gambling).

A check of Bufiles shows that Waldo wrote a story which appeared in the 2-10-64 issue of the Fort Worth "Star-Telegram." This article alleged that an informed source advised that a witness, described as a Negro janitor employed by the Texas School Book Depository building, could identify Oswald as the assassin of President Kennedy and was being held in "protective custody." A thorough check of this story at the time failed to indicate the identity of the witness and when we interviewed Waldo, he refused to reveal the source of his story. The President's Commission was advised of the results of our investigation.

Lane alleges that both Pat and Mike Howard called Waldo after the story appeared and urged that Mike Howard's name never be divulged as the source of information for the story. Lane claims that the story was quickly denied by every agency with an interest in the Oswald case except the Secret Service. Lane claims that this story was the "invention of the Secret Service" and had been released to prevent press coverage of any witness who would raise doubts about Oswald's guilt.

Lane also alleges that Mike Howard during his contact with Waldo had advised Waldo that "We found a rifle on the roof, but it was dropped by a Dallas police officer earlier in the day and he forgot to pick it up."

In the "National Guardian" article, Lane is said to have refused to reveal the source of the above stories, but stated that he had written to the President's Commission informing it of his "evidence" and offering to testify again.

OBSERVATIONS:

The Bureau could on its own initiate an immediate inquiry to pin down the allegations of Mark Lane. Based on previous encounters with Lane, his story is probably a combination of lies, distortions and half truths. The investigation would necessarily delve deeply into the Secret Service and its personnel since the crux of Lane's allegations reflect on the integrity of the Secret Service.

Memo Branigan to Sullivan
re: MARK LANE
SM - C

At the same time, Lane had indicated a willingness to testify and it may be that the President's Commission would want to put him under oath. In view of this and since Lane's allegations do not affect the basic issues of the investigation to determine the assassin of President Kennedy, it is not believed we should institute an independent inquiry concerning these allegations.

ACTION:

If you agree, there is attached a letter to the President's Commission calling their attention to the article, noting the fact that Lane had indicated a willingness to testify and pointing out that the Bureau is not initiating any inquiry in the absence of a request from them.

-- The President's Commission has forwarded an article appearing in the "National Enquirer" issue of 5-17-64. In essence, the sensational article alleges that a high official of the Justice Department sent a letter to Dallas Police Chief Jesse E. Curry requesting the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald and Ruby in connection with the General Walker shooting.

By memorandum of 5-8-64 you were advised that Chief Curry in an interview on 5-7-64 emphatically denied that he had ever been requested by the Justice Department or any official of the FBI not to arrest Oswald or Ruby. A letter incorporating the results of the interview of Chief Curry was forwarded to the President's Commission on 5-8-64.

At the same time, since the Commission had specifically requested that they be advised as to any knowledge possessed by the Justice Department, a letter was sent to the Deputy Attorney General advising of the request from the President's Commission. The Director noted, "Follow up and get prompt action."

Assistant Director Evans was in contact with Mr. Katzenbach's office on May 12 and May 13. We have now received a letter dated May 13, attached, which was hand delivered from the Deputy Attorney General. In this letter he advises that a check of the files discloses no reference to an alleged letter from a high official of the Justice Department to Chief Curry nor any reference that an FBI official was asked to request the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald or Ruby.

The story that appeared in the "National Enquirer" is, therefore, a complete fabrication.

The President's Commission has forwarded an article appearing in the "National Enquirer," issue of 5/17/64. In essence, the sensational article alleges that a high official of the Justice Department sent a letter to Dallas Police Chief Jesse E. Curry requestin the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald and Ruby in connection with the General Walker shooting.

The Commission requested that the Bureau interview Chief Curry concerning his knowledge of the alleged letter and also requested that the Commission be advised as to any knowledge possessed by the Justice Department or the Bureau concerning the allegations in the article.

ACTION:

1. SAC, Shanklin, Dallas, interviewed Chief Curry on 5/7/64. Curry emphatically stated he had never received or heard of a letter to his department from the Justice Department and that he had never been requested by any official of the FBI not to arrest Oswald or Ruby. He described the allegations as absolutely false and added that prior to the assassination neither he nor his department had ever heard of Oswald. Attached for approval is letter to Rankin advising of the interview with Curry. This letter points out that the Bureau has no information in its files concerning the alleged letter from a high official of the Justice Department, nor any reference that an FBI official was asked to request the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald or Ruby. Rankin is also advised that we are making inquiry of the Justice Department and upon receipt of the results of that inquiry the Commission will be advised.

ENCLOSURES

A. Fourteen (14) copies of a letterhead memorandum dated and captioned as above.

B. Forty-six (46) copies of documents listed hereinunder (forms FM-11), from which the names of the persons listed in the enclosed memorandum were obtained, consisting of two identical sets of forms with 23 copies in each.

Although the FM-11 forms do not record, in all instances, the type of travel document from which the data for a given person was obtained, this information was secured by SA JOSEPH B. GARCIA from MACLOVIO HERRERA on the basis of the latter's knowledge of the forms used in the various categories involved.

Inasmuch as a portion of the original FM-11 forms was typed in red, acceptable Xerox copies could not be made thereof, and it was necessary to prepare photographic copies of those forms.

The enclosed forms described hereinunder are listed in the order in which the names thereon appear in the letterhead memorandum:

1. Two photographs of form FM-11 with the name of FRANK WOODROW BLADES, traveling with FM-6 form, who departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 10/3/63. The first name appearing on the list is LLOYD WALTER SEIGART.

2. Two photographs of form FM-11 with the name of JESUS DE MARK, traveling with FM-7 form, who departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 10/3/63. His is the first name appearing on this form.

On 4/29/64 MACLOVIO HERRERA, Chief of the Travel Control Files of the Mexican Immigration Department, Mexico, D. F., furnished to SA JOSEPH B. GARCIA the original forms FM-11 from which information contained in enclosed letterhead memorandum was obtained. Copies were prepared of these forms and the originals returned to him on 4/29/64 in accordance with his request.

On 4/20/64 HERRERA advised that the original travel documents, other than forms FM-5 and FM-8, which were utilized by persons entering Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, on 9/26/63 and departing Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 10/3/63, were not readily available, but efforts would be made to locate them. On 4/24/64 and 4/29/64 HERRERA stated he had been unable to locate these documents, but was continuing his search; however he could not assure he would be able to locate all of these documents. He stated they had been stored in bundles in an unorganized fashion in the storage warehouse and the possibility existed that many of the forms FM-17 may have been destroyed in accordance with the usual practice for those forms.

As pointed out on page 2 of referenced Mexico City airtel dated 3/16/64, a comparison of the list of persons who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63, furnished by HARVEY CASH, American Consul, Nuevo Laredo, as contained in referenced San Antonio airtel, with the list (FM-11 forms) furnished by Attorney RAFAEL HERNANDEZ OCHOA disclosed that 22 individuals who appeared on the list supplied by CASH did not appear on the FM-11 forms supplied by HERNANDEZ OCHOA.

Further review and comparison of the list supplied by CASH with the data furnished by HERNANDEZ OCHOA reflects that, in fact, only 21 persons who appeared on the list supplied by CASH did not appear on the lists furnished by HERNANDEZ OCHOA. The name THOMAS J. ROGER does appear on HERNANDEZ OCHOA's list; in addition, it was pointed out on page 2 of referenced Mexico City airtel dated 3/16/64 that the name SOLOMON BANDACK did not appear on HERNANDEZ OCHOA's list. Further review of the FM-11 forms discloses that the name of SOLOMON M. BANDACK does appear as having entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/27/63, traveling by automobile; accordingly, his name was not included in referenced Mexico City letterhead memorandum dated 3/16/64 as being among those who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63.

San Antonio airtel dated 12/3/63 includes the name of SOLOMON BANDACK as being among the names furnished by HARVEY CASH of individuals who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63. As pointed out above, a review of FM-11 forms supplied by HERNANDEZ OCHOA discloses that SOLOMON M. BANDACK, traveling with FM-5 No. 4329383, entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, 9/27/63, by automobile. He was described as being 43 years of age, married nationality North American, occupation engineer, and listed as proceeding from Detroit, Michigan, with final destination of Mexico, D. F.

Of the remaining 20 persons, a record for entry and type of travel document utilized upon entry into Mexico on 9/26/63 has been located for 9 additional persons, which data is set forth in the enclosed letterhead memorandum. These 9 are as follows:

AUGUSTIN CERDA REYES
JUAN SAUCEDO
LEONARDO CASTILLO
RODOLFO ACEVEDO GUEVARA
RODOLFO MENDIOLA
MARIA OTERO PABLOS
ELVA VALLE RENDON
CARLOS ALMAGUER ECHARTEA
MARIO C. MENDIVIL

In addition, a review of the original FM-11 forms furnished by MACLOVIO HERRERA disclosed that the following 5 persons, who were included on the list supplied by CASH as having entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63, in fact entered Mexico on 9/25/63. All were listed as traveling with forms FM-17.

JOSE VEGA VERANO
CARLOS VASQUEZ GALINDO
JESUS ANGEL SANTOS CANTU
GUILLERMO HEVIA VILLAR
JOSE GERARDO BENAVIDES SALINAS

No record was located on the FM-11 forms, reviewed by SA's JOSEPH B. GARCIA and HENRY J. PRATT, for the remaining 6 persons who appeared on the list furnished by CASH and named below:

VERNON KLEIN
LUIS Mt. VASQUEZ
JOSEPH HARRISON BIRD
EDWARD G. NEWMAN
IGNACIO G. MONTEMAYOR
JOSE MONTEMAYOR TREVINO

The foregoing six persons were named in referenced San Antonio airtel dated 12/3/63 as having entered Mexico by automobile on 9/26/63 and the type of travel document used was listed as unknown.

Regarding JOSE MONTEMAYOR TREVINO, it is believed this person is identical to JOSE MONTEMAYOR TREVINO, a prominent and well-known Customs broker at Laredo, Texas, who has been a resident of that border city for many years, and believed to be a Mexican national. It is also believed that IGNACIO G. MONTEMAYOR is MONTEMAYOR TREVINO's son.

It is noted that the FM-11 form recording CATALINA ADA DEL CARMEN CANIZARES' entry into Mexico contains ditto marks in the entry date column with the figure "26" inserted alongside the ditto marks. The date above the ditto marks is 9/18/63, the date of entry into Mexico shown for FEDERICO VICTOR VALDEZ VALDEZ, the person immediately preceding CANIZARES on the FM-11 form, which would indicate that CANIZARES entered the country on 9/18/63; however, in view of the "26" notation, MACLOVIO HERRERA advised it was his opinion that CANIZARES entered the country on 9/26/63. Therefore the enclosed letterhead memorandum lists CANIZARES among those who entered Mexico on 9/26/63.

In efforts to further verify whether CANIZARES' entry date into Mexico was 9/26/63, the following inquiry was made at the Visa Section, U. S. Embassy, Mexico, D. F., to determine if a record is maintained there reflecting a residence address for CANIZARES in order that she could be located and interviewed regarding this matter:

On 5/4/64 MARGARITA MUNGUIA, Visa Section, advised SA HENRY J. PRATT that records reflect a visa was issued to CATALINA ADA DEL CARMEN CANIZARES GARCIA on 10/26/60 valid until 1/26/61. These records reflect CANIZARES was born 9/14/32 at Havana, Cuba, and her residence address was shown as Calle Lope de Vega #341, Apartment 1, Colonia Chapultepec Morales, Mexico, D. F. CANIZARES was listed as a housewife and has had immigrant status in Mexico since 1948. CANIZARES' visa was revalidated on 9/13/63 for unlimited entries into the United States until 3/13/64. These records disclosed that as of 9/13/63 CANIZARES had been a resident of Mexico for sixteen years.

On 5/4/64 the following inquiry was conducted at Calle Lope de Vega #341 by [redacted] and [redacted]

It was ascertained that Apartment 1 is now housing a draftsman's office. A young man, approximately 32 years of age, advised he had resided in Apartment 1 for about three months. He did not know CATALINA ADA DEL CARMEN CANIZARES. He believed that a family by the name of ALATRISTE had lived there for several years prior to his moving into Apartment 1. He said the family in Apartment 2 may possibly have more information regarding CANIZARES.

Inquiry was made at Apartment 2, and a woman who stated she lived there advised that a girl by the name of CARMEN (LNU) did live in Apartment 1 with a family by the name of (FNU) ALATRISTE, but they had moved some time ago and she did not know their present location. She believed CARMEN was related to the ALATRISTE family. She stated she knew of no one in the apartment building at the present time who would know the ALATRISTE family.

Bureau airtel to Dallas dated 4/9/64 stated the Bureau was not furnishing copies of referenced Mexico City letterhead memorandum dated 3/16/64 to the offices indicated in referenced Mexico City airtel dated 3/16/64 nor were leads being set forth to interview individuals listed in this letterhead memorandum who reside outside the United States. The Bureau pointed out that OSWALD's means of travel into Mexico is known, as it has been verified by four witnesses on the bus, and his travel to Mexico City on 9/26-27/63 was further confirmed by the Red Arrow bus baggage list and Mexican Immigration records.

Since all efforts have been unsuccessful at Mexico City in determining whether a record exists for entry into Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63 of the above-listed six persons, and in view of the information contained in Bureau airtel dated 4/9/64, no leads are being set forth for other offices to conduct investigation in this regard.

If not already done, it is suggested that, if it is desired to further identify the above-listed six persons and ascertain the type travel document utilized by them upon their reported entry into Mexico on 9/26/63, the Bureau may wish to have American Consul HARVEY CASH recontacted at Nuevo Laredo to determine the original source furnishing the list of persons who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63, which source may be the Mexican Customs records at Nuevo Laredo. If this lead is pursued further, an effort should be made to ascertain whether those records contain any notations recording the type travel document utilized by those persons upon their reported entry into Mexico on 9/26/63.

LEADS

MEXICO CITY

At Mexico, D. F., Mexico:

1. Will maintain contact with MACLOVIO HERRERA, Chief of the Travel Control Files, Mexican Immigration Department, to determine whether he has been able to locate the original copies of travel documents for persons set forth in the enclosed letterhead memorandum who departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 10/3/63 and who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo 9/26/63, including the six persons for whom no record was found in Mexico City.

2. Will check records of Gobernacion (Ministry of the interior) to determine whether those records contain a current residence address for CATALINA ADA DEL CARMEN CANIZARES GARCIA in order that she may be located and interviewed to further verify whether she entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

A confidential source abroad has advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, State of Tamaulipas, on September 26, 1963, and departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963.

A memorandum dated February 27, 1964, recorded information concerning persons who departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, who were traveling in Mexico documented with Mexican Government tourist cards FM-5 or FM-8. This information was obtained from a review of the tourist cards (FM-5 and FM-8) of these persons and copies of the form FM-11 relating to the departure of these persons; similarly, a memorandum dated March 16, 1964, reported information obtained from a review of FM-5 and FM-8 tourist cards and the related form FM-11 for persons who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963.

A second confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On March 23, 1964, MACLOVIO HERRERA, Chief of the Travel Control Files of the Mexican Immigration Department, Mexico, D. F., (D. F. refers to "Distrito Federal" - Federal District or the Mexican Federal Capital) advised that in a circular instruction dated March 20, 1962, the Chief of the Immigration Department described the Immigration form FM-11 as a "statistical record to be prepared every two weeks on nationals and aliens entering and leaving the country." HERRERA explained that separate FM-11 forms are submitted semimonthly by all Mexican Immigration stations for entries and departures from Mexico, and separate lists are prepared in connection with the various types of travel documents presented and are submitted in duplicate (an original and one carbon copy) to the Travel Control Files for checking and comparison with the tourist cards or other travel documents on which they are based.

A third confidential source abroad advised as follows:

In order to ascertain the identities of other persons who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, utilizing travel documents other than FM-5 and FM-8 tourist cards, the following inquiry was conducted:

On April 20 and 29, 1964, MACLOVIO HERRERA made available the original FM-11 forms recording data concerning persons who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, with various types of travel documents. Various original FM-11 forms were reviewed inasmuch as separate lists are maintained for each type travel document issued to the travelers. HERRERA advised that the following is the complete list of persons of record who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and who departed Mexico through that city on October 3, 1963, utilizing travel documents other than FM-5 and FM-8 tourist cards. He explained that the listed persons and those previously reported as having entered and departed with forms FM-5 and FM-8 do not include all persons who entered and departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and October 3, 1963, respectively, as there are numerous individuals who cross the United States-Mexico border daily who are not documented by Mexican authorities, including many Mexican nationals traveling from the interior of Mexico to the United States.

From the forms FM-11 described above, as reviewed by a fourth confidential source abroad, the following compilation of information concerning each person appearing thereon who entered Mexico on September 26, 1963 and who departed therefrom on October 3, 1963, was prepared:

(HERRERA explained that "Circular No. 1091" is an emergency travel document issued by the Mexican Immigration Department to an individual when that person's immigration papers are being processed and not available for immediate use. The document is valid for a thirty-day absence from Mexico.)

HEINZ KARL TZCHENTKE, traveling with form FM-1. Described as being a returning non-immigrant of German nationality, 36 years of age, single, student; proceeding from Laredo, Texas, en route Mexico, D. F., by automobile.

(HERRERA advised that form FM-1 was issued at one time to non-immigrant students studying in Mexico, but this form has been replaced by form FM-9, which is the immigration document currently in use for persons in that category. He explained that there are a number of non-immigrant students, however, who were issued forms FM-1 earlier and continue to utilize that document.)

Described as being a Cuban national, female, 31 years of age, married, occupation housewife; proceeding from Dallas, Texas, en route Mexico, D. F., by automobile.

(HERRERA explained that an "Oficio" for travel purposes is an official document or memorandum prepared by the Mexican Immigration Department on a temporary emergency basis and is in lieu of a regularly issued travel document. The "Oficio" in this case authorized the traveler to depart and re-enter the country with the same document.)

— A third confidential source abroad advised as follows:

In order to ascertain the identities of other persons who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, utilizing travel documents other than FM-5 and FM-8 tourist cards, the following inquiry was conducted:

On April 20 and 29, 1964, MACLOVIO HERRERA made available the original FM-11 forms recording data concerning persons who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, with various types of travel documents. Various original FM-11 forms were reviewed inasmuch as separate lists are maintained for each type travel document issued to the travelers. HERRERA advised that the following is the complete list of persons of record who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and who departed Mexico through that city on October 3, 1963, utilizing travel documents other than FM-5 and FM-8 tourist cards. He explained that the listed persons and those previously reported as having entered and departed with forms FM-5 and FM-8 do not include all persons who entered and departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and October 3, 1963, respectively, as there are numerous individuals who cross the United States-Mexico border daily who are not documented by Mexican authorities, including many Mexican nationals traveling from the interior of Mexico to the United States.

From the forms FM-11 described above, as reviewed by a fourth confidential source abroad, the following compilation of information concerning each person appearing thereon was prepared:

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Synopsis: Subject's probable itinerary and expenditures while in NYC, 6/13-14/62, ascertained and set forth. BARRY GRAY, NYC Radio Commentator, contacted re statements made on his radio program and results set forth. Results of interview with SERGE FLIEGERS, Chief European Correspondent of Hearst Newspapers, re allegation that OSWALD, while in Soviet Union, trained as intelligence agent and received assignment to assassinate President KENNEDY, set forth herein. Interviews with STANLEY ROSS, Dr. CARLOS MARQUEZ STERLING and EVLDIO PEREIRA ACOSTA re JACK RUBY's alleged presence in Cuba, set forth. Investigation concerning PASCUAL ENRIQUE RUEDOLO GONGORA set forth and PETER CASSISI, former Marine Corps associate of subject's, interviewed and results contained herein.

DETAILS:

The following investigation was conducted in an effort to obtain information concerning subject's expenditures during the period June 13-14, 1962, while he was in New York City:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On April 8, 1964, JAMES M. JOSOFF, Public Relations Director, Travelers Aid Society, 204 East 39th Street, New York, advised that his records indicate that OSWALD and his family were met at the pier in Hoboken, New Jersey, on June 13, 1962, by a representative from their office and transported to the Port Authority Terminal at 41st Street and 8th Avenue, New York City. He stated that this transportation was via Travelers company limousine and was free of charge. He stated their limousine service only operates between the Port Authority terminals and the piers and that is the reason why OSWALD was not taken directly to the office of the New York City Department of Welfare. He advised that the record further indicates that their representative accompanied OSWALD and his family from the Port Authority Terminal to the office of Special Services, New York City Department of Welfare, 42 Franklin Street, New York City, and that they travelled via taxicab. He commented that inasmuch as OSWALD's file does not contain a request for reimbursement for this taxi fare, he would assume that OSWALD paid for the fare.

Mr. JOSOFF remarked that it would appear from the record that OSWALD and his family stayed at the Times Square Motor Hotel, 8th Avenue and 43rd Street, New York City. He also remarked that since OSWALD did have some money in his possession, any meals consumed during the period that he was in the company of the Travelers representative, OSWALD would have paid for himself.

In connection with the taxi fare from the Port Authority Terminal to the Department of Welfare, MAX WEISS, President of the Broad Street Taxi Owners Association, Inc., 44 Whitehall Street, New York, advised, on April 10, 1964, that the fare for this trip would have been approximately $1.50.

On April 8, 1964, Miss DOROTHY DOWNING, Supervisor, Special Investigations, New York City Department of Welfare, advised that since their files do not reflect any expenditures by the department on behalf of OSWALD and his family, it can be assumed that any transportation to and from the office of the Department of Welfare and any meals consumed during the period of OSWALD's association with the department, were paid for by OSWALD himself.

She stated that the file does contain a request from a Department of Welfare worker for reimbursement for himself for $3.50 spent on transportation to and from Idlewild Airport, Queens, New York, aboard a Carey bus. She commented that it would appear that OSWALD, his family, and the Welfare worker proceeded to Idlewild aboard a Carey bus and that OSWALD paid his own fare.

Miss DOWNING stated that OSWALD left the Special Services branch office of the Department of Welfare, 42 Franklin Street, registered at a Times Square Hotel, and subsequently returned to the Special Services office on June 14, 1962, at which time he was accompanied to the Western Union office, 428 Broadway, which is only a few blocks from the Special Services office, where he obtained the $200 sent by his brother from Texas.

In connection with the above itinerary, Miss DOWNING was unable to furnish any information concerning expenditures by OSWALD.

Although OSWALD's means of transportation from Special Services office, 42 Franklin Street, to his hotel at 8th Avenue and 43rd Street, on June 13, 1962, and his return trip to 42 Franklin Street on the following day are unknown, it is to be noted that if he, his wife, and their four-month infant child took a taxicab, the approximate fare each way would have been $1.50. This estimate was furnished on April 10, 1964, by MAX WEISS, heretofore mentioned. As indicated above, the Western Union office where OSWALD received his $200 is within walking distance from the Special Services office and in all probability, no transportation expenses were incurred in connection with this travel.

It appears from the Welfare file that OSWALD left the Western Union office and proceeded to the West Side Air Terminal to obtain his airplane tickets. Since there is no information available regarding his means of transportation, it can only be assumed that if he travelled via taxi, the fare would have been $1.50, according to Mr. WEISS.

The West Side Air Terminal is located at 10th Avenue and 42nd Street, and is within walking distance to the Times Square Hotel, 8th Avenue and 43rd Street, and in all probability OSWALD incurred no expense in connection with this travel.

On April 9, 1964, ETHEL ZILLIKEN, Chief Ticket Agent, Delta Airlines, West Side Air Terminal, advised that their files reflect that on June 14, 1962, OSWALD purchased two tickets totalling $183.04 or $91.52 for each ticket. She stated that there is no charge for an infant. She commented that OSWALD's flight number was 821, and was scheduled to land at Love Field, Dallas, Texas.

On April 9, 1964, JOHN HUBER, JR., Manager, Times Square Motor Hotel, 8th Avenue and 43rd Street, New York City, advised that their files reflect that L. OSWALD registered at their hotel on June 13, 1962, and checked out on June 14, 1962. He stated that OSWALD's bill, totalling $15.21, included $10.00 for the room, $.50 tax and $4.71 for telephone calls. He stated that the telephone toll cards are destroyed after six months and the only information available regarding these calls is that one long-distance call amounting to $2.31 was placed on June 13, 1962, and one long-distance call amounting to $2.20 and one local call amounting to $.20, were placed on June 14, 1962.

On April 10, 1964, EDWARD L. BRAUNE, Security Supervisor, New York City Telephone Company, advised that their records pertaining to the period June, 1962, have been destroyed and there is no information available concerning these records.

The Welfare file indicates that OSWALD left his hotel on June 14, 1962, and proceeded to the East Side Airlines (ESAL), First Avenue and 38th Street, New York City, via taxi. In connection with this taxi transportation,

MR. WEISS, previously mentioned, estimated that this fare would have been approximately $.85. The file revealed that OSWALD and his family apparently travelled from ESAL to Idlewild Airport via Carey bus.

On April 10, 1964, inquiry at Carey Transportation Company, ESAL, First Avenue and 38th Street, New York City, disclosed that the fare from ESAL to Idlewild Airport in June, 1962, would have been $1.75 per person with no charge for infants.

On February 6, 1964, BARRY GRAY, Radio Commentator, Station WMCA, New York City, made a statement during his radio program to the effect that a source, whom he did not wish to identify, but described as a responsible newsman, had informed GRAY that he, the source, was working on a story about LEE HARVEY OSWALD having been trained in Russia by a Soviet group which was anti-KHRUSHCHEV and pro-Chinese.

In connection with the above information, BARRY GRAY was interviewed by SAS JAMES O. INGRAM and JOHN JAMES O'FLAHERTY, on April 17, 1964, and furnished the following information:

GRAY advised that he recalls making the statement concerning subject, as referred to above, and stated that his source was SERGE FLIEGERS, European Correspondent for Hearst Publications, "New York Journal American" newspaper. He remarked that on January 16, 1964, while in conversation with FLIEGERS and one LESTER FELDSHON, described as a New York City realtor, and an acquaintance of FLIEGERS, a statement was made by FLIEGERS to the effect that there was an anti-KHRUSHCHEV, pro-Chinese group in the Soviet Union that was not in accord with KHRUSHCHEV's "coexistence" policy and that this group had trained OSWALD for the assassination of the President in an effort to bring KHRUSHCHEV into line. GRAY stated that he did not ask FLIEGERS where he had obtained this information nor did FLIEGERS state his source or sources; however, GRAY added that FLIEGERS made his statement in a categorical manner.

GRAY stated that he asked FLIEGERS what he was going to do with this information and FLIEGERS replied that he had prepared a story concerning this information but that the Hearst Publications would not allow it to be published.

GRAY voluntarily remarked that he personally gives more credence to the idea of a "plot" behind the assassination, as related by FLIEGERS, than to the idea that OSWALD planned and committed the act entirely by himself. He added, however, that he has no basis in fact whatsoever for his belief, but that it is merely his personal opinion.

On April 17, 1964, in an effort to locate the present address of correspondent SERGE FLIEGERS, SA FRANCIS J. O'BRIEN telephonically contacted DAN BRIGHAM, Trend Editor, "New York Journal American" newspaper, New York City. BRIGHAM advised that FLIEGERS' present address is care of Press Wireless, 8 Rue Edward VII, Paris 9, France. BRIGHAM added that it is the opinion of responsible individuals at the "New York Journal American" that FLIEGERS is "one of the biggest fakers in the business and anything he says has to be taken with a large grain of salt."

It is to be noted that information previously received by the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) disclosed that on November 24, 1963, Radio Station WHN, New York City, carried a broadcast by SERGE FLIEGERS from Vienna, Austria. FLIEGERS, described as the Chief European Correspondent of Hearst Newspapers and a Broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System, interviewed a Mr. "X" concerning the OSWALD case. Mr. "X" expressed the suspicion that OSWALD had been trained as a Soviet intelligence agent during his visit to the Soviet Union and that the assassination of President KENNEDY may have been done on behalf of an anti-KHRUSHCHEV and pro-Peking faction in the Soviet Union.

In connection with this information, a confidential source abroad advised that on December 2, 1963, SERGE FLIEGERS stated that the information used in his broadcast, as referred to above, was received from an unofficial contact in Vienna who visits Prague from time to time and may have, in turn, received his information from a source in Prague. FLIEGERS stated that he often refers to his "intelligence sources" meaning unofficial contacts who furnish him with "intelligence information." He admitted that this is misleading since it infers that his sources are official intelligence sources rather than unofficial, but stated that he prefers to use this term since it is a vague, undefined description of his sources.

He stated that his source advised him that at the time OSWALD arrived in Russia, in 1959, he was probably questioned by the KGB in a routine manner. This questioning was probably done by a low-level KGB officer asking him for the reason for his coming to Russia, how long he intended to stay, et cetera. FLIEGERS' source reasoned that after this interview by the KGB, OSWALD was probably placed in contact with Soviet Military Intelligence in view of his Marine Corps background. FLIEGERS stated that this may not have been the official GRU but could be another Soviet military group. FLIEGERS' source then reasons that because of OSWALD's Marine Corps background, he probably would have been sent to a Soviet Military Intelligence sabotage school. This school could have been located in Moscow or since OSWALD is reported to have resided in Minsk for several years, it could have been located in that city.

FLIEGERS' source reasons that there is a strong military group in Russia which is anti-KHRUSHCHEV and thus pro-Peking. This group which would be strong Stalinists would naturally be opposed to the KHRUSHCHEV-KENNEDY relationship which had developed during the past two years. FLIEGERS' source also reasons that this military group would be interested in perpetuating the cold war in order to perpetuate their own military hierarchy. This source therefore reasons that this group may have ordered OSWALD to return to the United States and later instructed him to assassinate the President.

FLIEGERS was carefully questioned as to the nature of his sources and whether his sources had specific information or were speculating on the possibility of the above information. He repeated that his source is an unofficial contact in Vienna who visits Prague from time to time, that he may have received this information from another source in Prague who, in turn, may have contacts in Russia. He was pressed for the identity of his source and was asked if it would be possible for us to personally contact him. FLIEGERS stated that he doubts this strongly, but volunteered to recontact his source, if possible, to determine if he is willing to have his identity revealed. FLIEGERS stated that it is impossible for him to contact this source in Vienna by telephone, and, therefore, it may take some time to receive an answer.

On February 6, 1964, STANLEY ROSS, Editor of "El Tiempo", a New York City Spanish language weekly, appeared as a guest on the BARRY GRAY radio program, Station WMCA, New York City. During the course of the program, ROSS made a comment to the effect that he thought CASTRO was responsible for the death of President KENNEDY, directly or indirectly, or both. ROSS also remarked during the program that "El Tiempo" had published a story to the effect that JACK RUBY had been in Cuba twice since CASTRO came to power.

In connection with these statements, STANLEY ROSS was interviewed by SA FRANCIS J. O'BRIEN, on April 24, 1964, and furnished the following information:

He stated that he recalls the statements he made on the BARRY GRAY radio program and explained that his statement pertaining to FIDEL CASTRO's responsibility, directly or indirectly, for the assassination of President KENNEDY was prompted by the fact that on or about November 25, 1963, one PASCUAL ENRIQUE RUEDOLO GONGORA, a Cuban, was detained by Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), New York City, and through arrangements with the Spanish Consulate in New York City, was deported to Spain. He advised that when he had heard of GONGORA's detention, he contacted his friend, Mr. GARCIA BANON, the Spanish Consul, who confirmed that GONGORA had been detained by INS and at the request of unidentified United States officials, Spain agreed to accept GONGORA for return to Cuba.

ROSS stated that he was informed by Mr. BANON that during an interview with GONGORA the latter stated that he was one of five or six groups sent to the United States to assassinate President KENNEDY at the direction of FIDEL CASTRO., GONGORA reportedly stated that CASTRO was fearful that President KENNEDY was trying to assassinate him and further stated that the United States had been involved in previous assassinations, such as the assassination of the husband and brother-in-law of Madame NHU of Vietnam.

ROSS advised that through his correspondent for Cuba, one ENRIQUE CERVANTES, he had ascertained that Cuba would not accept GONGORA from Spain because Cuba did not want to get involved in the investigation concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY.

ROSS further advised that relative to his statement that JACK RUBY had been in Cuba twice since CASTRO came to power, he explained that he received this information from one ROLANDO MASFERRER, who had obtained it from Dr. CARLOS MARQUEZ STERLING, who, in turn, obtained the information from a letter received from Cuba.

It is to be noted that Dr. CARLOS MARQUEZ STERLING had previously been mentioned by NATHANIEL WEYL, 4201 Ocean Boulevard, Delray Beach, Florida, when WEYL was interviewed by Special Agents of the Miami Office of the FBI, on March 13, 1964. WEYL was interviewed at that time relative to a statement he made to the effect that JACK RUBY had made a trip to Havana, Cuba, to deal with an individual named PRASKIN. WEYL stated that he had received this information from an old friend, CARLOS MARQUEZ STERLING.

On April 20, 1964, Dr. CARLOS MARQUEZ STERLING, 355 East 72nd Street, New York City, New York, advised SA FRANCIS J. O'BRIEN that he is not the original source of the information pertaining to a visit by JACK RUBY to Havana, and his alleged meeting there with one PRASKIN.

STERLING stated that he saw the letter which contained this information and he identified the original source of this information as EVIDIO PEREIRA. STERLING stated that PEREIRA formerly lived in Miami, Florida, and while he was residing there, STERLING instructed him to furnish this information to STERLING's friend, NATHANIEL WEYL.

STERLING remarked that PEREIRA is employed in a factory in Newark, New Jersey, but added that he does not know his address. He commented that PEREIRA is a member of the Free Cuba Patriotic Movement, of which he, STERLING, is the leader.

STERLING stated he would obtain PEREIRA's address and advise the FBI of same.

Subsequently, STERLING furnished PEREIRA's address and on May 4, 1964, EVIDIO PEREIRA ACOSTA, 3750 Broadway, New York City, was interviewed in the Spanish language and furnished the following information:

He advised that he has no firsthand knowledge concerning the statement that RUBY was in Cuba and in contact with one PRASKIN. He explained that this information was contained in a letter that he received from a friend in Cuba. He exhibited the letter which was written in the Spanish language and dated December 3, 1963, Havana, Cuba, and it was noted that the first paragraph reads as follows:

"Notify the Pentagon of this information: 'RUBY'_ murderer of OSWALD _ was in Havana a year ago. He is _ friend and client of an individual named PRASKIN _ owner or manager of a tourist shop situated in Prado E/. Animas y Trocadero in front of the Sevilla."

PEREIRA ACOSTA did not, at first, wish to disclose the identity of his friend in Cuba, since he did not have the latter's consent to do so; however, he subsequently identified him as FERNANDO GARCIA, Calle 19 #1064 Altos Entre 12 y 14 Vedado, Havana, Cuba - Telephone 3-7088. He added that although he does not know whether his friend is the original source of this information, he described his friend as a reliable source.

He commented that he is unable to furnish any additional information regarding RUBY's alleged presence in Cuba and contact with one PRASKIN other than the information contained in the letter as received from his friend in Cuba.

In an effort to determine the present whereabouts of PASCUAL ENRIQUE RUEDOLO GONGORA, heretofore mentioned, and to interview him concerning his remarks, the following investigation was conducted:

On April 27, 1964, inquiry at INS, New York City, determined that GONGORA had been deported to Cuba via Spain on November 28, 1963, but subsequently had been unable to obtain travel documents to return to Cuba and was, therefore, returned to the United States at New York City, on February 21, 1964. INS advised that GONGORA was subsequently committed to Bellevue Psychiatric Hospital, New York City, and later transferred to Creedmoor State Hospital, Queens, New York, where he is presently confined.

On April 28, 1964, Mr. MOSES ANDRE WALKER, Superintendent, Bellevue Psychiatric Hospital, New York City, advised that hospital records disclose that GONGORA had been admitted to the hospital on March 11, 1964, for observation; that GONGORA's diagnosis was reflected as Paranoid Schizophrenic and that he was discharged from Bellevue on March 23, 1964, and transferred to Creedmoor State Hospital, Queens, New York. Mr. WALKER stated that GONGORA was transferred from Bellevue because it had been determined that he was in need of further psychiatric treatment and that Creedmoor State Hospital had more propitious facilities for such treatment.

On April 28, 1964, inquiry at Creedmoor State Hospital, Queens, New York, disclosed that GONGORA is presently confined to the Disturbed Ward, Building S10, and is expected to remain at Creedmoor for further treatment for probably at least another six months.

It is to be noted that the New York Office of the FBI had previously conducted an investigation concerning PASCUAL ENRIQUE RUEDOLO GONGORA, also known as Pascual Ruedato, and such investigation reflected the following:

A letter addressed to Mr. ROBERT KENNEDY, Washington, D.C., "The House Painted White", postmarked New York 1, New York, dated October 13, 1963, 7:00 p.m., was received by Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY on October 21, 1963. The return address reads:

"Pascual Ruedato
500 West 14th Street
New York, New York."

The reverse side of the envelope bears the slogan: "Cuba Yes, Yankees No."

"New York, October 18, 1963

"Mr. Robert Kennedy:

"I am tired of asking for my deportation by your brother, the President.

"I will tell you that I do not know how he is capable of protecting such criminals as Rafael Diaz Balart. They should be the most despicable kind of people for you, gentlemen, who are the titled representatives of democracy. But he will fall because of his heroin peddling and all his millions, accumulated with the most horrible crimes in Cuba, will be to no avail. He even set dogs on women. Mr. Tony Varona must remember him because his daughter was one of the victims of the Balart who, today, is living at 18 North East Street and Biscayne, Miami, with the full support of this country, which does not know about this or does not want to know.

"The fact of the matter is that I was harmed in Cuba and in this country by protected people like this Balart, a thief of engraved documents.

"I feel very ill and my greatest desire is to be deported because I am not agreeable to having these people live where they can harm me.

"I hope that in keeping with your dignity and honor you succeed in this as soon as possible. Thus, you will no longer have to hear my voice saying that you stifle the right to decency, that is to say, the right to live where there are no animals like many of those who have settled in this country.

"Batista, 221 17th Street North East, at the corner with Patterson.

"Let them stay here.

"Thank you for my deportation.

"Pascual Ruedato

"P.S. Rumor has it that your brother is caught in the snare of that female bandit and assassin: Ondy (?). It is Mrs. Balart, who is in this country. In Cuba she is known by another name: The Displaced Assassin.

"Pascual Ruedato

"P.S. The sisters of Rolando Masferre and Tavernilla are dead because they were 'famous in crime'.

"Eighteen thousand women killed by dogs for the pleasure of sadistic neurotics, scoundrels and vice addicts.

"Fatherland or death."

RAFAEL DIAZ BALART, referred to above, may be identical with the former head of the anti-CASTRO organization in New York City named "The White Rose."

TONY VARONA, mentioned above, may be identical with the TONY VARONA who is a prominent official in the Cuban Revolutionary Council.

On November 12, 1963, ARNOLD FOX, 500 West 14th Street, New York City, advised he is the lessee of 500 West 14th Street, and that he operates a bar and grill on the first floor and rents out the rest of the building consisting of a barbershop on the first floor and 27 rooms upstairs. He stated he has rented room number 6 to one PASCUAL RUEDOLO since October 4, 1963, at $12.00 per week. He stated he had advised the New York City Welfare Department he had a vacant room and that the Welfare Department sent RUEDOLO. He stated that GONGORA's rent is paid by the Department of Welfare. He described GONGORA as white male, about 50 years old, 135 pounds, five feet seven inches tall, gray hair and usually badly in need of a shave. GONGORA speaks Spanish but very little English. FOX advised he had no knowledge of GONGORA's political sentiments and that in his very limited association he appeared sane. He advised he had just hired a new building superintendent but that he would not know GONGORA and that he felt none of the other tenants would know him.

Sources familiar with some phases of Cuban activities in the New York City area were contacted but were unable to furnish any information concerning GONGORA.

Records, Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as furnished to IC RAYMOND DAVID BECKER, on November 19, 1963, were negative concerning GONGORA.

Records, Bureau of Special Services and Bureau of Criminal Identification, New York City Police Department, as furnished to SA AUGUST J. MICEK during November, 1963, were negative concerning GONGORA.

On November 22, 1963, a confidential source advised that records of the New York City Department of Welfare, 271 Church Street, New York City, file number HR2268921, reflect that one PASCUAL RUEDOLO GONGORA appeared at the Welfare Department and informed authorities therein that he was undomiciled and unemployed. His residence was given as 500 West 14th Street formerly 23 West 65th Street, 610 West 111th Street, 169 Beach 115th Street, Rockaways, Brooklyn, and 237 West 109th Street, New York City. GONGORA claimed he had palpitations of the heart, headaches, a blood condition and acknowledged a past history of psychiatric care in Cuba and stated he had been arrested on August 25, 1963, on a narcotics offense. He stated he reports to Roosevelt Hospital for a case of syphilis he received in Cuba in 1956.

On November 29, 1963, JOSEPH R. MC HUGH, INS, made available file number A12 322 950 concerning PASCUAL ENRIQUE RUEDOLO Y GONGORA. This file reflected GONGORA was born March 11, 1918, in Cuba, and that he entered the United States at Miami, Florida, on April 28, 1961, as a refugee. He had Cuban passport number 17422. The file contained English translations of letters written in Spanish by GONGORA to the Miami Police Department, INS and the President of the United States, some obscene and all expressing dissatisfaction with the United States and a desire to be returned to Cuba. He was described as five feet seven inches, 140 pounds, blue eyes, gray hair, Social Security Number 129-34-1094 and his FBI number was given as 5923E. He was arrested October 25, 1961, by the 10th Precinct, New York City Police Department for felonious assault (knife) and on February 8, 1962, sentenced to three months in the workhouse. On August 23, 1963, he was arrested for possession of a hypodermic needle and desoxyn, and on September 16, 1963, given six months suspended sentence. He was arrested on November 14, 1963, for carrying a concealed knife. No disposition shown.

MC HUGH advised that GONGORA had departed the United States at Idlewild Airport on Iberian Airlines, Flight Number 954 at 6:00 p.m., on November 28, 1963, destined for Havana, Cuba, via Madrid, Spain. He stated GONGORA had departed under INS deportation order.

On May 1, 1964, PETER CASSISI, 12 Pleasantville Avenue, Ossining, New York, a former Marine Corps associate of OSWALD's, was interviewed by SA JAMES E. GORDON at Bronxville, New York. CASSISI, a Patrolman with the Bronxville, New York, Police Department, stated that he was born November 28, 1937, in Ossining, New York, and served in the United States Marine Corps from September 14, 1955, to January 18, 1960, MSN number 1568496. He stated that he was court-martialed on July 31, 1958, for assault and inciting to riot for which he was found guilty and served four months and six days in the stockade. He added that the charge resulted from a brawl in a bar.

CASSISI advised that he was attached to Marine Air Control Squadron Number 1 at Atsugi, Japan, and served there from about November 4, 1956 to December 10, 1958. He recalled that OSWALD was attached to the same unit and he had a recollection that OSWALD was with the unit in November, 1957, and he believed OSWALD was still with the unit in December, 1958, when he, CASSISI, left Japan to return to the United States.

CASSISI stated that he was assigned to a Transportation Unit as a mechanic and driver, while OSWALD was in a Radio Unit. The Radio Unit serviced radios used for radar sets and operated a radio relay station.

CASSISI pointed out that the men in the unit usually were close and stayed together both on duty and off duty.

CASSISI remarked that he lived in a barracks which housed 72 men and that OSWALD lived in the same barracks. The barracks was divided into cubicles by the arrangement of wall lockers. CASSISI stated that he was one of eight men in a cubicle and that all of these men were assigned to Motor Transport. He does not recall the men who shared a cubicle with OSWALD but would assume that they were men from the Radio Section.

CASSISI stated that he had limited contact with OSWALD. He advised that members of Motor Transport drove radio men to duty in the radio shack and brought them back at the end of their shifts. They also brought food to the radio shack from the mess hall. CASSISI probably drove OSWALD and others to the radio shack and occasionally saw him when he delivered food from the mess hall.

CASSISI stated he had absolutely no contact with OSWALD during off duty hours and had no recollection of ever having spent any time with him or associating with him in any way.

CASSISI had no recollection that OSWALD had any associates. He described him as an "odd" type, who appeared to like being alone. CASSISI had the impression that OSWALD used to go to Yokohama occasionally during his off duty periods. On a few occasions, OSWALD returned to the barracks, after being on leave, in a completely drunken condition.

CASSISI said that he was sure of this because when someone came in and woke up every man in the barracks with his drunken shouting there was no doubt as to the identity of the person.

Other than this, CASSISI had no information as to OSWALD's activities during his off duty time. Other than on a few occasions when OSWALD appeared to be drunk, he was a very quiet person. CASSISI had no recollection that OSWALD was a fighter or was ever involved in any difficulties getting along with other men.

CASSISI said that OSWALD was very thin while in service. CASSISI did not immediately recognize OSWALD as a former Marine associate when his pictures were published after the assassination. It was only later that he realized that OSWALD was the same man he had served with in the United States Marine Corps.

CASSISI had a vague recollection that an individual (First Name Unknown, possibly RICHARD)?CYR, might possibly have associated with OSWALD in the Marine Corps. He pointed out that this was a very vague impression but it was the only name that came to his mind as a possible associate of OSWALD. He had no information as to the present whereabouts of CYR.

CASSISI stated that after an article appeared in "Life" magazine in February, 1964, in which his name was mentioned, he received a letter from a former associate in the United States Marine Corps, SIDNEY S. ROBINSON. ROBINSON, in the letter, without being specific, indicated that he had some recollection of OSWALD. ROBINSON, according to his letter, was to attend the Federal Aviation Agency's Academy in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and would be there until either June 20th or July 4, 1964.

SMOLIKOFF had preceded her husband in traveling to New York, going by Eastern Airlines Flight #300 on 9/9/63, accompanied by son, ABBOTT (Bufile 100-441277). Checks of airline travel relating to SMALL for the period from 9/29-10/3/64 are not being made since information received from CIA, Mexico, "not to be disseminated outside the Bureau," as recorded in the report of SA NATHAN L. FERRIS dated 11/29/63, entitled "CHARLES N. SMOLIKOFF, aka, SM - C," indicated that SMOLIKOFF remained in Mexico City following his arrival on 9/29/63 and claimed to be ill. U

In regard to Bureau request for opinion of this office concerning the best manner for interviewing SMALL in case the Commission requests his interview, the following is submitted: U

It is suggested that such an interview should not be requested from the Mexican authorities because of the difficulties previously cited of exercising control of Mexican officials. U

If such interview proves necessary, it should be handled by an American official, preferably some official of the Embassy who is operational abroad and would be able to testify or give a deposition if needed, as is customarily done when official interviews are required abroad in Bureau cases. It is believed that this could be best arranged by request by the Bureau to the State Department in the customary manner. The Department of State would then issue instructions to the Embassy, which would select the proper official to handle the interview, and this office could cooperate closely with him. U

It is suggested also that an Agent of this office sit in with the Embassy official during the interview to insure that the Bureau's interests are protected and pertinent points covered. It is believed that SMOLIKOFF, as an American citizen, would respond to a request from the Embassy to appear at the Embassy for an interview. U

Enclosed herewith are 12 copies of a letterhead memorandum dated and captioned as above.

REFERENCES

Bureau Cable No. 68 dated 4/30/64.
Letter from the President's Commission General Counsel J. LEE RANKIN to the Director dated 4/24/64.

ADMINISTRATIVE

On 4/11/64 Mr. W. DAVID SLAWSON, Representative of the President's Commission, while at the Mexico City Office, displayed to SA ROLF L. LARSON what he claimed had been the personal address book of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, one page of which recorded data relating to the Cuban and Soviet diplomatic establishments in Mexico City and to the Cuban Airlines office. Mr. SLAWSON suggested that it would be helpful if an effort were made to ascertain whether or not OSWALD had visited the Cuban Airlines office, and an effort was made to obtain that information through sources available to this office.

On the basis of the expanded information requested in the President's Commission letter of reference, the additional data in the enclosure was obtained.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

Reference is made to the memorandum from Assistant Director DeLoach 4-30-64 which reported information that Walter Jenkins, Special Assistant to the President, had a friend who allegedly met one of our Special Agents. The Agent had formerly been assigned to the New Orleans Office. The Agent told Jenkins' friend that he had been transferred from New Orleans as a result of getting into difficulty with a woman in the French Quarter. The alleged Agent told Jenkins' friend that he assisted in the investigation of the Oswald case and that Oswald, prior to his murder, was definitely an FBI informant. The Agent stated that FBI files in Washington would prove this fact.

[redacted] A review of personnel files disclosed that [redacted] was transferred from New Orleans to Dallas in May, 1958, following misconduct while attending the 809 Club located in the New Orleans French Quarter. SA [redacted] was transferred from New Orleans to Dallas in May, 1960, following an allegation involving himself and a female employee.

SAC Shanklin and ASAC Clark, Dallas, both personally interviewed [redacted] and in signed statements these Agents categorically denied telling anyone outside the Bureau the reason for their transfers and they categorically denied telling anyone that Oswald was an FBI informant and that the files in Washington would so reflect. Both Agents disclaim any knowledge of how anyone could have possibly made this statement as they have not associated with any friends from Washington in the recent past or anyone who was from Washington, D. C., friend or otherwise. Both Agents desire to know the identity of the individual making such an unfounded accusation and desire to be allowed to confront the individual to have the opportunity to categorically deny the accusation.

MAY 18 1964

It will be noted that as reflected in Mr. DeLoach's memorandum of 4-30-64, Mr. Walter Jenkins declined to furnish the identity of his friend who had met the SA in question.

RE: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

ACTION:

In view of the categorical denial made by our Agents, and in the interests of resolving this situation once and for all and in fairness to all parties, it is believed desirable for Mr. DeLoach to again approach Mr. Jenkins. At that time it should be pointed out that we have interviewed two Agents presently assigned to our Dallas Office who had been transferred there from New Orleans under circumstances which might meet the criteria previously described by Mr. Jenkins. Both Agents have categorically denied the statements attributed to the Agent in question by the friend of Mr. Jenkins. In the interests of resolving this, with fairness to all parties, it is necessary that Mr. Jenkins disclose the identity of his friend so that he, too, can be interviewed.

Suggest we give Jenkins the facts and leave it up to him to divulge source. DeLoach agrees.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Re memorandum Branigan to Sullivan 5-1-64, reporting that Marguerite Oswald, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, contacted Resident Agency in Fort Worth, Texas, April 30, 1964, requesting that an Agent contact her. Dallas Office obtained authorization from Bureau for two mature Agents to contact Mrs. Oswald at her residence and to obtain any information she might desire to furnish.

Dallas Office Agents contacted Mrs. Oswald at her residence in Fort Worth, Texas, May 1, 1964, at which time she furnished information she felt would be of interest to the Bureau. The information Mrs. Oswald furnished is set out below and strongly suggests she is suffering from a mental illness:

Mrs. Oswald indicated that she recently had a telephone conversation with Miss Gloria Jean Mercer, sister of Mrs. Robert Oswald. Mrs. Oswald said her conversation consisted of misunderstandings in the Oswald family and her testimony before the President's Commission. Mrs. Oswald stated that she made a tape recording of this conversation, and in playing it back she picked up voices which appeared to be in a foreign language and other interference. She indicated she felt someone was shooting a beam into her home or the home of Miss Mercer and in that way was interfering with the telephone conversation.

Mrs. Oswald also indicated she had been in contact with Mrs. Flora Filko Hyatt, a 70-year-old woman in Houston, Texas, who informed Mrs. Oswald that she believed there was a large conspiracy involved in the shooting of President Kennedy. This conspiracy allegedly was composed of top officials of the Neiman-Marcus Store in Dallas and officials of Sakowitz Store in Houston, Texas. Mrs. Hyatt alleged to Mrs. Oswald that these store officials communicate with each other through newspaper ads placed in Dallas and Houston newspapers. Mrs. Oswald told interviewing Agents she believed the story as told to her by Mrs. Hyatt.

Memorandum Mr. Branigan to Mr. Sullivan
105-82555

Mrs. Oswald exhibited two ads which she said convinced her Mrs. Hyatt's statements were true. One ad concerned table settings of silver and china entitled "Tables Are Turned" and read, in part, "Twelve of Houston's prominent hosts have created table settings for your pleasure." Mrs. Oswald interpreted this ad to mean twelve of Houston's prominent leaders and officials of Sakowitz Store were involved in this conspiracy.

Mrs. Oswald also exhibited ads which involved a woman wearing a bracelet and another ad portraying a woman wearing a pearl necklace. The former ad, according to Mrs. Oswald, indicated the bracelet stood for handcuffs, and the latter ad regarding the necklace actually represented a connecting link. Mrs. Oswald believed these two ads indicated there was a connecting link between Dallas and Houston and this was a vital message in the conspiracy against her son.

We also interviewed Mrs. Flora Filko Hyatt, Houston, Texas, on May 4, 1964, regarding information she possibly possessed regarding the assassination. Mrs. Hyatt indicated she had frequent contacts with the metaphysical world, pointing out there are sometimes 5 or 6 "beings" speaking to her at once and reporting information concerning happenings outside the physical world to which normal people are restricted. She also indicated she was in contact with demons and werewolves who were continually with her and spoke to her when she was in private, in her left ear. She stated she believes such a demon could have entered the body of Lee Harvey Oswald, assassinated the President, and then returned to the body of Oswald. She also stated she felt there was a possibility President Kennedy was not shot from the Texas School Book Depository Building because werewolves could shoot him with a soundless gun from any position.

ACTION:

None. For information. Results of our interviews with Mrs. Oswald and Mrs. Hyatt are being incorporated in a report now being prepared by the Dallas Office for dissemination to the President's Commission.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated May 5, 1964, which enclosed an article from the May 17, 1964, issue of the "National Enquirer."

Dallas Police Chief Jesse E. Curry was interviewed on May 7, 1964, at which time this article was exhibited to him. Chief Curry read the entire article after which he advised as follows:

"Prior to the assassination of President Kennedy, neither he nor his Department had ever heard of Lee Harvey Oswald. The Dallas Police Department investigated the attempted shooting of General Walker but Oswald had never been considered as a suspect and Curry had no information linking Oswald and Ruby to the plot to shoot General Walker. Chief Curry emphatically stated he had never received or heard of a letter to his Department from the Justice Department and that he had never been requested by any official of the FBI not to arrest Oswald or Ruby. Chief Curry concluded by stating that there is absolutely no truth to the allegations made in this article.

The files of this Bureau contain no reference to an alleged letter from a high official of the Justice Department to Dallas Police Chief Jesse E. Curry requesting the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald and Ruby in connection with the attempted shooting of General Walker. The files of this Bureau do not contain any reference that an FBI official was asked to request the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald or Ruby.

INDIVIDUALS INTERVIEWED ALONG THE SAME LINES AS REQUESTED REGARDING BRIGHT, CRISSEY AND HUNT. YOU SHOULD IMMEDIATELY INTERVIEW BRIGHT, CRISSEY AND HUNT IN ACCORDANCE WITH COMMISSION'S REQUEST. RESULTS OF SUCH INTERVIEWS SHOULD BE IMMEDIATELY FURNISHED TO BUREAU IN LETTERHEAD MEMORANDUM FORM SUITABLE FOR DISSEMINATION TO THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION.

NOTE:

"Dallas Morning News" on the morning of 11/22/63 carried advertisement entitled "Welcome, Mr. Kennedy to Dallas," which was signed by the "American Fact Finding Committee, Bernard Weissman, Chairman, Post Office Box 1792, Dallas 21, Texas." We learned the money for this add was solicited by Joseph P. Grinnan, Dallas independent oil man. At request of the President's Commission we interviewed Mr. Grinnan 4/20/64 to determine the names of the contributors to this add. On 4/24/64 Mr. Grinnan stated the money, approximately $1500 was contributed by H. R. Bright, an independent oil operator in Dallas; Edgar Crissey, insurance man in Dallas; and Nelson Bunker Hunt, an independent oil man in Dallas who is the son of H. L. Hunt, a well-known oil man in Dallas. Grinnan stated he did not know the amounts each of the contributors gave to the fund and felt each may have solicited funds from others for the payment for the add. Grinnan stated he himself did not contribute to the fund. We disseminated results of our interview with Grinnan to the President's Commission by letter 4/29/64. Commission has now requested we interview Bright, Crissey and Hunt in this matter and any others who may have contributed to the add through these three men.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of May 12, 1964, requesting this Bureau to interview Mr. H. R. Bright, Mr. Edgar Crissey and Mr. Nelson Bunker Hunt in connection with the advertisement which appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" on November 22, 1963, entitled "Welcome, Mr. Kennedy to Dallas." This advertisement was signed by the "American Fact-Finding Committee, Bernard Weissman, Chairman, Post Office Box 1792, Dallas 21, Texas."

Enclosed are two copies of a memorandum entitled "Lee Harvey Oswald" dated May 19, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, which sets forth results of our interviews with Mr. Bright, Mr. Crissey and Mr. Hunt concerning this matter. In the absence of a specific request of the Commission, we do not contemplate any additional investigation in this particular matter.

NOTE: The ad which appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" 11-22-63 was a highly critical ad of policies of President Kennedy. We learned the money for this ad was solicited by Joseph P. Grinnan, Dallas independent oil man. At request of the President's Commission, we interviewed Grinnan 4-20-64 to determine names of the contributors to this ad. Grinnan identified Bright, Crissey and Hunt as main contributors. We disseminated results of our interview with Grinnan to the Commission and the Commission by letter 5-12-64 requested we interview Bright, Crissey and Hunt re their knowledge of the ad and identities of anyone else who so contributed. Each of these 3 men admitted contributing to the ad. Bright & Crissey indicated others also contributed to the ad, but they declined to furnish the identities of such individuals.

On May 1, 1964, Mrs. Jesse James Garner, 4911 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that Mr. and Mrs. Eric Rogers no longer reside at 4907 Magazine Street. She stated that Mr. and Mrs. Rogers moved on or about March 18, 1964.

Color photographs of luggage designated as Exhibit C254 and Exhibit A1 were displayed to Mrs. Garner. Upon viewing these photographs, Mrs. Garner stated that she had never observed any similar luggage in the possession of Lee Harvey Oswald during the time that Oswald resided at 4905 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

On May 6, 1964, Mr. Eric Rogers, 2439 Dante Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that he had formerly resided at 4907 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, until approximately the middle of March, 1964.

Color photographs of luggage designated as Exhibit C254 and Exhibit A1 were displayed to Mr. Rogers. Upon examining these photographs, Mr. Rogers informed that Exhibit C254 did not resemble in any manner either of the two pieces of luggage being carried by Lee Harvey Oswald on the occasion he observed Oswald running to catch a bus. Mr. Rogers advised that the luggage depicted in Exhibit A1 resembled the two pieces of luggage being carried by Oswald except as to color. Mr. Rogers informed that the luggage being carried by Oswald appeared to have a zipper across the top of each bag and to be black in color. He said he could not recall whether this luggage may have been made of cloth or some other type of material but did recall that each piece of luggage had two handles on the upper center portion. Mr. Rogers stated he could recall no additional descriptive data regarding the luggage being carried by Oswald.

On May 1, 1963, Mrs. JESSE JAMES GARNER, 4911 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that Mr. and Mrs. ERIC ROGERS no longer reside at 4907 Magazine Street. She stated the ROGERS moved on or about March 18, 1964, and she does not know of the ROGERS current residence.

Color photographs of two bags designated ~~by the President's Commission~~ as "Commission exhibit C254" and "Commission Exhibit A1" were displayed to Mrs. GARNER. Upon examining these photographs, Mrs. GARNER advised she had never observed any bags similar to those ~~in the photographs~~ in the possession of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, during the time OSWALD resided at 4905 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

On May 6, 1964, Mr. ERIC ROGERS, 2439 Dante, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that he had formerly resided at 4907 Magazine Street, New Orleans, until approximately the middle of March of 1964.

Mr. ROGERS was displayed the color photographs of bags designated ~~by the President's Commission~~ as "Commission Exhibit C254" and "Commission Exhibit A1." Upon examining these photographs Mr. ROGERS informed that the bag designated as "Commission Exhibit C254" did not resemble in any manner either of the two bags which he had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD carrying at the time he observed OSWALD running to catch a bus on the day after Mrs. PAINE and OSWALD's wife had departed from New Orleans.

Upon examining the color photograph designated as "Commission Exhibit A1" Mr. ROGERS advised that the bag pictured in this photograph resembled the two bags that OSWALD was carrying as OSWALD ran for the bus. Mr. ROGERS informed that these two bags being carried by OSWALD appeared to have a zipper across the top of the bags and gave the appearance of being black in color. He said he could not recall what type of material these bags gave the appearance of being made of but did recall that each bag had two handles on the top portion of the bag in the center of the bag.

Mr. ROGERS informed he could recall no additional descriptive data regarding the bags he had observed being carried by OSWALD.

Mrs. ERIC ROGERS, 2439 Dante, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on May 6, 1964, that she was standing on the porch of their former residence at 4907 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, and had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD running to catch a bus and carrying two bags as previously enumerated by her husband. Upon examining photographs of a bag designated as "Commission Exhibit C254" Mrs. ROGERS advised that she had never observed a bag of this nature in the possession of OSWALD.

Upon examining the photograph designated as "Commission Exhibit A1" Mrs. ROGERS advised that the bag pictured in this photograph resembled the two bags she had seen being carried by OSWALD. She stated she recalled both bags gave the appearance of having a zipper on the top of the bags with two handles in the center of the top of each bag. She informed that both bags gave the appearance of being dark in color.

Re your airtel 5/8/64 enclosing undated letterhead dealing with interviews of Mrs. Jesse Garner and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Rogers concerning luggage of Oswald.

Letterhead is not suitable for dissemination to Commission. Note that President's Commission did not designate photographs of bags as Exhibits A1 and C254. These are Bureau designations. Merely refer to these items as luggage designated Exhibits A1 and C254.

Word "exhibit" in line two, second paragraph, page one, referenced letterhead, should be initial capped. Grammatical construction throughout letterhead and particularly in second, fourth and fifth paragraphs, page one, is poor. Statement in last paragraph, page one, that Rogers advised that Exhibit A1 resembled the two bags carried by Oswald is somewhat inconsistent with his later statement that bags in possession of Oswald were black. Suggest that Rogers' first comment be immediately qualified with statement that bag depicted as A1 resembled bags carried by Oswald, except as to color. Suggest that words "previously enumerated" in second paragraph, page two, be changed to "recalled."

Properly rewrite referenced letterhead so that it meets standards for dissemination and date same. Handle at once. Score errors for preparation and approval of referenced letterhead and exercise caution to prevent recurrence. Enclosed for your assistance is one copy of referenced letterhead with penciled notations and marks thereon.

Dear Mr. Johnson;

In September I had written you saying I expected to move from New Orleans, La., to the Philadelphia - Baltimore area. You advised me that I could contact you when I had gotten settled there and the party would contact me in Cuba.

Since then my personal plans have changed and I have settled in Dallas, Texas for the time.

Through a friend, I have been introduced into the American Civil Liberties Union local chapter, which holds monthly meeting on the campus of Southern Methodist University.

The first meeting I attended was on October 25th, a film was shown and afterwards a very critical discussion of the ultra-right in Dallas.

On October 23rd, I had attended a ultra-right meeting headed by General Edwin A. Walker, who lives in Dallas.

This meeting preceded by one day the attack on A.E. Stevenson at the United Nations Day meeting at which he spoke.

As you can see, political friction between "left" and "right" is very great here.

Could you advise me as to the general view we have on the American civil Liberties Union?

And to what degree, if any, should attempt to lighten its progressive tendencies?

The Dallas branch of the A.C.L.U., is firmly in the hands of "liberal" professional people, (a minister and two law professors conducted the Oct. 25th meeting.) however, some of those present showed marked class-awareness and insight.

respectfully yours

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

On May 7, 1964, the Dallas Office forwarded by urgent teletype the results of an interview with Dallas Police Chief Curry which was conducted on that day. This interview was conducted at the request of the President's Commission following an article which appeared in the "National Enquirer" alleging that a high official of the Justice Department sent a letter to Dallas Police Chief Curry requesting the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald and Ruby in connection with the General Walker shooting.

In the interview Chief Curry emphatically stated that he never received or heard of a letter from the Justice Department and he was never requested by any official of the FBI not to arrest Oswald or Ruby. Chief Curry described the allegation as absolutely false.

The Dallas teletype concluded that unless advised to the contrary by the Bureau the results of the interview would not be included in a report or a letterhead memorandum. The Director noted, "Of course it must be in a report so we can send it to the Commission."

On May 8 SAC Shanklin was telephonically instructed to include the interview of Chief Curry in an FD-302 as an insert in the next investigative report to be submitted by the Dallas Office in their investigation of the Oswald case. SAC Shanklin noted that the complete results of the interview were incorporated in the urgent teletype sent to the Bureau, and he was of the belief that the Bureau would send the results to the President's Commission by letter.

The results of the interview of Chief Curry were incorporated in a letter which was sent to the Honorable J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission on May 8, 1964. The Commission is, therefore, cognizant and their files reflect the denial by Chief Curry that a letter was sent to him requesting the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald and Ruby.

JOHN K. JACOBS was interviewed by SA JEROME E. VEIGLE. He did not identify any relatives of his wife with whom latter corresponds in USSR.

Mr. JACOBS stated before arrangements were completed to have Mrs. MARINA OSWALD to dinner, he advised his immediate superior at U. S. Information Agency (USIA), the public relations staff at USIA and the Security Office, USIA. He pointed out he realized the visit could be a "ticklish situation" and he did not wish to embarrass anyone concerned.

In addition he remarked he felt the invitation could be embarrassing since it involved entertaining the wife of the accused slayer of President Kennedy whom he strongly supported.

WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

April 27, 1964

JOHN K. JACOBS;
KATIA JACOBS

It is recalled a previous communication dated April 17, 1964, indicated John K. Jacobs advised the United States Information Agency (USIA) Security Office, that Mrs. Marina Oswald was expected to dinner at his home February 7, 1964.

John K. Jacobs, Editor, "Al-Hayat," Arabic-Language Magazine for the Middle East, USIA, was interviewed by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on April 24, 1964. He furnished the following information:

Shortly after the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy, his wife, Katia Jacobs, felt sorry for the wife of the accused slayer of the President, Mrs. Marina Oswald. She decided to write a letter to Mrs. Oswald and point out this hideous crime will not be visited upon Mrs. Oswald or her children by the American people. Mrs. Jacobs wanted to offer Mrs. Oswald her friendship since Mrs. Oswald appeared to be pretty much alone in the United States at that time.

According to Mr. Jacobs, his wife then wrote Mrs. Marina Oswald in care of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department. Mrs. Oswald answered Mrs. Jacobs' letter during the Christmas season of 1963. She was grateful for the kind words of Mrs. Jacobs and indicated she would appreciate hearing from Mrs. Jacobs again. Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Oswald exchanged letters approximately two more times prior to Mrs. Oswald's coming to Washington, D. C., to testify before the Warren Commission.

Mrs. Jacobs upon learning Mrs. Marina Oswald was in Washington, D. C., to testify, called the Commission in an attempt to contact Mrs. Oswald. Mr. Jacobs stated a short time later he checked with the General Counsel's Office of the Commission to determine if that office would interpose any objection to inviting Mrs. Oswald, on behalf of his wife, Katia, to his home. At this time he was advised Mrs. Marina Oswald had completed her testimony and was a free person to do as she liked. Shortly after this Mrs. Oswald then called Mrs. Jacobs and accepted a dinner invitation.

Mr. Jacobs stated, after telephonically contacting his wife, that Mrs. Marina Oswald, her young daughter, her business manager and her attorney dined with the Jacobses at Tauxemont Road, Alexandria, Virginia, on February 7, 1964. Mrs. Oswald was to return to Dallas, Texas, the following day, February 8, 1964.

He related that on February 7, 1964, at about 6:00 p.m., he picked up Mrs. Oswald and her party in front of the Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., and drove them to his home, where they dined. He drove them back to Washington, D. C., and dropped them in front of the Willard Hotel the evening of February 7, 1964, at about 11:30 p.m.

Mrs. Marina Oswald, during the visit to the Jacobs home, spoke mostly to Mrs. Jacobs in Russian. Mr. Jacobs said he does not speak Russian.

Mrs. Jacobs later advised Mr. Jacobs as to the conversation which took place between herself and Mrs. Oswald during this visit. Mrs. Oswald remarked it was her feeling that her late husband, Lee Harvey Oswald, was guilty of the assassination of President Kennedy. She expressed the prayer that "God may have mercy on the evil done" by her late husband. She also asked the Jacobses to thank their church, which had sent a donation to her sometime after the assassination. Mrs. Oswald indicated her late husband, Lee Harvey Oswald, was at times difficult to live with since he ordered her around. She indicated also a dislike for her late husband's mother, Mrs. Oswald.

Mrs. Oswald, in addition, remarked she had written to her family in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) after the assassination of President Kennedy but had received no answer from them.

JOHN K. JACOBS; KATIA JACOBS

Mr. Jacobs explained that during Mrs. Oswald's visit to his home he conversed mainly with her manager and with her attorney on current news items. He said he got the impression that Mrs. Oswald's manager was attempting to commercialize too much on the plight of Mrs. Oswald who impressed him and his wife as an honest, quiet, dignified and sincere person. Mrs. Oswald had received approximately sixty thousand dollars from various people and organizations since the assassination, but this seemed unimpressive to her since she indicated she was healthy and able to earn her own living.

Mr. Jacobs stated neither he nor his wife has had any further contact with Mrs. Marina Oswald.

He stated neither he nor his wife ever received any requests or suggestions from anyone in the Soviet Union to contact Marina Oswald, or to take any other action regarding her. He remarked that his wife corresponds with relatives in the Soviet Union.

Mr. Jacobs related when he and his wife worked with the American National Exhibition in Moscow in 1959, his wife met an uncle whom she had believed dead. He pointed out that he was formerly Deputy Director of the Magazine "America Illustrated," published by USIA. He said in connection with his duties at that time, he met his Soviet counterpart for the Soviet magazine, "USSR," a Mr. Zhiltsov.

He said Zhiltsov, after the assassination of President Kennedy, expressed sorrow on the occasion but did not comment further.

JOHN K. JACOBS;
KATIA JACOBS

It is recalled a previous communication dated April 17, 1964, indicated John K. Jacobs advised the United States Information Agency (USIA) Security Office, that Mrs. Marina Oswald was expected to dinner at his home February 7, 1964.

John K. Jacobs, Editor, "Al-Hayat," Arabic-Language Magazine for the Middle East, USIA, was interviewed by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on April 24, 1964. He furnished the following information:

Shortly after the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy, his wife, Katia Jacobs, felt sorry for the wife of the accused slayer of the President, Mrs. Marina Oswald. She decided to write a letter to Mrs. Oswald and point out this hideous crime will not be visited upon Mrs. Oswald or her children by the American people. Mrs. Jacobs wanted to offer Mrs. Oswald her friendship since Mrs. Oswald appeared to be pretty much alone in the United States at that time.

According to Mr. Jacobs, his wife then wrote Mrs. Marina Oswald in care of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department. Mrs. Oswald answered Mrs. Jacobs' letter during the Christmas season of 1963. She was grateful for the kind words of Mrs. Jacobs and indicated she would appreciate hearing from Mrs. Jacobs again. Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Oswald exchanged letters approximately two more times prior to Mrs. Oswald's coming to Washington, D. C., to testify before the Warren Commission.

Mrs. Jacobs upon learning Mrs. Marina Oswald was in Washington, D. C., to testify, called the Commission in an attempt to contact Mrs. Oswald. Mr. Jacobs stated a short time later he checked with the General Counsel's Office

Memo from Branigan to Sullivan dated 5/8/64 referred to the Soviet Government documents which allegedly had been turned over to the President's Commission concerning Lee Harvey Oswald. It was recommended that this matter be discussed with the President's Commission and indicate the Bureau's interest in obtaining copies of these documents.

This matter was discussed with J. Lee Rankin on May 12, 1964. Mr. Rankin advised that he certainly understood the Bureau's interest in these documents. He stated Chief Justice Warren had advised he wanted to see the documents as soon as they were translated and before the documents were made available to anyone other than the President's Commission. Mr. Rankin stated he would make known the Bureau's request to the Commission and he felt certain that the Soviet documents would be made available to the Bureau.

ACTION: In the event this information is not received from the Commission within a reasonable time, it will be followed with Mr. Rankin.

The "Washington Post" on May 7, 1964, reported that the Soviet Union had given the U.S. additional documents concerning Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of President Kennedy.

Through liaison we determined that CIA has not had an opportunity to see the documents furnished by the Soviet Government. CIA has been advised by Commission representatives that a large quantity of documents have been received, but they are in the Russian language and they are being translated. It was CIA's impression that when the translations have been made both their Agency and the FBI will be given an opportunity to review these documents.

[redacted]

ACTION:

It is therefore recommended, in order to insure an opportunity to review the Soviet Government documents on Oswald, that our interest in this regard be mentioned to Mr. Rankin by Inspector Malley at an opportune time.

SOVIET SECTION

U.S. Given More Data On Oswald by Russians

United Press International

The Soviet Union has given the United States additional documents concerning Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of President Kennedy, officials said yesterday.

The presidential commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, which has been investigating the assassination, recently requested additional information from the Russians on Oswald's stay in the Soviet Union from 1959 to 1962. Shortly after Mr. Kennedy was killed, the Russians turned over their official file on Oswald to the United States.

The additional information was delivered to Secretary of State Dean Rusk Tuesday by Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin.

The nature of the new information was not disclosed. It will be turned over to the Warren commission.

Enclosed is one copy of memorandum dated 5/7/64 concerning Marilyn Dorothea Murret. One copy of this memorandum is also enclosed for Dallas for its information.

Murret is a cousin of Lee Harvey Oswald, her mother being a sister of Oswald's mother. She was interviewed on 11/29/63 and advised she took a trip around the world beginning in July, 1959, and ending in January, 1963.

You will note that in paragraph four on page one of the memorandum mention is made of a Professor Harold Isaacs of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. This man may be identical with Harold Robert Isaacs, the subject of your file 105-1125, who in 1958 was employed at the Center for International Studies, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts. You should submit a letterhead memorandum captioned "Marilyn Dorothea Murret" suitable for dissemination to the President's Commission. Refer to the enclosed memorandum and include identifying information on Isaacs and background data about him. Include also any information as to an association between Isaacs and Murret. Handle promptly.

NOTE: Murret was named in a newspaper column written by Paul Scott as one of the "most wanted" defectors to Russia or satellite countries. In interview Scott advised he had some information to indicate "tie-up" between Murret and "the case of Lee Harvey Oswald" but said this was not confirmed. Scott apparently did not know she was Oswald's cousin. Although there is nothing in Scott's information which would affect the Oswald case, we should check out the allegation regarding the association of Murret and Isaacs. Boston is origin in the Harold Robert Isaacs case, Bufile 100-438243.

INFORMATION FROM FEDERAL DISTRICT OF MEXICO TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

The confidential source abroad furnished the following

information on May 1, 1964:

The directory of the Mexican Telephone Company for the Federal District (Mexican Federal Capital, which includes Mexico City) published in September, 1963, column 2, page 119, records: "CONSULADO de Cuba, Zamora y F. Marquez (names of cross streets), (telephone) 11-28-47."

Column one, page 157, of the same directory reflects: "EMBAJADA de la Union de las Republicas Sovieticas Socialistas en Mexico (Embassy of the Union of the Soviet Socialist Republics in Mexico), Czda. Tacubaya (Calzada meaning highway or street) 204, Agregado Militar (Military Attache)...(telephone) 15-69-87, Depto. de Asuntos Consulares (Department of Consular Affairs), C. B. Zetina (street name) 12...(telephone) 15-61-55."

Column 4, page 112, of the above-mentioned directory records the following: "CIA. CUBANA DE AVIACION, S. A., (Cuban Aviation Company, Incorporated) PASEO DE LA REFORMA 56... (telephone) 35-79-00." In addition to the foregoing, which is indicated as being equipped with two direct lines, the following additional telephone numbers are listed: 46-75-04, 46-61-64, 46-61-27, and 35-79-09.

TELEPHONE DATA FROM MEXICAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

The April 1, 1964, issue of the "Diario Oficial" ("Official Daily"), which states on the cover that it is the "Organ of the Constitutional Government of the United States of Mexico," records as emanating from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs the "List of the Diplomatic Corps Accredited to the Government of the United States of Mexico." On page 15 of the above-described publication under "Union de Republicas Socialistas Sovieticas" (Union of the Soviet Socialist Republics) is recorded the data: "Cancilleria y residencia: (Chancellery and residence) Calzada de Tacubaya 204, Telefonos: (Telephones) 15-60-55 y (and) 15-61-55." The foregoing data is followed by a listing of names and residence addresses of the Soviet diplomatic officials and their wives.

INFORMATION CONCERNING CUBAN AIRLINES OFFICES

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is in a position to be well-informed with respect to the day-to-day operations of the Mexico City ticket offices of the "Compania Cubana de Aviacion" (Cuban Aviation Company - commonly referred to as "Cubana Airlines") furnished the following information on April 18, 1964:

Most of the office employees at the Cubana Airlines ticket office, Paseo de la Reforma 56, Mexico City, are Mexican citizens and are opposed to the present revolutionary regime in Cuba of FIDEL CASTRO. Source advised that he would have an excellent possibility of being informed of any visits or inquiries made at the Cubana Airlines offices by an American, and he is thoroughly convinced that LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not appear at those offices during late September and early October, 1963, within the regular working hours. Source viewed various photographs of OSWALD and also consulted with associates at the Cubana Airlines office and reiterated his conviction that OSWALD had not been at those offices at any time.

This source confirmed that the published and most used telephone number for the Cubana Airlines office is 35-79-00.

information on May 1, 1964:

The directory of the Mexican Telephone Company for the Federal District (Mexican Federal Capital, which includes Mexico City) published in September, 1963, column 2, page 119, records: "CONSULADO de Cuba, Zamora y F. Marquez (names of cross streets), (telephone) 11-28-47."

Column one, page 157, of the same directory reflects: "EMBAJADA de la Union de las Republicas Sovieticas Socialistas en Mexico (Embassy of the Union of the Soviet Socialist Republics in Mexico), Czda. Tacubaya (Calzada meaning highway or street) 204, Agregado Militar (Military Attache)...(telephone) 15-69-87, Depto. de Asuntos Consulares (Department of Consular Affairs), C. B. Zetina (street name) 12...(telephone) 15-61-55."

Column 4, page 112, of the above-mentioned directory records the following: "CIA. CUBANA DE AVIACION, S. A., (Cuban Aviation Company, Incorporated) PASEO DE LA REFORMA 56... (telephone) 35-79-00." In addition to the foregoing, which is indicated as being equipped with two direct lines, the following additional telephone numbers are listed: 46-75-04, 46-61-64, 46-61-27, and 35-79-09.

TELEPHONE DATA FROM MEXICAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

The April 1, 1964, issue of the "Diario Oficial" ("Official Daily"), which states on the cover that it is the "Organ of the Constitutional Government of the United States of Mexico," records as emanating from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs the "List of the Diplomatic Corps Accredited to the Government of the United States of Mexico." On page 15 of the above-described publication under "Union de Republicas Socialistas Sovieticas" (Union of the Soviet Socialist Republics) is recorded the data: "Cancilleria y residencia: (Chancellery and residence) Calzada de Tacubaya 204, Telefonos: (Telephones) 15-60-55 y (and) 15-61-55." The foregoing data is followed by a listing of names and residence addresses of the Soviet diplomatic officials and their wives.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is in a position to be well-informed with respect to the day-to-day operations of the Mexico City ticket offices of the "Compania Cubana de Aviacion" (Cuban Aviation Company - commonly referred to as "Cubana Airlines") furnished the following information on April 18, 1964:

Most of the office employees at the Cubana Airlines ticket office, Paseo de la Reforma 56, Mexico City, are Mexican citizens and are opposed to the present revolutionary regime in Cuba of FIDEL CASTRO. Source advised that he would have an excellent possibility of being informed of any visits or inquiries made at the Cubana Airlines offices by an American, and he is thoroughly convinced that LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not appear at those offices during late September and early October, 1963, within the regular working hours. Source viewed various photographs of OSWALD and also consulted with associates at the Cubana Airlines office and reiterated his conviction that OSWALD had not been at those offices at any time.

This source confirmed that the published and most used telephone number for the Cubana Airlines office is 35-79-00.

Enclosed for information Legat are two copies of San Antonio teletype 5/15/64 dealing with reinterview of Roberto Ramos, manager Red Arrow lines, Nuevo Laredo. Information furnished by Ramos concerning absence of passengers names on the "Venta de Boletos" form is at variance with comments of driver, Morales, on page 3 of your May 5, 1964, letterhead. Your 5/5/64 letterhead indicates on page 6 that personnel of your office reviewed bundles of passenger lists at Red Arrow headquarters. Are the passenger list forms which were reviewed by your office identical with the "Venta de Boletos" form referred to by Ramos? Were names of passengers recorded on passenger lists reviewed by you?

Endeavor to resolve the discrepancy between comments of Ramos and driver, Morales. Expedite efforts to obtain passenger list of Red Arrow bus number 516 for trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City 9/26-27/64.

NOTE: Ramos, the manager of bus line at Nuevo Laredo, has previously stated his line does not make passenger lists. Driver of bus in question on which Oswald traveled to Mexico City states passenger list is made and original taken by driver to Mexico City. Driver stated names of all passengers are on this list. Ramos says the "Venta de Boletos" (sale of tickets form) is made out for each trip but that no passengers names are thereon. As Legat, has located the forms at headquarters of bus line which they refer to as passenger lists, we are unable to see why discrepancy described herein exists.

SUBJECT: BRIEF ON FBI INVESTIGATION OF THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY

In connection with the captioned Brief prepared for the Director, there are attached the following revised pages which have been prepared in order to bring the Brief up to date.

Pages 92 and 93. These pages have been revised to set forth the names of contributors to a full-page advertisement entitled "Welcome, Mr. Kennedy to Dallas," in the "Dallas Morning News" on 11/22/63, as obtained from Dallas oilman, Joseph P. Grinnan, at the request of the President's Commission.

Pages 118, 122, 123, 123a, 124, 125, 126, 126a and 127. These pages have been revised to report the request of the Commission for intelligence-type investigations on Michael Paine and his wife, Ruth Hyde Paine, with whom Marina Oswald was residing at the time of the assassination, as well as on George De Mohrenschildt and his wife, Jeanne De Mohrenschildt, who were acquainted with the Oswalds in late 1962 and early 1963 in Fort Worth and Dallas. These pages also set forth the results of our investigation and indicate that the President's Commission has received all information developed concerning the above individuals.

Also attached are a revised cover page dated 5/8/64 and pages 181, 185 and 192 of the Index. Attached pages are for inclusion in Volume I and Volume II of the Director's copy of the Brief. Copies of the above pages are being furnished to other officials by ticklers.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 4/21/64

On 4/17/64 Mr. LEE DAUGHERTY, P. O. Box 537, Half Moon Bay, California, furnished the following information to SA MAX H. FISCHER:

Mr. Daugherty is a retired Army Officer presently working for Western Auto Company and is temporarily visiting in the Pebble Beach, California, area.

During the latter part of February, 1964, Mr. Daugherty took an Eastern Airlines flight from Tampa, Florida, to Dallas, Texas. The flight had originated in Miami, Florida, and was to terminate either in Phoenix, Arizona, or Albuquerque, New Mexico. When he got on the plane, he sat down next to two Cuban doctors (obstetricians) who had boarded the flight at Miami, Florida. One was an older man who sat next to the window and spoke almost no English. The other was about 45 years of age and was en route Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where he had obtained a position as a resident physician in an Oklahoma City hospital. He was accompanied on the flight by a wife and either two or three small children.

This doctor, whose name Daugherty cannot recall, said he had recently come to the United States from Spain and the only way he could get out of Cuba was to go to Spain and thereafter obtain a visa to come to the United States. He indicated that he had been educated in the United States before World War II and served as an interne at St. Vincent's Hospital in New York City during World War II.

As the plane approached Dallas, Texas, this doctor asked Mr. Daugherty what he thought about the assassination of President Kennedy. Daugherty replied that it had been a horrible thing and wondered whether the truth would ever be known to the American people. The doctor replied that the truth would not be published for at least ten years and that he knew Lee Harvey Oswald had been to Mexico prior to the time of the assassination and had met with some of Fidel Castro's agents for instructions as to how to assassinate the President. He did not say how he had such knowledge but his statement was to the effect that he had knowledge that such were true facts and not a theory that the doctor had developed.

Mr. Daugherty thought about the conversation later and wondered how the doctor could have so much knowledge about the President's assassination when he supposedly was in Cuba until recently.

He stated that the exact date of the flight could be established at New Orleans, Louisiana, as it was the day the "Cotton Queen" arrived there for the Mardi Gras and newspaper photographers were on hand to take her picture.

"Il Tempo", an Italian-language daily Rome, Italy, newspaper, in its May 7, 1964, edition carried the following article:

New Documents of the USSR on Oswald

They should shed light on the years spent in Russia by the presumed assassin of Kennedy

The Soviet Union has given to the United States other documents regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD, presumed assassin of President Kennedy. The Soviet Government had previously given to the American Government certain documents regarding the stay of OSWALD in the Soviet Union from 1959 to 1962.

The Warren Commission, which is conducting an inquiry into the assassination of Kennedy, recently requested further information regarding the assassin.

It will be recalled that Oswald was considered a militant communist, and had decided to live in the USSR. In America he was actively propagandizing for a pro-Castro organization. One of the problems facing both the Warren Commission and the FBI was whether OSWALD was the triggerman of a great plot or whether he acted strictly on his own.

In order to eliminate the shadow of suspicion in the public opinion, both in America and abroad, the Soviet Government declared itself to be willing to furnish all documents in their possession regarding the activities of OSWALD during his stay in the USSR. The contents of the documents are not known. However, according to the international communist press, OSWALD was an unstable individual and one of unforeseeable actions. In reality, the communists are torn between the defense of OSWALD on the basis of his innocence or on the basis of considering him as merely an instrument of American reactionaries. A hard blow to these theses was dealt by OSWALD's wife, who is of Russian origin, who declared that her husband was responsible for the unsuccessful attempt against General WALKER, one of the best known exponents of the right.

Arthur W. Hyland, New Orleans Cotton Exchange, 231 Carondelet, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on May 7, 1964, that a female who had officially been designated as the "Maid of Cotton" but also known as the "Cotton Queen" arrived in New Orleans during February, 1964, on a promotion tour sponsored by D.H. Holmes, a New Orleans Department Store. He informed that he did not know the date of her arrival in New Orleans but recalled that she arrived by airplane at New Orleans International Airport.

Mrs. Gloria Fitzgerald, Secretary to the Sales Promotion Manager, D.H. Holmes, and Company, Ltd., 819 Canal Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on May 7, 1964, that Miss Katy Sue Meredith had been officially designated as the "Maid of Cotton". She informed that Miss Meredith arrived in New Orleans, Louisiana, on Friday, Februray 21, 1964, to appear at a style show sponsored by D.H. Holmes Company, Ltd., which was held at the Roosevelt Hotel, New Orleans, Louisiana, on February 22, 1964.

Mrs. Fitzgerald stated that Miss Meredith arrived in New Orleans, Louisiana, aboard Eastern Airlines Flight 202 at 11:19 AM. Mrs. Fitzgerald said she did not know where Miss Meredith arrived from other than that Miss Meredith came from somewhere in the State of Florida.

Mr. C. Connell, Control Agent, Eastern Airlines New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on May 7, 1964, that Eastern Airlines Flight 202 originates in Miami, Florida, with stops in Tampa, Florida, and New Orleans, Louisiana. This flight terminates at Ft. Worth, Texas.

Mr. Connell stated that Flight 202 is scheduled to leave Miami, Florida, at 7:00 AM and that a list of passengers aboard this flight for February 21, 1964, and their destination can be obtained from the Accounting Department, of Eastern Airlines, at Miami, Florida.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis: LEE DAUGHERTY at Pebble Beach, California, on 4-17-64, advised during latter part of 2/64 he traveled on Eastern Airlines from Tampa, Florida, to Dallas, Texas with two Cuban doctors. DAUGHERTY said one of the doctors claimed he knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been to Mexico prior to assassination of President KENNEDY, and there met with some of CASTRO's agents to plan assassination. He did not recall name of the doctors but remembered one of them was en route to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to accept position as Resident Physician in an Oklahoma City hospital. Oklahoma State Medical Assn., Oklahoma State Medical Examiner's Office, and persons acquainted with Cuban refugees residing in Oklahoma City, Okla., advise they know of no Cuban medical doctors in Oklahoma City, who arrived here in approximately late February, 1964. Information received that two Cuban medical doctors obtained employment at Clinton, Oklahoma in about February, 1964. Doctors BRAULIO JOAQUIN CUESTA and JOSE RAMON HERNANDEZ located and interviewed Clinton, Oklahoma, May 8, 1964. They identified themselves as Cuban doctors practicing in the United States who traveled from Miami, Florida, to Clinton, Oklahoma, February 21, 1964. They recall discussing the assassination of President KENNEDY with a man who shared a seat with them on the flight. Each stated he has no personal knowledge of the assassination, of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or of any meeting between OSWALD and CASTRO agents in Mexico. The discussion arose from a newspaper article read by Dr. HERNANDEZ to the effect that OSWALD had traveled to Mexico prior to the assassination. The discussions centered upon the fact that CASTRO was having difficulty with the policies of President KENNEDY as they pertained to Cuba and the doctors each were of the opinion that CASTRO could have been responsible for the planning of the assassination, however, this is their personal theory and is based upon discussion and newspaper stories. They claim to have no factual knowledge which would support their contention.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of any kind. It is the property of the FBI, and is a loan to your agency; it and/or its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

DETAILS:

At Pebble Beach, California

On April 17, 1964, Mr. LEE DAUGHERTY, Post Office Box 537, Half Moon Bay, California, advised SA MAX H. FISCHER, in essence, as follows:

FLA. TEXAS

He is a retired army officer. In late February, 1964, he took an Eastern Airlines Flight from Tampa, Florida to Dallas, Texas. The flight, however, had originated at Miami, Florida. Upon boarding the flight he sat next to two Cuban doctors who had boarded the plane at Miami. He did not recall their names but recalled one of the doctors was en route to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to accept a position as a Resident Physician at an Oklahoma City hospital.

As they approached Dallas, Texas, their conversation turned to the assassination of President KENNEDY. One of the doctors said he knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been to Mexico prior to the time of the assassination and had met with some of FIDEL CASTRO's agents for instructions as to how to assassinate the President.

The following investigation at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was conducted by SA HARVEY B. MURPHY:

On May 6, 1964, CHARLINE COE, Bookkeeper, Oklahoma State Medical Association, 601 N. W. Expressway, advised she is unable, from the records of the Medical Association, or from her personal knowledge, to furnish the names of any medical doctors in Oklahoma who are Cuban Nationals.

On May 6, 1964, Mrs. LUCILLE T. HAIDEK, Executive Secretary, Oklahoma State Medical Examiner's Office, 402 Sequoyah Building, advised a check of the records of the Medical Examiner's Office failed to disclose information to indicate any Cuban doctors had been licensed to practice in Oklahoma since February, 1964. She stated from her own personal knowledge she is aware some Cuban doctors are employed by a few medical institutions in Oklahoma and the Cuban doctors are functioning as physicians and surgeons within those institutions, even though they are not licensed to practice by State Medical Authorities. She stated she does not know of any Cuban doctors located in Oklahoma City, nor does she know of any Cuban doctors who arrived in Oklahoma as recent as February or March, 1964.

SAMUEL J. GUERRERO, an employee of the U. S. Government at Tinker Air Force Base, who is a voluntee social worker for persons from Latin America in the Oklahoma City area, on May 6, 1964, advised as follows:

He is acquainted with or knows about all Cuban families who have come to Oklahoma City in the past few years and he knows of no Cuban doctor who is employed as a Resident Physician in an Oklahoma City hospital. He stated there are Cuban doctors who are employed in hospitals in other parts of the state.

On May 6, 1964, Mrs. JAMES H. NORICK, 3201 Venice Boulevard, who is acquainted with many Cuban families in Oklahoma, advised she knows of no Cuban doctor who is employed as a Resident Physician in an Oklahoma City hospital. She stated she would contact Cuban friends in an effort to identify any Cuban doctors arriving in Oklahoma in late February, 1964.

On May 7, 1964, Mrs. JAMES H. NORICK advised she had been in contact with LEYDA HERNANDEZ, a Cuban refugee who resides at 2549 N. W. 22nd Street. Mrs. NORICK learned from LEYDA HERNANDEZ the latter had visited a Cuban doctor at Norman, Oklahoma, on May 6, 1964.

LEYDA learned from the doctor in Norman that two Cuban doctors had moved into Clinton, Oklahoma, in late February, 1964. One of these two doctors has a family which includes a wife and two or three small children. This doctor, whose surname is CUESTA, was believed to be in his late forties.

The following investigation was conducted at Clinton, Oklahoma:

Date 5/12/64

1 OKLA. FLA. N.Y.

Dr. BRAULIO JOAQUIN CUESTA, was interviewed at Oklahoma General Hospital, where he is a Resident Physician, and advised as follows: SAN ANTONIO TEXAS

Dr. CUESTA stated that he was born February 7, 1919, in Camaguey, Cuba, and lived in Camaguey, Cuba throughout his life, except for those periods set forth hereinafter. Dr. CUESTA advised that his family and his wife's family were large land owners at Camaguey, Cuba, and prior to leaving Cuba he was the director of the Colonial Espanola Hospital, Camaguey, Cuba.

Concerning his background, Dr. CUESTA advised he attended Havana Medical School, Havana, Cuba, from 1937 to 1943, and served his internship at St. Joseph's Hospital in Yonkers, New York, during the period from 1944 to 1945.

Dr. CUESTA advised that when he was a young boy he and his family had also resided in Spain.

In approximately July, 1963, he was able to leave Cuba, and travel to Spain. He remained in Spain until October 22, or 24, 1963, at which time he traveled to Miami, Florida, on an Immigration Permit.

Dr. CUESTA advised that on February 21, 1964, he did leave Miami, Florida, by Eastern Airlines with his wife and two children, traveling to Dallas, Texas. From there he was to go to Clinton, Oklahoma, where he had obtained a position as a Resident Physician at Oklahoma General Hospital, to commence February 24, 1964.

During the course of the trip from Miami, Florida, he shared a seat with Dr. JOSE HERNANDEZ. Dr. JOSE HERNANDEZ is a long time friend who had worked with him at the hospital in Camaguey, Cuba, and who was also traveling to Clinton, Oklahoma, to take up a Resident Physician's position at the Western Tuberculosis Sanitarium, Clinton, Oklahoma. In the course of travel son the plane, at a point believed to be Tampa, Florida, a man whom he vaguely remembers did get on the plane and did share a seat with him and Dr. HERNANDEZ during the trip from Tampa to Dallas. The seats were not shared continously since Dr. HERNANDEZ and Dr. CUESTA would periodically go back and visit with Dr. CUESTA's family sitting to the rear of the plane.

Dr. CUESTA advised that the third man was tall, approximately 50 to 55 years of age, and in the course of conversation did mention that he had been in the United States military forces during the war.

En route to Dallas, Texas, Dr. CUESTA does remember discussing the assassination of President KENNEDY. Part of this discussion included the theory that LEE HARVEY OSWALD could have met agents of CASTRO in Mexico and there planned the assassination.

Dr. CUESTA advised that he has absolutely no personal knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and no knowledge of OSWALD's trip to Mexico, except what he read in the newspapers. However, the discussion concerning the theory that President KENNEDY could have been assassinated by OSWALD after his meeting with CASTRO's agents in Mexico, was expressed by Dr. HERNANDEZ. As part of this discussion Dr. HERNANDEZ did mention that he spoke of fact rather than merely expressing a theory.

Dr. CUESTA added that Dr. HERNANDEZ has trouble expressing himself in English and does not speak English fluently. He stated what he was actually speaking of was the fact that the Cuban people, or at least he, Dr. HERNANDEZ, believes that CASTRO was experiencing considerable trouble in his internal policies because of the embargo and other policies of President KENNEDY. Consequently, it is the personal belief of many of the Cuban people, including Dr. CUESTA, that the CASTRO government may have planned the assassination of President KENNEDY. In referring to the facts, Dr. HERNANDEZ was speaking of the fact that this is the belief of the Cuban people.

The remainder of the interview with Dr. CUESTA was conducted in the presence of Dr. JOSE RAMON HERNANDEZ.

Dr. CUESTA advised that after consultation and discussion with Dr. HERNANDEZ he determined Dr. HERNANDEZ had on February 20, 1964, read a newspaper article which reported that OSWALD had been in the Country of Mexico prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. Upon learning that fact, Dr. HERNANDEZ formed the opinion that OSWALD could easily have met agents of the CASTRO government in Mexico and planned the assassination of President KENNEDY. It was this newspaper article and this opinion which Dr. HERNANDEZ discussed with a traveling companion on their flight on February 21, 1964. Dr. CUESTA then added he personally shared the opinion it was entirely possible that CASTRO planned the assassination. Dr. CUESTA explained this opinion is not based on facts but merely a rather common opinion shared by many Cubans who have fled from the CASTRO regime.

Dr. HERNANDEZ did mention that it was fact and not theory that the KENNEDY policies were causing CASTRO considerable difficulty and that the KENNEDY policies regarding Cuba were definitely working to the detriment of FIDEL CASTRO.

Dr. CUESTA reiterated that he has never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD; has no personal knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no personal knowledge that LEE HARVEY OSWALD took a trip to Mexico or any other place. He further advised he has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY other than what he has read in the newspapers. He advised he has no personal knowledge of any Cuban agents who are directly working for CASTRO or who could have met LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Dr. CUESTA emphasized that if he could furnish any information which would be of assistance, he would gladly do so. He further added that if he could furnish any information which would be of interest to the United States concerning Cuba or any other matter, he would certainly do so.

Dr. CUESTA stated that he has known Dr. HERNANDEZ for many years and knows that Dr. HERNANDEZ is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, has had no connection with him, and could furnish no direct information concerning the activities of OSWALD.

Dr. BRAULIO CUESTA advised he now resides at 325 South 17th Street, Clinton, Oklahoma and is a Resident Physician at the Oklahoma General Hospital in Clinton, Oklahoma. He plans to remain in Clinton, Oklahoma, as long as possible. He intends to educate his children in schools in Clinton, and become a citizen of the United States.

Dr. JOSE RAMON HERNANDEZ, 220 South Seventh Street, Clinton, Oklahoma, was interviewed at the Oklahoma General Hospital in the presence of Dr. BRAULIO JOAQUIN CUESTA, and advised as follows:

CUBA, F.I.D. TI-105

He was born December 3, 1909, at Camaguey, Cuba. He studied medicine and lived in Cuba almost entirely until 1961 when he came to the United States, as a refugee, following the Bay of Pigs Invasion in 1961. He remained in Miami, Florida, until February 21, 1964.

Dr. HERNANDEZ advised that prior to February 21, 1964, he obtained an appointment as a Resident Physician at Oklahoma Western Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Clinton, Oklahoma, and did travel by Eastern Airlines on February 21, 1964, from Miami, Florida, to Dallas, Texas.

During this travel he shared a seat with Dr. BRAULIO CUESTA, with whom he had worked in Camaguey, Cuba, at a hospital called Colonial Espanola where he was the ear, nose, and throat specialist, and Dr. CUESTA was director.

During the course of travel from Miami to Dallas, he and Dr. CUESTA shared a seat with a third man whom he described as a tall middle aged man whose hair was believed to be graying slightly.

During the course of their conversation between Tampa, Florida, and Dallas and prior to their arrival at Dallas, the assassination of President KENNEDY was discussed. Dr. HERNANDEZ mentioned he was of the opinion that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had met agents of CASTRO during a trip to Mexico and that perhaps the assassination was planned with the aid, assistance or guidance of CASTRO agents. Dr. HERNANDEZ advised this is an opinion of his, based entirely upon the fact that he had read in the newspaper that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in Mexico prior to the assassination. In the discussion he mentioned that he spoke of fact rather than theory and by this statement he meant he considered it to be a fact that it was entirely possible that CASTRO agents had planned the assassination. The fact referred to was that the policies of FIDEL CASTRO were suffering and FIDEL CASTRO was being caused considerable trouble by the actions of President KENNEDY, particularly concerning the embargo placed upon Cuba.

Dr. HERNANDEZ advised he does not personally know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or agents of the CASTRO government. He has no personal knowledge of any travel of OSWALD. He has no personal knowledge of any plans concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY; no direct knowledge concerning any facts pertaining to the assassination except as read by him in the public press. All statements which he, Dr. HERNANDEZ, has made were based upon newspaper accounts and his own personal theories which he believes are shared by many Cuban citizens. Dr. HERNANDEZ advised that most of the statements he made were interpreted for the third man whose name he does not recall but who also was believed to have departed from the plane at Dallas, Texas, through the interpreting of Dr. BRAULIO CUESTA. Dr. HERNANDEZ advised that he does speak English but it is not perfected and he does need aid in expressing his statements in English.

Dr. HERNANDEZ advised that he has been in the United States since 1961, residing in the Miami, Florida, area until February 21, 1964, when he departed for Clinton, Oklahoma. Dr. HERNANDEZ advised it is presently his intention to establish permanent residence in the United States, however, he is still in the United States as a refugee. He further advised that if there is any information which he can furnish concerning any matter whatsoever which would be of benefit or aid to the United States he would be glad to do so. He further advised he would take any action necessary to aid the United States.

Dr. HERNANDEZ reiterated he has no personal knowledge whatsoever of any facts pertaining to the assassination of President KENNEDY except for the information he has read in the newspapers. He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination. He has no direct knowledge whatsoever that CASTRO has any agents in Mexico or any direct knowledge concerning any planned assassination on the part of the CASTRO government.

ReBuairtel to Dallas, 4/29/64.

By letter to the Director, 4/28/64, the President's Commission requested further investigation by the Dallas Division regarding the following matter:

On the afternoon of 11/24/63, RAY JOHN, of Channel 8, WFAA-TV, Dallas, received an anonymous telephone call, in which the caller stated he thought OSWALD had had a rifle sighted-in on 11/21/63, at a gun shop in the 200 block of Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. JOHN reported this matter immediately thereafter to Detective FAY M. TURNER, of the Dallas Police Department, and Officer TURNER determined that the Irving Sports Shop is located at 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas.

A check of the records of the Irving Sports Shop by Mr. DIAL D. RYDER, an employee of that firm, located a repair tag, which indicated that certain work, associated by RYDER with the mounting on a rifle and the sighting-in of a telescopic sight, was performed by the Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, for a man by the name of OSWALD.

In this regard, all persons having last name of OSWALD residing in Dallas and Irving, Texas, were interviewed in 12/63, and all advised they had not taken a rifle to the Irving Sports Shop to have a telescopic sight mounted.

The President's Commission has requested further investigation to locate and interview all other persons by the name of OSWALD who may have resided in the Dallas - Fort Worth area in October or November, 1963.

On 1/28/64, Lt. JAMES R. OSWALD, AF #70450A, assigned to the 9th Bomb Squadron of the 7th Bomb Wing, Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, Texas, was interviewed by the Los Angeles Division at Castle AFB, Morced, California, where he was on temporary assignment with the 329th Bomb Squadron as a student. Interview at that time with Lt. OSWALD was conducted to determine if any family relationship existed between he and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This interview did not, however, encompass the question of whether or not Lt. OSWALD had conducted any business with the Irving Sports Shop in Irving, Texas.

CHARLES ECK, OSI, Carswell AFB, Fort Worth, Texas, advised on 5/13/64 that Lt. JAMES R. OSWALD is no longer assigned to Carswell AFB and his present address is P. O. Box 1203, Blytheville, Arkansas.

2. Submit results to Bureau in appropriate letterhead memorandum and incorporate FD-302 in next Little Rock report.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane on the Jerry Williams Radio Program, April 30, 1964 Boston, Massachusetts

On April 14, 1964, Mr. Allen Segal, Radio Station WERS, 130 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts, advised the Boston Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that Attorney Mark Lane of New York, who was on a nationwide tour, representing the interests of Lee Harvey Oswald, would appear in Boston on April 30, 1964, under the auspices of the Citizens' Committee of Inquiry.

Mr. Segal advised that Lane would be a guest of Jerry Williams on WMEX Radio, Boston, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964.

Jerry Williams, a radio commentator employed by WMEX Radio, Brookline Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts, broadcasts nightly between 10:00 p.m. and 1:00 a.m., and discusses current events and presents various public figures. Following his talk or that of a guest, Williams has an arrangement whereby listeners may call and ask questions and the caller's voice may also be heard on the radio program.

On May 1, 1964, a source advised that Attorney Mark Lane appeared on the Jerry Williams radio program over WMEX, Boston, Massachusetts, on April 30, 1964.

This source furnished the following information concerning Lane's appearance:

Jerry Williams furnished background data concerning Attorney Mark Lane and stated that Lane had been serving as defense counsel for various civil rights groups.

Lane opened his remarks by saying that he feels very strongly about civil rights, and that a civil rights bill must pass the Congress. Lane stated he had been deeply concerned over the destruction of presumption of innocence through pretrial publicity in various cases, and that the Oswald case was a good example. He said he believed Oswald could not have received a fair trial and that because of many contradictions in the evidence in this case, he decided to write a "law review" article concerning it. He said he believed the American people were entitled to know the truth of this matter. The article which he wrote subsequently came to the attention of Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, who then asked him to represent her.

In answer to a question as to whether Mrs. Oswald had her wits about her, Lane stated that she was the one courageous, outspoken person in this case, and that she was completely uncowed by the forces of Government. He stated that he and Mrs. Oswald did not always agree on basic questions and said, for example, she had stated that Lee Harvey Oswald was a CIA Agent, but that this statement was not supported by the evidence.

In a discussion concerning press coverage of his investigation, Lane said he could not understand why more of his statements had not been made available to the American people. In this regard he stated he had given information which he considered newsworthy to friends of his in the press and that his information had not been printed.

Lane stated he appeared before the Warren Commission, and that all those present were friendly to him, except Congressman Ford, whom he described as a Goldwater man and former FBI Agent. Lane referred to the Warren Commission as being composed of Chief Justice Warren, who is often absent from the hearings; Allen Dulles, former CIA Director, who usually conducts the hearings; Congressman Ford, a former FBI Agent and two southern Democrats. He described this as a highly political Commission, whereas in his opinion it should be nonpolitical in nature.

Lane stated he had made four trips to Dallas to gather information in this case, and that he had obtained copies of all the affidavits from the District Attorney's Office in Dallas from someone, not otherwise identified, who had been kind enough to obtain these for him. He stated that one of these documents was a report of the paraffin test on Oswald. Lane pointed out that Chief Curry of the Dallas Police Department had stated on November 23, 1963 that the paraffin test had been completed and that Oswald was guilty. Lane stated that the test showed a positive nitrate reaction as to Oswald's hands, but that no nitrate was found on Oswald's face. He said that a positive nitrate reaction does not conclusively prove a person fired a weapon, but only that one may have fired a weapon. He said that the test on Oswald was conclusive that he had not fired a rifle, and further it was the conclusion of the examiner that Oswald had probably fired a revolver.

Lane stated that the results of the paraffin test and other facts in the investigation have been shrouded in secrecy and that all the facts should be made known to the United States public.

As an example of lack of knowledge in this case, Lane referred to a leaflet posted in Dallas prior to President Kennedy's arrival bearing two pictures of President Kennedy and the caption, "Wanted for Treasonous Acts Against the United States." Lane referred to this leaflet as a part of the atmosphere on November 22, 1963. in Dallas and said these posters were never seen anywhere else in the United States.

In answer to a question as to why the press had not shown these posters, Lane said he did not know the reason.

Mr. Lane also cited instances of variations in pictures of Oswald and the rifle allegedly used by him, which appeared in national magazines and newspapers. In his opinion, some of the pictures were forged or doctored. He said he had called this to the attention of an acquaintance on the "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper, but the story of the doctored pictures was not published. He said he presented this story in Europe and the pictures were published in European publications and that as a result of this the story is now getting some publication in the United States.

Mr. Lane mentioned that on the day of Mrs. Oswald's appearance before the Warren Commission, a story appeared in the "San Francisco Chronicle" alleging that a Negro janitor in the Dallas Book Depository Building had seen Oswald "pull the trigger." Lane claimed that Michael Howard, a Secret Service Agent, had planted this story, and that it had been published to counteract any publicity Mrs. Oswald would get from her appearance before the Warren Commission.

Lane said he had interviewed Helen Markham, the only eyewitness to the murder of Patrolman Tippit of the Dallas Police Department. She told Lane that the man who shot Patrolman Tippit was short, stocky and bushy haired, a description which does not fit that of Oswald.

Lane commented on a story by Bob Considine, which appeared in the "New York Journal American" newspaper concerning Warren Reynolds, owner of a used car lot in Dallas. Considine reported that Reynolds, who had observed the slayer of Patrolman Tippit running from the scene of the crime, was subsequently shot through the head himself in his used car lot. Lane stated that Warren Reynolds had survived. According to Lane, a man later arrested for the shooting of Reynolds used the alibi that he was in the company of Betty MacDonald at the time of the Tippit slaying. Betty MacDonald was later shown to be a strip-tease dancer at Jack Ruby's nightclub. According to the Considine article, Betty MacDonald was later arrested for disorderly conduct and hung herself in a cell in the Dallas Police Department. Mr. Lane stated this story appeared only in the "New York Journal American" and that he had not been able to check it out.

Lane stated that on the basis of evidence available, he did not believe Oswald had killed Patrolman Tippit.

In discussing the assassination of President Kennedy, Lane related that doctors at Parkland Hospital had first stated that President Kennedy was shot in the throat and that the bullet ranged downward to the chest. In line with this there was also a theory that at the time

President Kennedy was shot the automobile in which he was riding was approaching the Dallas Book Depository Building. However, pictures of the assassination proved that the car had passed 75 yards beyond the Book Depository Building when the first shot was fired, a fact concurred in by Governor Connally.

Thus Lane stated a second theory arose that President Kennedy had completely turned around before the first shot and was facing the Dallas Book Depository Building. This theory was also disproved by pictures showing President Kennedy facing forward at the time he was shot. Lane said that all witnesses agree with this latter statement.

As a result, according to Lane a third theory arose that President Kennedy was shot from the rear. He stated in this regard that one month after the assassination Secret Service Agents for the first time talked with doctors at Parkland Hospital to convince the doctors of this theory. He claimed that the Secret Service Agents had an autopsy report from the Bethesda Hospital showing that the first bullet hit the back of the head of President Kennedy and exited through the throat. The original statement that the throat wound was an entrance wound was then changed by the doctors and referred to as an exit wound. In this connection, Lane stated that he was convinced that the first wound was an entrance wound, based on the original report of the doctors at Parkland Hospital.

Lane commented that several witnesses, including newspaper reporters and one policeman, claimed that the shots were fired from in front of the President, either from the railroad overpass or from behind a concrete wall near the overpass. One of these, a Miss Irene Hill, the only one who would talk to Attorney Lane, also insisted that she had heard 4 to 6 shots fired; that the Secret Service had tried to convince her that only 3 shots had been fired.

Mr. Lane stated that Thayer Waldo, a newspaper reporter, had overheard the first police bulletin following the assassination saying "The President has been shot. All shots appear to have come from the railroad overpass in front of the President."

Lane stated that circumstantial evidence in the case proves that the shots were fired from in front of the car after it had passed the Texas Book Depository Building; that the paraffin tests show Oswald did not fire a rifle on November 22, 1963; and that the only witness to the Tippit killing describes the killer of Tippit as different from Oswald. These points, according to Lane, prove that Oswald was not the assassin of the President.

Lane called attention to the fact that the FBI had considerable background data on Oswald, together with the fact that they knew that he was employed daily in a building on the parade route. In spite of this, Lane states the FBI wants people to believe Oswald was allowed to walk into the building with a rifle wrapped in a paper without ever being questioned. Lane desired to know why Oswald was not surveilled when every single person in Dallas who had spoken in favor of school integration was being followed that day.

In response to a question as to why the FBI had not surveilled Oswald, Lane stated the FBI answered that its jurisdiction is in the field of spies and saboteurs and they are not permitted to move in the area of "political nonconformity."

Jerry Williams raised a question concerning the automobile in which the President was riding and the reported hole in the windshield.

According to Lane, shortly after the assassination the Secret Service took possession of the automobile and flew it to Washington where a new windshield was installed in it.

Mr. Lane in referring to his own testimony before the Warren Commission stated that at his own request he was allowed to testify in open session. Later he requested a transcript of his testimony, which was subsequently furnished to him with the first four pages missing. On his request these four pages were later furnished him bearing a "Top Secret" classification. He stated that this was ridiculous as he had testified publicly and the first four pages actually dealt only with his request to testify in open session.

The following are questions raised by anonymous telephone callers to the Jerry Williams program and answers furnished by Mr. Lane:

Q. There was evidence that at least 4 shots were fired. Is it possible that the first shot missed and that the second shot could have entered the back of the President's head?

A. Five bullets were found. The evidence shows that the President was facing towards the front and that he was hit from in front.

Q. You don't sound like a crackpot. I am disturbed that the Warren Commission is not going to make public their findings. Could these facts be used to show left wing or right wing conspiracy?

A. I can't say.

Q. Could leftists jump onto your band wagon to show a right wing plot?

A. No one will influence me.

Q. Were any ballistic tests made from bullets found in the President and Patrolman Tippit?

A. The Dallas Police Department said the bullets were all mangled and that no valid testimony could be obtained. The federal government tried, but the results of their tests are shrouded in secrecy.

Q. Did Oswald get a lie test?

A. No. He answered questions only for the Secret Service, FBI and Dallas Police Department. They know his story and it was never made public.

Q. They say that a gun was found on Oswald in the theater. Did he have a gun there?

A. I don't know.

Q. Isn't this an investigation but not a trial before the Warren Commission?

A. This is similar to the Nazi war trials, but in that case they were allowed legal counsel, therefore why should Oswald not be allowed legal counsel.

Q. If the bullets were from the front how could Governor Connally get struck in the left side.

A. He could not. They could not have come from the Dallas Book Depository Building either.

Q. Could the shots have come from the building and the sound echoed off the concrete wall.

A. There was nothing for the sound to bounce off from.

Q. You are giving out facts. Everything you say is wrong. You say the government, police and FBI are all wrong. You are skillful. You haven't yet answered a question regarding circumstantial evidence. You are trying to castigate the government and the Warren Commission. I never heard such a harangue. What's your motivation.

A. I am deeply concerned that there have been improper investigation, no due process, no rights of individuals.

The "New York Herald Tribune" newspaper dated January 15, 1964, Page 7, Column 1, contained an article entitled "Oswald's Mother Hires Lane." This article stated that on January 14, 1964, Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald, mother of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, announced she had hired Mark Lane to represent her slain son before the Warren Commission investigating the murder of President John F. Kennedy. According to this article, Mrs. Oswald stated she had been in contact with Lane during his stay in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. It was also pointed out that Lane had accepted the case although Mrs. Oswald stated she had no funds with which to pay him.

The April 2, 1964, issue of the "New York Times," Page 37, column 5, contained an article captioned "Mother of Oswald Ends Tie With Lane." The article indicated Mrs. Marguerite Oswald said she had dismissed Mark Lane, her New York lawyer, and that he should stop any "organized campaign" on behalf of her son through his "Citizens Committee of Inquiry."

On June 10, 1963, a source advised that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC), held on May 28, 1963, at 74 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Mark Lane was elected to the position of Vice Chairman of the organization.

Characterization of the NYCAHUAC is contained in the Appendix hereto.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HUAC" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5.)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

In the interest of brevity, these reports will be referred to by page and date made only. Reports and communications of other divisions when referred to will be identified in full.

ITEM NO.	DESCRIPTION, REPORTING, AND ACTION TAKEN
C 10A	Replica of sack, C 10 (K 52). Reported pages 292-293, 296-299 of 12/10/63; page 47 of 1/7/64. Replica made from paper and tape furnished by Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, in same dimensions as C 10 and exhibited to witnesses. Laboratory determined paper and tape different from that in C 10. No further action.
C 14	6.5 M/M Mannlicher-Carcano rifle with telescope sight, Serial No. C2766 (K 1). Supplemental information reported page 2 of report SA JOHN T. MURPHY, Newark, dated 3/19/64, and pages 2-10, report SA DENNIS W. SHANAHAN, Chicago, 3/20/64. Records Harborside Terminal, Jersey City, New Jersey, show storage of 6.5 rifles to account of Adams, Consolidated Industries, and movement to FRED RUPP. Klein's Sporting Goods, Chicago, Illinois, advised holes drilled and scope mounted prior to sale of rifle to OSWALD. Action complete.
C 41-C 46	Paraffin casts of OSWALD's hands and cheek. Supplemental information recorded pages 105-106 of 3/10/64. Examination by Laboratory after chemically treated and washed by Dallas Police Department. Deposits could not be specifically associated with rifle cartridges. Elements (barium and antimony) found on casts but same elements found in powder residues both from rifle as well as revolver cartridge cases fired from OSWALD's rifle reportedly between assassination and apprehension. No significance other than casts contained greater amounts of barium and antimony residue than would be present on hands of person not firing or handling a weapon. No further action.

Re Paris letter 4-27-64.

Reloet set forth information concerning publicity recently given in the Paris press to two photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD holding a rifle. In one photograph published by "Life" magazine the rifle had a telescopic sight and in the other photograph subsequently published by "Newsweek" magazine, the telescopic sight was not visible. The implication at the time was that one of the photographs had been doctored.

Enclosed for the Bureau is a clipping from "Le Nouveau Candide" issue of April 29 - May 6, 1964, containing the results of an inquiry made in the United States by a correspondent of "Le Nouveau Candide". In essence he states that he had examined both photographs in the United States and had found that they were one and the same, but that the photograph reproduced by "Newsweek", which did not show the telescopic sight, was a poor reproduction and apparently not properly exposed, which resulted in the fact that the sight, although it is present, was not visible in the reproduction. He mentions further that close examination of the photograph reveals that the title of the newspaper being held by OSWALD is "The Militant".

There appears to be no reason to translate the article in its entirety, but the final decision in this matter is being left to the discretion of the Bureau. If a translation is made, it is requested that this office be furnished with a copy.

We will continue to follow this case closely and furnish the Bureau promptly any information of interest.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

There are enclosed two copies of a memorandum dated May 7, 1964, captioned "Marilyn Dorothea Murret."

Miss Murret is a cousin of Lee Harvey Oswald, her mother being a sister of Oswald's mother. She was interviewed on November 29, 1963, and advised she took a trip around the world beginning in July, 1959, and ending in January, 1963. (See Dallas report of SA Warren C. De Brueys, dated December 12, 1963, concerning Lee Harvey Oswald, page 162.)

The Harold Isaacs mentioned in paragraph four of page one of the enclosed memorandum may be identical with Harold Robert Isaacs who, in 1958, was employed at the Center for International Studies, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

A memorandum containing current information about him has been requested and will be furnished you when it is received.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Bureau has received a request from the President's Commission to interview Mr. H. R. Bright, Mr. Edgar Crissey and Mr. Nelson Bunker Hunt, the three individuals who contributed to the fund which was used in payment for the advertisement which appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" on 11-22-63.

Instructions covering these interviews were forwarded to the Dallas Office by teletype on 5-14-64.

SAC Shanklin of the Dallas Office called on 5-15-64 and noted that he anticipated that when the afore-mentioned individuals were contacted for interview they would request to have their attorneys present. SAC Shanklin was seeking Bureau approval to have the interviews conducted in the presence of the attorneys.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

On 5/8/64 the President's Commission furnished the Bureau with the transcript of testimony covering former SA John W. Fain, SA Robert L. Quigley and SA James P. Hosty, Jr. By and large, the testimony was accurate and to the point and effectively presented the nature of the Bureau's investigation and findings of Lee Harvey Oswald prior to the assassination of the President. There is attached a reproduction of the testimony on which minor corrections have been noted in red pencil. There follows a listing of these corrections and other points which are noted concerning the testimony given.

Page 5931, line 2, 4th word should be "help" instead of "have."

line 16 - It would appear that a phrase has been deleted by the stenographer following the statement "...he had had an inquiry concerning whether or not..." The phrase deleted probably should be to the effect whether or not Oswald was an informant of the Bureau.

Page 5980, line 18, the word "your" should be "you."

Page 5993, paragraph 3, line 5, the word "he" should be "I."

Since Hosty was not competent to make this statement, it is probably a continuation of Rankin's statement and incorrectly attributed to Hosty.

ACTION:

If you approve, the above will be discussed with a representative of the Commission so that these minor errors might be corrected if the Commission so desires.

ADDENDUM: I have looked this testimony over and it appears to me that Agents Hosty and Quigley did a good job, testifying clearly and concisely, and using good language. Former Agent Fain's testimony is acceptable, but his language leaves something to be desired, and he is not as direct and decisive in his testimony.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Malley was in touch with President's Commission Staff Attorney Samuel Stern today and mentioned in reviewing Mr. Belmont's testimony before the Commission a number of typographical errors were being found as well as some instances where the sentence structure was incorrectly recorded thereby changing the meaning of the sentence.

Mr. Stern stated that he would very much appreciate it if all of these items could be jotted down and called to his attention so that the necessary corrections could be made.

During this discussion, Mr. Stern mentioned that he now had the testimony available of Agents Quigley and Hosty, as well as former Special Agent Fain, and that he would be glad to make the testimony of these three gentlemen available to the Bureau so the testimony could be reviewed and any necessary corrections called to the attention of the Commission.

ACTION:

If approved, this testimony will be obtained from the Commission and will be immediately reviewed for necessary corrections.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to our letter dated February 11, 1964, setting forth results of our interview with Lonnie Hudkins, reporter for the Houston "Post" on February 8, 1964.

You will note that on page two of our February 11, 1964, letter to you we reported that Mr. Hudkins was questioned at length in an attempt to ascertain his source that Oswald was an FBI informant, but that Mr. Hudkins refused to divulge his source or to furnish a signed statement. We also reported that according to Mr. Hudkins, the only other information he had heard that Oswald might be a symbol number informant was from "Joe Golden," a reporter for the "Philadelphia Inquirer," who was in Dallas in late December, 1963.

We further advised that we had previously interviewed Mr. Joseph Goulden, a reporter for the "Philadelphia Inquirer," in connection with an article Mr. Goulden reported in the December 8, 1963, issue of the "Philadelphia Inquirer," wherein he alleged that Lee Harvey Oswald at one time had been contacted by the FBI to become an informant. Mr. Goulden claimed he obtained this information from a law enforcement officer in Dallas whom he declined to identify.

We reinterviewed Mr. Joseph Goulden on February 11, 1964, at which time we told Mr. Goulden that Lonnie Hudkins alleged that he had received information from Mr. Goulden to the effect that Oswald might be a symbol number informant.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Mr. Coulden admitted knowing Mr. Rudkins and stated that he had been visited by Rudkins in Philadelphia, December 1, 1963. Mr. Coulden stated that at the time of this visit with Rudkins he had not yet been to Dallas to write the assassination story. He added that any discussion he had with Rudkins regarding the Oswald case would have concerned Rudkins' on-the-scene account of the assassination and what Goulden had heard and read in Philadelphia.

Mr. Goulden stated he did not recall any conversation with Rudkins regarding the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald was an FBI informant.

The above is for your additional information in this matter.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your conversation with Inspector James R. Malley of this Bureau on February 7, 1964, regarding Lonnie Hudkins, the Houston "Post" reporter who wrote an article in the January 1, 1964, issue of the Houston "Post" entitled "Oswald Rumored as Informant for U.S."

For your information, Mr. Alonzo F. Hudkins, III, also known as Lonnie Hudkins, was interviewed by Agents of this Bureau on February 8, 1964, in this matter. Mr. Hudkins stated he arrived in Dallas, Texas, in late December, 1963, to check out rumors that Oswald might have been an informant of the FBI. He stated such rumors were based on information he had received from Assistant District Attorney William Alexander to the effect that Oswald's address book contained the name of Agent Hosty, his office and home telephone numbers and his automobile license number. Mr. Hudkins also stated he had interviewed Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, who said that Oswald was doing important subversive work for the Government.

Mr. Hudkins further stated he had contacted a Government official, not a Federal official in Dallas, who had told him that Oswald was on the payroll of either the FBI or the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) with voucher number 179 and that he had received no less than $150 a month and no more than $225 a month. Mr. Hudkins claimed that the official who furnished him this information had furnished him reliable information in the past which he had been able to print. Mr. Hudkins stated he did not print anything stating Oswald was an informant of the FBI or CIA but merely raised this question in his article in the Houston "Post" of January 1, 1964, since he had only this official's word and did not have any supporting documents of any kind to substantiate this allegation. He further advised he had made inquiries of some of his friends in Houston, Texas, whose names he would not divulge and had also requested his Washington, D. C., headquarters to attempt to check out this allegation. According to Mr. Hudkins this allegation could not be verified through any of his sources and, therefore, was not printed in the Houston "Post."

Mr. Hudkins was questioned at length in an attempt to ascertain his source that Oswald was an FBI or CIA informant, but Mr. Hudkins refused to divulge his source or to furnish a signed statement. He stated that when he received this information from his source he was alone and no other reporters were present.

According to Mr. Hudkins, the only other information he had heard that Oswald might be a symbol number informant was from Joe Goulden, a reporter of the "Philadelphia Inquirer," who was in Dallas in late December, 1963. According to Hudkins, Mr. Goulden mentioned to him a number different from 179, that might have been a voucher number. Mr. Hudkins stated he could not recall the number.

At the conclusion of our interview with Mr. Hudkins he stated that even if he were called to appear before the President's Commission, he would decline to furnish the source of his information.

In connection with Mr. Hudkins' reference to Joe Goulden, please be advised that we have interviewed Mr. Joseph Goulden, a reporter for the "Philadelphia Inquirer," in connection with an article Mr. Goulden reported in the December 8, 1963, issue of the "Philadelphia Inquirer," wherein he alleged that Lee Harvey Oswald at one time had been contacted by the FBI to become an informant. He said he had obtained this information from a law enforcement officer in Dallas whom he declined to identify. We reinterviewed Joseph Goulden on December 16, 1963, in an attempt to pin down the source of his allegation, but Mr. Goulden declined to identify the law enforcement officer after allegedly having talked to him on the telephone. He did say, however, that the officer told him that the matter was being "handled through proper channels."

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

For your added information, we have contacted the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, to determine if an allegation had been made a matter of record to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald at one time had been contacted by the FBI to become an informant. No such record was found in the files of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas.

The foregoing is furnished for your information in this matter.

February 17, 1964

BY COURIER SERVICE

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to our letter of February 11, 1964, reporting results of our interview on February 8, 1964, with Mr. Alonzo F. Hudkins III, also known as Lonnie Hudkins. Mr. Hudkins is the reporter who wrote an article in the Houston "Post" entitled "Oswald Rumored as Informant for U.S." During our interview with Mr. Hudkins on February 8, 1964, he refused to identify the source of his information that Oswald was on the payroll of either the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the Central Intelligence Agency. He claimed he was told this by a Government official, not a Federal official, in Dallas, Texas.

For your information, Assistant District Attorney William Alexander was interviewed by this Bureau January 25, 1964, in this matter. Mr. Alexander told us that he was acquainted with Lonnie Hudkins and that Hudkins had contacted him sometime in December, 1963, and had indicated he was working on a real good story, trying to prove that Oswald was an informant for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Central Intelligence Agency or some governmental agency. According to Mr. Alexander, Hudkins stated he had received information that Oswald's address book, which had been seized by the police, had Agent Hosty's or Hasty's name and the telephone number of the local Federal Bureau of Investigation office and possibly a license number of an automobile.

Mr. Alexander further advised that Lonnie Hudkins then asked him if this did not mean that Oswald was an informant of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Mr. Alexander stated he told Mr. Hudkins that he did not know anything about Oswald being an informant. Mr. Alexander stated that when Hudkins questioned him about the entry in Oswald's address book, Alexander told Hudkins "It looks like you have the story there." Mr. Alexander denied making any further statements to Hudkins.

For your information, during our interview with Mr. Alexander on January 25, 1964, he informed us that he had appeared before the President's Commission on January 24, 1964, in Washington, D. C., and that he had told the Commission that he had no information as to Oswald being an informant for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Central Intelligence Agency or any other governmental agency. He stated he did point out to the Commission that in an address book of Oswald's seized by the police Agent Hosty's name appeared along with many others. Mr. Alexander also told us that during his meeting with the Commission January 24, 1964, he told Chief Justice Warren and you that on the afternoon of January 21, 1964, after conclusion of the bond hearing in Dallas for Jack Ruby and while the reporters were waiting for some statements from the judge, there were a number of reporters talking about the possibility that Oswald was a counterspy for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Central Intelligence Agency or some governmental agency. He added that he also stated that he recalled hearing the words "special service" and also remembered some reporter making a statement that Oswald was possibly on the payroll of the Government at $200 a month, beginning September, 1962, and that he heard payroll number 179 or voucher 179 mentioned.

For your additional information, we reinterviewed Mr. Alexander February 13, 1964, in a further effort to pin him down on his source of the allegation that Oswald may have been a counterspy for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Central Intelligence Agency or some governmental agency and was on the payroll of the Government. Mr. Alexander claimed that he overheard a number of reporters discussing the possibility that Oswald was a counterspy for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Central Intelligence Agency or some governmental agency and that he remembers hearing some reporter make the statement that Oswald was supposedly on the payroll of the Government at $200 a month, beginning September, 1962, and had payroll number 179 or voucher 17[illegible]. Mr. Alexander stated that he has no idea as to the source of this information and that he considered it only rumor at the time. He further stated that when he heard this discussion there were present a number of reporters and that he has no idea who originated the remark.

During our interview with Mr. Alexander at this time we asked him if he could supply the name of anyone who might be the originator of these false allegations, and he stated he could not. He further stated that much speculation and rumors of all kinds concerning Oswald have cropped up from time to time and that he had reached the point of not paying any attention to them.

In conclusion Mr. Alexander stated that should he determine the identity of the originator of these false allegations he would immediately notify this Bureau.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

REC'D-READING ROOM

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to our conversation of January 28, 1964, concerning information furnished to the Commission by Mr. Henry M. Wade, the District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas. You advised that Mr. Wade indicated he had heard that Lee Harvey Oswald had been an informant of the FBI, had been assigned symbol number "179," and had been paid $200 monthly in this capacity. You further advised that Mr. Wade also indicated that FBI Headquarters was not in a position to know in all instances whether an individual was an informant of this Bureau.

For your information, Mr. Henry M. Wade was interviewed by Special Agent in Charge J. Gordon Shanklin and Assistant Special Agent in Charge Kyle G. Clark of our Dallas, Texas, Office on February 8, 1964, in this matter.

Mr. Wade claimed that during his discussion with the Commission in Washington, D. C., on January 24, 1964, which he referred to as a very informal discussion with no notes taken to his knowledge, there were present Chief Justice Earl Warren and yourself. Wade stated that William Alexander, his assistant; Waggoner Carr, District Attorney for the State of Texas; Robert Storey, former Dean of Southern Methodist University; and Leon Jaworski, Houston attorney, accompanied him during his discussion with the Commission.

According to Mr. Wade, during his discussion with the Commission on January 24, 1964, mention was made of voucher number 179 and the name Lee Harvey Oswald. Mr. Wade stated that no such voucher was produced or exhibited. Mr. Wade claimed that he told the Commission that the FBI did not have any informant without a number and that an informant's identity was always known in FBI Headquarters. Mr. Wade added that he told the Commission that an individual Special Agent, in getting money for an informant from FBI Headquarters, submitted the informant's number on a voucher without a name. Mr. Wade also claimed he told the Commission that he had never heard of having an informant on the payroll by name.

Mr. Wade further stated that during his discussion with the Commission he thinks he was asked about retaining receipts from informants but he could not recall whether he had to obtain such receipts when he was handling informants on Special Intelligence Service assignment as an FBI Agent. Mr. Wade claimed he tried to convey to the Commission that an informant could not be developed by an FBI Agent without knowledge of FBI Headquarters.

During our interview with Mr. Wade, he reviewed the expense accounts submitted by him while he was on Special Intelligence Service assignment and he stated that all funds expended by him were entirely and accurately accounted for and that he now realizes he did get receipts and that the expenditures by him were reported to FBI Headquarters in detail. Mr. Wade also stated he did not handle any informants without the full knowledge of FBI Headquarters.

Mr. Wade volunteered that he would be talking to you within the next few days and he was going to clarify the fact that he did obtain receipts from informants.

Mr. Wade further stated that during his discussion with the Commission on January 21, 1964, he recalls there was a limited conversation about the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald might have been an FBI informant and that there was more speculation that Oswald might have been an informant of the Central Intelligence Agency. He recalled that Mr. Robert Storey stated he was with the War Crimes Commission in Germany after World War II and either worked for or with the Central Intelligence Agency in Europe. Mr. Wade added that Mr. Storey indicated that the Central Intelligence Agency had informants that no one knew about except the Central Intelligence Agency Agent and that the informant might have an informant.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

[redacted]

In conclusion, Mr. Wade reiterated that he told the Commission that he had no information to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald was an informant of the FBI or any Governmental agency.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: On 1-28 Mr. Rankin of the Commission met with the Director. At that time Mr. Rankin informed that Mr. Wade in appearing before the Commission stated that Lee Harvey Oswld bore the designation of "17" as an informant of the FBI and was paid $200 per month. Mr. Rankin also informed the Director of other comments made by Wade re the latter's assignment with the SIS during 1942 and 1943 wherein Wade alleged there was no record of how FBI funds were spent nor for what purposes they were used by employees of SIS.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter of February 6, 1964, enclosing an affidavit executed by me, wherein I categorically state that Lee Harvey Oswald was never an informant of the FBI.

Pursuant to your request, there are enclosed nine additional affidavits, executed by personnel of this Bureau who, because of their assignments, would have been responsible for or cognizant of any attempt to develop Lee Harvey Oswald as an informant of the FBI. In addition, there is enclosed an affidavit, executed by John W. Fain, retired Special Agent of the FBI. Mr. Fain took part in interviews of Lee Harvey Oswald on June 26, 1962, and August 16, 1962, at Fort Worth, Texas.

You will note that each of the individuals concerned denies any knowledge that Lee Harvey Oswald ever was an informant of the FBI.

J. Edgar Hoover, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That he has caused a search to be made of the records of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, by employees of the said Federal Bureau of Investigation acting under his direction, and that said search discloses that Lee Harvey Oswald was never an informant of the FBI, was never assigned a symbol number in that capacity, and was never paid any amount of money by the FBI in any regard.

Such a statement can be made authoritatively and without equivocation because of the close supervision FBI headquarters affords its security informant program and because of the safeguards established to insure against any abuse or misuse of the program.

FBI field offices cannot proceed to develop anyone as a security informant without authorization from FBI headquarters. An informant is assigned a permanent symbol number and code name to afford him security. The informant never knows the symbol number assigned to him. It is a number permanently assigned to him, and the same number cannot be used again by the field office under any circumstances for any other individual. The individual also is given a fictitious or cover name by the field office which he, of course, is made aware of, and he utilizes it to his communications with the office. Every symbol number and code name is indexed at FBI headquarters.

If the services of an informant warrant payment on a regular basis, the field offices must also obtain authorization from FBI headquarters to make such payments.

Special Agents in Charge (SACs) of FBI field offices are authorized to make payments to individuals not utilized on a regular basis as informants, but here too FBI headquarters controls this by limiting the extent an SAC can pay to any one individual in this category. FBI headquarters maintains control of such payments since they must be accounted for by the field offices at the end of each month through the submission of a detailed accounting to headquarters.

Had any of the FBI field offices made payments to Lee Harvey Oswald under the SAC's authority, these would have been shown in the receipts and vouchers submitted by each office. These records have been checked and no such payment was ever made. Had Oswald been assigned a symbol number, this would be a matter of record not only by number but also by name. As a matter of fact, the FBI can identify every symbol number used, past or present. Oswald could not have been assigned such a symbol number without approval by FBI headquarters. There is no record of any such request by any field office and no record of any such approval.

The only contacts FBI Agents had with Oswald prior to the assassination of President Kennedy involved three interviews FBI Agents had with him. The first was on June 26, 1962, at Fort Worth, Texas, shortly after his return home from the Soviet Union. The purpose was to assess the possibility of his having been given intelligence assignments by the Soviets. The second, on August 16, 1962, was in the same connection. The third was at his specific request on August 10, 1963, following his arrest in New Orleans the preceding day on a charge of disturbing the peace and creating a scene. At that time, he described some of his activities in connection with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, the pro-Castro organization.

Oswald was again interviewed by FBI Agents at the Dallas Police Department following his arrest after the assassination of the President. This interview was aimed at eliciting any admissions he might make in connection with the assassination, as well as to obtain any information he might have been able to furnish of a security nature.

FBI headquarters has obtained affidavits from every Special Agent who was in contact with Oswald, as well as affidavits from their respective SACs. These affidavits show that none of these FBI Agents developed Oswald as an informant.

Mr. Henry M. Wade, a former Special Agent of the FBI and currently the District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas, reportedly testified previously to the Commission that he had heard that Lee Harvey Oswald was an FBI informant with the symbol number "179" and was being paid $200 monthly. As the facts clearly show, this is not true.

Furthermore, the facts refute Mr. Wade's reported statement to the Commission that there is no record maintained in the FBI of informant funds expended or the purposes for which used by the FBI employee to whom they were furnished.

Mr. Wade reportedly stated that he had worked in the FBI's Special Intelligence Service (SIS) and that he was supplied from time to time with various sums of money for which he did not have to account and for which he did not have to obtain any receipts from the persons to whom he disbursed the money.

The emergency conditions that prevailed during World War II when the FBI conducted its SIS program did not permit the tight supervision that prevails currently in the FBI's informant operations. But this is true only in regard to the fact that SIS men necessarily were given the latitude to develop and pay informants on the spot without prior approval from FBI headquarters. Nevertheless, SIS men operated under a control system and adhered to it by advising FBI headquarters of payments made and the identity of the individuals paid. Such payments were supported by receipts in nearly every instance.

Mr. Wade, for example, entered on duty with the FBI on December 4, 1939. On July 6, 1942, he was advanced the sum of $1,075 in connection with an SIS assignment. This was for subsistence and travel in connection with his assignment in Ecuador as well as to provide him with some money with which to establish himself. His passage from New Orleans to Guayaquil, Ecuador, cost over $500 alone. In addition, he was required to make full restitution of the total amount which had been advanced him and subsequently did so. All of his expenditures of the total amount furnished him were substantiated by vouchers he submitted.

Mr. Wade arrived in Ecuador on August 16, 1942. He operated in an undercover capacity with a symbol number, specifically Number 345, and used the code name "James" in ongoing communications. Within Ecuador, he was referred to as Confidential Informant Number 6.

Although in an undercover capacity, Mr. Wade was required to submit vouchers twice monthly through the Legal Attache's Office in Quito, Ecuador. They were reviewed there and forwarded to FBI headquarters where they were checked prior to approval and the transmittal of funds to Mr. Wade's account.

In his operations, Mr. Wade handled a total of 11 informants. His vouchers clearly identify each expenditure made by him in connection with payments to any one of these informants. In all, Mr. Wade expended a total of $1,433.21 in payments to informants. In addition to identifying each informant paid and indicating the amount paid to each, he complied with the regulations to furnish separately summary data on all informants he was using and an evaluation of their services.

Five of the informants Mr. Wade was operating were the most productive. These five received a total of $1,234.94 in 62 separate payments made by Mr. Wade. Each of these payments was supported by a receipt. Six other payments unsupported by receipts were accounted for by Mr. Wade in vouchers submitted by him.

Mr. Wade left Ecuador on May 2, 1943, and in a letter dated May 25, 1943, submitted his resignation from the FBI. By letter dated June 13, 1943, Mr. Wade sought reinstatement, stating that he had made a mistake in resigning. However, this request for reinstatement was refused since the FBI's request for his deferment under the Selective Service Act already had been withdrawn.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

In connection with the possible appearance of the Director before the President's Commission during the coming week, Mr. Rankin indicated that the Commission contemplated discussing with the Director two questions (1) Was Oswald an informant? and (2) Was there a conspiracy in the assassination? In this connection there are set forth answers to these two questions as developed through the FBI's investigation.

1. Was Oswald an informant?

Lee Harvey Oswald was never an informant of the FBI, was never assigned a number in that capacity and was never paid any money by the FBI.

Director's Affidavit Stating Oswald Not FBI Informant:

By letter dated February 6, 1964, (Attachment #1) the Director furnished the President's Commission his personal affidavit wherein the Director categorically stated that Lee Harvey Oswald was never an informant of the FBI. The Director also outlined FBI administrative procedures for the handling and payment of confidential informants. The Director also noted that he could state authoritatively and without equivocation that Oswald was never an informant of the FBI, was never assigned a symbol number in that capacity and was never paid any money by the FBI in any regard because of the close supervision FBI Headquarters affords its Security Informant Program and because of the safeguards established to insure against any abuse or misuse of the program.

The Director pointed out that the only contacts FBI agents had with Oswald prior to the assassination of President Kennedy involved three interviews FBI agents had with him. The first was on June 26, 1962, at Fort Worth, Texas, shortly after Oswald's return home from the Soviet Union. The purpose of such interview was to assess the possibility of Oswald's having been given intelligence assignments by the Soviets. The second interview, on August 16, 1962, was in the same connection. The third interview was at Oswald's specific request on August 10, 1963, following his arrest in New Orleans the preceding day on a charge of disturbing the peace and creating a scene. At that time, Oswald described some of his activities in connection with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, the pro-Castro organization.

In his affidavit, the Director also set out the facts which refuted Henry M. Wade's statement to the Commission that there is no record maintained in the FBI of confidential funds expended or the purposes for which used by the FBI employee to whom they were furnished.

Field Agents' Affidavits Stating Oswald Not FBI Informant:

By letter dated February 12, 1964, (Attachment #2) the Director forwarded to the Commission nine additional affidavits executed by Bureau agents who, because of their assignments, would have been responsible for or cognizant of any attempt to develop Lee Harvey Oswald as an informant of the FBI. In addition, the Director forwarded to the Commission an affidavit executed by John W. Fain, retired Special Agent of the FBI, who took part in interviews of Oswald on June 26, 1962, and August 16, 1962, at Fort Worth, Texas. Each of the afore-mentioned 10 individuals denied any knowledge that Lee Harvey Oswald ever was an informant of the FBI.

Mr. Belmont's Testimony 5-6-64 Stating Flatly Oswald Not FBI Informant:

Assistant to the Director Alan H. Belmont appeared before the President's Commission May 6, 1964, to furnish testimony. During Mr. Belmont's testimony, the Director's affidavit mentioned above was admitted into the Commission Record, marked as Commission Exhibit #835 for identification purposes. Mr. Belmont was questioned concerning his knowledge of the Director's affidavit and, in response to a question from Mr. Stern of the Commission, stated the Director's affidavit accurately and completely states the Bureau's practice in a prospective informant. Mr. Belmont stated flatly that Lee Harvey Oswald was never an informant of the FBI. Mr. Belmont also defined FBI meaning of an informant. (An informant is an individual who has agreed to cooperate with the FBI and to furnish information to the FBI either for or without payment. This would not include a cooperative citizen who frequently and frankly discloses any information in his possession to the FBI. An informant is, rather, someone who joins an organization or seeks out information at the direction of the FBI relative to subversive or criminal matters. Patriotic citizens who volunteer information to FBI are not informers.) Mr. Belmont also informed the Commission that the FBI does not use the term "Agent" to apply to anyone other than a Special Agent employee of the FBI.

FBI Investigation of False Allegations Alleging Oswald Informant:

We have investigated certain reports in the press regarding Oswald's alleged status as an informant for the FBI or the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).

By letter to the Commission dated February 10, 1964, (Attachment #3) we furnished the Commission results of our interview with Henry M. Wade, the District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas, regarding the statement Wade made to the Commission indicating that he had heard that Lee Harvey Oswald had been an informant of the FBI, had been assigned symbol number "179" and had been paid $200 monthly in this capacity. Wade also indicated to the Commission that FBI Headquarters was not in a position to know in all instances whether an individual was an informant of this Bureau.

In our interview with Wade he stated he told the Commission that he had no information to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald was an informant of the FBI or any Government agency. Wade claimed that he told the Commission the FBI did not have any informant without a symbol and that an informant's identity was always known in FBI Headquarters. Wade also claimed he told the Commission that an individual Special Agent, in getting money for an informant from FBI Headquarters, submitted the informant's number on a voucher without a name. Mr. Wade also claimed he told the Commission he had never heard of having an informant on the payroll by name. Wade also claimed he tried to convey to the Commission that an informant could not be developed by an FBI agent without knowledge of FBI Headquarters.

By letter dated February 17, 1964, (Attachment #4) we furnished the Commission results of our interviews with Assistant District Attorney William Alexander regarding statements Alexander reportedly made to Lonnie Hudkins, a reporter for the Houston "Post," who wrote an article entitled "Oswald Rumored As Informant for U.S."

Alexander stated he told Hudkins he did not know anything about Oswald being an informant and indicated that when Hudkins questioned him about the entry in Oswald's address book making reference to Special Agent James Hosty, Jr., that Alexander told Hudkins, "It looks like you have the story there." Alexander also told us that during his meeting with the President's Commission on January 24, 1964, he told Chief Justice Warren and Mr. Rankin that on the afternoon of January 21, 1964, after conclusion of the bond hearing in Dallas for Jack Ruby and while the reporters were waiting for some statements from the Judge, there were a number of reporters talking about the possibility that Oswald was a counterspy for the FBI, CIA or some governmental agency. He stated he recalled hearing the words "special service" and also remembered some reporter, identity unknown, make a statement that Oswald was possibly on the payroll of the Government at $200 a month, beginning September, 1962, and that he heard payroll #179 or voucher #179 mentioned.

We attempted to pin Alexander down as to his source of the afore-mentioned scurrilous allegation, but Alexander claimed he overheard a number of reporters discussing this allegation but he had no idea as to the source of this information and he considered it only rumor at the time. We asked Alexander if he could furnish us the name of anyone who might be the originator of the false allegation and he stated he could not. Alexander added that much speculation and rumors of all kinds concerning Oswald had cropped up from time to time and he had reached the point of not paying any attention to them.

In our letter to the Commission dated February 11, 1964, (Attachment 5) we furnished Commission results of our interview with Alonzo F. Hudkins III, also known as Lonnie Hudkins, regarding an article he wrote in the January 1, 1964, issue of the Houston "Post" entitled "Oswald Rumored As Informant For U.S."

Hudkins claimed his story was based upon information he received from Assistant District Attorney William Alexander to the effect that Oswald's address book contained the name of Agent Hosty, his office and home telephone numbers and his automobile license number. Hudkins also stated he had interviewed Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, who said that Oswald was doing important subversive work for the Government.

Hudkins also stated he had contacted Government official, not a Federal official, in Dallas who had told him that Oswald was on the payroll of either the FBI or CIA, with voucher #179 and that he had received no less than $150 a month and no more than $225 a month.

Hudkins stated he did not include in his article the latter data since he did not have any supporting documents of any kind to substantiate the allegation. Hudkins refused to identify the afore-mentioned Government official and stated when he received this information from this source he was alone and no other reporters were present. Hudkins stated that even if he were called toappear before the President's Commission he would decline to furnish the source of his information.

Hudkins also stated that the only other information he had heard that Oswald might be a symbol number informant was from Joe Golden, a reporter for the "Philadelphia Inquirer" who was in Dallas in late December, 1963. Hudkins stated that Golden mentioned to him a number different from 179 that might be a voucher number.

In our letter of 2-11-64 we also furnished the Commission results of our contact with Mr. Joseph Goulden, reporter for the "Philadelphia Inquirer." (Identical with Joe Golden named by Hudkins). Goulden stated that in the December 8, 1963, issue of the "Philadelphia Inquirer" he wrote an article wherein he alleged that Lee Harvey Oswald at one time had been contacted by the FBI to become an informant. He stated he had obtained this information from a law enforcement officer whom he declined to identify. We attempted to pin Goulden down as to his source of this scurrilous allegation, but Goulden declined to identify the law enforcement officer after allegedly having talked to him on the telephone. He did say, however, that the officer told him the matter was being "handled through proper channels." We contacted the Dallas Police Department to determine if an allegation had been made a matter of record in Dallas Police files to the effect that Oswald at one time had been contacted by the FBI to become an informant. No such record was found in the files of the Dallas Police Department.

By letter dated February 13, 1964, (Attachment #6) we furnished the Commission results of a recontact with Joseph Goulden on February 11, 1964, concerning the allegation of Hudkins' that he had received information from Goulden to the effect that Oswald might be a symbol number informant. Goulden admitted knowing Hudkins and stated he had been visited by Hudkins in Philadelphia December 1, 1963. Goulden stated that at that time he had not yet been to Dallas to write the assassination story. He added that any discussions he had with Hudkins regarding the Oswald case would have concerned Hudkins' on-the-scene account of the assassination and what Goulden had heard and read in Philadelphia. Goulden stated he did not recall any conversation with Hudkins regarding the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald was an FBI informant.

Testimony of Agents Hosty and Quigley and Former Agent Fain Before the Commission May 5, 1964:

Special Agents James P. Hosty, Jr., and John L. Quigley and former Special Agent John W. Fain all testified before the Commission on May 5, 1964, concerning their handling of the various facets of the Oswald investigation prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. Each of these agents were questioned whether they had ever made an attempt to develop Oswald as an FBI informant and all categorically denied that they had ever made any attempt to develop Oswald as an FBI informant. Special Agent Hosty pointed out to the Commission that he had never seen nor talked to Lee Harvey Oswald prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. SA Quigley and Mr. Fain told the Commission that they had never noted anything in Oswald's demeanor which would indicate Oswald possessed violent tendencies or could be considered as potentially dangerous.

2. Was there a conspiracy in the assassination?

The evidence developed in the FBI's investigation incriminates Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone, as the assassin. There is no evidence to implicate any other person or persons, organization or foreign government or any instrumentality thereof in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Since the assassination of President Kennedy, thousands of people have been interviewed by the FBI in the investigation of Lee Harvey Oswald. These persons included all of his known relatives; schoolmates; associates, acquaintances, and fellow employees both before and after his trip to Russia; fellow Marines; persons who traveled with him on the ship to Europe in 1959 and on the buses to and from Mexico City in 1963; witnesses to the assassination; persons connected with organizations with which Oswald was in communication; persons connected with financial institutions, communication facilities and business concerns who were considered as possibly having information relating to Oswald and individuals who volunteered information concerning Oswald or persons or situations which they believed were connected with Oswald. In addition, investigation has included a detailed examination and analysis of Oswald's personal effects and correspondence, and analyses of Oswald's finances and connections with other persons and organizations.

Investigation has (1) developed detailed background information concerning Oswald from his birth to his death; (2)

strengthened the evidence that Oswald was the assassin of the President although no clear-cut motive has been established; and (3) despite numerous allegations which have been investigated, developed no sound evidence indicating that he received any financial assistance or that any other person, group, or foreign government inspired or directed the assassination or was cognizant of his plan to assassinate President Kennedy. On the contrary, the data developed strongly indicates that he acted on his own initiative or impulse with little advance planning. Also, investigation has disclosed no evidence that Oswald, while residing in Russia, was recruited by the Soviet intelligence services or received any assignment or training from the intelligence services. Further, investigation has developed no proof of any prior contact or association between Oswald and his murderer, Jack Leon Ruby.

During Mr. Belmont's appearance before the Commission on 5-6-64 he testified that the FBI had developed no information to indicate that Oswaldwas an agent of any other country or in any way connected or within the service of a foreign country, or that he was an agent of any agency of the U. S. Government. Mr. Belmont also testified that the FBI has no evidence which would support a conclusion or an opinion that the death of the President was the result of a conspiracy or anything other than the act of a single individual, Oswald. He also advised the Commission that the FBI did not come up with anything of a solid nature to indicate that there was any association between Oswald and Ruby; that we had numerous allegations which we ran out extensively and carefully but there is nothing, no information, that would stand up to show there was an association between them.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

The following information was made available by a confidential source abroad:

The records of the Chihuahuense Travel Agency and the Transportes del Norte bus line terminal at Mexico, D. F. ("D. F." refers to the Federal District of Mexico or the Federal Capital, also known as Mexico City), reflect that one H. O. LEE occupied seat No. 12 on the Transportes del Norte bus No. 332 which departed from Mexico City on October 2, 1963, with Monterrey and Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, as its destination. According to the source, ANASTASIO RUIZ MEZA, a resident of Mexico City, advised that he was a passenger on the above-mentioned bus and identified photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as having been a passenger thereon.

It also had been ascertained that OSWALD traveled from Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, to Mexico City on a bus of the Flecha Roja bus line on September 26-27, 1963, and during the trip had recommended to passengers on that bus that they seek hotel accommodations at the Hotel Cuba in Mexico City.

With respect to OSWALD's luggage, color photographs had been provided of an olive-colored "Bee-4" bag and a blue, canvas, zippered handbag which had been identified as the property of OSWALD.

TRANSPORTES DEL NORTE PASSENGERS

service from Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, to San Luis Potosi, State of San Luis Potosi, to make connections with Transportes del Norte for possible further travel to Monterrey and Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. According to this source, a reservations list for the October 2, 1963, 8:00 AM departure of the Blue Line bus from Guadalajara with San Luis Potosi as its destination reflects the following information as best the names and other data thereon could be deciphered:

Name of Passenger	Destination	Ticket No.
HILDA QUEZADA	N. Laredo	77898
----------	---------	99
(Lines indicate a second passenger or seat reserved in that name.)
JOSE CRUZ	Monterrey	00751
HILDA QUEZADA	N. Laredo	77900 1/2
(It was explained the "1/2" indicates half fare paid.)
CECILIO CARDENAZ	Monterrey	00749
JOSE MAZO	San Luis	14128
VICTORIA MAGALLANES	(Apparently did not travel.)
MAXIMINO ESQUIVEL	Monterrey	00752
PEDRO GLEZ. (GONZALEZ)	Monterrey	00753
AURELIO HDEZ. (HERNANDEZ)	San Luis	1362

Source advised that comprehensive investigation, including a check of the files of the United States Consulate visa records, checks of telephone directories, and numerous interviews of persons listed in the telephone directory with similar names, had been conducted at Guadalajara for the above names of persons traveling beyond San Luis Potosi without identifying anyone who had been a passenger of Transportes del Norte on October 2, 1963.

TRANSPORTES DEL NORTE BUS LINE OPERATIONS, MONTERREY

The following information was furnished by a third confidential source abroad:

On April 19, 1964, RAMON TREVINO QUEZADA, vice president and manager of the Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, terminal of the bus line, Transportes del Norte, advised that tickets are taken up by the driver from passengers at the time they board the bus, and he deposits them in a manila envelope, which is provided for that purpose in connection with each trip. He stated the driver makes a notation on the outside of the envelope as to the number of passengers traveling over a determined section of the route, and the tickets inside the envolope should coincide or balance with the notation by the driver on the envelope.

With respect to the records of the company for the trip of its bus No 373 on October 2, 1963, from Monterrey to Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, and Laredo, Texas, TREVINO advised that he was unable to explain the fact that the envelope carries the figure of "12" passengers from Monterrey to Nuevo Laredo and Laredo and "1" passenger from Nuevo Laredo to Laredo, although a total of "20" ticket sections were in the envelope for that particular trip. He stated, however, that the notation by the driver is a clerical function which he handles during the trip, often at night and under considerable stress and pressure, and he can only conclude that the driver made an error in writing "12" rather than "19" upon completing his collection of tickets and delivering the envelope at the conclusion of his run.

It was mentioned to Mr. TREVINO that the baggage manifest for the bus which arrived at Nuevo Laredo in the early morning of October 3, 1963, had listed the number of that bus as No. 396, and he advised that this notation could only be a clerical error by the baggage handler. He displayed a copy of a document referred to as a "Traffic Report" for Transportes del Norte at its Nuevo Laredo terminal for October 3, 1963, which recorded that bus No 373had arrived at that terminal at 1:35 AM with A. IBARRA as the driver. The "Traffic Report" for October 2, 1963, registered the arrival of bus No 396 at Nuevo Laredo as having taken place at 1530 (3:30 PM) on that date, and its departure from Nuevo Laredo for Monterrey was recorded on the report for the following day as having occurred at 2:30 AM. He pointed out that, on the basis of the foregoing records, bus No. 396 would still have been at the Nuevo Laredo terminal at the time of arrival on October 3, 1963, of bus No. 373, and he assumed that the baggage handler had become confused between them when he made the erroneous notation on the baggage manifest.

EFFORTS TO IDENTIFY BUS PASSENGER HILDA QUEZADA

It was pointed out to Mr. TREVINO that a HILDA QUEZADA and two accompanying persons, an adult and a child, were recorded as having traveled from Guadalajara, Jalisco, to San Luis Potosi, State of San Luis Potosi, in order to continue their travel on the October 2, 1963, Transportes del Norte bus to Nuevo Laredo. He stated that the name of HILDA QUEZADA is totally unknown to him.

It was determined on April 15, 1964, through a check at the Central Office, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Washington, D. C., that the master index contained a reference to one HILDA QUEZADA QUIROZ. These records disclosed that HILDA QUEZADA QUIROZ was born September 4, 1944, at Mexico, D. F., Mexico, and that she was admitted to the United States at Laredo on May 24, 1963, on a Class B-2 visa valid to June 15, 1963. She was the bearer of Mexican Passport No. 31067, and the visa was issued at Mexico City on May 15, 1963. Her permanent address was given as J. M. Correa No. 196, Mexico, D. F., Mexico, and her address in the United States was recorded as "San Antonio and Houston, Texas." The departure record reflects she departed from the United States at Laredo on May 30, 1963.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on April 30, 1964, that he had located HILDA QUEZADA QUIROZ at Calle Jose Maria Correa No. 196, Colonia Vista Alegre, Mexico, D. F., and QUEZADA advised that she did travel on a Transportes del Norte bus from San Luis Potosi, State of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, to Nuevo Laredo but in May, 1963. QUEZADA advised that she did not travel in October, 1963.

TICKETING PROCEDURES BY TRANSPORTES DEL NORTE BUS LINE

The following information was furnished by a fourth confidential source abroad:

On April 20, 1964, RAMON MEDINA BELTRAN, manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Transportes del Norte bus line, advised that this company is affiliated with the Greyhound Lines in the United States and is authorized and is in a position to sell transportation to any point in the United States. He stated that until approximately one year ago the sale of bus transportation in the United States in behalf of Greyhound Lines had been effected through a system of exchange or purchase orders; however, in the interests of simplifying the sales and accounting procedures, Transportes del Norte ticket counters are now stocked with Greyhound Lines tickets and make direct sales in behalf of Greyhound, as well as its own facilities. He stated very definitely that the only record as to the identity of any person purchasing Greyhound transportation through a Transportes del Norte ticket counter would be the recording of the seat reservation on a passenger list at the point of origin or purchase of the ticket.

TRANSPORTES DEL NORTE PREPARES NO PASSENGER LISTS AT SAN LUIS POTOSI AND MONTERREY

On April 9, 1964, RAMON MEDINA BELTRAN, manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Transportes del Norte bus line, advised that he had contacted the San Luis Potosi, State of San Luis Potosi, terminal of that company in an effort to obtain a list of passengers who had embarked on bus No. 332 of that company on the morning of October 2, 1963, with Monterrey and Nuevo Laredo as their destinations. He stated that he had been advised that no passenger reservations lists or manifests are prepared at that terminal because of the small number of persons who embark at that point.

On April 3, 1964, RAMON TREVINO QUEZADA, vice president of Transportes del Norte, Monterrey, advised the third source abroad that because of the fact that the company operates numerous schedules daily between Monterrey and Laredo, Texas, no effort is made to prepare reservations or passenger lists in connection therewith.

INTERVIEW OF AUGUSTO AGUILAR, PASSENGER ON TRANSPORTES DEL NORTE BUS NO. 332, OCTOBER 2, 1963

According to the first confidential source abroad, the passenger and reservations list for the Transportes del Norte bus No. 332, which departed from Mexico City for Nuevo Laredo on October 2, 1963, recorded that seat No. 11 had been utilized by AUGUSTO AGUILAR, whose final destination was listed as Houston (Texas). In this connection, passenger ANASTASIO RUIZ MEZA had recalled that seated in front of him on the bus was a person whom he believed to be Mexican and either a missionary or minister, as he was reading a Bible during parts of the trip. RUIZ MEZA believed that the destination of the above-described person was Houston, Texas.

The following information was provided by a fifth confidential source abroad:

Inquiry among various Protestant missionary and religious organizations at Mexico City developed data that the Bible Society of Mexico might have records relating to many of the Protestant missionaries and ministers in Mexico.

On April 29, 1964, JOSÉ HERNANDEZ J., an officer in the Methodist Church and affiliated with the Bible Society of Mexico, Mexico, D. F., reported that the records of that Society include the name of one AUGUSTO AGUILAR, Calle Juan Alvarez No. 44, Villahermosa, Tabasco. Through the cooperation of the Office of the Military Attache, United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., which was in communication with members of its staff who were traveling in Villahermosa, it was ascertained on May 4, 1964, that AUGUSTO AGUILAR of Villahermosa had traveled to the United States by bus in early October, 1963.

On May 6, 1964, Mrs. AUGUSTO AGUILAR, Calle 2 de

Abril No. 37 (April 2 Street No. 37), Villahermosa, State of Tabasco, Mexico, advised that her husband, AUGUSTO AGUILAR, who is an Evangelical minister, made a bus trip from Mexico City to the United States the latter part of 1963. She stated her husband was out of the city visiting his sister, Mrs. RITA MARIA AGUILAR DE FONZ, who lives at Calle 35 No. 76 (35th Street No. 76), Ciudad del Carmen, State of Campeche, Mexico, telephone No. 4-37.

She related that her husband is the minister of a church known as the "Templo Bethel, Iglesia Cristiana de las Asambleas de Dios" (Bethel Temple, Christian Church of the Assemblies of God) which is located at Juan Alvarez Street No. 44, in Villahermosa.

Mrs. AGUILAR made available her husband's Mexican Passport No. 21630, issued to JOSE AUGUSTO AGUILAR PINTO, and recorded therein was a United States nonimmigrant visa No. 115356, issued to AGUILAR on October 1, 1963, at the United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F.

A stamped notation of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service in this passport indicates AGUILAR was admitted to the United States at Laredo, Texas, on October 3, 1963.

On May 6, 1964, JOSE AUGUSTO AGUILAR PINTO was located at the residence of his sister at Calle 35 No. 76, Ciudad del Carmen, State of Campeche, Mexico, and advised that although JOSE AUGUSTO AGUILAR PINTO is his complete name, he is more commonly known as AUGUSTO AGUILAR. He furnished the following information:

He was a passenger on a Transportes del Norte bus which departed Mexico City at 8:30 AM on October 2, 1963, knowing the date to be October 2, 1963, inasmuch as his Mexican passport contains a date stamp that he was admitted to the United States at Laredo, Texas, on October 3, 1963, and he recalls that he boarded the bus in Mexico City on the previous day.

He was not certain of his seat number on the bus but occupied the seat which had been assigned to him. He said his seat was a window seat located on the right side of the bus and several rows from the front. (The passenger manifest for Transportes del Norte bus No. 332, which departed Mexico City at 8:30 AM, October 2, 1963, discloses space was assigned in seat No. 11 for AUGUSTO AGUILAR whose final destination is listed as Houston. Seat No. 11 is a window seat on the right side of the bus opposite the driver's side and two rows from the front.)

He believed there were perhaps ten or twelve other passengers who boarded the bus at Mexico City; however, he cannot recall the identities of these fellow passengers or any details which would aid in identifying them. He did not recall any Americans having boarded the bus.

He related that he had made a bus trip on a Transportes del Norte bus from Mexico City to Mazatlan, State of Sinaloa, Mexico, to attend a religious conclave in Mazatlan, a short time prior to the trip of October 2, 1963, and it is difficult for him to distinguish clearly in his mind the trip to Mazatlan from the trip of October 2, 1963.

When he boarded the Transportes del Norte bus at Mexico City on October 2, 1963, his final destination was Houston, Texas, and after arriving in Houston, he continued to the home of Reverend BILLY SANDERS of Humble, Texas, on whose invitation he had made the trip. While in the United States, he delivered several sermons in the Humble, Texas, area and at Houston and San Antonio, Texas. He was in the United States until about November 20, 1963, at which time he returned to Mexico. He was able to fix his departure from the United States for return to Mexico as November 20, 1963, by the fact that President KENNEDY had been assassinated on November 22, 1963, and he was in Veracruz, Mexico, when he first learned of the assassination, having left the United States about two days previously.

He does not recall exactly where the bus stopped before reaching Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, although he assumed the bus stopped at San Luis Potosi as one of the principal cities on the route.

He was not certain whether or not there was anyone seated by him on the bus nor could he furnish specific information concerning the passengers who had been seated in his immediate vicinity. He said the bus arrived in Monterrey around 11:00 PM, October 2, 1963, but considered this was only an estimate on his part, remembering it was late at night. He could not remember any details of a stop at Monterrey, changes of bus units, or other data related to that phase of his travel.

He remembered that just prior to arrival at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, the bus stopped and travel and identification documents of the passengers were inspected by Mexican Immigration officials. The interior lights of the bus were turned on and one or two Mexican Immigration officials boarded the bus at this stopping point. It was his impression that one of the officials was a stout individual, but he could remember no further descriptive data concerning this person.

At this Immigration check point, an American youth left the bus with the Mexican Immigration official or officials, and he believed that some question had arisen concerning the youth's documents. He said he considered this person to be an American from his general appearance. He estimated that this person was away from the bus for about ten minutes. He did not recall this person's making any remarks after reboarding the bus, or that other passengers left the bus at this point.

Upon viewing a chart of the seating arrangment of the Transportes del Norte bus No. 332, which departed Mexico City on October 2, 1963, it was AGUILAR's opinion that the American youth was seated in either seat No. 8 or 9 or seat No. 12 or 13. AGUILAR stated he vaguely recalls this person was seated to his left and slightly to his rear.

AGUILAR vaguely recalled that the American youth reboarded the bus at the Immigration check point and took a seat in the area of the seats numbered 8, 9, 12 or 13. He described this person, whose facial features he cannot clearly remember, as follows:

Age:	Under 30 years
Height:	5' 7" to 5' 8"

Weight:	121 to 132 pounds
Build:	Slender, thin
Hair:	Light brown
Complexion:	Light

He expressed his general impression that the American was dressed neatly in dark-colored clothing and believed he was wearing a dark suit coat. He did not recall further details regarding the youth's clothing or his luggage.

AGUILAR viewed several photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and could not recognize the photographs as being identical with any of the passengers on the bus or the American youth. He agreed that the American youth could be identical with OSWALD, but affirmed that he could not be certain.

AGUILAR viewed the photograph of JUAN MATEO DE CUBA as it appears on Mexican Government tourist form FM-5 No. 3625296, and of his wife, ADA FRANCISCA BISLIP DE DE CUBA, as it appears on Mexican Government tourist form FM-5 No. 3625295. He also was shown a photograph of PHILLIPE PITER E. VAN DER VORM as it appears on Mexican Government tourist form FM-8 No. 624820. AGUILAR could not recognize the photographs of Mr. and Mrs. DE CUBA and VAN DER VORM as being identical with any of the passengers on the bus.

He could not recall whether the bus from Monterrey to Laredo stopped in Nuevo Laredo but does remember arriving at the offices of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service and United States Customs near the International Bridge in Laredo.

He recalled that upon arriving in Laredo, the passengers disembarked, obtained their luggage, and walked up a ramp into a large office containing a large counter, where the luggage of the passengers was then examined by United States officials whom he assumed to be United States Customs agents. He recalled going into another large office where the passengers' travel documents were checked by United States authorities.

He does not recall details of contact between the various passengers and United States officials but believed that the American youth who left the bus earlier during the Mexican Immigration check had some discussion with a United States Immigration official during the examination of travel documents; however, he could not furnish further details concerning the discussion.

AGUILAR advised he was not vaccinated upon arrival in Laredo. He estimated that United States Immigration and Customs check lasted about forty minutes and when it was completed, the passengers again boarded the bus.

He could not remember whether he boarded another bus at the bus terminal in Laredo or San Antonio, Texas. He stated that either at Laredo or San Antonio he boarded an "American" bus but could not recall the bus company or any details regarding the number or other passengers on the bus. From San Antonio, he continued his journey to Houston.

The following is a physical description of AGUILAR as obtained from data appearing on his Mexican passport and through observation:

Name:	JOSE AUGUSTO AGUILAR PINTO, also known as AUGUSTO AGUILAR.
Date of Birth:	June 17, 1922
Place of Birth:	Ciudad del Carmen, State of Campeche, Mexico.
Height:	5' 8" to 5' 9"
Weight:	Approximately 185 pounds.
Build:	Stocky
Hair:	Black on the sides; top portion of head completely bald.
Eyes:	Brown
Complexion:	Medium
Occupation:	Evangelical minister
Residence:	Calle 2 de Abril No. 37, Villahermosa, State of Tabasco, Mexico.
Marital Status:	Married

OSWALD'S LUGGAGE

The following information was furnished by the fourth source abroad:

On April 4, 1964, JUAN PEREZ GONZALEZ advised that he is the chief of the baggage department at the terminal of the Flecha Roja bus line, Calle Heroes Ferrocarrileros No. 45, Mexico, D. F. PEREZ viewed photographs of an olive-colored, "B-4" bag with yellow chalk or crayon markings on one side which appeared to be "9/26" and possibly an initial, of fragments of stickers and tags thereon, and of a blue, zippered handbag and affirmed that he has no recollection of those pieces of luggage and did not recognize any of the markings, stickers or tags as being in any way connected with the Flecha Roja operations. He stated, however, that he recently entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo with a small, zippered handbag of canvas material; and when he went through Mexican Customs, the Inspector placed a green chalk or crayon marking on the bag to indicate it had been inspected.

PEREZ displayed the various photographs to the baggage handlers on duty at the terminal, and they stated they were unable to recall the luggage in question or make any explanation of the tags, stickers and inscriptions on them.

On May 8, 1964, the manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Transportes del Norte bus line, Insurgentes Sur No. 137, viewed the photographs mentioned above and advised that he did not have any recollection with respect to the two pieces of luggage described above nor did he believe that any of the fragments of stickers and tags thereon were connected in any way with the Transportes del Norte baggage handling procedures. He expressed the belief that the yellow chalk markings on the olive-colored bag were typical of the method used by Mexican Customs Inspectors at Nuevo Laredo to mark luggage upon completing examination thereof in lieu of a sticker which they sometimes use.

The manager, RICARDO MEDINA BELTRAN, displayed the photographs to the baggage handlers on duty and they affirmed that they were unable to recognize either piece of luggage in connection with any passenger but stated unanimously that they recognized the crayon or chalk markings on the olive bag as typical of the inspection procedure of Mexican Customs at Nuevo Laredo. MEDINA also displayed the photographs to several Transportes del Norte drivers, and they were of the opinion that the yellow inscriptions on the olive bag had been placed there by the Mexican Customs Inspector at Nuevo Laredo.

On May 4, 1964, SEBASTIAN PEREZ HERNANDEZ, assistant desk clerk at the Hotel del Comercio, Calle Bernardino de Sahagun No. 19, Mexico City, advised that he could not recognize the photographs of either the olive or the blue-colored luggage as having been in the possession of a guest at that hotel.

On May 8, 1964, GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA, owner of the Hotel del Comercio, affirmed that he was unable to recognize the photographs of the two bags as having any connection with OSWALD or any other guest at the Hotel del Comercio.

MATILDE GARNICA, maid at the Hotel del Comercio, who claimed to remember OSWALD as a guest at the hotel in room No. 18, examined photographs of the luggage on May 8, 1964, and stated she recognized the small, blue, zippered handbag as the luggage which OSWALD had in his room at the hotel. She pointed out that she had been impressed by the fact that he had very few personal effects, had noticed he did some laundry each day and left the wet articles hanging in the bathroom, and she was quite certain she had not seen the larger, olive-colored bag.

On May 9, 1964, PEDRO RODRIGUEZ LEDESMA, night watchman at the Hotel del Comercio, examined the photographs referred to above and stated he was quite certain OSWALD had been carrying the blue handbag on the morning of his departure from the hotel. He claimed to be unable to definitely affirm that OSWALD had been carrying the olive bag, as he could not remember several of its characteristics, but he expressed the firm conviction that OSWALD had been carrying two pieces of luggage. He related that on the morning of his departure OSWALD carried his own luggage down the two flights of stairs and waited in the reception area while RODRIGUEZ went in search of a taxi.

When RODRIGUEZ returned with the taxi, he carried the luggage from the reception area to the taxicab, and still has the strong impression that he had a bag in each hand. RODRIGUEZ admitted that his recollection of the type and color of the luggage is very hazy, and he does not wish to state definitely that he recognizes the photograph of either piece of luggage in connection with OSWALD.

INQUIRIES AT HOTEL CUBA

PATRICIA WINSTON and PAMELA MUMFORD, who were passengers on the same bus with OSWALD from Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, to Mexico, D. F., September 26-27, 1963, when interviewed December 17, 1963, related that during the bus trip OSWALD recommended that they stay at the Hotel Cuba in Mexico City. They related that OSWALD claimed he had stayed at that hotel several times before and pointed out that the hotel was inexpensive, mentioning, however, that he was not staying at the Hotel Cuba during his current trip.

Inquiry was conducted to establish whether OSWALD had, in fact, stayed at the Hotel Cuba during a period following his return to the United States from Russia in June, 1962, to November, 1963.

On December 27, 1963, a second confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that an exhaustive search of the records of the Hotel Cuba located at Calle Republica de Cuba No. 69, Mexico City, for the period June, 1962, to October, 1963, failed to disclose any registration for OSWALD under his name or known aliases.

A seventh confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On March 11, 1964, ANGEL CELORIO, manager, Hotel Cuba, made available records of the hotel, which were rechecked for the period June 9, 1962, to November 22, 1963, and no record could be located for the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his known aliases, O. H. LEE and ALEK JAMES HIDELL. The records did contain a registration for one ROBERTO LEE, who registered at the hotel on August 11, 1963, was assigned room No. 27, and checked out of the hotel on August 21, 1963. No further identifying data regarding this LEE was contained in the records. (OSWALD had been reported as being at New Orleans, Louisiana, during that period.)

CELORIO advised he has been at the Hotel Cuba only since November 11, 1963, when he became manager, and, prior thereto, JOSE SANCHEZ, who is presently associated with another hotel in Mexico City, served as manager for about a four-month period and Mr. RAFAEL AVALOS, also now employed at another hotel in Mexico City, had served as manager for a number of years.

On March 12, 1964, both RAFAEL AVALOS, manager, Hotel Congreso, Calle de Allende No. 18, Mexico, D. F., and JOSE SANCHEZ, manager, Hotel Catedral, Calle Donceles No. 95, Mexico, D. F., viewed a photograph of OSWALD, and both advised they could not recognize the photograph as being of anyone who stayed at the Hotel Cuba during the time they were managing the hotel. Both were of the opinion that, if OSWALD had stayed at the Hotel Cuba during the time they were in charge there, they would have recalled him. Neither could furnish any further pertinent information regarding the possibility OSWALD may have stayed at the Hotel Cuba in the past.

AVALOS related he had served as manager at the Hotel Cuba for a number of years until July, 1962, and SANCHEZ stated he had managed the Hotel Cuba from June 1, 1963, to November 11, 1963. SANCHEZ stated that during the period July, 1962, to June 1, 1963, when he became manager, the administration of the hotel had been disorganized and there was no permanent manager. He stated that JESUS HERNANDEZ SANCHEZ and his brother, HIGINIO HERNANDEZ SANCHEZ, both of whom he believed were still employed at the Hotel Cuba, would most logically be the persons in the best position to know whether or not OSWALD stayed at the Hotel Cuba during the period July, 1962, to June 1, 1963.

JESUS HERNANDEZ SANCHEZ, room clerk, Hotel Cuba, advised on March 13, 1964, that he has been employed as room clerk at that hotel for several years. He stated that during the period from July, 1962, to June 1, 1963, when the hotel had no permanent manager, he and his brother, HIGINIO HERNANDEZ SANCHEZ, performed the administrative functions at the hotel and had most contact with the guests.

HERNANDEZ viewed a photograph of OSWALD and stated he could not recall ever seeing him. He further stated he could not recognize the photograph as being of any person who had been at the Hotel Cuba during the time he has been employed there. He advised that several months ago he and his brother, HIGINIO, had been shown a photograph of OSWALD by a local police official, and at that time both he and his brother were unable to recognize the photograph of OSWALD as being of any person who had stayed at the hotel during the period they had been working there. He added that, following the publicity arising from the assassination of President KENNEDY, seeing OSWALD's photograph in the newspapers, and after viewing a photograph of OSWALD exhibited by the police official mentioned above, he and his brother had discussed the matter and had agreed they could not recall OSWALD's ever having stayed at the Hotel Cuba.

MISCELLANEOUS DATA RELATING TO OSWALD

On April 4, 1964, the following information was provided by the fourth source abroad:

WILLIAM D. SHANAHAN, Editor of the Mexico City daily English-language newspaper, "The News," related that on April 13, 1964, DANIEL NAVA RAMOS, reporter for the Mexico City daily, "Novedades," had attempted to contact SILVIA DURAN and her husband, HORACIO DURAN, at their residence in an effort to obtain human interest material for a newspaper article he was writing with respect to the OSWALD case. NAVA had experienced considerable difficulty in seeing the DURANS and was allowed to enter their apartment with the understanding that he remain no longer than fifteen minutes. He was not permitted to speak directly to SILVIA DURAN and was advised by her husband that she had suffered a nervous breakdown following her interrogation by Mexican authorities and had been prohibited by her physician and DURAN, himself, from discussing the OSWALD matter further.

BASIS FOR INQUIRY;
INTERVIEW OF MANUEL VICENTE
PORRAS RIVERA

Information from the first confidential source reflects that LEE HARVEY OSWALD departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, and among the names of other persons who departed on the same date was that of MANUEL VICENTE PORRAS RIVERA. Mexican Immigration records reflect that on September 13, 1963, Mexican tourist card FM-5 No. 4377279 was issued to MANUEL VICENTE PORRAS RIVERA by the Mexican Embassy at San Jose, Costa Rica, and he entered Mexico at the International Airport at Merida, Yucatan, on September 26, 1963, stating that his destination in Mexico was Monterrey, Nuevo Leon.

His Costa Rican Passport was No. 6093-63 and included therein a Mexican Visa No. 1147, which he utilized when he departed from Mexico on October 3, 1963, at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas. Mexican Immigration records reflect no mode of travel, and his final destination was listed as Costa Rica, his departure from Mexico being handled by Mexican Immigration Service employee JESUS GOVEA HERRERA.

Inquiry at San Jose, Costa Rica to locate MANUEL VICENTE PORRAS RIVERA

An eighth confidential source abroad furnished the following information:

HARRY KUSHNER, Consul at the United States Embassy, San Jose, Costa Rica, advised that records of the Embassy reflect that MANUEL V. PORRAS RIVERA was issued a B-2 (visitor's) visa on September 13, 1963, valid for multiple entries to the United States until September 13, 1967; that he was in possession of Costa Rican Passport No. 6093-63; and that he was born on March 21, 1937, at San Jose, Costa Rica. PORRAS RIVERA was described as male, white, 5' 7" (tall), brown eyes, brown hair, single, and a Costa Rican citizen. His address was listed as "500 yards south of El Oriente Grocery Store in Escazu, Costa Rica." He had requested the visa for the purpose of visiting Miami for fifteen days as a tourist and indicated that he expected to depart on September 15, 1963.

Captain GONZALO ARAYA, Second in Command of the Security Agency at San Jose, Costa Rica, advised that PORRAS RIVERA is a Costa Rican citizen, the bearer of Costa Rican Identification Document No. 1-254-529, and was born March 21, 1937, son of VICENTE PORRAS and RUTH RIVERA.

ARAYA advised that about six months earlier PORRAS RIVERA had contacted him and stated that he was trying to go to Cuba. He inquired as to whether or not ARAYA was interested in his making the trip, as he proposed to provide information which he might obtain in Cuba.

ARAYA advised that the parents of PORRAS RIVERA own a bakery in Escazu, a small town located outside of San Jose. He considered PORRAS RIVERA to be a "vagabond," and he did not encourage him to make the trip to Cuba, and was not informed as to whether or not he had attempted to travel to Cuba.

GERMINAL MONGE LAZCARES, Section Chief of the Costa Rican Immigration Department at San Jose, advised that the Immigration records reflect that MANUEL V. PORRAS RIVERA left Costa Rica on September 15, 1963, for the United States and returned to Costa Rica on October 11, 1963.

Interview of MANUEL VICENTE PORRAS RIVERA

On March 3, 1964, MANUEL VICENTE PORRAS RIVERA was interviewed and advised as follows:

His father owns the Porras Bakery in Escazu, Costa Rica, and he is in charge of the bakery during the night shift. The communist situation in Cuba has worried him, and he decided he would attempt to make a trip to Cuba in order to ascertain the true conditions in Cuba and make this information available to authorities in Costa Rica.

In furtherance of this idea, he left San Jose in mid-September, 1963, for Miami, Florida. In Miami, he contacted an anti-CASTRO Cuban, volunteered his services, and was placed in contact with other persons who advised him they did not believe he could be of any service to them; thereafter, he left Miami for Merida, Yucatan, Mexico, where he contacted the Cuban Consul on several occasions and tried to obtain a visa to Cuba. When the Cuban Consul in Merida denied his visa application, he traveled to Mexico City where he stayed at a small hotel, name not recalled, which is located about three or four blocks from the Palace of Fine Arts.

On a Saturday, the exact date of which he could not recall but believed to be September 28, 1963, he called at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City where he was stopped by a guard outside the building and was told that the Cuban Embassy was not open. He was instructed to return the following Monday but he did not try to contact the Cuban Embassy again.

Several days later, he left Mexico City at about 8:00 or 9:00 PM by bus for Nuevo Laredo. He recalled arriving at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, where he changed buses for Nuevo Laredo. He entered the United States at Laredo, Texas, but was unable to recall the exact time he arrived in the United States, believing, however, that it was about 3:00 or 4:00 PM on the day following his departure from Mexico City. On the same afternoon, he boarded a Greyhound bus at Laredo for Dallas, Texas, where he spent several days before traveling to New Orleans, Louisiana, where he remained four or five days and from where he returned to San Jose, Costa Rica.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was exhibited to him and he was positive that he had not seen OSWALD at any time while at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City or en route to the United States by bus through Nuevo Laredo.

INQUIRIES TO LOCATE EDWARD BASTIEN AT GUATEMALA CITY

The first confidential source abroad advised that, according to the files of the Mexican Immigration Service, EDUARD BASTIEN was issued Mexican tourist card FM-8 No. 36257 by the Mexican Consulate General, Guatemala City, Guatemala, on October 1, 1963, and his name was among those who departed from Mexico on October 3, 1963, at Nuevo Laredo. His entry to Mexico occurred on October 1, 1963, at the Central Airport, Mexico, D. F. He was described as a male, American citizen, 56 years of age, a priest, single, and the bearer of "Identification Card" No. 470 as proof of citizenship. His departure was listed as by automobile and his final destination as Guatemala, Guatemala. His departure from Mexico was handled by Mexican Immigration Service employee TEOFILO SOTO ESCOBEDO.

The eighth confidential source abroad advised that extensive efforts were made at Guatemala City, Guatemala, to locate EDUARD BASTIEN, who also is known as EDWARD BASTIEN, with negative results. Source advised that it was determined that BASTIEN, who was from Elgin, Texas, had stayed at the Plaza Motel in Guatemala City, Guatemala, on the nights of September 27 and 29, 1963, but had not been registered for the night of September 28, 1963. He again was at the motel on October 1, 1963, and advised he was departing from Guatemala City, Guatemala, by airplane, destination not known.

INTERVIEW OF ROBERTO GONZALO RODRIGUEZ ESPINOSA AT TIBAS, COSTA RICA

The first confidential source abroad advised that the records of the Mexican Immigration Service reflect that ROBERTO GONZALO RODRIGUEZ ESPINOSA was issued Mexican tourist card FM-8 No. 133156 by the Mexican Consulate at Laredo, Texas, on September 26, 1963, and was listed as having entered Mexico on the same date. His final destination at the time of entry was given as Mexico, D. F., but the mode of travel was not indicated. He was described as a male, Costa Rican, 25 years of age, and bearer of Costa Rican Passport No. 6057-63, as proof of his nationality. His entry was handled by Mexican Immigration Service employee RAUL LUEVANO TRUJILLO.

The source also advised that JORGE ANTONIO RODRIGUEZ ESPINOSA was issued Mexican tourist card FM-8 No. 133157 by the Mexican Consulate at Laredo, Texas, on September 26, 1963. His destination at the time of entry to Mexico was listed as Mexico, D. F., but mode of travel was not indicated. He was described as male, Costa Rican, 21 years of age, single, and bearer of Costa Rican Passport No. 6075-63 as proof of nationality. His entry to Mexico was handled by Mexican Immigration Service employee RAUL LUEVANO TRUJILLO.

The eighth source abroad advised as follows:

On April 6, 1964, ROBERTO GONZALO RODRIGUEZ ESPINOSA, who resides near the Police Headquarters, Tibas, Costa Rica, advised that he and his brother, JORGE ANTONIO RODRIGUEZ ESPINOSA, had entered the United States on September 17, 1963. He determined from his passport that they had left the United States on September 26, 1963, to Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas. He recalled that they had crossed the border at about 12:00 noon, driving an automobile which they had purchased in the United States. He recalled that they had spent the night of September 25, 1963, in a small town between San Antonio and Laredo, Texas, arrived at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, at about 4:00 PM, September 26, 1963, and spent that night at San Luis Potosi, State of San Luis Potosi, Mexico.

Photographs of OSWALD were displayed to RODRIGUEZ and he stated positively that he had never seen OSWALD. He stated that his brother was with him during the entire day of September 26, 1963, and he was certain that his brother would not be able to furnish information regarding OSWALD.

INTERVIEWS OF OTHER PERSONS AT SAN SALVADOR, EL SALVADOR, CENTRAL AMERICA

The first confidential source abroad advised that the records of Mexican Immigration reflect that the following six individuals entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, the date LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo:

OSCAR ENRIQUE GALLARDO, who was issued Mexican Immigration tourist card FM-5 No. 4363772 on September 9 (possibly 19), 1963, by the Mexican Consulate General at New Orleans, Louisiana, entered Mexico by autobus with his destination listed as Mexico, D. F. Mexican Immigration records reflected a notation that his departure from the Republic of Mexico would be at Ciudad Cuauhtemoc or Tapachula, Chiapas. He was described as a male, Guatemalan citizen, 44 years of age, married, born in Guatemala City, Guatemala, and his residence was listed as Pasaje Espinola 317, San Salvador, El Salvador. He presented Guatemalan Passport No. 20926, bearing Visa No. 306, issued at the Mexican Consulate in San Antonio, Texas, on July 12, 1963, as proof of nationality. His entry into Mexico was handled by Mexican Immigration Service employee RAUL LUEVANO TRUJILLO.

ANIBAL PLEITEZ obtained Mexican Immigration tourist card FM-5 No. 4363773 on September 9 (possibly 19), 1963, at the Mexican Consulate General at New Orleans, Louisiana, and entered Mexico by autobus en route to Mexico, D. Her entry to Mexico was handled by Mexican Immigration employee HECTOR RAGA LOPEZ.

The eighth confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On April 10, 1964, at the El Salvador Travel Service, Edificio Palomo, San Salvador, El Salvador, OSCAR ENRIQUE GALLARDO advised that he is a representative of this travel agency and a Guatemalan citizen, although he has resided in San Salvador for several years. He recalled making a trip to the United States in September, 1963, to bring back three buses to San Salvador for the "Quinones Hermanos" (Quinones Brothers), also referred to by him as the International Harvester Company, as the latter is the company which Quinones Brothers represent in El Salvador. He advised that he had arranged for the services of ANIBAL and JOSE HUMBERTO PLEITEZ to assist in driving the buses supplied by the Superior Coach Corporation of Kosciusko, Mississippi, to El Salvador. He was unable to recall the exact date that they had crossed the United States-Mexican border but stated that September 26, 1963, appeared to be the correct date. He advised that they drove in convoy, crossing the border at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, between 9:00 and 10:00 AM. He related that they were prohibited from carrying passengers and did not have any passengers during the trip. He recalled that the three of them spent their first night in Mexico at Matehuala, San Luis Potosi.

Photographs of OSWALD were exhibited to him, and he expressed his certainty that he had never seen him. He advised that ANIBAL and JOSE HUMBERTO PLEITEZ were with him during the entire trip, and he was positive that they would not have seen OSWALD.

He stated that JOSE HUMBERTO PLEITEZ is employed as chief mechanic at the Cotton Cooperative in San Salvador and is not related to ANIBAL PLEITEZ, who is employed as a truck driver by the Triunfo Sawmill, San Salvador.

On April 10, 1964, JOSE BENITO ESCOBAR, 11° Avenida Sur No. 424 (Eleventh Avenue South No. 424), San Salvador, El Salvador, advised that together with his wife, OLIMPIA, and daughter, REINA, he had visited his daughter-in-law, OFELIA BARRERA DE ESCOBAR, in Monterrey, Mexico, in September, 1963. While he did not recall the exact date, he related that in late September, 1963, they traveled from Monterrey to Laredo, Texas, arriving in the latter city about 9:00 AM. They spent the entire day shopping in Laredo and departed from Laredo about 8:00 PM, traveling from Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, to Monterrey on a bus of the Transportes del Norte line, arriving in Monterrey at about 12:00 midnight.

Photographs of OSWALD were displayed to ESCOBAR and to his wife, OLIMPIA, and both stated they felt quite certain they had not seen the individual pictured therein. These photographs also were displayed to OFELIA BARRERA DE ESCOBAR, who formerly resided in Monterrey and who made the trip described above with the ESCOBARS. She stated that she was unable to recognize the person in the photographs as anyone she had ever seen. The persons interviewed stated that NELSON ULISES ESCOBAR, who is attending the agricultural school at Saltillo, Coahuila, Mexico, made the trip with them.

The date of the visit of DEWEY BRADFORD, his wife, and H. V. WHITSON to Morgan's Gun Shop was the day before the Texas-SMU football game played on 11/2/63 (this would be 11/1/63).

At the time DEWEY BRADFORD furnished the information contained in this FD-302 to SA JAMES C. KENNEDY of the Austin RA, BRADFORD stated that he had not associated the incident of the person purchasing rifle ammunition as possibly being OSWALD until he and his wife visited WHITSON in Fort Worth, Texas, during the latter part of March, 1964. During this visit, WHITSON recalled the incident to the BRADFORDs and, on being reminded of the incident, BRADFORD stated that they all re-examined the photographs of OSWALD which had previously appeared in Life magazine and, after this examination, they all agreed that the person which they observed in Morgan's Gun Shop in their opinion was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BRADFORD stated that he waited until he returned to Austin and located the circular from Morgan's Gun Shop and obtained the address of this gun shop and then reported the incident to the FBI in Austin.

Explanations and recommendations requested by the Bureau in this matter are being set forth under separate cover.

Synopsis:

Investigation Greyhound Bus Station, U. S. Agencies, International Bridge, Laredo, Texas, as well as at Transportes del Norte, Nuevo Laredo, Texas, concerning 10/3/63 travel of OSWALD negative. Explanation of Flecha Roja Bus Line baggage guide list set out. Interviews with some persons who departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on 10/3/63 negative regarding OSWALD. Interviews with some persons who rode Greyhound Bus early a.m., on 10/3/63 for portions of trip between San Antonio, Texas. and Dallas, Texas, negative regarding OSWALD. DEWEY C. BRADFORD, Austin, Texas, observed an individual in Morgan's Gun Shop, Fort Worth, Texas, on the day before Texas-SMU football game played in Dallas, Texas, on 11/2/63, which individual was considered by BRADFORD to be rude and impertinent. This individual, who told BRADFORD he had been in Marine Corps, purchased rifle ammunition. BRADFORD could not recall caliber requested. At that time BRADFORD was with his wife and brother-in-law, H. V. WHITSON; when photographs of OSWALD were published in Life magazine all three agreed individual in Morgan's Gun Shop was OSWALD. WHITSON informed BRADFORD he knew this individual who had hung out at WHITSON's used car lot. Efforts to determine if OSWALD rented safety deposit box, Laredo, Texas, negative.

E. R. TEINERT, Bus Agent, Greyhound Bus Terminal, 275 South Seguin Street, advised he is on duty in his office from 6:00 a.m. until 10:30 p.m. seven days each week. Mr. TEINERT stated that he has no record in his office to show the number of passengers discharged from the Greyhound Bus which arrived at his terminal at 7:53 a.m. on October 3, 1963, nor does he have any record to indicate how many passengers departed when this bus left the New Braunfels terminal. He stated he does not know the names of all the commuters between New Braunfels and Austin, but did mention that Mrs. ROGER DOLTON, Mr. ADOLPH STRATEMANN, and Miss WEIDNER did commute between New Braunfels and Austin almost daily in the fall of 1963.

After viewing the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he stated he does not recall ever seeing this individual and had no information that OSWALD was ever at the New Braunfels Greyhound Bus Terminal nor did he ever see him on any bus.

Date April 15, 1964

DEWEY C. BRADFORD, 2500 Stratford Drive, Austin, Texas, stated he was in Fort Worth, Texas, the day before the Texas-SMU football game played in Dallas, Texas, on November 2, 1963.

On Friday before this game, in response to a circular put out by Morgan's Gun Shop, 1401 Jacksboro Highway, Fort Worth, Texas, telephone LA 6-6572, at approximately 3:30 p.m., BRADFORD, together with his wife and his wife's brother, H. V. WHITSON, residence address 5017 El Campo Street, Fort Worth, Texas, went to this gun shop in order that BRADFORD might examine older guns and look over the merchandise which MORGAN had on display. BRADFORD stated at the time he was the owner of a store known as "Country Store" in Austin, Texas, and he was in search of merchandise suitable for display and sale at this place.

BRADFORD stated they had been in this store approximately twenty minutes when a bareheaded individual whom BRADFORD considered rude and impertinent, walked into the store, stepped in front of BRADFORD, and even picked up two or three of the guns which BRADFORD was examining at that time.

This individual then asked the store owner, MORGAN, (the only individual in the store making sales at that time) for rifle ammunition. BRADFORD could not recall the caliber requested by this person. MORGAN answered that he did not believe that he had that particular caliber and asked this individual if he had his gun. MORGAN was advised that he did have his gun but, on being requested to get it, this young man refused to get the gun and again repeated the caliber of the rifle to MORGAN.

MORGAN then examined the rifle ammunition in his store and informed this individual that he did not have a complete box of the desired ammunition, whereupon MORGAN was requested to give him all that he did have in that particular ammunition. BRADFORD recalled that he believed there were approximately fifteen or twenty rifle shells which MORGAN sold to this individual who paid for them in cash, put them in his pocket, and walked out.

BRADFORD said that this individual was alone on entering the store, that he did not see any automobile, but did recall this individual telling BRADFORD that he had been in the Marine Corps and BRADFORD told him that he also had been in the Marine Corps at one time.

BRADFORD recalled that this individual had moved with a military bearing, seemed particularly alert, and the thing that first caused him to notice him was his repugnant and obnoxious attitude.

BRADFORD stated that he did not think anything about this incident until the subsequent photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were published in Life Magazine.

BRADFORD stated that after these photographs came out, he discussed the photographs with his brother-in-law, H. V. WHITSON, as well as with his wife, and they all three agreed that the individual who had been in Morgan's Gun Shop on the day before the Texas-SMU game was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BRADFORD further stated that his brother-in-law, H. V. WHITSON, owned and operated a used car lot in Fort Worth, Texas, and had informed BRADFORD that he knew this individual who had on occasions hung out at WHITSON's used car lot.

of a searching interview with ROBERT KAYE it was determined that he is at times vague beyond belief, and when pressed to be more specific he becomes obviously annoyed and arrogant. He is a man of under average stature; gives all the appearances of having an inferiority complex, and strives vainly to make up for his insufficiencies by an overactive imagination.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY -- R

Synopsis:

ROBERT J. KAYE reinterviewed at Tucson, Arizona on 1/30/64. Advised that when he observed picture of OSWALD on TV he was of the opinion that OSWALD was identical with LEE (LNU), but that he is not now certain of this identification and could well have been mistaken. KAYE advised that he appeared on radio and TV in Denver, Colorado, and was interviewed concerning his experiences during the war. KAYE claims he entered U. S. at Portland, Maine, and that he always thought he was a citizen of the United States, being under the impression that he had been naturalized at Portland, Maine. He was unable to produce any evidence of naturalization. KAYE advised that he was unable to recall what disposition he had made of the map and calendar and was still of the opinion that he had given these items to the Secret Service agent in El Paso. When questioned as to the veracity of his story, KAYE admitted that he may have been mistaken but denied that he was lying. Inspector GLENN CHOATE, INS, Tucson, Arizona, advised that the story told by KAYE would indicate that KAYE is not a naturalized citizen of the United States. CHOATE advised that he would send for KAYE's file and review it before taking any action. On 3/26/64, KAYE, upon reinterview, furnished additional information concerning his entry into the U.S. at Portland, Maine, in November, 1945, the places where he has resided in the United States and his travels about Europe and Africa during World War II.

PX 105-1529

On February 10, 1964, the facts in instant case concerning the naturalization of KAYE were discussed with GLENN CHOATE, Agent in Charge, U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (USINS), Tucson, Arizona. CHOATE advised that the story told by KAYE would indicate that KAYE is not a naturalized citizen of the United States. CHOATE stated that he would send for KAYE's file and intended to review it before taking any action.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 2/3/64

ROBERT J. KAYE was interviewed at the office of the Tucson Resident Agency. He was advised that he had the right to consult an attorney, that he did not have to make any statement unless he desired to do so and that anything he said could be used against him in a court of law.

KAYE advised that he is still residing in Apartment 9, 2116 East 17th Street, Tucson, Arizona, and that his telephone number is 624-2102. He is still employed as a vending machine service mechanic by Falcon Automatic, Inc., 727 South Campbell Avenue, Tucson, Arizona.

KAYE insists that he met the man known to him only as LEE (LNU) at Denver, Colorado. When he saw the picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on TV, he was of the opinion that OSWALD was identical with LEE (LNU). He now admits that he is not certain of this identification and that he very well could have been mistaken. KAYE was still unable to furnish the exact date of his meeting with LEE (LNU) at Denver, Colorado.

When questioned as to the identity or description of the man whom he was to meet in Mexico City, KAYE could not recall any details other than that LEE (LNU) told him that the man he was to meet had black hair, and a mustache, and would be wearing a trench coat and dark glasses. He denied that he had ever told the Secret Service Agent in El Paso that the man's name was "Francis," that he was six feet, four inches tall, skinny and had a long nose. He was unable to explain why he had furnished no description of this man at the time of his previous interview at Tucson, Arizona.

KAYE stated that he had forgotten to mention that he had appeared on TV and radio while in Denver, Colorado. He advised that these appearances were based on his experiences during the war. A few years ago, about the year 1960 or 1961, he had been interviewed on the "STARIY (Phonetic) ALLEN" show on Channel Seven in Denver, Colorado. Around the same time he was interviewed on two occasions on the LEE BURMAN show on Channel Two, also Denver, Colorado. KAYE also stated that about the same time he was interviewed by a BILL BARKER on NBC radio in Denver, Colorado. KAYE was unable to be more specific regarding these appearances.

On 1/30/64 at Tucson, Arizona File # PX 105-1539

by SAs HENRY J. BOEGER and GERALD J. FLYNN/mcl/ebt Date dictated 1/30/64

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

KAYE advised that he had been with the U. S. Army in Europe and later with a tank battalion in Africa. He advised that he knew HOWELL, the German Commander, very well and that because of this he was sent behind the German lines to determine when the Germans intended to attack. He advised that he obtained this information and that he sent it back to the Americans even though he was shot while doing so. He claimed to have been shot nine times during the war.

KAYE denied that he had been born in Russia and insisted that he was born in Poland. He advised that he was in England prior to being admitted to the United States through the intercession of President TRUMAN. He finally entered the United States at Portland, Maine. While in England, he claimed that the Russian officers attempted to persuade him to return to Russia and on one occasion, promised him a motor bike. He claimed that the American soldiers hid him from the Russians whenever they would come around looking for him. When he arrived in the United States he lived with Sergeant [redacted] at 4021 or 2146 Gray or Grace Street, Chicago, Illinois. KAYE advised that he had used the name [redacted] when he had entered the United States.

KAYE lived with [redacted] for about a year and then was placed in a home for orphans in the Chicago area. He claimed to have been in the Illinois Research Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, for about a year, during the year 1946 or 1947, where he received treatment for wounds suffered during the war. He denied any history of mental instability or ever having been hospitalized in a mental institution.

KAYE claimed to be a citizen of the United States but was unable to furnish any details as to the date or place of naturalization. He stated that he thought he had been naturalized in Portland, Maine, when he entered the United States, but was unable to produce any evidence of this fact. He finally made the statement that he never failed to fill out a card and leave it at the U. S. Post Office every year. When advised that this would indicate that he was not a citizen, he offered no explanation other than to say that he thought he was a citizen.

KAYE repeated that LEE (LNU) had stated at the time of their first meeting that he had recognized KAYE from having seen him on TV in Denver, Colorado. KAYE advised that he thought nothing of this statement since he had become quite famous as a result of his exploits during the war.

When told that the Secret Service Agent in El Paso, Texas, had stated that KAYE had not given him a map and a calendar, KAYE said, "I was sure that I had given them to him." He could offer no other explanation as to the disposition of the alleged map and calendar.

When it was suggested that his story was not true, KAYE became obviously upset and entered into a long discourse about his loyalty to the United States and the many services which he had rendered to the American Troops during World War II. He admitted that he might have been mistaken, but denied that he was lying.

KAYE's only explanation for the difference in the stories which he told to the Secret Service Agent in El Paso and the interviewing agents in Tucson, Arizona, was that he had a very poor memory and had great difficulty in recalling details. He was unable to explain why he considered his memory to be accurate in this instance.

Det 4/1/64

ROBERT J. KAYE was interviewed at the Tucson Resident Agency. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that he could consult an attorney if he so desired before making a statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law.

KAYE resides at 2116 E. 17th Street, Tucson, Apartment 9, and is employed as a vending machine service mechanic by Falcon Automatic, Inc., 727 S. Campbell, Tucson, Arizona.

KAYE explained that he entered the United States at Portland, Maine, in November, 1915, when he was ten years of age. After his entry and for a period of six months to one year, he lived with [illegible] at 4641 or 2146 Gray or Grace Street, Chicago, Illinois. KAYE stated that at this time he was placed in the St. Patrick Industrial School, located on Harbor Island, Chicago, and that he stayed there until 1951, when he was 17 years of age. KAYE related that for a period of 2 - 3 years thereafter, he remained in the Chicago area, working as a mechanic on juke boxes and pinball machines. He added that he married when he was 20 years of age and lived on Crawford Street near Montrose Avenue in Chicago.

According to KAYE, about 1954 he left Chicago and went to Colorado Springs, Colorado, where he stayed approximately one year and then went to Denver, Colorado. KAYE stated that in 1955 and 1956 he lived in a five-room apartment near 21st Avenue and 17th Street, Denver, and that he worked at the Beeps Restaurant, Denver, as a fry cook.

Thereafter, according to KAYE, for a period of approximately six months in 1957 he was living and working in Long Beach, California, and working as a fry cook for a restaurant chain known as the Hot Restaurants.

KAYE stated that about 1958 he was back in the Denver area, residing at a trailer park possibly in lot #5 at 13396 E. Colfax, Denver and that he was working at the Denver Hilton for approximately 7 months as a cook and thereafter at the Four Seasons Restaurant, Aurora, Colorado, as a cook for approximately six months. KAYE stated that nights he worked at McDonald's Drive Inn.

Continuing, KAYE explained that about 1960 he worked for the Uptown TV, located on about 3395 or 3385 E. Colfax.

KAYE stated that the Colorado Vending Company, owned by [redacted], was in operation for about 5 months in 1963, terminating in October, 1963. KAYE stated that this business was handled in the garage of his, KAYE's, residence located at [redacted] S. Ogden, Denver, Colorado.

KAYE explained that for a period of several months in 1962 he had been under great mental strain and that he thought during this period that he was actually going "nuts". KAYE explained that in 1962 his wife had made a trip to Colorado Springs to visit some friends and that upon her return to Denver he, KAYE, discovered that she was pregnant. KAYE stated that this greatly alarmed him inasmuch as just prior to this period he was under doctor's care and his doctor had told him that due to his condition he would never be in a position to have additional children. KAYE stated that his wife finally told him that their fourth child, DANNY, was not his, KAYE's, child and that he then went to Colorado Springs, investigated the matter and discovered that his wife was telling him the truth. KAYE added, however, that his wife thereafter denied the incident. KAYE added that his wife, ALICE HARDT, who is about 25 or 26 years of age, is now residing at an unknown address in Las Vegas, with their four children, MICHAEL, age 5; BOBBIE LYNN, age 7; DANNY, age 2; and SANDY, age 1. KAYE added that he has had no contact with his wife since his trip to Mexico.

With reference to his background in Europe, KAYE stated that he was born in 1934 in Poland. KAYE related that in 1941 he was taken to Germany and placed in a work camp with his parents and three sisters. He stated that his parents were killed in 1941 or 1942 and that his sisters were killed in a bombing raid in 1942. KAYE explained that he was also wounded at this time and was kept by some Nuns in a convent until he was recovered. KAYE explained that at this time he was 7 or 8 years of age. KAYE explained that he then ran off from the convent and that he met some German soldiers who were going to the Russian front and that he joined them. KAYE related that he ran off from the Germans, went the wrong way and ended up with the Russians, thereafter spending several months with the Russian soldiers at the front lines. KAYE explained that he took off again, and this time joined the Hungarian forces, spending about 6 months with the Hungarians in and around Budapest. He added that he took off from the Hungarians, and again joined the Germans, this time traveling to Italy, Africa, Sicily, and Austria. KAYE explained that it was at this time during the winter of 1943 that he met German Commander ROMMEL in Africa.

Continuing, KAYE explained that about 1954, he finally met the Americans between the border of Italy and Austria and it was here that he first met EDDIE KLONOWSKI and that it was the soldiers of the 44th Division that smuggled him in a duffle bag into England and thereafter to the United States.

KAYE stated that he realized that his story seemed fantastic but insisted that it was true in every respect, even considering the fact that he was born in 1934 and this activity took place in the period 1942-1945. KAYE explained that he was always close to the front lines and was shot once by the Americans in Italy when he was with the Germans, shot once by the Hungarians in Russia when with the Russians, shot once by the Russians in Russia when with the Germans, shot once by the Germans in Italy when with the Germans (shot by mistake here) and shot once by the Italians in Italy when with the Germans. KAYE stated that when with the Hungarians, Russians and Germans, he carried a "Tommy Gun" but that when he was with the Americans he used a Carbine. KAYE related that he had been shot a total of nine times and that in some of the above incidents he had probably been shot twice.

KAYE related that all information he had furnished had been as factually correct as possible.

DETAILS:

INTERVIEW WITH JERRY BUCHANAN

Interview of JERRY BUCHANAN is predicated on information received from NATHANIEL WEYL, an author residing at Delray Beach, Florida. Mr. WEYL on March 13, 1964, advised that JIM BUCHANAN, who was a reporter for the Pompano Beach, Florida, Sun Sentinel, told WEYL that JERRY, his brother, had a fight with LEE HARVEY OSWALD at Miami, Florida, about the beginning of 1963.

CRAIG T. SHELDON, 457 Oak Street, on March 26, 1964, advised that JERRY BUCHANAN is presently living with him and employed by a pipeline company in Fairhope, Alabama. He stated he had met JERRY BUCHANAN through his brother, JIM BUCHANAN, and had agreed to let JERRY reside with him and his family in Fairhope, Alabama. SHELDON advised that he is the Southeastern Chairman of The International Anti-Communist Brigade headquartered in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and both JIM and JERRY BUCHANAN are officers therein.

Date March 30, 1964

JERRY BUCHANAN, 457 Oak Street, furnished the following information:

He is temporarily residing at the above address in Fairhope, his home address being Miami, Florida. He has been employed for the past one and a half months as Crew Foreman for the Fairhope Paving Company, Fairhope, Alabama. He is leaving Fairhope the next week to spend a month in Mexico and will then go back to Miami, Florida, where he can be located care of his mother, Mrs. MARY BUCHANAN.

BUCHANAN has been a member of The International Anti-Communist Brigade, Miami, Florida, for the past several years. In October 1962 members of this group engaged in a fight in Bay Front Park section of Miami with members of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee which group was distributing pro-Castro literature. Police broke up the fight.

After the assassination of President KENNEDY in November 1963 and the attending publicity given to LEE HARVEY OSWALD, BUCHANAN recognized OSWALD from his photograph as having been one of the members of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee engaged in the fight in the Bay Front Park in October 1962. He also recalled that OSWALD had been in Miami, Florida, again in March 1963 distributing pro-Castro literature.

He advised he had not known OSWALD personally and had not known anything about OSWALD until recalling OSWALD after the latter had been given so much publicity. He was questioned closely as to any specific recollection he has that OSWALD was distributing pro-Castro literature and actually took part in the fight referred to above. BUCHANAN would not say specifically that he actually recalls OSWALD's being present and participating in the fight but would only say that "he was there." He advised that his brother, JIM BUCHANAN, newspaper reporter, has specific information concerning OSWALD's being in Miami during October 1962 and March 1963 and has written information concerning it. He advised that JIM BUCHANAN has recently started the publication of the Florida Conservative, Post Office Box 1299, Boca Raton, Florida, but lives in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

BUCHANAN could furnish no specific information concerning associates of OSWALD or his activity in Miami other than saying that OSWALD had distributed pro-Castro literature which was the cause of the fight referred to above.

"To The F.B.I. Dallas, Texas,

"I have been wanting to report this to you for some time, but I was afraid maybe it wasn't important, but maybe it is after all.

"I have a wonderful memory of pictures and name's when I read about them in the pa paper's, I'm not for sure what year it was, but I am very sure I read and saw an article in the Daily Oklahoman, Jack Ruby's picture and Oswald came out together, near the middle of the bottom of the front page of the paper, it was about the time we were having so much trouble with Castro and the Bay of Pigs or the cuban situation, this could have came out in the Oklahoma paper as long as three or more years ago, check the papers and you will find their picture s to gather, I am only sending you this information to help, no other reason, I never did love a lier,"

On March 17, 1964, KATHRYN HATCH, Reporter for "The Daily Oklahoman," an Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, newspaper, advised that she has no knowledge of any photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY appearing in "The Daily Oklahoman" prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. She stated she had made a search of the photographic file maintained by the newspaper and could locate no photograph of either OSWALD or RUBY, which had been published in "The Daily Oklahoman" prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES H. STANTON:

At Hobart, Oklahoma

On March 20, 1964, WILLIAM MATTHEWS, Undersheriff, Kiowa County Sheriff's Office, advised he could furnish no information concerning the identity of the individual writing the anonymous letter mentioned above. He stated no "chronic letter writers" are known to the Kiowa County, Oklahoma Sheriff's Office.

OC 105-783

On March 20, 1964, CLAIRE NEAL, Correspondent, "Kiowa County Star Review," a newspaper published in Hobart, Oklahoma, advised she has no information concerning the identity of the individual writing the anonymous letter from Hobart, Oklahoma. She stated her newspaper has received no anonymous letters regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY. She advised she is the "staff writer" or "correspondent" for "The Daily Oklahoman" and carefully analyzes articles and photographs appearing in "The Daily Oklahoman" on a daily basis. She stated she has no recollection of ever seeing a photograph of OSWALD and RUBY together prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Belmont

DATE: 4/2/64

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION
ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

By letter dated April 1, 1964, Mr. J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission advised that Mr. Samuel A. Stern, a member of the supervisory staff of the President's Commission, would be in Dallas, Texas, on April 8 or 9, 1964, and would appreciate Agents Manning Clements and James Bookhout being available at the U. S. Attorney's office in order that he might take depositions or affidavits from these Agents covering events which occurred during the course of the arrest and detention of Lee Harvey Oswald. Mr. Rankin advised that appropriate arrangements would be made through SAC Shanklin at Dallas to set an exact time for the interviews. Mr. Rankin also advised that if during the course of the interviews with Agents Clements and Bookhout it seemed to Mr. Stern advisable to take depositions from other Agents in the Dallas Office, he hoped it would be satisfactory for appropriate arrangements to be made with Mr. Shanklin.

Special Agents Clements and Bookhout were sent to the Dallas Police Department on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, the day the President was killed, by SAC Shanklin, in order that they would know what events transpired so that the Bureau would be fully prepared to handle the situation if the Bureau became involved in the investigation. Agents Clements and Bookhout did during the afternoon sit in on interviews with Oswald. Consequently, they would be logical persons that the Commission would desire to have testimony from or to take depositions from relative to their knowledge of what transpired for the Commission's official records.

The contents of Mr. Rankin's letter were made available by telephone to the Dallas Office today and a copy of the letter is being furnished Dallas. ASAC Clark was advised that the Agents should be made available in accordance with the request and they should be thoroughly prepared to answer any questions concerning the actual investigation or interviews they conducted. However, their remarks must be confined to the facts developed during their interviews and they were not to answer any questions where they were asked for their personal opinions or impressions or beliefs concerning certain things that might be propounded by Mr. Stern or any other member of the Commission's staff. It was emphasized that the Agents' remarks must be confined to knowledge they gained from interviews and investigations. ASAC Clark stated that he fully understood these instructions and they would be complied with completely.

ASAC Clark was advised that we had recently received a rather detailed letter from Mr. Rankin's office asking thirty specific questions concerning the Bureau's investigation of Oswald and that the Dallas Office would be furnished a copy of this letter along with the Bureau's answer to Mr. Rankin's office.

Current Request Received by Dallas Office from Commission Staff Members

ASAC Clark advised in connection with the foregoing he had received a telephone call from Mr. Wesley James Liebler, a Commission staff member, requesting that the Agents who conducted investigation at the Irving Sport Shop be available in the Dallas Office as he, Liebler, desired to talk to these Agents. When questioned as to exactly what he wanted, Liebler stated he had interviewed two employees of the Irving Sport Shop, a Mr. Greener and a Mr. Ryder, noting that Ryder was the individual who had made up a work ticket covering work on a gun, which ticket was made out to one _____ Oswald. Liebler stated he wanted an opportunity to talk to the Agents who had conducted the interviews with these employees and others at the Irving Sport Shop, no names given, in order to "kind of get their evaluation or impression of the situation." Liebler then stated he desired to know whether the Agents thought these individuals were lying or telling the truth. In response to this request ASAC Clark advised Liebler that the Agents had no personal opinion or evaluation concerning the information they had received during their interviews, that all material obtained during the interviews had been reduced to writing and had been furnished in investigative reports to the President's Commission. Liebler was told that in view of this there did not appear to be any reason for him to interview the Agents involved. Mr. Liebler then commented he realized the Agents would not have any personal opinions and that while he still desired to talk to them to get such opinions he fully understood the Bureau's position in this matter and would forget his request.

The Dallas Office has advised the investigation conducted to determine whether the work ticket made out to one _____ Oswald was actually Lee Harvey Oswald did not substantiate that it actually was Lee Harvey Oswald. Concerning the interview with Ryder, the Dallas Office advised he was first interviewed by Bureau Agents on November 25, 1963, prior to the publicity which occurred in the newspapers on November 28. Because of additional information received and telephone calls concerning Ryder having knowledge of Oswald, he was subsequently interviewed on several occasions.

Liebler advised he was returning to Washington, D. C. today and would appreciate the Dallas Office making available to Bureau headquarters a chronology covering the interview with Employee Ryder of the Irving Sport Center showing the date of the interview as compared with the date when newspaper stories appeared relative to Oswald possibly having work performed on his gun at the Irving Sport Center. The Dallas Office is preparing the chronology requested and will furnish it to the Bureau.

ACTION:

Upon receipt of the chronology requested by Liebler it will be made available to the President's Commission.

By separate communication Mr. Rankin is being advised that Agents Clements and Bookhout will be available for interview on April 6 or 9, 1964.

The manager or a qualified employee should be interviewed and the following information incorporated in a statement.

1. Identify these checks as being cashed.
2. What was the amount of the fee charged for cashing these checks?
3. Did Lee Oswald cash any other checks?
4. Did Lee Oswald attempt to cash any other checks?
5. Did Oswald make any purchases from these merchants, if so what is the date and amount?
6. How often did he visit the store?
7. What other information they may have of value in tracing Oswald's expenditures should be obtained.

According to report of Agent Warren C. DeBrueys, Subject: Lee H. Oswald, dated December 8, 1963, page 187, Oswald purchased a TV set from Montgomery Ward on September 22, 1962. This information was obtained from Mr. E. L. Carter, Credit Manager. How much was the down payment on the set? What payments were made on the set? Was the set ever delivered to Lee H. Oswald, or was the TV set repossessed?

The Parkland Hospital, Dallas, Texas, should be contacted and the following information relative to Mrs. Marina Oswald's hospitalization in October, 1963 obtained:

1. Copy of all hospital records, including application for admission.

2. Name and address of the physicians attending Marina Oswald and her baby.

3. Record showing date and amount of payments paid to the hospital and physicians for pre-natal care, delivery, post-natal care and care of new born infant.

The following organizations should be contacted and the day of the week when payroll checks were issued to Lee H. Oswald be obtained:

Leslie Welding Company, Inc.,
200 E. N. Vacek Street
Fort Worth, Texas

Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc.,
522 Browder Street
Dallas, Texas

William B. Reily Company, Inc.

Illegible phrase contained on last page of the University of Chicago Spanish-English, English-Spanish Dictionary.

On the assumption that the last two penciled lines on the last page of this dictionary may be Spanish, it appears that the first word could be "YO," the second word either "SOPA" or "SOPLE" and the third word "EL." The fourth word is not readable from a Spanish aspect.

YO = I
SOPA = SOUP
SOPLE = I BLEW
EL = THE

On the assumption that the questioned phrase is written in Russian and English using a combination of Latin and Cyrillic script, it is possible that the first word could be "TO," "20," or "70." The second word could be Russian for "88 gum," "88 sulfur," or "SARA." The third word could be the Russian word "and." The last word in this phrase could possibly be the Russian word "letters" or the Russian name "Kira."

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following investigation was conducted in connection with the Imperial Reflex camera identified as Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory D-146.

On February 16, 1964, ROBERT LEE OSWALD, 1009 Sierra Drive, Denton, Texas, viewed photographs of a Stereo Realist Camera and a Cuera-2 camera and advised that he did not recognize either of the cameras as having been the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but also stated he was not familiar enough with the cameras owned by LEE HARVEY OSWALD to either state that the cameras in question did or did not belong to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On February 17, 1964, a photograph of the "Smera-2" camera (referred to above as the Cuera-2 camera), which is Inventory Item 378, and bears Serial No. 627250, was exhibited to MARINA OSWALD and she identified this camera as identical with the Russian camera owned by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She was also shown the photograph of the Stereo-Realist camera which is Inventory Item No. 378 and which bears Serial No. A60979, but she could not identify this camera and stated it was not the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as far as she knew.

On February 18, 1964, MARINA OSWALD described the camera with which she took the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD holding a rifle in his hands. She stated she believed she took this photograph with an American camera owned by OSWALD. She stated it was an American-made camera which had a grayish color, somewhat like aluminum and stated it was a box-type camera. She stated she was not completely sure, however, as to whether the camera had an extending bellows. She stated she could recall that she sighted the camera by looking down into a viewer at the top of the camera. She stated she did not know the whereabouts of this camera at the present time, but could identify it if she saw it again.

On February 19, 1964, Detective JOHN A. MC CABE, Irving Police Department, Irving, Texas, advised that he was present at the residence of Mrs. RUTH PAINE on November 23, 1963, when the Dallas Police Officers executed a search warrant of Mrs. PAINE's residence.

Detective MC CABE advised that he assisted the Dallas Police Officers in this search and is certain that he saw a light gray box camera in a box in Mrs. PAINE's garage. MC CABE stated that this camera was in a box which contained books and photographs belonging to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. MC CABE stated he searched this box and did not take the camera since he did not consider it to be of evidentiary value.

On March 23, 1964, Detective MC CABE advised that during the search of the garage at the PAINE residence, where most of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's belongings were located, he was going through a box containing some books, some pictures, and a camera. He took the camera out of the box, put it on a dresser and searched the box in detail, and then put the camera back in the box. He described the camera as of a square, reflex type which appeared in such poor condition that he believed it was not capable of taking pictures.

Detective MC CABE was shown Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory Photograph D-146 of an Imperial Reflex camera which had been obtained from ROBERT OSWALD on February 24, 1964, and he stated the camera in this photograph appeared identical with the one he described above.

Detective MC CABE stated that in his opinion the Dallas Police Officers, who were also participating in the search, did not see this camera and did not search this particular box. He stated he had already searched the box and told them so. He did not point out the camera to them.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On February 19, 1964, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, advised that approximately three weeks after the assassination of President KENNEDY, ROBERT OSWALD, accompanied by two individuals whom she later determined were JAMES MARTIN and JOHN THORNE, came to her residence and requested that they take all the remaining property belonging to LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD. Mrs. PAINE advised that she pointed out to them the boxes and other materials in her garage belonging to the OSWALDS and they removed this property.

On February 24, 1964, ROBERT LEE OSWALD made available a Duo-Lens Imperial Reflex camera made in the United States of America. It is aluminum colored and has a matching gray plastic carrying strap. The film size is indicated as 2½ X 2½ and it uses Roll Film No. 620. ROBERT LEE OSWALD advised that in about 1957, LEE HARVEY OSWALD purchased a camera at about the time he first went into the U. S. Marine Corps. About 1959 when LEE HARVEY OSWALD went to Russia, he left this camera with ROBERT at Fort Worth, Texas. In about August 1962, after returning from Russia, LEE HARVEY OSWALD regained possession of this camera from ROBERT and, to ROBERT's knowledge, retained possession of it until his death on November 24, 1963.

In December 1963 ROBERT stated he obtained this camera, along with other effects of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, from the home of Mrs. RUTH PAINE, Irving, Texas. The above-described Duo-Lens Imperial Reflex camera was the camera described above by ROBERT LEE OSWALD and the camera which he made available on February 24, 1964. To the best of ROBERT's knowledge, the camera did not have film in it at the time he obtained it from Mrs. PAINE's residence and he has no undeveloped film or pictures made with this camera.

On February 25, 1964, the above-described Imperial Reflex camera obtained from ROBERT LEE OSWALD on February 24, 1964, was exhibited to MARINA OSWALD, at which time she identified it as the camera belonging to LEE HARVEY OSWALD with which she had taken the picture of OSWALD holding the rifle and newspaper and wearing the pistol.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On March 14, 1964, Detectives JOHN P. ADAMCIK, RICHARD S. STOVALL, GUY F. ROSE, and HENRY M. MOORE of the Dallas Police Department advised that they participated in a search of the PAINE residence, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, on November 22 and 23, 1963.

All four of these individuals were exhibited a Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory Photograph No. D-146 of the Imperial Reflex camera obtained from ROBERT LEE OSWALD on February 24, 1964. None of these officers could recall ever having seen this camera and did not recall seeing it during a search of the garage at the PAINE residence. They all stated that if it had been discovered during the search, they would have brought it in.

On March 23, 1964, Detectives STOVALL, ROSE and MOORE all advised that during the search of the PAINE residence they recalled that there were several boxes in the garage at the PAINE residence and that all boxes were searched by one of the officers participating in the search. Each of them stated they could not specifically state which boxes they searched, but all stated they definitely did not see the Imperial Reflex camera pictured in Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory Photograph No. D-146, or any other camera in the PAINE garage.

On March 24, 1964, Detective ADAMCIK also stated that there were several boxes in the garage at the PAINE residence and that all boxes were searched by either himself or one of the other officers. He could not specifically state which boxes he searched, but stated he definitely did not see the Imperial Reflex camera pictured in Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory Photograph No. D-146, or any other camera in the garage.

On March 15, 1964, ROBERT OSWALD, 1009 Sierra, Denton, Texas, advised that on December 8, 1963, he obtained property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD which was at the home of RUTH PAINE in Irving, Texas. Included in this property was a box which contained a two-volume history, some Russian books, and a small American-made camera. He stated he had never made this camera available to authorities before February 24, 1964, because he had never been asked for it previously and because he could see no evidentiary value to anyone interested in the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY of this cheap camera which belonged to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that it had never occurred to him that anyone would be interested in the camera.

ROBERT advised he has no letters in his possession that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had written and that the only letters he did have were those turned over by him to the President's Commission.

ROBERT OSWALD made available the box which contained this camera, and the items it still contains, all of which were the property of either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or MARINA OSWALD. The first thirteen items are books:

1. V. I. LENIN - MARX - ENGELS - MARXISM
2. "Baby and Child Care" - Dr. BENJAMIN SPOCK
3. "The Iliad" - HOMER
4. "Perfect Lovers Guide and other stories" - STEPHEN LEACOCK
5. "Squibb Product Reference"
6. "Short Russian Reference Grammar"
7. "Russian - Elementary Course I"
8. 13. Six books in Russian language. In one book designated as No. 8, a note is written in the front:

"Dear Lee

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

"Great Congratulations,
Let all your dreams come true!
18. x 1959
Moscow

18. One pencil sharpener

19. One carriage bolt

20. One clothespin

21. One sheet white bond paper located in book designated as Item No. 13

ROBERT OSWALD made available all other property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD still in his possession, which he obtained from the home of RUTH PAINE on December 8, 1963:

1. Val-pak type suitcase

2. One Texas flag - small

3. One Master Lock Padlock

4. One shower spray attachment

5. One treated cloth in paper container

6. One Marine Corps belt and buckle

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated March 12, 1964, making inquiry regarding a Duo-lens Imperial Reflex camera submitted to our Dallas Office by Robert Oswald on February 24, 1964.

By letter dated March 17, 1964, questions raised by referenced letter with the exception of question number three were answered. Enclosed for your assistance are two copies of a self-explanatory memorandum dated March 20, 1964, Dallas, Texas. It is believed this memorandum answers in detail question three.

This completes this Bureau's investigation on questions presented in referenced letter.

Re Bureau airtel 5/5/64.

Enclosed for Newark are two copies each of self-explanatory cables from Legat, Mexico City, both dated 5/20/64. Newark locate and interview Margaret A. Wolff. Purpose of interview is to determine if she can place Oswald as passenger on Transportes del Norte bus No. 332 between Mexico City and Monterrey on 10-2-63. If so, press her for all information in her possession including data as to identity any other passengers with whom Oswald may have conversed as well as information concerning luggage of subject. Wolff was manifested in seat 4 which is believed to be second window seat on driver's side. Oswald, as H. O. Lee, was manifested in seat 12, fourth window seat on driver's side.

Can Wolff furnish any identifying data concerning other passengers on bus in question? She was sitting next to one Roberto P. Gonzales who was destined to Monterrey. Note that several of passengers on bus in question recalled a young American male on bus who answers general description of Oswald and one passenger identifies Oswald as fellow passenger.

Handle immediately and advise Bureau and Dallas as to results. Enclosed for Dallas one copy each above-mentioned cables from Legat, Mexico City.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Conrad

DATE: 5/15/64

FROM : R. H. Jevons

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS

Reference memorandum dated 2/26/64, from W. D. Griffith to Mr. Conrad concerning a continuing project wherein the Bureau has undertaken to furnish the Commission with photographs of all Commission exhibits.

On 5/13/64, Mr. Melvin Eisenberg, a Commission staff member, called Section Chief, Roy H. Jevons, Physics and Chemistry Section, and requested that a Bureau representative take custody of the listed exhibits (attached hereto).

Mr. Eisenberg further requested that the Commission be furnished with three photographs of each exhibit not previously photographed.

As a matter of record, SA Robert E. Neill received from Mr. Eisenberg on 5/13/64, these exhibits which are now in Bureau custody.

The photography will be handled by an Agent Examiner of the Laboratory's Document Section. It is to be noted that all exhibits marked (*) did not originate from the Bureau and, therefore, they will be returned to the Commission along with the photographs.

ACTION:

Exhibits will be photographed and three copies will be supplied the Commission as requested. Those items originally supplied to the Commission by the Bureau will be kept in Bureau custody. Exhibits not originating from the Bureau will be returned along with the photographs.

PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON
ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Remycab 5/19/64 and reBucab 5/7/64, which advised that a package was being forwarded by air pouch at the request of the President's Commission to be delivered personally to Dr. DALE CAMERON, who was staying at the Maria Isabella Hotel in Mexico City. This package, transmitted by Bureau routing slip of 5/7/64, was received here on 5/8/64.

Inquiry at the Maria Isabel Hotel on 5/8/64 disclosed that Dr. CAMERON was not registered there nor did he have a reservation. Inquiry was conducted on 5/9/64 at which time it was ascertained that Dr. CAMERON had arrived the previous evening for the purpose of attending a meeting of the American Psychiatrists' Association to be held during the following week. Dr. CAMERON was not at the hotel and messages were left for him to contact the Legal Attache. He finally made such contact on the evening of 5/10/64 and arrangements were made at his request for him to call at the office on 5/11/64. This was done and, following satisfactory identification, the package was delivered unopened to Dr. CAMERON in the Legat's office. Dr. CAMERON opened the package in the presence of the Legat, and it was noted that it contained a number of documents, some of which appeared to be portions of Bureau reports. Some of the documents were bound with Acco fasteners and covers similar to the file backs utilized by the Bureau, but bearing the name of the President's Commission, and in some cases classifications of "Top Secret" had been obliterated with a blue pencil.

Dr. CAMERON was rather reticent at the time the documents were delivered to him, but did comment that he had been asked to do a study by the Commission. He was somewhat appalled at the quantity of documents which had been sent to him.

On Saturday, 5/16/64, Dr. CAMERON again called at the office and requested that the documents be returned to the Commission via the pouch. Inasmuch as the Bureau had approved this means of transmittal in forwarding the documents to Dr. CAMERON, his request was granted. Inasmuch as the documents were brought in by Dr. CAMERON unwrapped, they were wrapped and the package sealed with tape in his presence in order to avoid any allegation at a later date that any of the documents had been misplaced following his delivery of the same to this office. On this occasion Dr. CAMERON commented in some detail on the assignment given to him by the Commission. He said that as the Superintendent of St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington he had been requested to make a study of OSWALD's conduct in an effort to determine his motivation for the assassination of President KENNEDY. He commented that this is a very difficult thing to do without having the benefit of speaking personally with persons who were well-acquainted with OSWALD, such as his wife and others. He also mentioned that in making this study it would be of decided value to have available information concerning OSWALD's life during the time he resided in Russia and mentioned that no material concerning this phase of OSWALD's life had been sent to him in Mexico City.

As was mentioned in my cable of reference, the package containing the documents returned by Dr. CAMERON was forwarded by air pouch under registry No. 2114904 on 5/19/64.

This information has been furnished in some detail in order that it might be made a part of the official record at the Bureau and for whatever value it might have to the Bureau in connection with its relations with the President's Commission.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
IS - R - CUBA

The President's Commission has advised Bureau that Arnold Johnson of the CP, USA, testified that his attorney, Mr. John Abt, turned over to the FBI samples of the literature which Mr. Johnson thought had probably been sent to Lee Harvey Oswald with Mr. Johnson's letter to Oswald dated 7/31/63. The President's Commission requested Bureau forward such material to the Commission.

It appears the data in question was obtained from Mr. Johnson by your office and is described on page three of your airtel to the Bureau dated 12/3/63 in captioned matter. Immediately furnish Bureau the eight pamphlets listed by your office as having been obtained from Mr. Johnson.

NOTE:

At request of the Commission we furnished commission by letter 2/6/64 the originals of the letters which the CP sent to subject. Johnson in his appearance before the Commission indicated the FBI had been furnished copies of pamphlets and the like he had furnished Oswald. These pamphlets, all of which are generally available to the public, were listed by NY in its 12/3/63 airtel but were not forwarded to the Bureau. Upon receipt of this data, it will be immediately transmitted to the Commission.

This relates to efforts to locate Paula Rusioni and Eulalio Rodriguez, passengers on Transportes del Norte (TDN) buses from Mexico City to Laredo 10/2-3 last and Albert Osborne, passenger on Red Arrow bus from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City 9/26-27 last and to requested investigation by San Antonio which has not to date been reported.

Re Paula Rusioni, This person traveled on TDN buses from Mexico City to Laredo 10/2-3 last on TDN ticket number 9511, a round-trip ticket issued 9/11 last by TDN at Nuevo Laredo on basis of exchange of TDN ticket number 39532 which was issued at Laredo 9/10/63. Ticket 39532 was believed to be round-trip ticket, probably from Laredo to Mexico City and return. Cancelled portions of ticket number 9511 covering trip from Mexico City to Monterrey and thence to Laredo were found in trip envelope of TDN bus number 373.

SA 5-13-64 tel states that TDN ticket number 9511 was sold at Laredo 12-7-63 as one-way ticket to Mexico City, according to Harry Smith, manager, Greyhound Terminal, Laredo. Latter information is probably in error.

Legat at TDN, Monterrey, endeavor to develop all facts concerning issuance of ticket numbers 9511 and 39532, including dates and places of issuance and points of origin and destination of travel covered by tickets. Legat endeavor to determine the procedure existing at Greyhound Lines, Laredo, for issuance of TDN tickets. If such tickets are not issued on basis of Greyhound ticket, how does TDN receive remuneration for ticket sales at Laredo? What part does Greyhound play in issuing TDN tickets at Laredo when Greyhound ticket not involved?

Ascertain from TDN Headquarters if procedure outlined above concerning issuance of ticket 39532 on 9-10-63 at Laredo and exchange for ticket 9511 on 9-11-63 at Nuevo Laredo is usual procedure in issuance of TDN tickets covering travel from Laredo to Mexico City and return. If not, can TDN officials state the possible reason for the procedure outlined above? Bear in mind purpose of this inquiry is to develop leads enabling us to locate and interview Paula Rusioni.

SA clarify remarks attributed to Smith in your 5-13-64 tel to effect that ticket 39532 was round-trip ticket to Mexico City "however, he is not certain if ticket was to Mexico City." Exactly what records are in possession of Greyhound at Laredo?

Re Eulalio Rodriguez. This individual sat next to Ruiz Meza on TDN buses from Mexico City to Laredo 10/2-3 last. He was described as tall, heavy, aged about 54, and of Mexican extraction. He was traveling to Houston (see Legat, Mexico City LHM 4-7-64). Enclosed for SA are two copies and for Dallas one copy of self-explanatory cable from Legat, Mexico City, 5-13-64. SA locate and interview Eulalio Rodriguez Perales.

Re Albert Osborne, aka John Howard Bowen. Enclosed for information of Legat, Mexico City, are copies of SA tels (2) dated 5-11-64 and Phoenix tel 5-12-64. Legat contact Zenen Miguel Cruz referred to in Phoenix 5-12 tel in effort to locate Osborne. Also enclosed for Legat for information are copies of SF tel 5-11-64 and SA tel 5-13-64 concerning the tickets of Paula Rusioni.

SA refer to Bureau airtel 4-22 re interview of driver Ibarra re discrepancy between cancelled tickets in trip envelope, bus 373, and figures on envelope. Also refer to Bureau airtel 4-17 re identities of two immigration inspectors on duty at Kilometer 26 with Chapa on 10-3-64 and their descriptions. Also refer to Bureau airtel 4-8 re procedures at Kilometer 26 and possible action taken in case of Oswald's travel in view of his expired FMB tourist permit. SA suairtel as to date when results of investigation requested in re communications are to be submitted. Also note that in view of Smith's previously reported statement that ticket number 39532 was Greyhound ticket, this will have to be corrected in subsequent communication prepared for dissemination in light of information in your 5-13 tel. Bureau desires that the procedures concerning the issuance of TDN tickets at Laredo and the data re the Rusioni tickets be clarified and completely reported.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Mrs. Earlene Roberts, the housekeeper at 1026 North Beckley during the period that Oswald resided there in October-November, 1963, has stated that at about 1:00 P.M. on November 22, 1963 a Dallas police car drove slowly by the front of the premises of 1026 North Beckley and honked the horn several times. Mrs. Roberts stated that the occupants of the car were not known to her even though she did have some acquaintances on the Dallas police force who called upon her at the above premises. She has previously stated that the car was number 207. We understand that the Dallas Police Department has indicated that such car was not in the vicinity of the above premises at the time it was allegedly observed by Mrs. Roberts.

Would you please conduct such investigation as may be necessary to determine whether or not any cars of the Dallas Police Department were in the vicinity of 1026 North Beckley between the hours of 12:00 noon and 2:00 PM on November 22, 196[illegible]

NOTE: Commission by relet advised that Mrs. Earlene Roberts, the housekeeper at 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas, where Oswald resided at the time of the assassination, had reported that at about 1:00 p.m., on 11-22-63, Dallas police car Number 207 drove slowly by the front of her premises and honked the horn several times. The Dallas PD indicated that car 207 was not in the vicinity at this time. The Commission requests appropriate investigation to determine if any Dallas police cars were in the vicinity of the premises between the hours of 12:00 noon and 2:00 p.m., on 11-22-63. As you will recall, the President was killed at approximately 12:30 p.m. It was completely feasible for the police to learn Oswald's identity at approximately 12:47 p.m., and to learn he was missing from the Texas School Book Depository Building. The reason for any police car honking the horn in front of this address is unknown, however, it is entirely possible this was a car in plant to determine if Oswald returned to his home.

When this matter is resolved, the Commission will be immediately notified.

Enclosed for information of Dallas and San Antonio is one copy each of Legat, Mexico City, letter and LHM dated 5-6-64 concerning review of Mexican Immigration records relative to individuals who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo 9-26-63 and departed therefrom 10-3-63 who were traveling on Mexican Immigration documents other than FM-5 and FM-8 Tourist Permits.

In furnishing copies of enclosed LHM to the Commission, the Bureau advised the Commission that we do not intend to interview all individuals identified in the Mexican Immigration records (including holders of FM-5 and FM-8 Permits) who entered Mexico and departed therefrom on indicated dates. Reason for this are the facts that have been developed concerning Oswald's bus travel into and out of Mexico.

The Commission has been advised that we are continuing inquiry in an effort to locate and interview all those individuals who were manifested aboard the buses on which Oswald traveled in Mexico. Foregoing is for the guidance of Legat and San Antonio. Accordingly, it will not be necessary for San Antonio to recontact Harvey Cash concerning the six individuals whose names were obtained by Cash from Mexican Customs at Nuevo Laredo for whom no record could be located in Mexican Immigration files.

Legat continue efforts to locate passengers who traveled with Oswald on the buses in question.

The names of all individuals contained in Mexican Immigration files entering Mexico and departing therefrom at Nuovo Laredo on indicated dates have been reviewed against the names of the passengers manifested on the baggage list of the

It is noted, however, that on the Del Norte buses one Mr. A. Martinez was manifested in seat 3 as a passenger from Mexico City to Monterrey and thence to Nuevo Laredo. This individual held ticket number 12619. In enclosed LHM on page 5 there is a reference to an Arcadio Escamilla Martinez who departed from Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, traveling on F. M. - 17, No. 521647. This individual was described as a Mexican national, male, aged 39, who was proceeding from Monterrey to Mission, Texas.

Legat and San Antonio endeavor to locate Escamilla Martinez to determine if he may be identical with the Mr. A. Martinez on buses in question. By separate communication Washington Field is being requested to check Headquarters, INS, regarding Escamilla Martinez.

ATTENTION: CRIMINAL SECTION

Enclosed for your assistance are five copies of a letter from the President's Commission dated 5-20-64. The letter is self-explanatory and involves considerable work. In order to facilitate your handling of this matter the following instructions and observations are being furnished:

1. Each one of the items from 1 to 37 should be handled on a separate sheet of paper with an appropriate subheading to identify it with the item in the Commission's letter.

2. You will note the Commission has instructed that the original piece of evidence be shown to the person who found it. Based on discussions with a member of the Commission staff, it has been ascertained that photographs of a particular piece of evidence can be used in place of the original item wherever possible. For example, the photograph of the cartridge cases identified as exhibits C6, C7 and C38, may of necessity have to be shown in the original form. In this instance it will then be necessary for you to arrange to have the original evidence transmitted to your office for appropriate display.

3. Additional copies of this airtel and the Commission letter have been furnished in the event it is necessary for you to set out leads for other offices.

4. All of the material, when completed, should be incorporated in an appropriate letterhead memorandum for

With regard to items 31-36, it is pointed out five of the items were obtained by Washington Field Office and it will be requested separately to handle this matter and furnish appropriate inserts to you for inclusion in your over-all letterhead memorandum.

If any particular problem or difficulty is encountered in this request, you are instructed to advise the Bureau so that the Commission can be aware of the status of our efforts to comply with this request. You are reminded the Commission may wind up its inquiry at an early date and every effort should be made to expedite this request.

NOTE:

Commission letter 5-20-64, is very extensive in nature and requires considerable work on part of the Bureau. They have listed some 37 items of evidence which they feel needs to be displayed to the individual who first found the particular item and who can identify it by inspection. In discussion with Mr. Eisenberg ofthe Commission staff with SA Jevons on 5-22-64, it was ascertained that the Commission will permit photographic identification in place of transmitting all of the evidence now being retained in the laboratory to Dallas.

Dallas is in possession of photographs of all items of evidence referred to above. It is pointed out some of the evidence was obtained here in Washington through liaison and other sources, while some of the evidence was obtained by other field offices. In the instances where the material was obtained here at Washington, the Bureau will furnish the necessary information so it can be incorporated in a letterhead memorandum for dissemination to the Commission. This matter will be followed closely and when the results are obtained, the Commission will be notified.

With reference to the letter from former SAC William A. Murphy to SAC Shanklin dated 4/27/64, it is noted Murphy saw a memorandum in the office of Chief of Police Curry in Dallas, Texas, in January, 1964, and Murphy states no information was set forth in the memorandum indicating information was known relative to possible violence on the part of Oswald.

SAC Shanklin has advised that he feels Murphy could recontact Chief of Police Curry on the basis of recent publicity and sound out Chief Curry concerning the new information that has been attributed as having come from Lieutenant Revill and Officer Bryan indicating information was available that Oswald had the potential for violence. Shanklin believes it is possible Murphy might be able to obtain from Chief Curry what developments had taken place which resulted in the additional information relative to the violence being made available by these officers.

It is noted that Murphy at the present time is connected with Dale Simpson Associates, an investigative agency in Dallas, Texas, and as such is in frequent contact with the Dallas Police Department. Shanklin states that former SAC Murphy feels that if he were called upon to testify by the President's Commission he would be placed in somewhat of an untenable position as far as the Dallas Police Department is concerned; however, he is perfectly willing to testify before the President's Commission if it is desirable in the event it would be of assistance to the Bureau.

UNRECORDED COPY

ACTION:

If approved, SAC Shanklin will be advised that the Bureau is agreeable to his contacting former SAC Murphy for the purpose of having him sound out Chief Curry on this matter and develop whatever information he can. Upon receipt of this information, it will be carefully analyzed and determination made as to whether or not it would be worth while making this information available to the President's Commission.

Mr. J. Gordon Shanklin
Special Agent in Charge
Federal Bureau of Investigation
U. S. Department of Justice
Room 200, Mercantile Continental Bldg.
Dallas, Texas

Dear Gordon:

Having read in the Dallas Press over the weekend the remarks attributed to Special Agent Hosty by certain officials of the Dallas Police Department concerning Oswald immediately following the latter's arrest by the Dallas Police Department on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, which allegedly were contained in a memorandum from Lt. Jack Revill of the Dallas Police Department to Chief Curry, I wanted to bring the following information to your attention.

On December 20, 1963 I had lunch with Chief Curry at the Dallas Athletic Club in connection with some Citizens Traffic Commission business. Following this conversation, I told him that I simply could not understand what the basis was for his having remarked on television the day following the assassination the fact that the Bureau had not made known to him previously the presence of Oswald in this area. I suggested to him that he write a letter of apology to the Director, admitting that this was a mistake in judgment on his part, that perhaps he had jumped to erroneous conclusions on the basis of incomplete information which had been relayed to him during the height of the action on November 22nd, and certainly that it had been my experience that where mistakes in judgment had been made in the past, that the Director would take cognizance of same and that by his future actions, he could demonstrate to the Director and the Bureau his desire to continue the fine relation which has existed through the years.

On a date early in January this year, I had occasion to be in the office of Deputy Chief Ray Lunday, Traffic Division, discussing the current plans for the year for the Citizens Traffic Commission. Chief Curry passed by and suggested when I was through with Chief Lunday to stop by in his office. I did so.

Chief Curry then recalled our previous conversation at the Dallas Athletic Club and said, I want to show you something that will explain the remarks that you inquired about that I had made on television. He then pulled from his desk a memorandum which I recalled to be on Police Department memorandum stationary, from Lt. Revill to either Captain Gannaway or to Chief Curry, which read in substance this.

Agent Hosty of the FBI informed me this afternoon that the FBI had interviewed Oswald, that he had been in the Marine Corps, but had been given a dishonorable discharge subsequent to his having gone over to Russia, where he married a Russian girl, later returning to the United States with her, and that she was residing with Mrs. Paine at an address in Irving, Texas. This entire memorandum consisted of approximately three or four brief paragraphs, and positively there was no information set forth in that memorandum indicating that Hosty had in any way represented that Oswald had any dangerous tendencies or that he was in any way considered capable of assassinating the President. There was no statement in the memorandum as to when or where Oswald had been interviewed. I had this memorandum in my own hands, read it carefully, and returned it to Chief Curry. Anyone who says that the original memorandum which Chief Curry made available to me contained the remarks now attributed to Agent Hosty is a liar. To me, information set forth in Revill's memorandum concerning his conversation with Hosty contained nothing more than would have been reasonable for any Agent working on security matters to have furnished at that time. Had I considered the remarks attributed to Hosty to be other than in exact propiety from the Bureau's standpoint, you may be assured I would have brought them to the Bureau's attention forthwith. The original memorandum which I reviewed was not a notarized document, but was simply an inter-department memorandum of the Dallas Police Department.

I resent with all the vehemence I possess this attempt to discredit Agent Hosty and the Bureau.

Sincerely,

William A. Murphy

Dear Mr. Rankin:

There are enclosed two copies of a memorandum dated May 6, 1964, concerning records of the Mexican Immigration Department pertaining to individuals who, traveling on other than Mexican FM-5 or FM-8 Tourist Permits, entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and departed therefrom on October 3, 1963.

We are endeavoring to obtain copies of the FM-11 forms referred to in the enclosed memorandum and same will be furnished to you when received. In light of our findings concerning the travel of Lee Harvey Oswald from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, to Mexico, D. F., on September 26 and 27, 1963, via the Flecha Roja bus line and his return to Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, via the Transportes del Norte bus line, we do not intend to extend our inquiry to include efforts to locate and interview all individuals who entered Mexico and departed therefrom at Nuevo Laredo on the indicated dates. We are continuing inquiry in an effort to interview those individuals who traveled on the buses on which Oswald was a passenger.

Lee Harvey Oswald was issued Passport No. D002526 on June 25, 1963, by the United States Passport Office in New Orleans, Louisiana. He had made formal application for the passport at the same office on June 24. The Commission has been informed that at the time Oswald obtained this passport, the authority to issue passports, at least from the New Orleans office, was routinely granted by Washington approximately 24 hours after the application for passport was filed in all cases in which the files of the Passport Office in Washington did not contain an indication that the applicant was to receive special treatment.

The Commission would appreciate the Bureau undertaking an investigation to confirm or rebut the accuracy of the aforementioned information to the effect that a 24-hour period for receiving the authorization to issue a passport was usual. To this end, we would like the Bureau to take a random sampling of those persons who applied for passports from the New Orleans office between the dates of June 17, 1963, and July 1, 1963 and determine how long in each case it took for the authorization to issue the passport to reach the New Orleans office. We are interested in the amount of time between the filing of the application for passport at New Orleans by an applicant and the receipt of the authority to issue the passport by the New Orleans office from Washington, D. C.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel

Enclosed is a copy of a letter from the President's Commission dated 5-19-64 which is self-explanatory.

The New Orleans Office should immediately contact the head of the Passport Office of the Department of State in New Orleans and inform such individual that the FBI has received a request from the President's Commission to take a random sampling of those persons who applied for passports from the New Orleans office between the dates of June 17, 1963, and July 1, 1963, and determine how long in each case it took for the authorization to issue the passport to reach the New Orleans office. Inform the Passport Office official that the President's Commission is interested in the amount of time between the filing of the application for passport at New Orleans by an applicant and the receipt of the authority to issue the passport by the New Orleans Passport Office from its Washington, D. C., headquarters. You should not, of course, inform the New Orleans passport official that the President's Commission is interested in confirming or rebutting the information previously furnished by the State Department to the effect that a 24-hour period for receiving the authorization to issue a passport was usual.

Thereafter, you should make arrangements with the New Orleans Passport Office official for agents of your office to review the passport files, selected at random, of approximately 10 individuals each day for the period June 17, 1963, to July 1, 1963, who applied for and who were issued U. S. passports.

If the Passport Office uses a time stamp, you should determine the exact time the passport application was stamped in and the exact time the application was stamped approved for issuance of a passport.

You should set out the names of the individuals selected by day and date (for example, Monday, June 17, 1963), showing as accurately as possible the time the passport application was received and the time the authority was received from the Passport Office, Department of State, Washington, D. C., for the issuance of a passport. In the event there are factors that delayed receipt of authority for issuance of a passport from State Department headquarters in Washington, D. C., such as security allegations, criminal allegations, U. S. Government agency "stops" and the like, explain in detail the reasons why issuance of a passport was delayed.

You will note that the Commission is interested in the amount of time between the filing of the application for passport at New Orleans by an applicant and the receipt of the authority to issue the passport by the New Orleans office from Washington, D. C. The President's Commission is not interested in obtaining the date the passport was actually picked up by the individual to whom it was issued.

This matter must be handled immediately and results of your survey should be furnished to the Bureau in letterhead memorandum form suitable for dissemination to the President's Commission.

For your added information, the Bureau is informing the Passport Office, Washington, D. C., of this request from the President's Commission.

NOTE: Oswald was issued a passport by the New Orleans Passport Office 6-25-63. He had made formal application for the passport at the same office one day earlier, 6-24-64. The State Department has told the Commission that approximately 24 hours was the time afforded in routine issuance of a passport after application for such passport received. The Commission has requested this Bureau to conduct the survey described herein to confirm or rebut the accuracy of the State Department information. Inasmuch as this request may necessitate coordination between passport officials in New Orleans and passport headquarters in Washington, D. C., through liaison we are informing passport officials in Washington, D. C., of the current request of the Commission.

Reference is made to previous communications concerning the visit to Mexico City, 4/8-13/64, of three representatives of the President's Commission, these being W. DAVID SLAWSON, HOWARD P. WILLENS, and WILLIAM T. COLEMAN, JR.

As the Bureau was advised, the Legal Attache, at the Ambassador's request and in the interests of maintaining our excellent liaison contacts, accompanied the three Commission representatives on 4/10/64 when they called on Lic. LUIS ECHEVERRIA, Acting Minister of Gobernacion. Also present at the meeting with ECHEVERRIA was [redacted]

Prior to the meeting with ECHEVERRIA, the three representatives discussed with Ambassador FULTON FREEMAN the possibility of taking depositions from Mexican nationals, such as the owner of the hotel where OSWALD stayed, bus company employees, and others. The Ambassador gave his approval of such a procedure so long as the depositions were taken within the confines of the Embassy and so long as the appearance of the Mexican witnesses was completely voluntary. He insisted however, that this procedure be cleared with Lic. ECHEVERRIA.

During the meeting with ECHEVERRIA on 4/10/64 the matter of the taking of the depositions was presented to him. He immediately opposed the taking of such depositions, pointing out that it would appear from this action that the U. S. Government was conducting official investigation in Mexico. He said this would raise a hue and cry of criticism of the Mexican Government in the local press, something which the Mexican Government could not afford at the present time with Presidential elections scheduled for early July. As a result of ECHEVERRIA's attitude, the Commission representatives took no steps to obtain depositions from any Mexican citizens or anyone else while in Mexico City.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Pursuant to the request of the members of your staff who visited Mexico, D. F., there are enclosed twelve photographs of various areas of Mexico, D. F., and Monterrey, Mexico, which bear some relationship to the activities of Lee Harvey Oswald in Mexico. There are also enclosed twelve photographs of material briefly describing the scenes depicted.

It is requested that you advise as to which of the enclosed photographs you desire be enlarged for inclusion in the Commission's records.

As requested in your letter dated April 24, 1964, we have acquired a wall map of Mexico, D. F., and will mark same and prepare from it a formal exhibit. In this connection it would be appreciated if you would advise as to whether or not you desire to utilize any of the enclosed photographs in connection with the production of the exhibit. You may desire to have members of your staff contact Inspector Leo J. Gauthier of this Bureau in connection with the format and other factors relating to the production of the exhibit.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: Commission representatives who visited Mexico asked for large wall map of Mexico, D. F., and pictures of areas in Mexico frequented by Oswald. Legat has dispatched enclosed photos, several of which are composite type. On 5-13 Inspector Malley discussed these photos with Mr. Willens of Commission staff who requested that one copy only rather than the usual 2 of the photographs in question be sent to the Commission for their perusal, after which Commission will advise as to exact pictures they desire.

NOTE FOR EXHIBIT SECTION:

By extra copy of this letter there are being furnished to Exhibits Section a work order, a set of the photos in question and Legat Mexico City's letters (2) dated 5-7-64 together with enclosures thereto. It is suggested that preparation of the exhibit be held in abeyance pending Commission reply to this letter.

ReBuairtel has been carefully reviewed with data set forth in SA KEMMY's report and corrections requested by the Bureau are being made.

Bureau's attention is directed to fourth complete paragraph on page two of referenced Bureau airtel which stated that "pages 18 through 20 set forth 12/13/63 FD 302 concerning baggage guide list which was previously reported and which, in first paragraph page 18 and in list itself at spaces designated seats 2, 8, 12, 13, 16, and 18, contained incorrect information. Pages 17 through 20 of rerep are being re-written at Bureau and inserts will be furnished to San Antonio and Dallas."

First full paragraph on page 3 requests explanations of personnel who prepared original FD 302 dated 12/13/63, pages 18, 19 and 20 of SA KEMMY's report.

It will be appreciated if the Bureau will furnish copies of these pages which have been corrected so that the errors to which the Bureau refers may be immediately resolved pursuant to instructions in reBuairtel.

Reurairtel 5-13-64 requesting copies of pages 18 through 20 of SA Kemmy's 4-30-64 report which are being amended at the Bureau. Your reairtel indicated your request was to enable you to immediately resolve errors to which Bureau previously referred.

The amended pages have not to date been printed and copies of same will be furnished to you when amendments are approved.

The following are the errors of substance in the FD 302 dated 12-13-63 which was reinserted in SA Kemmy's 4-30-64 report:

1. Statements in first paragraph, page 18, to effect that manifest disclosed 18 passengers boarded bus 9-26-63, six destined to Monterrey, 12 en route Mexico City, was incorrect as baggage list refers to baggage rather than to passengers.

2. Comments at spaces designated seats 2, 8, 12, 13, 16 and 18 were incorrect for same reason.

Note that insofar as Bowen at space 15 was concerned, he traveled alone and line underneath his name does not indicate he was traveling in party of two or with his wife. Note also that two lines drawn in pages 12 and 13 under name Harry J. Mitchell indicated only that Mitchell and/or person in his party had total of 3 three bags. Note that Mitchells were newlyweds and did not travel as party of three. Baggage claim check numbers, namely 7317276 and 7317277 at spaces 17 and 18, respectively, were not baggage claim check numbers but were rather the numbers assigned to baggage by Mexican Customs and above numbers should have appeared under column "Customs Check." The numbers of baggage claim checks for McFarland's luggage were: at space 17, 320437 and at space 18, 320436.

3. Custom Check column at seat 5 showed Sorquis' baggage as "Marked" whereas list shows number 7318061 at that point.

Errors of form in questioned FD-302, due apparently to the poor quality of handwriting and handprinting on form, were insertion of first name "Roig" rather than "Rosa" at seat 5; carrying of abbreviated first name "Ape" at space 9 rather than "Gpe." In this connection, note similarity in the "G" at space 9 with "G" in name Gonzalez at space 6; carrying of spelling of last name at seat 14 as "Oswalt" rather than "Oswali." (Note the "l" in name "McFarland" at seat 17 which suggests that next to last letter of last name at seat 14 is an "l" without extension at bottom of letter.) Name at space 10 previously carried as "Bowen" when on form it is clearly spelled as "Rowen."

In pages to be amended, Bureau comments specifically on all of above points. To make these changes, it will be necessary to change the name "Oswalt" to "Oswali" in first and third paragraphs, page 21, and in third paragraph, page 22. Ascertain from Contreras if this is the proper interpretation and advise Bureau and DL in this regard.

Commission letter 5-20-64, is very extensive in nature and requires considerable work on part of the Bureau. They have listed some 37 items of evidence which they feel needs to be displayed to the individual who first found the particular item and who can identify it by inspection. In discussion with Mr. Eisenberg of the Commission staff with SA Jevons on 5-22-64, it was ascertained that the Commission will permit photographic identification in place of transmitting all of the evidence now being retained in the laboratory to Dallas.

Dallas is in possession of photographs of all items of evidence referred to above. It is pointed out some of the evidence was obtained here in Washington through liaison and other sources, while some of the evidence was obtained by other field offices. In the instances where the material was obtained here at Washington, the Bureau will furnish the necessary information so it can be incorporated in a letterhead memorandum for dissemination to the Commission. This matter will be followed closely and when the results are obtained, the Commission will be notified.

Item 3 was obtained by Orrin Bartlett of liaison and item 34 was obtained by Assistant Director C. A. Evans. They have been advised separately concerning our responsibility in this matter. All other items will be handled by Dallas in accordance with Bureau airtel 5-22-64.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Lee Harvey Oswald, traveling as H. O. Lee, is believed to have departed from Mexico City, 8:30 A.M., October 2, 1963, via bus number 332 of the Transportes del Norte Line which arrived on the same date at Monterrey, Mexico.

Manifest of bus 332 shows passenger in seat 4, second window seat on driver's side was one Margaret A. Wolff, whose destination was listed as Laredo.

The records of the Passport Office, United States Department of State, were checked on April 29, 1964 and April 30, 1964, by Special Agent James F. Morrisey and a Passport Application dated April 15, 1955 for a Margaret Wolff revealed she was born April 23, 1926, Schuettorf, Germany and resided at 1444 37th Street, North Bergen, New Jersey. She was married November 14, 1947, to Norwood Ferris Wolf, born Indianapolis, July 23, 1926.

Margareth Frieda Wolff, 55 Lawton Avenue, Cliffside Park, New Jersey, who formerly resided at 1444 37th Street, North Bergen, New Jersey, on May 13, 1964, advised she has never taken a trip to Mexico at anytime in the past and, therefore, was not in Mexico in October, 1963.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ReBucab to Mexico City, 4/30/64 (#68).U

ADMINISTRATIVE

ReBucab requested, in part, that the Legat, Mexico provide the Bureau with data furnished to Mr. THOMAS MANN, former United States Ambassador to Mexico, during the initial phases of the OSWALD investigation, which MANN had subsequently discussed with representatives of the Warren Commission.U

By Legat memorandum 12/3/63, former Ambassador MANN was provided with information concerning an allegation made by one LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ to the effect that he had met an American male, JOHN WHITE, in Mexico, D. F., on or about 9/28/63 and that WHITE resembled OSWALD. The memorandum pointed out that FERNANDEZ appeared to be an opportunist seeking personal gain; that shortly thereafter it was established FERNANDEZ had intentionally provided false information as to a bus ticket which WHITE had allegedly provided him; and that it ultimately was established that FERNANDEZ, whose mother is in a Mexican mental institution, is also regarded as mentally retarded or incompetent.U

A summarization of this allegation had been prepared for the summary report to be submitted by the Legat, Mexico; however, in view of the Bureau's interest in the FERNANDEZ allegation as a portion of the data provided to former Ambassador MANN in December, 1963, a separate letterhead memorandum is being submitted at this time.U

In connection with LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ, the Bureau's attention is directed to Miami airtel to the Bureau dated 3/6/63, entitled "JORGE JAVIER SARTANGA MURY, aka Manuel Santamaria Mendez, Manuel Rodriguez Nunez, Jose Manuel Santamaria Mendez, Jose Manuel Santa Maria Bours, Pedro Gonzalez, Jorge Javier Ayour, Jorge Javier Ayube, IS - CUBA - MEXICO," which enclosed a CIA memorandum dated 3/2/63, classified "SECRET."U

Based on data provided by FERNANDEZ, as set out in the enclosed letterhead memorandum and corresponding information set out in the CIA memorandum mentioned above, it appears that the subject of the CIA memorandum is identical with the individual who identified himself at Mexico City in December, 1963, as LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ. [redacted] CIA Station, Mexico, D. F., has advised that this subject is well known to that office and usually can be identified by the fact that he consistently uses the 28th of some month in the year 1936 as his birth date. [redacted] stated this individual on various occasions has falsely represented himself in Mexico and elsewhere as being connected with intelligence activities.U

The Bureau will note that the CIA memorandum of 3/2/63 concluded that this individual was apparently a pathological liar. The Bureau will also note that Miami airtel of 3/6/63 mentioned above recorded that this individual, whose true name was never firmly established, was to be returned to Mexico from Miami, Florida, and this data generally agrees with FERNANDEZ' statement that he was "deported" from Miami, Florida, to Mexico, in February, 1963.U

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

A confidential source abroad has advised as follows:

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

On December 2, 1963, a person identifying himself as LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ appeared at the United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F. (Federal District or Mexican Federal capital), and claimed that about September 28, 1963, and again on or about September 29, 1963, he met an American male whom he had known as JOHN WHITE on the street in front of the Hotel Reforma, Mexico, D. F. FERNANDEZ stated that in his opinion the aforementioned JOHN WHITE greatly resembled newspaper photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.U

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION IN MEXICO

On December 2, 1963, an individual who identified himself as LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ and claimed to be a citizen of the Republic of Honduras appeared at the reception desk of the United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., and indicated he possessed information of interest concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD.U

FERNANDEZ advised that he was residing at the Hotel Yale, Calle Mosqueta No. 200, Mexico City; that he was born September 28, 1936, in Tegucigalpa, Honduras; and that his only living relative was his mother, AURORA GONZALEZ, who resided at Avenida 28 de Marzo No. 1300, Tegucigalpa, Honduras. FERNANDEZ stated he was illegally in Mexico, having surreptitiously entered the country at Tapachula, Chiapas, about September 19, 1963. FERNANDEZ also claimed to be a member of the National Liberation Movement in Mexico and also a member of the "Armed Forces of National Liberation" in Venezuela. He mentioned that he was a member of a liberation movementU

DWC 7/14/77

in Honduras which he was unable to identify by name.U

A second source abroad, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that the "Movimiento Nacional de Liberacion" (National Liberation Movement) was formally organized in Mexico, D. F., in August, 1961, and is an anti-United States, procommunist organization under the partial influence of the "Partido Comunista Mexicano" (Communist Party of Mexico.)

The published statutes of the Communist Party of Mexico state: "The Communist Party of Mexico has as its final objective to construct socialism and to build the communist society in Mexico."

On December 2, 1963, FERNANDEZ claimed he was in need of assistance to enable him to go to the United States or elsewhere out of Mexico because he feared he would be apprehended by the police in Mexico City and incarcerated if found in Mexico without proper documentation.U

Concerning his membership in the National Liberation Movement in Mexico, FERNANDEZ stated his leader was CUAUHTEMOC CARDENAS of the Youth Section of the National Liberation Movement and meetings of the Youth Section were taking place on Benjamin Franklin Street in Mexico, D. F. FERNANDEZ also stated he knew one SAUL LOPEZ, whom he described as the Press Chief of the National Liberation Movement and with whom he claimed he made his principal contacts in that movement.U

[redacted].C

Questioned as to the bearing the above information might have on inquiries concerning OSWALD, FERNANDEZ stated that about September 28, 1963, he met an American male who later was identified to him as JOHN WHITE on the street in front of the Hotel Reforma, Mexico, D. F., and later saw this same individual on September 29, 1963, in front of the Hotel Reforma. FERNANDEZ stated he had observed newspaper photographs of OSWALD and was of the opinion that JOHN WHITE greatly resembled OSWALD.U

FERNANDEZ also claimed that on September 29, 1963, he accompanied WHITE and SAUL LOPEZ to Cuernavaca, Morelos, traveling in LOPEZ' 1959 Ford Galaxie sedan, which had State of Mexico license plates, and they spent the day at the Hotel Casino de la Selva in Cuernavaca swimming and entertaining themselves. FERNANDEZ claimed the trio did not register at the hotel but merely spent the day there.

FERNANDEZ related that SAUL LOPEZ resided at Avenida de las Aguilas No. 1400-B in the Tacubaya section of Mexico, D. F., but he and JOHN WHITE were picked up on a Mexico City street corner by LOPEZ on the occasion of the automobile trip to Cuernavaca.

With respect to the last time he saw JOHN WHITE, FERNANDEZ stated he last saw WHITE on September 30, 1963, when WHITE and LOPEZ left Mexico, D. F., traveling to Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, in LOPEZ' car. As to how he knew that LOPEZ and WHITE traveled together to Monterrey, FERNANDEZ stated he was asked to accompany them but did not do so.

FERNANDEZ described the person known to him as JOHN WHITE as a white American male, about 23 to 24 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches in height, and weighing approximately 110 pounds. FERNANDEZ stated JOHN WHITE could speak fairly good Spanish and seemed very familiar with the Mexico City area.

On December 2, 1963, FERNANDEZ advised that he had no further data to offer having a possible bearing on any investigation of OSWALD, but he made a plea for assistance from the United States Embassy in arranging for his travel from Mexico to Miami, Florida, where he would like to go to live. FERNANDEZ explained he was without funds and had no gainful employment. The source observed that FERNANDEZ was exceedingly filthy, heavily bearded, and had the appearance of a destitute tramp. The source also noted that FERNANDEZ was unable to furnish any specific information with regard to his alleged association with JOHN WHITE, and his demeanor and manner of speaking gave the impression of a confused mind.

On December 4, 1963, FERNANDEZ, who at that time identified himself as LUIS FERNANDO GONZALEZ, appeared at the United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., and stated he was still residing at the Hotel Yale, Mosqueta No. 200, Mexico, D. F., where he claimed to be registered under the name of JORGE FERNANDO GONZALEZ.

On this occasion he exhibited an undated passenger ticket stub No. 46218 for the Mexican bus line known as "Transportes del Norte" which had been issued for travel between Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, and Mexico, D. F. The ticket stub disclosed that the issuing carrier has its offices at Heroes No. 271, West, Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and the ticket was issued for a one-way trip between Nuevo Laredo and Mexico, D. F., at a cost of 89.25 pesos ($7.14 U. S.).

FERNANDEZ claimed this ticket stub had been given to him on September 28, 1963, by JOHN WHITE who he had previously stated resembles OSWALD. During the interview, he related that WHITE's associate, SAUL LOPEZ, had actually given him this ticket stub and told him to go to the Mexico, D. F. terminal of "Transportes del Norte" and pick up WHITE's luggage.

FERNANDEZ stated that LOPEZ lent him his 1959 Ford Galaxie sedan for the purpose of going to the bus terminal to claim WHITE's luggage. He said he met LOPEZ and WHITE again on the street in front of the Hotel Reforma and claimed he drove to the bus terminal and secured a small, brown suitcase which he delivered to WHITE on the street in front of the Hotel Reforma.

At this point in the interview, FERNANDEZ made the statement that he did not go to the bus terminal on September 28, 1963, but actually went there to claim WHITE's suitcase on September 29, 1963. He also said that immediately after he delivered the suitcase to WHITE and LOPEZ in front of the Hotel Reforma, these two individuals drove away and left FERNANDEZ standing in the street.

FERNANDEZ was advised that the information he had conveyed was extremely fragmentary and appeared possibly untruthful. His only response was that he should not be criticized for reporting this information to United States authorities because he felt that WHITE resembled OSWALD. Thereupon, he repeated his request that he be informed as to what the United States Embassy in Mexico could do for him in view of his illegal immigration status in Mexico and the fact that he could not return to Honduras because the Honduran Government would arrest him as a communist. He also requested that the United States Embassy initiate action to allow him to enter the United States because of his cooperation in the OSWALD investigation. U

FERNANDEZ was questioned as to why he had made no mention of the bus ticket stub described above when he visited the United States Embassy on December 2, 1963. His only response was that he had not wanted to deliver the ticket stub on that date. U

On December 5, 1963, a third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that inquiry at the offices of the Mexican bus line known as "Transportes del Norte," Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, had developed information from an official of that company that according to the records of that company bus ticket No. 46218 had been sold at Nuevo Laredo on November 30, 1963, and it was impossible that this ticket could have been in the possession of anyone at Mexico, D. F., on or about September 28, 1963.

On December 19, 1963, FERNANDEZ again appeared at the United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., and on this occasion offered no additional information having a possible bearing on the activities of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Mexico. He made no comment when he was told that it had been ascertained that the bus ticket stub he had exhibited on December 4, 1963, as having been given to him in Mexico, D. F., on September 28, 1963, had not been issued until November 30, 1963. U

FERNANDEZ stated that associates of CUAUHTEMOC CARDENAS, the National Liberation Movement leader, had been meeting on Benjamin Franklin Street in Mexico, D. F., and that members of this group planned to hold meetings in the Republic of Honduras and also in the United States. As on prior occasions, FERNANDEZ was attired in filthy clothing, was U badly in need of a haircut, and his comments were rendered in his usual incoherent and disjointed fashion.U

FERNANDEZ related that he had decided to return to his home in Honduras and requested that the United States Embassy in Mexico direct a communication to police authorities in the State of Florida in order to secure background information which he felt would aid in his efforts to return to Honduras. He alleged that he had been arrested in Miami, Florida, in February, 1963, as a result of his having posed as a Cuban diplomatic official, and later he was deported from the United States to Mexico. When asked how he, an alleged Honduran national, could be deported from the United States to Mexico, FERNANDEZ merely shrugged and offered no explanation. He insisted that he had been arrested in Miami and claimed the arrest would appear under the name of MANUEL SANTAMARIA. He claimed to be unable to identify the specific police agency which had caused his arrest in Miami.U

On December 19, 1963, it was learned from Attorney SANTIAGO IBANEZ LLAMAS, an official of the Mexican Immigration Service, Mexico, D. F., that FERNANDEZ had been detained by Mexican Immigration authorities in Mexico, D. F., for investigation concerning his alleged illegal entry into Mexico and to clarify his citizenship status. It was subsequently learned from Attorney IBANEZ LLAMAS that FERNANDEZ on January 15, 1964, had been deported from Mexico to Honduras in view of his continued claim to Honduran citizenship.U

On March 23, 1964, Attorney IBANEZ LLAMAS advised that FERNANDEZ had returned to Mexico from Honduras without permission from Mexican Immigration authorities and had again been detained on March 4, 1964, for questioning as a result of information received by Mexican authorities that he had claimed to have information concerning a planned attempt on the life of French President CHARLES DE GAULLE incidental to DE GAULLE's March 16-19, 1964, visit to Mexico.U

Attorney IBANEZ LLAMAS related that investigation by the Mexican Ministry of Government had established that FERNANDEZ' true name is MANUEL SANTAMARINA MENDEZ. He said that two Mexico City attorneys, AUGUSTIN SANTAMARINA, JR., Avenida Reforma No. 76, Office No. 3, and FERNANDO ARCE U

SANTAMARINA, Avenida Reforma No. 76, Office No. 1, Mexico, D. F., personally identified FERNANDEZ as their cousin and informed the Mexican investigators that FERNANDEZ' mother, AURORA MENDEZ DE SANTAMARINA, is mentally afflicted, and his father, CARLOS SANTAMARINA, is deceased. The two attorneys described their cousin as mentally unbalanced and as a person who is well known for inventing fantastic falsehoods. Attorney IBANEZ LLAMAS stated that this individual was released from custody on March 20, 1964, after inquiries had clearly established his Mexican citizenship, and Mexican authorities were convinced that his statements could not be relied upon.

At his request, I contacted Mr. H. Bartlett Wells, State Department, 5-21-64. At that time Mr. Wells advised that the President's Commission had requested the Department of State to request the Swiss Government to contact the Cuban Government in order that that Government would make available information concerning Lee Harvey Oswald's contacts with the Cuban Embassy in Mexico. Mr. Wells read the following:

"In this connection, the Commission has information that Oswald visited the Cuban Consulate several times during his stay in Mexico City. It is the understanding of the Commission that the purpose of Oswald's visits was to secure an in transit visa for travel through Cuba on the way to the Soviet Union, that he applied for such a visa, that the Cuban Government authorized such a visa on the condition that he first obtain a visa to travel to the Soviet Union, and that he never appeared at the Cuban Consulate with a Soviet visa to obtain the Cuban in transit visa.

In order that its records on Lee Harvey Oswald may be as complete as possible, the Commission would appreciate the Department of State requesting the Cuban Government, through the channels and in the manner it considers appropriate, to supply any information it has on this subject. In particular, it would be helpful if the Cuban Government would furnish copies of any documents in its files which relate to Lee Harvey Oswald's visits to the Cuban Consulate in Mexico City, including, if possible, his application for an in transit visa and the conditional authorization to issue it."

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Mr. Wells noted that the above was the text of a letter that the President's Commission would transmit to the State Department and which the State Department in turn would send to the Swiss Government for delivery to the Cubans. Mr. Wells inquired to know whether the Bureau would have any objection to this text and whether the letter of the Commission disclosed any confidential information which should not be used.

Mr. Wells was advised that this Bureau would have no objection to the proposed letter from the President's Commission and that it contained nothing which we considered confidential. It should be observed that it has been well established in the public realm that Oswald was in contact with the Cuban Embassy in Mexico.

ADMINISTRATIVE

One copy of this report is being furnished to the Miami Office for information purposes.

No leads have been set out to have BRINGUIER interviewed in connection with his testimony, as it is felt that BRINGUIER should be interviewed by Agents of the New Orleans Office who have contacted BRINGUIER in the past and are completely familiar with BRINGUIER's background, personality, etc.

In connection with ORESTES PENA, the New Orleans Office has instituted an investigation of PENA (New Orleans file 105-1926) based on his present travel to Europe and the allegation he is traveling to Moscow and also in view of prior information contained in PENA's New Orleans file which was set forth in an enclosed letterhead memorandum submitted to the Bureau under date of 5/1/64 captioned "ORESTES PENA, IS - CUBA."

It should be noted that BRINGUIER and ORESTES PENA in the past were exhibited photographs of OSWALD passing out handbills in front of the International Trade Mart, New Orleans, Louisiana, on 8/16/63. Neither BRINGUIER nor PENA could furnish any information as to the identity of the unknown individual who appeared to have handbills in his hand and may have been assisting OSWALD. In an effort to verify CARLOS BRINGUIER's alleged telephone call to the New Orleans Office between 8/15-30/63, the following New Orleans files were reviewed; however, no record of any such call was located:

1. All references contained in the New Orleans indices regarding BRINGUIER.

2. All references relating to the Habana Bar.

3. All references relating to ORESTES PENA and EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ.

4. New Orleans files 65-0, 100-0, 105-0, 105-1511 (Pro-CASTRO Activity), 105-1095 (Anti-FIDEL CASTRO Activity), for the entire year of 1963.

In an effort to verify RUPERTO PENA's alleged telephone call to the New Orleans Office, the following New Orleans files for the entire year of 1963 were reviewed; however, no record of any such call was located:

1. 65-0, 100-0, 105-0, 105-1511 (Pro-CASTRO Activity), 105-1095 (Anti-FIDEL CASTRO Activity).

2. All references relating to the Habana Bar.

3. All references relating to ORESTES PENA.

The indices of the New Orleans Office contained no information identifiable with RUPERTO PENA.

The only identifiable information with FERNANDO FERNANDEZ contained in the New Orleans files is that which has previously been furnished by the Miami Office and which was contained on page 8 of the report of SA WARREN C. deBRUEYS dated 10/3/63 at New Orleans in the case captioned "Anti-FIDEL CASTRO Activity, IS - C", Bufile 109-584, New Orleans file 105-1095.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis: RUPERTO JERONIMO PENA, brother of the owner of the Habana Bar, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that about one year ago, two unknown men entered the Habana Bar. PENA states one of these persons appeared to be of Mexican nationality, and the other appeared to be a Cuban. He stated he overheard their discussion in which they spoke favorably of FIDEL CASTRO and mentioned that things were going well in Cuba under CASTRO. Because of this discussion, PENA was left with the impression that these two unknown men were pro-CASTRO and pro-communist. PENA states that on the following day he called either the FBI or Immigration and Naturalization Service (I&NS) at New Orleans and furnished information regarding the two unknown men. PENA could not be positive which agency he called, however, about four or five days later, he observed these same two unknown men in a car passing the Habana Bar, and he obtained the license of this vehicle. Thereafter, he gave the license number to CARLOS BRINGUIER and requested BRINGUIER to call the FBI. PENA stated that at this time he explained to BRINGUIER the information about their previously being in the Habana Bar and also told BRINGUIER that he had called the FBI. PENA was unable to explain why he did not know whether he had called the FBI or I&NS but was able to recall advising BRINGUIER to call the FBI, except that he had the impression he had called the FBI. PENA stated he has never observed OSWALD in the Habana Bar and had no information about OSWALD's being in the Habana Bar. PENA stated that he never told CARLOS BRINGUIER that he had ever observed OSWALD in the Habana Bar or that he had ever been told by the FBI that any person was pro-CASTRO or pro-communist. EVARISTO GILBERTO RODRIGUEZ, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that a person he believed identical to LEE HARVLY OSWALD came into the Habana Bar between 3:30 AM and 4:00 AM and to the best of his recollection it was in September, 1963. The individual believed to be OSWALD was accompanied by an unknown white man, and RODRIGUEZ was unable to state whether this unknown man was Mexican, Cuban, Argentine, or a national of any other Spanish-speaking country. RODRIGUEZ stated the person believed by him to be OSWALD appeared to be drunk. The unknown individual ordered a Tequila and when told the price would be $.50 asked who the proprietor of the bar was and later commented, "He is an imperialist or a capitalist." RODRIGUEZ states that person believed to be OSWALD became sick and that the other individual ordered a lemonade for which he was charged $.25. Immediately thereafter, this unknown person and the individual believed to be OSWALD left the Habana Bar. RODRIGUEZ states about three or four days later he observed a group of people congregating on Canal Street and observed CARLOS BRINGUIER talking to two policemen. He also observed two police cars and a white male entering one of the police cars and on the sidewalk observed some yellow-colored handbills. He states this is all he could recall about this incident on Canal Street. RODRIGUEZ stated that on the following day BRINGUIER came into the Habana Bar and mentioned he had had some difficulty with a pro-CASTRO individual distributing handbills on Canal Street. RODRIGUEZ states at that time he did not know the identity of the man whom BRINGUIER had the difficulty with but now assumes the white male he observed entering the police car was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. RODRIGUEZ states he never told BRINGUIER or anyone that the man who was in the Habana Bar with a person he believed identical with OSWALD was being sought by the FBI. RODRIGUEZ states that he had not been talked to by any FBI Agent prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. RODRIGUEZ could not identify persons depicted in photographs of OSWALD distributing handbills in front of the International Trade Mart, New Orleans, other than OSWALD. ARMANDA JARVIS, Barmaid at the Habana Bar, advised she had no knowledge whatsoever concerning OSWALD or anyone who was allegedly in the presence of OSWALD. Mrs. CARLOS BRINGUIER states that her husband is on a speaking tour away from the City of New Orleans, which tour will terminate on May 31, 1964, after which her husband will return to New Orleans. During the latter part of July, 1963, information was received that approximately ten Cuban refugees had arrived in New Orleans, Louisiana, for the purpose of attending a training camp after which they would be trained at a training camp in Guatemala. A source reported that these refugees were disappointed after their arrival because they did not have training weapons and this group allegedly returned to Miami shortly after their arrival in New Orleans.

RUPERTO JERONIMO PENA, also known as RUPERTO JERONIMO PENA - ALFONSO, operator of the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, furnished the following information in response to inquiries:

RUPERTO PENA advised that about a year or so ago two men bearing the following descriptions entered the Habana Bar about 8 or 9 o'clock one evening and they were heard to discuss matters pertaining to Cuba which left RUPERTO PENA with the definite impression that they were pro-CASTRO and pro-Communist:

One of the above two is described by RUPERTO PENA as a white male, age approximately 25, 5'7", 130 pounds, light brown complexion, black medium-long straight hair combed straight back who appeared to be of Mexican nationality and who also appeared to have a college education. RUPERTO PENA recalls he was wearing a sport coat but could not recall other details of his dress.

The other person was a Cuban, age 30, 150 pounds, 5'9", medium build, tan complexion, appeared to be a Cuban by his speech and also wore a sport coat, other details of his attire not being recalled by RUPERTO PENA.

RUPERTO PENA advised that he does not know the names of the above two persons or any other information about them but is quite certain that they were not seamen. He said he had not seen either of these two persons prior to the occasion he has described above. He did recall that they spoke favorably of FIDEL CASTRO and he recalls they mentioned that things were going well in Cuba under FIDEL CASTRO.

According to RUPERTO PENA he called either the FBI or Immigration and Naturalization Service at New Orleans on the following day to advise Federal authorities of the above incident. He relates he mentioned to the person to whom he spoke in Spanish that it was his opinion the above two persons were pro-CASTRO and pro-Communist. RUPERTO

PENA explained that he could not be positive if he called the FBI office or the Immigration office. He states that there are various phone numbers near the telephone including FBI, local police and Border Patrol and he selected one of those numbers and was under the impression he had called the FBI or Immigration regarding the above matter. He has no information concerning the residences of the above two persons nor any other additional information except as follows:

He then mentioned that about four or five days after the two above described persons were in the Habana Bar he observed them drive by on the street in front of the Habana Bar. He is able to recall that they were driving in either a Ford or Chevrolet, color not recalled and that the one who appeared to be a Cuban was driving and the other was seated along side of him. This car appeared suddenly in front of the bar but RUPERTO PENA was able to run outside on the street and obtain the license number of this car. He does not recall nor did he know at the time that he took the number whether the car carried Louisiana plates or the plates of some other state. He advised that immediately after he jotted down the number of that car he took the number to CARLOS BRINGUIER a Cuban who operates a store next door to the Habana Bar. According to RUPERTO PENA he explained to BRINGUIER that two men who had been in the Habana Bar several days previously and whose conversation indicated they were pro-CASTRO and pro-Communist in PENA's opinion, had just passed in front of the Habana Bar in a car. He also explained to BRINGUIER that he had previously called the FBI to tell them about the past appearance of the two persons described above in the Habana Bar and that he had related to the FBI the other details concerning the conversation of these two men and the fact that he, RUPERTO PENA, had told the FBI that he thought they were pro-Communist and pro-CASTRO. RUPERTO PENA explained that he requested BRINGUIER to call the FBI since BRINGUIER spoke English and he, RUPERTO PENA, does not speak English. He was not present when BRINGUIER called the FBI. RUPERTO PENA was unable to explain why he claims that he did not know whether he called the FBI or Immigration and Naturalization Service except to state that he had originally called either the FBI or Immigration and Naturalization Service and must have been under the impression that he called the FBI. PENA stated he was able to recall that he advised BRINGUIER to call the FBI to furnish the additional information regarding the license plates.

RUPERTO PENA also mentioned that he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Habana Bar or any other location. He had no information about LEE HARVEY OSWALD being present in the Habana Bar with any other individual. Specifically he stated that the two persons whom he has described above as being in the bar were to his knowledge in the Habana Bar only on the one occasion described above and that the only other time he saw those two persons was the occasion when they appeared in front of the Habana Bar in an automobile as set forth above.

RUPERTO PENA also mentioned that he never advised CARLOS BRINGUIER that he had ever seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Habana Bar or that the FBI had ever told him, RUPERTO PENA, that any person was pro-CASTRO or pro-Communist or that he had ever seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the presence of a person whom the FBI was seeking. Logically, according to RUPERTO PENA, he would have never been able to have told CARLOS BRINGUIER that either or both of the two men he has described above were ever seen by him or anyone else in the presence of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. In fact, RUPERTO PENA said that the two men about whom he allegedly called the FBI or Immigration a year or so ago have to his knowledge no connection whatsoever with LEE HARVEY OSWLAD. Mr. RUPERTO PENA does not recall what other persons may have been in the Habana Bar when the two men described above were in the bar. He stated that his brother, ORESTES PENA, the owner of the Habana Bar, does not know anything about the incident and that the barmaid, ARMANDA

JARVIS has no such knowledge.

Three photographs depicting LEE HARVEY OSWALD and a small group of persons standing in front of the International Trade Mart, New Orleans, at which time OSWALD was distributing pamphlets on the Fair Play for Cuba Committee were displayed to RUPERTO PENA and he was unable to identify any of the persons reflected in these photographs as persons he had seen previously or of whose identity he was aware.

RUPERTO PENA furnished the following background information regarding himself:

EVARISTO GILBERTO RODRIGUEZ, whose name as used in Cuba and other Latin American countries would include his mother's maiden name of ORTEGA, i.e., EVARISTO GILBERTO RODRIGUEZ-ORTEGO, in response to a request made to him on May 11, 1964, voluntarily appeared at the New Orleans Office on May 12, 1964, and furnished the following information:

RODRIGUEZ related that approximately in September, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD was observed by him in the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street. He explained this statement as follows:

As best he could recall it was in September, 1963, at approximately 3:30 a.m. or 4:00 a.m., day of the week not recalled, that two white males entered the Habana Bar and sat at a table opposite the center of the bar, both facing the entrance to the bar on Decatur Street.

According to RODRIGUEZ based on photographs he had seen of LEE HARVEY OSWALD after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY he was able to state that one of these two men he has described above was in his opinion LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He related that the person he believes to be OSWALD who entered the bar as stated above was accompanied by a white male, age about 32, a little taller than OSWALD and perhaps a little heavier than OSWALD. He described this man as being about 5'7", medium build with muscular biceps. He explained that this man was wearing a sleeveless slipon vest-like sweater, blue in color and was wearing a white, long sleeve business shirt with a tie, the color of which he does not recall. He was wearing a light sport coat which appeared to have a base color of grey interspersed with dull red lines, checkered in appearance. This man was wearing white pants, was light complexioned, wore no hat and no glasses. RODRIGUEZ was unable to recall the color of this man's hair; however, he did recall that he was able to speak Spanish very well. RODRIGUEZ was not able to state whether this man was Mexican, Cuban, Argentine or a national of any other Spanish speaking country. He related that the person he believed to be OSWALD wore a short sleeve white sport shirt with an open collar, dark pants. He wore no glasses and no hat and apparently spoke no Spanish.

RODRIGUEZ then related that when these two persons entered the Habana Bar the party he believes was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD gave the appearance of being drunk and was assisted to the above mentioned table opposite the bar by the man that accompanied him. RODRIGUEZ related that the man who accompanied the person he believes was OSWALD was seated on the side of the table closer to the bar and the party he shall refer to herinafter as OSWALD was seated closer to the wall opposite the bar. At that time the owner of the bar, ORESTES PENA, was seated at the far end of the bar also facing the entrance on Decatur Street and from this position PENA could observe the backs of the party believed to be OSWALD and his friend.

RODRIGUEZ related that the man with "OSWALD" ordered a tequila in Spanish. RODRIGUEZ carried the tequila to the table where "OSWALD" and his companion were seated and gave the tequila to "OSWALD's" companion and told him "That will be 50 cents." "OSWALD's" companion who spoke Spanish asked RODRIGUEZ in Spanish who the owner was. RODRIGUEZ replied "He is a Cuban but an American citizen." RODRIGUEZ claims that "OSWALD's" companion then stated that "He is an imperialist or a capitalist." RODRIGUEZ claims he advised this man that he is an American who lives off of his business.

According to RODRIGUEZ all the conversation was in Spanish with "OSWALD's" companion. While he was having the described discussion with "OSWALD's" companion, "OSWALD" had begun to drink the tequila which was ordered by his companion and "OSWALD" had commenced to vomit after drinking a half portion of the tequila. "OSWALD's" companion attempted to assist "OSWALD" and ordered a lemonade. RODRIGUEZ claims he walked to the far end of the bar and spoke to ORESTES PENA advising "these two men" wanted a lemonade, and RODRIGUEZ

mentioned to ORESTES PENA "we don't make lemonades here." RODRIGUEZ then said ORESTES told him to go ahead and make the lemonade with some lemons, sugar and water. RODRIGUEZ claims he went immediately behind the bar and made the lemonade and as he was carrying the lemonade back to the table, stopped at the end of the bar and asked ORESTES how much should he charge for the lemonade and ORESTES advised him "25 cents." RODRIGUEZ claims he carried the lemonade to the table where "OSWALD" and his companion were seated and gave the lemonade to "OSWALD's" companion and speaking to him in Spanish told him that the lemonade was 25 cents and the latter gave him 25 cents. Immediately thereafter "OSWALD" and his companion stood up at the table and "OSWALD" assisted by his companion left the Habana Bar and while leaving "OSWALD's" companion said in Spanish that "the bar will be closed tomorrow." About three or four days later in the afternoon when EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ was returning from a call to see a doctor with ORESTES PENA they drove to Canal Street apparently on Carondelet Street and had turned right on Canal Street and headed towards the Mississippi River. It was at that time that RODRIGUEZ and PENA observed a congregation of people located in front of a theater on Canal Street between St. Charles and the next street closer to the river from St. Charles. In this group of people RODRIGUEZ observed CARLOS BRINGUIER talking to two policemen. He also observed two police cars and a white male entering one of the two police cars. Also on the sidewalk were scattered some yellow handbills. RODRIGUEZ stated that ORESTES PENA was driving his 1959 Mercury yellow four-door sedan and proceeded without stopping to observe the congregation any further. He stated that this is all he recalls about this incident on Canal Street.

On the following day about 12:30 p.m., CARLOS BRINGUIER came into the Habana Bar and advised RUPERTO PENA and ARMANDA JARVIS, the barmaid, that he, CARLOS BRINGUIER, had been in some difficulty with a pro-CASTRO individual who was distributing handbills on Canal Street. RODRIGUEZ mentioned, however, that at that time he did not know the man with whom BRINGUIER had difficulty on Canal Street was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that he now assumes that the white male getting in the police car at the time of the incident on Canal Street was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

RODRIGUEZ explained that after President KENNEDY was assassinated the picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD appeared on television and in the local newspapers. He believes that this occurred on the day after President KENNEDY was assassinated and that on the afternoon of that same day after seeing the picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD he told CARLOS BRINGUIER that "OSWALD" had been in the bar previously and told him the story about "OSWALD" being in the bar with an unknown male that spoke Spanish and about "OSWALD" vomiting in the bar as he, RODRIGUEZ, has outlined the story during this interview.

RODRIGUEZ specifically stated that he never told BRINGUIER or anyone that the man who was in the Habana Bar with a person he believed identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD was being sought by the FBI. He states he knows that he could not have made such a statement because he had no information at any time that the man he described above as being with "OSWALD" at the Habana Bar was wanted by the FBI. In fact he, RODRIGUEZ, had not been talked to by any FBI Agent prior to the date of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

RODRIGUEZ was unable to recall what persons were in the Habana Bar on the morning that he allegedly saw "OSWALD" and a companion of "OSWALD's" in the Habana Bar other than ORESTES PENA. He reiterated that the person he believed to be identical with OSWALD was definitely drunk. This was the only occasion he had seen the man he believed to be OSWALD and the man that accompanied the latter except possibly on the occasion of the incident on Canal Street when he saw a man entering the police car who could have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

RODRIGUEZ was shown three photographs depicting LEE HARVEY OSWALD distributing handbills in front of the International Trade Mart, New Orleans, which photographs also included numerous other persons. The only person that RODRIGUEZ was able to identify in these photographs as someone he has seen previously was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He claimed that he did not know the identity of any of the other persons in the photographs nor had he seen any of them previously.

RODRIGUEZ furnished the following background information regarding himself:

Name	EVARISTO GILBERTO RODRIGUEZ, or EVARISTO GILBERTO RODRIGUEZ ORTEGA
Alien Registration No.	A 15 391 115
Sex	Male
Race	White
Date of Birth	7/26/41

ARMANDA JARVIS, wife of JIMMY JARVIS, advised she has been a barmaid for the last few years at the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street. She advised she has always been employed there during the daytime and her hours are 6 a.m. to 4 p.m. She stated she has never worked at nights or in the evenings at this bar. She advised she has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the past. She has never heard from anyone else at the bar that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had ever been there alone or with anyone else. She has never heard that anyone who had ever been seen in the presence of LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in the bar or that anyone that the FBI was seeking and who had been in company with OSWALD had ever been in the Habana Bar. In short she claims she had no knowledge whatsoever concerning OSWALD or anyone who was allegedly in the presence of OSWALD.

ARMANDA JARVIS advised that she was naturalized as a United States Citizen on January 15, 1958, in United States District Court, Eastern District of Louisiana, New Orleans, Louisiana. She claims that she presently resides at 913½ Decatur Street, that her husband is a seaman and a member of the National Maritime Union. She furnished the date of her marriage as February 14, 1956, in St. Bernard Parish, Louisiana. She furnished the names of her parents as ARMANDA GONZALEZ FERRER and her father as PEDRO GONZALEZ. She claims her father is deceased and her mother resides in Cuba. She related she has previously worked at the Federal Barge Lines as a charwoman in St. Louis and St. Paul between 1955 and 1958.

ARMANDA JARVIS was shown three photographs depicting LEE HARVEY OSWALD distributing handbills in front of the International Trade Mart, New Orleans, which photographs include various other persons. After observing these photographs she was unable to identify any of the persons depicted there and advised that she does not recall ever seeing any such persons previously.

RE ALLEGED ANTI-CASTRO
TRAINING CAMP IN THE NEW ORLEANS AREA

NO 105-1095

On July 30, 1963, NO T-1, who is in a position to learn of some of the activities by anti-CASTRO and pro-CASTRO Cubans in the New Orleans area, advised that on late Wednesday night, July 24, 1963, the Border Patrol at New Orleans advised the Catholic Refugee Center that ten Cuban refugees had arrived in New Orleans from Miami. They were traveling in two automobiles and the cars had broken down on the Chef Menteur Highway. The Refugee Center arranged for them to stay at the Monterey Motel on the Chef Menteur Highway in New Orleans.

NO T-1 furnished the following additional information:

T-1 stated that on July 25, 1963, RUDOLPH DAVIS, who allegedly resides in the Parkchester Apartments in New Orleans and is believed to be of Cuban nationality, remarked at the motel that "This is all a mistake." DAVIS remarked that these individuals were going to work for him at a camp and that they were going to a training camp in Guatemala following this. T-1 stated that the training camp must be within two hours drive of New Orleans since DAVIS goes to the reported site and returns the same day. According to unverified information obtained by T-1 from remarks made by DAVIS and RAUL DIAZ, an employee of the Refugee Center who resides in the St. Thomas Housing Project in New Orleans, there are reported to be eighteen men at this training site under the guidance of VICTOR PANEQUE and that with the additional ten men, it would mean there are twenty-eight men at the site. T-1 further related that from the conversation heard, it appeared that possibly some of the individuals were going to Guatemala on Tuesday, August 6, 1963, means unknown. T-1 related there was no other information available to the source at this time regarding the location of the alleged training camp.

On July 30, 1963, Mr. JAMES A. YORK, Chief Patrol Inspector, U. S. Border Patrol, New Orleans, advised that at 10:55 p.m. on July 24, 1963, they received a call from the New Orleans Police Department for assistance. Two cars containing ten Cuban refugees from Miami had broken down on the Chef Menteur Highway and the police needed the assistance of an interpreter. Such an interpreter was furnished and it was learned that these Cubans were penniless and that they were on their way to New Orleans to look for work. At the request of the Cuban Refugee Center, they were referred to the Monterey Motel and they had no further contact with them and did not obtain their names.

On August 14, 1963, contact was made with RAUL DIAZ, telephone number 529-3200, in the absence of Mrs. ELISE CERNIGLIA, who has been out of town on vacation for several weeks. RAUL DIAZ, who is an assistant of Mrs. CERNIGLIA, advised he has been ill for several weeks but was able to furnish the following information regarding some 11 Cubans who had come to New Orleans during the last days of July, 1963, ostensibly as a layover enroute to a training camp located in the general vicinity of New Orleans.

RAUL DIAZ advised he had been instructed either on July 28 or 29, 1963, to go out to the Motel Monterey on Highway 90 East, where there were some 10 or 11 Cubans allegedly registered. RAUL DIAZ related that he went out to the Motel Monterey as instructed and found some 11 Cubans, as well as one RICHARD DAVIS of the Parkchester Apartments in New Orleans, who was also present.

DIAZ learned that RICHARD DAVIS was attempting to get the Catholic Cuban Refugee Center, headed by Mrs. CERNIGLIA, to pay the cost of the motel bill and to furnish these Cubans with additional funds. DIAZ claims he told DAVIS that none of these Cubans would be qualified to receive Governmental assistance through the Catholic Cuban Refugee Center, as they were not registered as being located in this area.

According to DIAZ, these 11 Cubans were headed by a man named VICTOR PANEQUE, all of whom were from Miami. He understood from conversation that they had come to New Orleans for the purpose of going to a training camp in the vicinity of New Orleans to get military training.

DIAZ stated it was his further understanding that these people were to be given funds by RICHARD DAVIS, who allegedly has a summer home across the lake from New Orleans, but apparently DAVIS had used the money for some other purpose.

Inasmuch as DIAZ fell sick on the next day and was bedridden for approximately two weeks, he had no additional information. He advised that when Mrs. CERNIGLIA returned from her vacation, she would likely have some additional information.

On August 14, 1963, NO T-2 advised that T-2 had understood that a group of Cubans had come to New Orleans from Miami about two weeks ago for the purpose of being trained at a camp located on the other side of the lake from New Orleans. It is his understanding that these Cubans expected to have a complete training area, as well as equipment, but that when they arrived, they learned that their quarters were a summer cottage owned by RICHARD DAVIS of New Orleans, and that the only equipment was broomsticks to be used in training in place of weapons. T-2 also understood that DAVIS allegedly had funds for these people which he had derived from some unknown source, but when the Cubans arrived in New Orleans, DAVIS had no funds to give them.

NO T-2 explained two Cubans of this group, in particular one who was allegedly from Puerto Rico, were looking for DAVIS to harm him because he had apparently deceived them. For this reason DAVIS' whereabouts during the presence of these Cubans was unknown.

It was T-2's further understanding that these 11 Cubans joined about 9 others who were already at the summer house, and that the entire 20 had returned to Miami disappointed.

On September 12, 1963, Mrs. ELISE CERNIGLIA, head of the Catholic Cuban Center in New Orleans, who had been out of town for the previous several weeks on vacation, advised on or about July 24,1963 she had received a telephone call to the effect that some 10 Cubans had arrived in New Orleans from Miami. She explained that these 10 Cubans had been stopped by the New Orleans Police. She stated the police turned the Cubans over to the Border Patrol and when they learned they were Cuban refugees, she was contacted at the Catholic Cuban Center in New Orleans.

Mrs. CERNIGLIA stated she learned that these men had come to New Orleans allegedly through efforts of RICHARD DAVIS, JR. She stated she had contacted DAVIS and he said that they were his men and that he had a company in Guatemala who was going to hire them. She stated that DAVIS requested financial assistance in their lodging since they were Cuban refugees. Mrs. CERNIGLIA stated she reluctantly found them lodging at the Monterey Motel on the Chef Menteur Highway in New Orleans and paid for the lodging there. She stated these men were not registered individually but had registered under the account of the Catholic Cuban Center in New Orleans.

Mrs. CERNIGLIA stated the only other pertinent information she had was that DAVIS allegedly had some type of business firm in the Pere Marquette Building in New Orleans which allegedly was to hire these people. She remarked that it was her understanding that all of these Cubans returned to Florida on the following Sunday after their arrival in New Orleans.

She had no information concerning the camp where they were to train outside of New Orleans but understood it was owned by someone in the same firm in which DAVIS was a member.

RAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATIC

Date October 2, 1963

He advised he was born September 9, 1934 at Manhattan, New York, but had resided in Cuba between the ages of 2 and 26. He stated he had returned to the United States on January 12, 1961 from Cuba via Miami, after which he resided in New York City until August, 1961. Since the latter date he has been residing in New Orleans. He claims he is presently a Cuban alien with Alien Registration #A-12-280-713, however he has a special litigation current to re-establish his United States citizenship by birth.

He explained that he had become friendly with a university professor by the name of JOSE IGNACIO ROSCO some time ago in Cuba and added that ROSCO had been a professor at the University of Havana. In 1959 ROSCO formed a movement against CASTRO. In 1959 DAVIS told ROSCO that he would like to become a member of his movement in Cuba but about a week later ROSCO and his organization "went underground."

DAVIS mentioned that he left Cuba in January, 1961 and went immediately to New York City, where he had become acquainted with friends of his active in the Christian Democratic Movement (CDM)(Movimiento Democratica Cristiano)(MDC). He related he acted as a coordinator between this group and the New York Police Department. He stated he is definitely anti-CASTRO.

According to DAVIS, he came to New Orleans in August, 1961. He then related that sometime early in 1963 he had made friends with persons in the lumber business in Guatemala and had formed with them the Guatemalan Lumber and Mineral Corporation. This is a Louisiana corporation that has a contract with the Guatemalan Government to take mahogany out of Guatemala.

Having need of some men to work in Guatemala in cutting lumber for this firm, he had contacted LAUREANO BATISTA, who happens to be connected with MDC in Miami, to see if LAUREANO had some men he might send him for work in this lumber company's business in Guatemala.

According to DAVIS, some 19 men were sent by LAUREANO BATISTA from Miami to New Orleans in response to DAVIS's request. Unfortunately these men, for some reason or another, came to New Orleans with the idea that they were going to be trained in New Orleans for a military operation and sent to Guatemala for additional training. He claims that when he advised of the real purpose of their travel to New Orleans, they were disappointed and some were angry with him.

DAVIS claims that these people were dressed in khaki military-type clothing and it was necessary to buy them regular clothes. He then explained that his corporation is made up of the following officers:

JOSEPH MILLA, President (a Guatemalan);

GUS de LaBarre, Vice President;

RUDOLPH RICHARD DAVIS, JR., Vice President;

FRANK de LaBarre, Secretary and Attorney for this company.

DAVIS stated that GUS and FRANK de LaBarre contributed to the food and clothing of these men and sent them across the lake from New Orleans for housing and any training they could give them in connection with their lumber cutting work in Guatemala. He stated that the home where they stayed in St. Tammany Parish is located in Lacombe, Louisiana, about a mile from Highway 190 West on a secondary road.

DAVIS stated that during the last days of July the FBI had seized some dynamite and other explosives stored in a Lacombe, Louisiana residence which material, according to the newspaper, was to be used against Cuba. He stated this action disturbed these Cuban refugees and was probably partially responsible for the decision to return to Miami. Since they had come to New Orleans with the idea of receiving military training and additional military training in Guatemala, they were not willing to proceed to Guatemala to be employed in mahogany lumber cutting. For this reason their passage on Greyhound Bus was paid for by the Guatemalan Lumber and Mineral Corporation, New Orleans, Louisiana. DAVIS states this is the extent of the information he has concerning this matter and he attests he had no intention of giving these people any military training or using them in any military adventure against Cuba.

DAVIS stated he did not know any of these refugees personally but could recall the names of the following:

VICTOR PANEQUE;
LEODOVINO INTERIAN;
FERNANDO FERNANDEZ;
Man named FORNES.

Set forth below is a physical description and background information concerning RUDOLPH RICHARD DAVIS, JR. as furnished by him:

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/17/63

1 Mr. CARLOS BRINGUIER, 107 Decatur Street, telephonically contacted the New Orleans Office and advised that about August 2, 1963, two Cubans who had been in a training camp somewhere across the lake, location unknown, came into his store and wanted to go back to Miami. BRINGUIER stated that he arranged bus transportation for them, and that these two Cubans told him that an individual in the camp, FERNANDO FERNANDEZ BARCENA, was a CASTRO spy.

BRINGUIER said he later learned that some letters written by BARCENA had been intercepted, one of which was to the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City. BRINGUIER said that he believes that BARCENA was questioned by Agents in Miami, and that there was something about the activity of BARCENA in the "Miami Herald."

Mr. BRINGUIER advised that the above was being called to the FBI's attention at this time, since LEE HARVEY OSWALD had appeared at BRINGUIER's store on August 5, 1963, and offered to train guerillas.

BRINGUIER said he knew of no connection that OSWALD had with any Cubans, and that OSWALD made no mention of any Cuban training camp and gave no indication of knowing about a training camp or of being acquainted with any Cubans.

Date May 13, 1964

RUPERTO JERONIMO PENA, also known as RUPERTO JERONIMO PENA - ALFONSO, operator of the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, furnished the following information in response to inquiries:

RUPERTO PENA advised that about a year or so ago two men bearing the following descriptions entered the Habana Bar about 8 or 9 o'clock one evening and they were heard to discuss matters pertaining to Cuba which left RUPERTO PENA with the definite impression that they were pro-CASTRO and pro-Communist:

One of the above two is described by RUPERTO PENA as a white male, age approximately 25, 5'7", 130 pounds, light brown complexion, black medium-long straight hair combed straight back who appeared to be of Mexican nationality and who also appeared to have a college education. RUPERTO PENA recalls he was wearing a sport coat but could not recall other details of his dress.

The other person was a Cuban, age 30, 150 pounds, 5'9", medium build, tan complexion, appeared to be a Cuban by his speech and also wore a sport coat, other details of his attire not being recalled by RUPERTO PENA.

RUPERTO PENA advised that he does not know the names of the above two persons or any other information about them but is quite certain that they were not seamen. He said he had not seen either of these two persons prior to the occasion he has described above. He did recall that they spoke favorably of FIDEL CASTRO and he recalls they mentioned that things were going well in Cuba under FIDEL CASTRO.

According to RUPERTO PENA he called either the FBI or Immigration and Naturalization Service at New Orleans on the following day to advise Federal authorities of the above incident. He relates he mentioned to the person to whom he spoke in Spanish that it was his opinion the above two persons where pro-CASTRO and pro-Communist. RUPERTO person he believed to be OSWALD wore a short sleeve white sport shirt with an open collar, dark pants. He wore no glasses and no hat and apparently spoke no Spanish.

RODRIGUEZ then related that when these two persons entered the Habana Bar the party he believes was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD gave the appearance of being drunk and was assisted to the above mentioned table opposite the bar by the man that accompanied him. RODRIGUEZ related that the man who accompanied the person he believes was OSWALD was seated on the side of the table closer to the bar and the party he shall refer to hereinafter as OSWALD was seated closer to the wall opposite the bar. At that time the owner of the bar, ORESTES PENA, was seated at the far end of the bar also facing the entrance on Decatur Street and from this position PENA could observe the backs of the party believed to be OSWALD and his friend.

RODRIGUEZ related that the man with "OSWALD" ordered a tequila in Spanish. RODRIGUEZ carried the tequila to the table where "OSWALD" and his companion were seated and gave the tequila to "OSWALD's" companion and told him "That will be 50 cents." "OSWALD's" companion who spoke Spanish asked RODRIGUEZ in Spanish who the owner was. RODRIGUEZ replied "He is a Cuban but an American citizen." RODRIGUEZ claims that "OSWALD's" companion then stated that "He is an imperialist or a capitalist." RODRIGUEZ claims he advised this man that he is an American who lives off of his business.

According to RODRIGUEZ all the conversation was in Spanish with "OSWALD's" companion. While he was having the described discussion with "OSWALD's" companion, "OSWALD" had begun to drink the tequila which was ordered by his companion and "OSWALD" had commenced to vomit after drinking that portion of the tequila. "OSWALD's" companion attempted to assist "OSWALD" and ordered a lemonade. RODRIGUEZ claims he called to the far end of the bar and spoke to ORESTES PENA advising "these two men" wanted a lemonade, and RODRIGUEZ

mentioned to ORESTES PENA "we don't make lemonades here." RODRIGUEZ then said ORESTES told him to go ahead and make the lemonade with some lemons, sugar and water. RODRIGUEZ claims he went immediately behind the bar and made the lemonade and as he was carrying the lemonade back to the table, stopped at the end of the bar and asked ORESTES how much should he charge for the lemonade and ORESTES advised him "25 cents." RODRIGUEZ claims he carried the lemonade to the table where "OSWALD" and his companion were seated and gave the lemonade to "OSWALD's" companion and speaking to him in Spanish told him that the lemonade was 25 cents and the latter gave him 25 cents. Immediately thereafter "OSWALD" and his companion stood up at the table and "OSWALD" assisted by his companion left the Habana Bar and while leaving "OSWALD's" companion said in Spanish that "the bar will be closed tomorrow." About three or four days later in the afternoon when EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ was returning from a call to see a doctor with ORESTES PENA they drove to Canal Street approximately on Carondelet Street and had turned right on Canal Street and headed towards the Mississippi River. It was at that time that RODRIGUEZ and PENA observed a congregation of people located in front of a theater on Canal Street between St. Charles and the street closest to the river from St. Charles. In this group of people RODRIGUEZ observed CARLOS BRINGUIER talking to two policemen. He also observed two police cars and a white male entering one of the two police cars. Also on the sidewalk were scattered some yellow handbills. RODRIGUEZ stated that ORESTES PENA was driving his 1959 Mercury yellow four-door sedan and proceeded without stopping to observe the congregation any further. He stated that this is all he recalls about this incident on Canal Street.

On the following day about 12:30 p.m., CARLOS BRINGUIER came into the Habana Bar and advised RUPERTO PENA and ARMANDA JARVIS, the barmaid, that he, CARLOS BRINGUIER, had been in some difficulty with a pro-CASTRO individual who

Synopsis: Newspaper articles and investigation set forth concerning FERNANDO FERNANDEZ, mentioned by CARLOS BRINGUIER of New Orleans, Louisiana, in testimony to Counsel for President's Commission. Also set forth is article from magazine BOHEMIA INTERNACIONAL, issue of 2/2/64, wherein allegation is made that FIDEL CASTRO, during a speech on 11/27/63, committed a slip of the tongue in stating "The first time OSWALD was in Cuba....." Employee of USIA, Miami, stated that although all public speeches of CASTRO are monitored, no such slip of the tongue has been detected. He furnished translation of CASTRO's speech of 11/27/63; however no remark was noted implying that OSWALD visited Cuba.

DETAILS: The following is based on request of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY as indicated in letter dated April 23, 1964, by General Counsel J. LEE RANKIN to Director J. EDGAR HOOVER.

It is to be recalled that testimony by Mr. CARLOS BRINGUIER, was taken by Staff Counsel WESLEY J. LIEBELER, of the Presidential Commission, at New Orleans, Louisiana, on April 8, 1964. As indicated on page 33 of the transcript of testimony by BRINGUIER - Cuban "spy" FERNANDO FERNANDEZ, then in New Orleans, Louisiana, by letter to CARLOS LECHUGA, former Cuban Ambassador to Mexico, warned him to be alert for the period prior to August 8 (1963), and, according to BRINGUIER, it was on August 5 (1963) that OSWALD attempted to infiltrate BRINGUIER's anti-CASTRO organization at New Orleans. BRINGUIER referred to copies of the Spanish language newspaper DIARIO LAS AMERICAS for dates of September 4 and 6, 1963, containing articles on FERNANDO FERNANDEZ.

SUPPOSED AGENT OF FIDEL CASTRO IS NOT DETAINED BY THE FBI

SECRET SERVICE OFFICIAL MAKES STATEMENTS TO "DIARIO LAS AMERICAS"; --ONE OF THE LEADERS OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC MOVEMENT SPEAKS. DETAILS OF THE CHARGES

A report by
BENJAMIN DE LA VEGA

Tuesday morning, the FBI told the "Diario Las Americas" that the Castro spy, FERNANDO FERNANDEZ BARCENA, "was not being detained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

This statement by the important investigative agency of the United States gives a new twist to the denunciation made public yesterday by the leader of the Christian Democratic Movement, LAUREANO BATISTA FALLA, who said that he had turned over the uncovered Communist agent to the FBI.

"MAKING INVESTIGATIONS"

In answer to other questions, the official of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who received the reporter said that "the pertinent investigations are being made" concerning the charges which have been made by the Christian Democratic Movement.

When asked about the statements made to the reporter yesterday by Mr. LAUREANO BATISTA FALLA to the effect that the FBI had told him that "it was not a crime for Castro agents to spy on the groups of Cuban exiles and that it is only a crime to spy against this country and not against the exiles who are violating United States neutrality laws", the FBI official smiled briefly and said, practically without moving a single muscle of his face:

"We have no comment to make on that. These are strictly personal statements by Mr. BATISTA FALLA." The official added with emphasis: "We investigate everything which may hurt the security of the United States. Anyone who is acting as a foreign agent is immediately investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Castro agents are fully included in these investigations. But in order to arrest any person charged with these crimes, we must have the necessary proof."

"For his part, Mr. LAUREANO BATISTA FALLA, when questioned about the release of the supposed Castro spy, said:

"We gave sufficient proof to the FBI for his arrest. But among other reasons, we turned him over to that government office for fear that the Cuban exiles would make an attempt on the life of FERNANDO FERNANDEZ BARCENA."

So far the whereabouts of the confessed Castro agent are unknown, for at no time was he presented to the press as he should have been by the Christian Democratic Movement.

DIEGO VALERO SPEAKS

DIEGO VALERO, accused by FERNANDO FERNANDEZ BARCENA of being the leader of the Castro espionage network in Nassau, has stated that he cannot understand why this charge was made. As soon as VALERO, who is working for an English firm in Nassau, heard of the statements in which he was mentioned as a Castro agent, he flew to Miami to clarify his position to the investigative agencies of the United States.

DIEGO VALERO said: "I knew FERNANDEZ BARCENA some years ago, but I cannot understand why this charge against me has been made. When he came to Miami, he came to my house and I helped him in every way that I could. Last Saturday, when he was in Miami, he visited me at the hotel, and although he told me that he was disappointed in the anti-Castro fight, I had no indication that he was going to make this decision, and of course, I had no idea that he was in the service of CASTRO."

"As a matter of fact," added VALERO, "although I corresponded with him as I did with other friends, I never knew about his activities which he now claims in the interview to have told me. I repeat that I cannot understand why this charge was made, and if it were not for the time that I have had to waste in order to come to Miami to explain all this, the whole thing would make me laugh from now until the end of the week. I believe that Justice and Truth always win out, and that is why I have appealed to the United States agencies and I have placed myself at their disposal, so that they can make all the investigations which they deem pertinent."

THE CHARGE

By ADOLFO G. MERINO U.P.I.

MIAMI, Sept. 3 (UPI)--The Federal Bureau of Investigation today questioned a "confessed spy" for Communist Cuba who says that the subversive and espionage activities for all America are directed by the Cuban ambassadors in the United Nations and in Brazil.

FERNANDO FERNANDEZ, young exiled journalist, made a complete "confession" of his presumed espionage activities in a recording which he gave to the Christian Democratic Movement, directed by LAUREANO BATISTA (no relation to the ex-dictator FULGENCIO BATISTA).

In the recorded statement, FERNANDEZ says that the so-called forces of National Liberation which are operating in Venezuela "receive arms from Mexico and Cuba, and that the transfer is made on the high seas."

He adds that the network of subversion and espionage extends from the United States as far as the Bahamas and the distant South American "Southern Cone", and that the leaders of the network are "Ambassador CARLOS LECHUGA, formerly in Mexico and now head of the Cuban delegation in the United Nations, and the newly-appointed Ambassador to Brazil, RAUL ROA KOURI, son of the Cuban Minister of Foreign Relations." He indicated that the strategic "Southern Cone" also has as its leader a journalist, "JOSE RODRIGUEZ MENDEZ, Cultural Attache to the Cuban Embassy in Brazil", and that in the Bahamas "lives the immediate superior of the Miami network, named DIEGO VALERO."

A specific task entrusted to FERNANDEZ, according to his statement, is that of investigating the activities of the Cuban exiles in Central America. His chief objective was to follow the activities of MANUEL ARTIME, one of the leaders of the unsuccessful invasion of the Bay of Pigs, who is connected with the so-called "Central American Plan".

The Christian Democratic Movement in exile presented a letter which it says was sent by FERNANDEZ prior to his arrest, to the then Cuban Ambassador in Mexico, LECHUGA, which says:

"I happen to have infiltrated a commando group which is preparing to undertake a big operation against Cuba. I have detailed information about the military plan. The attack is imminent and is leaving from Central America..."

FERNANDEZ said that he signed his confidential correspondence with the pseudonym of HENRY PRIETO, and he warned that "from now until August 8, it is vital to remain alert."

He said that he arrived in the United States on January 11, 1961, but he began to work specifically in the Network of Espionage and Subversion about a year ago. The recruiting was done in Kansas City, Missouri.

In Mexico, he added, IECHUGA's lieutenants were a Venezuelan named HENDEL CRUZAL, who takes care of getting supplies for the Communist terrorist group called Front of National Liberation." The other is "OSVALDO ANAYA, a Mexican."

He said that "from Mexico, arms and money are sent to the Venezuelan terrorists. The arms are transported in Cuban fishing boats to some point on the high seas, where contacts are made with Venezuelan boats and those of other nationalities, which introduce them clandestinely into that country."

He said that FIDEL CASTRO's watchword for the Venezuelan terrorists is "a rifle under each jacket. CASTRO's direct agent in Venezuela is a Cuban named CANALES."

He stated that the Cuban embassies in "Mexico and Brazil are assigned, among other things, the task of issuing false passports and identification documents. Money is distributed from these centers. The Network penetrates deeply into the "Southern Cone", where journalist JOSE RODRIGUEZ MENDEZ, Cultural Attache to the Embassy in Brazil", directs all the activities of subversion and espionage."

The Miami Office of the FBI refused to give any information on the questioning of FERNANDEZ.

The following is a translation of an article from the Spanish language daily, "Diario Las Americas", September 6, 1963, page 1, cols. 6-8, page 15, col. 7:

FERNANDO FERNANDEZ ADVOCATES COEXISTENCE WITH THE COMMUNIST REGIME OF FIDEL CASTRO

Cuban ex-journalist, FERNANDO FERNANDEZ, charged with being a spy by the Christian Democratic Movement of Cuban exiles, repudiated the taped confession of his activities in behalf of the Communist regime of CASTRO, and according to a statement to "The Miami Herald", he claimed that it had been obtained from him under threats and torture.

FERNANDEZ told the authorities of Miami that the members of the Christian Democratic Movement had tortured him by tightening a cord around his neck and placing a pistol at his head in order to force him to confess that he was an agent for CASTRO. U.S.

The members of the Movement insist, however, that the aforementioned confession was voluntary, and for that reason, he had been taken to the FBI four days ago and presented along with a taped recording of the above-mentioned confession. LAUREANO BATISTA, leader of the anti-Castro organization, who obtained the confession, declared that it had been made voluntarily and that there had been no coercion.

FERNANDEZ appeared voluntarily before the officials of the Intelligence Section of the Miami Police Department, and told them that he had been beaten and "tortured" at pistol point for twelve hours. He asked that charges of kidnapping, assault and battery be lodged against his supposed torturers.

In regard to his politics, FERNANDEZ, himself, describes himself as being neither "anti-American nor anti-Castro", and says that he favors "peaceful coexistence with Cuba", in spite of the fact that he came to Miami as a refugee in 1961.

He also said that he would like to return to Cuba to stay there and to suffer along with his parents, his sister and his aunt.

He stated that the confession in question was false and that it had been obtained from him under threat of death if he did not make it just that way; therefore, after hearing his charges, the authorities decided to present them to the District Attorney's Office in case some legal action should have to be taken.

ARTHUR E. HUTTON, Assistant District Attorney, said Wednesday that he had informed the Intelligence officers who were to hear FERNANDEZ, and that there would then be an investigation to find out if any law had been violated.

--The members of the Christian Democratic Movement say that FERNANDEZ accompanied them to the FBI office of his own accord. FERNANDEZ was released Tuesday.

At no time have the FBI Agents or the Miami Intelligence officials said that the confession was true or that it was obtained under pressure, but it has been said that there would be an investigation to see whether the Movement took the law into its own hands in order to obtain a confession.

In regard to this matter, BATISTA said that they did not intend to continue the controversy, since they did their duty by turning FERNANDEZ over to the authorities in order to let the law take its course.

DENUNCIATION

In a report published by "The Miami News" on the case of the supposed Castro spy, it says that FERNANDO FERNANDEZ told the police of Miami that he had confessed to having engaged in espionage work for CASTRO only after he had been tortured for 12 hours by the exile leaders of the Christian Democratic Movement with a 45-caliber pistol aimed at his head.

According to his vague explanation, FERNANDO JOSE FERNANDEZ BARCENA, 34 years of age, tried to hinder the plans of the action groups among the exiles in order to prevent a "massacre".

"The exiles will not get anywhere in their fight against CASTRO because they do not have the proper conditions," FERNANDEZ summed up.

FERNANDEZ told the police that during his alleged ordeal of 12 hours he was subjected to "physical and mental" torture, and he finally invented a "false and exaggerated" story, which was his "confession".

He now said, "I was confused and I did not know what to do. I want to return to Cuba because I believe that FIDEL is going to stay in power, and I want to suffer along with my people."

In the tape-recorded confession, which was turned over to the FBI, FERNANDEZ said that he had infiltrated the CIA as well as groups of exiles and that he was about to be sent to Cuba as an agent of that American agency.

In yesterday's explanation, he admitted having written a letter to Ambassador CARLOS LECHUGA in Mexico, warning him about the exiles' proposed plans for attack.

He also said that he had been "filled with anxiety" when he aroused suspicion upon infiltrating the group.

The following information pertaining to FERNANDO FERNANDEZ was developed at Miami, Florida, during investigation conducted in August and September, 1963.

On August 3, 1963, VICTOR PANEQUE BATISTA and ARIBERTO VALDES MOLLINEDA, Assistants to LAUREANO BATISTA FALLA, the Military Coordinator of the Movimiento Democrata Cristiano (MDC - Christian Democratic Movement), appeared at the Miami Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and advised as follows: FLA.

Approximately a month previously, FERNANDO JOSE FERNANDEZ BARCENA was brought to the MDC office by a relative named JULIO POWER. FERNANDEZ had recently arrived in Miami from Kansas City, Missouri, and desired to join the MDC. Certain members of the MDC soon noted that FERNANDEZ took an unusual interest in the activities of the MDC, and they became suspicious of his motives. MDC member HENRY INFANTE LEDEA was delegated by the MDC to develop a close association with FERNANDEZ, in order to learn of his activities and motives. INFANTE was successful in developing such a close association, and subsequently intercepted certain correspondence which had been entrusted to INFANTE by FERNANDEZ for mailing. Among the items of correspondence which were made available by the MDC to the FBI, either in original or copy form, was a letter written by FERNANDEZ to the Cuban Ambassador in Mexico, marked "Personal and Confidential". This letter, which was not mailed, was as follows: FLA. FLA.

"August 1, 1963

"Cuban Ambassador in Mexico

"Your Excellency:

"I have by chance infiltrated in a commando group which is preparing to engage in a serious operation in Cuba. I have some detailed reports on this military plan.

"The attack, which is imminent, is leaving from Central America.

"It is possible to prevent it, and for that purpose, a comrade and I, who wish to return to serve (or "again to serve") the Revolution of Dr. FIDEL CASTRO, offer our services.

"Obviously, we are not in Mexico now. This letter has reached you through friendly hands.

"My comrade and I wish to return to Cuba. We ask you to intercede for us. Also, what way can we use to return? Is it possible to get diplomatic asylum in some Embassy in Central America? Is it possible to escape by some clandestine means.

"In short, we await instructions.

"It is vital for you to remain alert from now until the 8th in order to receive our communication.

"Our code name will be: HENRY PRIETO.

"We can assure you that this demoniacal commando plan has very serious implications and consequences. And we wish to warn you in time and to prevent it.

"Wait for more news from us.

"Very truly yours,
HENRY"

MDC members PANEQUE and VALDES, on the occasion of their visit to the FBI Office, Miami, on August 3, 1963, advised that for several weeks prior to that date, certain members of the MDC had been in New Orleans, Louisiana, in contact with RICHARD R. DAVIS, JR., the MDC delegate in New Orleans. Included in the group at New Orleans were FERNANDO FERNANDEZ, PANEQUE and VALDES. PANEQUE stated that FERNANDEZ speaks excellent English, and in order to entrap FERNANDEZ, PANEQUE and others drew up a fictitious anti-CASTRO plan of action, which they requested FERNANDEZ to translate into English. PANEQUE made available a copy of the plan, which was translated by FERNANDEZ as follows:

"Caracas, Venezuela. July 23 1963

"Captain LEOVINO INTERIAN
c/o RICHARD R. DAVIS, JR.: Delegate in New Orleans
1570 Westbrook Dr.
New Orleans 22, La.

"Dear LEOVINO:

"I am sending you these orders in the English language, in order to avoid any kind of problems in security. Once you have opened this personally (if you do not receive the envelope sealed, do not trust the contents), I ask you to get in touch with our Delegate there as soon as possible, so that he, personally, will translate this Spanish, if you do not have any other person you can trust at the camp.

(Translator's note: English starts here)

"We have acquired the necessary financial resources as well as military bases, so that we can now hit

"Castroland with everything we have. I have received a check for $9,575.00 from Mr. DAVIS and his friends, and with this money, we have paid for two Mustang's (P-51) and one B-26 Bomber. All with their bombs and ammunition.

"Zero hour for the comendo raid shall be August 10, 0400 hours, objective Charlie Chan, 17 men in all, all armed with submachine guns, (300 rounds each) 5 hand granades, and one 12 gauge riot shot gun, this with 85 shells each.

"Charlie Chan is the code name for the phisical elimination of every russian son of a bitch who might happen to be living in the hotel Rosita de Hornedo, first ave. and O street in Miramar, Habana, Cuba. The commandos will take the lobby of this hotel, cut all telephone communications, and proceed, in 14 minutes to kill every russian that is at that particular time living in the hotel. They shall immediately be evacuated by the U.S. Navy, via U.D.T. (Underwater Demolition Teams) and submarine U.S.S. BARRACUDA. This sub is right now stationed 28 miles north of Habana, patroling the Key West Strights and waiting for the code word, wich shall be 'GO TIGER, GO, GO, GO.'

"At the same time, our air group 'ANTONIO MACEO' will hit the refineries of BELLOT in Habana bay, and the NARANJITO power station, thus leaving the city without electric power or oil, I have received a guaranteee if we can do this, the O.E.A., will immediately demand the overthrough of the red regime of Cuba.

"The men under your command will leave your base on August 1st, 0700 hours, and shall proceed to Nicaragua via ocean fishing boat. I shall be waiting for your arrival and take personal command from that point on. GOOD LUCK and GOD BLESS YOU

"BATISTA

PANEQUE stated that unquestionably, the anti-CASTRO plan referred to by FERNANDEZ in his correspondence directed to the Cuban Ambassador in Mexico was information FERNANDEZ had gathered while translating the above plan of action drawn up by the MDC.

REFERRAL

FERNANDO FERNANDEZ to the Miami Office of the FBI, stating FERNANDEZ had chosen to come to the FBI voluntarily.

Interview of FERNANDO FERNANDEZ was conducted by the FBI at Miami, Florida, on September 1, 3 and 6, 1963, and the following information elicited:

FERNANDEZ was born April 20, 1929, in Cuba and entered the United States in January, 1961, taking up residence at Kansas City, Missouri, where he attended the Kansas City University and was self-employed in an employment agency wherein he imported Mexican women as maids to the Kansas City area, and this activity resulted in investigation by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS). Fearing arrest by INS, FERNANDEZ left Kansas City and came to Miami, Florida, about July, 1963, where he became affiliated with the anti-CASTRO Christian Democratic Movement (MDC).

Although the expressed aim of the MDC was to return to Cuba, FERNANDEZ became disillusioned with MDC's inability to undertake meaningful action against the CASTRO regime and he conceived a plan to trade information regarding MDC military operations in order that he could obtain asylum in Cuba. He said his principal motive in desiring return to Cuba was to avoid arrest by the INS, resulting from his activity in bringing Mexican aliens into the United States.

Shortly after his affiliation with MDC at Miami, about July, 1963, he traveled with a group of MDC members to New Orleans, Louisiana, to receive commando training at a farm about 30 miles north of New Orleans. About 18 men were involved in the training, which consisted of guerrilla tactics, but the equipment was inadquate and it appeared to FERNANDEZ that the MDC was conducting a racket by exhibiting the "commandos" in training to wealthy Americans who were asked to contribute to the anti-CASTRO cause. He said that while at camp near New Orleans, he was given a letter by the MDC members which set forth a military plan entitled "CHARLIE CHAN Operation." He said this operation provided for a commando landing party to assault a hotel in Cuba, killing Russian diplomats at the hotel, and then returning to the United States through assistance of underwater demolition teams operating off the U.S. Submarine BARRACUDA.

FERNANDEZ said he realized the plan was absurd and that the MDC was totally unqualified to carry it out. FERNANDEZ said that while at the MDC camp he became increasingly aware of the inability of the MDC organization in the movement against CASTRO, and in general became despondent for the success of the anti-CASTRO cause. He said since he was already fearing arrest by INS, he decided to make other plans to return to Cuba and he therefore wrote a letter to CARLOS LECHUGA, Cuban Ambassador to Cuba, in which he told LECHUGA he was a member of an anti-CASTRO organization, and had information concerning an imminent attack on Cuba and would provide the information to the Cuban Government if he could himself return to Cuba. He said he reasoned that the "CHARLIE CHAN" plan would not materialize and therefore in divulging it to the Cuban Government, he would not betray the MDC.

FERNANDEZ stated after he returned to Miami with the MDC, he began to make arrangements to return to Cuba. He said he decided to leave clandestinely by boat and spoke of his plan to other members of the MDC, many of whom expressed their own desire to return to Cuba because of relatives there and disillusionment about life in exile.

FERNANDEZ said he intended to depart from Miami for Cuba on August 31, 1963, but had insufficient funds to obtain supplies for the trip. He said that on the morning of September 1, 1963, several members of the MDC placed him under house arrest at the MDC headquarters in Miami, and he was told that the members, including MDC leader LAUREANO BATISTA, were then acting in the capacity of a tribunal which could impose the death sentence on FERNANDEZ. FERNANDEZ stated under duress and threats of murder by MDC members, he confessed to being a Cuban intelligence agent and was released by the MDC after they had him sign a document in which he stated no duress was used to secure the confession.

During interview by the FBI, FERNANDEZ maintained that his confessions to the MDC were false and that he made them in order to obtain his release. He denied he ever acted as a Cuban intelligence agent or that he was a Communist, and stated his purpose in desiring to return to Cuba was to reunite with his family in spite of the CASTRO regime to which he is ideologically opposed. He admitted having written to CARLOS LECHUGA as alleged by the MDC and said his purpose was to exchange information with the Cuban government for safe return to Cuba.

On October 4, 1963, FERNANDEZ advised a Special Agent of the FBI that subsequent to the considerable derogatory publicity disseminated by various news media concerning his purported confession as a Cuban agent, he has lived in fear of reprisals by Cubans in the Miami area who believe he attempted to betray their cause. He said because of this and his concern for his family in Cuba, he again decided to attempt to arrange his legal return to Cuba, and in furtherance thereof wrote to CARLOS LECHUGA of the Cuban Mission to the United Nations in New York and also to the Czechoslovakian Embassy in Washington, D.C.

FERNANDEZ said he thought LECHUGA was the Cuban Ambassador to Mexico when he had written the letter regarding the plans of the MDC.

FERNANDEZ said he had not received a reply from his letter to CARLOS LECHUGA, but the Czechoslovakian Embassy, Washington, D.C., by letter dated September 30, 1963, acknowledged his communication and advised that no information relating to his status had been received from Cuba.

On October 16, 1963, FERNANDEZ advised he was attempting to be relocated in the United States through the assistance of the Catholic Relief Service at Miami.

On October 22, 1963, information was received from FERNANDEZ he was then residing at the YMCA at 826 S. Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Record of the U.S. District Court, Chicago, Illinois, Docket #63CR664, reflects that on February 20, 1964, FERNANDEZ was sentenced in Federal District Court, Chicago, to serve five years on each of three counts of violation of Section 1324 (a) IV, Title 8, U. S. Code. At that time FERNANDEZ had entered a plea of guilty to the charge of encouraging and inducing the illegal entry of aliens into the United States. Execution of sentence was suspended and FERNANDEZ was placed on probation for three years. FERNANDEZ was restricted by the court to remain within the jurisdiction of the Northern District of Illinois, unless he obtained permission from the Probation Department.

With respect to the training camp of the MDC near New Orleans, Louisiana, where FERNANDEZ stated he had been in August, 1963, FERNANDEZ advised the camp was on a farm believed known as the Gus Labar Walhend, about 30 miles north of New Orleans.

It is also noted that following the interrogation of FERNANDEZ by the MDC on September 1, 1963, which interrogation was partially conducted by MANOLO DE CANAL, Spanish Radio Station Commentator in Miami, details of FERNANDEZ' confession were broadcast from Miami radio stations. This publicity included allegations that 8 individuals located in the United States; Nassau, Bahamas; Mexico and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, were known to FERNANDEZ as CASTRO agents. Six of the eight individuals who were alleged to be CASTRO agents, voluntarily presented themselves for interviews on September 3 and 4, 1963, to deny the allegations and clear their names. These individuals were DIEGO VALERO of Nassau, Bahamas;

FLA.

JULIO POWER of Hialeah, Florida; CLAUDIO RODRIGUEZ and PEPE MENENDEZ of Miami, Florida, and HENRY BRUZUAL of Mexico City. BRUZUAL presented himself in the office of the American Embassy in Mexico City, for the purpose of clearing his name, as well as that of GUSTAVO OSMAYA, whose name had also been included as an alleged CASTRO agent. The only two individuals who did not present themselves to deny the allegations of FERNANDEZ were CARLOS LECHUGA of the Cuban Delegation to the United Nations and JOSE RODRIGUEZ MENENDEZ, described as a Cuban Embassy officer in Rio de Janeiro.

Also related to the confession given by FERNANDEZ to the MDC, is advice from the Office of the State Attorney, Miami, Florida, that on September 5, 1963, FERNANDEZ appeared at that office and furnished a sworn statement charging his civil rights were violated by a Cuban group that forced him by threats and violence to give a false statement implicating himself as a CASTRO spy.

It is noted that testimony by CARLOS BRINGUIER to Counsel for the Commission reflects on page 46 of his transcript that an article by Professor HERMINIO PORTELL-VILA, appearing in the February 2, 1964, issue of the magazine BOHEMIA INTERNACIONAL, contained a statement that FIDEL CASTRO was said to have made in a speech at the University of Havana on November 27, 1963. The statement was quoted as "The first time that OSWALD was in Cuba....."

BOHEMIA INTERNACIONAL, printed in Venezuela, is distributed at Miami, Florida, by Spanish Publications, 739 N.W. 29th Street.

The following is a translation of an article from the Spanish language magazine, "Bohemia Internacional", February 2, 1964, pages 16, 17, 53:

CHANGE OF DISGUISE

FLA. DC CUBA

By HERMINIO PORTELL VILA

On December 27 and 28, with a surprising and alarming uniformity many United States dailies published the news that the so-called "Fair Play for Cuba Committee" was disbanding or was ceasing to exist. It is evident that the publicity directors for those defenders of FIDEL CASTRO RUZ and his government prepared a single press release, called their friends and comrades on various newspapers and gave them the signal that the time had come to publish the obituary for the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba", because it seemed to be involved in something that was more serious than all the other complications which it had had: namely, its connection with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, supposed assassin of President KENNEDY, which would henceforth be a heavy leaden weight on the Committee, on CASTRO, and to some extent, on KHRUSHCHEV, himself, because of the disrepute of the crime, which, in addition, is very prejudicial to International Communism in these times of "peaceful coexistence".

I am sure that the Communists decided to do away with the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee" because it suits them to do so at this time, but they have already made plans to set it up again under some other name such as "Cuban-American Friends", "Free Cuba under Castro", or something like that.

The release given to the United States press places a great deal of emphasis on the fact that for some time no one has been going to the office at 799 Broadway, New York, even though the rent, light and telephone have been paid until the end of December, 1963. We are also told that VINCENT THEODORE LEE, incumbent Secretary General of the Committee, had left the organization before the assassination of President KENNEDY (though at the time he made statements to the effect that he had nothing to do with OSWALD), and that when RICHARD GIBSON, his predecessor, resigned, he began to work for the government of Algerian BEN BELLA, which is, in itself, a revelation. As for ROBERT (RED) TABER, the journalist with a prison record, one-time member of the staff of the Columbia Broadcasting System, visitor in the Sierra Maestra, who was the founder of the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba", he is back in the United States after having spent some time in Communist Cuba, with a uniform and machine gun, in the service of CASTRO.

I.C. CUBA

The "Communist Cuban apparatus" in the United States is very extensive, influential and diversified. It has always had plenty of financial support, furnished through CASTRO's delegation to the UNO, and also sent via Canada and Mexico, two countries which are used by Communist Cuba to smuggle propaganda and to transfer funds. "Fair Play" operated in accordance with the "apparatus" in question, which has not disappeared; quite to the contrary, it is even more to be feared now than it ever was, according to Mr. J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

On Wednesday, April 6, 1960, "The New York Times" published a full-page ad on page 33, Section C, which notified the general public of the formation of the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee", with WALDO FRANK and CARLETON BEALS as co-presidents, and with a long list of sponsors, more or less known for their leftist tendencies, among them, ROBERT (RED) TABER, TRUMAN CAPOTE, Negro writer JAMES BALDWIN, and the violent Negro racist, ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, later a fugitive to Communist Cuba when the United States law was after him for common crimes. Friday, April 21, 1964, the "Fair Play" published another full-page ad in "The New York Times" with propaganda in favor of the Communist government of Cuba. According to statements made under oath to the investigators of the United States Senate, those ads were paid for at the regular rate of the New York daily, more than four thousand dollars a page. As for one of them, it has been proved that this was paid for with a check sent by the dictatorship of CASTRO to the deceased professor, MANUEL BISBE ALBERNI, at that time Cuban Ambassador to the UNO. The check for $3,500 was endorsed by the professor in favor of RAUL ROA KOURI, now Ambassador from Communist Cuba to Brazil, and at that time attached to the Cuban delegation to the UNO, and was then endorsed again in favor of Dr. CARLOS A. SANTOS BUCH, in such a way that the amount could be obtained in cash. In all that, the aforementioned Cubans worked hand in hand with ROBERT (RED) TABER, who had been sentenced to prison several times for armed robbery, kidnapping, carrying weapons, etc.

N.Y. Cub N.Y.

The investigations carried on by the United States federal authorities could not prove all the aid received from Communist Cuba by the "Fair Play"; but if one bears in mind that the comrades on "Prensa Latina" received hundreds of thousands of dollars worth, it is to be presumed that its "cut" was quite large, because just look at all the publicity which "Fair Play" gave throughout the United States since 1960! As incidental wages, WALDO FRANK collected thousands of pesos for praising CASTRO, as did JEAN PAUL SARTRE. CARLETON BEALS became CASTRO's paid writer, as did TABER also... And the others?

During the course of 1960-1961, I was a visiting professor at the University of Florida in Gainesville, where there was a branch of the "Fair Play" in operation. It boasted that it had 21 branches in the United States and 4 in Canada, with a membership of 6,000. The New Orleans branch was not among them at that time, because it was not formed until two years later, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the presumed assassin of President KENNEDY, returned to the United States after his contacts with the Communist Cuban Ambassadors in Moscow, FAURE CHOMON and CARLOS OLIVARES. Concerning this last-mentioned fact, the Communist dictatorship of Cuba says nothing, although the Kremlin has turned over to the United States a file with the documents referring to OSWALD in the Soviet Union. During his speech of November 27, 1963, at the University of Havana, when CASTRO said "the first time that OSWALD was in Cuba", his tongue was under the influence of "Peralta" cognac, and he revealed something which is very important.

"Fair Play", with the aid of JUNE COBB, organized excursions of "students" and agitators from the United States to visit Communist Cuba, with all expenses paid. It published bulletins and announcements; it distributed propaganda received from Communist Cuba; it deceived the unwary; it kept CASTRO informed of those things which interested him concerning the United States; and it held in Canada and in the United States a large number of meetings in favor of the dictatorship in Communist Cuba and against the Cuban emigres, persecuted by the Castristas... It probably did much more before it had among its collaborators LEE HARVEY OSWALD, whose imprudent acts left the trail which was discovered at the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY, and which led to the main office of the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba", so that its usefulness under that name and with its present directors came to an end on November 22, 1963. The five thousand dollars with which OSWALD returned from Mexico probably had the same origin as the money which paid for the ads in "The New York Times", in other words, the Communist dictatorship which prevails in Cuba.

In March of 1961, a group of students at Harvard University invited me to debate with writer WILLIAM WORTHY, member of the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba", and I went there to engage in the debate with him. The moderater or judge of the debate was writer TRUMAN WINTER (guest of Communist Cuba during the festivities of July 26, 1963, four months prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY), and I found that each time that I had WORTHY in a corner after refuting his lies, TRUMAN WINTER came to his aid so that the audience could not get the whole truth. "Fair Play" did not thrive in the University of Florida, but it did at Columbia University, at the University of Chicago, at the universities in California, at the University of Pennsylvania, and at Antioch College (where Mrs. PAINE, LEE HARVEY OSWALD's protectress studied), and at Yale University, etc. During another debate at Brown University, in Rhode Island, my opponent was a DINO GERMANI, enthusiastic defender of CASTRO's horrors, and also connected with "Fair Play". The greatest success of "Fair Play" in regard to influencing United States students took place at the University of Indiana, where it succeeded in getting a group of young people to take the side of the Soviet Union and Communist Cuba at the time of the crisis of October, 1962, involving Russian nuclear weapons set up in Communist Cuba.

The dailies have published several letters from LEE HARVEY OSWALD to "Fair Play", sent during the course of several months in the year 1963. It is said that this is all the correspondence between OSWALD and the defenders of Castroism in the United States, who had TABER, FRANK and BEALS as their leaders. Any one who wishes may be satisfied with that information; but the letters are innocuous and they did not publish the answers from VINCENT THEODORE LEE to OSWALD. Besides, the information from the anti-Communist underground movement which operates right under the nose of RAUL ROA GARCIA, in the Ministry of State in Havana, shows that OSWALD's relations with the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba" began before July, 1962, when he returned from the Soviet Union, and that they had been sponsored by CASTRO's diplomatic agents in Moscow, at the time that OSWALD was there.

If OSWALD could have escaped to Cuba by way of Mexico after committing the crime in Dallas, it would have been easier for "Fair Play" to cover up the matter of its contacts with the supposed assassin; but the fact is that the plans for the flight failed, and OSWALD was arrested, and subsequently, assassinated in turn, without its having been possible to obtain a complete confession from him about his activities and his contacts.

At any rate, OSWALD had left behind him, in New Orleans and in other places, some data about his relations with the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba", which it was not possible to eliminate. BRINGUIER, the representative of the Revolutionary Student Directory in New Orleans, is endowed with an excellent memory, and recalls that strange individual who had wanted to infiltrate the ranks of the anti-Communist Cubans in order to serve the "apparatus" of Communist Cuba in the United States. But the thread got all tangled up, much to the despair of the leaders of the "Fair Play".

For more than two years, the United States Senate Judiciary Committee had been investigating the activities of the "Fair Play". The results of its investigations are published in some ten volumes, replete with documents, statements and conclusions compromising to the organization which defends the Communist tyranny prevailing in Cuba. More than once, during the course of these investigations, the press of the "useful fools" criticized the activities of the Judiciary Committee and said that this was a "witch hunt". References to the deceased Senator McCarthy, who had denounced the machinations of the Communists for several years, filtered into those statements in an attempt to discredit them. With arrogantly provoking and even insulting poses, the members of the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba" answered the Judiciary Committee when they appeared before it. Ingenuous and misinformed people allowed themselves to be misled by that propaganda to the point that they believed that the "Fair Play" was a victim of injustice. The Senators and Representatives who carried on those investigations, as well as their legal and police advisers, had sounded the alarm long in advance and had pointed out the danger of the Cuban Communist "apparatus" in the United States; but no one paid any attention to them, in spite of the seriousness of their revelations.

However, after the assassinations in Dallas, it was possible to see that the Judiciary Committee was not wrong in its suspicions and in its charges, and that the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba" was not a simple group of individuals, mistaken in their evaluation of the true situation in Cuba.

The Communists are very skillful in escaping and evading their responsibilities, because of the very fact that they lack scruples. Thus, the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba" has suddenly ceased to be a useful tool for their plans. The blood of President KENNEDY, assassinated in Dallas by a member of the "Fair Play", who had renounced the United States, the country of his birth, in a very specific manner, and who had later, mysteriously decided to return to the United States, flowed on November 22, 1963, as far as the office at 799 Broadway, New York. In Moscow, OSWALD had told the United States Embassy that he wanted to have nothing to do with the United States and that he was joining the Soviet Union. In Havana, ROBERT (RED) TABER told French journalist, VICTOR FRANCO, that he wanted to have nothing to do with the United States and that he was joining Communist Cuba. Both later changed their minds and returned to the United States. Why and for what? The answer which OSWALD gave is in the whole series of activities which he carried on in the United States, in Mexico and in Communist Cuba since July, 1962, until the crimes in Dallas occurred.

We can be sure that the Communists are not now renouncing their machinations. The "Fair Play for Communist Cuba" is not really disappearing; it will only change its name, its headquarters and its leaders, and will reappear in another disguise. For that is the way the Communists intrigue, as they serve Soviet Imperialism, with a disguise, especially when they pretend to be dedicated to "peaceful coexistence".

On May 6, 1964 Mr. GEORGE VOLSKY, writer and researcher, U.S. Information Agency (USIA), Miami, Florida, stated he and several other members of USIA, listen to the speeches of FIDEL CASTRO broadcast from Cuba, and he is certain that CASTRO, while on the radio, has not made any "slip of the tongue" in making a statement such as "The first time OSWALD was in Cuba....."

Mr. VOLSKY said he did not know what source HERMINIO PORTELL-VILA might have for making such an assertion in the February 2, 1964 issue of the magazine BOHEMIA LIBRE. He said the possibility existed that CASTRO could have made such a comment in an off-hand manner to some private group, but such occurrence had not come to the attention of the Miami Office of USIA. He said his office was especially alert for any statements of CASTRO which might show a link between the CASTRO regime and the assassination of President KENNEDY and no such statements have been detected although every public speech of CASTRO is monitored.

Mr. VOLSKY made available the English translation of the speech by FIDEL CASTRO, made on the night of November 27, 1963 at Havana University. He said the translation is based on monitoring the radio broadcast and would therefore include any "slip of the tongue."

Mr. VOLSKY explained the notation at the beginning of the speech translation indicates the broadcast was made at 0229 Greenwich Mean Time (GMT) on November 28, 1963, which was 9:29 PM on November 27, 1963, in Havana.

Approximately the first third of the speech was devoted to observations on the assassination and only that first third of the translation is here set forth:

CASTRO TALKS TO UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Havana Domestic Radio and Television in Spanish 0229 GMT 28 November 1963--F

(Live speech by Prime Minister Fidel Castro at Havana University commemorating the anniversary of the martyred students of 1871)

(Text) "Students, days back while we were making a visit, a customary visit when the opportunity permits us, to be University of Havana, we thought while we talked with the students, a group of students, that on this 27 November it would be a good time to discuss a number of problems from this university rostrum, problems which are of interest to us, of interest to our country, our economy, and to you.

Subsequently a number of events took place, or better said, an incident of international character of great importance and above all very revealing of the state of discomposition of imperialist society took place causing the attention of our people and our country to be focused on an analysis of it and causing us to give the required attention to that event. Subsequently, yesterday to be exact, for other reasons, we had a meeting with high school students. On that occasion some of the subjects we had thought to discuss here today were brought up by those students. What I mean by this is that 27th November has come, not with the characteristics we would have liked, that is without problems other than in a purely technical, student, academic fields and with a subject which has not already been partly discussed. That is why I feel that I am not going to be very satisfied under the circumstances, because I had thought that this was the day to discuss all the things that have to do with technology, economy, education (applause) and all those things. However on the other subjects something must be said at any rate. They are the subjects which we would rather not have spoken about here. I am going to refer as briefly as possible in something like a passing reference to the problem related with the assassination of the President of the United States and how events have gradually been unmasking all the maneuver, all the filthy, unscrupulous background behind that episode, the plot against peace, the sinister conspiracy which becomes more evident every day in the plot and in the idea of those responsible for that deed. Every day world public opinion receives more and more evidence which bares, which completely unmasks the maneuver carried out against the world and particularly against our country.

Aside from a number of strange things which every day become more strange and which every day make the story, the lies, the insinuations which they try to build around Kennedy's death, aside, as we said, from a number of events on which the world is now thinking--and all the world is thinking and the more it thinks on them the harder put it is to find explanations for them. Today, for example, a shooting champion who can be called a firing specialist, an Olympic shooting champion--I think he is named Hubert Hammarer, that is how it is pronounced but it is written differently here because they give the pronunciation and then write it differently--declared in Vienna that it is unlikely that a marksman equipped with a repeating carbine with a telescopic sight can hit the target three consecutive times in the space of five seconds when he is firing at a target that is moving at a distance of 180 meters at a speed of 15 kilometers per hour.

An entire series of details are beginning to be distinguished. When we read this cable we recalled some experience on these matters, particularly on matters of rifles with telescopic sights. When we landed in Cuba we had half a hundred rifles with telescopic sights and we had prepared those rifles very well. We had practiced very much with those rifles. We know perfectly all the characteristics of that type of rifle because, also, we had them with different powers. One of the difficulties of the rifle with telescopic sights is that once one fires on a target, the target is lost. It is necessary to find it again quickly, as a result of the shot, only from the effects of the shot, particularly when the rifle has to be levered because at first it was said that it was an automatic rifle. Then it was said that it was not automatic, or semiautomatic, or repeater.

That type of weapon--it is really very difficult to fire three consecutive shots with a weapon of that type--but above all, difficult to hit the target, almost impossible. We were reminded of certain shooting contests held in various countries, Mexico for example. There is a contest for shooting fans that is performed with a lamb which is released at one point and runs through the hills. I believe it runs some 200 meters and while it is moving one is permitted to fire three times at it. The best marksmen, having enough time and being calm while the animal is running the 200 meters, very rarely hit it twice. It is very difficult and it is very extraordinary when they can hit it three times while taking a lot of time and being absolutely calm and quiet. In general this was not done with rifles with telescopic sights but with rifles with what they call Lyman sights, which is the type of sight used by the North American Garand rifles, and with some shooting rifles that have a small circle for a sight in the center of which the target is placed.

To fire with speed one fires much better with that type of rifle than with a telescopic sight because one does not lose sight of the target. And according to the cables they were talking about a rifle with a 4 by 18-power (sight--ed.). That is a rifle that brings the target very close. The more powerful the sight the more sensitive it is to any movement and the target gets lost. There is also the circumstance--and all this seems to indicate that the rifle may have appeared there as part of the plot, that they may have placed the rifle, which is not precisely the weapon for shooting 80 meters nor for firing three shots.

A telescopic sight is a weapon used for firing 300, 400, 500, and even 600 meters and even more. And the comrades who came in the Granma--many of them--could hit a plate at 600 meters, with a rifle, sitting down, and not snapping off shots. It is the rifle of a marksman for distance firing. It is really strange that one who is going to make an 80-meter shot from a window would purchase a rifle with a telescopic sight when any other type of weapon without a telescopic sight would have been much more appropriate for a shot at that distance. That is one of the strange circumstances that are already beginning to be seen.

Another detail that called my attention is that the rifle was purchased by mail for 12.28 or something that that; that is, 12 dollars. A good sight like that one, alone, is worth the 12 dollars and more. In what part of the world do they sell high-powered rifles with telescopic sights through catalogues for 12.28? We bought a few of those rifles and we know what they are worth, and we had the need to buy many sights and we know what the sights cost. That was another strange fact.

But a series of things which are really strange began to accumulate. It is supposed that a man has a rifle with a telescopic sight in order to fire with safety from a distance and assure accuracy agains a fixed target or against a moving target. When you fire against a moving target the telescopic sight becomes a hindrance. This weapon is used to fire accurately from a distance. In other words the individual who would try to use a telescopic sight would do so in an attempt to get accuracy and safety. In this case, against a moving target, 80 meters away, accuracy was not sought and the curious thing is that safety was also not sought.

Because it is very strange, and this is what reveals that a fanatic was not involved here, in my opinion. And in these matters one must always base oneself on opinion, on suppositions. But in the first place it is undeniable that a fanatic--probably it would be the first time in history that a fanatic--probably it would be the first time in history that a fanatic has used a telescopic sight.

It would be the first time in history. Fanatics have used revolvers, pistols, hand grenades, but never telescopic sights. And what is more, in general, fanatics do not operate from a fifth floor window. In general, fanatics confess and explain why they acted, immediately. It is a psychological reaction by a fanatic.

Here we have the strange case that the accused, the alleged assassin, fires from his place of employment. Nobody who intends to escape--that is if he is not a fanatic--somebody who is paid, who intends to escape, is willing to perpetrate such a crime from the very place he works. A place where he would be identified within five minutes. A place where within five minutes he would be fiercely pursued everywhere. He would have sought a roof on another building. He would have rented an apartment along the route. He would have situated himself with his telescopic sight rifle at a distance which would have allowed him to escape.

It is very strange that a person at his very place of work, where he would be identified in five minutes, would carry out an act of this type from such a place and at the same time attempt to escape. There is no logic in this. There is no sense in this. Such a series of strange circumstances as these. Then to use that type of rifle from there. To try to escape knowing that he would be immediately identified. All these are the contradictions, the illogical and inexplicable things which both show that either a guilty person was invented, that a guilty person was fabricated, or that the perpetrator of the crime--because these two things fit here--either this person is not guilty and was turned into a guilty person by the police, or this person is the one who fired and then all his actions have no other logical explanation or would have no other explanation that that of a person who kills, thinks he will escape, but at the same time would be perfectly identified as the doer of the crime.

There would only be one meaning to this: a person who is perfectly prepared to carry out the act with a promise he would escape, who was assigned a series of previous activities and steps to compromise or not to compromise, but to have the blame fall, insinuate the responsibility, on those on whom the perpetrators were very interested on having the blame fall.

Because since our last appearance we have obtained new data here. A report in the newspaper EXCELSIOR in Mexico states that this man had visited the Cuban Embassy (corrects himself--ed.) the Cuban Consulate and the Soviet Union Consulate to obtain a transit visa through Cuba to the Soviet Union. We immediately checked with our consular officials.

The newspaper version is very objective and explains how this man had walked away displeased, slamming the door, because he was not given a visa. We asked for information and it was established that it was true that on 27 November (as heard) he appeared at our consulate in Mexico. (corrects himself) in September. Then, he had requested a visa. He was told that such a visa could not be granted by a consul without authority from the Foreign Ministry. In turn, the Foreign Ministry did not issue such transit visas unless the nation of final destination did not in turn issue a visa.

What is more we receive many requests for visas in our consulates from many people and ingeneral our functionaries are very cautious, very conservative in this respect because we have to suppose that the enemy is constantly trying to send agents here and this is why we take many steps and we do not grant visa to anyone requesting one. We must know their antecedents perfectly. Accordingly, the funcationary refused him the visa.

Now, Saturday night, the other day, scarcely 24 hours after Kennedy's death, agents of the Mexican federal police arrested the employee--she has Mexican citizenship--from our consulate and also the employee's husband. Why did they arrest him? What was the purpose of arresting him? (corrects himself--ed.) They arrested her? They arrested her to question her and treated her in a brutal manner. They maltreated her. They imputed that she had supposed relations with the suspect of Kennedy's assassination. They tried to get some information by means of coercion. We did not know about this. I was unaware of this when I spoke. I understand it was Saturday night.

This shows how everything was shaping up. The police agents alleged that they questioned her with an eye toward the visit which this Mr. Oswald made to the Cuban consulate. How did they know? Who told them? Where were they told this? Because we did not know about it. Because it was a routine matter. No one in the Foreign Ministry, none of the functionaries had even identified that individual who appeared as an alleged suspect as one of the hundreds of persons who appeared to request a visa.

Hence, the American police knew about it. Hence the Dallas police reported it. Why did they know it? Why did they report it? Why had not this appeared in the newspapers yet? And it did appear in a Mexican newspaper two or three days later? Here we can see clearly see the warp and the woof. What purpose did this man have in going to the Cuban Consulate in Mexico? What pretext did he use? Request a transit visa? If he wanted to travel to the Soviet Union he could have gone by way of England which is closer and he had more facilities, by way of France, by way of many nations in Europe. Why did he show up in Mexico to make a longer trip and requested a transit visa to the Soviet Union, by way of Cuba?

In the hypothesis that this man would have been the real slayer, it would be clear that the intellectual perpetrators of the murder were preparing the gambit (cuartade) carefully. They sent this man to request a visa from Cuba. Just imagine! just imagine! Mr. Kennedy had been shot by an individual who was known. It was know where he worked. He had been in the Soviet Union and the President of the United States turned out to have been murdered by this person just after he had returned from the Soviet Union by way of Cuba. It was the ideal gambit. All the ideal conditions to put in the head of North American public opinion (pounds the lectern--ed.) the suspicion that it had been a communist and an agent--how would they say it--of Cuba and of the Soviet Union.

It is very strange that anybody who had been in the Soviet Union, who when he was there the first time passed through Cuba. If he had been given a passport with no trouble if he had money to go to Mexico, why did he have to come to Cuba except for the only and exclusive purpose of leaving a trial, or spinning a web? Why did he get angry when he was told that it was impossible? Why did he slam the door? Why did he leave? No friend of Cuba, no communist does this when he visits our consulates. Nobody behaves in that crude manner and of course we have no other background for the accused. We have no other antecedents than those that are published by the press.

We will never categorically declare that somebody is guilty of something if we do not have irrefutable proof of it. However, basing ourselves on hypothesis, if he was the true executioner of the deed, his trip to Mexico, his alleged interview with the press where he presented himself as a defender of Cuba shortly before the events, his supposed brawl with alleged counter-revolutionaries, in all that the perfectly planned gambit could be seen. Then everything is perfectly explainable. Somebody who was offered the chance to escape, fired, left a trial, was identified, and disappeared they would then say he came to Cuba, that he had been in Cuba before the assassination because as can be seen that if he was the guilty one, he did try to escape.

Afterwards he was arrested and he smiled before the television cameras. He did not confess. He denied everything. He did not permit the use of a lie detector, and gentlemen the surprising, the incredible, what increases the suspicion that the entire world has, is that barely 36 or 48 hours later in the basement of a jail surrounded by police agents, he was murdered. He did not speak one word more.

God. Why? a gangster a gambler, owner of a nightclub with entertainment, nakedness and everything, with a reputation as a tough, a killer, managed to place himself in front of the assassin, or better said in front of the supposed assassin, this individual known for what he was by all the police, a gambler, an owner of an immoral amusement center, a man with a record known by these same police. How could these police confuse him with a newspaperman, with a reporter, there were all the policemen knew him perfectly? How could that character remain there passing himself off as a newsman? He fired calmly. And what did he claim later the most ridiculous, the most absurd thing? This gambler, this man of crime? This gangster with a known record declared that he did it to prevent the widow of the President from having to return to Dallas to the trial. It was very difficult to make anyone believe that an act of that type was for revenge, for vengeance against the guilty. If he were the one who was really guilty. The electric chair was waiting for him. How can one believe anyone had tried to take justice into his own hands? This only happens when there is no justice, when the guilty party in a crime that arouses indignation is not punished. In this case they murdered a man for whom the electric chair was waiting. In effect they murdered a dead man, they murdered a dead man. That is what this gangster did. How could he make anyone believe that he did it for emontional reasons?

Never before, perhaps, has a greater scandal been heard. Never before, perhaps, have even in the worst gangsters acted as basely, as stupidly, as scandalously. And this demonstrates that the persons guilty for the death of Kennedy needed and urgently had to eliminate the accused at any cost. They were imperatively required to for some reason. Possibly so that he would not talk. They had to eliminate him, and they calmly eliminated him. Once the alleged assassin was elimirated the Dallas police and Justice authorities declare the case closed, as if it were the matter, not of the President of the United States, but of a dog killed in the street. They declare the case closed within 48 hours. The case was closed when the case was becoming less closeable, when the case was becoming more mysterious, when the case was becoming more suspicious, when the case was becoming more worthy of investigation from the judicial and criminal point of view. I am certain that no judge who acts objectively as such, would close any case under circumstances in which the principle suspect is murdered.

Of course, we carefully read the cables that gave the news of the second assassination, particularly the UPI reports. Immediately, the same emphasis UPI had placed in presenting Oswald as a pro-communist, as a Castro-communist, as a Castro admirer, was placed in presenting this Mr. Jack Ruby as a Kennedy admirer, a great admirer of Kennedy.

TEXAS

The first thing it does, what the UPI immediately begins to do immediately, is to give the version that it wanted, to try to present a case of murder caused by emotion, a case of sentimentalism, patriotism.

The UPI does a poor service to the man who was the President of its country by presenting this gangster, this gambler, this man of vice, this base subject as a great admirer of Kennedy, as such an extraordinary admirer that he was ready to face the electric chair in order to avenge his death; an individual who only exploited vice, gambling, and immorality all his life.

Why come now with those incredible attacks of morality from a depraved and degenerate individual? Why come now with those altruistic feelings? The UPI tried to give that impression in its first cable. They went and questioned his sister and she said that he could not sleep since the assassination of the President. They interrogated the family and elaborated the theory, that is, they interrogated the sister of this Mr. Ruby in order to elaborate the entire theory that it was because of emotional and sentimental reasons. UPI did not hesitate in attributing such a admirer to the murdered President of the United States. How unscrupulous! how dishonest! what a scandal! The same emphasis they used to present the other as an admirer of Castro, they immediately use to present this one as an admirer of Kennedy.

That is how imperialism works. That is how reaction works. That is how they make up their campaigns and their lies but everything appears to indicate that this shot has backfired (applause). There are other reports. The doctors that attended the assassinated President now report that they cannot say for sure that there were one or two bullets which ended his life, and that they cannot establish which are the entry and exit wounds from the bullet or bullets. There is also what Connally said in an interview he granted the newsmen from his bed in the hospital. Among other things he said "what was demonstrated in Dallas was the hate that exists in our society. The same hate that placed a bomb in Birmingham killing five children." That was said by the other wounded man who was with Kennedy.

It is going to be very difficult to continue to dress this doll. It is going to be very difficult to continue to maintain what they have been maintaining. We even think that it is unlikely that there will be no investigation. It is very difficult to conceive that there are not enough North Americans, regardless of their political positions or their ideology, who with an elemental sense of decency, shame, and prestige will demand that events be made clear, that all these strange circumstances be explained.

It will be very difficult, and only at an extraordinary loss of prestige for the United States can those guilty of the assassination be concealed, nor can the true reasons, the true purposes, and the guilty intellectual and organizing authors of the crime remain in secret and in mystery. But they themselves, the ones who forged these plans against peace, against Cuba, against the Soviet Union, against humanity, against the progressive sectors, including the liberal ones of the United States, the ones who were guilty, are very unlikely to remain in secret and mystery until the end.

That is why we should await calmly but not confidently--and not confidently-- so you can see what dangers threaten humanity, what dangers imperil the peoples, what a lack of scrupules, how much evil exists, and how much cynicism is embodied in the imperialist society, among the most reactionary elements of that society.. How many dangers, how many sinister plans, that is why I say wait calmly but not confidently because it is one more example, one more lesson.

Meanwhile, let us see how those who organized that maneuver will stew in their own juice, because even the Olympic champions of marksmansbip are giving their opinions throughout the world. In any event, our fatherland was threatened once more. We saw how a finger was pointed at us, how weapons of aggression were pointed at us. We saw how they tried to dump a downpour of infamy on Cuba and its revolution. It has been placed in evidence. We have seen the behavior of individual people once more. Our revolution emerges with reason on its side and with a higher sense of morality from this test and from all other tests to which it is submitted, because before the eyes of the world it is clear, and it will be clearer each time, how the U.S. reactionaries wanted to make our country and the world the victims of their criminal designs, even at the price of the assassination of their own president in that country.

This episode more and more resembles an FBI novel, a gangster episode, rather than a political incident. All the circumstances, the scandalous manner with which the two assassinations were carried out, reminds us of the gangster films we saw so many times filmed precisely in Hollywood. Not lacking in the minutest detail, the one in charge of liquidating or lynching the accused was no less than a gambler from Chicago. How will they be able to explain those things to the world? How will those who have proceeded with such lack of respect for world opinion, who have shown such lack of human sensibility, be able to defend that shameful thing? With this I conclude the reference we have been compelled to make to clarify some aspects in connection with those events."

Approximately the first third of the speech was devoted to observations on the assassination and only that first third of the translation is here set forth:

CASTRO TALKS TO UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

He would have situated himself with his telescopic sight rifle at a distance which would have allowed him to escape.

It is very strange that a person at his very place of work, where he would be identified in five minutes, would carry out an act of this type from such a place and at the same time attempt to escape. There is no logic in this. There is no sense in this. Such a series of strange circumstances as these. Then to use that type of rifle from there. To try to escape knowing that he would be immediately identified. All these are the contradictions, the illogical and inexplicable things which both show that either a guilty person was invented, that a guilty person was fabricated, or that the perpetrator of the crime--because these two things fit here--either this person is not guilty and was turned into a guilty person by the police, or this person is the one who fired and then all his actions have no other logical explanation or would have no other explanation that that of a person who kills, thinks he will escape, but at the same time would be perfectly identified as the doer of the crime.

There would only be one meaning to this: a person who is perfectly prepared to carry out the act with a promise he would escape, who was assigned a series of previous activities and steps to compromise or not to compromise, but to have the blame fall, insinuate the responsibility, on those on whom the perpetrators were very interested on having the blame fall.

Because since our last appearance we have obtained new data here. A report in the newspaper EXCELSIOR in Mexico states that this man had visited the Cuban Embassy (corrects himself--ed.) the Cuban Consulate and the Soviet Union Consulate to obtain a transit visa through Cuba to the Soviet Union. We immediately checked with our consular officials.

In the hypothesis that this man would have been the real slayer, it would be clear that the intellectual perpetrators of the murder were preparing the gambit (cuartade) carefully. They sent this man to request a visa from Cuba. Just imagine! just imagine! Mr. Kennedy had been shot by an individual who was known. It was known where he worked. He had been in the Soviet Union and the President of the United States turned out to have been murdered by this person just after he had returned from the Soviet Union by way of Cuba. It was the ideal gambit. All the ideal conditions to put in the head of North American public opinion (pounds the lectern--ed.) the suspicion that it had been a communist and an agent--how would they say it--of Cuba and of the Soviet Union.

It is very strange that anybody who had been in the Soviet Union, who when he was there the first time passed throught Cuba. If he had been given a passport with no trouble if he had money to go to Mexico, why did he have to come to Cuba except for the only and exclusive purpose of leaving a trial, of spinning a web? Why did he get angry when he was told that it was impossible? Why did he slam the door? Why did he leave? No friend of Cuba, no communist does this when he visists our consulates. Nobody behaves in that crude manner and of course we have no other background for the accused. We have no other antecedents than those that are published by the press.

We will never categorically declare that somebody is guilty of something if we do not have irrefutable proof of it. However, basing ourselves on hypothesis, if he was the true executioner of the deed, his trip to Mexico, his alleged interview with the press where he presented himself as a defender of Cuba shortly before the events, his supposed brawl with alleged counterrevolutionaries, in all that the perfectly planned gambit could be seen. Then everything is perfectly explainable. Somebody who was offered the chance to escape, fired, left a trial, was identified, and disappeared they would then say he came to Cuba, that he had been in Cuba before the assassination because as can be seen that if he was the guilty one, he did try to escape.

Afterwards he was arrested and he smiled before the television cameras. He did not confess. He denied everything. He did not permit the use of a lie detector, and gentlemen the surprising, the incredible, what increases the suspicion that the entire world has, is that barely 36 or 48 hours later in the basement of a jail surrounded by police agents, he was murdered. He did not speak one word more.

God. Why? a gangster a gambler, owner of a nightclub with entertainment, nakedness and everything, with a reputation as a tough, a killer, managed to place himself in front of the assassasin, or better said in front of the supposed assassin, this individual known for what he was by all the police, a gambler, an owner of an immoral amusement center, a man with a record known by these same police. How could these police confuse him with a newspaperman, with a reporter, there were all the policemen knew him perfectly? How could that character remain there passing himself off as a newsman? He fired calmly. And what did he claim later the most ridiculous, the most absurd thing? This gambler, this man of crime? This gangster with a known record declared that he did it to prevent the widow of the President from having to return to Dallas to the trial. It was very difficult to make anyone believe that an act of that type was for revenge, for vengenance against the guilty. If he were the one who was really guilty. The electric chair was waiting for him. How can one believe anyone had tried to take justice into his own hands? This only happens when there is no justice, when the guilty party in a crime that arouses indignation is not punished. In this case they murdered a man for whom the electric chair was waiting. In effect they murdered a dead man, they murdered a dead man. That is what this gangster did. How could he make anyone believe that he did it for emotional reasons?

Never before, perhaps, has a greater scandal been heard. Never before, perhaps, have even in the worst gangsters acted as basely, as stupidly, as scandalously. And this demonstrates that the persons guilty for the death of Kennedy needed and urgently had to eliminate the accused at any cost. They were imperietively required to for some reason. Possibly so that he would not talk. They had to eliminate him, and they calmly eliminated him. Once the alleged assassin was eliminated the Dallas police and Justice authorities declare the case closed, as if it were the matter, not of the President of the United States, but of a dog killed in the street. They declare the case closed within 48 hours. The case was closed when the case was becoming less closeable, when the case was becoming more mysterious, when the case was becoming more suspicious, when the case was becoming more worthy of investigation from the judicial and criminal point of view. I am certain that no judge who acts objectively as such, would close any case under circumstances in which the principle suspect is murdered.

Of course, we carefully read the cables that gave the news of the second assassination, particularly the UPI reports. Immediately, the same emphasis UPI had placed in presenting Oswald as a pro-communist, as a Castro-communist, as a Castro admirer, was placed in presenting this Mr. Jack Ruby as a Kennedy admirer, a great admirer of Kennedy.

The first thing it does, what the UPI immediately begins to do immediately, is to give the version that it wanted, to try to present a case of murder caused by emotion, a case of sentimentalism, patriotism.

The UPI does a poor service to the man who was the President of its country by presenting this gangster, this gambler, this man of vice, this base subject as a great admirer of Kennedy, as such an extraordinary admirer that he was ready to face the electric chair in order to avenge his death; an individual who only exploited vice, gambling, and immorality all his life.

Why come now with those incredible attacks of morality from a depraved and degenerate individual? Why come now with those altruistic feelings? The UPI tried to give that impression in its first cable. They went and questioned his sister and she said that he could not sleep since the assassination of the President. They interrogated the family and elaborated the theory, that is, they interrogated the sister of this Mr. Ruby in order to elaborate the entire theory that it was because of emotional and sentimental reasons. UPI did not hesitate in attributing such a admirer to the murdered President of the United States. How unscrupulous! how dishonest! what a scandal! The same emphasis they used to present the other as an admirer of Castro, they immediately use to present this one as an admirer of Kennedy.

That is how imperialism works. That is how reaction works. That is how they make up their campaigns and their lies but everything appears to indicate that this shot has backfired (applause). There are other reports. The doctors that attended the assassinated President now report that they cannot say for sure that there were one or two bullets which ended his life, and that they cannot establish which are the entry and exit wounds from the bullet or bullets. There is also what Connally said in an interview he granted the newsmen from his bed in the hospital. Among other things he said "what was demonstrated in Dallas was the hate that exists in our society. The same hate that placed a bomb in Birmingham killing five children." That was said by the other wounded man who was with Kennedy.

It is going to be very difficult to continue to dress this doll. It is going to be very difficult to continue to maintain what they have been maintaining. We even think that it is unlikely that there will not be enough reaction in the United States so that there will be no investigation. It is very difficult to conceive that there are not enough North Americans, regardless of their political position or their ideology, who with an elemental sense of decency, shame, and prestige will demand that events be made clear, that all of these strange circumstances be explained.

It will be very difficult, and only at an extraordinary loss of prestige for the United States can those guilty of the assassination be concealed, nor can the true reasons, the true purposes, and the guilty intellectual and organizing authors of the crime remain in secret and in mystery. But they themselves, the ones who forged these plans against peace, against Cuba, against the Soviet Union, against humanity, against the progressive sectors, including the liberal ones of the United States, the ones who were guilty, are very unlikely to remain in secret and mystery until the end.

That is why we should await calmly but not confidently--and not confidently--so you can see what dangers threaten humanity, what dangers imperil the peoples, what a lack of scrupules, how much evil exists, and how much cynicism is embodied in the imperialist society, among the most reactionary elements of that society. How many dangers, how many sinister plans, that is why I say wait calmy but not confidently because it is one more example, one more lesson.

Meanwhile, let us see how those who organized that maneuver will stew in their own juice, because even the Olympic champions of marksmanship are giving their opinions throughout the world. In any event, our fatherland was threatened once more. We saw how a finger was pointed at us, how weapons of aggression were pointed at us. We saw how they tried to dump a downpour of infamy on Cuba and its revolution. It has been placed in evidence. We have seen the behavior of individual people once more. Our revolution emerges with reason on its side and with a higher sense of morality from this test and from all other tests to which it is submitted, because before the eyes of the world it is clear, and it will be clearer each time, how the U.S. reactionaries wanted to make our country and the world the victims of their criminal designs, even at the price of the assassination of their own president in that country.

This episode more and more resembles an FBI novel, a gangster episode, rather than a political incident. All the circumstances, the scandalous manner with which the two assassinations were carried out, reminds us of the gangster films we saw so many times filmed precisely in Hollywood. Not lacking in the minutest detail, the one in charge of liquidating or lynching the accused was no less than a gambler from Chicago. How will they be able to explain those things to the world? How will those who have proceeded with such lack of respect for world opinion, who have shown such lack of human sensibility, be able to defend that shameful thing? With this I conclude the reference we have been compelled to make to clarify some aspects in connection with those events.

SOME ASPECTS IN CONNECTION WITH THESE EVENTS.

Enclosed for the Bureau are five copies and for Dallas, Miami and New Orleans one copy of a LHM dated and captioned as above containing interview results of Dr. HERMINIO PORTELL-VILA as requested by retel call.

He was interviewed on both occasions by SAs JAMES F. MORRISSEY and GENE L. BURGE at WFO.

PORTELL-VILA also furnished the following info; said he was only furnishing this to the Bureau for its own info; explained that while he had the greatest respect for the Bureau, he did not feel the same about the Presidential Commission from the standpoint of the security of info pertaining to source of his info.

He said that he received a communication in late 1961 from a person in Cuba whom he described only as a notary whom he knew, and who had handled some of his personal and family affairs. This person was part of an underground movement in Cuba which was attempting to pass on info of value against CASTRO through various outlets to people whom they believed sympathetic to the liberation of Cuba from CASTRO. He felt this movement was composed of professional people for the most part. He said he was supplied info which was confined to those matters handled exclusively within the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Havana; that for this reason the source in his opinion is not the Notary, but is a person who is inside the Ministry, close to ROA, whose position allows him or her access to confidential matters. He said he did not know whether this person in the Ministry (if it is such a person) is male or female; suspects it is female. Since the info has fallen generally in the category of the Ministry's functions, he felt that the person had very little dealings with the CASTRO brothers.

He estimated that he receives items of interest to him concerning activities in Cuba in the foreign affairs field on the average of once every two months; has recently received such an item. Interpretation of the messages lies in the use of 15 or 20 key words which were prearranged with him in initial contacts. He is not a member of this movement, just a person in sympathy with anti-CASTRO activities. The messages reach him through communication outlets in Mexico or Spain. These he would not divulge. He believes the messages started in early January, 1962.

PORTELL-VILA thought that the source probably knew him; may have been a former student; thought PORTELL-VILA with his writing connections would be a good medium through which to pass such info.

He said the greater percentages of the reports are good.

Concerning the reliability of the source, he said that he contacted a person whom he knew in Cuba and who was referred to PORTELL-VILA as a person who could be contacted concerning the reliability of the source. This person has the family name of GUERRA, is about PORTELL-VILA's age; a retired diplomat for about five years on pension; at one time accredited to the Holy See from Cuba; and is familiar with some activities at the Ministry. PORTELL-VILA said that before he left Cuba he had a working agreement with GUERRA that they would try to keep in touch to follow activities in Cuba through GUERRA. When he inquired of GUERRA about the reliability of this unknown source, mainly asking if it was

Re: Dr. Herminio Portell-Vila

It will be recalled that Dr. Herminio Portell-Vila, 4740 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., was interviewed on February 17, 1964, concerning one of his articles which appeared in the December 22, 1963, issue of the Spanish language weekly magazine "Bohemia Libre", published in New York City. The article was entitled "President Kennedy's Strange Assassination." Portell-Vila explained at that time that the material for the above article was obtained from public source material such as American newspapers and magazines, and foreign language newspapers and publications.

As will be recalled, Portell-Vila was a former Professor of History at the University of Havana who came to the United States in 1960 as a political refugee from the Castro Regime.

On May 13, 1964, Dr. Portell-Vila advised that he had received a message from an unknown source within Cuba which indicated in part that the files pertaining to Lee Harvey Oswald's relations in Moscow, Russia, with two Cuban Ambassadors there, were turned over to the Castro brothers on November 24, 1963, just two days after the assassination. The message was dated November 24, 1963, and he received same before the twelfth of December, 1963.

Around the time of its receipt, he gave the original of this part to Mrs. Mariade Arensberg, Secretary of the Cuban Freedom Committee, 1737 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. He believed she passed it on to an unknown Government agency, adding that he believed she had contacts in the State Department.

Portell-Vila said that he did not have a copy of this part of the message but reconstructed it from memory as follows:

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

EXPEDIENTE RELACION OSVALDO CON CONCHESO EN ARCHIVO MARIN HERRERA ENTREGADO HOY HERMANOS SIAMESES.

He interpreted this as follows:

File of relations of Oswald with Concheso (Cuban Embassy in Moscow) from files of Marin Herrera (Ministry of Foreign Relations, Havana), handed today to the Castro brothers.

He pointed out that there may have also been a preposition or two contained in it, but that the above was its contents as far as he could remember. It was pointed out to him that there did not appear to be any mention of the Cuban Ambassadors to Russia as his initial information would indicate. He then said that the names of the two ambassadors were included after "Concheso" in the message. One ambassador was designated by the word Oliva, as he recalled. He could not recall how the name of the other ambassador was designated.

Dr. Portell-Vila then said that his interpretation of the message is based on the prearranged meaning of certain words in the message. According to him, "MARIN HERRERA" was a reference to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Havana, because the building in which the ministry is located was built some 45 or 50 years ago by Mr. Marin Herrera. It had other owners later on until Cuba bought it. "CONCHESO" is a reference to the Cuban Embassy in Moscow because the first Cuban Ambassador to Moscow, in 1942, was a Mr. Concheso. "OSVALDO" is Oswald in Spanish, a Christian name. "HERMANOS SIAMESES" is a reference to the Castro brothers, Fidel and Raul. He said that the two ambassadors to whom reference is made are Carlos Olivares and Faure Chomon, who were the Cuban Ambassadors in Moscow during the period that Oswald was in Russia.

The above message with his interpretation of same constitutes Portell-Vila's entire information dealing with possible contact of Oswald with Cuban diplomats in Russia. He said that he has not heard of any information in this respect from any other source, nor of contacts with Cubans by Oswald except what he had read in newspapers or other public source media, or previously reported concerning a speech of Fidel Castro on November 27, 1963, wherein Castro made a comment which suggested that Oswald may have previously made at least one visit to Cuba.

Regarding his source, and as previously pointed out, Portell-Vila said that the actual identity of the source is unknown to him, but the source is part of an underground movement in Cuba. Regarding the source's reliability, Portell-Vila said that the information furnished by the source in the past has been reliable for the greater part. He said that he had made inquiry through means available to him within Cuba concerning the reliability of the source, and was informed that he could consider the informant reliable. He said he could not and would not elaborate further, even under legal process, as to the mechanics used in his obtaining this information, nor concerning the identity of the person attesting to the reliability of the informant, because he feared that disaster would befall those involved.

He explained that this information was probably furnished to him as a person whose background attested that he was anti-Castro, and whose position and contacts in this country, exemplified best by his writing articles for "Bohemia Libre," marked him as a person who could put any information against Castro to use, or place it in the proper official hands for exploitation.

On May 14, 1964, Dr. Portell-Vila exhibited a copy of his article which appears in Spanish in the December 22, 1963, edition of "Bohemia Libre." It is entitled, "El Extrano Asesinato Del Presidente Kennedy" (President Kennedy's Strange Assassination). It starts on page twenty of this magazine. It is the article previously referred to above, and which Dr. Portell-Vila said was the product of research of public source material, and his interpretative analysis of same.

On the same date he also exhibited a copy of his article which appears in Spanish in the February 2. 1964, issue of the magazine "Bohemia Internacional," a Spanish language magazine which is printed in Venezuela, according to Portell-Vila. It is entitled "CAMBIO DE DISFRAZ" (Change of Disguise) and starts on page sixteen. It pertains generally to Oswald and the Fair Play for Cuba Committee aspect of the assassination. Again, according to Portell-Vila, as in the case of his previous article on the assassination, the material is the result of research and interpretative analysis on his part of public source material where Oswald is concerned, with the exception of a brief reference to Oswald's being in contact with the previously named Cuban Ambassadors in Moscow, Russia. The message from the unknown source in Cuba previously described is the source for this reference in the article.

With respect to this reference in the article, and by way of explanation, it is to be noted that a translation of Dr. Portell-Vila's article appearing in the February 2, 1964, issue of "Bohemia Internacional," is contained in the report of Special Agent James J. O'Connor, dated May 8, 1964, at Miami, Florida, under the Lee Harvey Oswald caption. Therein, Portell-Vila, on the topic of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, stated in part:

> During the course of 1960-1961, he was a visiting professor at the University of Florida in Gainesville, where there was a branch of the "Fair Play" in operation. It boasted that it had 21 branches in the United States and four in Canada, with a membership of 6,000. The New Orleans branch was not among them at the time, because it was not formed until two years later, when Lee Harvey Oswald, the presumed assassin of President Kennedy, returned to the United States after his contacts with the Communist Cuban Ambassadors in Moscow, Faure Chomon and Carlos Olivares. Concerning this last-mentioned fact, the communist dictatorship of Cuba says nothing, although the Kremlin has turned over to the United States a file with the documents referring to Oswald in the Soviet Union.

This is the part of the article to which Portell-Vila was referring above, the source of which is the message from his unknown source in Cuba.

It is also indicated in the same translation of his article, that he further states that:

> Besides, the information from the anti-communist underground movement which operates right under the nose of Raul Roa Garcia, in the Ministry of State in Havana, shows that Oswald's relations with the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba" began before July, 1962, when he returned from the Soviet Union, and that they had been sponsored by Castro's diplomatic agents in Moscow, at the time Oswald was there.

As previously pointed out, Portell-Vila in his interview of May 13, 1964, indicated that his only information in this regard was the message from his source in Cuba, and on May 14, 1964, he stated that the article expressed his interpretative analysis of this information.

It is noted that the translation also states that:

> During his speech of November 27, 1963, at the University of Havana, when Castro said "the first time that Oswald was in Cuba", his tongue was under the influence of "Peralta" cognac, and he revealed something which is very important.

It will be recalled in this respect that Portell-Vila advised during his February 17, 1964, interview that he read in a November 29, 1963, publication that in a speech on November 27, 1963, Fidel Castro, whether through a slip of the tongue or as the result of the influence of liquor, made a comment which suggested that Oswald may have previously made at least one visit to Cuba. He conjectured that this trip of Oswald could have taken place while he was in Mexico last year or perhaps while he was in Russia. He said at the time he had no additional information in this regard.

SUBJECT: DIRECTOR'S TESTIMONY BEFORE THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Attached is a copy of the transcript of the Director's testimony before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy. This transcript has been examined for accuracy, including misspellings and typographical errors on the part of the court reporter. It is noted that apparently the court reporter did not record the Director's testimony accurately in some instances. We have made as few changes as possible, in order to preserve the intent and accuracy of the Director's testimony.

This testimony was gone over by Messrs. Mohr, Malley, Branigan, M. A. Jones, Gheesling, Rogge, and me, on a word-by-word basis. In addition, Assistant Directors Sullivan, Rosen, DeLoach and Conrad have read the testimony and furnished their suggestions.

It is planned that I will personally go over these changes with Mr. Rankin of the Commission.

It is to be noted the documents referred to in the enclosed letterhead memorandum revealed two separate and distinct rifles are involved. The 6.5 M/M Mannlicher Carcano Italian rifle, Serial No. C2766 (C10), was imported from Italy and stored along with other rifles in a bonded warehouse of Harborside Terminal Company, Incorporated, Jersey City, New Jersey, on 10/26/60 and no part of the shipment removed until 8/29/62. The 6.5 Italian carbine rifle, Serial No. 2766, shipped from Century Arms, Inc., St. Albans, Vermont, to Aldens of Chicago, on 7/5/62, was exported from Canada 7/1/62 and received by Aldens 7/12/62.

In view of this information, no further investigation is being conducted or requested UACB.

Bureau is in possession of all photographs to be furnished the President's Commission in connection with the enclosed letterhead memorandum other than it is noted photographs of exhibits D 17, D 18, D 19, D 77, and J 1 were previously furnished the President's Commission.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following is submitted pursuant to a request of the President's Commission to obtain the originals or photographic copies of all documents relating to K 1 (C 10) as well as a 6.5 Italian carbine rifle bearing Serial Number 2766 which was included in a shipment of 6.5 Italian carbine rifles made on July 5, 1962, from Century Arms, Incorporated, of St. Albans, Vermont, to Aldens of Chicago, Illinois:

RE: 6.5 M/M Mannlicher-Carcano
Italian Military Rifle,
Model 91/38, Serial Number C2766
(Exhibit C 10, also identified as K 1)

Mr. Louis Feldsott, President, Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, 2 West 37th Street, New York, New York, advised his company was organized to handle importation of foreign surplus rifles, especially those of an Italian origin, and the purchases of these rifles were made by him personally in Italy from the Italian Ministry of Defense.

The guns purchased were packed by a Crescent company agent in Italy in the presence of Italian authorities and at that time the serial number for each rifle was checked. The rifles were packed in cartons of ten each and a Crescent company shipping slip bearing the serial number for each rifle was attached to the outside of each rifle carton. Other copies of the shipping slip bearing the rifle serial numbers were forwarded to the Crescent company in New York City. Adam Consolidated Industries, 400 5th Avenue, New York, New York, was the importer of the rifles and stored them in the bonded warehouse upon their arrival in the United States. The rifles were subsequently cleared by Freedman and Slater Company, New York, New York, who are customs brokers.

COPIES DESTROYED
21 MAR 1 1973

Since the rifles were used and in need of repair, they were subsequently trucked by Mr. Fred Rupp under Crescent company instructions to Perkasie, Pennsylvania, where Rupp serviced the rifles and shipped them to purchasers as directed by the Crescent company.

Office Copy of Ten Shipping
Slips Reflecting Carton Numbers
(Exhibit D 173)

Office Copy, Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, shipping slip No. 3620 pertaining to carton No. 3376, lists a rifle having Serial Number C2766 as the third gun in the carton. This list was prepared at the time the rifles were packed in Italy.

Bill of Lading Number 18 for Motor Ship Elettra Fassio
(Exhibit D 174)

This Bill of Lading, dated September 29, 1960, pertains to a shipment of 520 cartons of obsolete rifles to Adam Consolidated Industries, Incorporated, 404 5th Avenue, New York 18, New York, by S.N.T. Fratelli Gondrand. The rifles are further described as "No. 1700 Mod. 38 Cal. 6.5" and "No. 3500 Mod. 91 Cal. 6.5." The port of loading is indicated as Genoa and the port of discharge is New York. This Bill of Lading contains cartons "3305/3436" among the cartons listed.

Copy of Inventory List Reflecting Carton Numbers Attached to Above
Bill of Lading Number 18
(Exhibit D 175)

This inventory list indicates carton No. 3376 contains ten serial numbers including "C2766."

Copy of Notice Dated October 10, 1960, with Estimated Date of Arrival of Shipment from Genoa to Adam Consolidated Industries, Incorporated (Exhibit D 177)

This notice is on the letterhead of Norton, Lilly and Company, Incorporated, 26 Beaver Street, New York 4, New York, and advised a shipment of 520 cartons of obsolete rifles shipped on Bill of Lading Genoa No. 18 via Elettra Fassio was due about "10-15."

Copy of Warehouse Entry Form from Freedman and Slater, Incorporated, No. 52737, dated October 24, 1960 (Exhibit D 176)

This exhibit on Customs Form 7502 Treasury Department pertains to a shipment of 520 cartons of rifles exported from Italy September 29, 1960, at Genoa on Bill of Lading No. 18 via Elettra Fassio. The importer of record is Adam Consolidated Industries, Incorporated, 404 5th Avenue, New York City, and the warehouse is "Harborside Terminal Warehouse." Included are cartons numbered "3305/3436" with the date imported given as "10-17-60."

Copy of a Bill of Lading Dated October 25, 1960, from Adam Consolidated Industries, Incorporated (Exhibit D 178)

This memorandum pertains to 520 cartons of rifles consigned to Harborside Terminal Company, Incorporated, 34 Exchange Place, Jersey City, New Jersey, via Waterfront Transfer Company, Custom House License No. 290, "in bond cargo." The cartons listed include "3305/3436" and the memorandum makes reference to Bill of Lading No. 18 Genoa dated September 29, 1960.

Exhibits D 173 through D 178 were made available by Louis Feldsott, President, Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, 2 West 37th Street, New York City, on March 13, 1964.

Warehouse Receipt Dated November 9, 1960, of Harborside Terminal Company (Exhibit D 189)

The billing copy of this receipt referring to Lot No. 91594 pertains to 520 cartons of rifles "38 E 91 I 6.5 Calibre" with charges for storage to Adams Consolidated from October 26, 1960. Also shown on this instrument is five deliveries to "Rupp" with dates and delivery order numbers. The warehouse receipt indicates a balance of 86 cartons remained as of May, 1963.

Five Delivery Orders Numbered 89138, 14473, 03408, A01640, and A00642 (Exhibit D 190)

The above delivery orders of Harborside Terminal Company, Incorporated, Jersey City, New Jersey, show Fred Rupp signed for deliveries against the account of Adams Consolidated, 404 5th Avenue, New York, New York, on August 29, 1962; October 4, 1962; October 16, 1962; October 24, 1962; and October 31, 1962. Only Delivery Order No. 89138 listed specific cartons of rifles obtained by Rupp.

Exhibits D 189 and D 190 were furnished by Frederick Peterson, President, Harborside Terminal Company, Incorporated, Exchange Place, Jersey City, New Jersey, on March 9, 1964.

Copy of Sales Invoice No. 03408 from Adams Consolidated, 404 5th Avenue, Dated October 16, 1962 (Exhibit D 179)

This invoice appears to be identical with Delivery Order No. 03403 listed under Exhibit D 180 other than it does not bear the notation "70 10-16-62 J. M. Krasnolutsky" and the initial "L" in the upper right corner. This instrument reflects the sale of 70 cartons of rifles "38 E 91 I 6.5 Calibre" to Fred Rupp "Via: Rupp." The signature "Fred Rupp" appears at the bottom as the person receiving the merchandise.

Exhibit D 179 was furnished by Louis Feldsott, President, Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, New York City, on March 13, 1964.

Klein's Purchase Order for
One Hundred Rifles Effective
January 15, 1962

On April 15, 1964, William J. Waldman, Vice President, Klein's Sporting Goods, Incorporated, 4540 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, furnished the following information regarding the above Purchase Order which was directed to Crescent Firearms, 2 West 37th Street, New York, New York: This Purchase Order is the bottom page of a multi-page document containing data from various purchases, and in this case, all relating to Italian Mannlicher-Carcano rifles. The center of the page contains a series of vertical columns each bearing the designation "A/R." Mr. WALDMAN noted that on an unused Purchase Order blank, in addition to a bottom page similar to this exhibit, there would be other pages with their leading edges extending to the vertical lines of each of the "A/R" columns. Each subsequent page in the Purchase Order blank would be narrower in width than the succeeding page and as a result would make reference only to one specific vertical column and the data contained thereon.

Mr. Waldman advised the "Effective 1/15/62" appearing on the above exhibit is correct and the date is utilized for administrative purposes only by his firm and indicates when the Purchase Order was first initiated. This date does not indicate in any way the date the order was placed, shipped, billed, or invoiced.

This particular Purchase Order is only concerned with the column headed by Order No. 1243 dated January 24, 1963, and the vertical line drawn through the column makes reference only to a shipment of 100 of the described rifles which he commented is the shipment containing rifle bearing Serial Number C2766. The figures "200 and 400" in adjoining columns have no reference to the shipment of 100 rifles which contained the rifle having Serial Number C2766. Mr. Waldman advised this Purchase Order as shown makes reference only to an order and subsequent shipment of 100 Italian Mannlicher-Carcano rifles, Klein's Catalog No. C20-T749. The bottom of the Purchase Order indicates the shipment of 100 rifles consisting of ten packages was received February 21, 1963, via Lifschultz Freight under Bill of Lading No. 3041342 which weighed 750 pounds. He also noted this form under the column "Accounting Department" and "Extension" bears Klein's Extension No. 85000 which indicates the receipt of the one hundred rifles was recorded for accounting purposes on February 22, 1963.

Exhibit D 163 was furnished by Mr. Waldman on March 12, 1964.

Original Sale Order, Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, No. 3178, Dated February 7, 1963 (Exhibit D 172)

This instrument shows a sale to Klein's Sporting Goods, Incorporated, 4540 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, on Customer's No. 1243 consisting of "100 ea. T-38 6.5 It. Rifles" at $8.50 each. This sales order shows ten cases were shipped December 12, 1963, via Lifschultz and that one of the cases bore number "3376."

Exhibit D 172 was furnished by Louis Feldsott, President, Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, New York City, on March 13, 1964.

Mr. Fred W. Rupp Indicating Shipment on February 12, 1963
(Exhibit D 151)

Fred W. Rupp, Rural Free Delivery Two, Mink Road, Perkasie, Pennsylvania, advised he has a subcontract with Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, New York City, to clean various types of Italian-made rifles and he periodically obtained these guns from Harborside Warehouse Terminal, Jersey City, New Jersey. He said his records do not show the serial number of any individual gun handled by him. The only record he has is the carton number record of the cartons he ships from his place of business to various customers designated to him by Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, New York City. His shipping book reveals that on February 12, 1963, on Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, Order No. 3178, he turned over carton No. 3376 to North Penn Transfer Company, Lansdale, Pennsylvania, for shipment, however, his records do not reflect to whom the shipment was made because the Bill of Lading furnished to him by North Penn Transfer Company is sent to Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, New York City.

Exhibit D 151 was furnished by Mr. Fred W. Rupp, Perkasie, Pennsylvania.

Bill of Lading No. 3178,

The above list accompanied Empire Wholesale Sporting Goods, Limited, invoice No. 1078. The top of the first page bears notations "Carcano" "Case #'s," and "Italian Carbines." It is noted on pages one through six there are 25 serial numbers listed to each case. On page seven there are listed 50 serial numbers to each case. In addition, the top of the last page bears a notation "Italian Carbine 46"."

Exhibit D 103 was obtained from James Ouimet, owner, Century Arms, Incorporated, St. Albans, Vermont, November 23, 1963.

Photostat Copy of Canadian National Railways Straight
Bill of Lading Dated June 29, 1962
(Exhibit D 180)

This document pertains to a shipment from Empire Wholesale Sporting Goods, Limited, Montreal Quebec, consigned to Century Arms, Incorporated, 54 Lake Street, St. Albans, Vermont. The shipment is described as 41 cases of used guns (1300) and "No further use except for ornamental purposes CLASSIFICATION No.: 73080."

Exhibit D 180 was furnished by William Sucher, owner, International Firearms Company, Limited, 1011 Bleury Street, Montreal, Canada.

In connection with efforts to obtain documentary exhibits from Empire Wholesale Sporting Goods, Limited, Montreal, Canada, it was learned the concern is not active. It is operated by a Mr. Itkovitch, a brother-in-law of William Sucher, owner of International Firearms Company, Limited, Montreal, and is reported as probably fully owned by the latter company.

William Sucher on March 12, 1964, advised he has bought hundreds of thousands of rifles overseas as Italian Government surplus and he does not maintain the serial numbers of these rifles. Many were collected from battlefields and places of improper storage and they were in very poor condition. They were usually bought by the pound rather than units. Upon arrival in Canada, defective parts were removed and salable rifles were sometimes composed of parts of three or more weapons. Sucher advised the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle was manufactured in Italy from 1891 until 1941 however in the 1930's Mussolini ordered all arms factories to manufacture the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle. Since many concerns were manufacturing the same weapon, the same serial number appears on weapons manufactured by more than one concern. Some bear a letter prefix and some do not. Sucher stated at times he has prepared a listing of serial numbers of rifles in a given shipment for customs purposes and that listing was thereafter transmitted with the shipment. International Firearms Company, Limited, did not maintain a copy of the serial numbers of the rifles and no such listing is required by law.

Sucher located a record of documents listed as Exhibit D 156 which invoice was paid by Century Arms, Incorporated, on August 6, 1962, and Exhibit D 180. He advised there are no additional records of this shipment in the possession of his company and he is sure the serial numbers of the individual weapons involved were not recorded at the point of shipment as he is certain his purchase was on a per pound basis.

The stamped notation "T-MCLEAN 7526" indicates the shipment was loaded on a McLean trailer and transported to Somerville, Massachusetts, the same date by a Welch Company driver where it laid over until Monday, July 9, 1962. On July 9, 1962, the shipment was unloaded from truck No. 7526 at the Somerville terminal of the Welch Company and reloaded on company truck No. 344739 operated by driver J. Dillon as noted by a stamped impression in the upper left corner of the waybill. The shipment was then transferred by Dillon on July 9, 1962, to Eastern Express Company terminal at 260 Western Avenue, Allston, Massachusetts, where it was again unloaded as the Eastern Express Company was to transport the shipment to the consignee at Chicago, Illinois. The signature "Conway" in the lower left corner indicates receipt of the shipment by Eastern Express Company.

Exhibit D 182 was obtained from Albert C. Penney, Office Manager, H. P. Welch Company, 400 Somerville Avenue, Somerville, Massachusetts, on March 17, 1964, who also furnished explanations for the entries.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 21, 1964, and my letter dated March 27, 1964, relating to the 6.5 millimeter Mannlicher-Carcano Italian military rifle, serial number C2766, and to your request for this Bureau to obtain the originals or photographic copies of all documents relating to this rifle as well as an Italian carbine rifle, serial number 2766.

Enclosed for your assistance are two copies of a twenty-page self-explanatory communication from our Dallas, Texas, Office dated April 22, 1964. This communication describes in a systematic manner the documents obtained by this Bureau in accordance with your request. The documents relating to the rifle bearing the serial number C2766 are described first followed by data on the rifle bearing serial number 2766.

In addition, there are enclosed two photographic copies each of thirty-six documents relating to the above rifles arranged in the same sequence as described in the enclosed Dallas communication.

For your information, copies of exhibits D 17, D 18, D 19, D 77 and J 1 have been previously furnished to you and were consequently not duplicated for this particular request. The originals or copies of the Commission by relet in addition to the above request desired considerable technical data relating to the assassination rifle, C2766. This information was furnished the Commission by Bureau letter 3/27/64 at which time the Commission was apprised of the fact that the additional document request made by them was involved in nature requiring seven Bureau offices to conduct investigation including investigation in Canada. Sufficient information has been developed to show the carbine bearing serial number 2766 is dissimilar to the assassination rifle.

In responding to the Commission's requests for copies of reports pertaining to the organizations or individuals concerned, each office should check its indices and files and furnish the Bureau a complete listing of all communications that have been forwarded to the Bureau for the period involved in order that such communications can be located in Bureau files. In addition, each office should forward to the Bureau copies of all communications in its files that are responsive to the instant request of the Commission but which are not currently in the Bureau's possession. These will include inter-office communications, memoranda to the SAC of each office, and correspondence from other agencies and the public.

This matter must be given the immediate attention of each office and data responsive to the Commission's request should reach the Bureau no later than 6-1-64 and earlier if possible.

NOTE:

The Commission by letter 5-20-64 has requested it be furnished reports and summaries of data in possession of the 4 Texas offices. These requests largely pertain to Fair Play for Cuba Committee as well as anti-Castro organizations. Commission is also interested in obtaining data re members active in the Communist Party & Socialist Workers Party in Dallas and Fort Worth along with information regarding individuals active in the John Birch Society or Minutemen in the State of Texas. Inasmuch as some of the data requested may not have been furnished to the Bureau, desirable each of the offices concerned furnish Bureau a complete accounting of all data in files of each responsive to these requests.

DALLASI TUDOSITAS (Report From Dallas)

Since the time of the Texas tragedy the "Magyar Elet" has often exchanged letters with one of its Dallas friends and has always received the information that they don't know any more in Dallas than what is known in the rest of America. Complete obscurity surrounds the great crime. Recently however we did receive from Dallas information which had not yet received publicity.

As is well known, LEE OSWALD was first charged with killing Policeman TIPPIT. The one eye witness to this crime said that the police murderer was of short stature, stout and shaggy haired. This description did not fit OSWALD. Another witness by the name of REYNOLDS heard the shot and looking out on the street saw the murderer running away. REYNOLDS was killed the first part of this year. The one blamed for this murder was able to furnish an alibi. A dancer stated she was with the one charged at the time of the murder. Later this woman was jailed as a user of narcotics and she committed "suicide." She was a dancer in JACK RUBY's nightclub.

The above unusual item comes from a committee of private individuals organized for the investigation of the affair. According to signs the government appointed committee does not wish to keep the public informed, and this is why this special investigating committee was organized. But we must note that confused public opinion now receives all news with suspicion, whether it comes from the government's committee or the one of private individuals.

Nem titok, hogy a közös tulajdonból való nagyarányú „zabrálás" okozta a háztáji gazdaságok fellendülését. Ebben is rekordot állított fel a kolhozparaszt. Az ukrajnai kukoricatermelés csődjét a háztáji 'gazdálkodásnak' tulajdonította a Presidium 1961-ben.

A parasztok a közös kolhoz-kukoricán táplálták jószágaikat, majd mikor a kukorica csövesedett, maguk is ezen éltek.

■ SZEGÉNY KOLHOZ, GAZDAG KOLHOZ

Mikor a párt úgy látta, hogy a gépállomások politikai szolgálata már nem szükséges és a szovjet paraszt beletörődött sorsába, a gépállomásokat megszüntették, hogy a hatalmas adminisztrációs és üzemfenntartási költségeket csökkentsék. Bejelentette Hruscsov 1959-ben, hogy a gépeket eladják a kolhozoknak, már amelyek képesek a gépek árát megfizetni.

Ez a határozat dimbortotta ki a „gazdag kolhoz" és a „szegény kolhoz" fogalmát. A gazdag kolhozokat a jobb talaj, a városokhoz való közelség és más, szerencsés körülmények, nagyobb állatállomány alakította ki. A gépek megvételével ezek még gazdagabbak, a szegény kolhozok pedig még szegényebbek lettek. Ez volt a „Hruscsov-reform", mely a földműves lakosság két rétegét még hangsúlyosabbá tette.

■ SZOVHOZOK ÉS AGRÁR-VÁROSOK

A harmadik réteget jelentette a Szovhozok, az állami gazdaságok népe. Ezek bérért dolgoztak „mint az ipari munkások. Egy ideig úgy tűnt, hogy ezek a gazdaságok lesznek a hruscsovi gazdálkodás ideális termelési egységei. Kazakhsztánban 100 millió holdnyi szűzföldet törtek fel az elmult tíz év folyamán.

Ezeken a területeken csak állami gazdaságokat létesítettek. A lakosságot úgynevezett agrár-városokba telepítették.

Hatalmas bérházakban, házbizalmiak, tö... bizalmiak és pártbizalmiak alatt — a háztáji zabrálásra nem maradt lehetőség. Ujabb tanulságok a pártnak!

Sokan azt hitték, hogy az általánosan elterjedt kolhozból való lopások a törvényesen megengedett háztáji gazdálkodást is megszűnéssel fenyegetik. Ha nincs háztáji telek és állatállomány, akkor a lopott takarmányt, élelmet nehéz értékesíteni. Viszont a szovhozok termelése katasztrofális eredményeket hozott.

DALLASI TUDÓSÍTÁS

- A Magyar Élet a texasi tragédia óta többször váltott levelet egyik dallasi barátjával, de mindig azt a felvilágosítást kapta, hogy ott sem tudnak többet, mint Amerika többi részében. A nagy bűnügyet teljes homály burkolja... Legutóbb mégis érkezett olyan felvilágosítás Dallasból, mely máshol nem kapott nagy nyilvánosságot.

Ismeretes, hogy Lee Oswaldot először Tippit rendőr megölésével vádolták. Ennek a bűntettnek egy szemtanúja volt, aki szerint a rendőrgyilkos alacsony, zömök, bozontos hajú ember volt. Ez a leírás nem felelt meg Oswald külsejének. Egy Reynolds nevű másik tanú a lövés hallatára nézett ki az utcára és látta elrohanni a tettest. De ezt a Reynoldsot az év elején megölték. Akit emiatt a gyilkosság miatt vádoltak, alibit tudott bizonyítani. Egy táncosnő azt vallotta, hogy együtt voltak a bűntett idején. Utóbb ez a nő kábítószer használata miatt börtönbe került és ott „öngyilkos" lett. Jack Ruby lokáljában volt táncosnő...

Fenti különös hír attól a bizottságtól ered, mely magánszemélyekből alakult az ügy vizsgálatára. A kormány által kinevezett bizottság a jelek szerint nem kívánja tájékoztatni a közönséget — ezért alakult ilyen magán-bizottság. De meg kell jegyezni, hogy a megzavart közvélemény ma már minden hírt kétkedéssel fogad, akár állami, akár magánbizottságtól ered.

TRUE COPY

Dear Mr. Hoover:

An Hungarian woman I work with receives the paper I have enclosed. She has made me aware of life in a Communist country above & beyond theory.

I have circled an article "Dallasi Tudositas." I neither speak nor read Hungarian. She translated this article to me as such: There were 2 witnesses to the police officers fatal shooting after Kennedy's assasination. The one witness described the killer of the officer as a short, hefty man with bushy hair (which does not fit Oswald) Also the 2nd witness, Reynolds was killed the first part of this year. Reynolds named a man as the killer who was furnished an alabi. by a dancer who worked for Ruby.

My natural questions: Is this an accurate translation into English? If so, is it true? If it is true why does an Hungarian paper publish this when the American papers do not?

If it is true, I have the convicton the FBI knows of it & has investi gated its implications. What I would object to is the fact that comparing Congressional Records, Nuclear Test Ban Treaty etc etc to my newspaper (which is the most informative locally) I often find pertinent facts misconstrued or ignored. I am sure if every American read the preamble to the treaty they would be upset by the stated intent.

I do not repeat things I consider inaccurate or gossip or illogical and also if I feel the fact could undermine the faith in our form of government. I did want to point out that I truly feel the facts involving Oswold, Ruby etc should be made public. I presume after Ruby is tried & after Warren's commission has finished their investigation the records will be public. I have heard & read that these facts are being withheld only to "keep the peace" & not upset the public by its Communist implications. I do not think this could be true because of the general opinion that it was a plot or conspiracy.

Also, we Americans have so much faith in the ability of the FBI, that we still can not understand why a commission was set up as it would surely duplicate your work.

I also read Mrs. Oswald is the daughter of a Colonel in the Soviet Intelligince Agency. Knowing that in a Communist country no one goes anywhere unless for a purpose or as a member of the party, this coupled with the relative association present some implications of premeditation.

Regardless, the rumors are out the true facts ascertained should be made public - if not involving "security" problems. The truth is much better than speculation.

Dear Mr. Goodell:

One Hungarian woman I work with receives the paper I have enclosed. She has made me aware of life in a Communist country above & beyond theory.

I have circled an article "Dallas Tudositas". I neither speak nor read Hungarian. She translated this article to me as such. There were a witness to the police officers fatal shooting after Kennedy's assassination. The one witness described the killer of the officer as a short, heavy man with bushy hair (which does not fit Oswald) Also the 2nd witness. Reynolds was killed the first part of this year. Ruby named a man as the killer who was killed on Nov. 24 (?) by a dancer who [illegible] for Ruby.

My natural questions do this [illegible] translation into English? If so

American people do not?

If it is true, I have the conviction that the FBI knows of it & has investigated its implications. What I would object to is the fact that comparing Congressional fact Nuclear test ban treaty to etc. to my newspaper (which is the most informative locally I often find pertinent facts misconstrued or ignored. I am sure if every American read the preamble to the treaty they would be upset by the stated intent. I do not regard things I consid inaccurate or gossip or illogical and as if I felt the fact could undermine the faith in our form of government. Dear Miss Wagner:

Your letter of May 8th and enclosure have been received.

The motives prompting your forwarding this newspaper and your observations are very much appreciated, and you may be assured this Bureau is making every effort to continue to discharge its responsibilities with the highest degree of thoroughness and dispatch.

For your information, our report concerning the assassination of President Kennedy and related matters has been forwarded to the Presidential Commission. The Commission has been charged with the responsibility of making a finding in this case. Further dissemination of this material, therefore, will rest with the Commission.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: The newspaper "Magyar Elet (Hungarian Life)" is not identifiable in Bufiles. Correspondent forwarded an issue dated 5/2/64. It is published at 501-A Bloor Street, West, in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, and its Editor is Marton Kiss Kerecsendi. The clipping in question states that witnesses to the murder of President Kennedy do not fit the description of Oswald, according to a committee of private individuals organized for investigation of the affair.

One prior letter has been received from correspondent 4-11-64, in which she was most commendatory regarding the Director and his book "Masters of Deceit." Bulet 4/20/64 thanked her and sent general publications on the subject of communism. (94-5-54310) No other references.

ReBuairtel to Miami, 5/15/64, requesting status of efforts by Dr. LUIS CONTE AGUERTO to contact JOSE FRA ALONSO in Cuba regarding allegation that Mexican named "DUGLAS" was involved in assassination.

On 5/20/64, Dr. LUIS CONTE AGUERO advised that no information has been received from FRA as result of broadcasts made by CONTE in his nightly radio program to Cuba.

[redacted] has advised that he personally heard the messages on CONTE's program to X del FRAC requesting additional information. Source heard broadcasts during period of 4/22 - 26/64.

Dr. CONTE still expects to receive letter from FRA. He explained that, according to HUMBERTO HERNANDEZ, personal friend of FRA at Miami Beach, PEDRO PEREZ, the letter writer for FRA, was recruited by Cuban Government to cut sugar cane and will return to Havana in near future. Dr. CONTE states PEREZ is the source of information regarding the Mexican named "DUGLAS" and that PEREZ is a member of the group headed by FRA. Dr. CONTE believes PEREZ obtained his information by contacts at the University of Havana or with individuals employed at the university.

Dr. CONTE said he broadcast request to X del FRAC at least five times requesting follow-up information.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

The inquiries recorded hereinunder were conducted on the basis of information received from a confidential source abroad to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was alleged to have visited "some museums" during the time he was in Mexico City from September 27 to October 2, 1963.

INQUIRIES AT PRINCIPAL AND MOST ACCESSIBLE MUSEUMS

The information which follows was provided by a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who explained that, while he had made a thorough survey of personnel at the various museums mentioned, all located in Mexico City, he had not always been able to obtain the names and in some instances the complete names of individuals interviewed, because of their sensitivity to questions concerning their identities and insistence upon receiving an explanation as to the manner in which their names would be utilized prior to furnishing same. He explained that he had desisted from inquiring further concerning their full names when he encountered resistance in connection therewith.

MUSEUM OF NATIONAL HISTORY
(MUSEO NACIONAL DE HISTORIA)

Photographs of OSWALD were displayed to the following persons at the Museum of National History located near the Chapultepec Castle, Chapultepec Park, without locating anyone who could recall his having visited the museum at any time:

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF ANTHROPOLOGY AND HISTORY
(MUSEO NACIONAL DE ANTROPOLOGIA Y HISTORIA)

The foregoing museum is located in the heart of Mexico City near the Government Square (Zocalo) at Calle de la Moneda No. 13. Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were shown to the following personnel thereof without locating anyone who could recall his having been a visitor at that establishment:

Mr. FLORES, guide
Mr. AVILA, guide
Mr. GUZMAN, ticket seller
Mr. HAYDES, ticket seller
Mr. POMPA, librarian
JUAN BALTAZAR, caretaker and security

Miss SOFIA GOMEZ, director of Office of Public Relations, sale of post cards, booklets, official publications, etc.

Most of the persons interviewed were able to recognize the photographs of OSWALD from having seen them in the newspapers, but they were unable to remember his having visited the museum.

BENITO JUAREZ MUSEUM
(MUSEO RECINTO DE JUAREZ)

This museum is at the National Palace (Government Offices). It was determined that there are few employees, as no charge is made for admission. A review of the museum registration book failed to develop any information identifiable with OSWALD. The following employees were shown photographs of OSWALD and stated that they did not remember his having visited the museum:

Mr. BETANCOURT, caretaker of the registration book
Mr. MUNOZ, librarian
Miss AURITA, assistant librarian
Mr. MANZANILLA, caretaker
ANDRES ROMO, caretaker
ENRIQUE ROMO, caretaker

THE INTERAMERICAN INDIGENOUS INSTITUTE
(INSTITUTO INDIGENISTA INTERAMERICANO)

The foregoing establishment is at Calle Ninos Heroes 139. Photographs of OSWALD were displayed to the following persons connected therewith without locating anyone who could recall him as a visitor to the Institute:

Mr. SODI, office employee
Mr. CANTU, office employee
Mrs. HOLEY, office employee
Mrs. DERBES, office employee
Mrs. AGUILAR, office employee

Miss OBREGON, librarian

BALDOMERO CASTRO, car watchman
MARCELINO NOGUEDA, car watchman
LINO HERNANDEZ, car watchman
Six or seven other persons who operate concessions or commercial establishments in the vicinity of the entrance to the museum.

THE ETHNOGRAPHIC MUSEUM
(MUSEO ETNOGRAFICO - Ruins of an Aztec Temple)

This museum is located at the corner of Guatemala and Seminario Streets.

It was determined that only two employees are present on a regular basis, IGNACIO SENDRERO, ticket vendor on duty at the entrance, and EDULIO JUAREZ, caretaker, both of whom viewed photographs of OSWALD without being able to remember him as anyone who had visited the establishment.

THE WAX MUSEUM
(MUSEO DE CERA)

The foregoing is located at Calle Argentina (no number) and there are only two employees on duty who function as ticket vendors and caretakers. GUSTAVO HERNANDEZ and CONSUELO HERNANDEZ, after viewing photographs of OSWALD, advised they could not recall him as having been a visitor at the Wax Museum.

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY
(MUSEO NACIONAL DE LA HISTORIA NATURAL)

The following information was obtained by a confidential source abroad:

The Museum of Natural History is located at Calle Dr. Enrique Gonzalez Martinez No. 10 and on April 16, 1964, ALFONSO MANCILLA GOMEZ advised that he is the caretaker at that museum, a position which he has occupied for the past twenty-five years. He related that few American tourists visit the museum and that he follows the practice of spending some time assisting and explaining the interesting exhibits of the institution to those tourists who do appear there. He stated that he believed he would remember most American visitors, and upon viewing a photograph of OSWALD, advised that he could not recall him as a visitor at the museum and did not believe he had ever seen him at the Museum of Natural History.

The Bureau has received from Legat, Paris, the second and final article in a series by Mrs. Marguerite Oswald which appeared in the April 8-15, 1964 issue of "Le Nouveau Candide," a newspaper which has been characterized by the Press Office of the United States Embassy in Paris as a weekly publication, sensational in nature and strongly pro-de Gaulle in its political leanings. This second article by Mrs. Oswald has been translated and reviewed and a copy of the article and two copies of translation thereof are being furnished to the President's Commission by attached letter.

Mrs. Oswald, in this article, presents the theory that her son, Lee Harvey Oswald, was an agent of a service of the American Government and was trying to foil a plot against the life of President Kennedy.. She further claims that the true assassins, knowing her son's record as a defector and his activities as a pro-Marxist, decided to "kill two birds with one stone by accusing him (Oswald) of the crime and by getting rid of a dangerous witness whose inquiry was brought to a sudden halt." According to Mrs. Oswald, President Kennedy was killed possibly by a "political rival, a man who had accomplices everywhere, in the most important positions." She bases her conclusion about this assassin on the fact that Chief Justice Warren publically declared that "certain facts in this case" may not be made public in this generation.

In her latest article Mrs. Marguerite Oswald discusses at some length her visit with Marina Oswald and her son, Lee, in the Dallas police station after the arrest of Oswald on 11-22-63. She claims that Marina stated the police mistreated her (Marina) in interrogating her following Oswald's arrest. Our inquiry to date has not developed any indication that Marina ever complained about the treatment given her by law enforcement agencies since the assassination of President Kennedy.

As evidence that her son, Lee, was innocent of the assassinatio Mrs. Oswald points to the fact that Lee stated on television that he had not killed President Kennedy. She states that while she never asked him if he had killed President Kennedy she had no reason to doubt his word since he had made a denial of the crime on television.

Memorandum W. A. Branigan to W. C. Sullivan

Mrs. Oswald states that an FBI Agent by the name of "Odham" showed her a photograph on 11-23-63 and that she advised the Agent that she did not know the man in the photograph. Mrs. Oswald states that a few days later she saw in a newspaper the face of the individual in the picture which "Odham" had shown her. She does not elaborate on the identity of the individual in the newspaper but she apparently presumes that it was Jack Ruby, inasmuch as the caption for her article states that the FBI showed her a photograph of Ruby following the assassination. In connection with the photograph shown to Mrs. Oswald on 11-23-63, it was displayed to her by SA Bardwell D. Odum of the Dallas Office. It was the photograph of an unidentified individual furnished by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). CIA felt that this individual who was photographed in Mexico could possibly be associated with Oswald. The photograph definitely was not one of Jack Ruby. Mrs. Marguerite Oswald advised SA Odum that she could not identify the individual in the photograph as anyone she knew.

Mrs. Marguerite Oswald also states the fact that following the assassination she was on good terms with Marina Oswald, Lee's wife, but that in a matter of a few weeks Marina began to avoid her and she had heard rumors from abroad that there was some relationship between Marina and her business manager James Herbert Martin. Mrs. Oswald also comments in derogatory fashion that Marina now smokes, wears make-up, has smart clothes and seems to be enjoying herself.

Mrs. Oswald states that she doubts that Roy S. Truly, Superintendent of the Texas School Book Depository Building, was telling the truth about seeing her son in the Depository Building before and after the assassination. She also claims that Jack Ruby and Dallas police officer J. D. Tippit were seen together at the Carousel Club prior to the assassination. Our investigation has failed to develop information that Ruby and Tippit were known to each other and were seen together at Ruby's Carousel Club.

In the article Mrs. Oswald has apparently made several inaccurate statements, one to the effect that she called her son Robert Oswald her youngest son when in effect Lee Oswald was her youngest son, second that Oswald was left handed when Marina Oswald has advised us that Oswald was right handed.

Mrs. Oswald appears to be particularly petulant in complaining that Dallas police officer Tippit's widow has received more than $600,00 when no family of a policeman killed on duty has ever received so much. Mrs. Oswald states that she had tried to learn the names of the donors of money to Mrs. Tippit but found it impossible to do so.

As pointed out by the newspaper "Le Nouveau Candide" in Mrs. Oswald's first article her arguments would seem to express "more maternal love than shrewdness." It is obvious that Mrs. Oswald in her articles has resorted to speculation and wishful thinking to conclude that her son, Lee, is innocent of the assassination of President Kennedy and has been framed to be the guilty party.

HOOVER SEES LENGTHY JFK DEATH PROBE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Director J. Edgar Hoover emerged from a 2½-hour closed session with the Warren Commission yesterday and predicted that the investigation of President Kennedy's assassination would continue for "many, many years."

Hoover praised the commission's thoroughness in trying to find answers to the Nov. 22 tragedy, but said the FBI will be working on the case long after the Presidential panel submits its final report.

"We are following up on all leads and reports, although some of them are as fantastic as can be thought up," he told newsmen.

HEAR OSWALD'S OWN VOICE

What did Oswald really think of President Kennedy?

Hear the only recorded statement in existence, as Oswald gives his own opinion of President Kennedy.

Was Oswald alone?

Listen to this record, as Oswald defends the Fair Play for Cuba committee. Then decide for yourself.

Was Oswald insane?

Listen to this record . . . then judge for yourself.

What did Oswald call his enemies?

Hear Oswald pin a label on people he dislikes, and smear the State Department and the CIA.

Whom did Oswald admire?

Hear Oswald's own suggestion, that the United States should have dropped weapons "into the Sierra Maestra where Fidel Castro could have used them."

How did Oswald explain his three years in Russia?

Listen to this record, and hear his revealing reply.

Introduction by . . .

Hon. T. Hale Boggs, Congressman from Louisiana and House Majority Whip, in whose District the debate was held, and who supported the INCA TRUTH TAPES program from the outset.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of April 30, 1964, requesting that this Bureau interview Miss Yacko Okui. You also requested that if we discovered the name of Miss Okui's initial employer in Dallas, we interview such individual to determine the circumstances under which she came to Dallas as well as additional background information concerning her.

Our letter of May 12, 1964, forwarded to the Commission two copies of a memorandum dated May 6, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, which contained results of our interview with Miss Okui.

Enclosed are two copies each of a memorandum dated May 14, 1964, at New York, New York, and a memorandum dated May 21, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, which contain additional background information concerning Miss Okui and added details concerning her employment in the United States.

This concludes our inquiries in this particular matter.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Mohr

DATE: May 22, 1964

FROM : C. D. DeLoach

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

The Friday, May 22, 1964, issue of the "New York Herald Tribune," Page 9, has a full page ad with a four line headline reading, "God, I hope it isn't Oswald in the picture. But I want it established beyond any doubt at all..." Beneath the caption is a picture of a roll of camera film and then the following statement, "This Sunday the Herald Tribune will publish what is probably the most controversial photograph of the decade."

Lee Harvey Oswald

The advertisement states that the photograph was taken a split second after President Kennedy was shot, shows him through the windshield, his left hand raised to his throat. (This is apparently the Associated Press photograph which has been widely publicized.) In the background, the advertisement continues, is the Texas School Book Depository, in the doorway of which stands a man bearing a resemblance to Lee Harvey Oswald. The ad points out that the FBI said this is not Oswald but that a "New York Herald Tribune" reporter named Dom Bonafede has talked to a New Yorker (not identified) who wonders, has doubts and believes the full story has not been told.

The "Herald Tribune" will print the picture, enlarged, this Sunday in its New York magazine section.

ACTION TAKEN:

We here and at Dallas have absolutely "no commented" this matter today and will continue so doing. SAC Shanklin of Dallas telephoned and told Wick at 1:40 p.m. he is quite certain the photograph is that taken by Associated Press, which shows Billie Knowland Lovelady in the background. The FBI talked with this man long ago. He is employed still at the Texas School Book Depository and as recently as two weeks ago members of the press were taking his picture and commenting on his resemblance to Lee Harvey Oswald. Lovelady told newsmen he was getting tired of being bothered.

SAC Shanklin stated that a "Newsweek" representative in Dallas has now called the Dallas Office and said he understands the FBI has Lovelady in custody and will not permit pictures to be taken of him.

RE: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

Wick instructed Shanklin to tell "Newsweek" and other callers on this matter that the FBI has not taken any one into custody and is not prohibiting any one from being photographed. We will answer the query here the same way, if asked.

We will continue no comment. This is an obvious attempt by the magazines and newspapers to increase circulation through sensationalism.

Dear Mr. President: Lee Harvey Oswald

As an American citizen, deeply concerned with the welfare of our Country, I enclose an interesting news release which was broadcast by a local Dayton radio station and I believe it merits your immediate consideration.

In the past Justice Warren has rendered decisions very favorable to Communists or the Communist cause; therefore I am not surprised at the enclosed comments however I demand, as a citizen, that the matter in question be investigated.

I am an American first and secondly a Democrat, therefore I am sending copies of this letter and news release to the gentlemen, as listed, in case you may feel it is not politically expeditious to take action in this matter.

God help our degenerating nation!

A WAVI Editorial

By: Gregg Wallace, News & Editorial Director
BROADCAST: Thursday, May 14, 1964

Mystery and uncertainty have surrounded the special committee selected by President Johnson to investigate fully the assassination of President Kennedy. At the outset there was criticism of having Chief Justice Earl Warren on the committee for fear that, at some later date, the Supreme Court might be faced with a case directly or indirectly connected with the tragic events of last November 22nd.

Then, after President Johnson emphasized the committee was to give the American people a complete and clear report on what occurred, Justice Warren suggested there may be some testimony that may never be revealed.

Later, Dictator Khrushchev sent the committee a supposed complete dossier on the activities of Lee Harvey Oswald, suspected slayer of the late president. This, to say the least, was rather fishy.

Now comes another incredible aspect of the Warren Commission: WAVI understands that the commission has hired at $100.00 a day, as an assistant to James Lee Rankin, chief counsel to the committee, a man who is reportedly a Communist sympathizer!

38 year old NORMAN REDLICH, former New York University law professor, has, among other things, called for the abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee, signed a petition asking executive clemency for communists, Carl Braden and Frank Wilkinson...and appeared in a letterhead as a member of the executive committee of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. The ECLC has been branded by two Congressional investigating committees as a Communist front organization. In fact, HUAC reports the ECLC was formed in 1951 and is actually operated as a front for the communist party!

This means that Norman Redlich, apparently a communist fronter, is helping investigate the assassination of an American president, who was gunned down by a Marxist advocate! And, he's being paid a handsome salary from your tax dollars.

We wonder if your congressman knows this? In fact, we're even curious as to whether the members of the Warren commission have been alerted to this shocking situation?

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Conrad

DATE: May 26, 1964

FROM : Mr. Jevons

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, DALLAS, TEXAS;
11/22/63

Reference memorandum dated February 26, 1964, from W. D. Griffith concerning a continuing project wherein the Bureau has undertaken to furnish the Commission with photographs of all Commission exhibits.

On May 26, 1964, the Bureau received by mail from the Commission, the exhibits which are described in the attached list with the request that three photographs be furnished of each exhibit.

It is noted that most of these exhibits are photographs, however, those documentary exhibits which are not photographs will be nonphotographically reproduced as has been done in the past.

This work will be handled by an Agent Examiner from the Document Section of the Laboratory.

ACTION: Exhibits will be photographed or otherwise reproduced and three copies will be supplied to the Commission as requested. Those items originally supplied to the Commission by the Bureau will be kept in Bureau custody. Items not originating from the Bureau (designated by the *) will be returned along with the photographs.

FROM : Legat, Paris (62-148) (P.)

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
NOVEMBER 22, 1963, DALLAS, TEXAS
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING

Re Paris letter 5-13-64.

This case is being maintained in a pending status in order to obtain and furnish to the Bureau a copy of "OSWALD, L'IMPOSSIBLE ASSASSIN" by JOACHIM JOESTEN, which was reportedly scheduled to be published in Paris in mid-May, 1964.

Inquiry at a local book shop on 5-25-64 revealed that the book has not appeared as yet. An employee of the book store telephonically contacted the publisher in order to ascertain a projected date of publication and was advised that it is not at all certain that the book will be published. According to an unidentified individual in the publisher's office, the editorial committee of the publisher still has JOESTEN's text under consideration and there reportedly is a good chance that a decision will be reached to abandon the publication.

We will continue to follow this and keep the Bureau advised.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to a telephonic request from Mr. Melvin Eisenberg of your staff on May 13, 1964, regarding the preparation of photocopies of certain Commission exhibits.

Pursuant to this request, a representative of this Bureau obtained the exhibits in question and enclosed herewith are three sets of photocopies of Commission exhibits numbered 133, 565, 608 through 640, 642 through 647, 649 through 652, 655 through 673 and 746 through 755.

Also enclosed herewith are Commission exhibits numbered 608 through 625 and 662.

This letter will also confirm the delivery of three photocopies of Commission exhibit number 111 which were furnished to the Commission by a representative of this Bureau on May 21, 1964. These photocopies were prepared in accordance with an informal request by Mr. Eisenberg on May 18, 1964.

Sincerely yours,

Edgar Hoover

Re New York airtel dated 4/20/64.

On 4/27/64, [redacted] advised that on 4/26/64, MARK LANE spoke at 625 Polk Street, San Francisco. His speech was entitled, "The Oswald Case - Fact and Fiction."

The informant reported that LANE's speech was similar to previous speeches that LANE had given in the San Francisco area (reported by San Francisco LHM dated 4/22/64). In this speech LANE stressed several points: 1.) the belief that OSWALD and the killer of police officer TIPPIT were not the same person; 2.) the matter of the President's throat wound. LANE stated that surgeons at the hospital where the President was taken stated that there was an entrance wound at the throat; 3.) the first shots were reported at the time of the assassination to come from the grassy knoll ahead of the President's car; 4.) discuss a matter of possibly changed or doctored photographs; and 5.) stresses information reported from the Dallas school teacher who reported four or more shots fired.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Lee Harvey Oswald

Reference is made to your letter dated April 23, 1964, wherein you requested that certain investigation be conducted based upon testimony furnished to your Commission by Mr. Carlos Bringuier.

Enclosed are two copies each of the reports of Special Agent James J. O'Connor dated May 8, 1964, at Miami, Florida, and Special Agent Stephen M. Callender dated May 15, 1964, at New Orleans, Louisiana, both of which are self-explanatory. Also enclosed are single copies of the following publications requested by you: REC-46 105-82555-3854

(1) "Diario Las Americas," dated September 4, 1963

(2) "Diario Las Americas," dated September 6, 1963

(3) "Bohemia Internacional," dated February 2, 1964

The pertinent articles contained in these documents and referred to in your referenced letter have been translated and incorporated into the enclosed Miami report.

Item three of your referenced letter concerns an alleged "lapsus linguae" committed by Castro in a speech given at the University of Havana on November 27, 1963, at which time

Castro allegedly indicated Oswald had been in Cuba. Enclosed are two copies of a translation of this speech, pertinent portions of which have been included in the enclosed Miami report. A review of this speech fails to indicate any slip of the tongue as alleged. It is noted, however, that page 33, last paragraph, of the enclosed Miami report relating to Castro's speech contains a statement wherein Castro refers to Oswald's visit to the "Cuban Embassy" in Mexico following which he corrected himself indicating he meant the "Cuban Consulate." This could possibly be the basis for the slip of the tongue referred to by Herminio Portell-Vila.

Two copies of a memorandum dated May 15, 1964, setting forth the results of an interview with Herminio Portell-Vila, writer of the article containing the above-mentioned allegation, are also enclosed. You were previously furnished a memorandum dated February 18, 1964, containing additional data obtained from Portell-Vila concerning this matter.

It is noted that Portell-Vila has stated his articles are primarily interpretive analysis, speculation and conjecture based on a review of public source data.

The enclosed memorandum of May 15, 1964, states that according to Portell-Vila, he gave the original of a message received from an unknown source in Cuba pertaining to Lee Harvey Oswald's alleged relations in Moscow, Russia, with two Cuban Ambassadors to Mrs. Mariada Arensberg, Secretary of the Cuban Freedom Committee in Washington, D. C. Portell-Vila believed she passed the message on to an unknown Government agency.

On May 22, 1964, a representative of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) advised he recalls receiving such a communication; however, at the time it was received the name Oswald was believed to relate to Osvaldo Dorticos, President of Cuba, rather than Lee Harvey Oswald. Further inquiries are being conducted in this regard.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Interviews with Orestes Pena and Carlos Bringuier have not yet been conducted due to their unavailability. Pena reportedly is traveling in Europe as indicated in the memorandum dated May 1, 1964, at New Orleans concerning Orestes Pena, two copies of which are enclosed. Carlos Bringuier has been away from New Orleans on an extended speaking tour. Both Pena and Bringuier, however, are due to return to the New Orleans area by May 30, 1964, at which time they will be promptly interviewed and you will be furnished the results.

With regard to your inquiry as to whether this Bureau has conducted a thorough investigation into the question of possible contacts between Lee Harvey Oswald and any representative of or known sympathizer with the Castro government of Cuba, you may be assured that this Bureau has thoroughly explored this question. To date, however, no information has been developed indicating Oswald was controlled, directed or employed by any individual so identified.

We will continue to furnish you with communications in duplicate containing the results of our investigations.

Sincerely yours,

The enclosed communications contain all information developed to date and are fully responsive in this regard with the exceptions noted. Information from CIA furnished through Liaison channels to SA Papich by Jane Roman.

The "Dallas Times Herald" of May 12, 1964, on page 17, contained an article captioned "Probers to Hear Officers", wherein it was stated that Lieutenant JACK REVILL and Detective V. J. BRIAN of the Criminal Intelligence Section of the Dallas Police Department flew to Washington on May 12, 1964, to testify before the President's Commission. The article stated that it was presumed their testimony would concern the controversial memorandum Lieutenant REVILL wrote approximately one hour after the arrest of OSWALD. The article continued that the memorandum was a report to Detective Captain PAT GANNAWAY concerning a conversation Lieutenant REVILL had with SA JAMES P. HOSTY, JR. and that according to the memo SA HOSTY allegedly said that the FBI knew OSWALD was a member of the Communist Party and was "capable" of killing the President.

The article stated that Detective BRIAN had said he overhead Agent HOSTY make the statement to Lieutenant REVILL in the basement of the City Hall. The article states that FBI Director J. EDGAR HOOVER had denied the FBI knew OSWALD was capable of the assassination and that Agent HOSTY had reportedly already testified before the President's Commission in Washington.

The article concludes by stating that Police Chief JESSE CURRY had told reporters two weeks ago that Lieutenant REVILL and Detective BRIAN would submit to lie detector tests if requested to do so by the President's Commission.

The "Dallas Morning News" on May 13, 1964, on page 13, contains an article captioned "Lt. REVILL to Testify Before Warren Probers". This article also refers to the alleged statement by SA HOSTY. The article indicates that Lieutenant REVILL was accompanied by Detective V. J. BRIAN, and that the Police Department officials were "mum" about the nature of Lieutenant REVILL's trip, but that sources agreed that Lieutenant REVILL was summoned by the Commission for the purpose of giving them first-hand testimony on the controversial memorandum of Lieutenant REVILL. The article stated that sources had said Lieutenant REVILL and Detective BRIAN would be interviewed by the President's Commission on Wednesday (May 13).

The same article stated that the President's Commission had announced on Tuesday, May 12, 1964, that FBI Director J. EDGAR HOOVER would appear before the Commission on Thursday, May 14, 1964, and that he would be followed by JOHN A. MC CONE, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The above is for the Bureau's information.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Marina Oswald has stated that shortly after April 10, 1963 Lee Harvey Oswald expressed an interest in attacking Richard Nixon. The credibility of Marina Oswald's story is subject to some question since Nixon was neither in nor reported to have been in Dallas at the appropriate time. Since Lee Harvey Oswald moved to New Orleans on April 24, 1963 we think that investigation should be conducted into the possibility that Nixon may have been in or reported to have been in that city sometime during the period from April 24, 1963 to the end of September of that year.

Pages 281-2 of Special Agent Gemberling's report of March 10, 1964 indicated that a review of Dallas newspapers for the period March 16 to May 15, 1963, did not reveal any mention of any proposed visit of or invitation to Mr. Nixon. To take account of the possibility of confusion on Marina Oswald's part we would appreciate advice concerning the possibility that such newspapers may have reflected the visit or proposed visit of some other political leader of the approximate stature of Mr. Nixon.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The President's Commission, by letter dated May 12, 1964, requested that Mr. H. R. BRIGHT, Mr. EDGAR CRISSEY and Mr. NELSON BUNKER HUNT, who had been identified as contributors to the fund used in payment for the advertisement which appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" on November 22, 1963, be interviewed. This was a full-page advertisement signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman.

On May 15, 1964, Mr. HARVEY ROBERT BRIGHT, who is also known as "BUM" BRIGHT, an independent oil operator of the firm of Bright and Schiff, Mercantile Continental Building, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed, commencing at 10:48 A.M., and was advised that he did not have to make any statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised he had a right to consult with a lawyer before making any statement.

BRIGHT stated he desired to be interviewed in the presence of his attorney, ROBERT PAYNE, who sat in on the interview.

Mr. BRIGHT stated he did not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had had no contact or dealings with them at any time.

BRIGHT stated that sometime prior to the time the full-page advertisement, which was signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee, appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" on November 22, 1963, he had been solicited to contribute to such an advertisement. BRIGHT declined to give the names of the persons who had contacted him, terming them "A" and "B". He said that "A" first called him and asked him if he would make a contribution to such an advertisement and BRIGHT agreed. He said that later, "A" and "B" came to his office in the Mercantile Continental Building in Dallas, which was two or three days or perhaps a week prior to the time the "Dallas Morning News" ran this advertisement. "B," according to BRIGHT, stated he did not have the money to put up for the advertisement and Mr. BRIGHT stated he put up "B's" money for him and considered it in the nature of a loan. He said he currently carries it on his books and it is believed that "B" owes him $300.00 or $400.00 now, but did not remember whether all of this was for the advertisement. BRIGHT stated he wrote out a check for "B's" contribution for the advertisement, as well as for his contribution, and that "B" signed notes for the amount owed BRIGHT. BRIGHT stated he had not collected any money from "B" and that the money contributed for the advertisement was his own and was not supplied by any other persons. He advised he did not solicit any funds from others in connection with this matter. He remarked that he might have "bankrolled" "B" for this contribution as he did not know whether "B" was going to pay him back or not. On the other hand, he said "B" might make the full contribution and then he, BRIGHT, would not be a contributor. He said he would have to contact "B" to determine if "B" would pay the entire amount of the contribution. BRIGHT declined to give the names of the people who had contacted him as well as the amount of his contribution and that of "B." BRIGHT stated that the advertisement which appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" on November 22, 1963, had been read to him over the telephone, but declined to give the name of the individual who read it to him.

The interview was terminated at 11:05 A.M.

On May 15, 1964, Mr. EDGAR R. CRISSEY, an insurance man associated with E. F. White & Associates, 1115 Fidelity Union Building, Dallas, Texas, who resides at 3320 Villanova Street, Dallas, Texas, was advised that he did not have to make any statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised that he could consult with a lawyer prior to making any statement.

CRISSEY stated he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and never had had any contact with either of them. CRISSEY collected contributions, he related, for the insertion of an advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News," on November 22, 1963, which advertisement was edged in black, and signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman. CRISSEY stated he had never known WEISSMAN, but solicited contributions at the request of a friend, JOE GRINNAN. CRISSEY stated he contributed $15.00 in cash for this advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News" and had collected, in all, approximately $135.00 from two or three other people. He declined to give the names of these individuals, stating the money was collected as a matter of confidence and he promised them at the time that their names would not be divulged. He stated that these people who had contributed to him, he was sure, did not know OSWALD or RUBY. The approximately $135.00 collected by him was turned over to JOE GRINNAN for expense concerning the insertion of the advertisement.

JOE GRINNAN contacted CRISSEY about one week prior to November 22, 1963, stating he desired to place the advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News," and requested him to solicit funds for an advertisement to be placed in the "Dallas Morning News." CRISSEY understood that the Legal Department, of the "Dallas Morning News," had reviewed the advertisement prior to its being run in the November 22, 1963, issues of the "Dallas Morning News." CRISSEY stated that they had very little time in which to obtain contributions and he understood that BUNKER HUNT had contributed and a person known as "BUM" BRIGHT, with offices in the Mercantile Continental Building, was also a contributor.

CRISSEY stated the last thing they wanted was for something to happen to President KENNEDY, terming the insertion of the advertisement as being ill-timed. He said that no organization sponsored the advertisement that he knew of, although it was signed by BERNARD WEISSMAN, whom he did not know.

CRISSEY stated the article was written by a man whose name he did know at the time, but whose name he had forgotten. CRISSEY stated he saw a proof copy of the advertisement prior to its being run in the newspaper. He believed the newspaper advertisement cost approximately $1,500.00, and stated he did not wish to reveal the names of persons who contributed.

On May 15, 1964, Mr. NELSON BUNKER HUNT, 4508 Lakeside Drive, Dallas, Texas, with offices on the 7th Floor, Mercantile Securities Building, Dallas, Texas, an independent oil operator, at the outset of the interview requested that his secretary call his attorney prior to being interviewed. He was, therefore, interviewed in the presence of his attorney, IVAN IRWIN.

HUNT readily admitted having contributed cash to JOE GRINNAN for the purpose of placing an advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News." This advertisement appeared on November 22, 1963, and was signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee. HUNT termed it an article which asked some embarrassing questions of President KENNEDY. He said he could not recall the amount he contributed, but believed it to be between $200.00 and $300.00. He gave the contribution to JOE GRINNAN in cash, merely reaching in his pocket and pulling forth the contribution. He demonstrated this by reaching in his pocket and exposing a roll of bills while being interviewed. He said JOE GRINNAN contacted him several days before the "Dallas Morning News" ran the advertisement and told him by telephone that the "Dallas Morning News" would publish this advertisement. He later came by the HUNT office and received the money, Mr. HUNT related.

HUNT was unable to state whether he had read the article prior to publication, but stated that GRINNAN might have read some of it over the telephone or might have told him about it. He stated the article was a criticism of President KENNEDY in a dignified way. He stated the money contributed by him was his own money and he did not solicit or obtain contributions from any other person.

HUNT stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and stated he had never had any contact with them. He did not know the names of others who had contributed toward the cost of the advertisement and did not know BERNARD WEISSMAN, whose name appeared on the advertisement. He stated that he understood, from reading the papers, that WEISSMAN came from New York.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

HUNT did not know of any organization who had sponsored the advertisement and did not know anything concerning the American Fact-Finding Committee. He did not know who prepared this advertisement for publication and remarked that the timing of the advertisement was not too good.

NOTE:

By letter dated April 28, 1964, the President's Commission furnished a four-page request concerning the repair tag marked "Oswald" obtained from the Irving Sport Shop prepared by Dial D. Ryder. The Commission wanted certain facts clarified such as was our Agent actually present when the tag was found, circumstances under which Ryder became aware of the tags existence. The Commission desired to know how, when and where the story concerning the repair tag first came to the attention of the press as the Commission is attempting to make a determination concerning the veracity of Mr. Dial D. Ryder, employee, and Mr. Charles Woodrow Greener, owner of the Irving Sport Shop. Inquiry was also to include whether all individuals with a surname of Oswald have been contacted to determine if any of these persons had repair work done at the Irving Sport Shop. One individual has yet to be interviewed and Little Rock has been requested to expedite this investigation.

Dallas advised in referenced airtel that it was the opinion of an Agent in Dallas who has interviewed Ryder on several occasions that Ryder fabricated the repair tag and that Ryder is of such a nature that if he were given a polygraph examination, he would admit having fabricated this repair tag. Any decision regarding a polygraph examination rests with the President's Commission.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

By letter dated May 7, 1964, the President's Commission advised that it appeared LEE HARVEY OSWALD first became acquainted with members of the so-called "Russian Community" in the Dallas-Fort Worth area through his contacts with Mr. PETER GREGORY and Mr. MAX CLARK of Fort Worth. This letter reflected that Mr. CLARK had testified that he thought that OSWALD had obtained his name, as well as Mr. GREGORY's, through the Fort Worth office of the Texas Employment Commission.

The President's Commission requested that Mr. CLARK's testimony be verified by interviews with appropriate personnel of the Texas Employment Commission office in Fort Worth. The President's Commission also expressed a desire to know the identity of the person or persons who provided OSWALD with the names of GREGORY and CLARK and the reasons they did so.

On May 13, 1964, Mr. PETER PAUL GREGORY, Geologist, Continental National Bank Building, Fort Worth, Texas, was recontacted and furnished the following information:

GREGORY recalled that when LEE HARVEY OSWALD first contacted him, he told him that he had obtained GREGORY's name from someone at the Fort Worth Public Library. GREGORY has conducted classes in Russian at the Fort Worth Public Library for about four years. He stated he had made inquiry at the Fort Worth Public Library but had been unable to locate anyone who had talked to OSWALD and might have given his name to OSWALD.

On May 13, 1964, Mr. MAX CLARK, attorney, Ridglea State Bank Building, Fort Worth, Texas, furnished the following information:

CLARK recalled that during the first interview he was not sure as to the source of OSWALD in obtaining the name of

COPIES DESTROYED
21 MAR 1 1973

Mrs. CLARK, but first thought it might have been the Fort Worth Public Library. He later talked to his wife, Mrs. GALI CLARK, and she said that when OSWALD called her the first time he told her he had obtained her name from some person at the Texas Employment Commission. CLARK further advised that his wife vaguely recalled that OSWALD might have told her the name of this person was SMITH, but she was not certain as to this information. CLARK advised that his sister works at the Texas Employment Commission and one of his aunts was employed there for many years until her death three years ago. He related that many persons at the Texas Employment Commission are acquainted with him and also know that his wife is from France and is of Russian descent. CLARK stated he and his wife had made some inquiry out of curiosity to try to learn the name of the person who gave Mrs. CLARK's name to OSWALD, but they had not been successful.

On May 13, 1964, Mr. ARLISS NIXON, Manager, Fort Worth Public Library, Fort Worth, Texas, furnished the following information:

He and his assistants had checked all library records in the past but had failed to develop the names of any individuals at this library who might have given the name of PETER GREGORY to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. NIXON was unable to furnish any information concerning any person who might have given this name to OSWALD.

On May 13, 1964, Mrs. VIRGINIA HALE, 6475 Fortune Road, Fort Worth, Texas, employed in the Job Placement Division of Texas Employment Commission, Fort Worth, Texas, furnished the following information:

She recalled LEE HARVEY OSWALD quite well and she sent him out on the job to the Leslie Welding Company. Mrs. HALE stated she did not give the names of MAX CLARK or PETER GREGORY to OSWALD, but she believed that Mrs. ANNIE LAURIE SMITH of Texas Employment Commission might have furnished the name of CLARK to OSWALD.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 13, 1964, Mrs. ANNIE LAURIE SMITH, 301 South Bowen Road, Arlington, Texas, employed as a Counselor at the Texas Employment Commission, Fort Worth, Texas, furnished the following information:

She has been so employed for the past nine years. She interviewed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in June 1962 when he came to this office seeking a job. OSWALD had not been to the employment office before and was not sure as to his qualifications for any particular type of job. In applicants of this type, the Counselors interview these persons to obtain their background, their job experience, and try to advise them the type of job they might best be qualified for. Mrs. SMITH talked to LEE HARVEY OSWALD on two different occasions. She recalled that at times he was quite cooperative, then other times he acted rather moody and did not want to furnish some of the information.

Near the close of the last interview, LEE HARVEY OSWALD mentioned to Mrs. SMITH that his wife was from Russia; that she could only speak the Russian language, and he would like to get acquainted with any persons in Fort Worth who might speak the Russian language, and in this way his wife could talk to them and maybe they could make more friends in Fort Worth. Mrs. SMITH advised she is personally acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. PETER PAUL GREGORY, and she wrote the name of Mr. GREGORY on a piece of paper showing the office number and phone number of Mr. GREGORY and she gave this to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. During part of this conversation, a Mrs. HALL, sitting at the next desk to Mrs. SMITH, overheard the conversation and mentioned to Mrs. SMITH that Mrs. MAX CLARK, who lives in Fort Worth, is of Russian descent and speaks Russian and also French. Mrs. SMITH recalls Mrs. HALL wrote the name and phone number of Mrs. CLARK on a slip of paper, handed it to Mrs. SMITH, and she, in turn, passed it on to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. SMITH advised she was not personally acquainted with Mr. or Mrs. MAX CLARK, but had heard of them. She stated that Mrs. HALL never talked to OSWALD and she only furnished the name of Mrs. CLARK to Mrs. SMITH, and she, in turn, gave it to OSWALD.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Mrs. SMITH stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not discuss any politics or anything about the governments of the United States or Russia, and that she only talked to him about his past employment and the type of work he had done prior to going to Russia; also, the work he had done in Russia, and if he had done any work since he had returned from Russia. She stated he wanted the names of these individuals so that he and his wife might visit them and OSWALD's wife would then be able to talk to these people in Russian since she could not speak any English.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following investigation supplements that contained in a memorandum of this agency dated May 6, 1964, relating to Miss YAEKO OKUI, who was in attendance at a year-end combination Christmas - New Year's Party, December 28 - 30, 1962, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. DECLAN P. FORD at 14057 Brookcrest Drive, Dallas, Texas, at which party MARINA and LEE HARVEY OSWALD were also in attendance.

On May 18, 1964, GERARDO WEINSTEIN, President, Schwabach Perutz and Company, Room 1610, Cotton Exchange Building, 608 North St. Paul, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his offices regarding the employment of Miss YAEKO OKUI in the spring of 1959.

WEINSTEIN advised that his firm deals in the purchase, sale, and exchange of cotton throughout the world, principally in the Orient, and that his company is represented in Japan by Ozawa and Company, a brokerage firm located in Osaka, Japan. He advised that in the spring of 1959 he desired to employ a Japanese girl as governess for his children and discussed this matter at length with Mr. GEORGE PERUTZ, a member of the board of Schwabach Perutz and Company, and that Mr. PERUTZ advised him at that time that his wife, Mrs. PERUTZ, was acquainted with a well-educated, English-speaking Japanese girl residing at that time on Awaji Island located about ten miles off the coast of Kobi, Japan. WEINSTEIN stated Mrs. PERUTZ accordingly contacted this Japanese girl, whom he now knows to be Miss YAEKO OKUI, and inquired of her availability for a position in the United States as governess for Mr. WEINSTEIN's children. WEINSTEIN stated Miss OKUI answered Mrs. PERUTZ's inquiry by return mail to the effect she would be very much interested in employment in the United States for a period of two years and that upon being advised of this by Mrs. PERUTZ, WEINSTEIN communicated with Mr. OZAWA of the Ozawa Company in Osaka, Japan, and requested his assistance in arranging a two-year temporary visa for Miss OKUI. WEINSTEIN stated he, through his attorneys, submitted the appropriate forms to the Immigration Service reflecting his intentions to act as sponsor for Miss OKUI in the event her visa were granted, and promising round trip transportation from Japan to the United States and return.

WEINSTEIN advised arrangements were made by Mr. OZAWA through the U. S. Consul in Tokyo for a two-year temporary visa for Miss OKUI and that Miss OKUI arrived by ocean liner to San Francisco and subsequently Dallas in the middle of the summer of 1959. He advised Miss OKUI immediately took up her duties as governess at his residence and remained in that position through tne entire two-year period, ending in approximately July 1961. He advised Miss OKUI then arranged through subsequent friends she had made in Dallas for an extension on her visa, and, upon the expiration of her employment period with him, she subsequently obtained a position with the Nippon Service Company, Incorporated, in New York City, which Mr. WEINSTEIN stated he understands acts as United States representative for the Takashamaya (phonetic) Department Store chain of Japan. WEINSTEIN stated to the best of his recollection she remained in New York approximately one year, at which time she returned to Dallas as a Southwestern States representative for that firm. WEINSTEIN advised he and his family have lost contact with Miss OKUI subsequent to her employment in New York City, and have seen her on only three or four occasions since her return to Dallas.

WEINSTEIN stated that during the tenure of her employment at his home, he and his family thought very highly of Miss OKUI and found her to be a highly intelligent, well-educated, and talented girl. He stated she accepted her responsibilities fully and was always quietly polite and unassuming while a resident in his household.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

WEINSTEIN advised he was not aware that Miss OKUI had attended a dinner party at which LEE HARVEY and MARINA OSWALD were also in attendance; however, he knew that she had become friendly with many of the Russian-speaking people in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, inasmuch as she had become a close friend and companion to Mr. LEV ARONSON, whom he believed to have been of Russian origin, and who was fluent in the Russian language. WEINSTEIN attributed this association to their mutual enjoyment of parlor music in which both were quite gifted rather than to any amorous relationship.

WEINSTEIN advised that around the first of May, 1964, he received a letter from Miss OKUI expressing her intentions to return to Japan; and, as he, WEINSTEIN, remained obligated to pay for her passage home, he accordingly arranged passage aboard the Africa Maru scheduled to depart San Francisco June 8, 1964. He advised, further, he has arranged for her belongings to be shipped to San Francisco in care of William Diamond and Company, Pier 23, for subsequent shipment to Japan.

On May 18, 1964, GEORGE PERUTZ, Director, Schwabach Perutz and Company, Room 1610, Cotton Exchange Building, 608 North St. Paul, Dallas, Texas, advised he first became acquainted with Miss YAEKO OKUI through his wife, SIDNEY PERUTZ, who he recalls met Miss OKUI at a flower arrangement show in a Tokyo park sometime during 1956 or 1957. PERUTZ explained that he and his wife make frequent trips to the Orient and most notably Japan as a result of his business interests in that area of the world, and that these trips are usually made in the spring of each year for the purpose of selling cotton futures to Japanese textile mills and other purchasers. He advised that Miss OKUI and his wife became close friends and, in fact, his wife has visited the OKUI home on several occasions and he recalls his wife spending a full week with the OKUI family on one occasion. PERUTZ stated that following their return to the United States, Miss OKUI and his wife corresponded frequently regarding floral arrangements and other Japanese cultural arts in which Miss OKUI was quite proficient.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Mr. PERUTZ recalled that Mr. GERARDO WEINSTEIN, President of Schwabach Perutz and Company mentioned to him early in 1959 the need of a governess for his children and that he, Mr. PERUTZ, suggested to WEINSTEIN that he discuss his needs with Mrs. PERUTZ as she was acquainted with a number of talented Japanese girls who would be desirous of employment in the United States. He advised Mrs. PERUTZ recommended Miss OKUI to Mr. WEINSTEIN, and WEINSTEIN subsequently made arrangements with Mr. OZAWA of Ozawa and Company, the Schwabach Perutz and Company representatives, for a two-year temporary visa for Miss OKUI to the United States. He stated Mr. WEINSTEIN was required to furnish proof of his intentions to act as sponsor for Miss OKUI during her stay in the United States, and he recalls Miss OKUI arrived in the United States and in Dallas in the early summer of 1959. PERUTZ stated Miss OKUI and Mrs. PERUTZ continued on friendly terms while Miss OKUI was employed for Mr. WEINSTEIN in Dallas, but that following her employment in New York Miss OKUI and Mrs. PERUTZ drifted apart as Miss OKUI found many new friends in Dallas, and neither he nor Mrs. PERUTZ has seen Miss OKUI more than five or six times in the last three years.

Mr. PERUTZ advised he could furnish little information regarding Miss OKUI's background or family other than that she was a well-bred, highly intelligent young lady of obviously good heritage; however, he felt his wife, Mrs. PERUTZ, could furnish more information of value in this vein.

On May 19, 1964, Mrs. SIDNEY PERUTZ, 11405 St. Michaels, Dallas, Texas, advised she first met Miss YAEKO OKUI at a flower arrangement show being held in a Tokyo, Japan, park early in the summer of 1957 and that due to their mutual interest in flower arrangements, and, as Miss OKUI had a fluent mastery of the English language, she and Miss OKUI became well acquainted. She stated Miss OKUI expressed an avid interest for life in the United States and its customs, and that she and Miss OKUI exchanged ideas on this subject. She advised she, too, was interested in the customs of Japan, and, accordingly, visited the residence of Miss OKUI and family at Miss OKUI's request on several occasions. She advised that Miss OKUI at that time was residing with her mother and two younger sisters on Awaji Island off the coast of Kobi, Japan, and that on one occasion Mrs. PERUTZ spent a week on Awaji Island with the OKUI family.

Mrs. PERUTZ advised she recalls that Mr. OKUI, YAEKO's father, had been a prominent attorney in Japan at one time, but that in 1957 he was already a bedridden invalid and that she knows he has subsequently passed away. She stated Mrs. TOYO OKUI, mother of YAEKO, is a Certified Public Accountant and operates one or more accounting businesses in Japan, from which she has sent her youngest daughters, including YAEKO, to college. Mrs. PERUTZ advised from her recollection the family consists of an older sister whom Mrs. PERUTZ has not met, but whom she knows to be married to an English naval officer who is now retired from the service and living in California, name unrecalled. She stated YAEKO is the next oldest sister and that she has two other younger sisters who are both, to her knowledge, still living in Japan after having completed their college education, names unrecalled. She advised she has heard indirectly through Miss OKUI that she also has a half brother living in Tokyo who is married to a member of the prominent MITSUBISHI family. Mrs. PERUTZ believed she also has another brother who has been hospitalized for some years in a mental institution somewhere in Japan. Mrs. PERUTZ was unable to furnish any other information regarding the family or background of YAEKO OKUI.

In regard to the attendance of Miss YAEKO OKUI at a party at which LEE HARVEY and MARINA OSWALD were also in attendance, Mrs. PERUTZ stated she did not find this unusual as Miss OKUI frequently attended Russian gatherings in the company of Mr. LEV ARONSON, a noted Dallas cellist and music teacher whom she believes to be of Russian origin and who has many Russian-speaking friends in this area. Mrs. PERUTZ advised she is of the opinion Miss OKUI would have had no social relationship with either LEE HARVEY or MARINA OSWALD other than through mutual attendance at one of these Russian gatherings.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

and knows that Miss OKUI has never mentioned the OSWALDS to her at any time, either before or after the assassination of President KENNEDY. Mrs. PERUTZ stated, further, that she feels positive there could be no social relationship between Miss YAEKO OKUI and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, inasmuch as their obvious cultural and educational levels are so diverse.

Michio Kushi, 67-77 136th Street, Queens, New York, was contacted by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on May 12, 1964 at the offices of the Nippon Service, Inc., 13 West 46th Street, New York City. Mr. Kushi is the President of this company.

He said he is acquainted with Miss Yaeko Okui and that she is a young, attractive lady who resides in Dallas, Texas. She is a native of Japan and is a charming person possessing above average intelligence. He described her as a person who has many friends and acquaintances and one who has an engaging personality.

To the best of his knowledge, Miss Okui arrived in the United States from Japan in the spring or summer of 1959. She moved to Dallas, Texas and was employed by an unknown firm in Dallas for approximately two years.

Kushi advised that he was formerly a Vice-President of the Takashimaya Department Store, 562 5th Avenue, New York City, which is Japan's largest department store chain. The Nippon Service, Inc. represents several Japanese firms in the United States and his representatives contact numerous firms throughout the United States. He wanted to explain the above since it was in this connection he met Miss Okui. In the summer of 1961 he travelled to Dallas on business and he met Miss Okui while contacting firms. He offered employment to her and in the summer of 1961 she came to New York City . She was employed by the Nippon Service, Inc. but assigned to the Takashimaya Department Store for sales training. She worked until the summer of 1962 when she returned to Dallas to serve in the public relations field for his firm. She was required to contact firms in the Southwest with whom his company had business relations. Miss Okui contacted him about two weeks ago and telephonically advised she was returning to Japan around the last part of May, 1964.

He advised he is not aware that Miss Okui attended a party in December 1962 which was also attended by Lee Harvey Oswald and his wife, Marina. He said he is not closely associated with Miss Okui but he feels sure she would not have had an opportunity to meet Oswald in her business contacts. This party evidently was a social affair and not in relation to her business contacts. He felt sure she is not in a position to discuss politics in the United States, and based upon his association with her, she would not enter into any discussion of politics.

He pointed out Miss Okui is a professional flower arrangement teacher and is quite proficient in Kato music. She engages in teaching and has held lectures in regard to the above in the Southwest, but he would doubt she ever met Oswald through these lectures.

He has no basis for his statement but stated Miss Okui probably met Oswald once and only once and probably did not even recall him.

He has no record of Okui's employment to the best of his knowledge, but while in New York City she resided with Mrs. Kazuko Ogura, an accomplished flower arranger in New York City.

FALSELY ACCUSED

Defend Dallas, Lawyer Urges

Dallas attorny David Witts told the Dallas Salesmanship Club Thursday that the city is being falsely accused throughout the world for a tragedy in which it had no guilt.

"As shocking as the tragic assassination itself is the use which has been made, whether by ignorance or by plan, to turn the murderous act of a Communist into a vicious complaint against Dallas and Texas," Mr. Witts said at a noon luncheon in the Dallas Athletic Club.

Mr. Witts charged that in all communications media a massive effort has been made to cover up the fact that the assassin was a Communist.

He told the group that when Lee Harvey Oswald defected to the Soviet Union he took with him such important military code and electronic secrets that the Marine Corps had to change its whole system of codes on the West Coast.

"The speed with which Oswald obtained a Russia visa, when it normally takes from 60 to 90 days, indicates the Soviets gave him special attention," the lawyer said. "He either had a visa while still on duty as a Marine or received one immediately, cutting through red tape."

Mr. Witts said that among other things that would indicate favored treatment by the Soviets for Oswald was his job in Minsk, where he could not possibly have lived on the income the Soviets claimed he did.

The Dallas attorney said Minsk was also the location of a Soviet assassins' school.

"And on that salary he traveled, enjoyed social life, met and married the relative of a Soviet intelligence agent, all fitting the pattern for espionage agents," the lawyer said.

Mr. Witts said that when Oswald "re-defected" back to this country the Soviets granted his visa and passports for his wife immediately and while the U.S. embassy paid for his trip, someone else paid for his wife's.

"Oswald received unusually special treatment by the Soviets and this would not have been done unless it was of some use to the Soviet intelligence service," Mr. Witts said.

He said the first news bulletin from Radio Moscow after the assassination was that the shots were fired by right-wing extremists.

"That was the party line and it has been amplified ever since by the Communists," he said.

Mr. Witts told the club members that Dallas is one of the truly great cities of the world and he considered it time for Dallasites to speak up in defense of the city.

He demonstrated his statement that a continuing smear campaign is being conducted against Dallas by holding up copies of national and international magazines, books and newspapers, describing Dallas' "shame."

Mr. Witts told the group that guilt was not collective and that a fundamental truth of Christian faith was being ignored by those who would try Dallas as a whole rather than the man who committed the crime.

Sir:

On November 22, 1963 I was present and accompaning Lieutenant Jack Revill in the basement of the City of Dallas, City Hall located at 2000 Main Street. Lieutenant Revill and myself along with several other Officers had just completed searching the Texas School Book Depository from which Lee Harvey Oswald assasinated the President of the United States, Lieutenant Revill and myself were enroute to the Special Service Bureau Office.

Upon entering the basement of the City Hall Lieutenant Revill and myself met Federal Bureau of Investigation Agent Hosty who had already parked his car and was walking very fast toward the entrance of the City Hall from the parking area. At this time Agent Hosty made the statement that Lee Oswald had killed the President and that Oswald was a Communist. Hosty also said that he knew that Oswald was a Communist and that he knew Oswald was working at the School Book Depository.

While we were in the basement Hosty also said several things to Lieutenant Revill that I could not hear as there was a lot of excitment and commotion there.

Lieutenant Revill and myself then accompanied Hosty to Captain Fritz's office and Lieutenant Revill introduced Hosty to Lieutenant Ted Wells. We, Lieutenant Revill and myself then went to the Special Service Bureau Office where Lieutenant Revill made a Report of the incident and turned the report into Captain W. P. Gannaway who is in Charge.

At that time Special Agent Hosty related to this officer that the Subject was a member of the Communist Party, and that he was residing in Dallas.

The Subject was arrested for the murder of Officer J.D. Tippit and is a prime suspect in the assassination of President Kennedy.

The information regarding the Subject's affiliation with the Communist Party is the first information this officer has received from the Federal Bureau of Investigation regarding same.

Agent Hosty further stated that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was aware of the Subject and that they had information that this Subject was capable of committing the assassination of President Kennedy.

Inspector Malley called from Dallas yesterday morning in the captioned case and made specific reference to the airtel to Dallas dated 5/22/64 which forwarded to Dallas a copy of Mr. Rankin's letter of 5/20/64. Malley noted that Rankin's letter requested copies of all 1963 reports concerning persons involved in Communist Party activity, Socialist Workers Party activity, and reports arising out of the activities of the John Birch Society, the Minutemen, etc. He suggested that we might desire to have this matter discussed with Mr. Rankin to determine the purpose of this inquiry and possibly to have the request withdrawn. Malley said he would be back in Washington last night and would be able to discuss the matter with Rankin this morning.

After reviewing the background on this and noting that the instant request is a follow-up request of a previous and even broader one by Rankin, which Malley had already discussed with him, and which was reduced to some extent to the present request, it was concluded that no good purpose would be served in going to Rankin at this time. It is also noted that in connection with the first request, the Director indicated that if he had had an opportunity of seeing the memorandum prior to its discussion at that time with Mr. Rankin, he would have approved the obtaining and transmitting of reports and memoranda as originally requested.

ACTION:

Accordingly, SAC Shanklin of Dallas was telephonically instructed to comply with the instructions appearing in the Bureau's airtel of reference.

NOTE:

Boston had been requested to submit a memorandum concerning identifying information and background data about Isaacs. This stemmed from a newspaper article written by a Paul Scott wherein he alleged that Marilyn Murret had been a defector to Russia and was associated with the Oswald case. Murret is a cousin of Lee Harvey Oswald although apparently Scott did not know this when he wrote the newspaper article. In writing about Murret, Scott also indicated that she was associated with Isaacs. Boston has submitted with referenced airtel a letterhead memorandum containing background on Isaacs. We will furnish this to the Commission and advise the Commission that we are conducting no further inquiry regarding this phase unless specifically requested to do so. Aside from her relationship to Oswald, Murret had almost no association with him. When interviewed she advised she never visited the Soviet Union. There is no indication Isaacs has been involved in any subversive activities for at least the last 20 years. Therefore, there is no point in carrying this any further unless specifically requested to do so by the Commission.

Synopsis:

JERRY ELLIS PITTS, currently patrolman, Memphis, Tenn., a former member of U. S. Marine Corps, knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD in U. S. Marine Corps during late 1957 or early 1958 in Philippines and east Pacific area. PITTS has had no contact with OSWALD since about April, 1958; knows of no associates or organizational affiliations of OSWALD. His recollection of OSWALD is limited to a few casual contacts.

Date May 20, 1964

JERRY ELLIS PITTS, a patrolman employed by the Memphis Police Department, Memphis, Tennessee, and a part-time student at Memphis State University, residing at 3509 Brookmeade, Memphis, advised that he, PITTS, was in the U. S. Marine Corps from August, 1955, until August, 1959. He had Marine Serial Number 1558360.

During the latter part of 1957 and the early part of April, 1958, PITTS was stationed with the U. S. Marine Corps assigned to the Marine Air Control Squadron, Unit No. 1, of the First Marine Air Wing Division, working as a supply officer. He first met LEE HARVEY OSWALD who was then a Private First Class while this unit was on maneuvers in the Philippines. This would have probably been late 1957. OSWALD had the title of an electronics technician working in the Radar Unit and PITTS believed he was a oscilloscope operator. Accordingly, they had very little personal contact.

Later in early 1958 while OSWALD was stationed at Atsugi, Japan, OSWALD had a privately owned derringer gun and dropped it one night in the barracks; the weapon discharged and fired an accidental shot which barely missed the head of PITTS' friend, PETER FRANCIS CONNOR, last known to reside in West Haven, Connecticut. PITTS recalled that OSWALD was court-martialed for this offense around April of 1958 charged with violating a regulation requiring the registration of privately owned firearms. Pittslater heard that he was court-martialed later in 1958 for using provocative words to a non-commissioned officer.

PITTS recalled that one night, exact date not recalled, OSWALD passed out drunk in a parking lot next to the barracks and he believed that this also occurred in Japan. PITTS recalled that OSWALD was a very contentious and spiteful type individual who bitterly resented anyone calling him by his middle name of HARVEY or its shortened term, HARV, and wanted to fight anyone who persisted in calling him by these names.

PITTS did not recall anyone in the Marine Corps who was particularly close to OSWALD and recalled him as being an extreme introvert.

PITTS returned to the United States in April, 1958, being stationed at Beaufort, South Carolina, prior to his ultimate discharge in August, 1959. He said that after April, 1958, he at no time saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD and heard nothing concerning him until he heard over the radio and television that OSWALD was charged on November 22, 1963, with the assassination of the late U. S. President JOHN F. KENNEDY. At no time did OSWALD give PITTS any reason to believe that he was affiliated with any organizations or that he was sympathetic to any foreign power or foreign ideology.

In regard to an article which appeared in "Life" magazine, in February, 1964, concerning OSWALD, GOODWIN advised as follows:

He stated that during January, 1964, he was telephonically contacted by a woman who told him she was a representative of "Life" magazine. She requested GOODWIN to agree to an interview regarding his knowledge of OSWALD while both were assigned as Marines at Camp Pendleton, California. GOODWIN stated that he admitted on the telephone that he knew OSWALD as one of twenty men in his group at Camp Pendleton, California. He said he told this representative of "Life" magazine he did not care to be further interviewed and declined to furnish any further information, and that he did not care to become involved in this type of publicity. GOODWIN stated he was surprised when he read the article in "Life" magazine at the amount of information concerning OSWALD that was attributed to him by the person preparing this article.

Synopsis: DONALD LLOYD GOODWIN advises he was sergeant in United States Marine Corps in charge of a communication group at Camp Pendleton, California in 1957. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was one of twenty men assigned to this group as a radio communicator. GOODWIN could recall no specific assignments carried out with OSWALD nor other Marines who associated with OSWALD. GOODWIN advised he has no knowledge regarding OSWALD's personal life, associates, or activities. GOODWIN's contacts with OSWALD were limited to military duties for a period of approximately ninety days. GOODWIN has not seen OSWALD since 1957.

GOODWIN stated that he served in the United States Marine Corps from 1953 to June, 1959. His serial number was 1448272. He received an honorable discharge from the United States Marine Corps in June, 1959 at Camp Pendleton, California, having completed six years service enlistment. GOODWIN stated that he recalls that in late 1956 or early 1957 he was returned to the United States from overseas assignment and was sent to Camp Pendleton. At this time he was a communication specialist and had the rating of Sergeant. He was assigned to a communication group in the Fifth Marine Division made up of about twenty men. He recalls that one of the marines in this group was Private First Class OSWALD. He recalls that OSWALD was a radio communicator but could not remember whether OSWALD was a "CW operator" or "voice communicator." GOODWIN remained with this group for about ninety days when he was transferred to a photographic unit, therefore his recollection of OSWALD is very vague. During the publicity following the assassination of President KENNEDY he realized that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was the same person as the OSWALD in his group at Camp Pendleton.

GOODWIN does not recall OSWALD's exact duties except that he was one of the twenty marines in this communication group. GOODWIN can recall no specific assignments carried out with OSWALD. He states he did not associate with OSWALD and recalls no other marine who did associate with him. He recalled going to the rifle range in a group in which OSWALD was present but does not recall anything outstanding regarding OSWALD's abilities as a rifle marksman. GOODWIN did not recall living in the same barracks as OSWALD or anything further regarding his associates.

GOODWIN vaguely recalls that OSWALD either owned an automobile or had the use of an automobile. He does not recall the make or model. He recalls that OSWALD was at one time spending a great amount of effort and off duty time reupholstering this automobile. He knows nothing further regarding this automobile. He does not recall that OSWALD was ever the subject of disciplinary action in the Marine Corps. He recalls no personal conversations with OSWALD outside of that involving carrying out military orders.

GOODWIN states he has no specific knowledge that OSWALD made trips to Mexico during this time but states that most marines at one time or another during service at Camp Pendleton would normally travel to Tijuana, Mexico, during liberty. GOODWIN recalls nothing concerning OSWALD during this time in 1957 that would indicate that he was then disloyal to the United States or was interested in communism.

GOODWIN stated that after about June, 1957, when he was transferred to a photographic unit he had no further contact with OSWALD and had neither seen nor heard of OSWALD from then until the assassination of the President. GOODWIN stated he could think of no other information regarding OSWALD.

On May 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that one Martin (Marty) Abelow was formerly employed at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), Houston, Texas. He stated Abelow was originally employed by Lockheed Aircraft Corporation but was on special assignment at NASA. He has since returned to regular employment at Lockheed and is stationed with that company in Sunnyville, California.

Source stated that while Abelow was employed in Houston he made a trip to New Orleans and to the best of source's recollection this was about the same time that Oswald was in New Orleans distributing Fair Play for Cuba literature. Source stated that Abelow brought back several items of this type from New Orleans and exhibited them to individuals around NASA. He stated on one occasion he heard Abelow state that he should probably furnish these items to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Source also advised that Abelow made a trip to Mexico City at a time he felt was approximately the same time Oswald was in Mexico City. He stated he did not recall the exact dates but based this assumption on his recollection of newspaper items regarding Oswald's trip to Mexico. Source stated he also recalls that Abelow made frequent weekend trips to Dallas, Texas, where he claimed he had an uncle residing. Source stated that although he has no indication that Abelow was acquainted with Oswald, he thought that the possibility did exist and for that reason he was furnishing this information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for its information.

JOHN K. JACOBS;
KATIA JACOBS

It is recalled a previous communication dated April 17, 1964, indicated JOHN K. JACOBS advised the United States Information Agency (USIA) Security Office, that Mrs. MARINA OSWALD was expected to dinner at his home February 7, 1964.

JOHN K. JACOBS, Editor, Al-Hayat, Arabic Language Magazine for the Middle East, USIA, was interviewed by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on April 24, 1964. He furnished the following information:

Shortly after the assassination of the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY, his wife, KATIA JACOBS, felt sorry for the wife of the accused slayer of the President, Mrs. MARINA OSWALD. She decided to write a letter to Mrs. OSWALD and point out this hideous crime will not be visited upon Mrs. OSWALD or her children by the American people. Mrs. JACOBS wanted to offer Mrs. OSWALD her friendship since Mrs. OSWALD appeared to be pretty much alone in the United States at that time.

According to Mr. JACOBS, his wife then wrote Mrs. MARINA OSWALD in care of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department. Mrs. OSWALD answered Mrs. JACOBS' letter during the Christmas season of 1963. She was grateful for the kind words of Mrs. JACOBS and indicated she would appreciate hearing from Mrs. JACOBS again. Mrs. JACOBS and Mrs. OSWALD exchanged letters approximately two more times prior to Mrs. OSWALD's coming to Washington, D. C., to testify before the Warren Commission.

Mrs. JACOBS, upon learning Mrs. MARINA OSWALD was in Washington, D. C., to testify, called the Commission in an attempt to contact Mrs. OSWALD. Mr. JACOBS stated a short time later he checked with the General Counsel's Office of the Commission to determine if that office would interpose any objection to inviting Mrs. OSWALD, on behalf of his wife, KATIA, to his home. At this time he was advised Mrs. MARINA

OSWALD had completed her testimony and was a free person to do as she liked. Shortly after this Mrs. OSWALD then called Mrs. JACOBS and accepted a dinner invitation.

Mr. JACOBS stated, after telephonically contacting his wife, that Mrs. MARINA OSWALD, her young daughter, her business manager and her attorney, dined with the JACOBS at Tauxemont Road, Alexandria, Virginia, on February 7, 1964. Mrs. OSWALD was to return to Dallas, Texas, the following day, February 8, 1964.

He related that on February 7, 1964, at about 6:00 p.m., he picked up Mrs. OSWALD and her party in front of the Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., and drove them to his home where they dined. He drove them back to Washington, D. C., and dropped them in front of the Willard Hotel the evening of February 7, 1964, at about 11:30 p.m.

Mrs. MARINA OSWALD, during the visit to the JACOBS home, spoke mostly to Mrs. JACOBS in Russian. Mr. JACOBS said he does not speak Russian.

Mrs. JACOBS later filled in Mr. JACOBS as to the conversation which took place between herself and Mrs. OSWALD during this visit. Mrs. OSWALD remarked it was her feeling that her late husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was guilty of the assassination of President KENNEDY. She expressed the prayer that "God may have mercy on the evil done" by her late husband. She also asked the JACOBS to thank their church which had sent a donation to her sometime after the assassination. Mrs. OSWALD indicated her late husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was at times difficult to live with since he ordered her around. She indicated also, a dislike for her late husband's mother, Mrs. OSWALD.

Mrs. OSWALD, in addition, remarked she had written to her family in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) after the assassination of President KENNEDY but had received no answer from them.

Mr. JACOBS explained that during Mrs. OSWALD's visit to his home he conversed mainly with her manager and with her attorney on current news items. He said he got the impression that Mrs. OSWALD's manager was attempting to commercialize too much on the plight of Mrs. OSWALD who impressed him and his wife as an honest, quiet, dignified and sincere person. Mrs. OSWALD had received approximately sixty thousand dollars from various people and organizations since the assassination, but this seemed unimpressive to her since she indicated she was healthy and able to earn her own living.

Mr. JACOBS stated neither he nor his wife has had any further contact with Mrs. MARINA OSWALD.

He stated neither he nor his wife ever received any requests or suggestions from anyone in the Soviet Union to contact MARINA OSWALD, or to take any other action regarding her. He remarked that his wife corresponds with relatives in the Soviet Union.

Mr. JACOBS related when he and his wife worked with the American National Exhibition in Moscow in 1959, his wife met an uncle whom she had believed dead. He pointed out that he was formerly Deputy Director of the Magazine "America Illustrated," published by USIA. He said in connection with his duties at that time, he met his Soviet counter-part for the Soviet magazine, "USSR Illustrated," a Mr. ZHILTSOV.

He said ZHILTSOV after the assassination of President KENNEDY expressed sorrow on the occasion but did not comment further.

NIKOLAI V. ZHILTSOV is First Secretary, Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C., and is referred to as Managing Editor of the "USSR" Illustrated Monthly magazine, a publication of the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C.

DR. HERMINIO PORTELL-VILA

It will be recalled that Dr. HERMINIO PORTELL-VILA, 4740 Connecticut Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., was interviewed on February 17, 1964, concerning one of his articles which appeared in the December 22, 1963, issue of the Spanish language weekly magazine "Bohemia Libre," published in New York City. The article was entitled, "President KENNEDY's Strange Assassination." PORTELL-VILA explained at that time that the material for the above article was obtained from public source material such as American newspapers and magazines, and foreign language newspapers and publications.

As will be recalled, PORTELL-VILA was a former Professor of History at the University of Havana, who came to the United States in 1960 as a political refugee from the Castro Regime.

On May 13, 1964, Dr. PORTELL-VILA advised that he had received a message from an unknown source within Cuba which indicated in part that the files pertaining to LEE HARVEY OSWALD's relations in Moscow, Russia, with two Cuban Ambassadors there, were turned over to the CASTRO brothers on November 24, 1963, just two days after the assassination. The message was dated November 24, 1963, and he received same before the twelfth of December, 1963.

Around the time of its receipt, he gave the original of this part to Mrs. MARIADA ARENSBERG, Secretary of the Cuban Freedom Committee, 1737 H Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. He believed she passed it on to an unknown government agency, adding that he believed she had contacts in the State Department.

PORTELL-VILA said that he did not have a copy of this part of the message but reconstructed it from memory as follows:

EXPEDIENTE RELACION OSVALDO CON CONCHESO EN ARCHIVO MARIN HERRERA ENTREGADO HOY HERMANOS SIAMESES.

He interpreted this as follows:

File of relations of OSWALD with Concheso (Cuban Embassy in Moscow) from files of MARIN HERRERA, Ministry of Foreign Relations, Havana), handed today to the CASTRO brothers.

He pointed out that there may have also been a preposition or two contained in it, but that the above was its content as far as he could remember. It was pointed out to him that there did not appear to be any mention of the Cuban Ambassadors to Russia as his initial information would indicate. He then said that the names of the two ambassadors were included after "Concheso" in the message. One ambassador was designated by the word Oliva, as he recalled. He could not recall how the name of the other ambassador was designated.

Dr. PORTELL-VILA then said that his interpretation of the message is based on the prearranged meaning of certain words in the message. According to him, "MARIN HERRERA" was a reference to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Havana, because the building in which the ministry is located was built some forty-five or fifty years ago by Mr. MARIN HERRERA. It had other owners later on until Cuba bought it. "CONCHESO" is a reference to the Cuban Embassy in Moscow because the first Cuban Ambassador to Moscow, in 1942, was a Mr. CONCHESO. "OSVALDO" is OSWALD in Spanish, a Christian name. "HERMANOS SIAMESES" is a reference to the CASTRO brothers, FIDEL and RAUL. He said that the two Ambassadors to whom reference is made are CARLOS OLIVARES and FAURE CHOMON, who were the Cuban Ambassadors in Moscow during the period that OSWALD was in Russia. U.S.S.R. Ans?

The above message, with his interpretation of same, constitutes PORTELL-VILA's entire information dealing with possible contact of OSWALD with Cuban diplomats in Russia. He said that he has not heard of any information in this respect from any other source, nor of contacts with Cubans by OSWALD except what he had read in newspapers, or other public source media, or previously reported concerning a speech of FIDEL CASTRO on November 27, 1963, wherein CASTRO made a comment which suggested that OSWALD may have previously made at least one visit to Cuba.

Regarding his source, and as previously pointed out, PORTELL-VILA said that the actual identity of the source is unknown to him, but the source is part of an underground movement in Cuba. Regarding the source's reliability, PORTELL-VILA said that the information furnished by the source in the past has been reliable for the greater part. He said that he had made inquiry through means available to him within Cuba concerning the reliability of the source, and was informed that he could consider the informant reliable. He said he could not and would not elaborate further, even under legal process, as to the mechanics used in his obtaining this information, nor concerning the identity of the person attesting to the reliability of the informant, because he feared that disaster would befall those involved.

He explained that this information was probably furnished to him as a person whose background attested that he was anti-CASTRO, and whose position and contacts in this country exemplified best by his writing articles for "Bohemia Libre," marked him as a person who could put any information against CASTRO to use, or place it in the proper official hands for exploitation.

On May 14, 1964, Dr. PORTELL-VILA exhibited a copy of his article which appears in Spanish in the December 22, 1963 edition of "Bohemia Libre." It is entitled, "El Extrano Asesinato Del Presidente KENNEDY" (President KENNEDY's Strange Assassination). It starts on Page Twenty of this magazine. It is the article previously referred to above, and which Dr. PORTELL-VILA said was the product of research of public source material, and his interpretative analysis of same.

On the same date he also exhibited a copy of his article which appears in Spanish in the February 2, 1964, issue of the magazine "Bohemia Internacional," a Spanish language magazine which is printed in Venezuela, according to PORTELL-VILA. It is entitled "CAMBIO DE DISFRAZ" (CHANGE OF DISGUISE) and it starts on Page 16. It pertains generally to OSWALD and the Fair Play for Cuba Committee aspect of the assassination. Again, according to PORTELL-VILA, as in the case of his previous article on the assassination, the material is the result of research and interpretative analysis on his part of public source material where OSWALD is concerned, with the exception of a brief reference to OSWALD being in contact with the previously named Cuban Ambassadors in Moscow, Russia.

The message from the unknown source in Cuba previously described is the source for this reference in the article.

With respect to this reference in the article, and by way of explanation, it is to be noted that a translation of Dr. PORTELL-VILA's article appearing in the February 2, 1964, issue of "Bohemia Internacional," is contained in the report of SA JAMES J. O'CONNOR, dated May 8, 1964, at Miami, Florida, under the LEE HARVEY OSWALD caption. Therein, PORTELL-VILA, on the topic of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, stated in part:

"During the course of 1960-1961, he was a visiting professor at the University of Florida in Gainesville, where there was a branch of the "Fair Play" in operation. It boasted that it had twenty-one branches in the United States and four in Canada, with a membership of 6,000. The New Orleans branch was not among them at the time, because it was not formed until two years later, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the presumed assassin of President KENNEDY, returned to the United States after his contacts with the Communist Cuban Ambassadors in Moscow, FAURE CHOMON and CARLOS OLIVARES. Concerning this last-mentioned fact, the communist dictatorship of Cuba says nothing, although the Kremlin has turned over to the United States a file with the documents referring to OSWALD in the Soviet Union.

This is the part of the article to which PORTELL-VILA was referring above, the source of which is the message from his unknown source in Cuba.

It is also indicated in the same translation of his article that he further states that:

Besides, the information from the anti-communist underground movement which operates right under the nose of RAUL ROA GARCIA, in the Ministry of State in Havana, shows that OSWALD's relations with the "Fair Play for Communist Cuba" began before July, 1962, when he returned from the Soviet Union, and that they had been sponsored by CASTRO's diplomatic agents in Moscow, at the time OSWALD was there.

As previously pointed out, PORTELL-VILA in his interview of May 13, 1964, indicated that his only information in this regard was the message from his source in Cuba, and on May 14, 1964, he stated that the article expressed his interpretative analysis of this information.

It is noted that the translation also states that:

During his speech of November 27, 1963, at the University of Havana, when CASTRO said "the first time that OSWALD was in Cuba," his tongue was under the influence of "Peralta" cognac, and he revealed something which is very important.

It will be recalled in this respect that PORTELL-VILA advised during his February 17, 1964, interview that he read in a November 29, 1963, publication that in a speech on November 27, 1963, FIDEL CASTRO, whether through a slip of the tongue or as the result of the influence of liquor, made a comment which suggested that OSWALD may have previously made at least one visit to Cuba. He conjectured that this trip of OSWALD could have taken place while he was in Russia. He said at that time he had no additional information in this regard.

ROBERT RAYMOND DEMERS, 7 Beacon Street, Lewiston, Maine, advised that he served in the United States Marine Corps from March, 1956 until April, 1959, at which time he received a General Discharge.

While in the United States Marine Corps, DEMERS was assigned Marine Serial No. 1560145.

He stated he was assigned to Marine Air Control Squadron I, Atsugi, Japan, from December, 1956 to May, 1958, when he was transferred to stateside duty. About five months prior to DEMERS' leaving Japan, LEE HARVEY OSWALD was assigned to his squadron. DEMERS stated he was assigned to the Supply Section while OSWALD was assigned to the Operations Section. DEMERS stated he was not friendly with OSWALD, never confided in him, nor did he ever accompany OSWALD on passes away from the Squadron area.

DEMERS stated he had nothing to do with OSWALD, never spoke to him other than to say, "Hello." He advised he stayed mostly with the group of Marines in his section, and OSWALD to his own group.

DEMERS stated he had many fights with other Marines in his Squadron, but never did he get into an argument or a fist fight with OSWALD. He stated OSWALD was considered a "loner" and was by himself for the most part, but recalled he, OSWALD, did get into a few fights with other Marines, whose identity he cannot recall, nor did he recall the cause of the fights.

DEMERS advised he never saw any communist literature in OSWALD's possession, nor did he ever recall OSWALD distributing any literature, books, or pamphlets of a communist nature, among members of the Squadron. DEMERS also advised during the five months he knew OSWALD in Japan he never heard him talk about communism, Russia, or communist types of Government.

DEMERS stated when he left Japan in May, 1958, he never saw or heard anything concerning OSWALD until he was arrested in Dallas, Texas for the assassination of PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY.

ReSlairtel 5/6/64 and Chicago report of SA Dennis W. Shanahan, 5/22/64.

One copy of referenced Chicago report is enclosed for information of St. Louis.

As indicated in referenced St. Louis airtel, the name Allen Felde appeared on page 72 of the 2/21/64 issue of "Life" magazine. It was indicated this individual was a former Marine Corps associate of Oswald. The author of the article said of Felde that he was 17 at the time (presumably the latter part of 1956) and shared boot camp and advanced training experience with Oswald. Felde's brief remarks about Oswald were quoted in the article.

Marine Corps records at the Military Personnel Records Center disclosed a record for a Robert Allen Felde, SN 161 57 75, and referenced Chicago report sets forth results of interview with him wherein he stated he did not recall or know Oswald and was not aware that his, Felde's, name had appeared in the "Life" magazine article.

The President's Commission has requested that the Allen Felde quoted in the "Life" magazine article be interviewed.

St. Louis recheck records at Military Personnel Records Center. See if there is a record for another Allen Felde who fits the description set out in the "Life" magazine article. For your information Oswald took his boot training at San Diego from 10/25/56 to 1/18/57. He was assigned to Infantry Training Regiment, Camp Pendleton, California, from 1/20/57 to 3/18/57 and during this period was on leave from 2/27/57 to 3/13/57.

Chicago reinterview Robert Allen Felde. Was he at boot camp in San Diego when Oswald was? Was he ever interviewed by anyone from "Life" magazine or by any press representative about Oswald? Was he 17 years of age the latter part of 1956? Does he know of any other Allen Felde who was assigned to Camp Pendleton when he was there?

Handle promptly.

NOTE:

Since the Commission has specifically requested that we interview the Allen Felde who was mentioned in the "Life" magazine article we will have to pursue this until we locate the right man. From what we know now it would appear that the person mentioned in the "Life" magazine article is not identical with the person interviewed by Chicago.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. W. C. Sullivan

DATE: 5/18/64

FROM : D. J. Brennan, Jr.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

With the Director's approval, three Agents were sent to Mexico City to constitute a "special squad" and lend assistance to that office in handling voluminous leads in the Oswald case. This recommends approval for the Legal Attache's proposal that two of these Agents be released about 5/21/64 and the third be retained temporarily until volume of work is further reduced.

When the Legat reported that major aspects of the investigation were approaching completion, we instructed him to analyze remaining work and make specific recommendations concerning the release of the three Agents who are in Mexico on special assignment. In his attached reply, Legat says that summary report and memoranda covering work not yet reported will be submitted no later than 5/21/64. This will complete active investigation and volume reporting by "special squad" Agents and Legat believes any remaining work and additional leads after that date can be handled by regular staff and investigative informants. He does ask, however, that one Agent remain in Mexico for a short additional period in case the Bureau has inquiries regarding the summary and other information already submitted. This Agent can assist in coordinating and reporting on results of any remaining leads after the large volume matters are handled. The office will thereby benefit from his detailed knowledge of all phases of the investigation heretofore conducted.

We agree with the Legat's proposal and are recommending that it be approved. He is being instructed to advise the Bureau immediately when the first two Agents are released for return to their domestic assignments and to give an estimate of how long the third Agent will be needed in Mexico after their departure.

EX-117

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The report of the investigation conducted by the Dallas Police Department of the attempted assassination of Major General Edwin A. Walker, which report was provided to this Commission by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, does not indicate the caliber and other basic characteristics of the bullet which was recovered from General Walker's home. We do note, however, that the report of Officers McElroy and Van Cleve, both of the Dallas Police Department, indicates that the bullet was given to Detective G. B. Brown of the Dallas Police Department, Crime Laboratory Division.

In view of the conflicting stories concerning the nature of the bullet which was actually recovered from General Walker's home, we would appreciate advice as to whether or not that bullet was ever examined by the Dallas Police Department or by any other person or organization on its behalf. We would like to have any reports which may have been made of such an examination, if in fact any such examination was made. We would like to know who had possession of that bullet from the time it was recovered from General Walker's home until it came into the possession of this Commission.

8 MAY 21 1964

SOVIET SECTION
SEVEN

We also note that Mr. Robert Surrey, then of 3506 Lindenwood Street, a business associate of and aide to General Walker, stated that at about 9:00 P.M. on April 6, 1963, he observed two men sitting in a 1963 Ford, either dark purple or brown in color, which was parked in the rear of General Walker's house. Mr. Surrey said the two men got out of the car and walked around General Walker's house, apparently observing it closely. Surrey said he became suspicious and followed the car in an attempt to obtain its license number, which he was not able to do since the car bore no license plates of any kind.

There appears to be some confusion, however, concerning Mr. Surrey's story. The Dallas police file seems to state that Mr. Surrey also saw the same car and the same two men at General Walker's premises on the evening of April 10, 1963 and that report is reflected in the report of your Bureau set forth at page 441 of the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated December 10, 1963 at Dallas, Texas. Please advise as to when Mr. Surrey did see such car and men.

In view of the fact that Marina Oswald has stated that Lee Harvey Oswald told her that he had gone to General Walker's home "three days or more" prior to April 10, 1963 (page 733 of Agent Gemberling's report dated December 23, 1963), we think Mr. Surrey should be interviewed to determine whether or not he can describe to any extent either of the two men whom he saw. Assuming that Oswald was involved in the attempt on Walker's life, consideration should be given to the possibility that he may have had accomplices.

The Dallas Police also indicated that Dr. Ruth Jackson, General Walker's next door neighbor, had a dog that supposedly barked at "everybody and everything." The dog apparently did not bark on the evening of April 10, 1963. The Dallas Police report indicated that Dr. Jackson's dog was "very sick" on April 11 and 12, 1963. No reason for the illness was indicated. We would appreciate advice as to whether or not Dr. Jackson's dog appeared to have been drugged or otherwise incapacitated in connection with the attempt on General Walker's life.

DC [illegible]

We also note a certain confusion in the stories told by Marina Oswald concerning her husband's involvement in the Walker shooting. She told your agent on December 3, 1963 that Oswald said that on April 10, 1963 he had gone to Walker's residence on foot. Your report then states: "He said that after he fired the rifle, he ran away and that he could run very fast. . . . He came home on the bus." (Pages 71-2 of Agent Gemberling's report of December 10, 1963.)

On December 11, 1963 Marina advised Secret Service agents that Oswald told her that he took buses to go to the Walker residence and that he took a different bus to return home after the shooting. (Secret Service Control No. 632.)

Marina told the Secret Service that three days prior to April 10 he took his rifle out of the house and "buried it in a field near the Walker house." (Ibid.) She told your agents that "Oswald did not say and she did not ask him what he had done with the rifle after the first evening when he went to shoot at Walker but had changed his mind." (Page 734, Gemberling's report of December 23, 1963.)

Marina also said that Oswald told her he had buried the rifle in the ground "far from the actual spot of the shooting." Oswald then mentioned a field and said it was near a railroad track. (Id., at 733). In her testimony before this Commission Marina associated a picture showing a railroad track with the Walker incident. You have not been able to determine that that picture (Commission Exhibit 4; photograph No. 5 of your Item 6) depicts a scene near the Walker residence. (page 313 of Gemberling's report of February 11, 1964.)

We are unable, on the basis of the above reports, to determine exactly what Oswald told his wife concerning his possible involvement in the Walker shooting. Would you please:

1. Conduct such investigation as may be necessary to reconcile and clarify the above statements of Marina Oswald in an attempt to determine just how Oswald travelled to and from Walker's residence and what he did with the rifle in connection with that incident. In that connection consideration should be given to the possibility that Oswald could have had accomplices in his alleged attempt on General Walker's life.

2. Identify, if possible, the scenes depicted in Commission Exhibit 5, photograph No. 5 of your Item 6, as well as photograph No. 2 of your Item 7 (Commission Exhibit 2).

3. Forward to Mr. Wesley J. Liebeler of our staff photograph No. 5 of your Item 1 and photograph No. 1 of your Item 70.

Sent by Lett...
5/18/64

4. Advise as to the location of railroad tracks located most closely to General Walker's residence and as to the location of any railroad tracks along which may lie fields or other locations in which Oswald may have buried or otherwise hidden his rifle as related by Marina Oswald.

5. Conduct such investigation, particularly observation of the vicinity of Walker's residence and other appropriate locations, as may be necessary to determine the probabilities that Oswald did in fact do any of the things Marina has stated that he did in connection with his travel to and from Walker's residence and his secretion of the rifle.

6. Provide us with an aerial view of the vicinity of General Walker's residence showing, if possible, the location of any railroad tracks and open fields within appropriate distances thereof, and indicating the routes of any bus lines which Oswald may have used to travel to and/or from Walker's residence and/or such fields.

Your continued cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

The requested investigation should be conducted by your office immediately and the results of your inquiries should be furnished to the Bureau in a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination to the President's Commission.

NOTE: Commission received considerable testimony bearing on attempted assassination of General Walker and has also received DLPD investigation concerning the incident as well as the results of investigation conducted by the FBI and Secret Service concerning such incident. Commission noted that testimony furnished by Marina Oswald to the FBI and Secret Service is at variance and requested we conduct additional investigation to resolve the discrepancies. Commission also desires that we pinpoint, if possible, locality where Oswald allegedly buried rifle after shooting at Walker and also requested we obtain an aerial photograph of the vicinity of General Walker's residence.

SUMMARY FROM UKRAINIAN

The author and publisher of this book, entitled "The Sinners," is Walter (Wolodymyr) Nemyliwsky (Nemyliwskyj), 71 Elm Grove Avenue, Toronto 3, Ontario, Canada.

In his introduction, W. Nemyliwsky states:

"I am dedicating this book to our Hetman Bohdan Khmelnytsky and Symon Petlura, Commander in Chief of the Ukrainian Armed Forces, whom the Jews lampoon and impudently criticize in the local Canadian publications and include among their enemies.... I am taking the liberty of protesting against these Jewish lies because we used to defend these parasites against the Nazis and now they are beginning to 'fight' us here. Their communists have murdered S. Petlura and E. Konovalets; and General Taras Chuprynka, L. Rebet and S. Bandera have died at their hands.... The glorious memory of S. Petlura does not deserve such rot and, therefore, we have to defend his honor in all parts of the world. In order to avoid my persecution by the Jews for some of the terminology here, I have objectively used all our publications, foreign language encyclopedias, 'The Canadian Intelligence Service,' (Flesherton, Ontario), 'The Ottawa Anti-Communist Report,' 'News Behind the News,' etc. We all are citizens of this country and, therefore, we should strive toward the common national good of all its citizens and not employ propaganda against other nationalities of our Canada. Hetman Bohdan Khmelnytsky and Symon Petlura were not 'Plato's wolves' for the Jews of various races and color, therefore the Jews should not lampoon them as it can be seen on the cover page of this publication."

In Chapters 1, 2 and 3, the writer explains the "Biblical history of the Old Testament," trial of Jesus Christ and his crucifixion, and the sins committed by the Jewish people for which God is punishing them to this day.

Chapter 4, entitled "Philosophy and Communism," identifies leading Jewish philosophers who are listed in the "World's Philosophies." Among those mentioned, the writer includes Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, who founded the theory of dialectical and historical materialism and atheism, and V. Lenin, who put their theory into practice.

ENCLOSURE

In Chapter 5, the writer proves with "facts" that the upper echelon of the Russian Communist Party were Jews, including Lenin and Stalin. Their successor, N. Khrushchev, continues the conspiracy of Moscow-Jewish communism to enslave the free world. To prove this point, the writer points out the fact that the U. S. and Canadian Communist Parties are run by Jews and that the overwhelming majority of the Moscow spies in Canada and the United States have been and are Jews (Harry Gold, Mr. & Mrs. Julius Rosenberg, David Greenglass, Dr. Sidney Weinbaum, Miriam Moskovic, Jacob Golos, Morton Sobell, Abraham Bortman, Fred Rose, Sam Carr, David Sugar, G. S. Gerson, S. S. Burman, Gerhardt Eisler).

Chapter 6 is devoted to the question of Ukrainian-Jewish relations in the Ukraine.

Chapter 7 deals with the Ukrainian traitors and the KGB agents of the "red butchers" from Moscow. One of them is Lee Harvey Oswald, "who could not find a place for himself in his own country -- the United States. A man who did not finish his secondary education; he served in the Navy which discharged him for undesirable conduct. At the age of 15 he came under the influence of the Reds who trained him for the subversive work of the communist adherents. In 1959 he went to the Soviet Union where he stayed for three years and got married. Next, he asked the American Embassy in Moscow for permission to return to the United States. He came back to the United States in 1962, after concluding his training, and started to shadow President J. F. Kennedy in order to carry out Moscow's plan, which he executed on November 22, 1963. Americans have put our Christians and nationalists through 'screening' and even delivered some of them into the jaws of bloodthirsty Stalin, however, the FBI has failed to investigate its own citizens who delivered national secrets to Red Moscow and finally murdered their own Catholic President who stood in the way of the Bolshevik-Stakhanov shock-troops in the United States. The Jewish communes in the United States are the vermin who carry out the Marxist plans of the Moscow Commintern and their aristocrats care only about their bellies and pockets full of dollars.

"Victor Rizel (sic) -- American journalist -- is better oriented about this murder than the FBI because he rejects any suggestion that L. H. Oswald and Ruby are mental cases and states that killer L. H. Oswald is connected with Moscow. Oswald stayed in the Soviet Union from 1959 to 1962, and gave the Soviets the secret codes of the U. S. Marines in which he served. He could freely travel in the Soviet Union -- a privilege not accorded regular visitors from abroad. He was Trotskyite (according to the Soviet press) and an American spy, and yet he was allowed to return to the United States and marry a Soviet citizen who is a communist spy.... Moscow never lets its citizens go abroad unless they are trained agents from Moscow or Leningrad."

"Because of such statesmen on this continent, we also have to suffer here, both morally and materially, from communist henchmen, tyrants and agents who killed S. Petlura, E. Konovalets, L. Rebet, S. Bandera and, finally, the President of the United States, John F. Kennedy."

The remaining Chapters deal with the history of the Ukrainian liberation struggle against Poland and Tsarist and communist Russia.

ВСТУП

«ГОМО ГОМІНІ ЛЮПУС ЕСТ» — «Людина людині вовк»

(Вислів староримського поета Плавта, автора комедій 250-184 Року Божого).

Цю книжечку я присвячую в обороні нашого Гетьмана Богдана Хмельницького та Головного Отамана військ УНР Симона Петлюри, яких жидова карикатурує та нахабно критикує у лькальних канадійських публікаціях і зачисляють їх до своїх ворогів.

Присвячую її в обороні всього українського християнсько-національного населення на вигнанні — поза залізною куртиною, яким палестинські аполітики недипломатично намагаються понижувати їхні заслуги й авторитет.

Дозволяю собі протестувати проти таких семітських наклепів, бо ми на Україні обороняли жидів-паразитів перед смертю гітлерівців, а вони тепер починають проти нас «воювати» на цьому континенті за наше добро. Їхні комуністи замордували нам С. Петлюру, Є. Коновальця, з їхніх рук звинув ген.-хор. Тарас Чупринка, Л. Ребет і С. Бандера.

Взиваю та прошу весь український Провід поза «залізною заслоною» засудити таких типів у ширших правових можливих законів, за що Вам Ненька Україна не забуде. Сл. пам. С. Петлюра не заслужив собі на таку хрію, отже мусимо боронити його слави та чести у всіх закутинах світу.

Щоб жиди мене не переслідували за деякі терміни, отже я використав об'єктивно всі наші публікації, чужі енциклопедії, видання «Ді Канедіен Інтелідженс Сервіс», сподь дав через Мойсея народові жидівському на горі Синай. Архаїчні погани (включно з нашими русинами), котрі про правдивого БОГА майже нічого не знали, а жиди зовсім ворожо до них відносились. Господь Бог посилав їм людей мудрійших за жидів:

Прим. 1. Греків: Солоон, Сократ, Платон, Арістотель і т. ін.;

2. Римляни: Сенека, Св. Августин і т. ін.;

3. Сибіллі (пророкині — 13 відомих), яких пророцтва мали велике значення у поган (писав про те Св. Августин і т. ін.).

Жиди не мали ніякої пророкині, котра голосила б так ясно про прихід Месії. Вони не вірили своїм старцям правединим із-за своєї закаменілости, отже вони не могли увірити словах невіст-пророкинь (стор. 1-12).

Біблійна Історія Старого Завіту.

Книги Старого Завіту були первісно написані в трьох мовах: єврейській, грецькій та арамейській. Десь біля 250 рр. перед Нар. Христа всі книги Старого Завіту переведено на грецьку мову. Цю тяжку працю доконали 72 жидівських учених.

Ізраїльтяни переважно жили аморально та диким варварством. Прим. Лот (Авраамового брата син), якого дочки напоїли й привабили до себе та породили дітей. Соломон (Іудейсь. цар) мав до 800 жінок (300 правних і 500 нешлюбних) і вів надзвичайно розкішне життя. Під кінець свого життя він брав собі жінки споміж поганських народів, що було проти Божого закону. Соломон умер у нечести збунтованого народу.

Фанатиком жидівського націоналізму був Павло (званий Савлом) — перший єврейський король, якого інвестігація є тяжка. Він був апостолом Христа, який переслідував і мучив християн (за публікаціями УРСР).

СОЛОМОН — король евреїв (972-932 пер. Нар. Христа) був мудрою людиною та був чоловіком багатьох жінок.

ЯКІВ — через своє жорстоке життя мав замішані неприємності з двома служницями. Лія була його першою нареченою, а в роках праці він здобував Рахелю.

АВРААМ — був "БАТЬКОМ БАГАТЬОХ" жінку, проте він був замішаний із служницею.

МАРІЯ МАГДАЛИНА — була традиційною проституткою, але розкаялась та побожно згадується у християнських публікаціях (Див. в англійських енциклопедіях, а іменно «Ді Колюмбія Вікінг Деск Енциклопедія» — стор. 782: Лука 2.36 — 50).

Праотець Ной (прабатько семітів у 2,000 літ перед Нар. Христа) дуже любив пити вино і вів розкішне життя та жив 950 літ. Петро, хоч був арамеєць (як й Ісус Христос) чи галілеєць, але як забрали Ісуса Христа жиди на муки, то Петро тричі відрікся від свого вчителя, заявляючи: "Не знаю чоловіка цього!". Вже Авраам (потомок Ноя) був дуже згіливий і гостинний чоловік, а навіть виявляв свою любов до чужинців. Він хотів принести Богові свого люблячого сина Ісаака, якому його слуга Елезар підшукав у Мазепотамії гарну й побожну жену Ревеку, бо тоді в Ханаану жили без жінки. Юда (син Якова) продав брата Йосифа єгипетським купцям за 30-цять срібняків. Йосиф (син Якова, що був проданий Юдою єгипетським купцям) був великим мудрцем, якого Фараон (титул єгипетського короля) зробив начальником всього Єгипту, перед яким усі люди впадали на коліна і так віддавали йому честь.

МОЙСЕЙ (означає "взятий із води" — 1,500 рр. перед Нар. Христа), підкинутий у кошику Фараоновій дочці й виплеканий рідною мамою-служницею, який був кращим магіком ніж Фараон та творив чудеса своєю паличею при помочі Божої сили. Мойсей стрінувся в Єгипті зі своїм братом Ароном, які при Божій помочі та своїх чудес перемогли силу Фараона. Коли ізраїлетяни перейшли Червоне Море в пустиню, то Господь живив ізраїльтян (птахи, манна, вода зі скали) 40 рр., аж доки не приплили до землі ханаанської. Коли ізраїлетяни стали поклонятися вилитому золотому телцеві з кульчиків, тоді Мойсей покликав синів Левія, які зарубали мечами одного дня 23,000 людей, що поклонялися божкові. За сумніви Мойсея проти Бога, він покарав його вчасною смертю (120 рр.). Не перейшов Йордану та не ввійшовши до обіцяної землі. Мойсей був дійсно великим пророком, по якому ізраїлетяни плакали 30-ть років, Щасливий у Бога був теж Ісус Навин, який перейшов Йордан і ввійшов до обіцяної землі 1,375 рр. перед Нар. Христа. Його ізраїлетяни розвалили мури Єрихону й запанували над усією землею, а їх межі він поділив між 12 поколінь, після назв синів Якова.

До найбільших злочинців серед жидів був Пилат, який засудив Ісуса Христа на смерть. Його родове прізвище було "Сорпотеп" (по-латині), а повне прізвище —Гаюс Понтіюс Пилат, який був римським прокурором Юдеї. Коли він наказав вивісити вночі на цитаделі Єрусалиму римські прапори, то жидівська кілька-тисячна юрба демонструвала проти образи їх релігії. Така сама ситуація була в Юдеї, коли Ісус Христос почав свою публічну науку, то відразу насторожила всю жидівську старшину, бо вона бурила старий лад і вдаряла в основи рабінсько-фарисейських законів, які забезпечували їм владу та вигідне життя.

Пилат уперше довідався про Ісуса під час свята Пасхи, коли до нього прийшов багатий банкир Нікодим та оповів йому цікаву історію, яка трапилася в Єрусалимський Святині. Під час Пасхи з'їжджалося до Єрусалиму дуже багато народу з багатьох країв Азії (Палестина, Єгипет), а навіть із Риму. Паломники у тій святині скла-дали багаті дари, бодай одного шекеля. Нікодим оповідав Пилатові про молодого Чоловіка, який у святині з групою супутників поперевертав там столи міняйлів і повиганяв їх із святині, який не хотів дозволити робити з дому Свого Вітця дім гандлярів.

Він проповідував нову науку, творив чуда та [illegible]вав себе Божим сином. Нікодим симпатизував проро[illegible] Ісусові з Назарету, хоч і боявся, що з того можуть виникнути поважні заворушення. Наука Ісуса з кожним днем знаходила щораз більше прихильників. Вони висилали за ним своїх шпіонів, які пильно стежили за кожним кроком і словом Ісуса, ставили йому підступні питання, щоб зловити Його на чімсь, що дало б їм правну підставу виступити проти Ісуса.

Найбільше непокоїло їх те, що прихильники можуть підняти одного дня повстання чи викликати якісь заколоти, а тоді Рим скористає з нагоди, здушить повстання та поставить кінець теократичній системі, що давала б їм досить широку автономію і запровадить свою адміністрацію на зразок інших провінцій чи округ.

Пилат спочатку не звертав уваги на Ісуса у християнській Палестині та не мав причини виступати проти Нього, а радо скористав би з нагоди, щоб вкорот[illegible] привілеї ,жидівської ради і священиків, які обмежу[illegible] його владу.

На тиждень перед святом Пасхи в Єрусалимі (від 15 до 22 нізана — першого місяця року) шпигуни Синедріосу донесли, що Ісус зближається до міста в оточенні великої маси народу. Священники занепокоїлися. Каяфа звернувся до Пилата (був почесним гостем у палаті Ірода) з проханням, щоб арештувати Ісуса й не допустити Його до міста, бо може прийти до заворушень. Пилат тоді відмовив це прохання, мотивуючи, що він не має підстави арештувати Ісуса, бо кожний має право приїхати на свято Пасхи.

Оказово Ісус затріюмфував свій в'їзд до Єрусалиму, де резентузіязмовані маси кидали Йому під ноги пальмове віття та кричали: "Осанна Синові Давидовому", себто королеві Ізраїля, бо це був старий королівський рід. В'їзд Ісуса до Єрусалиму був уже величавим, якого Єрусалим не бачив від непам'ятних часів.

Синедріон бачив, що справа має для жидівських священників небезпечний характер, отже вони в святині втягнули Ісуса в дискурс (міркування) небезпечними підступними питаннями. Хоч мудро й влучно Ісус відповідав Єговським священникам, але вони зсинтезували фальшиві аргументи. Відповідь Ісуса зінтерпретована тими ж священниками, відділяла релігію від держави ("То віддайте кесареві, що кесаря, а Богові, що Боже" — на римський монеті був портрет кесаря (створюючи небезпечний прецедент, що йде попереду), який бурив старий лад, бо сам цісар у Римі був найвищим священником (Понтіфекс Максімум) та головою держави був Імператор. Тим разом Пилат вислав відділ вояків, яких Юда запровадив до Гетсеманського городу та зрадливим поцілунком видав Ісуса в руки вояків.

Від Анни повели Ісуса до Каяфи, де вже був Синедріон і там відбувалося цілу ніч переслухання Ісуса (з четверга на п'ятницю). Нікодим був членом Синедріону, прийшов вчасним ранком до Пилата та розповів йому перебіг розправи. Замість суддів були прокурори — оскаржителі, які не шукали правди обвинувачення. Каяфа засипав Ісуса питаннями й оскарженнями, на які Він дещо відповідав, а решта поминав мовчанкою.

Цілий акт оскарження був побудований на релігійних проступках, за які навіть жидівський закон не передбачав кари смерти. Ісуса оскаржували в тому, що Він пристає з публічними грішниками, присвоює собі право прощати гріхи (прим. Марія Магдалина), не шанує суботи, оздоровляє недужих, називає себе Месією і т. ін. Приписи Талмуду докладно окреслювали карну процедуру в суді , якої Синедріон мусів придержуватися, бо інакше розправа та вирок були неважні. Нікодим навіть Пилатові, що жидівське та римське права не знали прокуратора, а його функції сповняли звичайні громадяни. Коли хтось вніс скаргу проти якоїсь особи, то його притягали до відповідальности (прим. оскарження Ціцерона проти Верреса в сенаті), але обвинувачем Ісуса був сам суд. Коли оскарженому грозила кара смерти, то розправа починалася рано, а кінчалася перед заходом сонця.

Цілий процес Ісуса відбувався вночі. Талмуд забороняв, щоб суд засідав день перед суботою чи перед Пасхою.

Ісус не мав оборони й свідків, а кожний обвинувачений мусів мати. Суд видав вирок у залях святині, а цілий процес Ісуса відбувався в домі Каяфи. Всі ці приписи були знехтовані жидівським судом, отже цілий процес і вирок були неважні. Каяфа та цілий його Синедріон не узнавали Ісуса за Месію та не вірили, що "вкоротці прийде царство Боже на землі...", тому свідків Ісуса не покликано, а вирок смерти на Ісуса був ухвалений на таємній нараді Ради ще перед розправою, лише треба було формально провести. Долю оскарженого вирішив сам [illegible]ра, отже голова суду не питав по черзі суддів (від наймолодшого до найстаршого) про опінію Ісуса.

В п'ятницю вранці привели Ісуса до Пилата, який мав затвердити вирок жидівського суду. Пилат докладно знав цю справу та цей вирок був неважний з погляду формально-правничого. Він був переконаний, що Ісус невинний і хотів Його звільнити на основі формального нового судового процесу. Ісуса привели зв'язаного, одягненого в довгу багряницю, скатованого і виснаженого цілонічною розправою та знущанням жидівської сторожі на подвір'я палати Ірода. Жиди не могли оскаржувати Ісуса перед римським трибуналом за релігійні проступки проти закону Мойсея чи Талмуду. Треба було знайти таку підставу оскарження, за яку римське законодавство карало смертю. Тоді юліямський карний закон передбачував кару смерти за зраду римського народу й дію проти цілости Римської Імперії. Згідно з жидівським віруванням, Месія мав бути духовим і земним королем, бо вже траплялося, що фальшиві Месії підіймали народ Юдеї до повстань.

Оскарження Ісуса звучало так: "Цей чоловік бунтує нарід, забороняє віддавати честь цісареві та проповідує, що він сам є королем". На подвір'ї зібралися велика юрба, підюджена священниками. Під час переслухання відбувалися бурхливі сцени, було зрозуміле, що жиди хотіли впливати на суд. Пилат спитав Ісуса: "Чи ти є король жидівський?" — Ісус відповів: "Чи ти питаєш мене про це сам, чи інші сказали тобі про мене?". Пилат зрозумів це так: чи ти питаєш мене як римлянин і чи підтверджуючу відповідь будеш розуміти в римському значенні короля? Чи твоє запитання значить, що ти хочеш упевнитися, чи я король у жидівськім розумінні? Пилат відповів: "Чи я жид? Твій нарід і священники видали мені тебе в руки. Що ти вчинив?". Ісус сказав: "Моє королівство було з тамтого світу. Якби моє королівство було з цього світу, то мої слуги боронили б мене, щоб я не був виданий у руки жидів. Але моє королівство — недалеко!".

ПРИСУД ПИЛАТА

Нещодавно зроблено незвичайне відкриття, яке торкається історичного потвердження смерти Ісуса Христа. В Італії, в каплиці касерта, знайдено таблицю, на якій був напис не звичайного значіння для всього християнського світу. Той напис старожидівською мовою подає текст вироку смерти, що його видав намісник Понтій Пилат, за перекладом комісії французького Товариства Мистецтва, він звучить так: "Присуд, виданий Понтієм Пилатом, на-місником долішньої Галилеї, голосить: Ісус з Назарету мусить понести смерть на хресті сімнадцятого року панування цезаря Тиберія і дня 25 місяця марта у святому місті Єрусалимі, коли Анна і Каяфа були первосвященниками Божими. Понтій Пилат, намісник долішньої Галилеї, сидячи на президіяльному кріслі, засуджує Ісуса з Назарета на хресну смерть між двома розбійниками тому, що вірогідні і вирогідні свідчення народу ствердили, що:

1. Ісус блудник;
2. Ісус бунтівник;
3. Ісус ворог народу;
4. Ісус неправдиво називає себе Сином Божим;
5. Ісус називає себе фальшиво царем Ізраїля;
6. Ісус увійшов до святині в оточенні народу, що тримав у руках пальмові гілки.

Понтій Пилат наказує першому центуріонові (сотникові) Квірилові Корнилові запровадити його на місце кари і забороняє всім людям, бідним і багатим, противитись смерті Ісуса.

Свідками, які підписали вирок смерти на Ісуса були: Даніель Робані Фарисей, Івон Зарабатель, Рафал Робані та Каспер Книгар. Ісус має бути випроваджений [illegible] Саеранською брамою". Побіч тексту подано замітку: "Ту саму таблицю посилається кожному племені".

Так, отже, поза книгою Нового Заповіту, світ дістав ще одно, археологічне свідчення про Ісуса Христа ("Українське Православне Слово" — див. "Ми і Світ" ч. 12, 1954).

Пилат завагався, обвинувачений переносив оскарження з політично в духову площину. По хвилі запитав: "То ти, отже король?". Ісус відповів: "Ти сказав". Пилат відчув симпатію до оскарженого. Його поведінка була гідна, повна грації (прощення). Він спитав Його, яким способом він може доказати свій титул короля? Ісус відповів:

"На це Я родився і прийшов на світ, щоб дати свідоцтво правді". Пилат запитав: "Що є правда?" — Ісус не відповів.

Тоді Пилат звернувся до священників і сказав: "Я не знаходжу вини в цьому чоловікові". Товпа заревіла в обурення. Пилат бачив ясно, що священники зібрали тут юрбу, щоб викликати заколот у випадку звільнення Ісуса. Почулися голоси: "Ти мусиш покарати Його!". Інші кричали: "Ти чув, що він назвав себе королем, а це зрада римському закону!". Пилат звернувся до Ісуса: "Чи чуєш, скільки скарг є проти тебе? Чому нічого не говориш?".

В тому моменті принесли Пилатові записку від його жінки Прокули, яка просила його, щоб він звільнив цього Чоловіка. Вона мала тої ночі дивний сон і вона переконана, що це праведний Чоловік. Пилат відчув забобонний страх. А що, як цей Чоловік є одним із героїв або півбогів із їх мітології? (вірування в старинних богів і героїв чи народні вірування в надприродні сили). Він встав і забрав Ісуса до палати, щоб переслухати Його без свідків, але Ісус не відповідав на його питання. Тоді Пилат, здивований, сказав: "Мені не відповідаєш, чи не знаєш, що я маю власть звільнити Тебе або засудити?". Ісус відповів: "Не мав би ти тої власті, якби вона не була дана тобі згори, і тому ті, що видали Мене тобі мають більший гріх".

Довідавшись, що Ісус із Галилеї, Пилат скористав із того та вислав Його до Ірода Антіпи. Але за деякий час Ісуса привели назад, одягненого в білу одіж, на знак, що він король жидівський. Пилат спробував рятувати Ісуса іншим способом. Був у жидів звичай, що на свято Пасхи звільняли одного вязня, який ще не був засуджений. Був до вибору розбійник Бар Абба (Варавва), або Ісус Пилат запитав: "Кого хочете, щоб я звільнив вам: розбійника Бар Аббу чи Ісуса?" — Юрба закричала: "Бар Аббу, Бар Аббу!" — "А що маю зробити з чоловіком, якого Ви називаєте королем "жидів?" — Юрба закричала: Розпни, розпни Його!". Що ж злого зробив він?" — спитав Пилат. У відповідь йому в юрбі почулись голоси: "Якщо ти звільниш Його, ти не є приятелем кесаря".

Пилат настрашився та зкапітулював перед юрбою. Як останній акт, щоб задемонструвати свою невинність у засудженні Ісуса та заграти на забобонності жидів, Пилат казав подати йому воду, вмив руки і заявив: "Я невинний крови цього Чоловіка, ви побачите". А юрба закричала: "Кров Його на нас і на наших дітях!".

Але Пилат ще вагався, він ще хотів промовити до сумління жидів і звелів бичувати Ісуса. А коли Ісуса привели знову до нього, скривавленого, одягненого в багряницю, з терновим вінцем на голові, Пилат показав Його жидам і сказав: "Оце Чоловік!". Але юрба заревіла: "Розпни, розпни Його!". Пилат відповів: "Візьміть ви Його і розпніть, бо Я не знаходжу в Нім вини!".

Вирок був затвердженний, роправа скінчена. Екзекуція відбулася негайно, бо жидам було спішно — надходила субота і свято Пасхи. Хоч Пилат умив руки, та не змив із свого сумління вини невинної крови. Він мав ще інший вихід, щоб не брати на себе вини за несправедливий вирок на невинну людину, проти свого переконання. Коли не знайшов у собі мужности протиставитися жидам, він міг передати справу до Риму.

Конфлікту з жидами, якого Пилат так боявся, він не уникнув. Кілька років пізніше виникло в Юдеї мале заворушення, що його Пилат зліквідував збройно. Жиди внесли на нього скаргу до проконсуля Сирії, що був зверхником Пилата і його ворогом. Він без слідства звільнив Пилата та відіслав його до Риму.

Коли він збирався рано на перше переслухання комісії, його дружина принесла йому червоний каптан і просила, щоб він убрав його під туніку (білий одяг з льону або шерсті у стародавніх римлян). Здивованому Пилатові Прокула пояснила, що той каптан вона вшила в одежі того Чоловіка, якого він засудив на смерть в Єрусалимі. Цю одежу вона купила у сотника, що переводив екзекуцію Ісуса та виграв її в кістки від жовнірів. Це був праведний Чоловік, казала вона, і вона вірить, що той каптан принесе йому щастя.

Про дальшу дорогу Пилата малощо відомо. Слідство проти нього припинено, бо це був час панування напівбожевільного і кровожадного Калігури (Каюс Цезар Германікус у 12 столітті по Нар. Христа — 41-ий римський імператор) та кожний дрижав за свою шкіру. Пізніше дістав він намісництво у Швайцарії, де — правдоподібно він скінчив самогубством. подібно як Юда, що видав Христа жидам (Використано "Визвольний Шлях" ч. 7-8 за 1962 р.).

Вищезгаданого Мойсея — конкурента Платона в проповідуванні Христової науки любив і наш І. Франко. Він 20 липня 1905 р. у Львові написав біблійну поему про Мойсея, який 40 літ блукав по арабський пустині, визволяючи свій народ з єгипетської неволі. Іван Франко навязав цю легенду до боротьби й визволення українського народу з-під чужого ярма. Ось виїмки з його поеми "Мойсей":

"О Ізраїлю, ти той посол,
І будущий цар світа!
Чому не тямиш посольства свого
І його заповіта?".

"О Ізраїлю! Якби ти знав,
Чого в серці тім повно!
Якби знав, як люблю я тебе!
Як люблю невимовно!".

"О Ізраїлю, не тям ти сього
Богохульного слова:
Я люблю тебе дужче, повніш,
Ніж сам Бог наш Єгова".

"Бо люблю я тебе не лише
За твою добру вдачу,
А й за хиби та злоби твої,
Хоч над ними і плачу".

"О Ізраїлю, чудо моє!
Жалься Богу Шаддаю!
Як люблю я безмірно тебе,
А проте покидаю".

(Розділ X).

ВІРУВАННЯ ТА БОЖІ КАРИ НА ЖИДІВ

До античних країн Африки належить також Юдея (Іудея). Юдея — це жидівська релігія. Батьком юдаїзму був Авраам ("Батько багатьох"). Юдаїзм (від Юди) має свої традиції та доктрини Старого Тестаменту і Талмуду. Талмуд — це книга, в якій зібрано все жидівське релігійне знання. Талмуд був випродукований у Ханаані (Палестина) й у Вавилонії в 5-6 століттю. Талмуд Мішна (в єврейській мові) має 5 кляс (т. зв. "Седарім"), що містить у собі 63 наукові розвідки (трактати-практична робота Юди І). Талмуд Гемара має 36 і пів трактатів. Жиди вірять у всемогучого БОГА (Єгова) і його закон т. зв. "Тораг", даний ним Мойсеєві, котрого Бог вибрав у часі Авраама — батька Ізраелю.

Головними жидівськими сектами в античному світі були:

1. Садукей (староєврейська секта) з часу Ісуса Христа, які прийняли лише 5 книжок Закону та вірили у безсмертність і воскресіння;

2. Есени (2 століття по Нар. Христа), які вірили у безсмертність, а не вірили у воскресіння;

3. Фарисеї, яка зросла в рамцях Синагоги після визволення людей від сирійського гнету макабеями. Активний період фарисеїв був у часі відкриття православного юдаїзму до 135 Р. Б. У модерних часах є занотовані кабаліти (від Кабала) та гасидими (від Гасидима). У 18 століттю з'явився реформований юдаїзм «консерватн», які задержали православний звичай.

ЄГОВА (за жидівським віруванням) був нежонатим, ніколи не говорив і не писав (Зевс — греки та Юпітер — римляни були жонатими: Гера — Юнона).

Сіоністи (Сіон — це Єрусалим) були фанатиками свого Єгова й Іудеї, які змагалися до народної відрубности та заложення держави в Палестині (расово-релігійна претенсія жидів). Сіонізм — це реконституційний рух жидівської нації у 1897 році, що має найбільше жидівського населення. Серед їхніх найбільших лідерів був Макс Нордав і Хаїм Вайцман. Д-р Хаїм Вайцман [illegible] президентом Об'єднання Сіоністів, а Леонард Штайн є секретарем світової Екзекутиви Сіоністів. Палестинські індустрії зайняли майже жидівські колоністи в Европи. Сіоністичні лідери приділяють багато важливої праці для хемікалій Мертвого Моря. Вони держать ключі від індустрії в Палестині.

Позиція Палестини відносно Великих Сил є зовсім іншою як Балфоур Декларація з 1917 року. Велика Сила завідує хемічним потенціялом (таємна можливість, потужність) і військовими силами. Сіоностичні лідери влаштували жидівських колоністів у перших лініях мілітарної оборони. У Мертвому морі є мінеральні ресорси (бромінні солі — за султаном Туреччини з дня 9 вересня 1913 року). Континентальні араби є антисемітами, тому над арабами та сіоністами в Африці мають контролю Об'єднані Нації.

В публікаціях "Калгари Геральд" в 3-го бе[illegible] 1958 р. було звідомлення про "Расовий міт сіонізм[illegible] згадується про "бона фіде" (в добрій вірі, без лихих намірів) в жидівському Законі, затвердженім Шефом Ізраїльського Рабінату, що всі жиди в світі є автоматично горожанами Ізраелю та мають вільну еміграцію до Ізраелю за фінансуванням Жидівських Агенцій ("Закон повернення").

Д-р Зераг Вегргафтиґ, міністер законодавчої жидівської установи та релігійних справ (Єрусалим) згадує, що Ізраїль у 1968 р. буде мати 100 тисяч японських жидів юдаїзму.

В Японії знаходиться до 8 тисяч жидів, які говорять єврейською мовою та мають власні синагоги. Вони зорганізовані там в Юнію Жидівських Японців, де мають добре вишколених професіоналістів (науковці, техніки, знавці риболовства, інтересознавці), які навертають японців назад до юдаїзму, а між ними є також брат-схоластик японського імператора Гірогіто, який є суддею світових питань біблії Ізраелю.

Японські жиди вірять, що японці є нащадками (потомками) плем'я Дана — одного з 12-тьох загинутих поколінь жидівського роду, замешканих у Півн. Палестині.

"Руді жиди" (Бені Ізраель) живуть б. Бомбаю, у Рангун і Кальку та Малабар-Індія, які є вірні партикулярно синагодзі Мусма Єшіва (Musmeah Yeshua) та відкидають закони Бені Ізраель у релігії та закони прав, які не додержують прав православних жидів. Народний їх говір є Магратицький (Індія), а кохінських жидів є малаялам (мова дравідінської родини).

Жиди з Багдад, Сирії та Півд. Арабії вживають арабської мови, а льокальні жиди з Персії говорять перською мовою.

Чорні жиди не є спадкоємцями жидівських колоній, які натурально прийняли юдаїзм. Мала їх кількість є поселена у Кочін (СЗ Індія), де знайдено пам'ятники з 14 століття. Бенжемін із Туделі (12 століття) сповістив, що до 100 чорних жидів є у Кочін (Марко Польо — 13 століття та Васк де Гама — 1498). В 20 столітті не знаходимо властивої різниці в релігійних практиках білих і чорних жидів. Обидві групи наділяють ті самі права сефордичної обрядовості, які є глибоко релігійні та говорять малаяламським говором (Дравидична група мови). Вони правлять у своїх окремих синагогах, не беруть шлюбних контрактів (угода, умова) і разом не їдять обіду.

В Індії є білі й чорні жиди. Їхні міста, які мали до 80 тисяч родин (Набо та Кочін) були зруйновані. Кочін у

В 1662 р. португальці побили багато жидів за симпатію до Данії. На слідуючий рік Кочін був забраний данцями, отже жиди одержали релігійну свободу. В 1[illegible] данські жиди вислали комісію з Амстердаму до Сочіну, щоб на місці розслідити справу жидів. У 1795 р. Кочіном заволоділи англійці, отже жиди мали там повну свободу релігії.

Бенжемин Туделя описує у своїй подорожі, що "приблизно 1000 родин індійських чорних жидів жило на території Індії, де вони культивували перець, цінамон та імбир (корінь до приправи страв)". Він характеризує їх чесними й вірними Десять Біблійним Заповіддям і мозаїчним кодам, які читали пророки (образ зложений із мішанини малих камінчиків і скла, а мозаїзм — від Мойсея — це жидівська релігія) та є добрими талмудистами й справними обсерваторами.

Давид Сассун із Багдад належав до перших поселенців Бомбаю, який торгував китайськими монополями а опію му й подарував 75 тисяч рупів (індійська й перська [illegible] на монета, вартости звиш 2-ох корон) на споруджен му для допомоги бідним жидам.

Об'єднання жидівських негрів є у Філядельфії, Брукліні, Пітсбурзі, Чікаго та Янгставн (Огайо), а найбільше у Гарлем, які мають там більше ніж 3 тисячі прихильників і 800 членів центральної конгрегації (соборник для полагодження церковних справ), переведеної Шефом Рабі Метів, який у своїй казальниці, що держить усе на руках т. зв. "Тора" (святі книги Мойсея у жидів).

У селі Кфар Бейта в Ізраелю є понад 2 тисячі арабських жидів, де учителем є рабін М. П. Сассуун Езекель.

Жидівського населення в Китаю (включно з Манчуку) у 1940 р. було 36 тисяч. Вони — переселенці з Персії (часи панування імператора Минг-ті — Ганд Династії) між 58 і 75 С. Е. (Коммон Ера — загальна ера) Н. М. Адлер у своїому "Чайніз Джув" (Оксфорд 1900 р.) доказує існування жидівської колонії з 34 С. Е. Грец (Граетз) це підтримує, що велике число жидівства прибуло там у 231 С. Е. в наслідок переслідування жидів у Персії.

Проф. Чаєннес вірить, що інші жидівські колонії були засновані між 960 і 1126-тими роками там жидами з Індії. Елкан Адлер підтримував що жиди з Бокгари прибули до Китаю шляхом через Персію у 16 столітті.

Первісна жидівська суспільність у Китаю держала фрагменти Захарія та Малахія у своїх архівах і знали кілька талмудійських ритуалів (церемоній), де були сугестії (гадки, думки, натяки), що вони прибули там із Халдеї. Лише їхня ігнорація вавилонської пунктуації сугестює доталмудський період їхньої еміграції, можливої з палестинського походження.

За повідомленням Ібн Зейд ал Гассан у 9 столітті довідуємось, що арабські мандрівники-жиди були масакровані (нищені) в Кганфу. В 8 столітті С. Е. означена чисельність жидів була призначена спеціяльними офіцерами при імператорові Марко Польо, який відвідав Китай у 13 ст. та свідчив про позажну ролю жидів у Катаї (Катгай), про що теж свідчив Ібн Батута, арабський посланець (агент) до монгольського суду.

Жиди Кай-фунг-фу були видатними серед появи льокальних помешканців Китаю. Вони мали китайський одяг і риси та фізичний устрій (жовтий вигляд тіла) і т. зв. "скісні очі". Вони говорили китайською мовою та додержували китайські методи. Вони змінювали свої сили й окремі хати богослуження з їхніх священних книг.

Нью-Йорк Санді Нюзс з 8 липня 1949 р. подають, що мале італійське село Сан Нікандро 36 осіб прийняли жидівську релігію та ждуть дня, щоб переїхати до Палестини. Вони були навернені ветераном І Світової Війни Донато Мандузіо, який не був жидом, а переконував їх, що жиди є вибраним Божим народом.

"Ді Б'наі Б'ріт Мессенджер" з 16 квітня 1954 р. [redacted] дає про навернення жидів до юдаїзму — перше бу[redacted] хозар у 8 столітті, яких цілі групи є вже в Ізраелю.

Панна Мерилин Монрое студіювала юдаїзм і прийняла жидівський Талмуд ще перед її вінчанням із рабіном Робертом Гольдбергом із Нью-Гавен, США. Головна квартира З'єднаної Ізраїльської Світової Юнії подає, що понад 11 тисяч християн США прийняли "Талмуд", включно з міністром і управителем школи, священником Джеймесом Г. Буркеєм.

Багато жидів у нас на ЗУЗ перейшло на польське латинство, спасаючи своє життя перед гітлерівцями. Багато жидівок було подружено з католиками й православними на Україні, залишаючи їхній Талмуд і жидівські традиції. Бували також виїмки, що пропадала українська душа серед жидівства на Вел. Україні за СССР. Подібна мішанина з жидівством трапляється у багатьох інших державах, де вони паразитують поза своїм Ізраелем.

Багато жінок, які виемігрували з Еспанії до М[redacted] ко, де згодом споріднювалися з індійським племенем. Вони думали, що індіянський Талмуд виховує своїх дітей у жидівському дусі, а знов льокальні індіяни думали, що у їхнім зростанню "діє крапля маррійської крови", імпозантна (показна) талмудською релігією цих племен у минулих віках.

Не всі жиди є сіоністами, не всі сіоністи є релігійно віруючими. На жидівське населення до 1939 р. припадала лише одна синагога (за інформ. Тел Авів). Третина жидіського населення Торонта має 52 синагоги. Лессінг Ф. Розенвальд (постійний жидівський житель США) написав про свою поїздку до Ізраелю в "Таймі" (журнал), що

Дженкінтавн, Па є більше синагогів, ніж у самому Тел Авів (Сентр. Ізраель).

Багато жидів цього континенту стає льокальними аристократами й матеріялістами та забувають за свій сіоніз і Талмуд, за справи свого Ізраелю. Гешефт (інтерес) перевищує їхні релігійно-національні традиції. Вони вже постепенно забувають за свою автохтонну приналежність до Ізраелю та до Єгова.

Всевишній БОГ не міг уже довше терпіти жидівству й почав зсилати на них свої різні кари, щоб вони покаялися та навернулися до попереднього стану віри.

Господь Бог спустив з неба огонь і сірку на нещасні міста та знищив їх разом із мешканцями. Коли Лотова жена не послухала ангела й оглянулася на горіючі міста, то за кару перемінилася у стовп соли. Ціла околиця м. Содоми й Гомори перетворилася в солено-сірчасте озеро т. зв. Мертве море. Це є постійний знак гніву і кари Божої, що спадають на грішних людей.

Коли ізраїлитяни в Ханаані нарікали на Бога, то Він покарав їх, що "40 років їх діти будуть ходити по пустині та носити свої гріхи, доки не поляжуть трупом у степу".

Бог убив огнем із неба 250 збунтованих мужів із покоління Рувина і Левія, під проводом Корея, Датона й Авірона, змовників проти Мойсея та Арона. Бог зіслав на ізраїлитян їдкі змії, яких укушення пекло огнем за їх нарікання під час мандрівки в пустині.

Бог покарав первосвященника Гелі (1,100 рр. перед Нар. Христа), що не карав своїх синів (Офнія і Фінесса) за злі вчинки. На ізраїльтян напали филистимці, отже в боях згинуло 30,000 ізраїльтян, а між ними оба сини Гелія.

Пророка Йону моряки кинули в море серед бурі, якого проковтнув кит. По трьох добах молитви Йони, риба викинула його на суху землю. Відтак над його головою виросла велико-листна рослина, яка заслоновала його голову від сонця. Коли він уже радувався нею, Бог післав червяка, а той підгриз рослину й вона всохла. Потім сонце пекло його голову, що він аж умлівав, тоді засмучений бажав собі смерти.

Багато з 18-ох царів із дому Давида провадили грішне життя. За цю кару Бог допустив упадок Єрусалиму та вавилонську неволю (606 р. перед Нар. Христа). Навуходоносор цар Вавилону у 588 р. зруйнував Єрусалим, спалив святиню, забрав у неволю майже ціле населення та царя СЕДЕКІЮ, що йому за ворохобню казав виколоти очі. У Вавилоні жиди покутували й зітхали за рідним краєм. "На ріках Вавилонських вони сиділи і плакали, коли згадали Сіон". (співали жиди в неволі).

Господь Бог карав їх війнами, голодом, потопом, зсилав усякі хвороби та нещастя, отже карає їхнє покоління аж досі за архаїчні гріхи їхніх поколінь. Вони — братовбивники, які бичували та розпняли на хресті свого Пророка Ісуса Христа, який проповідував їм Божу Науку.

Карає їх Бог і по сьогоднішній день, де вони тиняються по світі як "вічні жиди". Хоч вони багаті гандлярі та моляться по-своєму у своїх божницях, все таки Бог не може їм простити за зраду, за злочини, за опонентність релігійну та їхні контрасти.

Правда — Він карає всіх грішників у світі, карає і нас "національно-бездомних" поза межами УКРАЇНИ. Все таки нам здається, що "вони мають краплини крови Ісуса Христа на своїх руках"...

Жидівство є нами зачислене до найбільших християнських грішників, катів провідних людей серед свого народу. Бог зсилатиме свої кари на сотні покоління їхньої генерації. Вони повинні своїми спільними молитвами Його перепросити, щоб Він зробив їм чудо та забув за всі попередні гріхи їхніх великих грішників у світі. Це саме й відноситься до нас — грішників... Амінь.

ФІЛОСОФІЯ та КОМУНІЗМ

Філософія (мудрість світогляду) в античних юдейців була поганська й усебічна з магією, про що можна легко найти у жидівських публікаціях Ізраелю. У світовій філософії не знаходимо майже нічого про античних жидівських філософів, не виключаючи тут деяких Христових апостолів. Іхня релігійна філософія є помішана та не відповідаючи правді з життя Ісуса Христа. Жидівської філософії в СССР взагалі немає, бо вся жидова живе атеїстично та є вислужниками ВКП(б) і червоного Кремля.

У "Світовій Філософії" згадується доперва про Філя Юдеус (25-50 рр. перед Нар. Христа), який був першим мудрцем епістемології, метафізики, фізики й етики. Він виявляв деякі спекуляційні дати біблійного думання, а головне — характеристика БОГА, людини і натури — досконала правда філософії. Він обороняв жидівську релігію юдаїзму з історичного, філософічного, етичного й правничого пунктів. Був лідером жидівської амбасади в Римі у 40-вих роках по Христі. Він запозичив багато знання від грецьких філософів. Він зробив перший начерк психології релігії.

Ізраелі Ісаак (850-950) жив 100 літ і був славний лікар та основник великої медичної школи. Був бистроумним психологом, якого думки в антропології (наука про людей) передбачували модерні відкриття.

Ібн Габріол Соломон (1021 — 58) був великим іспансько-жидівським поетом, який мав до діла з філософічними проблемами його метафізичної роботи без жодного епоріднення з юдаїзмом.

Гія Авраам Бар (1065 - 1136), якого жиди-колеги кликали "князем", а інші — губернатором міста "Савасорда". Він керував деякою зміною спіритуалізму між християнською та арабською цивілізаціями. Його [illegible] праці до математики, астрономії, музики й оптики були сокооцінювані жидівськими християнськими та магометанськими схолястиками.

Маймонід (1135 - 1204) має велику пошану в жидівській історії, який доставив їм Десять Біблійних Заповідей. Спіритуальне відкриття юдаїзму є незрозуміле без його активностей у збірці Біблії та Талмуду. Його Мишнет Тораг (копія законів) був першим систематичним описом жидівської релігії.

Філософічні думки Маймоніда сильно впливали на жидівських, магометанських і християнських філософів. Його праці (Морег Небугім, Делалат ал Гайрин) були насичені працями Арістотля та Платона. Християни вживали його доктрину до оборони своєї релігії чи до пояснення загальних принципів (прим. Віліям з Анвергне, Олександер з Галес, Албертус Магнус, Меістер Екгарт, Тома [illegible] вінський і Томісти). Його книжки були написані а[illegible]кою, еврейською та латинською мовами.

Св. Юда Бен Самуель із Регенсбургу (12-13 століття) був великим схолястичним учителем та обережним лідером жидівського об'єднання в Регенсбургу, де він замешкав у 1195 році. Він пробував полагодити вимоги православного юдаїзму з нагородою містичних поривів. Він походив з Єгипту (4,241 пер. Нар. Христа — єгипетський календар), який вірив в існування Бога. Бог мав за його думкою споріднення з різними тваринами й були репрезентовані як частина тварини, а частина людини.

Абраванель Ісаак (1437-1508) — еспанський жидтеологіст, який був вигнанцем з Еспанії та виїхав до Італії. Він займався наукою Біблії та модифікацією доктрини роз'яснюючої жидами. Він вірив у Тораг та розглядав історію виявлення Бога жидами.

Абраванель Юда (1460-1530) був у контакті з жидівською, еспанською й італійською культурами. Він найбільше вславився за "Діялоги про любов", які видавав в італійській мові, а відтак перекладав на єврейську, латинську, французьку, еспанську й англійську мови. Його расова філософія підкреслювала важливість його православного юдаїзму.

Менассег Бен Ізраель (1604-1657) був високо респектований за поновне допущення жидів до Англії Королевою Христиною зі Швеції. Він студіював філософію з Декартом і був весоким авторитетом у ділянці історії, лінгвістики та теології великими вченими в Голяндії, Англії, Франції та Німеччині. Був він великий своїми впливами християнської містики, студіював Кабалу та був добре обзнайомлений із православною літературою рабінів. Його писання та філософія були присвячені юдаїзмі.

Спіноза де Бенедиктус (Ворух де Спіноза) (1632-77) належав до жидівської родини, викинений із Еспанії та Португалії, а фінально замешкав у Голяндії. Переробляючи СВЯТІ ПИСЬМА, він написав критику до модерної Біблії.

Миколай Фридрих пише про нього, що він комбінував поганську філософію, яку він діставав від юнаків і натурально нотував, що Бог є лише загальною субстанцією, з якої світ є лише модифікацією (зміною).

Луззатто Мойсей Гаїм (1707-47) мав життя паралельне до Спінози. Він був віриим жидом та акуратно присвячений юдаїзмі. Він почувався як Месія та допомагав жидам. Він складав драми, літургічні поеми та психологічні погрози жидівською мовою, а мистецькі твори були писані арамейською мовою.

Менденсон Мойсей (1729-86) був жидом і проживав у Берліні. Він говорив і писав німецькою мовою, дискутував на філософічні й наукові проблеми, німецький критик, авторитетний в астетиці та психології. Переложив єврейську Біблію на німецьку мову та вимагав цивільних прав для жидів.

Миколай Фридрих писав, що він стратив 32 роки на філософію з Мойсеєм Мендельссоном, якого ідеї були поганської філософії євреїв. Він у своїх перекладах на німецьку мову вимагав цивільних справедливостей для жидів і відокремлення від церкви й держави.

Маймон Соломон (1753-1800) про якого Імануель Кант (Німецький філософ) доводить, що в його творах жидівська релігія з найдавніших номадичних патріярхів є натурально-поганською релігією (багато поганських богів, а незрозумілість Бога лежить у його оскуванню). Їхня релігія не має політичного напрямку, а для свого кінцевого має соціяльний інтерес. Згідно з основним чинником (духу) його юнацтва є пристосована до теократичної (панування священників) національної говерманщини (правдива релігія базується на раціональнім знанню та гармонізує з інтересом краю й індивідома).

Карло Маркс (1818-83), якого філософську основу марксизму становлять діялектичний та історичний матеріялізм. Маркс критикував німецьку соціяльно-демократичну партію у 1875 році та перейшов із соціялізму до комунізму, якого він був основником. Його філософія зовсім комуністична й атеїстична. Він змагав до повалення християнських держав та запанувати в цілому світі...

Фридрих Енгельс (1820-95) був соціялістом, який із К. Марксом зорганізували модерний комунізм. Він розробляв марксизм і діялектичний матеріялізм, що змішував із своєю філософією. Не визнавав християнства й був атеїстом та змагав, щоб зкомунізувати цілий світ.

Володимир Ілїч Ленін (1870-1924) підніс марксиську пропаганду та розвинув комунізм у новій, класичній боротьбі пролетаріяту в Росії. Він через 20-ть літ організував большевицьку революцію проти християнства в Росії й на Україні. Він продовжував філософію марксизму, матеріялізму й атеїзму та поборював православ'я.

Було ще багато жидівських філософів, але вони прийняли інше горожанство й не виступали як жидівські філософи.

ЖИДИ — КРЕМЛІВСЬКА ШАЙКА.

Карл Маркс — жид німецької раси,
Що зфілосував кремлівську комуну,
Переносять її хрущовські галапаси
Кругом економічного світу... Автор.

Творцями комунізму, (наука, що голосить зрівнання всіх станів і спільне вживання власности) були німецькі жиди Карл Маркс (1818-83) і Фрідрих Енгельс (1820 — -95).

Марксистський філософський матеріялізм, економічна теорія та пролетарський науковий соціялізм Німеччини були головними частинами революційної марксистської плянової теорії.

Жиди були начальниками у підготовленій комуністичній революції Німеччини у 1848 році, за яку вповні вони відповідали. Християнське населення Німеччини й Австрії ніколи не можуть забути про такі комуністичні з[illegible] чини комунізму.

Марксизм є денною програмою атеїстичного ко[illegible]нізму у світі, який ненавидить юдаїзму й усього християнства на Землі. Марксистські агенти пропагували серед жидівства та приобіцювали їм "тріюмф" (урочистий в'їзд побідника чи радість побіди) через свій марксизм до "Біблійної перемоги" та сили жидівства. Конспіратори комуністичної кліки "обмотували павутинням свою жертву", а в заплату підготовляли «комуністичний мир», що в практиці приносить поневолення.

За "магічним яблуком Маркса" діє у християнському світі кремлівська "п'ята колона", яка всюди "снує свої пропагандивні машини й гніада саботажів" в індустрі-яльних державах. Періферією (обвід чи округ) комуністичної шайки радикалізму (змагання до рішучо-основої переміни суспільного ладу) є переважно жидівська команда в агітації марксистської пропаганди й московських акцій у всіх християнських державах світу.

Головато-лисий К. Маркс програвши свою політику в атеїстичній філософії, потряс "партійною бородою" та вивтікав до Англії, а "розгніздившись" там серед своєї волі, він почав знова свою зреформовану "музику комунізму": видавав памплет "Комуніст Маніфесто" у 1848 році, а у 1864 році їхня шайка заснувала «Інтернаціонал» (Ді Інтернешонел Воркменс Асосієйшн).

Після смерти К. Маркса Ф. Енгельс удобрив теорії марксизму, отже з того часу почали атеїстичні паразити "пити християнську кров"... Марксизм є "підмурівкою" модерного комунізму Кремля, який дав наукове обгрунтування теорії та практики класової боротьби й робітничого руху комуністичної шайки, керованої комуністичною "голотою пролетарської революції ленінізму" (жовтень 1917 р.).

Вол. Ілїч Ленін (1870-1924) — російський революціонер та автор, який продовжував жидівсько-комуністичну кар'єру в Росії та й на Україні. Ленінізм є дальшим творчим розвитком марксизму в нових умовах класової боротьби пролетаріяту. Він розробив учення про партію нового типу та про радянську владу. Ленінізм поневолив нашу автохтонну християнсько-національну Україну та відібрав головніші права нашого народу на існування та буття на нашому материку.

Сид М. Серен, у книжці «Правда про Україну» доказує що Ленін був жидом (стор. 59). Він мав нагоду дискутувати з одним офіцером Червоної Армії, який безперервно воював на польському фронті. Він власне завзято обороняв большевицьке управління та підкреслював, що Ленін був жидом.

В залізничній станції в Проскурові після смерти Леніна група льокальних жидів плакала й тужила за І. Леніном, як за рідним батьком. Власники жидівського готелю в Кам'янець-Подільському жалісно висловлювався про смерть Леніна та показували їм його знимку з юнацьких років.

Д-р Джулі Джувл, вдові по визначному членові [illegible]ської Охранки, що від 1914 р. перебуваючи все в оточенні царя Ніколая II й "охороняли" його, отже вона, риючись недавно в старих паперах і знайшла цікавий документ, який говорить про дотепер невиявлене походження Леніна.

Документ Охранного Отделенія Московського Відділу, з датою 1918 року був поданий до відома вдовою в Америці, де вона тепер проживає під зміненим прізвищем. На підставі документу Ленін, якого називали "Кріавий", народився 10-го квітня 1870 р. в місцевості Бараново, в околиці Одеси в родині жидів. Батько називався Ілько Сруль Гольдман, а мати Софія Гольдман. Леніна вони називали Хаїм Гольдман.

Батько Леніна був кравцем, а мати виробляла капелюхи. В часі режиму Александра II-го родину Гольдман покарано (за спекуляцію мануфактурою) висилкою [illegible] Сибір на стале поселення. Це сталося 1877 р. коли Х[illegible] було 7 літ. В дорозі на Сибір вони здержалися в Сн[illegible]ську, де один член ескорти мав племінника калмика, на ім'я Ілля Улянов. Тому, що син Улянова втопився, він намовив Гольдмана залишити свого сина Хаїма з ним і його жінкою жидівкою Марією на певний час, доки самі вони не влаштувалися.

Той певний час потривав так довго, що Улянов адоптував собі Хаїма і визвав його Владімир Ілліч Улянов. Вітчим Леніна був калмиком, а прибрана мати — жидівка. Опісля Ленін оженився з М. Крупською, жидівкою, але вони дітей не мали. Ленін був також знаний під псевдами Нінін і Цедербавм. Багато разів він перебирався за жінку та убирав перуку, маскуючись перед поліцією. Зацікавлені чинники досліджують правдивість цього документу (Див. "Лемківщина" ч. 9, 1963 р., стор. 3).

Як німецька революція кінчилася жидами марксизму, так і російська революція була переведена жидівством. У католицькій документації Парижа з 6-го березня 1920 року була листа з 2%-товими большевицькими лідерами, з яких 24-ох були жидами, а 25-тим був сам Ленін, а саме:

Понад третину жидівського населення в Росії [illegible] ла совєтськими урядниками та жидівська маса була відповідальна за російську революцію. Жиди чисельно переважали у комуністичній верхівці світу, вони й змагають до повалення всього християнства у світі й зкомунізувати населення Землі.

Комуністичний режим ленінівців знищив 20 мія. росіян, які були прихильниками Керенського. Ленін у 1919 р. основав "Комінтерн" і став жорстоким диктатором-тираном у Росії й на Україні. Левіти (єврейська релігійна каста) публікують про їхню 6-тисячномилеву подорож по совєтському союзі, що вони там усюди зустрічали жидівську культуру та що там є "центр жидівського життя". Розповідали жидівські військовики з Росії та з Польщі в американській армії, що російсько-комуністичний говернмент (правління) є під впливами жидівської сили, тощо. За звідомленням Сокольського довідуємося, що Польс[illegible] Комуністична Партія була переважаюча жидами ([illegible] перед російською окупацією. Так само жидівський еле[illegible] переважав у державнім правлінні Румунії та Мадярщини (за звідомленням майора Роберта Г. Віліямса з Каліфорнії, ЗДА).

Леон Троцький (Лев Давидович Бронштайн у 1879-1940) — жид-марксист, який був пропагандистом в Росії, основав "Четвертий Інтернаціонал" біля Мексіко Сіті у 1937 р.

Сид М. Серен в "Правда про Україну" (стор. 52) згадує, що Лейба Троцький був головним командантом Червоної Армії, своєрідний православний жид.

ЦК ВКП(б) у 1918 р. складався з 9-ох жидів і трьох росіян, а саме: Бронштайн (Троцький), Апфельбавм (Зіновєв), Ловрі (Лярин), Овсрітскі, Володарскі, Розенфельд (Каменєв), Смідовіч, Свердлов (Янкель) та Накгамкес (Стеклов).

Державний комуністичний апарат мав 556 большевицьких комісарів у 1918-19 рр., з чого було 457 жидів, 35 латишів, 17 росіян, 15 німців, 10 грузинів, 3 поляки, 3 фіни, 2 українці, 1 чех та 1 караїм (хозар).

У 1920 р. було 62 комісари в державному комуністичному апараті, з чого було 41 жидів, 6 латишів, 5 росіян, 3 грузини, 2 вірменці, 2 німці, 1 чех, 1 українець та 1 караїм (хозар).

Комуністичний рух у 1917-26 рр. був керований жидами. З 224-ох революціоністів большевицької жовтневої революції в 1917 році було 170 жидів.

Інші російські соціялістичні партії мали подібний склад, а саме:

1. Центральні комуністи С. Д. Меншевиків мав 11 членів — всі жиди;

2. Народний Комісаріат — 6 членів (5 жидів, 1 росіянин);

3. Праве крило народних комуністів мало 15 членів (13 жидів, 2 росіяни) — Чайковський і Керенський — можливо були з жидівського походження;

4. Ліве крило народних комуністів мало 12 членів (10 жидів, 2 росіяни);

5. Комітет московських анархістів мав 5 членів (4 жиди, 1 росіянин);

6. Польська комуністична партія мала 12 членів — всі жиди, включно з Собельсоном (Радек), Коркгеналем (Загонскі) та Шварцом (Гольц).

Народний Комісаріят (Міністерство) складався з 17-ох жидів, 3 росіяни, 1 грузин та 1 Вірменець — разом 22 члени. Екзекутива Центрального Комітету мала 41 жи-дів, 5 росіян, 2 вірменці, 2 грузуни, 1 українець, 1 чех, 1 імеритієць та 1 караїм (хозар) — разом 61 членів. Екстраординарна Комісія Москви мала 23 жиди, 8 латишів, 2 росіяни, 1 поляк, 1 німець, 1 вірменин — разом 36 членів. З 158,400.000 населення СССР було 7,800.000 жидів (за жидівською енцикльопедією) у 1954 році. Згідно з "Джювіш Кроникл" із 6. 1. 1933 року, отже одна третина жидів СССР є урядниками.

Свердлов (жид) — за його наказом був замордований цар Николай II та його родина. Визначними жидами там був Каменєф і Зіновєв. Відділ зовнішніх справ був у руках жида — Літвінова. Ілля Еренбург був шефом пропаганди у світі.

Всі уряди в Україні були зайняті жидами. Всі секретарі комітету Дистрикту й міста були жидами. Жидами були теж у більшості дозорці вязнів, прокурори й адвокати. Промисловість і комерція була зовсім у руках жидів. Усі шпиталі, клініки та фармації, ресорти здоровля, санаторії та відпочинкові доми, управителі банків були обсадженні жидами.

Більшість управителів фабрик і державних господарств були теж жидами. До НКВД дослівно "товпилися" жиди. Коли робітники були без хліба, то жиди були забезпечені потрібними харчами. Коли робітники й селяни вистоювали днями й ночами в рядах (огонку) під будинком за конечними потребами для життя, то жиди продавали ці речі на чорних ринках за величезну ціну. Українцям тяжко було дістатися на університети (головно на медицину) чи перейти їхні іспити, коли жиди мали вільний доступ до тих інституцій та навіть без іспитів.

Підкуплені елементи пропагували там, що Бога немає. Церкви були зруйновані, священні речі були потоптані й спалені, а духовенство й вірні церкви були тортуровані, побиті чи вивезені (заслані) на Сибір.

Жидівські синагоги були відчинені та старші жиди зовсім вільно відправляли в них свої набоженства. Там не було думки про неділі й свята, отже це власне здавило людський християнський дух. Учителі по школах заставляли (припікали) своїх учнів говорити, чи їхні родичі віруют у Бога, тощо. Таким чином багато батьків були покарані за молитву й прославлення Бога в своїх публікаціях.

Православні цвинтарі (кладовища) були зруйновані, а жидівські натомість були удосконалені (поліпшені). З православних цвинтарів поробили спортові ігрища для футболу чи публічні парки. Вони зруйнували родинне життя та абсолютно обернули людей у тварин, думаючи, що після смерти людини був уже кінець і т. ін.

Жиди мали привілеї відвідувати могили своїх рідних і знайомих (родину й товаришів), предохороняючи від зіпсуття всякі спогади й жалоби на їхніх могилах (Див. стор. 52-4).

Йосип Вісаріонович Сталін (1879-1953) був призначений Леніном як політичний керівник агресії. Був жонатий із жидівкою, так само його родина була подружена чи помішана з єврейством. Грузинський Джугашвілі (Сталін), син сапожніка (швець) творчо розвинув марксистсько-ленінське вчення стосовно до нових історичних умов і в ряді питань збагатив революційну теорію новими положеннями. Жиди припускають, що він був теж жидом і жонатий із сестрою Кагановича — жида, який був комісаром (головою) усіх радянських індустрій. Жидівське населення "одноголосно" любило Сталіна, шануючи його як найбільшого товариша жидівського народу. Левити говорили, що Сталінова дочка була одружена з жидом. Левити теж твердять, що жидівство СССР є мішаниною до жидівських проблєм у світі, що лежать широкою перемогою для комунізму (за публікаціями Роберта Г. Вільгельмса з Каліфорнії 1951 року).

Сид М. Серен у згаданій повище книжці наводить, що його колега П. Іваненко під час своєї подорожі по Грузії одержав докладні інформації в м. Горі (місце народження якоїсь потвори), що Єсель Джугашвіллі (якого він зустрів у Німеччині) жив довгий час у Тіфлісі та знає Джугашвіллі дуже добре та категорично твердить, що він був із жидівського походження. Джугашвіллі за царських часів був «випачкований» із тюрми жидом Кайлаюм, у якого він опісля провірював прихід і відхід робітників із фабрики.

Рахаеля Баєр (жидівка) часто говорила про грузинських жидів, званими "таті", отже Йосиф Сталін був теж жидом-таті. Енциклопедії не подають Сталінової національности, лише, що він народився в Грузії та був сином шевця. Одруження Сталіна з жидівкою Каганович було натуральним феноменом (явищем). Жидівська кров є сильніша за хамельнізм (порода плазунів ящірок, у яких помітна мінливість кольорів) — стор. 61.

Сталін був найбільшим катом із усіх часів. Ленін і жорстокий Сталін належали до жидівської раси (породи). Сталінів син Василій оженився з дочкою Молотова, якої мама є жидівка, а дочка Сталіна була одружена з Кагановичевим сином Михайлом, братом її мачухи. В[illegible]тиве Сталінове прізвище Джугашвіллі, про що говорить його жидівське походження. Слово "Джуга" (син Юди) в жидівській мові означає: Джуга (Юда), швілі (син) — стор. 62.

За тиранства Сталіна та його катів не було краще жити в СССР, бо він буквально продовжував марксистські пляни матеріялізму. На будинках і частоколах УРСР видніли плякати з написсом: "Жіть стало лучше! Жіть стало веселей!".

Був він арештований у 1902 р. за свій большевизм Леніна та вивезений у Сибір, звідки втік назад до Транскавказії у 1905 році. Був членом Центрального Комітету

Большевиків у 1908-17 рр. та брав активну участь у жовтневій революції Росії. Він видавав партійний орган "Правда" та був генеральним секретарем Леніна. Був теж головою комуністичного Інтернаціоналу, коли Троцький був вигнаний та опинився на еміграції (Туреччина, Франція та Норвегія). Він теж був батьком п'ятирічки в СССР. Він був творцем комунізму в Росії, що продовжував Сталін і продовжує М. С. Хрущов.

В. М. Молотов (Скрябін) оженився з жидівкою — Павліною Семйоновою Жемчужіною (Ольга Карповская — її професійний псевдонім), яка відвідувала Паню Елеонор Русевельт у Білій Палаті в Вашінгтоні, ЗДА, сестрою Самуеля Карпа з Бриджпортак, Конн., ЗДА. Мануїльський (за левитами) був вихований по-єврейськи в СССР, який був головою управління в УРСР та головою комуністичного Інтернаціоналу. Берія — жид, який був головою секретної поліції СССР та товаришем Молотова. Амберг — жид, який був кремлівським банкером. Ілія Егренберг — жид і головний шеф "Правди" в СССР. Генрі Ягода був "жорстоким головою НКВД" — жид (за описом Кравченка, політичного комісаря цілої Червоної Армії, який теж був жидом). Коли згаданий Генрих Ягода був ліквідований у 1937-ому році, то на його місце прийшов Єжов — також жид. Подібних було безліч, про яких тут неможливо описати. Про них треба писати спеціяльну статистичну книгу подібних тиранів, катів і ворогів українського християнського-національного народу цілої Украіи.

М. С. Хрущов на XXII з'їзді КПРС кричав про новий етап у розвитку революційної теорії Маркса-Енгельса-Леніна (жидів). Його програма нарад була зовсім ленінська. Доповіді М. С. Хрущова були пройняті бойовим духом марксизму-ленінізму. Доказував він своїм партійцям (не вимахував лише черевиком), що: "Ми йдемо вперед невторованим шляхом. Нам треба розробляти різноманітні проблеми, що повстають в ході будівництва комунізму, розвивати, конкретизувати теоретичні положення. Подібно до того, як живий організм не може нормально рости без сонячного світла, так і комуністичне будівництво не може успішно здійснюватися, якщо його шлях не освітлюється марксистсько-ленінською наукою.

Як бачимо з його пропагандивного комуністичного ораторства (мовної брехні), то він зовсім не змінив свого диктаторства в СССР, а тим більше збагатив марксистсько-ленінську пропоганду новими наклепами большевизму і поробив найновіші зміни в економічному, політичному й ідеологічному житті та в галузі міжнародних відносин.

Підсумки XXII з'їзду КПРС Хрущова, було утворення світової системи соціялізму, колоніяльна система імперіялізму і нове загострення його загальної кризи. Програма комуністичної партії СССР формолює висновок щоб "знищити війни й утвердити вічний мир на земді — історична місія комунізму".

На цьому з'їзді КПРС М. С. Хрущов говорив, щоб: "В сучасних умовах відкрилася перспектива добитися мирного співіснування на весь період, протягом якого мають знайти своє розв'язання соціяльні і політичні проблеми, що нині розділяють світ". Він тут напевно думав пляном ВКП(б) СССР, щоб заграбити цілий світ і встанови комуністичний мир на весь період, щоб християнські держави не псували проблем червоного Кремля, які розділяють комуністичний світ — пропаганду марксизму-ленінізму.

В програмі КПРС цього з'їзду говорилося про діяльність ВКП(б), що: людство здобуло реально існуюче соціялістичне суспільство і перевірену на досвіді науку про побудову соціялізму. Стовповий шлях до соціялізму прокладено". Там зовсім немає згадки, що до побудови соціялізму. Кремлівські тирани СССР гнали примусовою пропагандою та зброєю, тому й цей "стовповий шлях прокладено" через соціялізм аж до комунізму.

Атеїстичні філософи комунізму (Маркс, Енгельс і Ленін) зовсім геніяльно передбачували, що після повалення капіталізму нове суспільство неминуче повинно перейти фазу соціялізму й комунізму. Соціялізм створює передумови комунізму та є базою, фундаментом і власною основою комунізму. Перехід від соціялізму до комунізму відбувається без революційної ломки соціялістичних виробничих відносин, а шляхом всебічного розвитку й удосконалення існуючої соціялістичної основи. Перехід від соціялізму до комунізму носить безперервний і поступовий характер. Соціялізм переростає в Комунізм.

Програма КПРС чітко визначає два послідовні етапи переходу від соціялізму до комунізму (Див. Г. М. Мултих про XXII з'їзд КПРС — стор. 25).

Протягом першого етапу десятиріччя (1961-70 рр.) СССР заплянував створити таку матеріяльно-технічну базу комунізму, щоб перевершити по виробництві продукції наймогутніші і найбагатші ЗДА, а тим самим підвищити матеріяльний добробут і культурно-технічний рівень трудящих СССР. Всі колгоспи і радгоспи перетворяться у високопродуктивні та високодохідні господарства. Тоді будуть задоволені потреби радянських людей, зникне важка фізична праця, а СССР стане країною найкоротшого робочого дня.

СССР по вимогам партії ВКП(б) політично перетворив у робочу фізичну силу та "пропагандивним язиком" хотіли перемогти у своїм "соцзмаганню" так багаті економічно ЗДА в модерних часах. ВКП(б) СССР фантазують за філософією основників і творців комунізму, щоб своїми фіктивними сателітами заволодіти ЗДА та "визволити" мирне населення ЗДА тим "сибірським сонцем", щоб і вони мали короткий день у своїх колгоспах і заводах, а ночами треба працювати для експансії СССР та політики жидівського комунізму в цілому Божому світі...

За такими програмами з'їздів КПРС вони визволяли Україну і інші держави Европи та систематично "перетворювали куркулів у жебраків", а для патріотів церкви й України знайшли "короткий день Сибіру", тощо.

На другому етапі десятиріччя (1971-80 рр.) фантазійно завершено створення матеріяльно-технічної бази комунізму СССР, забезпечено всьому населенню Радянського Союзу достаток матеріяльних і культурних благ та радянське суспільство безпосередньо підійде до здійснення принципу розподілу по потребах. Тоді й здійсниться поступовий перехід до єдиної загальнонародньої власності большевиків СССР, де в основному буде побудоване комуністичне суспільство та завершиться побудова комуністичного суспільства. В остаточному висновку зафіксаційовано (закріплено), щоб протягом десятиріч створити матеріяльно-технічну базу комунізму. На з'їзді КПРС М. С. Хрущов запевняв своїх "Кривавих тиранів", що через 20-ть років СССР вироблятеме майже в два рази більше промислової продукції, ніж нині виробляється в усьому несоціялістичному світі. Виробництво засобів виробництва зросте приблизно 7 разів та СССР матиме основні виробничі фонди в 5 разів більші, ніж ... пер і т. ін.

Хоч "колгоспний лад" був накреслений Леніним, історично перевірений і відповідаючий вимогам поступового переходу селянства з соціялізму до комунізму, все таки пляни виробництва двадцятилетки СССР не зростуть у 7 разів та не буде виробничих фондів у 5 разів більше в майбутньому, ніж тепер у СССР! З часом переходу населення СССР в колгоспи, артілі й т. ін., вони втратили свої матеріяльні блага, а прямо "голодні, босі й обдерті" стали завершувати пляни побудови жидівського комунізму й хижацької шайки червоного Кремля. З ходом часу й подій вони забували про створені БОЖІ багатства, а "ясне сонічко Кремля" зовсім їх не гріло й радости не було...

Програма КПРС глибоко розкриває перспективи розвитку націй по шляху до комунізму. Положення про шлях села до кумунізму є творчим розвитком леніського кооперативного пляну та великим вкладом у теорію наукового комунізму. Виховання комуністичної пропаганди передбачає формування нового світогляду, трудове виховання, розвиток пролетарського інтернаціоналізму і соціялістичного патріотизму, подолання пережитків капіталізму в свідомості і поведінці людей, викривання буржуазної (заможні горожани середнього стану) ідеології та утвердження комуністичної моралі (Г. М. Мунтих — стор. 35).

Можна сміливо сказати, що педагогічна праця СССР є тісно зв'язана з марксистською логікою та педагогією молоді. Марксистська філософія є основним фактором комуністичного виховання та атеїстичної молоді в СССР.

Програма КПРС підкреслює, що народи можуть прийти до соціялізму тільки в результаті соціялістичної революції і здійснення диктатури пролетаріяту марксистсько-ленінської партії є необхідною умовою соціялістичної революції та побудови соціялізму-комунізму.

Большевицька вулиця про це добре знає, бо під покришкою соціялізму виростав комунізм. Соціялісти західної Европи робили революції під червоним прапором марксизму, бо тільки робітники соціалістичної економіки могли тоді легально розвиватися та конспіративно конструктувати жид. комунізм серед християнських народів.

Програма КПРС XXII з'їзду ВКП(б) намітила принцип виборності та звітовності в партійних організаціях знизу аж до верху (армія, флот і т. ін.). Приказано підвищувать роль партійних зборів, конференцій, з'їздів, пленумів партійних комітетів та інших колективних органів; створювати сприятливі умови для вільного і ділового обговорення в партії питань її політики та практичної діяльності, для проведення товариських дискусій у спірних або досить ясних питаннях. Програма та статут КПРС по затвердженні XXII-ним з'їздом є пройняті піклуванням про підвищення звання комуніста і ролі партії в житті радянського народу та ідеям святого служіння партії народові СССР (Г. М. Мунтих — стор. 43).

Вони пляново замовчують правду, а поширюють брехню для всіх християн у світі. Всі принципи виборності й звітовності були та є секретом керовані Чека, ГПУ, НКВД і КГБ та визначними членами ВКП(б) в СССР. Всякі публічні зустрічі з мирним населенням Радянського Союзу були та є строго керовані партійним комітетом СССР, без контрреволюційних питань і дискусій. Партійці виховують і вчать успішно тільки інших партійців, щоб вони могли зайняти тиранські позиції в побудові жидівського комунізму в СССР та й у цілому Божому світі.

Конструкторами програм КПРС всіх з'їздів ВКП(б) і поліційних загонів та диктатори сателітних держав і комуністичних країн світу були жиди. Вони всі є двигунами й пропагандистами жидівсько-комуністичної партії у світі, які маніфестують за "Маніфестом комуністичної партії Маркса Енгельса та за партійними "Інтернаціоналами" і посмертними програмовими документами Леніна-Сталіна-Хрущова.

Вони пропагандивно чваняться, що деякі німецькі часописи про їхній «справедливий комуністичний рай» писали: "Хто говорить про мир і здійснює воєнні провокації, хто говорить про оборону і загрожує підготовкою агресії, хто базікає про свободу і збирається посягнути на незалежність інших, той не повинен дивуватися тому, що від нього відвертаються і виступають проти нього" — ця дефініція вповні відповідає правді різникам та агресорам СССР. "Сама свиня рве мішок та сама кричить!" — говорили наші селяни на Рідних землях автохтонної України. Вся хрущовська пропаганда й діяльність є систематичним маятником розбудови жидівського комунізму та паразитом атеїстичної етики й моралі комунізму.

Хоч курщинський Хрущов натягав на себе вишиваную сорочку для пропагандивної мастки в Києві на пленумі, проте він напевно «смердів комуністичним жидом», який сам катував українське християнсько-національне населення. Немає він жодного "братерського почуття слов'янських народів", а є професійним тираном і катом України й усіх сателітніх країн СССР. Напевно колись епохальна кліка ВКП(б) СССР "посіче його на партійний суп", або викинуть теж його кости з кремлівського мавзолею... "Катюзі по заслузі!!!".

Коли схарактеризуємо розвиток комунізму в світі, то можемо сміло сказати, що тільки нащадки хозарів і мориків (частина маврітанського населення, що залишилася після витиснення маврів — берберсько-арабсько-жидівське населення античних часів Півн.-Зах. Африки-Мавританії) — жиди були основниками і конструкторами комунізму. Наприклад:

НІМЕЧЧИНА.

За часів цісаря Вільгельма робітники зорганізували найсильнішу соціялістичну партію в Німеччині тодішньої Европи. Атентати анархістів на цісаря Вільгельма Отто Бісмарк (німецький політичний діяч, який писав, що: "Сто професорів — Батьківщина пропаща") приписував соціялістам, тому й він заборонив всі соціялістичні товариства, збори, часописи і т. ін.

Серед німецьких соціялістів виріс Маркс та Енгельс — жиди, які вперше в світі оснували комунізм, підготовили та були провідниками революції марксистів Німеччини, а відтак вони теж допомагали у плянуванні більшевицької жовтневої революції Леніна у Росії. Вони обид-ва "жували" філософію Гегеля та Фаербаха (німецькі соціялісти), які більше писали про марксизм,ніж сам Маркс у "Капіталі". А. Булгаков (СССР) висловлювався, що "більше пізнати марксизм з творів Фаербаха, ніж з трьох томів найважнішої праці Маркса про капі[illegible]". Маркс цілим серцем ненавидів священників і звав їх [illegible]ми" (Лист до Енгельса 25 вересня 1869 року). Не[illegible]ником БОГА та людства був теж і Ленін, який у Лондоні, Англія (1900-03 рр.) видавав газету "Іскра" та провадив цілим комуністичним рухом за кордоном аж до жовтневої революції в Росії. Ленін писав до Горького: "Якенебудь поняття про всякого бога, навіть забавки, це все невисказана огида, це зараза" (Див. "Комунізм і Релігія" о. Василя Ваврика, ЧСВВ — стор. 9-10).

Хоч населення Німеччини й Австрії жорстоко засудило свох марксистів-революціонерів та вважало за ганебність і паразитизм християнської Німеччини, проте Східня Німеччина знову опинилась у лапах жидівських комуністів після капітуляції Райху А. Гітлєра 8-го травня 1945 року.

В східньому Берліні засів Кривавий Волтер Ульбріхт і комуністична поліція (ВОПО), які по-кремлівському контролюють східньою Німеччиною та 16-ть мільйоновим німецьким населенням (3½міл. від 1958 р. в[illegible] до Зах. Німеччини). Чарівна вулиця Бернауера в східньому Берліні осталася за «залізною стіною» волі цілого німецького населення серед марксистського комунізму. Німці вигодували у своїй державі жидівсько-комуністичних потвор, а тепер ними поневолені й гинуть у "кігтях" червоних комуністів східньої Німеччини! Вони будували "Нову Европу" гітлєризму серед поневолених християнських народів в Европі, а не зробили порядку зі своїми марксистами, через яких програли свою останню велику війну та расову політику. Колись гітлєрівці по-звірячому знущалися з християнським народом свого Райху (Велико-Держава), а тепер не знайдуть серед них дипломатичних симпатій будьякого державного шляху на майбутнє!..

Тотальне зелено-юніформне ВОПО озброєне в автомати й кулемети (як КГБ СССР) та Німецька Комуністична Партія (ДКП) виховують німецьку молодь на тиранів, які будуть нищити свій народ, релігійний культ, національні традиції, тощо. Вони зовсім не вірять у "німецьке братерство", а щують своїх собак на своїх "братів і сестер по крові", кидають між них газові бомби по вулицях, від яких їхнє населення "сліпне від сліз" та стріляють на поліцію Зах. Німеччини і т. ін. Теперішнє 74-ри мільйонове населення цілої Німеччини вже не знайде так скоро знова спільної ідеї до плянованої мети свого християнського народу...

Колись гітлєрівське гестапо било гарапами своїх підданих, щувало собаками, душило в газівнях Райху, а тепер їхнє ВОПО робить подібне з німецьким християнським населенням з наказу марксистсько-хрущовських різників червоного Кремля. — Це мабуть теж Божа кара, зіслана Богом на німецьке населення за їхні гріхи.

Комунізм треба нищити там, де він зароджується! Тепер він уже зріс у велику силу, отже треба дипломатичної християнської співпраці всіх християн у світі, щоб їх перемогти у майбутній війні... В. М. Молотов (міністер іноземних справ в СССР) у 1946 році відмітив: "Що станеться в Берліні — це станеться й у Німеччині, а що станеться в Німеччині — це станеться й в Европі!" Думаю, що "лисий дядя" не помиляється, бо бере це практично з попередніх марксистсько-ленінівських революцій, які пляново все "вибухають у християнському світі"...

Сам Гаррі С. Труман декларував (проголосив), що: "Росіяни є найбільшими брехунами в світі. Вони ломлять кожну свою обіцянку в Постамі". А Дін Раск (державний секретар ЗДА) твердить, що: "Хрущов говорить багато про компетицію (змагання, конкуренція) миру, але Берлін знов доказав забагато компетицій до советських шпунків". (Див. «Холодна Війна» Й. С. Клярка, американського сепатора Пенсильванії — стор. 79 і 81). Видно, що Берлін заграє тов. Хрущову на нервах до здійснення жидівсько-комуністичних плянів червоного Кремля. Він здібний навіть "прилатати" німцям якогось політичного "прогула" та може прийти знов до якогось конфл... в Німеччині чи й в Европі...

За приклад можемо сміло згадати революту у східньому Берліні 16-17 червня 1953 року, де німецька молодь кидала камінням на советські танки, а 75-ть тисячна група демонстрантів хотіла викинути управління червоного Ульбріхта в східньому Берліні. Цей бунт (повстання) східніх німців був придушений російськими танками й військом, очевидно на алярмове замовлення управління Ульбріхта.

Хоч німці здорові, динамічні й енергійний народ і Зах. Німеччина (58 міл. населення) є членом Об'єднаних Націй (ОН), все таки їм буде тяжко знова "встати на ноги" серед розчленування їхніх земель. Згідно з комуністичною пропагандою, Зах. Берлін є центром шпіонажі, турботи й ворогують проти жидівсько-комуністичної "... "бодо-любної" СССР.

Площа Маркса-Енгельсса в східньому Берліні є ...руджена за пляном площі червоного Кремля, де стоять вилиті чи збудовані різні фантастичні тирани всього християнського населення у світі. Народня Поліція Східньої Німеччини зовсім не відрізняється від Гестапо (не носять лише свастики) Гітлєра. Гітлєрівські СС та СД перетрансформовані в ССД та ВОПО, а їхні молодечі організації в юніформах мають таку саму мілітарну якість і смак. Всюди там поширена пропаганда Хрущова-Ульбріхта та німецька молодь східньої Німеччини виховується в жидівсько-комуністичному дусі інтересів червоного Кремля.

ЕСПАНІЯ.

Після арабсько-еспанської війни в 1492 р. еспанці розселили по цілій Еспанії морисків (були остаточно вигнані з Еспанії в 1609-10 рр.), нащадків давніх арабів і жидів, які прийняли християнську віру, але все таки трималися давніх звичаїв.

Серед двомільйонових монархістів Еспанії після володіння короля Альфонса XII (1886-1931) було багато жидів-марксистів, які навіть зайняли місто на кілька годин і вивісили червоний прапор над мійською палатою (ратушем). Там уже було дві комуністичні юнії (ПОУМ і ПСУС).

З кінцем жовтневої революції в Росії було ув'язнено 30 тисяч політичних в'язнів (включно з усіма соціялістичними лідерами управління Каталана). В'язні робили параду під червоним прапором марксизму, співали "Інтернаціонал" та вигукували: "Любов Живуча Росії!" Коаліція (об'єднання) соціялістів і комуністів була частиною з'єднаного фронту Йосипа Сталіна.

Комунізм в Еспанії почав зростати в силу. Місяць по лютневих виборах було вбито 50 людей і 200 ранених у бійці. Сімнадцять церков та одинадцять монастирів було спалено, одночасно з 33-ома домами часописів та 22-ома іншими будинками. Тузіни фашистів було арештовано, як теж опинився в тюрмі сам Прімо де Ривера Мігуель (еспанський генерал і диктатор 1923-30 рр.). По деяких містах Еспанії було протестовано, що Росія переслала $200 тисяч на фінансування еспанської революції.

Ларго Кабалєро (один із групи Каталана) підчас ув'язнення зажерливо читав про Маркса та Леніна, де було сказано, що: "Коли популярний фронт проломиться, тоді тріюмф пролетаріяту буде певний".

В московському Кремлі сотки тисяч комуністів проголосили 200 тисяч рублів допомоги, щоб тим допомогти еспанським робітникам та російські вантажні поїзди були вже на шляху до еспанських портів. Французькі міліціонери були незграбні та нездібні до властивої обслуги артилерії. Тисячі німецького й італійського війська воювали по стороні ген. Франка та їхні держави постачали йому літаки й пілотів. Комуністи з СССР вс[illegible]али до міліції лоялістів і творили Інтернаціональну Бр[illegible] в якій було багато охотників-симпатиків із інших [illegible] світу (Франція, Італія, Англія, ЗДА й інші). Лише 600 ірляндських католиків були гідними серед бригадирців, які воювали по стороні ген. Франка.

При кінці серпня пролетаріяти спалили в Еспанії понад 200 церков та "заіскрили" грабування релігійних будинків і вбивство службовців (клерків). Вони забрали 8 міл. пезів із корсетів (стаників) сестер єпископа Джена (Йоана) та коло 40 міл. пезів забрали з церкви. Понад 40 генералів було викинено з армії під контролею республіканців, а більшість офіцерів було рекрутовано з анархістів, соціялістів та комуністів Маркса.

Священники й монахині (черниці) були помордовані та спотворювані (покалічені). Монахині були брутально згвалтовані (пірвані), а інші були замордовані, що не хотіли одружитися з міліціонерами. Інші свящ[illegible]ники серед лайок анархістів були немилосердно побиті [illegible] юрбою (товпою).

Пролетаріяти марксизму заводили вже частинно колгоспи, комунізували банки, залізниці й т. ін. Поети (Т. С. Ельйот, В. Г. Ауден, Стефан Спендер) бачили в еспанських робітників дух демократії та писали ліричні данини (спогади чи праці) після їхніх прізвищ. Науковці (Брітімер, Галдейн) прибували до Еспанії зі своїми дружинами, щоб бути близько своїх синів, які вступили до Інтернаціональної Бригади.

Гітлер і Муссоліні достарчали ген. Франкові воїнів і воєнне знаряддя (зброю, новий повітряний флот), а Росія (СССР) слала свої танки. В перших двох місяцях цивільної війни в Еспанії було 85 вбитих і 300 тисяч ранених. Жінки-міліціонери в Більбао (континент звірства — атроситизм) заатакували корабель із невільниками та замордували 210 жертв, включно з 30-тьома священниками. Премієром став Ларго Кабаллеро та держава була пильно контрольована комуністами.

Пізніше комуністичний фронт почав послаблятися та навіть деякі міліціонери почали перекрадатися через границю до націоналістів. Червоний Хрест підчислив, що пів мільйона війська загинуло в цій війні та Мадрид був не забраний. Нью-Йорк Тайм поміщував, що 25 тисяч населення було вбитих лоялістами в Мадриді за політичні та релігійні справи.

Кривава Цивільна Війна Еспанії в 1939 році фінально була переможена (програла СССР, Мексіко та інші охотники-комуністи багатьох держав) повстанцями ген. Ф. Франка й здушено марксистську голоту та шайку червоного Кремля в християнській Еспанії.

Хоч священник переконував еспанського філософа Ортегу-і-Гассет перед його смерттю помиритися з церквою та навіть уділив розгрішення «Суб кондіціоне», все таки ніхто не знає його останніх думок. У великій німецькій енциклєопедії Брокгавза (том 8) знаходимо, що його філософія культури є не християнська, само думення в цивілізації та християнству без БОГА. Маси Ортеги — це московський большевизм. (Див. "Шлях Перемоги" з 8-го червня 1962 р.). Тому, що еспанський католицизм його не вдоволяв і не переконував, отже він відчужувався від Церкви та напевно був замішаний серед червоних катів. Думаю, що його теж треба зачислити до грішників Еспанії та до тиранів-ворогів добрих християн католицької Еспанії.

ФРАНЦІЯ.

В 1871 році, коли ще німецькі війська були в Франції, соціялісти захопили владу в Парижі. Проголошено комуністичний лад і йшли змагання ввести в життя соціялістичну програму, як це було в 1848 році, згідно з "комуністичним маніфестом", що його видав Маркс ще 18[illegible] року в Парижі. Але по двох місяцях і в кровавих [illegible] уряд розгромив комуністів та Франція стала ліберальною республікою.

В 1905 році дійшло до відділення церкви від держави. В XX столітті монархісти втратили вплив, а соціялістичні партії набирали більшого значення. Отто Бісмарк (німецький політичний діяч) боявся, щоб Франція не відплатилася Німеччині за 1870 рік (Франція програла війну з Німеччиною та Тієр склав мир із німцями 1871 р.) та старався не допустити до французько-російського порузуміння, бо боявся війни з Францією та Росією. Коли Отто Бісмарк у 1890 році усупив із становища канцлєра, тоді Франція підписала мир із Росією, що тривав аж до І-ої світової війни та дав змогу Франції повести відплатну війну проти Німеччини 1914 року (фортеця м. Вердун здержала дальшу німецьку агресію).

Таким чином, зростає в силу традиційна комуністична партія, стає одною з найсильніших комуністичних партій у західній Европі. З наказу Москви вони влаштовували всякі демонстрації по містах, робили плянові саботажі у Франції та багато французів-комуністів брало збройну участь в еспанській революції проти ген. Франка в 1936-39рр. Жиди-комуністи франції знищили нам Головного Атамана військ УНР Симона Петлюру, хотіли насильно депортувати наших робітників у Францію до СССР, тощо. Вони пляново робили всякі захолоти у Франції та не давали там спокою християнам.

Комуністична партія у 1946-47 рр. нарахувала майже мільйона членів та під час голосування в держав-вона займала четверте місце, але добробут і стабілізація ген. де Голя зменшила силу при слідуючих виборах до 18%. Дня 22-го лютого 1949 року французький комуністичний лідер Мавріс Торез в публічній доповіді здекларував, що члени комуністичної партії Франції ніколи не воюватимуть проти СССР вразі їхнього наїзду (агресії).

Не помогли всякі заходи комуністів у Франції, включно з плянованим атентатом на президента де Голя (французька поліція заарештувала 6 осіб, які брали участь у цьому атентаті). Не перемогла комуністична шайка кремлівської п'ятої колони, які паразитують у Франції та "самі себе кусають", про що згадав д-р Дмитро Донцов у своїй праці: "Хробак, що сам себе кусає за хвіст" (Нітше).

ІТАЛІЯ.

Античний римський поет і основник епікурської філософії Люкретій (99-55 рр. перед Нар. Христа) був матеріялістом і писав, що: "Людина є сама собі Богом". Італія є державою, злученою з 19-ох районів, якої населення жило дещо бідніше, ніж тепер. Тоді ще католицька віра Італії не мала ще такого популярного респекту до Папів та їхніх традицій і вірних. По заняттю папської території італійцями у 1870 році Папа Пій IX, як і його наслідники уважали себе за в'язнів і не признавали італійської держави.

В ході подій і впливам монархістів, романська Італія почала «засмічуватись» комунізмом у всіх місцевостях Італії та сьогодні має численну комуністичну партію в західній Европі. Партія марксистського покоління охоплює в Італії другу велику групу в їхньому парляменті. Італійців брали теж до державного управління (заходами християнськими й соціялістичними демократами)[1] й соціялістів, які попередньо були одними з найсильніших іноземних комуністів. Комуністичними лідерами Італії є Тальміро Толіятті та Люгі Лонго.

Толіятті є головою італійської комуністичної партії, який сильно критикував диктатора Хрущова, який шпигував його поетів, письменників та артистів. (Див. "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 17, 1963 р.).

В італійській комуністичній партії створилася фракція, яка підтримує політику Пекіну. Двох її видних представників центральний комітет партії виключив із членства (Див. "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 29, 1963 р.).

В лютому 1949 року Пальміро Толіятті, лідер комуністичної партії Італії здеклярував у публічній доповіді, що італійські комуністи не будуть воювати, якщо буде(вибухне) війна з СССР. (Див. "Холодна Війна" Діна й Геллєра, Дербі, Конн. ЗДА — стор. 32).

Сателітні держави СССР в Европі.

Польща: Поляки за своєї Річпополіти нищили українське населення з релігійних і політичних причин своєї політики, не передбачуючи своїх дійсних ворогів.

У 1939 році багато визначних поляків тікало на Волинь, сподіваючись допомоги від большевиків. Большевицькі танкісти повивішували білі флаги на своїх танках і секретно обкружили поляків із кількох сторін, а опісля ударили по них із своїх танків, які тільки зводились польські "чолги" (танкетки) та їх гнули й дусили в них польську обслугу. Поляки, які не згинули в цій фронтовій масакрі, отже вони були помордовані у СССР.

У селі Катинь б. Смоленська большевики замордували 10,000 польських офіцерів і поховали їх в одній спільній могилі (знайдено німцями-окупантами у 1943 р.). В 1945 р. ціла Польща була вже в "лапах кремлівських хижаків" — тиранів, які знова нищили найкраще польське населення. В 1947 р. вже комуністи та ліві соціялісти мали свою повну контролю над цілою Польщою. З соціялізму вже перейшли до жидівського комунізму та поляки не мають уже теж релігійно-національного права. Владислав Гомулка (переміг у голосуванню 20-го січня 1957 р.) загострив курс щодо інтелектуалістів. Він теж заатакував увесь католицький епископат за Пастирський лист до вірних Польщі. (Див. "Гомін України" з 20-го липня 1963 р. та інша наша преса).

Про помилки поляків та про злочини Москви описували докладно польські поети й письменники (Антоні Слонімскі, Вітольд Вірпжа та інші) (прим. Артур Сендауер).

Кличі марксистських днів залишилися досі в Польщі. Парадокси карієри Владислава Гомулки були командою побудови сталінізму в Польщі. Владислава Гомулку поляки кликали "тітоістом", проте він остався матеріялістом і комуністом, якого не направила 6-річна в'язниця. Польська револьта була не менш кривавою за мадярську, де згинуло найкраще польське населення.

Комуністична Польща зовсім не відрізняється від інших сателітних держав СССР, які виконують програму 20-го комуністичного конгресу Москви.

Трапляється ще й тут у Торонті, що поляки відносяться ворожо до української мови та наших людей звуть большевиками, які не говорять по-польськки. Це абсурд деяких полякків.

Польський комуністичний уряд постановив зліквідувати всі католицькі церковні школи та дитячі садки (Див. "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 34, 1962 р.), що власне робиться за планами червоного Кремля.

Югославія: У цивільній югославській війні в 1943 році переможцями вийшли комуністи маршала Тіта. В 1944 р. російські й аліянтські війська злучилися з Тітом та прогнали геть німців. Тіто став прем'єром Югославії у 1945 році та перетрансформував її у комуністичну державу. Тітовці у 1946 році ув'язнили архієпископа Степінака в Загребу, а пізніше це діялося з епископами й священниками цілої Югославії.

Югославія є комуністичною нацією, а Тіто є визначним комуністом. Тіто перейшов комуністичний вишкіл у СССР та його комунізм майже не відрізняється від кремлівського та мають своїх тиранів і різників для свого християнсько-національного населення та ведуть [illegible]ості-ну політику проти Західніх Потуг. ЗДА помагали і [illegible]гають свому ворогові — тітовський Югославії, яка тримається СССР, як «воша кожуха». Югославія збагачує марксистський Комінтерн та з'їзди ВКП(б) своїми атеїстичними словами як партнер Комінтернів СССР.

Чехословаччина: Чехи жили під загрозою німців, вони перші скликали слов'янський конгрес у 1848 та звернулися до слов'янства зі закликом, щоб об'єднати свої сили і протиставитися німецькому "Дранг нах Остен" (Експанзія на Схід).

Чехи все симпатизували росіянам та їх нетерпляче ожидали. Коли наші українці тікали від большевиків на Захід, то чехи уважали нас за несвідомих політично й іронічно питалися наших людей: "Пречо утекати, то се наші слов'яни — русове?!" (Чого втікаєте перед нашими слов'янами-росіянами?!).

Коли "Червона Армія" вмаршерувала у [illegible]ю в 1945 році та в 1948 році зформувала сильну комуністичну партію під верховодством президента Клемента Готвальда та почала впливати на чеське населення своєю комуністичною пропагандою й звірською поведінкою серед їхніх жінок, отже чехи та їхня Руда Армада (Червона Армія) почали ненавидіти російських комуністів на своїй землі. Під час відвідин маршала Тіта Чехії в 1945 році вся чеська червона поліція та армія переслідували всіх чужинців на своїй території, а після цієї візити К. Готвальд дав розпорядження усім чужинцям (не горожанам Чехії) виїхати домів, отже народ тікав на Захід.

По схваленій комуністичний конституції в 1949 році почалось гірше комуністичне загострення на "збочників" комунізму, а за президента Антона Запотоцького почалося переслідування на чеських Соколів і католиків, отже чехи масово почали тікати на Захід теж, як і ми перед тим через їхню державу. Тоді напевно вони вже зрозуміли, чого ми скоріше за них утікали... Комуністичні чеські тирани виконують посередньо кремлівські плани комінтернів і жидівсько-комуністичних колон.

Словаки: жили в поганих умовах серед проклятого мадярофільства на Словаччині від 10-го століття аж до 1918 року. Словаччина дещо розвинулася за диктаторства "Батька Націоналістів" Йозефа Тісо, а у 1944 році попала знову під окупацію СССР. З введенням нової комуністичної конституції у 1948 році вони мали свою легіслятуру й кабінет, керований комуністами Словаччини, бо й там жило багато жидів-комуністів.

Інші держави Европи поза границями СССР.

Португалія: Були там часто економічні кризи та політична боротьба до 1908 року. На землях Португалії жили теж мориски (арабсько-жидівські племена, як й у Епанії, яких у 15-16 столітті прогнано з держави).

В Португалії були теж нелегальні акції жидівського комунізму та португальські марксисти брали також активну участь у цівільній війні проти ген. Франка в Еспанії до 1939 року.

Комуністична експлуатація (використування) не припинялася теж і в португальських колоніях (саботажі, спротиви і т. ін.).

В тижневику "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 33, 1963 року була згадка, що недавно в Португалії було заарештовано 9-ть членів нелегальної комуністичної партії, а в цьому числі дві жінки, де в протиакції був забитий один поліцай.

Бельгія: Промислова держава, в якій усе йде сильна боротьба партій (католики, ліберали та соціялісти). Жидівсько-комуністична там партія є дуже слабка. Останньої декади (десятиденки) в голосуванню в Бельгії комуністи одержали лише 2% голосів проти 7%.

Голляндія: торговельна та сільсько-господарська країна. Там була теж таємна сітка марксистсько-комуністичної мережі, якої агенти Кремля знищили нам теж 23 травня 1938 року в Роттердамі Провідника ОУН, полк. Євгена Коновальця (вбивником був Валюх).

Нідерляндія — жидівсько-комуністична партія там слабка. В останніх державних виборах комуністи осягнули менше 3% голосів.

Данія — жидівсько-комуністичний рух рідко помічається.

Люксенбург — жидівсько-комуністична партія там є легальна, нараховуючи около 500 членів.

Норвегія, Швеція та Фінляндія — живуть під "тінею" СССР, проте жидівсько-комуністичний рух там є менш помітний. У тижневику "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 27, 1963 року було подано, що у Швеції заарештовано полковника летунства Веннерштрема, який продовж 15-ть років був совєтським шпіоном. Водночас уряд викинув із Швеції двох совєтських дипломатів — військового аташе Ніколського та першого секретаря амбасади Барановського — за шпигунську діяльність.

Швайцарія: задержала невтральність від віденського конґресу з 1815 року. Незалежна від 1648 року, поділена на 22 кантони (федеративних округів), де переважає протестантизм (57%) серед німецько-французько-італійського населення цілої держави. Прояви жидівського комунізму там майже не помітні від еміґрації Леніна.

Австрія: Втратила політичне значення по 1848 році, чого причиною була марксистська революція і воєнні невдачі та втрати. Під впливом революції 1848 року вона надавала й касувала свої конституції в 1848-67 рр. Австрійський парлямент став тереном найгірших в Європі парляментарних боїв і сварок та Австрія була нездатна повести якусь здорову політику, бо не проявляла провідної ідеї, отже всі народи були невдоволені та ворогували між собою. Розібрана чотирьома державами у 1945 році, де є часто видні жидівсько-комуністичні рухи й агенство СССР. В "Шляху Перемоги" ч. 35, 1962 р. було опубліковано, що в Австрії заарештовано 13-ть осіб, які належали до советської шпигунської мережі.

Греція: Стала самостійною по 1829 році. Має обмежені природні багатства, проте розвинула торгівлю. Від Труманової Доктрини від 1947 року дістає допомогу від ЗДА (допомога анти-комуністам). Мала великі фінансові видатки в холодній війні й у протикомуністичнім повстанню у 1950 році. Вона є одною із европейських сил, яка стоїть віч-на-віч у холодній боротьбі з Югославією, Ромунією та Булгарією. У 1941 році зорганізувалась грецька повстанська армія ("ЕЛАС" — комуністи; "ЕДЕС" — християни), які за допомогою британців в 1944 році прогнали гітлерівців із Греції. Вона має т. зв. «Спільний Базар» із комуністами з 1963 р.

Туреччина: Не змінювала своєї політики до підбитих народів та у війнах турки проявляли жахливий фанатизм проти християн. Вона перестала існувати як европейська держава та їхньою столицею є Анкара в Малій Азії.

Туреччина була невтральною в II Світовій Війні, а в 1945 році стала по стороні аліянтів, відтак вступила до ОН та давала своє військо проти північно-корейських комуністів у 1950-53 рр. У Туреччині є малі прояви комуністичних рухів.

Всі слов'яни жили під терорством марксистських тиранів і кремлівських різників. Всюди жиди й росіяни займали головні державні позиції та нищили незамітно інші нації.

Хорвати: терпіли політично серед мадярської нації, але по I Світ. Війні ввійшли у партнерство Югославію. До спільної Югославії належали теж і словінці, які провадили боротьбу з німцями й італійцями та серби, які мали свою державу — Чорногору та воювали з турками й австрійцями. Вони мали піддержку від Росії у I Світ. Війні (у 1914 р. сербський студент убив австрійського престолонаслідника в Сараєві — столиці Боснії, це дало початок до світової війни). Хорвати, серби й словінці у 1945 році ввійшли як федеративні республіки під Югославію маршала Тіта — визначного комуніста СССР.

Болгари: Виграли війну з турками, але дійшло їм до конфлікту з румунами, сербами та греками, що було їхньою невдалою поразкою.

У вересні 1944 року СССР оголосила війну Болгарії та напали на її територію. Проросійська коаліція [illegible]яла державний кабінет, але його змінив комуністичний [illegible]жим. Болгарська монархія була скасована, а цар Сімеон був звільнений із свого престола у 1946 році.

Болгарський комуністичний апарат марксистського Комінтерну працює за вказівками Кремля, як й інші сателітні держави СССР. Болгарському летунові Мішові Салякові вже доказано теж шпигунство. Знайдений у літаку фільм виявив військові споруди НАТО в Італії (Див. "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 5, 1962 р.).

Македонія: Була все під окупацією своїх сусідів (турки, болгари, греки, югославці) та їхні секретні організації не мали сили визволитись з-під чужого ярма. Серед македонських християн жили ще й жиди, які під впливом бол-гарських комуністів нищили релігійно-національне македонське населення.

Українці й білоруси перші впали жертвою марксистсько-ленінських тиранів після жовтневої вільшевицької революції, яких морило штучним голодом, катовано по тюрмах, тяжких роботах і на Сибірі. За такими варварськими політичними комуністичними методами всяких їхніх колон гине найкраще слов'янське населення Европи. Крім балканських слов'ян пропадають теж у "лапах червоного Кремля" й інші балканські християни.

Мадярщина: В агрокультурній Мадярщині жило також багато жидів, які засмічували найбільші міста багатої країни. Серед мадяронів було багато жидів, які допомагали мадярським нацистам вішати по гілляках дерев наших січовиків Карпатської України, як теж вони були своєрідними доносщиками до марксистсько-комуністичної партії Мадярщини.

Вісім мільйонова армія повстанців не могла перемогти большевицької сили, яка мала там у боях 310 танків, 250 озброєних автомашин та 10,000 танків. Большевики змасакрували все за кілька днів.

Християнсько-мадярське населення не може забути жидівсько-комуністичного тероризму у мадярсько-совєтській революції, яка почалася 24-го жовтня 1956 року. Беля Кун, лідер комуністичної революції вимордував сотки тисяч християн у Східній Европі, замордований був теж ним мадярський прем'єр Імре Нагі.

Румунія: Румунська самостійна монархія по Кримській війні була дуже занедбаною рільничою країною, мала великі суспільні різниці та пануюча кляса (каста) знущалася над бідним і невинним українським населенням (т. зв. сараками). Румунська сігуранта (поліційний орган) зчиняла бійки по українських домах Буковини, а відтак замикали наші національні доми й забороняли навчання українською мовою, тощо. Йон Антонеску захопив державну силу, вигнав геть Короля, реставрував короля Михайла та почав своє диктаторство у 1940-44 рр.

У 1945 році до влади прийшли комуністи, примусили короля Михайла зречися корони у 1947 році та у 1948 році створили румунську комуністичну республіку, де румунські жиди та цигани почали нищити старих па[illegible] Румунія є теж посереднім "стахановцем і п'ятиколонником" большевицького Кремля та тираном своїх християн.

Албанія: Задержала свій індоєвропейський порядок комуністичної республики СССР, проте переважають там жидівсько-комуністичні рухи у користь Кривавого Кремля. Комуністичне тиранство, як у всіх республиках СССР та напруження з Югославією там загострилося.

Балтійці: Як і балканські держави зкомунізувалися на зразок Кремля, так і завмирає релігійно-національна душа Балтику.

Литва: Була примушена до військових баз у 1939 році, а у 1940 році була окупована советами й прилучена до СССР. Литовське жидівство ставало на услугах окупантів, а тим більше большевикам. Багато населення Литви вивезено у сибірські тайги.

Лотва (Латвія): большевики напали там вперше у 1919 р., що закінчилося перемир'ям у 1920 році. Совєти держали там військові бази в 1939 році, а у 1940 р. окупували її зовсім і перетворили цілу державу у латвійську совєтську республіку.

Естонія: Естонці — це нащадки німецьких лютеранів, які переважно були ненажерливими гітлерівськими вислужниками. Большевики одержали там військові бази у 1939 році, а в 1940 році окупували цілу Естонію та перетворили її в естонську совєтську республіку.

Большевики за марксистсько-ленінськими пляна-ми зкомунізували всі сателітні держави СССР. За такими пля-нами вони послабляють майже всі християнські держави в світі та хочуть поневолити їх своїм тиранством.

АЗІЯ.

Китай і Корея: В старо-цивілізованім і культурнім Китаю вже в 1946 році було видно комуністичні рухи (прим. бойкот у національній асамблеї, тощо), ведені за пляном марксистсько-ленінського Комінтерну. Комунізм у Китаю найбільше поширювали залізничники СССР, які для легшої своєї торговельної комунікації провели залізничний шлях аж до центральної частини Китаю.

Основником і лідером китайської комуністичної партії був Мао Тсе-Тунґ, який став головою центральної ради правління Китайської Народньої Республики в 1949 році. У вересні 1949 року комуністи проголосили свої закони в цілому Китаю та створили Китайську Народню Республику, а Чоу Ен-Ляй став прем'єром червоного Китаю. Комуністи почали секретно підготовляти китайців і північних корейців до громадянської війни з Південною Кореєю. Таким шляхом із холодної війни в Кореї прийшло до кривавої братовбивчої війни дня 25.6.1950 року. Північні корейці зробили інвазію на Півд. Корею о год. 10:10 рано корейського часу. По закінченню корейської війни большевицькі тирани загострили свою дисципліну у виконанні кримлівської п'ятилетки й почали переслідувати китайське населення релігійно й національно. На свою комуністичну кампанію СССР призначили 5 більйонів рублів дня 7.II.1959 року.

Населення Китаю доходить уже до 700 мільйонів, отже в Азії спокою не буде. Китайські комуністи плянують нову війну, щоб загарбати для Китаю більше землі й підкорити собі інші народи Азії. Їхні пляни є подиктовані за марксистськими догмами, які змагають до колективізму й комуністичної агрокультурної системи. В Китаю у 1963 році панувала катастрофальна посуха.

Така марксистська система урядування є теж у Півн. Кореї від 1-го вибору парляментом президента держави Сигмана Рі у 1948 році. По перемир'ю на 38-ій паралелі аліянти зробили з Північною Кореєю обмін [redacted] й раненими невільниками (аліянти звернули 5.800 комуністів, а комуністи звернули аліянтам 600 осіб). Півн. корейці шпіонують знова південних, трапляються братовбивчі жертви та нова колись може розгорітись громадянська війна, бо вони пляново хочуть загарбати Півд. Корею, як і червоні китайці загребли Формозу.

В тижневику "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 33, 1963 р. було поміщено, що китайські комуністи почали наново обстрілювати гарматнім вогнем прибережні острови Кімой та Матсу, які є в руках національного Китаю. Тому й у Півд. Кореї перебувало ще в 1963 р. дві дивізії війска ОН та 661,000 самоозброєних південних корейців. Все це робиться за протоколами з'їздів ВКП(б) і Комінтернів СССР. Щоб виграти майбутню війну з СССР, треба нам починати її від червоного Кремля, а червоний Китай втягнути в нову громадянську війну під контролею Об'єднаних Націй і співучасти всіх християн Азії. Тоді про[redacted]ся ввесь комунізм у світі та настане справжній мир [redacted] ЖІЙ ЗЕМЛІ. В здоровій пашій політиці християнських шляхів є ворогом власне жидівство — вороги й катюги ІСУСА ХРИСТА.

В "Шляху Перемоги" ч. 9, 1962 року була згадка, що група 52-ох китайських артистів сцени втекли човном до англійської бази Гонконґ, чого причиною був панівний голод.

Японія: Японці запозичили свою культуру від китайців у 6-8 столітту, а запозичений будизм був впливовий у Шінто (їхня тубільська релігія). Вони виграли війну з китайцями (1894-95 рр.) та росіянами (1904-5 рр.), отже Японія була встановленою світовою потугою.

Прояви комунізму в Японії більш помітні в робітничих організаціях, а їхня соціялістична партія є досить сильна. Прем'єр Мао Тсе-Тунг недавно сказав лідерам соціялістичної партії, що: "Боротьба проти ЗДА провадиться китайцями та японцями, яка мусить досягти мети". (Див. "Холодна війна" сенатора Пенсильванії, ЗДА — стор. 148).

Японські соціялісти й комуністи виражають більше повні бажання Японії, згідно з пропагандою червоного Китаю. В останніх виборах Японії ліво-флангова партія держави (злучена з робітничою партією) здобула лише 147 з 467 місць у Парляменті Японії (ліберальні демократи прем'єра Ікеди здобули 301 місць)! Згідно з прийняттям "Пакту оборони" в 1951 році, в Японії ще залишилося військо ЗДА. Японія може бути найкращим територяльним партнером ОН у майбутній війні з комуністами...

Індія: Вона є одною з найважливіших націй у вільній азіятській позиції — сказали знавці письменникам. Вона теж потенціонально є одною з найбільш впливових націй у світі.

Явагарляль Негру, Прайм Міністер 400-мільйонового населення Індії виглядає більше на славетного невтраліста, а Менона (міністер оборони) знова обвинувачують за про-комунізм (може й не правдиве).

Напружені відносини Індії з червоним Китаєм на пограничній полосі є до крайности незлюблячими. Комуністичні китайські війська знову вмаршували в 20-ти кілометрову зону, що простягається обабіч індійсько-китайського кордону (Див. "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 33, 1963 р.). Бувають часті перестрілки й жертви в людях. Жидівсько-комуністична шайка не дає спокою й віролюбним будистам Індії. В "Шляху Перемоги" було поміщено, що в Індії відбулися спільні маневри індійських, американських та британських летунських з'єднань.

У тижневику "Свобода" ч. 170, 1963 р. було надруковано, що сестра індійського прем'єра Неру, пані Віля Лакшмі Пандіт, яка очолює індійську делегацію на теперішню сесію Генеральної Асамблеї Об'єднаних Націй, заявила, що в Індії рахуються з можливістю нової з[illegible] атаки на Індію збоку комуністичного Китаю осінню цього року. В "Свободі" ч. 176, 1963 р. знаходимо, що Індія вислала в прикордонний з комуністичним Китаєм гімаляйський терен три нові дивізії та організує три дальші. Офіційно повідомлено, що більше як половина зброї і військового виряду, що приобіцяла Америка, вже наспіла до Індії, а решта наспіє в найкоротшому часі. На підставі вищезгаданих фраз можемо сміло сказати, що в Азії колись війна нова буде...

Індо-Китай: Там комуністичні рухи та большевицька пропаганда доходить через Китай. За марксистськими планами була зорганізована там червона партизанка й розгорілася громадянська війна. Доперва 20.1.1951 р. перервалася тяжка боротьба між французами та комуністичною партизанкою. Дня 21. 7. 1954 р. підписано перемир'я В'єтнаму, Ляосу та Камбоді в Женеві.

В "Шляху Перемоги" ч. 27, 1963 р. знаходи[illegible] в Ляосі далі відбуваються бої між військами невтралістів і прокомуністичними відділами Патет-Ляо, яким допомагають північно-в'єтнамські військові з'єднання. Прем'єр Ляосу Сувана Повма є заклопотаний цим конфліктом, бо може поновитися знова громадянська війна в Індо-Китаю. В Півд. В'єтнамі продовжуються операції проти комуністичних партизанів і переслідування туристів, чим займається комісія ОН. ЗДА будуть давати ще 2 роки військову допомогу для Півд. В'єтнаму (Див. наша преса).

Іран (Персія) межує з СССР та Каспійським морем. Іран — це країна рижу, опіюму й тютюну, багатства оливи та виробів гарних карпетів. Їхня держава була під окупацією Росії (втратила кавказькі землі за трактатом 1813 і 1828 рр.) та Британії. Іранці є віррующими шиїтами-сектаріянство магометанства, а держава є конституційною монархією.

Сильний націоналізм у 1951 році був підбурений комуністичною партією Тудега (переважно робітники джерел оливи). Там комунізм систематично збільшується та виконуються пляни марксистсько-ленінських пропагандистів і тиранів.

В "Шляху Перемоги" ч. 39, 1963 р. було поміщено, що Персія запевнила уряд СССР, що вона не дозволить жадній чужій державі побудувати ракетні бази на своїй території. А в "Ш. Перемоги" ч. 6, 1963-го року згадувалося, що Персія гостро запротестувала перед большевицьким урядом, бо під час студентських заколотів у Тегерані заколотникам помагали члени московського посольства.

Пакістан є домінією Великої Британії та до 900 мільйонової території належить до Індії. Прояви комунізму знаходять серед робітництва.

Авганістан, Непаль, Арабія та Сирія: Авганістан межує з СССР й антична країна — магометани. Комунізм помітний у північній частині. Королівська пара офіційно відвідала Німеччину.

Непаль має більше гіндуського населення та буддистів, які говорять тибете-бурманською мовою. Комунізм там майже не помітний.

Арабія — це антична країна на пустинях, де виростають кози та вівці. Комунізм там не проявляється.

Сирія — це антична країна, де комуністичні рухи майже не помітні. Недавно влада криваво здушила спробу державного перевороту противників сучасного режиму. Ген. Гафер (заступник прем'єра Сирії) заявив, що у спробі перевороту брали участь військовики й цивільні. Вони понесли повну невдачу: одні згинули в бою, інші є ув'язнені та стануть перед судом (Див. "Шлях П[illegible]и" ч. 30, 1963 р.).

Ірак має найбільше арабсько-мовних магометан. За підривну комуністичну роботу в Іраку засуджено шістьох старшин та одного цивіля на різні кари в'язниць (від 1 до 15 рр.). В Іраку страчено 28 комуністів, відповідальних за масакру в м. Кіркук 1959 року (Див. "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 27, 1963 р.).

Індонезія багата на підземні ресурси й агро-лісові продукти. Християнство та цивілізацію поширили там буддиські й гіндуські монахи з Індії. Комуністичні рухи та пропаганда помітні серед робітництва.

Ємен — це антична країна вздовж червоного моря, якої культура була описана ще в семітській мові з Шеби. Населення прийняло юдаїзм у 4-ому столітті перед Нар. Христа,. а в 1949-50 рр. більшість жидівського [illegible] було виваковано до Ізраїлю. Помітні там марк[illegible] комуністичні рухи й пропаганда. В "Шляху Перемоги" ч. 27, 1963 р. знаходимо, що в Ємені забито 4-ох і поранено 18-ть британських вояків, які помилково заблукалися туди з протекторату в Адені.

Аден є під британським протекторатом т. зв. "Бритіш Кравн Колоні", що сусідує з Арабським і Червоним морями, де була важна летунська база в II-ій світ. війні. Комуністичний рух там зовсім не помітний.

Лєбанон — це антична країна, керована ще гіттітами й арамейцями, яка була центром феонської цивілізації. Держава самостійна від 1.1.1914 року. Комуністичні рухи там мало помітні.

Трансйорданія (Юдея, Палестина, Ізраїль) — це гористий і неродючий континет Африки, де знаходиться наш християнсько-історичний Єрусалим. Ізраїль — це антична держава жидів, де вони ганебно роз'пяли на хресті Ісуса Христа. За президента Хаїма Вайцмана була сильна жидівська комуністична організація "Штерн". Жиди ведуть свою "гешефтову" (інтерес) політику та кооперують із комуністами.

Зилоти — ортодоксальні жиди вчинили заколоти в Єрусалимі, Яффі та Гайві, вимагаючи припинення діяльности деяких християнських громад. Зилоти вчинили напади на школи, церковні будинки, понищили приміщення, потурбувавши не лише монахинь і монахів, але й дітей шотляндської школи. Ортодоксальні жиди в той спосіб протестували проти християн, які, нібито, намагаються поширити свої впливи й серед жидів (Див. "Гомін України" ч. 39, 1963 р.).

Новий уряд в Ізраїлі створив Леві Ешколь, до якого ввійшла більшість міністрів із попереднього уряду Бен Ґуріона. Колишній ізраїльський прем'єр Бен Ґуріон закликав жидівський нарід забути і простити гітлерівське минуле Німеччини, жити з нею в згоді та дружньо співпрацювати (Див. "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 27, 1963).

Африка вже досягає до 200 мільйонового населення.

Єгипет — це найстарша антична держава Азії, якої історія є знана з 4241 р. перед Нар. Христа. Там навіть в околиці пірамід лікувалася поетеса Леся Українка. Комуністичні рухи й пропаганда помітна серед робітництва Єгипту. Єгипетський уряд заборонив літакам Південно-Африканської Республики перелітати понад територією Єгипту (Див. "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 33, 1963 р.).

Етопія: Згідно з традиціями, Етопія була основана в 1000 рр. перед Нар. Христа першим сином Соломона, уродженим королевою Шебою. Сприяння Етопії совєти виграли за зброю та допомогу, яка була вживана за комуністичну базу шпіонажі в Африці, звідки інші нації є загрожені (Див. "Ді Нейкед Райс оф Коммунізм оф [illegible] Л. Клавгогн", Дербі, Конн., ЗДА — стор. 159).

Ґвінея, Ґгана, Малі та Бельґійське Конго: Агенти СССР і червоного Китаю приплили теж до Ґвінеї (Конокри), де були совєтські військові бази. Совєтські агенти в такій силі переїхали до бельґійського Конґа, де пізніше прем'єр Патрис Люмумба (прокомуністичний лідер) був примушений їх звідтам вигнати.

Дня 21-го лютого 1961 року ОН були авторитетні вжити своїх сил, щоб предхоронити цивільну війну в Конго. Дня 2-го серпня 1961 р. Кирил Адоуля був ухвалений конґольським парляментом на прем'єра Конґольської Республики.

У тижневику "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 39, 1962 р. було поміщено, що в Півн. Катанзі (Белґ. Конго) прийшло в останньому часі знова до збройних сутичок між катанґівською жандармерією та військами центрального конґолезівського уряду. Большевики знали, що Катанга є [illegible] на підземні ресурси, тому й там запаразитували за плянами кремлівського Комінтерну.

В Малі, Ґгані та Ґвінеї тепер марксистський соціялізм майже завмер. Кваме Нкрумаг — перший президент ґганської республики декларував, що його держава є подібною до соціялізму. Ґвінея необхідно є контрольована совєтами.

Лівія, Тунізію, Марокко та Судан — це переважно пустелі, де жили в 17 стол. мориски (арабсько-жидівське населення та й досі є жидівсько-комуністичні впливи там із Франції, тощо.

ЗДА дня 7-го січня 1961 р. проголосили допомогу для незалежних держав Африки: Ляосу (Індо-Китай), Гани, Ґвінеї, Малі, Єгипту, Марокко та Каблянських островів (захід від Морокка), які тепер їм більше симпатизують, ніж цілому СССР.

В інших державах Африки комуністичні рухи та їхня пропаганда є зовсім менше помітні.

ЗДА: Американські жиди мають не менш 25,000 індивідуальних клюбів, товариств, груп і синагогів у ЗДА. Біля 4,000 зі цього є синагоги, понад 1,000.000 долярів зібрано контрибуції (вкладки, данини, оподаткування) річно американськими жидами, які допомагають та одержують ці організації. Американські жиди складаються з трьох визначних груп: еспанці, німці й росіяни. Найбільш авторитетними й етнічними там є еспанські й німецькі жиди, а російські жиди є нащадками хозарських і татарських кочовничих племен, які прийняли юдаїзм у 18 столітті.

Еспанські жиди: Першими жидами, які оселилися в американських колоніях прибуло оригінально з Еспанії та Португалії. Інші з них прибули шляхом через Півд. Америку т. зв. "Сефардичні жиди". Вони осіли спершу в Нью Амстердам (Нью Йорк) у 1654 році, а відтак в інших містах вздовж Атлянтичного побережжя. До американської революції їх було до 3,000 у ЗДА аж до 1815 року та майже всі були еспанського походження.

Багато з "Сефардичних жидів" були багатирями цього часу, між тим, як інші були мандруючими крамарями та малими торгівцями. Вони були насичені гордістю сефардичности та розглядали аристократство жидівства. Біля 1815 року серед них оселились "Ашкензичні жиди" (польсько-ніецькі родини), які дозволили "ашкензитам" відвідувати свої синагоги (еспанських жидів), однак вони держались окремо від них і противились їхнім шлюбнім спорідненню.

Німецькі жиди почали приїжджати у 1815 році. Сефардичні жиди мали свою зверхність до 1830 року, а відтак жиди німецького походження встановили свою більшість (приблизно 10,000 свого населення) у цьому році. Шефами синагог і цвинтарів були еспанські жиди. Єврейські школи були засновані у 1731 році. Похоронні заведення та харитатівні товариства були зорганізовані й інкорпоровані (об'єднані) у 1832-1847 рр. Еспанські жиди, культурні й горді постепенно збільшувалися інтегрально (нерозривно зв'язано) в життю колоній, відтак у життю республики. Втікаючи від політичних переслідувань Еспанії й Португалії, вони зростали в ЗДА з більшою пошаною.

Сефардичне Братство Америки об'єдналося у 1915 році за промоцією (підвищення) економічного, соціяльного, релігійного й наукового добробутів їхнього членства. Їхнім президентом є Давид Н. Барокас, а директором екзекутиви є Гіман М. Надярі. Їхне пресове видавництво зветься "Ель Германадо".

Центральна Сефардична Жидівська Суспільність Америки була стоваришена (об'єднана) у 1941 році за промоцією культури, релігії і добробуту сефардичних жидів. Їхнім президентом є Сімон С. Нессім, а секретарем є Віталіс Нахміас. Сімон С. Нессім є також президентом Світової Федерації Сефардичної Суспільності (Конгреса), об'єднаної у 1944 році. Директором Екзекутиви є Генріх В. Бессо. Ця організація змагає до об'єднання всіх сефардистів у світі за поміччю їхнього інтересу й добробуту.

Німецькі жиди: Між 1830-80 рр. 200 тисяч жидівства прибуло до ЗДА з Німеччини й зростаючи до четвертини мільйона. Вони відрізнялися зовсім від гордих еспанських жидів-колоністів. Вони були не образованими (неосвідченими) у більшості, ізольованої генерації ґетів, які спішили до ЗДА та своєї волі. Вони загально були тя-жко працюючими та підприємчивими емігрантами. Багато з їхніх департментових крамниць (сторів) у більших містах ЗДА є пам'ятниками їхніх торговельних (бизнесових) спритностей.

Основною догмою марксизму в постійних твердженях "червоних лідерів" є те, що капіталізм неминуче розвалиться під своєю вагою та відтворить шлях до комунізму (Канедієн Інтелліджанс Сервіс за серпень 1953 р.). Комуністи-жиди паралізують у «Білому домі» (Проф. Саган крізь радіо дня 30-го серпня 1962 р.).

Комуністична жидова вже давно заплянувала за марксистською філософією, що комунізм заволодіє цілим світом так, що у 1973 році вже діти б. през. Айзенгауера стануть комуністами в ЗДА. Американські жиди — це коляборанти атеїстично-жидівського Кремля та вороги інших націй — горожан ЗДА.

През. Рузвельт у 1938 році, коли нацисти замордували 100 жидів, отже він відкликав свого амбасадора з Берліну, але вже през. Айзенгоувер не зарядив цього супроти Кремля за тисячі замордованих мадяр, а през. Кеннеді знова вишколив еспанських націоналістів і післав їх у пащу бородатого й червоного Кастра (він католик, але виконував пляни жидівських сіоністо-комуністів та йому байдуже було про своїх найкращих горожан-антикомуністів...).

Державними зрадниками були: Гаррі Ґолд, Юліюс Розенберг, Пані Етель Розенберг, Давид Ґрінґлесс, Альфред Дін Слек, Міріям Московіч, Генрі Ведляйг, Якоб Голос, Мортон Собелл та Абрагам Бортман, яких широкорозгорнута шпіонаж була пірвана ФБІ (Федеративне Бюро Інвестигації) осінню 1950 року.

До таких типів зараховують також:

1. Д-ра Сидней Вайнбаум (жид — родженець Росії), науковець у Калтеч, ЗДА, який був обвинуваченний судом у Лос Анджелес у 1950 році 8-ім разів за фальшиве свідчення та шахрайство;

2. Філіп Барт — жидівський загальний менаджер (управитель) комуністичного Дейлі Воркер, який відкинув давати державі зізнання про активність червоних комуністів;

3. Ґергард Айслєр (жид — роджений у Німеччині), начальник комуністичного шпигунства, який був засуджений державою, а відтак вернувся в Европу та сьогодні є шефом пропаганди у Східній Німеччині.

У 1949 році в Нью-Йорку були засуджені провідні комуністи, а саме: два Негроес, Генрі Вінстон, Бенжемен Девис Жр., Джек Стахел (Яків Авраам Стахел), Іван Б. Віліямсон, Гилберт Грін (Ґрінберґ), Евген Деннис (Франціс Евген Валдрон), Карло Вінтер (Филип Карло Вайсберґ), Іван Ґатес (Ісраель Рагенстрих) та Ірвінґ Поташ. Всі повищі були знані як Політбюро ЗДА. З них 17-ть було арештовано Державним управлінням ЗДА, а прочі були скеровані до "Ред Конспірасі Інсайд Америка", а саме: Сімон Віліям Ґерсон, Арнольд Самуель Джонсон, Ізрааель Амтер, Єлисавета Ґурлай Флин, Олександер Лео Трахтенберґ, Ізидор Беґан, Олександер Біттельман, Ґрігорій Блейк Чарней, Бетті Ґанетт, Віктор Єрем[illegible]ром, Клявдія Джонес (званз як Шольнік і Ка[illegible]), Алберт Френціс Ляннон, Яків Миндель, Петтіс Перрі, Люіс Вайнсток, Віліям Волф Вайнстон та Маріон Максвелл Абт Бахрач (з них двох негрів).

Американці розшукують ще за чотирма втікачами, а саме: Джеймес Едвард Джексон Дж. Віліям Норман Маррон, Фред Файн та Сидней Штайнберґ. Деякі журнали ЗДА звідомляють, що справжніми «лідерами "Ред Конспірасі" є Олександер Біттельман (жид) — головна фігура в "Ідіш Морнінґ Фрайгайт Ассоціейшен", а редактор "Морнінґ Фрайгайт", описаний "Каліфорнія Ен — Америкен Активітіс Комітї" як "Ідіш орган Комуністичної Партії".

З повищезгаданих 47 комуністичних лідерів і шпигунів у ЗДА було: 4 негри, 14 білих і до 29 жидів.Статистично у ЗДА є 5% жидівського населення, проте 60% верхівки комуністів у ЗДА займають жиди. Менше 5% достав населення ЗДА є більше зрадників і червоних, а з останніх 95% достав расових груп є більше комуністичних агентів, ніж інших расових груп разом. Подібний патерн (зразок) та ініціятива "марксистської конспірації" є у всіх християнських державах світу (Використано як допоміжну літературу "Ді Кенедієн Інтелліджанс Сервіс" ред. Рона Гостика, Флешертон, Онтаріо).

Південна Америка: Большевики видають понад 100 мільйонів долярів на комуністичну пропаганду в Півд. Америці (радіо, книжки, інше). Комуністична партія існує легально у 5-ох латинсько-американських республиках (Аргентіна, Болівія, Еквадор, Мексіко й Уругвай). У Центральній Америці начисляють до 200,000 членів комуністичної партії (з того: Бразилія — 50,000, а Аргентіна — 80,000). Їхні комуністично-фронтові групи є тісно зв'язані з інтернаціональним комуністичним рухом.

Комуністи своїм терором і заколотом (ефективна комуністична зброя) перемагають у холодній війні Півд. Америки., В Півд. Америці лише Колюмбія, Перу, Еквадор, Коста Ріка та Домініканські Республики є в анти-комуністичних руках чи під контролею демократичних лідерів. Президент Бітанкоурт у Венезуелі мусить боротися з дуже великим числом комуністів та їхніми симпатиками. Кубинські вишколені партизани є часто піймаными у Венезуелі. Диктатор Кастро — Мархіст уживає до свого комуністичного порядку військових і секретних поліційних загонів, що сам їх контролює т. зв. "залізною рукою". В Чілє немає економічного й політичного спокоїв, бо там діє величезна й популярна націоналістично-комуністична партія. Перу й Еквадор є багаті території Кастро-комуністичних партизанів. В Домініканській республіці та Гаїті є більші труднощі, ніж на інших островах Півд. Америки. Гаїті є найбільшою державою в Латинській Америці, якої негри мають найстаршу незалежність у керованні державою, проте злидність і нужда, голод і терористичні тактики режиму "зголошували" землю. В Домініканській Республиці встановлено стале державне [illegible] проте кастрівські комуністи оперують секр[illegible] зусиллями, щоб підбурювати неспокій у державі.

Найбільше жидівства з давнішої імміграції має Аргентіна, де й вони ведуть підривну роботу. В столиці Буенос Айресі всякі "прогресивні" зв'язки та партії є при та по жидівських дільницях. Один із наших священників Аргентіни писав мені 20-го вересня 1963 року, що провідництво у лівих руках Буенос Айресу мали жиди. Теж усякі страйки, ненормальности, преса та телевізія є там опановані жидами, які намагаються якнайскорше перехопити в свої пролетарські руки владу. Популярна партія перонистів там з'єднала свої сили з льокальними комуністами.

В Уругваю ще більше панують жиди та їхній капітал. Сеньор Кубічек Жусцеліно (чеський жид) та інші стараються надати Аргентіні кубинізаційного характеру, одначе покищо їм є трудно. Мнимий антисем[illegible] в СССР прямо засліплює на підривну ліву роботу [illegible] у країнах Півд. Америки — це все добре алібі для жидів.

З Парагваю мені 20-го серпня 1963 року писали, що парагвайські жиди "сидять там, як миш під мітлою", а їхні промисловці зовсім мало відрізняються від крупніших парагвайських купців в Асунціоні — столиці Парагваю. По II-й світовій війні в'їзд жидам — нехристіянам до Парагваю був заборонений.

В "Шляху Перемоги" ч. 41 і 42 за 1963 р. сповіщають, що в Венесуелі впродовж минулого місяця заарештовано 150 комуністичних провідних діячів. В самій столиці — Каракас заарештовано біля 400 комуністичних те-рористів. Вони є членами підпільної організації "Збройні сили для боротьби за національне визволення", що прагне до повалення режиму президента Бетанкура.

Британська Ґуяна (Півд. Америка) вибрала комуністичний уряд у Західній Гемісфері, керуючій прем'єром Чедді Джеґен, самовибраний мархіст-ленініст. У 1962 році тисячі страйкували проти державного уряду та кидали пляшками на державну поліцію по вулицях. Страйк був викликаний клерками (секретарі, бухгальтери і т. ін.), цивільними урядовцями й учителями, протистуючи строгим заходам уряду Джеґена. Британська Ґуяна може стати другою Кубою в Півд. Америці (Див. "Холодна Війна" Діна й Дейвіда Галлера з Дербі, Коннектікат, ЗДА).

Велика Британія: Коли Віліям Нормандії прибув до Англії в 1066 році, отже він мав уже жидів у своїм тренуванню (навчанню). За панування короля Едварта II жиди були вже банкерами та нащадками вільної масонерії, з яких 99% було юдаїстами (анти-християнами). Теософія (признавання вищих сил і досліджування їх), Великий Схід, Вільна масонерія, Іллюмінізм (сект, якої члени приписували собі силу бачити злих духів — прим. Баварія 18-те століття, Храмівники, Розенкрайцери (нім.) — секретні групи, які походять з античного Єгипту — прим. члени містико-філософського товариства 17-го століття в Німеччині й Голяндії, яких емблемою була троянда й хрест) і т. п. здобували свої ідеї від жидівської Кабали (єврейська тайна наука з жидівських книг, вороження з карт). Вони працювали завсіди для дальшої деструктивної (руйнуючої) мети, маючи на гадці нігілізм (світогляд, що старається все усунути), соціялізм чи комунізм. Вони завсіди діють у користь світового жидівства та були теж Пан-Германізмом (Німеччина була базою жидівських фінансувань та Пан-Германізму — велике послаблення нордійських народів і поширення хаосу для расового виродду комунізму). Їхній юдаїзм був базований на Талмуді та т. зв. Шулчані Аруку, які викорінювали своє спіритуальне навчання, що всі не жиди є тваринами.

Їхня товпа (вулиця) організувала англійську й французьку революції, які звані комуністичними. В часі вступлення на трон Якова II жиди відкрили пропаганду проти Панства в Англії та Шотляндії. За Карла [illegible] Якова) були релігійні переслідування та творилися [illegible] релігійні секти. За республики (17 стол.) секта Юрія Фокса була переслідувана, а її прихильники виміґрували здебільшого до Америки. Проти республиканської влади виступили Ірляндія та Шотляндія. Своїм володінням у новій історії Англії вславився Кромвель, який вів дуже широку закордонну політику. За останніх Стюартів у парляменті витворилася партія «вігів» (революційна партія) та "торії", які були більш консервативними та вважали, що влада короля походить від БОГА й проти неї можна виступати лише в рамцях закону. Цей поділ задержався в Англії до найновіших часів. Анархістами цих часів переважно були марксисти. Карло Маркс пропагандував серед англійців, що вони ніколи не можуть зробити власної революції, отже лише чужинці можуть їм це зробити. Жидівське товариство (німецько й російсько мовні жиди) очолюване було проф. Томасом Девідсоном зимою в 1883-84 рр. (етичний анархіст і комуніст)! Багато [illegible] нізацій і товариств були фундовані жидами, які своїм соціялізмом та інтернаціоналізмом впливали політично на 5-ту колону.

Хаїм Вайцман був російським жидом, який сильно впливав на жидівство Англії своїм змаганням до встановлення жидівської Палестини.

Сир Вінстон Чурчил був довге життя сіоністом та зберігав (пригортав) жидівських фінансістів Інтернаціоналу. Він мовчить у своїх працях про комуністичне жидівство та його підпільну активність із 8-го лютня 1920 ро-ку (Див. "Ділерс" Леонарда Янга) Лондон, Англія (стор. 60-61).

У "Шляху Перемоги" ч. 27, 1963 р. було поміщено, що з Великобританії видалено третього секретаря чехословацької амбасади у Лондоні, Премисля Голяна, який провадив шпигунську діяльність.

Канада: Такі комуністичні провокатори, зрадники й агенти плентаються по цілому Божому Світі. Така "вулиця" кремлівських паразитів не минула й Канади. До інтернаціональної комуністичної 5-тої колони була включена половина з двовідсоткового жидівського населення в Канаді у 1946 році (нащадки Маркса, Енгельса та Леніна): Федір Розе (Розенберг), Сем Карр (Коган чи Коге), Ерік Адамс, Давид Шугар, Г. С. Герсон, И. С. Беннінг (жонатий із жидівкою), Ісраель Галперін, Фреда Лінтон, С. С. Бурман, Генрик Гарріс та И. Ізидор Готтгайл.

Фред Розенберг був членом канадійського парляменту для Карше виборчого пункту в Монтреалі, який мав добрий досвід та скрайний голос. Він приїхав до Канади з Польщі, змінив своє прізвище та був викритий за державну зраду. Він не був депортований назад до Польщі та є тепер вірним жителем Канади.

Сем Карр був організатором комуністичної партії (ЛПП), який прибув до Канади з СССР. Тут змінив своє прізвище та був викритий за державну зраду. За свою підпільну активність мав скасування горожанства. В Говерманстві виявилося, що багато публичних лідерів було вживано як знаряддя для знищення нашої держави-Канади.

Ігор Ґудзенко — минулий совєтський шиферний клерк совєтської амбасади в Оттаві, який утік у 1946 році з великою кількістю документів до канадійських "авторитетних чинників", де викрив усю комуністичну секретну шпіонаж совєтської амбасади, твердив, що агенти яких він викрив були майже всі іноземні (закордонні) жиди

(Див. "Кенедієн Інтелідженс Сервіс" за травень 1961 р.). Ігор Ґудзенко знав особисто полк. Роґова (директора комуністичної шпіонажі), який говорив йому, що д-р Кляус і д-р Еллен Нанн Мей (замкнені були у в'язниці за шпіонаж в Англії) були комуністичними агентами, про що він доніс теж до Британського Говерманства. Ти[illegible] "Шлях Перемоги" з 1-го березня 1950 року подає, що д-р Клявус Фукс (совєтський агент), який передав секрети атомбомби до СССР, був вкараний на 14-ть літ тюрми.

Д-р Роберт Оппенгаймер фінансував і хлюпався теж у комуністичних активниках. Його брат і сестрінка були комуністами. Він оженився з вдовою Катериною Гаррісон (Месарош — оригінальне прізвище), яка ходила до ленінської школи в 1931 році в Москві та була комуністкою. Його близькими колеґами 30-ох літ був Стефан Нельсон — комуністичний агент (Див. "Нювсвік" із квітня 1954 р. та "Меркур" за травень 1957 р.).

Самуель та Еллен Брофман, які обшахрували Джеймеса (Ніггі) Руткін і були суджені за $22,500.000 спільного зиску в Монтреалі у 1931 році. Брофмани походили з Манітоби, які оперували "ланцюгом" готелів у Канаді. В додатку — Еллен Брофман був "ко-чейрменом" (співпредсідателем) допомогової кампанії до [illegible] 1943 році. Самуель Брофман був найбільш сильним магнатом (багатиром) лікерів у світі, який був теж головою Канадійсько-Жидівського Комітету та найбільш зобов'язуючою людиною серед еврейства в Канаді.

Комуністичні впливи троцкістів були теж у канадійській парті ССФ (див. "Кен. Інтелідженс Сервіс" за травень 1955 р.). Комуністи спрямували свою пропаганду в СБС Радіоавдиції, а саме:

1. 15.X.1951 р. Герольд Ісаак попирав визнання червоного китайського режиму й допущення червоних китайців до Об'єднаних Націй.

2. 12.XI.1950 р. Макс Фрідман висловив свою опозицію до анти-комуністичного сенатора Гикенлюпера з Йови, ЗДА та говорив жевріючо про пані Олену Гагаген Довгляс із Каліфорнії та зневажав сенатора Ніксона.

3. 21.XI.1950 р. Пані Дорота Стівіс обороняла червоний Китай (у холодній війні з Канадою), що він повинен бути допущений до Об'єднаних Націй.

Культурне поле СБС у 1951 році спонзоровало багато промовців, включно з д-ром Брок Чішольм, Бертранд Руссель, д-р Анна Фройд, д-р Івен Камерон, проф. Фред Гойль і д-р Карло Бінгер, які атакували релігію, християнську етику та мораль.

4. 14.VI.1953 р. Карло Вудсвортг атакував антикомуніста Сиґмана Рі.

5. 19.VII.1953 р. Анна Франціс обороняла визнання крісла в Об'єднаних Націй для червоного Китаю.

6. 17.I.1954 р. Роджер Балдвин (предсідатель чи голова Американської Цивільної Ліберальної Юнії), зтоваришеній із не менш 40-ма комуністами був теж спеціяльним спікером (промовцем) у СБС, який атакував сенатора Мек Артура й обороняв засуджених червоних лідерів у 1949 році, протиставився вірним присягам держави та імміграційним полісам, які забороняли допущення червоних до ЗДА й їхні лояльні домагання відносно деяких особистостей геть із ОНацій.

7. 15.IV.1954 р. Райф Лепп передав свою авдицію з Вашінгтону через СБС, обороняючи д-ра Роберта Оппенгаймера, який мав клопоти з секретними державними органами ЗДА за стоваришення та підтримку комуністів.

8. 2.V. 1954 р. Маттєв Гальтон підтримував допущення червоного Китаю до ОНацій.

9. 12.VII.1954 р. Джеймс М. Мінніфі зневажав Чіянг Кай-Шека.

Рівно ж у канадійській драмі були продукти СБС, які своєю комуністичною пропагандою нехтували християнську моральність (прим. ніч у неділю дня 17-го березня 1954 року) — див. "Кен. Інт. Сервіс" з липня 1956 року).

Словацькі консервативні християни протестували пропаганді д-ра Шмольки, Рейгона та його братові Райхманові, Ставберові і Віліямсам у Канаді (КІСервіс з лип[illegible] 1956 р.). Жиди є більш матеріялістами та "гешефтерами" (бизнесменами) та патріотично не прив'язані до своєї самостійної держави-Ізраїлю, а втікають там, де краще (Там Батьківщина, де добре" — говорили античні римляни). Жиди в «Кепітал Ріпорт» із 15-го липня 1958 року звідомляють, що в повоєнному періоді з Ізраелю вимігрувало до Канади щонайменше 5,000 осіб. Вони тут пристали до жидівського "кубла" та дбають про матеріальні наживи серед християнського населення Канади, які не люблять нас, як не любили Ісуса Христа перед розп'яттям.

В "Анти-Коммуніст Ріпорт", Оттава — Канада було теж згадано про комуністичні впливи жидівства в радіовисильні СБС від Лінус Павлінґ, Скатт Нірінв, Клявдія Морін, Гілляс Гінаулот, Тед Еллен та інші.

Ілія Егренберґ дістав у нагороду "Ціну Леніна" за літературну пересилку до Авраама Фейберґа. Члени парляментів-комуністи, як Фред Розе(нберґ), Дорис Ларсен, Віллям Кардаш, Джеймес Аттерік, А. А., Мек Леод та Й. Б. Сильсберґ є внесені у рекорд (реєстр) флюридації водних достав у Канаді (Звідомлення у цій публікації П. Велша з 23-го вересня 1961 р.).

Комуністична шайка в Судбурах, Онт. — Канада заатакувала й поранила Філіпа Тесика, який працював серед їхньої голоти у 1961 році.

Кап. Т. Т. Фролов, агент советської шпіонажі, який приїхав у літаку (ТЮ-104) з хором "Червоної Армії" СССР в Оттаві. Хор "Ч. А." з Москви (180 членів) — це партійці й агенти з СССР.

Коли прем'єр Л. П. Пірсон турбувався нуклеарною зброєю для Канади, то їхній Ваня Мельничук і Вася К. з штан "ревуть мордами чотириногих про мир" та відмовляють інтерференцію (втручання) ЗДА в цю важну справу. Нуклеарна зброя ЗДА для Канади може знищити 410,000 їхніх членів і симпатиків... Видають "безроги хрущовського черевика" останній цент на пропаганду в користь СССР, а їхні члени ходять "голі й босі" та без працї, а тримаються цього "борохла", як воша кожуха, що в кожній хвилині може вітер розвіяти...

Остаточно мусимо ствердити, що багато жидівських біженців було комуністами. Жиди зовсім не інтересуються іншими націями (Див. у видання Сид М. Серена). Вони засвоїли діялектичні методи Гегеля (німецький філософ-соціяліст) та К. Маркса до своїх матеріялістичних позицій і хотіли б стати й на цьому континенті кримінальними душогубами мільйонів льокальних християн.

Червоними лідерами, агентами 5-ої колони є в більшості жиди. Серед недавніх комуністичних агентів Кремля в Форт Монмоутз було 80% жидів. у "Жидівському Житті" було звідомлення, що 40-50 жидівських науковців були замішані у цій шпіонажі, а до 16-18-ть жидів було теж завішених у 1948 році.

В. І. Ленін у 1923 році встановляв собі вразок пляну, щоб "спершу загарбати Европу, опісля маси Азії, а відтак окружити ЗДА, які будуть останнім бастіоном капіталізму. Ми не будемо їх атакувати. Це все спаде в наші руки, як дозрілий овоч" (Див. Ді Канедієн Інтелліджанс сервіс" за січень 1955 року).

Як у большевицькій жовтневій революції в 1917 році лідерами були жиди, так і вони є лідерами стовпшень шпіонажі у світі. В них була взаємна комуністична допомога (зброя, харчі і т. ін.) для основання Сіонізму (ідейна єврейська течія та змагання відбудувати свою власну державу в Палестині) в Ізраїлю. Одні сіоністи змагають до сильного Ізраеля, а другі є колябораціоністами червоної Москви. Магоммеданці-юдеїсти змагають до "комуністичного і сіоністичного світів".

"Нью-Йорк Тіме" з 22.XI.1954 р. помістив під наголовком "Москва є жидівським раєм", що в Москві тепер живе 500,000 жидів, у столиці комунізму. Кремлівське політбюро використовує жидів для своєї шпіонажі в цілому світі та для всяких підривних робіт.

Біля 70% американських християн підтримували ген. Мек Карті у виборах у 1954 році, а 83% жидівства у ЗДА було проти нього.

Йозеф Г. Рейнфельд (Нью-Йорк) був бутлеґером (торгівцем спіртами й алькоголями), з чого найбільше користали жиди в неділі, бо при "водці" відважніше піде праця...

Такі "пархачі" (так звали жидів на Україні за польської окупації) розкладають нашу націоналістичну діяльність у світі та нищать її провідників, вони влізають у нутро державних політичних акцій даного континенту та подібними марксистськими методами хочуть знищити всіх християн у світі.

Деякі барони Англії бояться вмерти в атомовій війні та волюють жити під комуністичним режимом (прим. д-р Рассель), багато американських "животатих кратів" ще досі "П'янствують і хуліганять" із кремлівським політбюром у СССР, які пляново допомогали Ф. Кастрові винищити кубинських націоналістів — найкращих горожан ЗДА (Дін Раск і дисант на Кубу), таксамо деяких канадійських політиків "не бадерують комуністи", а тільки фашисти й нацисти в Канаді (прим. Е. Ендрю).

Такими методами анархісти й партизани держав поза "залізною заслоною" змагають до "поширення простору й справ та слави свого народу". Комуністи можного дня зростають у силу і "стають на п'яти" баронам та аристократам Заходу і можуть колись "застукати у две-рі" власного житла, бо це їхня марксистська мета!

Вони влізають у закутки жидівства та з ними спо-рідняються під прибраними прізвищами, щоб якась мало-подібна на жида (-вку) особа пляново дісталася до цен-тру державного управління, а тоді вже даній держав "ацентой" (кінець), бо тоді він (-а) тягне туди своїх під-звітних і зростають у силу на користь червоного Кремля, а відтак уже. дальше змагають за планами марксистсько-ленінських Комінтернів і т. п. п'ятиколончиків партійно-го кабінета — тиранів СССР.

ЧЕРВОНІ ТИРАНИ

Маркс почав будувати
"Рай червоного маніфеста",
Доганяв ці пляни Енгельс
Германського соціяліста.

Ленін на балалайці вигравав,
А Сталін сапоги латав,
Хороші мислітєлі комуни,
Яких "вулиця всюди суне".

Бородатий Голова Комінтерну
Та й лисий диктатор Кремля,
Троцкістський конкурент-деспот,
Яким скривавилася наша земля.

Хижацькі атеїстичні паразити,
Ленін-жид — завзятий кат України,
Який вигубив понад 7 мільйонів голодом
Найкращого населення Великої України.

Махав і сапогом Курщинський Хрущов,
Заслуженій стахановець колхозів,
Побренькує й на балалайці
Пузатий враг християнських народів.

Побудував він тюрму народів
І обмачується у християнській крові,
Пайот лозунгі до своїх гарнізонів,
Щоб не впасти в "пащу західньому вовкові".

Вже смердять гази модерних атомів,
Уже готується новий лет беркутів,
Зроблять суп, мило та попіл
Із емгебівських трупів!

УКРАЇНА ТА ЖИДИ

..."Нам братів на очах катували
І знущались над нами жиди,
Ми ударим ударом в неволі
І розіб'єм червоні полки"...

Приспів:

Смерть, смерть, ляхам смерть,
Смерть московсько-жидівській комуні!
В бій кривавий нас ОУН веде.

(З народної пісні України «Ми зродились із крови народу»).

Жидів як націю не любили та нищили вже єгиптяни, арамійці (Сирія), вавилонці, іранці (Персія), араби, римляни, португальці, німці за А. Гітлєра та не любили їх і наші українці за князя Володимера Великого за їхне деспотство в 10-ому столітті по Нар. І. Христа.

Наші історики дуже скропулярно про це ханство подають, що хозари (пращури жидівства) були кочовими племенами і сильно потурченими, які приманджали з придонських теренів, опанувавши прибережжя Каспія та в 8-ому столітті стали деспотами (гнетом, тиранами) Криму (на Кавказі звали їх «караїмами»). Вони приступили на жидівську віру та поширилися на Кавказі, Криму, та Кубані. Їхній цар звався Каган. Вони заховалися на Криму з назвою "караїмів". Їхне ханство знищив Святослав у 969 р. ло Нар. Христа. Можливо, що з того часу нашої історії вони з нами ворогують, що хотіли заволодіти київським князівством.

В "Ді Канедієн Інтелліджекс Сервіс" з серпня 1956 р. знаходимо, що "Ізраїль не був створений горожанами Ізраїлю, які є спадкоємцями Юди чи палати Юдеї. Вони приняли жидівську релігію, але вони не є расовими жидами..." Бенжемін Фрідмен (жидівський індустріяліст із Нью-Йорку, ЗДА) сказав, що "Політичний сіонізм не є виключеним рухом жидів із Европи. Східні европейські жиди не мали зовсім расового й історичного контакту з Палестиною. Їхні спадкоємці (наслідники) не були мешканцями їхньої Обіцяної Землі. Вони безпосередньо є нащадками хозарського ханства (царства) з 12-го століття. Хозари не були семітами, а турсько-фінськими монгольськими кочовиками, які приблизно в 1-ому столітті по Нар. Христа виемігрували з Азії до східньої Европи. Там вони зробили могуче царство даного часу (800,000 кв. км.). Біля 7-го століття по Нар. Христа їхній король прийняв юдаїзм за державну релігію, а з ним більшість населення хозарії. Передтим не було згадки про хозар, які були жидами та що вони прибули зі Святої Землі.

Альфред Лилінталь (американський жид) у своїй книжці "Яка ціна Ізраїлю" сміливо відмічує, що жиди східньо-европейського походження "мають дуже маленьку кількість семітської крови", але походять від хозар. Сирійський амбасадор до ЗДА, Фарід Зейнеддіне заявив, що більшість жидів-сіоністів є нечистокровними росіянами (ДІКС з січня 1956 р.).

Д-р Джон Біті (американський офіцер-схолястик) у своїй книжці "Ді Айрн Кюртайн Овер Америка" твердить, що більша частина американських жидів є нащадками (потомками) хозар Росії. Це хозарське плем'я чи ханство в більшості навернулося до юдаїзму в 8-ому столітті. Вони не мали жодного контакту з античними жидами Біблії. Доказом є це, що більшість жидів цього континенту виемігрувала з Росії та з сумежних країн хозарської групи.

В книжці А. Лілінталя на стор. 215-223 знаходимо, що генеальогічна спадкоємність Палестини є занотована за 2,000 років. Юдаїзм є старою жидівською, монаїстичною (віра в одного Бога) релігією. Жидівство перейняло віровивчення юдаїзму з різноманітно-мішаних рас і порід античного населення. Половина з них звуть себе жидами, можливими нащадками гігітів (народ Малої Азії та Сирії до 1800 рр. перед Нар. Христа — прим. Кападокія), а інші звуть себе нащадками племен Ханаану...

З єгипетських пам'ятникових портретів (монументів) черпнуто, що євреї мали сині очі та бльондинувате волосся... Жиди східньої Европи (Ашкенази) мали дуже маленьку кількість семітської крови. Хозари мали риси пращуків (предків) східньо-европейського жидівства (історичний факт)...

Гітлєрівське походження (предки, родовід) могутньо-можливе одним із плем'я десятка (12-ть) вимерлих племен Ізраїлю (жиди розпняли Ісуса Христа на хрест, і Гітлєр знова винищив сотки тисяч жидівства — автор), між тим як Вайцман може бути нащадком хозарів-навернників до юдаїзму (1-ий президент Ізраїлю та лідер сіонізму після 1920 р.), які не мали антропологічного (наука про людей) респектованого споріднення до Палестини (фактом є те, що багато християн можуть мати більше єврейсько-ізраїльської крови у своїх жилах, ніж у більшості від їхніх сусідів). «Хозарські жиди не є семітами, але більше схожими (подібними) до жидів, які є тубільські (місцево-нужденні) до Палестини й до Середнього Сходу, отже вони є з чистої єврейсько-ізраїльської крови, ніж більшість тих, які були незгромаджені (не жили гуртом)" — Альфред Лілінталь у своїй книжці "Сіонізм анд ді Мидл Іст Крізіс" ред. Рона Гостика з Флешертону, Онтаїро — Канада).

Як бачимо з повищезгаданого матеріялу, то жидівство походить із усіх рас, які в більшості кооперують між собою та дбають про свій нарід — мішанину. Правда, що вони спіритуально почувають себе палестинцями, яких пращури "замордували за методами античного тиранства" Ісуса Христа, як рівнож нищили наш нарід на Україні (хозари, гітлєрівці — потомки жидівства).

Марксисти (німецькі горожани) допомагали Леніну на еміграції по вибуху жовтневої революції у 1917 році повернутися назад до Росії, припускаючи його погром російській імперії. Німці воювали з білою Москвою, вони й підготовляли грунт жидівській комуні в Росії та на Україні за Леніна, а останньо гітлєрівці (жидо-хозари) мордували жидів. Повищезгадані хозарські тирани були жорстокими деспотами на Україні та мордували релігійно-національно зріле українське населення в Европі.

"Палеолістична Україна" (300,000 рр. до нар. Христа) була скровавлена поганами, атеїстами, християнами, усякими реформованими зайдами, вона й кривавиться дальше жидо-комуністичними атеїстичними тиранами. Марксистсько-ленінська жидівська шайка знищила нам мільйони найкращих душ, які плекали спіритуально релігійно-національні традиції на своїй автохтонній землі від палеоліту.

Можу тут сміло згадати, що майже ціле своє життя я чую нарікання та погорду супроти жидівства, а всі християнські публікації не можуть їх минути серед цього тем. Вони були шахраями й амантами (актори, любовники) у своїх інтересах на Україні, жерли наш хліб і кури, проте вони нас не любили й кооперували з нашими окупантами та допомагали їм нас нищити! Вони за гроші були б "гнали козу на ярмарок", а то й "продали свою матір за гроші" — говорили в нас на ЗУЗ. Їхній торговельний хист перевищував подекуди їхні традиції та ідеалізм, а влазили там, де можна б щось заробити.

Жиди були частинно інструментом польської імперіялістичної політики "на зніщене Русі" та помагали польським "стшельцам і канаркам" нищити релігійно-націона-льного нашого "гоя" (дядька чи господаря). В часах російсько-царської неволі, подібні жидівські типи ворогували проти нашого відродження. Вони відносилися з погордою до нашого "хлопа й хахла", які бажали жидам "збудувати золотий міст почерез Чорне море, щоб жиди могли перейти по ньому до своєї обітованої землі," про що згадує С. Сухий у "Гомоні України" з червня 1963 р.

Жиди хотіли б тільки паразитувати на поневолених масах народів і страшили нас "Мойсеєвою змією", яка ніби-то залякала й пожерла єгипетську" (знаю, що Фараон був кращим магіком за Мойсея, отже не можу вірити хвальбам жидівства). Їх зненавиділо вже багато держав світу, отже нехай уважають, щоб вони не попали самі в якусь пащу своїх расових і національних суперників у світі.

З руки агента Москви — жида Шварцбарта загинув 25 травня 1926 р. в Парижі Головний Отаман військ УНР Симон Петлюра, про якого жидова ще й у минулому році розмальовувала дивовижні карикатури та вачислюють його до політичних терористів своєї "мішанини". Дня 23 травня 1938 р. згинув від вибуху пекельної машини вищезгаданих типів у Роттердамі Провідник ОУН, полк. Євген Коновалець, співучасник слави УСС-ів, творець корпусів Січових Стрільців — першого соборницького військового в'єднання. Як полковник очолював дивізію СС у кривавих боях під Гребінкою, Хвастовом, Проскуровом, Староконстянтиновом і у славній Карабчаївській перемозі. Творець і командир УВО (Укр. Військова Організація), засновник всеукраїнської Організації Українських Націоналістів (ОУН) та її Провідник. Один із ідеологів українського націоналізму. Політичний талант, стратег української революції, тактик суспільно-політичної роботи, надхненник революційно-визвольних чинів на всіх українських землях.

Це все за наше добро та їх паразитування на нашій рідній землі — Україні. Вони вже напевно забули за тих "гоїв" (наших дядьків із сіл), які вигодували їх своїм хлібом і курми. Їхні Сурці й Хайки нераз мандель (12-ть) курей поперемацували, щоб не було "трафне" (противне їхнім традиціям) перед купном. Торгувалися з нашими газдами до одного грошика (подібного цента) за [illegible] ки Польші", аж нарешті "сігіт" (значиться "добра"-е) та рука Шарі тряслася, як видавала з капшука старі грошики (нові відкладала на пізніше). Як учні "Повшехної школи" (народня) повалили їм т. зв. "кучки" (будочка, де молився рабін), то вся жидова вигукувала дивним голосом: "Ах, вай! Рускі гої на нас нападайом!" Рабунок! — Дальше в суд..., але на жаль жидівські шахрайки програли, бо суд не міг засудити дітей...

Карикатуруючи нашого Головного Отамана Симона Петлюру, а сліпаки не згадують прим. о. д-ра Володимира Клодницького (див. "Гомін України" ч. 38 за 1962 р., стор. 3), якого американці нагородили "Торчом оф Либерті" за заслуги в обороні жидів у серпні 1919 року та інших щиролюблячих українців до їхньої хозарської раси. о. д-р Вол. Клодницький, парох Української Православної Церкви (УПЦ) в Ньюарку — це живий документ, який врятував жидів від погрому в Хмельнику на [illegible] у 1919 році, коли то обурене населення поблизького села, яке згоріло внаслідок підпалу жидом однієї хати, вирушило до міста, щоб відплатитися за заподіяну шкоду. Причиною трагедії було те, що донька жидівського купця в селі недалеко Хмельника таємно вийшла заміж за селянина. Обурений тим її батько підпалив хату зятя, у висліді чого згоріло ціле село. Тоді у Хмельнику перебував із відділом української армії тодішній майор Володимир Клодницький. Він вияснив селянам, які хотіли відплатитися на жидах за спалення села, що слід зберігати правопорядок, встановлений владою молодої української держави. Жидівська громада під проводом рабіна Шалюля Бен Юзефа Ляєра висловила окрему подяку майорові Вол. Клодницькому.

"Ді Джуїш Ньюз" із Ньюарку писав, що президент Ізраїлю Ісак Бен Цві виявив окреме заінтерисування справою о. д-ра Вол. Клодницького. Подібних подій було більше у 1917-20 рр., а зокрема в роки ліквідації жидів гітлерівцями. Окрему заслугу має сл. пам. Митрополит Андрій Шептицький і Його брат та ігумен Климентій. Наше українське населення переховувало знайомих жидів по криївках у стодолах, під церквами (прим. біля Підволочиськ) та давали їм харчі й одяг, за що самі попалися в тюрми чи були замордовані гестапівцями.

В жидівському журналі "Туг Морген" з 6-го серпня 1962 року вміщено коротку замітку А. Файмана, якого ось зміст у перекладі на українську мову:

"У Парижі недавно померла 100-літня українка Софія Пиленко. Вона була матір'ю молодої монахині, ім'я якої залишиться святим серед жидів. Монахиня Марія Пиленко сиділа разом із жидами в одному німецькому концентраційному таборі під час II-ї світової війни. Вона ставилася дуже добре до всіх жидівських співв'язнів. В концтаборі опинилася вона при таких обставинах:

Одного разу гештапівці гнали групу жидів (чоловіків і жінок) до концтабору. Між ними була молода жінка, яка з немовлям на руках ледве тяглася за колоною. Монахиня Марія Пиленко, яка спостерігала цей страшний похід, нараз підбігла до одного з гештапівців і пошепки щось йому сказала. Гештапівець моментально вивів із колони жінку з дитиною, а її місце зайняла Марія Пиленко.

Разом з іншими жертвами завели монахиню до газової камери і там вона згинула з рук нацистських убивників. Жидівська жінка залишилася при житті і перебуває тепер в Ізраїлі. Своє життя вона завдячує святому вчиковi монахині Марії Пиленко". ("Вісник ООЧСУ" з травня 1963 року) — див. "Шлях Перемоги" ч. 26, 1963 р.

Українці ніколи навіть не ставили під сумнів права жидів на існування, трактуючи їх на своїй території як повноправних співгромадян. Наш народ ніколи не забороняв їхніх релігійно-національних прав на українській етнографічній території. Бувало, що українці вимагали, щоб відповідальні провідники жидівського народу та державні мужі Ізраїлю виявили теж зрозуміння до визвольних змагань українського народу та стали в обороні його права на самостійне державне життя із обличчі наступу московсько-большевицького колоніялізму.

Я знаю з оповідання старших українців та з практики, що жиди все були на услугах чужинців і поборювали наші національні рухи на українських землях. Вони були донощиками поліції окупантів України, працювали у СМЕРШ-і (розвідка) та НКВД, були провідними членами ВКП(б) на Україні. Вони були брехунами у Червоній Армії та Рудої Армади (армія комуністичної Чехословаччини). По школах УРСР діставали похвали та медалі за атеїстичне навчання нашої дітвори на ЗУЗ та вихваляли 13-ть літнього Павлика-героя та піонера СССР, який донiс до НКВД свого батька, який був членом СВУ [illegible] вобережній Україні. Учитель Середньої Школи (десятилітка) Цукерман на Валині хотів викинути з першого класу Початкової школи ученицю, яка у школі перехрестилася. Це є доказом, що він не мав жодного релігійного виховання від своїх батьків і рабінів, тощо.

Античні жиди були вперше кольоністами та рільниками Єгипту. Їхня раса та фізіономія (вираз, риси лиця, характер) відрізняється від европейців (червоно-жовто шкірі, горбаті носи, мішані риси обличчя, флєгматики, шахраї та брехуни, гешефтярі (купці й продавці) Европи, т. зв. "деруши", яких дуже ненавиділи гітлерівці та нищили по кацетах у своїм Райху (самі жиди говорять, що пропало їх 6,000.000: Бурштин, Дахав, Авшвіц і т. ін.). Гітлерівці політично заставляли жидівську поліцію (з короткими палками) в концентраках, щоб утримувати там порядок і карали своїх смертельників, а під кінець вони знищили й жидівську тимчасову поліцію. Щасливими в БОГА були ті, яким вдалося втекти поза райх Гітлера і ті, які жили в інших країнах і не перебували в гітлерівському райху.

Терпіли подібно й українці та інші народи під їхньою окупацією, бо всюди по будинках були написи товстим друком: "Дойчлянд убер аллес!" "Нур фір Дойче!" (Німеччина понад усе! Все для німців!) та інші нацистівські кличі. Через такі кличі і терористичні методи та ненависть до інших націй вони програли останню війну — повна капітуляція Німеччини та закінчення війни на всіх фронтах було 8-го травня 1945 р. о год. 12.01 по півночі. Німеччину розпарцелювали (розділили) на четверо та тяжко буде їй знова "встати на ноги", а жиди за доляри та припомочі сил ОН дійшли до власної держави — Ізраїля та мають "свою правду, силу й волю" з президентом Хаїмом Вайцманом на чолі (січень 1949 р.). Вони дістали від німців відшкодування та судили гітлерівських колаборантів. Поляки за "небіжки" Польщі говорили: "Як Куба Богу, так Буг Кубе", або українці: "Хліб за хліб, воду за воду, кров за кров!" чи "Катюзі по заслузі" і т. ін. Жиди все своє право вложили колись у релігійне право, отже сподіємося, що рабінові "добеньки" на голові мають Мойсеєву силу-магію та Соломонову мудрість... Хоч вони тисячами літ блукали по світі як "вічні жиди", але сьогодні на глобусі видніють границі жидівської самостійної держави з написом "ІЗРАЇЛЬ" в Азії та вони не забороняють відвідувати іншим християнам тернисті ХРИСТОВІ шляхи й місця, де на сльозах Матері Божої та крові Ісуса Христа ростуть символічні квіти, які символізують їхній славетний ДУХ і пригадують ганебні по-милки людейцям у їхній кривавій, братовбивчій і ганебній історії в очах християнського світу!.. Командер Гачісон зсумувавши внутрішню політику Ізраїлю, він доводить, що більшість крісел в ізраїльському парляменті займають комуністи, прокомуністи (діють у користь комуністів) та соціялісти. Теперішні комуністичні впливи на Середньому Сході, результатом чого є втручання в жидівські справи та СССР. Можна додуматись, що це є зовсім комуністична гра, щоб спровокувати й втягнути Захід у нову марксистсько-ленінівську революцію та виконати свої експанзивні плани до нової історії СССР.

"Вільне Слово" (11 серпня 1962 р.) та "Шлях Перемоги", ч. 50 з 25 листопада 1963 р. подають до відома, дома, що 10-го квітня 1962 року в м. Ньюарку (б. Ньюйорку) представники з жидівської організації "Б'най Брит" вшанували колишнього (бувшого) офіцера української армії, Володимира Степановича Клодницького за те, що не допустив до різні жидів у 1919 році. З українського боку на тому бенкеті взяло участь коло півсотні представників.

Д-р Гр. Шляхецький сумнівається тут, що з цієї 50-тки не знайшовся один, який не натаврував поступування цього жида, який з ненависти до християн і пімсти, що його дочка вийшла заміж за українця-християнина, підпалив власними руками хату своєї дочки і зятя, і через спричинив пожар цілого села, а в парі з тим викликав небезпеку пімсти над жидами, яку зупинив нагороджений тепер старшина В. Ç. Клодницький. Це ж є релігійний фанатизм жидів!

Цей фанатизм реферував Йозеф Ліхтен, що йому диктувала його справа. Він на оскарження і ганьбу українців додав, кажучи: "Багато томів видано про погроми в Україні в час революції. Але легше збирати факти зла, ніж факти добра". Цей сам Ліхтен, що вручив медалю українцеві Клодницькому, а іншим присутнім і неприсутнім, кинув болотом у вічі!

Такі "погроми" у світі викликали самі жиди своїм нечесним поступованням і провокацією (прим. Буенос Айрес, Аргентіна) з т. зв. "Справою Сіроти". Вони таким поступованням викликають проти себе ненависть і переслідування. Знаємо з історії, що вони по-програних війнах із римлянами, арабами та іншими, пішли на "розсіяння" й християнські народи їх прийняли, дали спромогу не тільки жити, але й розвиватися економічно та культурно. Та коли вони "поросли в пір'я", почали надуживати свої свободи, доброти християн, і тому ми стрічаємося з "антисемітизмом", "погромами" жидів в Еспанії 1391 р., у Франції, Італії, Чечач, Польщі, німеччині, майже по цілій Европі в 1346-1353 рр. й інших роках. Ця ненависть і переслідування не були через їхню расу, національність. Ні! Це були відрухи, інстинкти самозбереження християнських народів, це робилось через жидівську ненависть до християн, через їхні провини і каригідні злочини супроти різних народностей. Хто цікавий більше про це знати, хай перечитає собі книжку: Хуліо Меінвіелле "Ель Худіо ен ель містерію де ля гісторія", Буенос-Айрес, 1959, Аргентіна.

Д-р Гр. Шляхецький у "Шляху Перемоги" теж згадує, що є коло 15-ть публічних документів Папів Римських: Інокентія IV, Григорія X, Івана XXII, Юлія III, Павла IV й інших, в яких таврується злочинність жидів, а водночас борониться їх перед несправедливими нападами. Так, наприклад, Папа Пій V Святий пише:

"Жидівська безбожність, заправлена рівними штуками зіпсуття, доходить до таких розмірів, що конечним є, коли хочеться зарадити публічному здоров'ю християн, вжити швидкого протизасобу, відповідного до сили зла". Далі вираховує злі діла жидів, які вимагають протидії християн і чесних людей.

Хоча б з поступування самих Папів Римських, яким тоді закинути «антисемітизм», фанатизм, ненависть до жидів, як це виразно свідчать жидівські рабіни, зібрані на з'їзді в Парижі 1807 р., — вже з того бачимо, що жиди не є "невинні ягнятка", але вони злом відплачують тим, які їм добре зробили, і найчастіше самі були спричинниками ненависти до себе, причиною "антисемітизму" чи погромів.

Чайже сьогодні вже відомо, що жиди щільно [redacted] зані з масонерією, є її творцями і рушіями, головними творцями комунізму та його керівниками: Ленін, Троцький, Беля Кун, Янош Кадар — жиди; революції в Еспанії, Мадярщині, Баварії, Росії, Україні — це головно твір і кривавe діло жидів. Троцький з кількома сотнями жидів-фахівців з Нью-Йорку приїхав до Росії спомагати революцію. Жидівські банки: Кун, Леб і Кнія, Ніе, Шреєр, Шіф й інші спомагали комуністичну революцію. В першому советі з 1917 р. на 520 членів, було 447 жидів, про що вже була згадка повище.

Таким чином комуністичні революції були витвором жидів. Перше французька комуна з 1870-их років була теж твором жидів: Карло Маркс, Лясаль, Неймаєр; жидами були теж члени І-го "Інтернаціоналу" з 1864 р. (Фрібург, Жан Коген, Аврон Адлер, Франкель та інші). Див. М. Фара: "Ля Масонерія ен дескубіерто", Буенос-Айрес, 1960 р., стор. 84. Головними шпигунами в Пів[redacted] Америці на користь комунізму були теж жиди ([redacted] берг, Гіс, Крамер, Сальомон Лесінські і т. ін.), як теж в Англії (Бруно Понтекорво), про що вже тут була згадка детальніше.

Наші представники на бенкеті в Ньюарку не оборонили української справи серед жидівських "критичних погромів". Несправедливі жиди не здібні об'єктивно критикувати наших внутрішніх справ і залишити ненависть до інших християн, які кормили їх своїм хлібом та обороняли на материку перед "смертоностями". Тоді напевно буде мирне співжиття з іншими національностями й українцями, не буде тих "погромів", ні "гетів", ні "крематоріїв".

рів" та релігійно-національної ворожнечі на чужій землі. Ми повинні подякувати БОГУ, що зберіг нам життя серед наших жорстоких окупантів.

Похвалою є те, що наші визначні діячі нав'язують контакт з жидами, але ганьбою є те, коли вони не скажуть жидам правди в очі серед їхньої необ'єктивної критики. Треба домагатися від них цього інтелігентного поступування серед усіх християн у світі, домагатися ревізії (провірювання) їхніх засад, дій і кличів. Наші представники й посередники нехай завсіди будуть українцями в кожній чужій державі й обороняють наші права. Нехай завсіди пам'ятають слова Ісуса Христа: "Будьте второпні, як змії, і прості, як голуби!" (згадує про це теж Д-р Гр. Шляхицький в "Гомоні України" за липень 1963 р.).

Крім Симона Петлюри, жидівські автори в своїй історії ворогують та обкидають лайкою Богдана Хмельницького. Отаман С. Петлюра зовсім позитивно ставився до жидів у визвольних змаганнях за самостійність України, отже Б. Хмельницький не воював із жидами, але з поляками, яких шляхта й міщанство гнобили українське населення. Повстання Б. Хмельницького у 1648 році було реакцією проти національного і соціяльного поневолення українців поляками. Сила, з якою Україна стала до боротьби, підкопувала існування жидів в Україні. З цього часу жидівські інтелектуалісти червоного закрашення ширять ненависть жидів до українців.

У 18 і 19-ох століттях жиди мали визначені посади на гетьманських дворах. Жиди в Україні мали від віків "обітовану землю". Польська та московська політика 16-18 ст. воліла мати жида-помічника серед своїх лиходіїв, ніж мати українця-коляборанта, який завжди був певним елементом російської імперії (царська чи комуністична). Багато авторів історії жидівства ставиться вороже до українського населення, оскаржуючи їх за особливий антисемітизм, проте вони виявляють більше об'єктивности справжніх своїх релігійно-національних грішників. Вони забувають уже про свої кривди, спричинені азіятами й африканцями в старовині, як рівнож менше кричать про погроми жидів під кличами: "Бей жідов, спасай Росію!" чи "Шісен швайне юден!" (стріляти свинячих жидів) і т. ін. Коли українці виступили проти чужого експлуатства й обороняючи інтереси України, тоді все про[illegible] українців виступали поляки й жиди. Князь Ярема Вишневецький не щадив теж жидівських потентатів (багата і впливова особа, багатир, великий чи могутній пан) в устенському замку Бернавських. Поляки й жиди звуть Б. Хмельницького ворогом шляхти та жидів, бо шляхта ширила ворожу пропаганду в Україні, а жиди громадили в руках поважні капітали й ними вміло орудували.

Богдан Коринт у своїй статті "Українці, жиди і пропаганда Н. Гановера" (Див. "Гомін України" ч. 30 за 20-го липня 1963 р.) згадує, що Б. Хмельницькому "пришивають клеймо" антисеміта. Автор Н. Гановер у своїй книжці вихваляє Ярему Вишневецького, що він був найактивнішим у справах Ізраїля на Україні. Він зрозумів, що пропаганда потрібна не Польщі, а за її кордонами — в Европі. І до цього він вибрав жидівського теолога і письменника рабина Натана Гановера, батька якого вбито в час повстання 1648 року.

Натан Гановер народився в Острозі коло 1620 р[illegible] року. Батько Натана був рабіном (священник), який дав йому знатну освіту так, що Натан придбав собі славу визначного вченого. З вибухом повстання грабіжницька банда вбила батька Натана у Заславі, де вже одружений Натан жив у домі своїх тестів. Йому пощастило втечи до Німеччини, відтак до Голляндії, а в 1652-ім р. до Венеції. В 1654-ім році Натан переїхав до Молдавії, де був рабином в Ясах і Фокщанах, а у 1670 р. він жив уже в Моравах як рабин і суддя. В 13-ть років пізніше він загинув трагічно під час турецько-австрійської війни, коли від-ська графа Є. Текелі (союзника турків) здобули місто Унгаріш-Брод.

Рабин Натан Гановер усе своє життя присвятив науковій і теологічній діяльності. Перебуваючи в Німеччині й у Голляндії, він написав книжку про повстання Богдана Хмельницького. Він сам утік у перших днях революції та не був очевидцем справжніх подій, тому й його дані базуються на розповідях і легендах утікачів та інформаціях кругів, наставлених ворожо до української справи. Н. Гановер мав на меті описати у своїй книжці трагедію жидів, вплутаних у війну українського та польського народів, яка мала б виконати певне політичне завдання. Він у своїй праці вихвалює Ярему Вишневецького, як визначного вождя, хоч цей магнат (великий багатир) на такі похвали в історії зовсім не заслужив. Між поляками було багато визначних та успішних у діяльності старшин за Ярему Вишневецького, але амбіції (хвастощі, пиха) князя та сильна його партія вимагали повести велику пропаганду в його користь, що теж і зробив йому Натан Гановер.

На цій пропагандивній книзі нечесні жидівські історики базують свої твердження про Б. Хмельницького, як ворога жидів ч. 1. Самого Я. Вишневецького Н. Гановер звеличує як "друга Ізраїля і незрівняного героя". Книжка Гановера "Безодня одчаю", видана у Венеції 1652 року, була широко відома в европейських державах і зробила своє діло. Кожна книжка в ті роки була широко дискутована, бо книжок виходило мало та наклади їх були невеликі. Останньо "Безодня одчаю" появилася в англійській мові (Ебис оф діспер) у Нью-Йорку. Всю анархію (безладдя) тих років автор, а за ним історики жидівства складають на Б. Хмельницького й український нарід, не беручи до уваги об'єктивних тогочасних подій та умов життя. Сьогодні тяжко дискутувати про злочини з-перед більше як 300 років на льокальному континенті. Нині знаходимо дивовижні твердження про винищування жидів гітлерівцями (хозарські порахунки), звернені проти поляків, бо місця масового морду гітлерівці розмістили на території Польщі, про що тут уже було згадано попередньо. Подібні аргументи (доводи, докази) не повинні бути джерелом для поважних істориків, хібащо необ'єктивно для пропагандистів несвідомих сил у нашій минувшині.

Українсько-жидівського питання сьогодні т... розв'язати на спільну користь модерних часів та майбутності. Минулих подій не можна вже провірити та об'єктивно їх змінити. Жиди не можуть змінити своєї позиції до подій старої історії та офіційно не можуть зайняти прихильного становища до етичних і моральних прав українського народу, бо сучасні обставини не створюють для цього пригожого й реального грунтів.

Жидівство завсіди є здібне зміцнити інтереси червоного милок із ходу бувших історичних подій через свою нечесність, шахрайство та деспотство на чужих землях. Жидівство завсіди є здібне зміцнити інтереси червоного Кремля та поневолити інше християнське населення Землі. Вони є анархістами майже кожної вільної християнської держави світу та прямують до повалення чужих економічних ресурсів і моральних традицій усіх християн світу. Вони своїм фінансуванням та матеріяльними факторами не ... можуть релігійно-національних ідей інших народів! ... сіонізм і комунізм не здійснять планів червоного Кремля та нова експанзія марсистсько-ленінівських філософів пропаде в "чужому морі" християнського світу.

КОМУНІСТИЧНИЙ ВИЗВОЛИТЕЛЬ УКРАЇНИ

Мала Сурці одну козу
Та й ту дала до колгозу,
Сама сіла на граблі
Й рахує трудодні.

Ні корови, ні свині,
Тільки Ленін на стіні
Та показує рукою,
Куди їхать за мукою...
Батьку Ленін! Дайте мила,
Бо вже воші мають крила,
Як ще трохи підростуть,
То всі танки рознесуть!..
Ах! Майне вус?
Має очі клюс!
Гамени Мошку, гамени,
Бо настав плохой час.
Сі гіт, моя Сурці!
Вот, рабочій клас строїтса,
Нада чуть пождать...
Будьот лутше, как за Енгельса.
Покушала єврейська сім'я,
Аж у пузах заграло!
Не будєт больше хахлів ругать,
Бо нас здєсь очень замало.
Азой стало жіть лутше, веселей,
Уже колхози построєлі,
Загулі машіни паровіе,
Да, наш край дарогій.
Мойше! Фер вус Сурці?
Кім гей, моє рібйонко!
Прінесі меня стаканчік водкі,
Ну й запайом тіхонько...
Дорога страна моя родная,
Много в ней лесов, полєй і рек,
Я другой такой страни не знаю,
Где так вольно... дішіт человек?!...

НАШІ ГРІШНИКИ

...“А тим часом перевертні
Нехай підростають
Та поможуть москалеві Господарювати”...

(Т. Шевченко).

— А його духовий “Тарасівець” Микола Міхновський у своїм “ВІРУЮ” писав: “Шануй діячів рідного краю, ненавидь його ворогів, зневажай перевертнів — відступників, і добре буде цілому твоїму народові й тобі (точка 5-та).

Окупації нашої автохтонної України відбилися дуже від'ємно на національній свідомості українців, вони зродили вислужників, перекинчиків і зрадників. Вислужники, зрадники, перекинчики, що зрадили український нарід і пішли на службу Москві являються найбільшими ворогами української нації у творчості Тараса Шевченка.

Т. Шевченко своїм словом закаменував на віки всіх українців, які тягли руку з окупантами-ворогами України та вихваляли “новое отечество”. Він своїм сильним [illegible] нищив цю “нікчемну братію” — прислужників і лакеїв “отечества нового”, рабів його і підніжків “грязь Москви” та варшавське сміття.

Т. Шевченко вийшов на боротьбу, як Великий Гус і прирік:

...“Поборюсь, за мене Бог.
Да звершиться”...

Він повстав за правду — хай то буде смерть, хай його спалять вороги, як спалили Гуса — одна свідомість, що повстає за правду, надає йому відваги, сили й мужности.

Він бачив у Петербурзі багато українців, що забули свою батьківщину "дідів діла незабутні"... продавшись... "у різницю москалеві"... величають московське царство, говорять по-московськи, стидаються своєї мови, своєї батьківщини, стидаються признатись, хто вони такі — чиїх батьків діти, прославляють ворогів українського народу та звав їх у своїх творах "рабами з кокáрдою на лобі".

Великий Шевченко перестерігав дівчат-українок, щоб не кохали чужинців і не шукали його щастя там, де його немає, а творили свою родину, розбудовували свою рідну хату, виховували свою правду на своїй рідній землі, а саме:

"Кохайтеся чорнобриві
Та не з москалями,
Бо москалі — чужі люди
Роблять лихо з Вами"...

(Поема "Катерина").

У містерії "Великий льох" висвітлює, що Бог покарав смертю нашу дівчину, яка напоїла коня цареві Петрові І у Батурині, розбивши І. Мазепу. Іншій Бог відобрав життя, що, будучи ще маленькою, усміхнулася до цариці Катерини ІІ.

Він критикував нашу інтелігенцію, що... "Всі мови знають, крім своєї"...

"А між нами і земляки
Де-де проглядають,
По-московськи так і чешуть"...

Він звернув увагу свому братові у листах:

..."Пиши мені не по-московськи, а по нашому"...

Він серед московського окруження не хотів говорити чужою мовою:

..."Ба ні, кажу,
Говорить я вмію
та не хочу"... (Поема "Сон").

Т. Шевченко у поемі "Розрита могила" (9 жовтня 1843 р.) писав:

..."Степи мої зарподані
Жидові, німоті;
..."Степи мої запродані
На чужій роботі"...

Він для зрадників написав пророцтво:

— "Хто б ти не був, який би ти вірний раб не був, тобі вороги не повірять" — зрада нації найбільший гріх супроти неї, і його карається не тільки на Землі, але й на Небі.

(О. Орленко у своїй книжечці "Шевченко проти Москви" у 1949).

— Це свята правда. Наш Великий Пророк Т. Г. Шевченко та його духовий Провідник Микола Міхновський не помилялися. Хто з наших людей і навіть чужинців збойкотував їхні пророчі слова та відступив від своєї нації, вони карались на Землі й караються на Небі.

До таких грішників нашої релігійно-національної нації належать:

1. Петро Яблонь—Яровий, який був жахливим провокатором і агентом МГБ (Міністерство Государственной Безопасності), зрадник нашого народу закордоном. Яблонь вродився в Яворові, пов. Бучач, який був агентом жидівсько-комуністичного НКВД ще з першої окупації ЗУЗ большевиками, В час ІІ-гої світової війни, він був провокатором НКВД в нутрі СГД (Союз Гетьманців Державників) та намагався влізти в ряди соціялістів.

Опинившись по війні в Мюнхені, Яблонь фальшиво вліз у ряди ОУН, де проводив провокаторську роботу, щоб довести до розколу ОУН та виконати атентат на сл. п. С. Бандеру, Я. Стецька і на членів УГВР — Ребета та о. Гриньоху. Він свою агентурну роботу вів у користь МГБ серед українського, американського та російського середовищ. Він доставив МГБ цілий перебіг 1-шої альпійської конференції ЗЧ ОУН та зачитаний реферат про провокацію Печери й Мороза (діставав від своїх інформаторів — прим. Юста й т. ін.). (Див. "СУРМА" ч. 29-30 за 1951 рік).

2. Андрій Печара був жахливим жидівсько-комуністичним провокатором, уповноважений МГБ та розкритий органами СБ (Служба Безпеки).

В 1943-44 рр. він був на службі мадярської розвідки, отже провадив провокаційну роботу на Підкарпатті та в Карпатах проти революційного українського підпілля. Він був родом із Студеного біля Волівця на Закарпатті. По закінченню гімназії в Мукачеві він служив в армії УРСР. У 1940 р. ангажується в двозначну гру між німецькою та большевицькою розвідками та працює для німецької і большевицької розвідок.

На початку німецько-совєтської війни він служив при німецькій охороні нафтових джерел на Кримі, а опісля був комендантом одного з комісарів жидівсько-комуністичної поліції в Києві та контактувався з большевицькими партизанами в околицях Києва. Коли почався терор гештапа на ОСУЗ (Розстріл Рогача та О. Теліги з ОУН полк. А. Мельника), він утікає з націоналістками дівчатами й дістається до Львова та швидко зв'язується з мадярською розвідкою.

В 1942-44 рр. він служить рівночасно мадярській розвідці й гештапові в Сколім, Дрогобичі й у Львові. В 1943-44 рр. він навязує співпрацю й дружбу з Олегом Боднаром (Беднажем), який вів таку саму роботу. Вони розгортають провокаторську роботу проти націоналістичного підпілля й замастковують характер свого відношення до гестапо. Коли фронт наблизився до Карпат, вони організують розвідочну сітку для німців і мадяр набирають на вишколи і роботу переважно людей з ОСУЗ (незорієнтованих у терені ЗУЗ), буцімто вони це роблять із рамени ОУН-УПА. По лінії гестапо контактуються з шефом Бером (протиукраїнського відділу), а по мадярському боці співпрацюють із д-ром Ленгелем. Коли СБ-істи задумали їх арештувати за їхню провокаторську роботу, злочинці користуються з пересунення фронтової лінії та тікають, але революційна справедливість досягла їхніх спільників-агентів гестапа (Мирона та Болеслава Б[illegible] й покарала. Печера й Боднар зв'язуються з якимсь чехом-фольксдойчем біля Кракова, буцімто "шеф англійської розвідчої сітки" на тих теренах і пробують підсунути цей контакт ОУН Бандери й Мельника. Коли стає заломання Німеччини в Карпатах, вони переїждають на Закарпаття (німецька сторона) та приготовляють собі терен для дальшої служби в користь жидівсько-комуністичного НКВД. В липні-серпні 1944 року він нав'язав зв'язок із агентом НКВД Вірою Давидович (знайома жидівка з його рідного села Студеного на Закарпатті) у Стрию, яка у 1940 р. перейшла під большевиків до Галичини та працювала там у комсомолі в селі Кохавина в Стрийщині. Після відступу большевиків у 1941 році вона залишилася в Стрию як українка та контактувалася й співпрацювала з одним лейтенантом РОА (Власова), який був післяний большевицькою розвідкою для праці в німецькому запіллі. Печера й Боднар нав'язують із нею контакт про співпра[illegible] користь НКВД. Коли мадяри залапали на Закарпатті большевицьких парашутистів-розвідчиків із радіоапаратами, то Печара й Беднаж влаштували їм секретну втечу. Беднаж більше тримався большевицьких розвідчиків, а Печара мадярів, які збирали відповідні розвідчі матеріяли та вели подвійну розвідчу роботу. Від вересня до грудня 1944 року. Печара вербував до мадярської розвідки большевицьких вислужників, щоб мати змогу краще вести свою роботу, котрі колись мають посвідчити перед НКВД про його працю для них. Фіктивний зв'язок з "англійською розвідкою" — це большевицька розвідка підшивалась так, щоби здобути собі довіря та вкрастися в зв'язки з українським підпіллям (Див. "СУРМА" ч. 20, 1950 р., стор. 16-та).

3. Андрій Головко був катом жидівсько-комуністичного МГБ в Києві, вірний служака Кривавого Йосифа Сталіна й Кремля, підлий зрадник українського народу.

4. Самуель (Шальом) Шварцбарт, який народився в Смоленську (Росія) у 1886 році та прийняв французьке горожанство у 1925 році, над яким суд відбувся 18-го жовтня 1927 року. Він був комуністичним агентом червоної Москви та з жидівського походження, з рук якого згинув у Парижі дня 25 травня 1926 року Головний Отаман військ УНР Симон Петлюра.

Дня 23 травня 1938 року згинув від вибуху московсько-жидівської пекельної машини в Роттердамі провідник ОУН (Організація Українських Націоналістів), полк. Євген Коновалець.

5. Богдан М. Сташинський, який був теж агентом жидівсько-комуністичного КГБ, якого головою був Александер Ніколаєвіч Шелепін та Нікіти С. Хрущова, який своєю затрутою шприц-пістолею з ціян-калієм убив 15 жовтня 1959 р. у Мюнхені Провідника ОУН сл. п. Степана Бандеру. А. Н. Шелепін покликав убивцю до свого уряду в Москву та доручив йому грамоту про нагородження його орденом найвищої кляси за виконання морду на С. Бандеру. Цією самою зброєю передтим він убив українського еквзильного політика Лева Ребета в Мюнхені дня 12-го жовтня 1957 року.

— Таких агентів-вбивників найкращих людей християнського світу є більше по всіх державах світу, отже провідники наших рухів повинні про це все пам'ятати та бути готовними їх перехитрити. За такими агентами-вбивниками повинно шукати все українське населення та берегти своїх провідників від поновного конфлікту. Ми повинні шанувати й берегти своїх провідників, щоб ми не мали більше таких кольосальних втрат у нашому народі, котрі всеціло від-далися нашій невпинній праці для здійснення нашої спільної ідеї.

6. А. Смолецький був провокатором братовбивчої різні, який був заангажований білоруським адвокатом Ш., старим агентом жидівсько-комуністичного НКВД, який був уповноваженим репатріяційною комісією советського майора Прохурова в Мюнхені при Тюркенштрасе (Тюркен в[illegible]

Походить він із Рави Руської та живе десь у Франції, який передтим виступав під своїм правдивим прізвищем як Коваль Микола. Його шайка в Мюнхені робила всякі злочини (влом до фабрики, де власник був убитий; влом до реставрану, де був убитий портієр і була перестрілка з поліцією; невдалий влом до молочарні при Кацмаєрштрасе; грабіж запасів шкіри з гарбарні у Мільбетсгофен) та тероризувала й вбивала невинних людей.

Їм МГБ давало доручення, щоб учасники тих банд пролазили в українські політичні організації та в ОУН, щоб у випадку проловлення бандита на гарячому вчинку й арешту через німецьку чи аліянтську поліцію компромітувати передовсім ту політичну організацію.

Користаючи з повоєнної хуртовини, Смолецькому вдалося пролізти в ряди ОУН під проводом полк. А. Мельника. Він намагався пропхатися також у ряди революційної ОУН, але натрапивши на інформатора СБ, який [illegible] його секрети. Він хотів допровадити обі ОУН до анархії та братовбивчої різні, а на випадок арешту його поліцією, компромітувати обі ОУН. Він мав у пляні вбити полк. А. Мельника, але СБ революційної ОУН допильнувала Смолецького та при зустрічі сл. п. Степан Бандера передав полк. А. Мельникові його провокаторські пляни (стояв на стійці під хатами, де заходив тоді полк. А. Мельник).

З кінцем березня 1946 року, Смолецькому-Ковалеві поховзнулася нога на грабежах і він попав у німецьку тюрму. Вірний вислужник МГБ сказав кримінальним поліцаям при арештуванні, що він є членом ОУН(м) та мав у хаті нелегальну літературу, щоб із місця компромітувати ОУН(м). Смолецькому грозила довголітня тюрма, але совєтські майори Прохуров і Сухов (правні дорадники Ш.), старі його опікуни не залишили свого собачку без помочі в біді. Смолицький зголосився на "родіну" та 16 серпня 1946 року від'їхав, зобов'язуючись там ще вірніше служити МГБ (Див. "Сурма" ч. 28, 1951 р., стор. 16—19).

7. Андрусишин-Боян (пів-анальфабет), який в Австрії в Зальцбургу зумів пропхатися в окруження трьох політичних організацій: ОУН(м), революційної ОУН та Союзу Гетьманців. Його фантазії провокативної роботи спричинили поважне загострення відносин між обі ОУН на тому терені та до ворожнечі між східняками й західняками. Він теж впевняв, що провід мельниківський видав вироки смерти на членів революційної ОУН. Він був розкритий за свої провокації та втік десь за океан. На його місце приходили інші (сотки й тисячі), які намагалися проникнути в українське самостійницьке середовище закордоном (Див. "Сурма" ч. 28 за 1951 рік, стор. 19-та).

8. Роман Барановський був боєвиком УВО та членом ОУН, а рівночасно агентом польської поліції та провокатор (Альманах "Гомону України" за 1946 рік, стор. 160). У книжці Володимира Мартинця "Від УВО до ОУН" (стор. 72) теж згадується, що він був членом УВО, який пішов на "підшепки" й спокуси польської поліції та став провокатором. Його вирекліся старенькі родичі й брат, не говорячи вже про осуд цілої суспільности. Був засуджений та опущений усіми і вмер у тюрмі.

9. П. Кожевников (член ПУН та ОУН), який був німецьким розвідником, якого суд ОУН викинув із рядів ("Від УВО до ОУН" В. Мартинця, стор. 72-га).

10. Річард Ярий (дружина жидівка) був теж гестапівським розвідником (Див. "Від УВО до ОУН" В. Мартинця та "Вісті з України" з 1960 р.).

II. БОЛЬШЕВИЦЬКИЙ АГЕНТ ЛІБГОЛЬЦ.

Його вислали московські катебісти з дорученням до Зах. Німеччини, щоб отруїти Провідника ОУН, сл. пам. Степана Бандеру в 1953 році. Він — примітив не міг цього завдання виконати, отже КГБ відкликало його до Східньої Німеччини. Дня 13 жовтня виступав він там на влаштованій большевиками пресовій конференції, де ширив пропаганду, що С. Бандеру отруїв бл. пам. Дмитро Миськів.

Степан Ліберольц був провокатором і нікчемним агентом червоної Москви. Літом 1953 р. він появився в адміністрації "Українського Самостійника", який говорив, що він походить із Волині та звільнено його (як німця) з совєтського полону. Відтак він утік із східньої зони Німеччини на Захід та хоче познайомитися з українським політичним життям у Мюнхені, як рівнож із деякими нашими політиками. Він-німець і хоче допомогти українській визвольній справі, бо є великим прихильником України.

При зустрічі з нашими організаціями в Мюнхені він виявляв факт, що добре володіє українською мовою та він народився на Волині в 1907 р. у Старій Олександрівці. В 1914 році він був вивезений із родиною в глибину Росії, коли до їхньої місцевости наближився фронт. Вивезених інтерновано біля Саратона, де й померли його батько, мати і сестра, а він залишився там із братом. У 1917 р. обидва переїхали до своїх дядьків Трогерів, які жили в Ромнах на Полтавщині, де переїхав також його дядько Зайферт. Там він закінчив десятилітку, а відтак учився в електромеханічному технікумі. Був там активним комсомольцем, але за побиття жида був арештований та по двох тижнях тюрми його більше до школи не прийняли. Зайферти були багаті непмани і репресовані, яким Ліберольц часто розповідав про переслідування його родини. Зайферта часто арештували, вимагаючи від нього золотих рублів. Ці репресії (кари) Зайферта закінчилися тим, що його енкаведисти повісили у власному садку — твердив С. Ліберольц.

Він нарікав, що не мав відповідної праці, але коли оженився з Оленкою (дочкою столяра) в Ромнах, де й вона працювала в "Промхарчторзі", тоді він за її допомогою дістав там працю бухгальтера. В 1933 році Лібгольц у Шепетівці зголосився на прикордонну заставу НКВД по дозвіл збирати вовну в прикордонній смузі СССР. Звідтам він дістався на нічліг до Славутичів, де й ніччю напоїв господаря (не колгоспника) горілкою та щасливо перейшов совєтсько-польський кордон. У м. Луцьку на Волині польська поліція посадила його до тюрми та провіряла його недосягнену справу цілий місяць, але на інтервенцію за запевнення дядька Трегера його звільнили, в яких він залишився жити.

В 1939 році Лібгольц, Трегери й інші німці (на підставі совєтсько-німецького договору) пересилилися в Польщу, де в районі Варшави він одержав великий маєток. Там покликали його в німецьку армію, де він перейшов агентурний вишкіл у характері перекладача у чині "Зондерфюрера" (особливий керівник). Відтак він був агентом-перекладачем 6-го відділу ОКВ ("Оберкомандо дер Вермахт") на терені Польщі, де мав тісні зв'язки з гестапом і військовою контрозвідкою. Коли його підозрівали в контакті з партизанами серед совєтських громадян, то йому було легко відкинути такі доноси, бо за ним обстоював його шеф. Гауптман, який за Лібгольца дуже швидко вибився аж у полковника, а тоді порекомендував його у вищу розвідувальну школу, якою керував Ґелен. З цієї школи Лібгольц у 1945 р. був призначений на фронт, де брав участь в обороні Берліну та на прикінці квітня 1945 р. попав у совєтський полон в уніформі звичайного солдата, де пережив важкі хвилини свого життя, хворів і втратив там багато здоров'я. В своїй розмові він проговорився, що за знання російської мови він полегших собі своє перебування в таборі полонених.

Після звільнення з полону він переїхав жити до Даммерів, прецловського району в Східній Німеччині до свого дворідного брата Трегера, де весь час думав про втечу до Західньої Німеччини, що йому вдалося зробити за допомогою агентури в січні 1953 року. Він попав у табір утікачів у Західньому Берліні, а відтак переїхав до своєї тітки до Вальфенбютталь. На доручення агентів червоного Кремля він переїхав до Мюнхену, Баварія, щоб завершити своє завдання — вбити Лева Ребета та Степана Бандеру.

Сама його біографічна легенда та підозрілість у зв'язках із політичним українським середовищем гамували його шпіонажу в користь наших ворогів. У Мюнхені він теж стає членом "Німецько-українського товариства" ім. Гердера та знаходить також знайомство серед німецької публики. Для улегшення своїх зв'язків і шпіонажі він закладає власний ресторан т. зв. "Стефанскляузе", в якому постійно влаштовує безплатні прийняття. З грішми він зовсім не числиться та щовечора він тратить суми місячного заробітку (300-800 нм марок), мовлячи, що має великі прибутки з ресторану й одержав відшкодування (як утікач) та за золото, зорганізоване в час війни... Він у своєму ресторані затруднив тітку Берту і кузина, а все це давало зрозуміти, що є заанґажований у якійсь німецькій таємній розвідувальній службі.

Він запрошував теж на свої прийняття у чужих ресторанах, на що теж витрачав великі суми грошей. І так "гостинний" німець годував своїх клієнтів, а часом підсипував страви спеціяльними порошками, а опісля його клієнти переживали страшні болі в шлунках тижнями у лікарнях.

Його розкрив бл. пам. Миськів, якого Лібгольц "вважав" за свого приятеля. Лібгольц і його кагебісти пускали всякі найогидніші провокації, щоб викликати анархію серед наших рядів і його знищити за свої грошеві підкупства і т. п. Коли він побачив, що українці починають йо-го обминати та бойкотувати, тоді він починає організувати мережу інформаторів про українські політичні середовища й особи, яких підбирав із неукраїнців, щоб давали йому всякі інформації.

Він сягав аж до середовища ОУН і збирав інформації про спосіб життя Провідника сл. пам. Степана БАНДЕРИ, про розміщення кімнат і працівників у бюрах Дому визвольного руху в Мюнхені. Він робив навіть заходи, щоб його побачити та з ним познайомитися, бо це очевидно олегшило б його слідство для виконання більшовицького пляну.

Наша братія поробила всякі протизаходи, щоб його обставити та мати хоч частину контролі над його діяльністю. Тоді Ліберольцеві інформатори вимагали від нього більше горілки та приносили йому відомості, що його життя є загрожене і т. ін. Він теж був в афері (шахрайській справі) з різними "дамами", які пропивали його гроші та вели брудну ролю в його брудному житті.

З цього КҐБ не було задоволене, отже його охопили нерви та манія переслідування. Він погрожував бандерівцям і СБ фізичною ліквідацією, забарикадовував двері і вікна своєї кімнати та з пістолем, готовим до стрілу, чекав на бандерівців. За порадою одної з його «наречених» він сховався в Штуттґарті, а відтак дуже рідко приїжджав до Мюнхену, щоб перевірити "атмосферу..."

Наказодавці перекидають його до Італії, а в серпні 1957 він знова зупинився в Мюнхені, де почав знову виходити зі своїми "симпатіями" до українців. З часом він попав знова у паніку переслідування з боку СБ та через те він утік із Німеччини. Весною 1957 року він повідомив своїх найближчих, що з огляду на безпеку життя, він вирішив переїхати на постійне перебування до Відня.

В своїй кореспонденції він не подавав своєї зворотної адреси з Відня. З того часу ніхто з українців Ліберольца не бачив і з ним не говорив. Люди говорили, що його го відкликали до СССР на лікування від манії переслідування, що з ним розрахувалися бандерівці, що він сидить у большевицькій тюрмі за великі витрати грошей на алкоголеві напої та жіноцтво, а зі своїм кагебівським завданням він не справився і т. ін.

Народ уже почав забувати про Ліберольца та його кремлівську агентуру, але коли кагебісти найшлися в тяжкому скруті, вони витягли С. Ліберольца 13 жовтня 1961 року на конференцію в Східньому Берліні, де представили його як розкаяного агента західньо-німецької розвідувальної служби ГЕЛЕНА, що зі страху перед погромами він утік на совєтську зону Німеччини та заставили його сказати присутнім про свою легендарну діяльність большевицького посмаку.

Ліберольц почав знова від своєї автобіографії, перекручуючи своє прізвище на "Ліппольц" та хвалився про свої большевицькі вишколи і перешколи та про свої агентурні подвиги серед християнсько-національного населення в Мюнхені, тощо. Він твердив теж, що "доктор Вебер" завербував його а свого агента та доручив йому "спостерігати за українськими емігрантами в Організації Бандери". При цьому головну увагу "привертали Бандера і Кашуба". «Він мав завдання, щоб встановити з ним близький контакт, завоювати їх особисте довіря та вивчити спосіб [redacted] нього життя". Він мав завдання цікавитися людьми з охорони сл. пам. Бандери, докладно взнати спосіб його життя і т. ін. "Д-р Вебер" запропонував йому у 1957 році підшукати можливість насильницького усунення бл. пам. С. Бандеру, при чому він вручив йому білий порошок, яким належало отруїти Степана Бандеру. "Д-р Вебер сказав йому, що цей порошок він може застосувати зовсім сміло, бо його отрута починає діяти аж після її прийняття. Він запропонував Ліберольцеві виконати це завдання в ідальні бандерівської організації, розташованій на Цеппе-ліштрассе 67, бо в цьому випадку підозріння впаде на самих членів його організації".

Лібгольц плянував заанґажувати до своїх завдань бл. пам. Дмитра Миськового, провідного члена ОУН сл. пам. С. Бандери який постійно буває в будинку Цеппеліштрассе 67 — говорив дальше він на конференції у Східньому Берліні. Він там признавався до свого душегубного завдання та ширив нові-нові провокації, щоб Злочини Москви приписати німцям, а виконання цього злочину — членові Проводу ОУН сл. пам. Д. Миськіву. Дмитро Миськів був знаний українському населенню та помер, отже Лібгольц не міг опрокидати йому якісь клевети, бо він пляиував знищити бл. пам. Д. Миськова — провідного члена ОУН, який поміг українській спільноті розкрити правдиве обличчя агента СССР — С. Лібгольця.

В дальших своїх провокаціях Лібгольц фантазує свої дефініції та обвинувачує їх у його протидіях інж. Я. Сулиму, Д. Міськова, Кашубу, Гнипа і Ціперу, які хочуть із ним "розквитатися", як із Скобом (член КГБ) дня 9 січня 1956 р. (третий день Різдвяних Свят).

Під кінець свого виступу на берлінській конференції Лібгольц сказав, що Скоба зліквідували бандерівці, а Дмитро Миськів, член Проводу ЗЧ ОУН, померлий 27-го березня 1960 року, признався йому, що він убив сл. пам. Степана Бандеру, підсипавши йому до їди отруту з доручення того самого «Вебера».

Мушу тут усім пригадати, що в день зникнення кагебіста Скоба друг І. Кашуба перебував в Італії на двотижневій різдвяній відпустці, а Ціпера і Гнип сиділи тоді в тюрмі, відбуваючи несправедливо довгорічну кару американського суду за легке побиття та перестрашення зрадника Гулая, отже вони не могли вбити большевицького Скоба, про що брехав Лібгольц на конференції Східнього Берліну.

Вся оранжеровка большевиками провокації Лібгольца ганебно провалилися. Попавши в паніку, що дійсний вбивник може бути розкритий, вони так невдало забрехалися, що самі здемаскували себе своєю брехнею (Див. «Шлях Перемоги» ч. 50, 1961). — Так поступають усі агенти червоної Москви, щоб нас усіх християн послабити морально поза границями СССР, а відтак [redacted] пити заломлених душевно християнські душі та «замотати» їх для холодної своєї війни, з якої може й розгорітися нова марксистська революція, шляхом чого могли б поширитися кордони СССР, а тоді винищити всіх провідних християнських людей держав світу за їхні протидії серед мирного комуністично-пролетарського населення, тощо.

12. ІВАН М. БИСАГА «Надійчик» — АГЕНТ ЧЕРВОНОЇ МОСКВИ

Іван М. Бисага — це старий агент і провокатор із вулиці Леніна в Києві, який шпіонував для кремлівського КГБ. Він був у контакті з Б. М. Сташинським («Надійник») у Мюнхені, Західня Німеччина.

Богдан М. Сташинський на своєму політичному суді в Карльсруге дня 9-го жовтня 1962 року [redacted] що він про І. М. Бисагу довідався від Сергія — [redacted] бівського зверхника Східнього Берліну, де й дістав адресу д-ра Лева Ребета (Мюнхен, Шавбінґ, Франц-Йозефштрассе).

Іван Бисага напевно був добре вишколений КҐБістами, — фотографами, який фотографував усі місця, де перебували чи являлися українські провідні особи, як д-р Лев Ребет і Провідник ОУН сл. пам. Степан Бандера.

Фактом є те, що вони в Баварії мали вже добре зорганізовану шпигунську шайку, які діяли в користь Кривавого Кремля. Він був старим і добрим большевицьким агентом — катом, не гіршим за П. Яблоня, А. Печеру, А. Головка, С. Шварцбарта, Валюха, А. Смолецького, Андрусишина-Бояна, С. Лібгольца, М. Б. Сташинського чи навіть інших попередників, як прим. Р. Барановський, П. Кожевників та Ричард Ярий (польські та німецькі агенти-провокатори. Див. «Шлях Перемоги» ч. 42, 1962).

Полк. Стіґ ВЕННЕРСТРЕМА — це здемаскований довголітній большевицький агент у Швеції (т. зв. «Шпигун-майстер»), який впродовж 15-ти років продавав Москві найбільші таємниці своєї батьківщини.

Він працював у шведській розвідувальній службі та знаменито орієнтувався в справах оборони Швеції, про що з першого джерела знав партійний апарат і КГБ СССР. Він м. ін. сидить тепер у центральній тюрмі «Лянггольмен» у Стокгольмі.

Процес Веннерстрема має відбутися пізньої осени в цьому році. Припускають, що його-в'язня засудять на 10-15 рр. «досмертної» в'язниці. Він є там під незвичайно дбайливою охороною, де йому не вільно з ніким контактуватися та кожний його рух обсервують сторожі у в'язничій келії. Навіть під час його сну в келії перебуває доглядач, який не зводить із Веннерстрема своїх очей.

Щоб Веннерстрема не втік із тюрми, то шведський уряд заплянував перебудову цієї тюрми, в якій мав би постати окремій павільйон (окрема крита будівля), де можна б безпечно примістити найбільшого шпигуна Швеції — Стіга Веннерстрема. В його павільйоні мають бути наймодерніші технічні засоби, які унеможлюватимуть шпигунові втечу іззовні. В його камері буде теж заінсталювана телевізійна надавча станція, з допомогою якої доглядачі в тюрмі обсервуватимуть кожний рух в'язня. Крім цього, в тюрмі буде скріплена тюремна сторожа, яка дістане спеціяльні вказівки, як має берегти Стіга Веннерстрема. Кошти будови цієї тюрми та її влаштування будуть коштувати платників високі суми грошей.

Як Швеція, так і кожна інша країна вільного світу вийшла б багато краще, якщо б замість видавати гроші на будову тюрм для шпигунів, докладала зусиль у тому напрямі, щоб плекати відпорність свого насе[illegible] ня перед московсько-большевицькою інфільтрацією [illegible] никанням), вислідом якої є дуже сприяюча атмосфера для розросту ворожої шпигунської роботи.

Можемо сміло сказати, що вільні народи світу присвячують дуже мало уваги вищезгаданим засобам охорони безпеки. Вони чомусь шукають контактів із червоною Москвою та допомагають їй незамітно проникати у християнські держави і морально їх розкладати (Див. «Шлях Перемоги» ч. 34, 1963 р.). Такими методами вони допомагають Комінтернові Кремля до експанзії СССР та марксистських плянів.

Большевицькі агенти розкладу в 1949 році мали 6 університетів по студіям методики, тактики та змісту брехні, а ціла діяльність Дезінформу (ширять дезорієнтацію в усіх позасовєтських країнах) підлягала пропагандивному Бюрові Комінформу. Тепер такі школи переважно розміщені по сателітних державах СССР, які вишколюють відповідних провокаторів та агентів у [illegible] У більшости все це зв'язане з їхніми туристами з сателітніх держав і всяких мистців, хорів і танцювальних груп, які контактуються зі своїми агентами в інших державах. Переважно вони фінансують своїх агентів в европейських державах поза СССР, а ті вже безпечно доїжджають до інших частин світу, зовсім незамітно для інших розвідок. Часто-густо роблять це підкупством через усяких міждержавних торгівців імпортів та експортів. Усякі накази Москви можуть легко перевозитися в будьяких тоалєтних приборах, харчах і т. п. всяких агентів СССР. Треба вміти вишукувати таких «голодранців», а континентальні аристократи до цього нездібні... Буває, що вони пильнують льокальних «форнерів», які є одними з найкращих горожан льокальної держави, а їхні платні «бигшати» (багаті, аристократи й т. ін.) роблять роботу для чужих агентів. Буває, що родженець даної місцевости паразитує для «чужих грибів», а наш бідний дядько блукає без роботи, бо він «форнер», а комуністи Канади його не «бадерують» (не докучають чи не турбують). Інші воліли б воювати з льокальними фашистами й націоналістами, щоб тільки не дражнити «сапожників дядя Хрущова»... Якщо ти тут «форнер», отже не пхай носа до «наших комуністів», бо ще тебе заарештує поліціянт і завезуть до Божевільного Дому» — думаю, що всім це буде зрозумілим...

Агенти такого Дезінформу діють переважно непов'язано з льокальною їхньою сіткою шпіонажі чи з комуністами. Вони переважно працюють на «індивідуальній роботі» й орієнтуються на пропагандивну тактику Комінформу та ширять дезорієнтацію і заплутаність у всіх питаннях СССР та сателітніх держав (прим. юнії, страйки, розходження національних партій і релігій і т. ін.). Вони паперовою пропагандою нічого вже тут не вдіють, тому й шукають усе нових об'єктів «свойого наступу» — вперйод за батька й сонічко Кремля!.. Їхнім завданням поза залізною заслоною, щоб заплутати «буржуазію американського континенту» в суперечностях так, щоб унеможливити їм довіряти своїм льокальним джерелам інформацій. Такі вислужники Кремля часто вдають політичних еміґрантів, дезертирів із ЧА (Червона Армія), родженців даної чи сусідніх країн, тощо. Не знаючи ще льокальної мови та територіяльних традицій, а вже хоче бути диктатором в уряді та мати різних своїх «козачків-інформаторів» і т. ін. Такий «йолуп всеросійський» має вже сміліть сказати українському політичному еміґрантові: «Ви чого приїхали сюди бідувати! Я тут роджений, але поїду на Україну вмирати»... Інше.

Їхнім завданням на новім континенті є ослаблювати й злагіднювати настрої незадоволення, що час до часу постають наслідком вісток про факти терору, ставити їх під сумнів, відвертати від них увагу, а зацікавлення спрямовувати в інший бік і т. п. Останнім їхнім каригідним завданням є помагати зійти на манівці ...раліствующим» вільнодумцям і помагати безпартійним спілкам урядників чи інтелігентів, письменників, театральних робітників відповідною мішаниною правди й брехні дезорієнтувати публічну опінію, затроювати її ядром сумніву та непевности. Такі завдання вимагають природньої інтелігенції й тонкости та відповідного знання проблєм, особистостей і психології окремих народів. Тому школи та бюра такого Дезінформу «построєно» різні для окремих груп країн у світі (Використано «Сурму» ч. 3 як допоміжну літературу).

Льокальні комуністи є переважно «бізнесовці» для поширення дещо пропагандивного і кращих інтересів Кремля та сателітних платних наймитів, які переважно «воюють» із своїми «ізмєнніками народа», що провадять своє об'єктивне релігійно-національне життя та плекають свої традиції на цьому континенті. Буває, що льокальні комуністи намагаються паралізувати наше рел... національне життя на вигнанні й знеславляти своїми пропагандивними критиками наш провід і т. ін.

Берлінський комітет за повернення на родіну у своїх пропагандивних брошурах усе зачисляють визначних націоналістів до агентів християнських держав і ворогів СССР, які воювали з ними за Самостійну Соборну Українську Державу на своїй прадідівсько-автохтонній землі-Україні з палеолітичних часів. У них національно-визвольна праця ОУН є провокацією у християнських державах світу. Вони навіть працівників ІРО, УНРРА та

СІС поробили своїми агентами, як також хотіли б продиктувати всім християнським державам, щоб вони винищили всіх наших політичних утікачів з-під їхнього комуністичного «раю» кривавого батька-різника товариша Хрущова. Вони у своїх памплетах і рептиліях називають своїми криміналістами Голову ЦК АБН Ярослава Стецька, панів Осипа Яськовича, Ярослава Бентсаля, Кашубу, Мудрика й інших (Див. видавництво Канадійсько-Слов'янського Комітету при 280 Квін Ст. Вест, Торонто 2Б).

Коли Л. Б. Пірсон, Премієр Канади змагає до устійнення спільних справ оборони, НАТО та торгівці з През. Кеннеді, то всякі «мочи морди» комуністичного кубла (деревляна посуда) страшать нас, що «коли Канада прийме ядерну зброю, то ядерні ракети будуть і скеровані на Канаду) мабуть із кубинських катакомбів...). Вони — українці Канади не хочуть стати жертвами термоядерної війни (собачі політики). Коли наш Прайм міністер Пірсон турбується нуклеарною зброєю, то їхній Ваня Мельничук і Вася Каштан «ревуть мордами чотироногих жидівсько-комуністичних потвор про мир (піс)» та відкидають інтерференцію (втручання) ЗДА в цю важну справу. Нуклеарна зброя ЗДА для Канади може знищити 410.000 їхніх членів і симпатиків (?). Вони видають останній цент'на дурниці, а їхні члени ходять по-жебрацьки та без праці, а тримаються того «борохла», яке в кожній хвилині може вітер розвіяти...

Деякі барони бояться вмерти в атомічній війні та воліють жити під комуністичним режимом (прим. д-р Рассель — Англія), багато американських «животатих аристократів» хуліганять із кремлівським політбюром (Дін Раск) та допомогли бородатому Кастрови виницити кубинських націоналістів — найкращих горожан ЗДА (невдалий дисант на Кубу через непровесійну чи спеціяльну розвідку Діна Раска), так само деяких канадійських урядників не «бадерують комуністи», а тільки якісь фашисти й націоналісти. Люди, які мають закінчені університети політичних наук, але не вміють дипльоматично політикувати у своїй державі (прим. Ед. Ендрю). Такі примітиви хочуть, щоб їхня держава була сильна, коли вони не люблять найкращих своїх горожан, які мають добрі прикмети й принагідно шукають за комуністичними рухами в даній державі.

Вбивця Лі Гарвей ОСВАЛЬД — це тип больш[illegible] цького покрою, який не знаходив для себе місця у своїй батьківщині — ЗДА. Не скінчивши середньої школи, був якийсь час матросом у фльоті, але його видалено звідти за погану поведінку. Від 15-ть літ він був під впливами червоних, які підготовляли його до диверсійної злочинної роботи визнавців комунізму.

В 1959 р. він виїхав до СССР, де оженився та перебував там три роки. Відтак попросив дозволу американської амбасади в СССР про повернення до ЗДА. Вишколений, повернув до ЗДА в 1962 р., який слідив за през. Дж. Ф. Кеннеді, щоб виконати московський плян, отже його доконав дня 22. XI. 1963 р.

Американці «скрінінгували» наших християн і націоналістів та деяких навіть віддали в пащу Кривавого Сталіна, а ФБІ (слідче бюро ЗДА) не проскрінінгували своїх горожан, які повидавали державні секрети че[illegible] Москві та під кінець вони й забили свого президен[illegible] толика, який був їм на заваді серед большевицької стахановки в ЗДА. Жидівська комуна паразитує в ЗДА та здійснює марксистські плани Кремлівських Комінтернів, а їхні аристократи дбають лише про свої животи та кишені долярів.

Віктор Ризел — американський журналіст є кращим політиком за ФБІ в цьому вбивстві, бо він зовсім виключає ненормальний психологічний стан ОСВАЛЬДА т[illegible] РУБІ, а таки заявляє, що вбивця Л. Г. ОСВАЛЬД був по-в'язаний із Москвою. ОСВАЛЬД від 1959 року до осени 1962 року перебував у СССР та передав совєтській владі таємний код американської морської піхоти, у якій він сам служив. Він міг у СССР свобідно їздити по Совєтському Союзі, чим не можуть користуватися звичайні чужинці. Він був троцкістом (за твердженням радянської преси) та американським шпигуном (прим. м. Менськ). то чому власне дозволено йому повернутися до ЗДА та й у додатку взяти собі за жінку совєтську горожанку-комуністичну шпигунку... Москва ніколи не випускає за кордон горожан СССР, за виїмком своїх вишколених агентів у Москві чи в Ленінграді.

Через таких державних політиків на цьому континенті мусимо й ми терпіти ще й тут морально та матеріяльно від комуністичних посіпак, тиран і агентів, які забили нам С. Петлюру, Є. Коновальця, Л. Ребета та С. Бандеру, а на кінець і самого президента ЗДА, Джана Ф. Кеннеді.

Пан Іван Гладун, автор книжечки «В СІТЯХ МІЖНАРОДНІХ ЗМОВНИКІВ» зовсім не помиляється, коли ганить мафію (банду) всяких матеріялістичних філософів і зорганізованих фабіяністів (соціялістична сметанка), які звеличують московську імперію та її соціялістично-марксистський суспільний лад. Він і тут згадав теж проф. Сіймора Герриса, який доказує, що політика Америки прямує до соціялізму, згідно з плянами міжнародньої мафії (стор. 25-та). Жидівсько-комуністичні агенти влізають аж у Головний Провід ЗДА та й до Об'єднаних Націй.

В «Шляху Перемоги» за 7. 1. 1963 р. згадується, що кожний совєтський представник до ОН у Нью-Йорку вважається большевицьким агентом (Томас Додс — американський сенатор). В останніх 9-ох роках урядування в ОН викинено вже 16-ть московсько-большевицьких шпигунів (делегати, канцелярійні службовці).

Це все є виявом браку політичного знання та державного вироблення провідних громадян ЗДА. За подібними шляхами праці «далеко не зайдемо», а створимо анархію та мафію в даній державі і «поживу» для червоного Кремля та для большевицьких пропагандистів, тиранів і різників у світі.

Колись Іван Котляревський — будитель національного життя Нової Доби у 18-ому столітті писав, що «Коли народ щиро любить свою батьківщину, його не переможе ніякий ворог, бо серце сильніше від гармат. Народ вкінці переможе!» (згадала пані Е. Гайдер у своєму публичному виступі — див. «Гомін України» за 13-го травня 1961 року на стор. 3). Всякі анархістичні дії та помилки осібняків християнських держав дають можливість розвиватися жидівсько-комуністичній шайці й агентам червоного Кремля. Автор.

ЖИДІВСЬКО-КОМУНІСТИЧНА МОРАЛЬ НА УКРАЇНІ

Мораль — це наука про добрі обичаї та поведінку, яка тісно пов'язана з етикою (наука про обичайність). Етика — це студії та оцінка поведінки людини у світлі моральних принципів. Історично відкрито багато теорій щодо душі мужчини й відповідальності за його акції.

Інтуіціоністи (віщуни, догадковці) як прим. Руссо — підтримував, що душа людини є своєрідною та підбурює моральні акції. Імпіріцісти (Комте, Лаке, Джон Стюарт Мил) пояснювали етику як продукт вироблення чи досвід. Деякі філософи шукали абсолютної етичної критерії (мірило для якоїсь думки) в релігії. Ідеалісти (Платон, Кант) бачили базу етики в метафізиці (частина філософії, що займається надприродніми речами). Гегель і Маркс учили, що етика є арбітром (мировий чи третейський суддя) території. Інші (Дювей, Фелікс Адлер) вчили, що етика є індивідуальною контролею.

Комуністична мораль грунтується на захисті всенародної власності на засоби виробництва, включає в себе гибоку більшовицьку ідейність, відданість комуністичній партії й інтересам трудящих, любов до комуністичної держави, повагу до людської гідности, соціялістичне ставлення до праці та бережності. В основі комуністичної моральності лежить боротьба за побудову комунізму. Найвищим моральним законом і критерієм радянської етики є боротьба за побудову комуністичного суспільства.

Комуністична мораль побудована на основі матеріялізму й атеїзму (на системі т. зв. діялектичного матеріялізму). Большевики вороже ставляться до всякої релігії, а особливо до християнства! З перших же років революції вони розкинули жорстоку боротьбу з християнством і арештували, розстрілювали та навіть вішали служителів Церкви, провадили антирелігійну пропаганду через школи, комсомольські, піонерські й провесійні організації, через пресу, кіно, театр, організували антирелігійні музеї, союзи безбожників і т. ін.

Ця боротьба з релігією не припинялась до о[illegible]нього часу, лише набирала трохи інших форм. Тепер московські большевики більше наполягають на антерелігійну пропаганду, притягуючи до неї науковців. Мають погляди моралі февдальної (політичний напрямок комунізму), капіталістичної (експлуатація класу буржуазії) та пролетарської, які є рушійною силою в розвитку людства (февдальний — капіталістичний — комуністичний — аж до безкласового суспільства). Трактуючи людину, як річ матеріяльну, заперечуючи існування душі людини та визнання якої лежить в основі християнської моралі. (Використано "Визвольний шлях" ч. 3 за 1962 р., стор. 282-4 як допоміжний матеріял).

У 1959 році міськкомпартії большевиків відкрив у м. Чернівцях "Будинок атеїста". При раді будинку створено секції: критики православної релігії, релігійного сектарства, юдаїзму та пропаганди науково-природничих знань. У будинку влаштовуются вечори з доповід[illegible] фільмами на антирелігійні теми. Людей зганяють, висилаючи «запрошення» на підприємства, в домоуправління, установи й учбові заклади. Завербовані КГБ продажні типи виступають на таких зібраннях із вигаданими клеветами на священників і вірних, "розвінчують" їх як "ворогів народу". Дальшу вже роботу виконують "суди громадськости" (Див. «Гомін України» ч. 11 за 1961 рік).

"В Україні й Білорусі", протягом 1961 року замкнено 1,500 церков. Причиною замкнення церков є тиск советського режиму — великі податки й грошеві кари, накладені на церковні громади, як теж ведена комуністичною партією атеїстична пропаганда, спрямована на відстрашення людей від релігії (Див. «Шлях Перемоги» ч. 4 за 1962 рік).

На Буковині з церков пороблено шпихлірі для ссипки збіжжя. В тих же церквах, які ще залишилися, Богослужби відправляються не українською, а російською мовою. Замість українських священників, окупаційна влада наставила московських попів (батюшек). Москалі на Буковині під час наших Великодніх свят розраховують так, щоб не приділяти приділів борошна (муки) для населення Буковини з явним наміром, щоб українці святкували Великдень без пасок (див. «Шлях Перемоги» ч. 27 з 7 липня 1963 року).

Позамикано теж багато церков уже на Закарпатті(Карпатська Україна й Словаччина) та пороблено з них публічні комуністичні доми, тощо. Замкнено понад десяток наших церков у Львові у багато на ЗУЗ. Московські й ленінські партійні кабінети ВКП(б) та КГБ вишколили багато українських попів-кагевістів, які працюють всецілo для червоного Кремля. Християнське населення України про це вже знає та не йде до них сповідатися, як рівнож не йде до їхніх «протирелігійних гет» (храмів... — всі вони є лише большевицькими агентурами, а ці попи тільки "чигають" на християнську душу, як "котик на мишку"). Народ молиться БОГУ тихцем поза домом, щоб ніхто не почув, тощо.

Передтим переслідували населення цілої України національно, а тепер і релігійно та немає кращих виглядів на майбутнє. Наша мораль християнська занепадає, наш націоналізм припинений зовсім, отже на зміни прийшов комунізм і комуністична мораль марксистсько-ленінського жидівського світогляду. Наша найновіша генерація населення УРСР (України) педагогічно, психологічно й логічно стає ворогами християнства на Україні, а автоматично ворогами своїх батьків, рідні й усієї родини на материку й на вигнанні. Не можливо нам їх переховувати кореспондейційними чи іншими шляхами, бо всі поштові пересилки є строго цензуровані партійним апаратом жидо-комуни на нашій християнській землі — Україні.

Наша палеолітична Україна знова у неволі кривавого Кремля, де народ немає національно-християнської свободи, справедливости й любови до свого. Наш Великий Шевченко писав, що: "Свобода базується на справедливості, а з того виходить, що й свобода на любові". Свободи нам ніхто не дасть даром, а мусимо її виборoти собі самі зі зброєю в руках, що зустрічаємо завсіди в наших релігійно-національних публікаціях поза "залізною заслоною" (СССР). В піснях УПА співається, що:

..."Стогнуть бори й палають села,
Що їх клятий комунар палить,
Ось ще хвилина, кари час настане,
Настане суд і катові не жить!"...

Наш мандрівний філософ Григорій Савич Сковорода за національно-релігійне побудження нашого народу 18-го століття був званим "Українським Сократом" і "ходящою академією", який із сопілкою за поясом ходив під церквами на ярмаркових майданах, у холодному садку і який прищіплював своїм "живим словом і власним прикладом" вищі моральні почування, закликав добувати знання, запалював до любови правди й рідного краю та заохочував до "добрих діл" свій народ.

У своїх філософських (мудрих) писаннях він довів потребу самопізнання, а в інших пропонував піти за вродженим нахилом та шукати щастя в спокою душі й у згоді з Богом.

Він писав теж моралізаторські вірші та мав добродійний вплив на наше громадянство. Він був ідейною людиною того часу, мав чисті погляди на Українські справи та був передовим мислителем свого авторського часу та хотів бачити своїх людей кращими й щасливішими.

Т. Шевченко був духовим учнем Сковороди, який докладно знав «Життя Святих» та поодинокі праці Отців Церкви. Він був добре обізнаний з педагогічними засадами Василія Великого, Йоана Золотоустого, св. Августина, Григорія Великого й інших того часу. Тарас Шевченко й Іван Амос Коменський були визначними виховниками етики й моралі на Україні, ще й досі є актуальними педагогами серед нашого населення на вигнанні. Т. Шевченко дуже любив Генриха Песталоці — великого швайцарського педагога й висловлював його думки у своїх педагогічних творах.

Прим. ..."Щоб люди не чули, бо то Боже слово, то серце по волі з Богом розмовля, то серце щебече Господнюю славу, а думка край світа на хмарі гуля"...

Добрим педагогом був теж і Іван Франко, який виховував і вів до сонця золотого нашу дітвору й молодь, якого Володимир Дорошенко назвав "Батьком Української Дитячої Літератури" (Д-р Василь Луців у "Педагогічній Праці Івана Франка"). Він був нашим учителем 40 років та немов отой "біблійний Мойсей, який провадив нас до обіцяної землі скалистою та безводною пустинею" нашого народнього життя. Він виховував нове покоління ідейних і дужих борців за краще майбутнє нації та України. Він — наш Великий Учитель писав:

..."Прийде час і ти огнистим видом
Україно — засяєш у народів вольнім колі,
Труснеш Кавказ, впережешся Бескидом,
Прокотиш Чорним Морем гомін волі,
І зглянеш як хазяїн домовитий,
По своїй хаті і по своїм полі"...

— Тому й жидо-комуністична мораль для нас є психічною отрує та ворогом нашого релігійно-національного населення по світі сущих, з якою мусимо воювати аж до побіди в Християнському світі, бо інакше їхні паразити можуть "затруїти наші наймолодші душі"...

Будьмо чуйні на "сторожі наших прав" поза границями СССР, щоб у нашій найновішій історії України не було анархій і помилок наших провідних людей, які змагатимуться за релігійно-національні права вільної Україн[illegible] Тому й координуймось релігійно й партійно, щоб ми [illegible] сильні та винищили всіх наших паразитів і викорінили зі своїх рядів усяку атеїстичну та неукраїнську мораль серед наших релігійно-національних душ у світі, які мали б стати провідними людьми нашої майбутньої незалежної України.

В одній із пісень УПА співається:

..."Гей рідний брате Заходу й Сходу
Єднайсь у нас в ударний моноліт,
Ми Україні виборем свободу
І розіб'єм загарбницький весь світ!"...

ЩО ДАВ ЖИДІВСЬКИЙ КОМУНІЗМ ТА АНАРХІСТИ НАШОМУ ЛЮДСТВУ?

Вже перші роки жидівсько-большевицької революції принесли мільйони людських жертв на Україні. Большевицькі банди нещадно нищили наших людей, палили українські церкви, руйнували будинки наших міст та грабували наше населення.

З 1922 роком большевицький терор набував пляцового характеру, особливо в Україні. Чека (большевицький поліційний орган) арештувала численних українських інтелігентів, які були небезпечними (на їхню думку) для большевицької системи. Вони знищили мільйони наших селян (заможніх і середняків).

У 1921 році большевики навмисно організували на Україні голод, від якого згинуло до двох мільйонів людей (Південна Україна). У 1929 році почалася насильна колективізація. Щоб загнати українських селян у колгоспи, большевики навмисне організували голод на Україні у 1932-33 рр., а наслідком того вимерло до 8 мільйонів людей.

Був голод на Україні й у 1946 році. Большевики загнали мільйони людей у концентраційні табори, де вони жили в холоді, голоді, тяжкій праці та вмирали в тяжких муках, між якими було найбільше українців.

Московські большевики вивозили мільйони українців в Азію (на цілину).

Штучно організований вивіз на цілину має подвійну мету:

1. Примусити людей тяжко працювати для московсько-болшевицької влади;

2. Зменшувати кількість населення України або асимілювати його з москвинами.

Вони широко використовують доноси дітей на батьків і пропагандують "геройство" (прим. Павлик — донос свого батька до НКВД за приналежність до СВУ), отже наші люди живуть у вічному страху. Люди б[illegible] один одного, приховують свої думки, стають замк[illegible] самі в собі (Див. "Страх" — письменниці Олени Звичайної — "Визвольний Шлях" ч. 3 за 1963 рік, стор. 285-86 рр.). Жидо-комуністи винищили наших людей, а інших зкомунізували на свій лад. Большевицькі науковці вщеплювали комунізм серед молоді й старших своєю пропагандою та публікаціями.

Комуністичні філософи України голосять діялектичний матеріялізм та атеїстичні дефініції проти Бога, християнської моралі й церковного культу та релігійно-національних традицій (прим. О. І. Стойкевич, П. Д. Лодій, В. Я. Данилевський, М. І. Гуляк, М. Ф. Хандриков і ряд інших).

Комуністичні педагоги України вживають різних атеїстичних метод та виховують нашу молодь у комуністичному дусі. Їхні психологи не вірять у християнську душу й позагробове її життя, отже так само научають молоде покоління. Логіка СССР виключає культ у світі, а думають усе про добробут та експанзію жидівського комунізму у християнському світі поза границями СССР. Така сама програма й у всіх інших науковців СССР.

Радянські письменники УРСР вихваляють лише комуністичний лад у своїх творах. Інші поезії та поеми не можуть обійтися без комуністичних слів, тощо. Гріхом є користуватися матеріялами Хвильового, Миколи Бажана, Володимира Сосюри і т. п. типів для науки серед наших молодших поколінь.

Прим. 1. "Я вірю в "загірню комуну", вірю так божевільно, що можна вмерти" (М. Хвильовий — див. Вол. Мартинець у "Від УВО до ОУН");

2. ..."Тоді, вслухаючись, аж серце било в груди,
Всі діти Цуповські почули вперш слова
Про те, що Лєнін есть, був Маркс — великі люди, Що вчать робітників, як здобувати права"...

«Чув Цупов їх ходу, крок вбивців й окупанта,
Приникши в темряві за Ольховським мостом.
Копита цокотять. Гетьманська п'яна банда
Промчала по путях. Бряжчить стальний шолом"...
(Микола Бажан).

(Поема «Батько й сини», стор. 146-156, рік 1938),

... — Ні, я не буду з вами пить.
Ідіть од мене! Геть ідіть,
Хоч ми й знайомі, — бачив вас
Між слуг Виговського не раз.
(Поезія "Гонець" (1952), стор. 158-165).

Вони отут стирчать шість літ, —
Проклятого Яреми слід.
Глянь — до такого ось стовпця
Колись тягли й мого вітця"...
(Микола Бажан).

(Див. "Христоматія Української Літератури" з 10-го класу, стор. 144).

3. Володимир Сосюра ("Хрестоматія Укр. Літератури в 10-го класу, стор.91-94):

..."І все мені дзюрчать швидкі холодні хвилі,
і все мені завод невпинно цокотить,
і вороток скрипить про дні минучі милі, коли повстали ми і пішли Петлюру бить"...
(Поема "Зима" — 1921 р.).

..."Це почуття у нас не зміне ще з тих часів, з тих днів, коли нам росіяни помогли прогнать Петлюру з України"...
(Розділ IV).

..."В залізо знов надхнено лину,
Забув я рідную ріллю...
Комуністичну Україну
Я так люблю!
Вона — моя... Мені другої
Уже не треба на віки!"...

..."Наш паровоз, вперед лети,
в комуні будем скоро...
Нам більше нікуди іти,
над нами зорі... зорі...
Ми діти тих, хто виступав
в бій на Центральну Раду, Хто паровози залишав
і йшов на барикади".
(Поезія "Відповідь" — 1927 р.).

Це є скорочена «Відповідь» на наклепницькі антирадянські вихватки українських буржуазних націоналістів закордонній пресі — стор. 94. Такими українцями були вищезгадані наші поети, яких із гріхом поміщувати в наших публікаціях поза границями СССР. У журналі "Вусвол" ч. 1 за 1953 рік на стор. 17-ій був поміщений памплет (з'їдливе письмо образливого змісту) Івана Багряного пану П. Волиняку:

"Як в Петлюри був Сосюра,
Не чіпав його Петлюра.
Як в Сосюри був Петлюра, Розстріляв його Сосюра".

Микола Скрипник (написав 250 друкованих праць) був справді відданий партії комуніст і близький співробітник Леніна. Він вірив, що партія дійсно несе національну, політичну та соціяльну свободу всім народам, зокрема й Україні. Він боровся теж проти українських самостійників, демократичних сил, об'єднаних в Українській Національній Раді та взагалі проти Української Народньої Республіки (Скрипник вірив у спілку з російськими комуністами).

Античні римляни говорили: "ДІСКОРДІЯ ЦІВЮМ ПЛЄРУМКВЕ МАГНУС РЕС ПЕССУЛЬДЕДИТ" — "Незгода громадян знищила нераз великі держави". Комуністи й анархістичні групи України зруйнували нашу самостійність, а наш народ оставився невільниками на своїй палеолітично-автохтонній землі.

До анархістичних груп України ми зачисляємо махнівців, кочубеїв, іскри, оскалки, носи, галагани і т. ін. Наш Великий Шевченко обстоював революційні рухи (Хмельницький, Мазепа, Гонта, Богун, Павлюк, Наливайко та інші) та ненавидів прислужників Москви (Скоропадський, Попович, Самійлович, Розумовський), які "лизали патинки цариці", тощо. Він нарікав сильно на кочубеїв, іскри, носів і галаганів, що вони шашелі й «поганці», які з заздрости, або "для лакомства нещасного" почали продавати себе в'отчизну московським ханам, про яких малювали Л. Українка («Бояриня») та Людмила Старицька-Черняхівська («Останній сніг»), про що й писав д-р Д. Донцов в «Альманах Гомону України» за 1959 р., стор. 45. Д-р Дмитро Донцов кочубеїв і галаганів (Винниченка, Скрипника, Петровського) зве "модерними Швейками-прогресистами."

До анархістичних груп на Україні треба також зачислити бунт двох «Дніпрових-Дивізій» під командуванням от. Данила Зеленого (Терпила) та Олександра Данченка в другій половині січня 1919 року.

Д. Зелений підняв відкритий бунт проти Директорії УНР, а відтак утік на територію окуповану совєтами. Він думав, що при допомозі своїх батьків здобути «Радянську владу" в Україні й очолювати її. Зелений-Терпило у своїх розмовах із Євгеном Коновальцем і його уповноваженими вимагав усунення Директорії та заведення "радянської влади" в самостійній "Трудовій Республіці Ук[illegible] (Є. Коновалець). В його штабі знаходився старшина [illegible]янко, який уже був у зв'язках із большевиками та згідно з їх інструкціями впливав на Зеленого та його оточення, про що не знав Зелений. Переговори УСС (Українські Січові Стрільці) з ним не довели до нічого, отже УСС вдарили на нього під Обуховим-Трипілля та вони вложили свою зброю (з думкою Зеленого) дня 25-го січня 1919 року. (Див. «Україна в добі Директорії УНР» д-ра Матвія Стахова, том. 2, стор. 154-8). Про всю цю експедиційну кампанію проти збунтованої дивізії Зеленого-Терпила описав командир із цієї групи, сот. Антін Крезуб.

Бунт П-ої Дніпровської Дивізії отамана Олександра Данченка наніс теж великі шкоди для оборонної справи України за УНРеспубліки. От. Данченко грав більш пасивну ролю — не протиставився розкладовій роботі большевиків і боротьбістів, які підбурили вояків цієї дивізії не йти на фронт на Чернігівщині. Більшість вояків [illegible] дивізії «демобілізувалася» (розбіглися домів), лише ме[illegible] залишилася льояльною. Отамана Данченка арештовано за його двозначну позицію в бунті та «депортовано» на примусовий побут у Галичині (найбільше збиралися в Станиславові — тепер Івано Франківськ). Пізніше головне командування Армії УНРеспубліки їх постягало до служби в переорганізованій армії.

Бунт обидвох Дніпровських Дивізій не був большевицьким, а прямо був диким «пацифізмом» (умиротворения). Ця боротьба не була «війною з власним народом», що змальовували совєтофільські автори. Обидва ці бунти сталися після того, як Москва на початку січня вислала була свої дві ноти до уряду УНР (Вищезгадана книжка, том 2-ій, стор. 158-9).

Махнова анархія у спілці з большевиками 1918-19 рр. нанесла найбільше шкоди в часах УНРеспубліки. Несленння Катеринослава було вбільшості московсько-жидівське, яке тоді у значній частині симпатизувало з будьякою владою, а було негативно настроєне до всякої української державности. Большевики дістали допомогу від анархічного загону під проводом Нестора Махна та при кінці грудня 1918 року їм вдалося спільними силами виперти українське військо з Катеринослава (Федейко). Махно був тісним спільником большевицької агресії та провадив руйницьку роботу у 1918-19 рр. Махно й отаман Матвій Григоріїв (Херсонщина) наробили великої шкоди для української оборонної війни. Максим Махно походив із Гуляй-Поля, де було багато жидів. Там зорг[а]нізувалася проти анархічної грабіжної банди для підтримки влади УЦРади окрема жидівська сотня, яка потім розгромила цей махнівський ан[а]рхістичний загін (писав Махно).

Пізніше жінка Махна у своїому листі з Гуляй-Поля (там учителювала) до Києва писала, що: «У нас тут з'явився бандит Махно. Нападає він тут на заміжніших людей, на духовників та на інтеліґенцію. Грабує та вбиває. Ми його дуже боїмося. Як тільки смеркне, не виходимо на вулицю. Замикаємо двері та завішуємо заслони на вікна, щоб не видно було світла (Мелешко у «Новий Шлях» ч. 9).

Він був в одній особі «законодавцем», головним командиром, суддею та катом (стріляв невинних людей на місці). Він говорив усе ломаною московською мовою та був деспотом, який недовір'яв мудрішим від себе людям і ненавидів їх. Спеціяльно він мстився на православному духівництву (повісив православного священика в селі Рождественці — писав сам Махно). Він зовсім не втаємничував своїх «повстанців» у свою політику та погляди на «анархічне суспільство», він хотів своїми фразами «визволити» трудове селянство від влади буржуазії і поміщиків та державних урядовців.

Він свої листи підписував титулом «Батько Махно» (Мелешко), а своїх «махнівців» звав «повстанцями». Ядро його загону від самого початку було настроєне дуже про-ти жидів (очевидно за виступ жидівської сотні в Гуляй-Полі у березні-квітні 1918 року — свідчить Махно). Жиди-анархісти зовсім не були в його загоні. Спілка Махна з большевиками «громили буржуазію» (всіх тих, що мали щонебудь при собі або у своїм помешканні). Французькі й еспанські ідейні анархісти (не знаючи правди про нього) цікавилися та хвалили Махна на еміграції.

В першім періоді боротьби махнівців проти Директорії УНР в спілці з большевиками збройні сили Махна не пересягали одної тисячі «повстанців» під безпосередніми наказами Махна. Ще в грудні 1918 року М[а]хнові вдалося приєднати до себе загін Федора Шуся, який спочатку на подібних анархістичних основах діяв рівнобіжно до Махна на Катеринославщині. Він став заступником у загоні Махна (відділ кінноти) та був убитий у бою з большевиками у 1921 році.

Кіннота в Махновім загоні (мала кількість) мала свої т. зв. «тачанки» — чотироколесні підводи (вози), на яких Махно саджав по кількох піших «повстанців», все «барохло» (повстанців, запаси харчів, амуніцію та взагалі всяку добичу й скорострільні). Цим способом загін міг у цілості дуже скоро порушуватися в терені та випереджувати піхоту (головна частина армії) Директорії УНРеспубліки й совєтів. На першій «тачанці» був напис: «Не втечеш», а на останній — «Не здогонеш».

У легендарних оповіданнях (Мицик) знаходимо, що він мав свої гроші-банкноти, виписані на полотні з чисто махнівським гаслом (кличкою):

«Гоп, кумо, не журись, в Махна гроші завелись» (Мицик — стор. 26) — уважається вигадкою. Махнівці поводилися по-звірському характеру з безборонними жінками — насилували їх. (Архів Радянської України, стор. 118-20). Див. «Україна в добі Директорії УНР» д-ра Матвія Стахового, том 2, стор. 172-83).

Лев Шанковський у своїй книжечці: «Українська Армія в боротьбі за державність» (стор. 141) згадує, що «Махнова анархістична група на Катеринославщині мала до 25 тисяч багнетів і шабель поза теренами дій УНРади, яка не визнавала жодної влади на Україні та боролася по черзі з усіма».

П. Таборенко у своїй пластовій книжечці п. н. «Панцерний поїзд «Стрільці» (Авгсбург 1948) згадує, що дрібний отаманчик Оскілка був диктатором української анархістичної групи у м. Рівному дня 29-го квітня 1919 року. «Як грім з ясного неба, вдарила ця звістка на всю українську армію. Фронт захитався. «Зрада» — заговорили козаки й старшини. Слідом ще одна новина: поляки, створивши свою державу, почали наступ на Волинь. До поляків утік і Оскілко. «Червоні» теж заворушились, до них прибули нові сили».

«Руїни фронту після Оскілкового бешкету в Рівному нічим було направити. Все звужувалась територія, на якій українські завзятці уперто оборонялися проти численного ворога. З Луцька натискали поляки, захопили несподівано наші склади зброї і взяли багатьох козаків та старших у полон»... (стор. 61 «Загибель Стрільця»).

Д-р Дмитро Донцов («Тарасівець» — група Миколи Міховського) у своїх письменницьких творах часто згадує французького письменника М. Баррес, який писав, що: «Нам треба людей міцно закорінених в нашій землі, в нашій історії, в національній свідомості». Як теж знаходимо у його працях гасло французьких Шевальє з феодальної Франції: «Богові моя душа, отчизні — життя, а честь — вже моя», чого власне бракувало деяким нашим провідникам народу в минулому.

«Помилятися — це людська справа» та помилки справляють людину — говорили античні римляни. Але тих помилок у нашій минувшині було вже забагато, через що потерпів наш народ, а наша наймолодша генерація [illegible] диваками з наших публікацій.

Прим. 1. Доісторичні часи — наші амазонки воювали з іранцями, але з ними зживалися та родили від них діти. Слов'яни на допомогу кликали норманців, а інші приставали до германців і нищили наші надбання на Україні.

2. Княжі часи — брати між собою воювали й аганжували чужинців до своїх територіяльних і спорідненних інтересів.

3. Гетьмани — робили нереальні союзи з чужинцями, які діяли завсіди у свою користь.

4. І-ша Світова війна — наша еліта не порозумілася з Антантою про майбутність самостійної України, а робила різні необдумані угоди й акти. Вільсон (27-ий президент ЗДА) подиктував Польщу на українських землях: Клемансо (французький премієр — званий «Тигром») післав Галлєра (пол[illegible] на ЗУЗ (Західні Українські Землі), Денікіна (росіянин) на СУЗ (Східні Українські Землі, а сам зробив висадку в Одесі, отже їх там наші трохи «помочили» в Чорному морі.

Скоропадський узяв союз із неіснуючою ще тоді Росією, Винниченко — з большевиками, Петрушевич — з Денікіном, а Петлюра з поляками. Вороги нищили нашими руками прояви нашого націоналістичного руху.

5. Інше: «Мельниківці» відокремилися від «Тарасівців» (Мик. Міховський) і «блудять» самі (правда, що полк. А. Мельник знайшов спільну мету з кревняком полк. Є. Коновальцем). Дальше — роздор між полк. А. Мельником та сл. п. С. Бандерою (ОУН) та братовбивство. Ренегація Миколи Лебедя.

В Подєбрадах була «Громада ім. Миколи Драгоманова» (за Марксом і Леніним), проти яких боролися там наші націоналісти (ЛУН та УНМ).

Василь Нич (Нью-Йорк) в своїй брошурі провокаторами наших ідей називає Коновальця, Мельника, Бандеру та Лебедя. Він фальшиво твердить, що вони були також чужими агентами (може це були якісь кооперації наших праць на зовнішньому чи пропагандивному відтінках?..).

Журнал «Місія України» оголошував, що вбивниками Бандери були: Василь Крук (полк. Коваль «Леміш»), М. Матвієнко («Мирон») та Охримович, які пішли на співпрацю з большевиками (виписують пропаганду з большевицьких памплетів із Берліну — помагають жидо-комуні «брехати» — чому не поміщено Сташинського за вбивство, який дістав 8 літ в'язниці?!). Правда, що вони справили та пояснили про це в слідуючих числах «Місії України».

— А тепер пригадайте собі наші релігійні та партійні свари... Чи все це є наша дипломатична й політична праця? Чи будемо сильною нацією з такою «кооперацією?». Поділяють нас і запановують над нами наші вороги, а тоді й Західній Світ не внесе нас на листу державних націй!..

Не встидаймося своєї рідної мови та релігійно-національних традицій, а несімо оцю «цеголку» на будову нашої омріяної «своєї хати» — незалежної України!

Не губімо своєї «козацької крови» в чужім «багні» та не будьмо «драгоманівськими типами», мовляв він: «Папа турок, мама грек, а я рускій человек». Проф. Михайло П. Драгоманів для розкладу української національної свідомости чіпляв (коли треба) собі мастку українця для «дурних хахлов». Драгоманівці не відокремлювались, а зливалися» з москалями (Див. «З минулих літ» К. Подолянина, стор. 15-та).

Проф. М. П. Драгоманов (червоний Мафісто — чорт, космополіт із Женеви й Гадючого) був невідродженим росіянином (Дженте українус, націоне руссус) та був він московських поглядів (т. зв. «московський лис»). Він зневажав Т. Г. Шевченка (назвав неуком), письменника Куя Левицького за «Хмари» (назвав дурнем) та проф. Омеляна Огоновського за «Москаль-чарівник» (назвав неуком і шерлатаном — зн. дурисвітом, стор. 62-3).

Політику та стратегію проф. М. П. Драгоманова цінив лише Денікін і Мельгунов, а не свідомі українці! Драгоманівці (Осип Назарчук та Василь Панейко — соціялісти) намагалися змалювати Івана Франка комуністом (стор. 53). В Галичині він поширував московські книжки й журнали. Він «перекручував» теж Історію України, тощо.

Це наш лише встид! Такими українцями не будьмо поза «залізною куртиною» на вигнанню!!! Вже час найвищий, щоб ми були «зрілими українцями»...

«Хай Бог дасть нам мужів! Бо час, як цей, вимагає сильного духа і великих сердець, твердої віри і готових до чину рук!» (Голенд).

ЗАКІНЧЕННЯ

«Не можна вдержатись від меча; доки триматиме-мо його обнаженим, доки не доб'ємося вольного життя; краще головою наложити ніж вернутись у неволю. Перемога в Бога, а лицарство наше».

(Богдан Хмельницький — лютий 1649 р.)

Причиною великої української революції 1648 року був соціяльно-економічний та релігійно-конфесійний гніт. Вождь нашої революції, Богдан Зиновій Хмельницький і його найближчі співробітники були людьми нової формації, людьми того нового світогляду, який був визначний гаслами релігійними та крив у собі первні нової державницько-соціяльної і державницько-національної ідеології, поготів суперечної гаснучому світоглядові феодалізму.

Революція Б. Хмельницького відрізняється від попередніх повстань десятиліть і вчинила її всенаціональною. Гановер писав про Виговського, що: «Він то з рештою шляхти був дорадником Хмельницького, вони були його демонами, які цькували Хмеля на Польщу, бо сказано в Талмуді — з нього самого, з його ж лісу вийшов топір на його згубу».

Б. Хмельницький залюбки говорив, що: «Схоче хто з нами їсти, нехай послушний буде Війську Запорожському». Його союзи були нереальними та народ союзників бунтувався та знова воювали з військами Хмельницького. За примір подаю текст присяги панської шляхти на вірність Б. Хмельницькому (20 червня 1657 р.): Присягаємо о жодній зраді й розірванню союзу з військом запорожським не мислити, а навпаки — на всіх приятелів хоч би найближчих нам, не зважаючи на сподівання, спільно ставати, а про все, що тільки мало б іти на шкоду Україні остерігати і всякої приязні та об'єднання з Й. М. Паном гетьманом і військом запорожським перестерігати» (Див. Календарець Української Трибуни за 1948 р.).

Переяславська умова втратила всякий глузд існування. Віленський мир був диверсією проти України та виступом Москви проти союзника України — Швеції [illegible] щив усі українські державні аспірації.

В жовтні 1656 року в Чигирині зложили Хмельницькому обурені віроломством Москви патріотичні круги старшини декларацію вірности й непримиренности в боротьбі за суверенність як досягнення кривавих літ революції. Ця подія знана під назвою «Чигиринського Сойму» була виявом остаточної кристалізації, здійснюваних елітою, що ідейно зросла в процесі героїчних літ боротьби.

Провідну ідею революції висловив сам Гетьман польському послові Любовицькому в кінці 1655 року: «Був час, коли ви, живучи в тому великому домі Річипосполитої в згоді, мали якнайбільші успіхи. Козаки заслоняли Вас грудьми своїми перед варварами. Тоді цвило польське королівство, будило в сусідах заздрість, а поляки в злуці з козаками завжди перемагали. Але від того часу, коли ті, що уважають себе за синів цього королівства почали порушати наші вільности, ранили наші голови, козаки [illegible] ли кусатися і хоч у значній частині їх побито, але не мало й синів королівства згинуло. Коли кожна сторона нагадає собі взаємні поразки кожного року, то відновляється помста і хоч би прийшло до згоди, то зірве її найменший привід. І наймудріша голова не видумає іншого тривалого способу замирення, бо існує тільки один: щоб королівство польське зреклося всіх своїх прав, які підносить на ціле Руське Князівство і віддало Русь козакам по Володимир, Львів, Перемишль, Ярослав... Та шляхта на це не дозволить, хоч би її тільки сотня зісталася в цілому королівстві, а козаки, поки стане зброї, не відступлять від цієї умови».

Війна дальше горіла з польськими окупантами від весни 1654 року. Рік 1656-57 — це доба найбільшої могутности Хмельницького. Польща заходилась у повному внутрішньому розвалі, заломана в війні зі шведським королем Карлом Густавом та коаліцією Семигороду, Литви та Бранденбургу. Дійшло навіть до племінарних пактів щодо поділу Польщі (літо-осінь 1656 р.), у яких Україні було призначено Галичину. Українська козацька держава стояла в центрі політичних комбінацій. На Чигирині звертались очі всіх великодержав, які вважали Україну вже повновартісним контрагентом (стягання угоди), заходились біля втягнення її в свою гру при укладанні нової політичної констеляції на Сході Европи.

Дипломатичний хист уже постарілого Б. Хмельницького осягнув тріюмф за тріюмфом. Він зручно використовував сприятливу конюнктуру й ішов до корисних союзів (Швеція, Семигород і т. ін.). Підготований ним українсько-шведський союз зреалізував остаточно по його смерті Іван Виговський у жовтні 1657 року.

Поряд із дипломатичною акцією йшли й успішні воєнні операції — Хмельницький опинився вдруге підо Львовом на чолі українсько-московської армії, закріпив північні рубіжі, окупував Білорусь й вислав рейд експедиційного козацького корпусу аж під Краків і Варшаву. Діло життя великого Гетьмана, здавалось, добігало до кінця. Його мрії остаточного зламання польського імперіялізму і визволення з-під московської опіки здійснились. Він ще перед смертю вбив у скалу свій меч і прирік: «Коли той меч вийди зі скали, то козаки знов будуть вільні».

Гетьман Богдан Хмельницький у розпачі кипучої діяльности вмер у Чигирині 6-го серпня 1657 року. Нація, бажаючи забезпечити тяглість твору великого Гетьмана дала булаву його синові Юрієві.

Хоч Т. Шевченко докоряв Б. Хмельницькому за «Переяславську угоду» з Москвою, після чого Україна знову втратила самостійність і дісталась у московські лапи, хоч він відчував пекучий жаль за марно проляту кров: — «за що боролись ми з ляхами, за що скородили списами московські ребра», хоч він не вважав Богдана Хмельницького великим — не уважав його дійсним провідником нації, але все таки апотезував (уважав за бога) Хмельницького за його повстання проти Польщі — «Великий Бог[illegible] лише не міг йому пробачити Переяславського союзу з [illegible]квою. За це «воз'єднання» українського народу з російським, Шевченко називає Хмельницького: «Нерозумним сином»... «Богданом п'яним»..., «великим, славним та не дуже».

Т. Г. Шевченко боровся проти царського імперіялізму та не хотів, щоб Україна піддалась своїй «старшій сестрі» Росії, а осудив Хмельницького за Переяславську угоду, яку росіяни використали як доказ «возєдєльнітєльних» намірів Богдана. Приналежність і співчуття ідеям Кирило-Методіївського Братства доказує, що Шевченко був не за прилучення України до Росії, а за визнання повної самостійности УКРАЇНИ, а навіть за призначення за Україною керівної ролі у Слов'янщині, за те, щоб «Україна була угольним каменем» слов'янської федерації.

Сучасник Самійло Зірка з історичної перспективи й у світлі сучасности, життя та чину Богдана, який на[illegible]гилою Б. Хмельницького слушно говорить: «Умер то[illegible] якого справою живлені, могли не вмірати ніколи старовинні права і вольності українські й цілого війська запорожського»...

«Гостра шабля пана Богдана», його видатний хист вождя, організатора, стратега й дипльомата накресливши такі нові лінії української державної політики, якій на сьогодні є революційними. Ідея української державности як оселі свободи (доміцилії лібертатіс) має прикмети універсальности. Недармо ім'я Хмельницького лунає в цілій Европі як великого реформатора. Економічно-соціяльні гасла, висунені революцією, вражають своїм глибоким відчуттям доби з її провідним ідеалом — нового, справедливого устрою. Українська ж нація завдячує вождеві великої революції 1648 року своє відродження, як спільности свідомої свого історичного призначення. В сьогоднішні «дні гніву» України полум'яна заграва його, з мономентальною постаттю нашого геніяльного народного вождя, світить дорогам українському призначенні в майбутнє (Використано матеріяли Ю. К-ч 1948 року, Західня Німеччина).

Гетьман Б. Хмельницький був визначеним і «Великим Сином» в історії України, який поводився з жидівським населенням України як із самими українцями. Жиди мали повну свободу в Україні за часів Б. Хмельницького та займали відповідні місця в його державі — Україні. Тому й жидівство всяких рас не повинно «викидати його костей із могили» за його доброту для жидівського населення та брати під увагу їхнього деспотства хозарів на Україні з княжих часів.

Митрополит С. Косів у привітальній мові 1648 р. сказав, що він: «Мойсей, оборонець, спаситель з неволі людської і на знак того Богданом — від Бога даним — названий».

«Його мова і спосіб правління вказують, що він володіє розсудливою думкою і принижливим розумом. У поведінці він м'який і простий, і цим з'єднує собі любов всіх яків, але з другого боку, він тримає їх в дисципліні гострими вимогами» (Альберт Віміна, амбасадор Венеції про Хмельницького у 1650 році).

Л. Кубаля, польський історик писав, що: «Чужинці порівнювали Хмельницького з Кромвелем — порівнання насувалось само, іменно в роках, коли обоє вони звертали на себе славетно виключну увагу Заходу й Сходу Европи. Але Хмельницький мав під багатьома поглядами трудніші завдання. Його територія влади мала звідусіль відкриті раниці. Не мав, як Кромвел, вишколеної інтелігенції й засобів давньої могутньої держави; війна, скарб, суспільне господарство, адміністрація, зносини з сусідніми державами — все це треба було створити, все лежало на його голові... Була це людина під кожним поглядом незвичайна [illegible] перерослав людей високообдарованих до того ступ[illegible] що входив у царини незбагненого... Всюди могутня [illegible] залізна рука».

(«Московська війна, 1654-1655»).

Честь Богу, хвала! На віки слава
війську дніпровому;
Що з Божої ласки загнало ляшки
к порту Висляному.
А род проклятий ворожий стятий —
чиста Україна.
А віра святая вцале зостала —
добрая новина.
І ти, Чигрине, місто українне,
не меншую славу
Тепер в собі маєш, коли оглядаєш
в руках булаву.
Зацного Богдана, мудрого гетьмана,
доброго молодця,
Хмельницького, Чигринського
давного запорожця.
Бог би указав і військову подав
аби їм справував
Ажеби покорних од рук оних гордих аби ратував.
Учиниж, Боже, всім нам гоже, аби булавою
Войско теж славне всіму світу явно за його головою.
(Вірш на перемоги Хмельницького з 1649 р.

— з рукопису Й. Єрлича (Див. Календарець Української Трибуни за 1948 р., стор. 19-та).

Симон Петлюра, Головний Отаман військ УНР писав, що: «Між царською Росією і сучасною комуністичною для нас немає різниці, бо обидві вони уявляють собою тільки різні форми московської деспотії та імперіялізму. Ідеал української державности не може бути втиснутий у вузькі межі федерації, конфедерації, тим більше автономії, ні з Росією, ні з ким би то не було».

Симон Петлюра був чоловічим ідеологом, українським патріотом і самостійником-державником, «батьком» українського народу. Він був провідником Збройної Боротьби Українського Народу, який мав великий вплив на українські маси. Він був передовим членом РУП — перша національна активна сила на Великій Україні (Революційна Українська Партія), яка сміло поставивши питання української самостійности. Після розламу РУП-у він належав до іншої партії, де принциповістю було питання загально-націоналістичного характеру.

В московському журналі «Украинская Жізнь» він виступив як критик і рецензист. Він із поради вождів навесні 1917 року став здібним організатором українських мас. Він навіть відрікся всякого партійництва, організуючи й залучаючи до праці всі активні національні сили.

Петлюра й закордоном був символом боротьби українського народу з поневолювачами. Він писав, що: «пролята кров для цієї мети не засихає та кличе на продовження розпочатого»..., що продовжила УПА.

Тому, що Отаман Симон Петлюра організував українські маси до боротьби проти царської Росії та жидівського комунізму на Україні в 17-20 рр. та не хотів федерації, конфедерації, автономії і т. ін. з окупантами України, тому й жидівство його ненавиділо та жидівсько-комуністична шайка Кремля знищила його у Парижі на вигнанні 25-го травня 1926 року. Жид Самуель (Шалом)

Шварцбарт, родженець Смоленська (Росія), кремлівський агент, який прийняв французьке горожанство у 1925 році, вкоротив йому життя у католицькій державі-Франції.

Самі жиди замордували на хресті Ісуса Христа, вони «громилися» з африко-азіятами в атичному світі, вони хотіли збудувати собі свою хозарську державу (ханство) на автохтонній українській землі за князя Святослава, вони навіть вкрали А. Гітлєра малим хлопчиною й виховували на хозара, який опісля за свойого Райху (держави) винищив їх, як Мойсей фараонів. Не люблять їх теж усі християнські держави за їхне шахрайство у гандлю, деспотство й коляборанство з комуністами-колонниками поза «залізною куртиною».

С. Петлюра апелював до українського населення, що: «В українську державність ми віруємо, українську державність ми ісповідуємо, в її неминучості переконані. Учімося тримати меч!» Тому то він прогнав «жида й пана» з України, бо вони були найгіршими його ворогами, які хотіли знищити все українське населення України й стати його кривавими деспотами «держави в державі».

Матеріяли до цієї книжечки були зкомплетовані лише мною — автором. Не було тут вписаного ні одного речення тих, про що я їх просив (не включаючи тут купівлі потрібних книжок і дещо з коресподенції світу). Деякі редактори наших часописів зігнорували мої бажання та недипломатично відкидали мої прохання (думаючи, що тільки вони є провідниками нашої Нації поза границями СССР).

Народ «гониться» за тими грішми та матеріяльними нажиґами. Деякі воліють програти свій останній цент у карти, круглі бальончики та інші юнацькі грошевидайні забавки і т. ін., а не купить книжечки за ті центи, щоб чогось навчитися чи пригадати собі з наших публікацій.

Інші народи думають про це дещо більше логічно, реально, самоосвітньо, ідейно, морально й дипломатично, бо книжка збагачує наші інтелекти та робить нас професійними для релігійно-національних акцій на всяких відтинках і шляхах нашої праці. Не можливо бути «трупами й калікамиі» серед нашого українознавства, бо на таких самих виховаємо наше молоде покоління, яке колись буде «викидати наші кости з могилиі»... «Коли тривога, то всі до Бога, а по тривозі — забули о Бозі» — наша народня приповідка. Коли наше слово переслідували вороги-окупанти, то всі читали наші видання зі страхом, а тут у демократичній країні й «києм не заставиш»... Українська книжка — стає вже ворогом наших осібняків! Поправмося, бо це теж є нашим гріхом!!!... Всякі комики не є кращими за наші книжечки!!

Enclosed is one copy of a "Summary from Ukrainian" of a book entitled "The Sinners" written by Wolodymyr Nemyliwskyj.

One copy is enclosed for Dallas for its information.

The book was mailed to the Bureau in an envelope bearing the return address Wolodymyr Nemyliwskyj, 71 Elm Grove Ave., Toronto 3, Ontario, Canada, telephone 536-0568.

You will note that in the last paragraph on page two and continuing on page three of enclosure statements are made about Lee Harvey Oswald and his activities while in Russia. Your attention is specifically directed to the statement that Oswald gave the Soviets the secret codes of the U. S. Marines in which he served.

The Bureau believes you should make whatever arrangements you deem appropriate to have the author of this book interviewed to determine from him if he has any evidence about Oswald's activities while in the Soviet Union. What is his basis for these statements? Does he have any sources in the Soviet Union from which he has obtained information about Oswald's activities while there? If so, obtain all information he possesses regarding Oswald. Handle promptly and submit results in form suitable for dissemination to the President's Commission.

NOTE:

The book was in Ukrainian and the enclosure is a summary of the translation of the book prepared by the Cryptanalysis-Translation Section. The book is apparently an anti-Semitic work. The author mentions Oswald in chapter seven. There is no indication as to the source of his information about Oswald. Although his comments regarding Oswald may be based upon information he received from general press reports it is possible he does have sources in the Soviet Union which furnished him this information and we should interview him about this. Bufiles disclose no reason why the author of this book should not be interviewed. He has written several letters to the Bureau and appears to be a chronic complainant; however, this is no reason why he should not be interviewed concerning his statements about Lee Harvey Oswald.

You previously have been advised that the book "Who Killed Kennedy?" written by Thomas G. Buchanan, has created considerable attention in Europe. You may be interested in the following information which was volunteered to Agent Papich on 5/19/64 by John McCone, Director, CIA:

McCone advised that about three weeks ago he was talking to Fleur Meier, the former wife of Gardner Cowles, the owner of Cowles Publications. She has been spending considerable time in Europe and she emphasized to McCone that Buchanan's book is something which should not be disregarded by U. S. authorities because many Europeans are accepting Buchanan's story as being factual. She stated that Buchanan has not only impressed people with his book but has also been impressive in the press and T. V. interviews.

McCone advised that he then conferred with Chief Justice Warren and suggested that the Commission would want to examine the book very carefully and make certain that all of Buchanan's allegations had been adequately covered. His point was that if the Commission did not review the book, it would always be subject to some criticism and second guessing. Warren commented that it might be to the Commission's advantage to call Buchanan for testimony. McCone told Warren that before such action were taken, the Commission should seriously consider all the possible consequences. He pointed out to Warren that an invitation to testify before the Commission would give Buchanan the ideal opportunity to hold more press interviews solely for the purpose of propagandizing his book.

ReBuairtel dated 5/20/64 and San Antonio teletype to the Bureau dated 5/13/64 concerning information obtained from HARRY SMITH, Manager, Greyhound Bus Lines, Laredo, Texas, in connection with Transportes del Norte (TDN) Bus Company Ticket Numbers 39532 and 9511.

On 5/22/64, HARRY SMITH, Manager, Greyhound Bus Lines, Laredo, Texas, furnished the only records in his possession concerning TDN Tickets numbered 39532 and 9511. These records are Form No. S-37 T, "Daily Record of Station Sales by Agents at: Laredo, Texas." Form Number S-37 T dated September 10, 1963, reflects that Ticket Numbers 39526 up to 39533 were sold on September 10, 1963, and, according to SMITH, were all round-trip tickets to Mexico, but he did not know whether or not these tickets were round-trip tickets to Mexico City. SMITH explained that under the system utilized by Greyhound in recording sales on Form S-37 T that Ticket Number 39526 would have been the first round-trip ticket sold on September 10, 1963, and that Ticket Number 39532 would have been the last round-trip ticket sold on September 10, 1963, making a total of seven tickets sold on that date.

The total amount of the seven tickets sold was $77.40. SMITH pointed out that his records reflect that of these seven tickets, three of the round-trip tickets were sold for a total of $18.00, and four were sold for a total of $59.40.

SMITH stated that no additional information is recorded on Form S-37 T concerning these tickets and that he knows they are round-trip tickets since they are recorded in Column 15, which is RT-1, indicating round trip. SMITH stated that his records do not reflect the destination of purchaser of ticket.

SMITH furnished Form S-37 T dated December 7, 1963, reflecting that TDN Ticket Numbers 9501 up to 9525, a total of 24 tickets, were sold on December 7, 1963, for a total amount of $240.00. SMITH explained that two of the above tickets were for $20.00, 15 sold for $150.00, and 7 sold for $70.00. This makes a total of 24 tickets sold for a total amount of $240.00.

SMITH was questioned concerning the Form S-37 T dated December 7, 1963, reflecting TDN Ticket Number 9511 to be a one-way ticket to Mexico City sold on December 7, 1963. SMITH advised that there was a possibility that another ticket bearing the same number, 9511, could have been sold by TDN in Mexico City but a sale of such a ticket would be very remote and "one in a million."

SMITH further advised that Greyhound Bus Company, Laredo, Texas, sells TDN tickets and, at the end of each month, the money from the sale of TDN tickets by Greyhound Bus Company is turned over to TDN and a commission is charged by Greyhound on the sale of the TDN tickets.

This relates to San Antonio teletype to the Bureau dated 5/13/64 concerning remarks attributed to HARRY SMITH, Manager, Greyhound Bus Company, Laredo, Texas, to the effect that Ticket Number 39532 was round-trip ticket to Mexico City; however, he is not certain if ticket was to Mexico City. This should have read that Ticket Number 39532 was round-trip ticket to Mexico; however, he is not certain if ticket was to Mexico City.

With regard to the last paragraph of referenced Bureau airtel which requested that results of certain investigation be furnished, this is to advise that the requested investigation has been conducted and the results will be submitted in the next report of the San Antonio office. This report will be submitted on or before 6/2/64.

Enclosed for the Bureau are 2 Autostat copies each of Form S-37 T dated September 10, 1963, and December 7, 1963, respectively.

Two extra copies of this airtel are being designated for the Bureau for transmittal to Legat, Mexico.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On April 7 1964, Sgt. HARRY STILLIE, Detective Bureau, New Orleans, Louisiana, Police Department, advised that his department does not maintain a central file on laundry marks or dry cleaning marks.

On April 9, 1964, Mr. G. M. GUILLOT, Sales Manager, Rudolph Ramelli, Inc., a laundry supply company, 2502 Poydras Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, observed photographs of the laundry mark 30 030 and the dry cleaning tag B 9738 appearing in the gray jacket identified as K-42. Mr. GUILLOT stated that these marks looked like those possibly used by Zip-Valetone Service Industries, 123 Royal Street, or the D & C Cleaners, 5435 Magazine Street. Mr. GUILLOT stated that according to his records the following establishments in the New Orleans area use the Tag-O-Electric Machines:

Wardrobe Cleaners
423 South Jeff Davis Parkway
New Orleans, Louisiana

Spotless Cleaners
512 Pelican Avenue
(Algiers)
New Orleans, Louisiana

National Cleaners
431 Newton Street
(Algiers)
New Orleans, Louisiana

The following individuals observed photographs of the laundry mark and dry cleaning tag, on the dates indicated, which appeared on the gray jacket identified as K-42. They advised that these marks were not made by their respective establishments nor could they offer any suggestion as to which laundry or dry cleaning establishment in the New Orleans area would use such a marking system:

Miss SCUDERI advised that the Zip-Valetone Service Industries operates eleven stores throughout the Greater New Orleans area and that all of these stores use the same marking system and that none of the stores use the markings which are in the photographs of the gray jacket exhibited to her.

In addition to the above establishments, an additional 280 laundry and dry cleaning establishments in the New Orleans area were contacted. Individuals at these establishments advised that the laundry mark,30 030,and the dry cleaning tag,B 9738, were not made by their respective concerns and neither the laundry mark nor the dry cleaning tag appeared familiar. These individuals advised they could not suggest any laundry or dry cleaning business in the New Orleans area which might use such markings.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated March 24, 1964, and my letters dated April 8, 1964, and April 29, 1964, concerning the laundry mark "30 030" which appears in the gray jacket identified by certain witnesses as the jacket of Lee Harvey Oswald.

Enclosed are two copies of a memorandum dated May 22, 1964, New Orleans, Louisiana. This memorandum reveals the laundry and/or dry cleaning tag was not identified as originating from the Greater New Orleans area. The identities of specific individuals associated with laundries and cleaners who were contacted will be included in a subsequent report.

For your information over seven hundred cleaning and laundry establishments were contacted in the combined Dallas, Texas, and New Orleans, Louisiana, areas without identifying the mark "30 030." Unless specifically requested by you, no further investigation will be conducted endeavoring to identify this mark.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

INFORMANTS

The Omaha Office advised on November 23, 1963, that former [redacted] had telephonically contacted SA JOHN R. ANDERSON from Chicago and advised as follows:

He had in the recent past been associated with an INA or ENA (LNU), who he described as a very active and fanatic member of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This girl traveled to California and Texas in connection with FPCC activities. The girl had worked as a barmaid at the Seville Bar, 71st Street and Columbus Avenue, New York City, and had regularly met with other FPCC members at the Crystal Bar, 71st Street and Columbus Avenue, New York City. He furnished a description of this individual and advised that he did not know of her whereabouts or activities for the past two weeks, or if she had any connection with the assassination of the President.

Investigation was conducted to identify INA or ENA and informants contacted in the New York area familiar with FPCC activities were unable to furnish any information.

The possibility existed that she was identical with ADA MARIE DRITSAS, born October 22, 1936, New York, [redacted] believed in Havana, Cuba. No active investigation was contucted at the Seville and Crystal Bars, New York City, inasmuch as there appeared no need to determine the whereabouts of all FPCC speakers at that time.

[redacted] by SA JOHN E. HEGARTY

[redacted] by MAURICE H. LAUZIERE

[redacted] by SA C. DALE SCHWANTZ

Also contacted was SA SABASTIAN S. MIGNOSA, who was familiar with the West Side for Cuba Committee

[redacted] who resides at [redacted] New York, furnished the following information which he requested be kept confidential:

He advised that one JAMES O. MURRAY is a person who comes to his mind and might be involved in the assassination of the President. He stated that MURRAY is a member of the NSRP and that his only known address is 4800 Georgia Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., where he resides with his mother. Mr. HOFF stated he is of the impression that MURRAY is a Ku Klux Klan member in the State of Alabama and that he believes MURRAY is presently somewhere in the south. HOFF furnished the following description of MURRAY:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Height	5'7"
Weight	145 lbs.

The identities of the Agents participating in this investigation are reflected in this report.

In connection with this report, it should be borne in mind that the Dallas Office has a separate case in connection with the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD captioned, "JACK L. RUBY, aka; LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka (Deceased) - VICTIM, CIVIL RIGHTS," Dallas file 44-1639, Bufile 44-24016. It is also pointed out that the Dallas Office has a separate case captioned, "ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, 11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS, MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING," Dallas file 89-43, Bufile 62-109060.

Communications are still being received under this Assassination caption which, upon review, are found to contain information pertaining to OSWALD or his connection with the assassination and such communications are being filed and reported in instant case captioned, "LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka." Also, numerous communications are being received carrying the OSWALD caption, which contain no information concerning OSWALD or his connection with the assassination, and such communications are being filed and reported in the case bearing the Assassination caption. For the most part, miscellaneous allegations bearing on the Assassination are being reported in Dallas file 89-43 and all others in the LEE HARVEY OSWALD case. All information pertaining to items of evidence having a direct bearing on the Assassination or concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD are being reported under the LEE HARVEY OSWALD caption.

In some instances, inserts and FD-302's contained in instant report may reflect Dallas file number as 89-43, which was occasioned by other offices having submitted such inserts or FD-302's believing same would be reported under the Assassination caption.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis:

Group of individuals who took movies of Presidential Motorcade formed Dallas Cinema Associates, Inc., 3/18/64, for purpose of composing one film covering entire Presidential Motorcade for commercial distribution. Interview with members of corporation conducted and copy of composite film obtained. Review of film does not reveal any pertinent pictures taken at time of assassination. Film taken by THOMAS P. ALYEA, WFAA-TV newsman, Dallas, Texas, obtained, which depicts law enforcement officers searching Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) and the dusting and handling of the assassination weapon. Additional data relating to assassination weapon obtained. Additional efforts to trace purchase of ammunition by OSWALD negative. Supplemental listing of exhibits by Item Number and description prepared. Investigation conducted in Dallas - Fort Worth area in effort to identify visible laundry mark "30 030" in collar of gray cotton jacket identified as belonging to OSWALD and the visible dry cleaner's tag "B9738" stapled inside this jacket with negative results. Investigation to locate source of identification bracelets of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD reveals bracelets of same type sold by H. L. Green Company Department Store, Dallas, Texas, and samples of same obtained. Interviews with sales and engraving people failed to identify OSWALD as purchaser of such bracelets. CHARLES R. PEZET at this store recalls that during first week in October 1963 on a Thursday evening he did engraving on an item purchased by a customer, but cannot recall customer or if engraving was done on bracelet. Investigation concerning two traveling bags belonging to OSWALD and markings appearing thereon conducted at places of residence in Dallas and Irving, Texas. Investigation concerning repair tag number 18374 bearing name "OSWALD", Irving Sports Shop, reveals reporter for "Dallas Times Herald" states he called DIAL D. RYDER between 7:30 A.M. and 8:00 A.M., 11/28/63, at which time RYDER reportedly furnished the information contained in the "Dallas Times Herald" article of that date, while RYDER admits receiving call at approximately same time, but denies having furnished any information whatsoever to reporter. Two officers who participated in search of PAINE residence at Irving, Texas, recall photograph identified as Commission Exhibit Number 5 and as FBI Inventory Number 369 being found in box with other photographs, at which time they noticed area where license number on 1957 Chevrolet in photograph had been torn out. Investigation reflects CHARLES F. KILHR, Irving, Texas, has frequented residence of Major General EDWIN A. WALKER and is the owner of a 1957 Chevrolet. Certain other photographs found in search determined to be of area surrounding WALKER residence by physical observation of area. Photograph Number 2, Item Number 7 believed to have been taken during period March 8 to 12, 1963. Address of "3610 N. Beckley" appearing on application for rental of Post Office Box 6225, Dallas, Texas, on 11/1/63, signed LEE H. OSWALD, FBI Exhibit D-17, determined to be non-existent. Additional FBI Laboratory examinations made of various items of evidence, including personal effects of OSWALD, clothing of Governor JOHN CONNALLY and identification bracelets similar to those of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD. Individuals determined to have contributed to full page advertisement in "Dallas Morning News", 11/22/63, signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman, state they did not intend any harm to come to President KENNEDY, but advertisement was criticism of President in a dignified way. Certain allegations made in book "Who Killed Kennedy?" by THOMAS G. BUCHANAN disproved. Remarks made by attorney DAVID AARON WITTS in speech before Dallas Salesmanship Club 5/21/64, based on public source material, which sources identified by WITTS in interview. Additional reports of miscellaneous activities of OSWALD disproved. Additional allegations of acquaintanceship between OSWALD and JACK L. RUBY received, and investigation concerning same fails to reflect any such association or acquaintanceship existed. Financial data with respect to certain expenditures and cashing of checks by OSWALD obtained. Records of Dallas - Fort Worth area banks checked for safe deposit box and other banking connections by OSWALD or any member of his immediate family. MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of subject, has contacted FBI on several occasions and furnished information concerning her theories on assassination and states she is continuing her investigation into the assassination. Investigation has established that OSWALD obtained names of individuals with Russian background at Texas Employment Commission, Fort Worth, Texas. Background information developed concerning Mrs. LYDIA DYMITRUK, associate of MARINA OSWALD, and concerning Miss YAEKO OKUI, who attended party at Dallas, Texas, in December 1962 at which OSWALD was in attendance. MARINA OSWALD continues to reside at 629 Belt Line Road, Richardson, Texas. She has been exhibited photograph identified as D-209 and states person standing to extreme right with his right hand in his pocket is LEE HARVEY OSWALD. MARINA OSWALD identified photographs of Commission Exhibits A-1 and C-254 as traveling bags of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. U. S. Customs Baggage Declaration and Entry Number 3671685 executed by LEE H. OSWALD on 6/13/62, at time of his entry into U. S. Bus driver for Greyhound Bus Number 1265 from San Antonio to Dallas, Texas, on 10/3/63, cannot recall seeing OSWALD.

RE: MOVIES TAKEN BY JOHN MARTIN,
DALLAS, TEXAS
NOVEMBER 22, 1963

On December 11, 1963, the Dallas Division advised that JOHN MARTIN, Superintendent of Safety, United States Post Office, Dallas, Texas, took a roll of 8 mm color movies of the Presidential motorcade in Dallas on November 22, 1963. According to MARTIN, the movies were taken of the motorcade as it neared the spot where President KENNEDY was assassinated and he thought possibly he had a shot of the window in the Texas School Book Depository Building from which the fatal shots were fired. According to information available to the Dallas Division, the film was in the possession of Life Magazine, New York City.

On December 17, 1963, the film taken by MARTIN was obtained by SA ROBERT J. LAWSON from DICK POLLARD, Time and Life, Inc., 50th Street and 6th Avenue, New York City. D.C. On the same date the film was forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D. C. for review.

JOHN MARTIN, JR., Superintendent of Safety, Room 517, United States Post Office Terminal Annex, 207 South Houston Street, telephone number RI 9-3181, advised he resides at 9846 Shoreview Road, Dallas, Texas, and has telephone number DI 8-3546. MARTIN said he was born September 21, 1905, at Two Harbors, Minnesota.

MARTIN stated that following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, on November 22, 1963, WYMAN PARR, 4448 South Marsalis, conceived the idea of contacting others like himself who had taken movies of the Presidential motorcade. He stated PARR got in touch with RUDY BRENK, 4404 Ivy Street, Mesquite, Texas, and BRYANT BOREN, 605 West Vista Drive, Garland, Texas. MARTIN stated these three individuals contacted the other individuals, which will be listed hereinafter, and were able to compose a film about 180 to 200 feet in length, which covered the Presidential motorcade from the time the President arrived at Dallas, Texas, until the Presidential motorcade turned west off of Houston Street onto Elm Street. MARTIN said the twenty-five feet of film he took was included in this movie and added that his film was the only film taken in the immediate area of the Texas School Book Depository Building. He stated the film he took does not show the assassination of President KENNEDY or any view of the Texas School Book Depository Building above the second floor. The other individuals listed hereinafter took movies of the Presidential motorcade at various points along the parade route. MARTIN stated on March 18, 1964, the below-listed individuals formed the Dallas Cinema Associates Corporation and it has the address of Post Office Box 15521, Dallas, Texas.

MARTIN stated he believes this film is presently in the custody of RUDY BRENK, President of the Dallas Cinema Associates Corporation. He stated the present plans are to have this film reproduced by Technicolor and stated he believes Technicolor is located in Rochester, New York. MARTIN stated it is also planned that Sanger-Harris Department Store, Dallas, Texas, is going to have exclusive rights for a period of three months to sell this film. He stated he did not know when the sale of the film would

TEXAS

On April 10, 1964, Mr. EDDIE BARKER, News Manager, KLRD-TV and Radio Stations, advised he had obtained a copy of the 16 mm color film from the Dallas Cinema Associates Corporation of Dallas, Texas. BARKER related that this corporation had obtained numerous strips of 8 mm film taken by citizens of Dallas, Texas, depicting President JOHN F. KENNEDY's visit to Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, and scenes taken outside of the Dallas City Building, on November 24, 1963, when JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the basement of that same building. BARKER related that he had reviewed the film and the corporation had failed to obtain film taken at the scene of the assassination on November 22, 1963.

BARKER advised that he would have a 16 mm black and white copy made of this film and would furnish the same to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

On April 13, 1964, BARKER made available the black and white copy of this film. A review of same fails to reveal any pertinent film taken at the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY, or film taken in the basement of the Dallas City Building at the time JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. IVY RANDLE (HAZEL) GOOCH, 208 East Louisiana Street, Dallas, Texas, advised she was born November 28, 1940, at Ravenna, Texas, and that on November 22, 1963, she was employed as a Cashier Checker at the A & P Grocery Store No. 11, 5011 Lemmon Avenue, Dallas.

Mrs. GOOCH advised that at approximately 11:30 AM the morning of November 22, 1963, she left the store with the permission of her supervisor and took up a position on the sidewalk in front of the store on the east side of Lemmon Avenue, intending to view the Presidential motorcade, which was due to arrive at that point shortly after 12 noon. She advised she took with her an 8 mm movie camera which she owned, intending to take a few feet of film of the motorcade as it passed. She advised the Presidential motorcade passed her position about 12:10 to 12:15 PM, going south on Lemmon Avenue and, as the motorcade passed, she took several feet of film of the Presidential car and some of the following cars. She advised she was alone at the time she took this film, although some of the store customers may have been at her elbow. Mrs. GOOCH stated that, following the passing of the motorcade, she returned to the store and to her check stand.

Mrs. GOOCH stated sometime around the First of January, 1964, a Mrs. IRVING GEWERTZ called Mrs. GOOCH at home, advising she had been contacting people having film in their possession of the motorcade all along the route, and she wanted to view the film taken by Mrs. GOOCH. She stated she later met with Mrs. GEWERTZ and Mr. BOREN, of the Sanger-Harris Camera Shop, in order that Mrs. GEWERTZ could view the film to see if it should be included in a group of film holders, which Mrs. GEWERTZ was getting together to incorporate into a long film sequence of the motorcade. She advised she was told the film was of good quality and they asked her to join a group of several others in splicing her film into the intended sequences. She advised she attended one of the film holders meetings and she recalls signing corporation papers for the incorporation of Dallas Cinema Associates

GEORGE KINCAID

Mr. GEORGE R. KINCAID, Owner, Kincaid Photo Service, 3023 Routh Street, Dallas, Texas, home address, 6326 Town Hill Lane, Dallas, was interviewed regarding his connection with Dallas Cinema Associates Corporation. KINCAID advised he was born May 7, 1926, Comanche, Oklahoma. TEXAS

Mr. KINCAID advised his business entails still photography and that he is not specifically in the moving-picture business; however, he has a Bell & Howell Optronic Eye 8 mm Movie Camera, which he uses to take amateur action pictures.

He advised that at approximately 12:20 PM, November 22, 1963, he took up a position on the northwest corner of Routh Street and Cedar Springs Road, opposite his place of business, and took about one minute of film of the Presidential motorcade as it passed down Cedar Springs Road. He advised he used Kodachrome Film.

Mr. KINCAID advised he is a personal friend of IRVING GEWERTZ, a local architect, and he has done photography work for Mr. GEWERTZ in the past. He advised that sometime during the early part of January, 1964, he was contacted by Mrs. GEWERTZ and then by her husband, IRVING, relative to obtaining his film of the Presidential motorcade. Mr. KINCAID stated he turned over the film to Mrs. GEWERTZ and, subsequently, Mrs. GEWERTZ called him several times requesting he attend meetings of all film holders but, due to the pressure of business, he was unable to attend. He advised he subsequently became tired of being bothered about the film and told Mrs. GEWERTZ she could have the film without charge, stating he did not desire to become a participating member in the association. Mr. KINCAID stated he is not now a member of the corporation and has released all rights to the film to the GEWERTZ group.

Mr. KINCAID advised he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and does not recall having ever seen them at any time prior to their notoriety.

GEORGE

Mr. GEORGE ALDERSON SHAWVER, 4926 Frio Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised he is presently employed as a Ticket Agent at the Greyhound Bus Terminal, 205 South Lamar, Dallas, and has been so employed for the past nineteen years. SHAWVER furnished his date and place of birth as December 27, 1930, Perrin, Texas.

Mr. SHAWVER advised that at about noon, November 22, 1963, he and his wife took up a position on the southeast corner of Lamar and Main Streets, Dallas, intending to view the Presidential motorcade as it passed that point. Mr. SHAWVER stated that as the Presidential car passed he took approximately eight feet of 8 mm color film of the motorcade, using a Kodak Scopemeter Movie Camera, with Eastman Kodachrome II Film.

Mr. SHAWVER advised that, two or three days following the assassination of the President, he took his roll of film to the Glendale Camera Shop at the Glendale Shopping Center, 4448 South Marsalis, Dallas, for developing. He advised this shop is operated by one WYMAN PARR and, upon viewing SHAWVER's film, PARR contacted him for the purpose of using his film jointly with several other similar sequences of the Presidential motorcade. PARR told him he had been trying to get some people together with film sequences and he wanted to use SHAWVER's. SHAWVER agreed to this offer and the group, consisting at that time of PARR, DICK ALLEN, RUDY BRENK and SHAWVER, began co-ordinating their film sequences.

Mr. SHAWVER advised that shortly thereafter RUDY BRENK called and advised he had been contacted by another group composing similar sequences, which group was headed by a Mrs. IRVING GEWERTZ, of Walnut Hill Lane, Dallas, and Mrs. GEWERTZ had proposed they join her group and put together and market this film in one continuous sequence. Mr. SHAWVER stated his group agreed to this offer and RUDY BRENK, employed as Camera Editor at Sanger-Harris Camera Store, Dallas, did all the editing and splicing of the film sequences. He advised the completed film was sent to Technicolor, Inc., Burbank, California, for color retouching and the initial order was for one proof copy. Mr. SHAWVER stated the intent of their group is to place the film on the home movie market and the Dallas outlet will be the Sanger-Harris Department Store.

Mr. SHAWVER advised that on March 18, 1964, his group composed of eighteen film holders incorporated under the name "Dallas Cinema Associates Corporation," and each of the eighteen film holders received one share of stock.

Mr. SHAWVER advised the original film runs about 185 feet in length and a duplicate copy of film costs each member approximately 12¢ per foot for duplicate processing. He advised the film had been sent to Technicolor, Inc., about April 7, 1964, and it was expected it would take two to three weeks for completion.

Mrs. FRANCES MARIE HAYS, 913 Forest Ridge Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised she was born September 12, 1936, Johnson County, Texas, and that her husband, CLARENCE EUGENE HAYS, is presently employed as Manager of Skillern Drug Store, 4900 Ross, Dallas.

Mrs. HAYS advised that she is presently a stockholder of the Dallas Cinema Associates Corporation, having contributed approximately ten feet of film taken of the Presidential motorcade by her husband on November 22, 1963.

Mrs. HAYS advised that pictures were taken with a Kodak 8mm Electric Eye Movie Camera, using Kodachrome Film, and were taken by her husband from the southeast corner of Lomo Alto and Lemmon Avenue as the Presidential motorcade passed down Lemmon Avenue. Mrs. HAYS advised that, upon completion of the roll of film, which contained pictures of the Presidential motorcade, her husband took the roll of film to the Sanger-Harris Camera Shop in downtown Dallas for developing. She advised shortly thereafter a Mr. BOREN, of the Sanger-Harris Camera Shop, contacted her husband and advised he had been in contact with a Mrs. IRVING GEWERTZ, who was interested in viewing the film sequences of the motorcade which her husband had taken. Accordingly, Mr. BOREN made an appointment for them with Mrs. GEWERTZ and Mrs. GEWERTZ came to the HAYS residence one evening to view the film. Upon seeing the HAYS film, Mrs. GEWERTZ expressed the opinion her film would be valuable as part of a future commercial home movie film of the motorcade, and asked Mrs. HAYS if she would care to join the group. Mrs. HAYS stated she assisted Mrs. GEWERTZ in contacting other film holders and, accordingly, on March 18, 1964, the Dallas Cinema Associates Corporation was formed, and Mrs. HAYS was appointed secretary of the corporation.

Mrs. HAYS advised the completed film had been sent to Technicolor, Inc., 123 South Hollywood Way, Burbank, California, on April 7, 1964, for duplication and a proof copy should CLARENCE EUGENE HAYS, Manager, Skillern's Drug Store, 4900 Ross Avenue, advised he resides at 913 Forest Ridge, Garland, Texas. He said he was born February 10, 1937, at Bluegrove, Texas.

HAYS advised that on November 22, 1963, he was employed at Skillern's Drug Store Number 25, 4100 Lomo Alto, Dallas, Texas. HAYS related that at about 10:45 A.M. on November 22, 1963, he took up a position at the intersection of Lemmon and Lomo Alto on the west side of Lemmon Street at this intersection. He said it was his intention to take movies of the Presidential Motorcade as it passed and he had taken an automatic 8 mm Kodak Movie Camera with him for this purpose. He said he borrowed this camera from Skillern's Drug Store Number 25 and took about five or ten feet of film of President KENNEDY and the motorcade as the motorcade passed his position around 12:05 P.M.

HAYS advised that in the latter part of November 1963 he received a telephone call from a Mrs. IRVING GEWERTZ, who informed him that she was collecting film taken of the motorcade so that her son could have it, and inquired if he had taken any film of the motorcade. He stated he arranged to have Mrs. GEWERTZ view his film and, following this, they discussed the possibility of getting other film taken along the parade route.

HAYS said his wife and Mrs. GEWERTZ contacted homes and businesses along the parade route, either telephonically or physically, to obtain film of the entire parade. He said as a result of these contacts a group was formed and later incorporated under the name of the Dallas Cinema Associates. He said the film of the parade is now being reproduced by Technicolor, Inc., at Burbank, California. He said it should be ready for marketing in several weeks.

Mr. LARRY EUGENE THOMAS (LARRY) was interviewed at his residence, Oak Valley Trailer Court, Grand Prairie, Texas, mailing address, Route 1, Box 182D. Mr. THOMAS advised he was born November 30, 1939, in Hughes Spring, Texas, and has been employed by Central Airlines as a Passenger Service Agent at Love Field, Dallas, Texas, since October 1, 1963.

Mr. THOMAS stated that on November 22, 1963, he was working at Love Field when the Presidential plane arrived at approximately 12 noon. He advised that, in contemplation of the arrival of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, he had taken his Bell & Howell 8 mm. Zoom Lens Camera, using Kodachrome II film, to work with him that morning. Mr. THOMAS stated that, due to his employment, he was allowed to take up a position just off the right nose of the Presidential plane. As President KENNEDY departed the plane at about 12:05 PM, he obtained about fifteen feet of film of the right side of the President and his party as they were leaving the plane and entering the Presidential car.

Mr. THOMAS advised that about the middle of December, 1963, he was contacted at Love Field by a Mrs. GEWERTZ, who had observed his picture in a news photograph published in the paper and had determined, through talking to other employees at the terminal, that he was a Central Airlines employee. He stated Mrs. GEWERTZ had told him she was in the process of contacting various persons along the Presidential motorcade route who had taken film sequences of the motorcade, in an effort to purchase their film or to exchange duplicate copies of film, which she intended to make into a continuous film. Mr. THOMAS stated that about December 20, 1963, at the suggestion of Mrs. GEWERTZ, he took his film strip to her residence and ran the film in order that she could see what it contained. He advised she liked the film and asked him if he would care to join a group of film contributors for the purpose of splicing all available film strips together into one long continuous film, and each contributor would get one copy of the completed film for his personal use.

Mr. THOMAS advised that, subsequently, Mrs. GEWERTZ was so successful in obtaining film strips of value that she proposed to the group they consider producing the film for future home-movie consumption. He stated that, accordingly, in the middle of March, 1964, they formed a corporation with the eighteen participating members as single shareholders for the purpose of reproducing and reselling the composite film.

Mr. THOMAS stated that at the time of the arrival of the Presidential plane, and during the time he filmed the arrival of President KENNEDY and the departure of the motorcade, he did not observe anything of an unusual nature occurring in that area.

He advised further he does not recall having observed or had any contact with LEE HARVEY OSWALD at any time in the past.

WILLIAM EARL MESTER, JR., Head of Stock, Sanger-Harris Camera Department and Records Shop, Akard and Main Streets, advised he resides at 232 Alto Drive, Garland, Texas. MESTER said he was born August 20, 1935, at Chicago, Illinois.

MESTER advised that on November 22, 1963, when the Presidential Motorcade was proceeding through the downtown area of Dallas he was at home painting. He said he did not view any part of the motorcade.

MESTER said on Monday, November 25, 1963, NICK VAFIADIS, a regular customer of Sanger-Harris Camera Department and Records Shop, who has home telephone number CH 7-7650 and business telephone number RI 8-0361, came to the store and said he had taken some movies of the Presidential Motorcade. He left his 8 mm Kodachrome film with MESTER and requested that MESTER send it in for processing. When the film returned, MESTER said he and VAFIADIS viewed the film. At the time VAFIADIS took this film he was standing on Harwood Street at Ross, facing north.

Several days following this, MESTER said he was contacted by BRYANT BOREN, an employee of Sanger-Harris Camera Shop, located at Main and Lamar, who inquired if MESTER knew of any film that had been taken of the motorcade. MESTER said he informed BOREN that VAFIADIS had taken some film of the motorcade. MESTER said he then contacted VAFIADIS and obtained his film of the motorcade.

MESTER said it was his intention at that time to exchange copies of film with others who had also taken movies of the Presidential Motorcade. However, he stated, as it developed a Mrs. IRVING GEWERTZ organized a group of people who had taken films of the motorcade and later incorporated this group as the Dallas Cinema Associates. MESTER said there are eighteen members in this group and he holds one share of stock. He said he has a side agreement with VAFIADIS to share equally in any profits made.

Wyman H Parr

Date 4/22/64

WYMAN HULAN* PARR, owner, Glendale Camera Shop, 4448 South Marsalis, advised he presently resides at 3535 Tribune Drive, Apartment 107, Dallas, Texas. He said he was born October 6, 1920, at Dallas, Texas.

PARR stated on November 22, 1963, he was at the above store on duty and did not view the Presidential Motorcade. PARR stated that DAVID HOLLOWAY, an employee of Trans Texas Airlines at Love Field, took 8 mm movies of the arrival of President KENNEDY at Love Field. PARR said that DAVID HOLLOWAY lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. HOLLOWAY, 604 Calyx Circle, Dallas, Texas, telephone number FR 1-1458.

PARR stated that HOLLOWAY brought the film that he had taken of President KENNEDY's arrival at Love Field on November 22, 1963, to his store for processing. When the film was returned to the store and HOLLOWAY then picked it up, PARR said he was informed by HOLLOWAY that the film contained pictures of President KENNEDY's arrival at Love Field. He said they both viewed this film at the store.

PARR stated that at about the same time that HOLLOWAY brought his film to his store, DICK ALLEN, an employee of Hine Pontiac, Dallas, Texas, also brought a roll of film containing scenes of the Presidential Motorcade. About a month following this, PARR stated GEORGE SHAWVER came to his camera shop and requested PARR to make some stills of President KENNEDY from his 8 mm roll. PARR advised that while SHAWVER was in the store he, PARR, received a telephone call from Mrs. FRANCES HAYS, Garland, Texas, who informed him that she was calling all camera stores in the Dallas, Texas, area to locate film taken of President KENNEDY's motorcade. At this time PARR said he and Mrs. HAYS discussed forming a group and putting together a film which would cover as much of the motorcade as possible.

PARR stated he recontacted DAVID HOLLOWAY and informed him of the formation of the group and advised him to PARR advised he put Mrs. FRANCES HAYS in contact with RUDY BRENK, who is employed by Exline-Lowdon Company, 1818 South Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, business phone HAmilton 1-2177, home phone BR 9-7148, who he knew had considerable experience as an amateur photographer. PARR stated in March 1964 the Dallas Cinema Associates was incorporated and BRENK was elected president. He said they have completed the film of the Presidential Motorcade and it is now at Technicolor, Inc., Burbank, California, for reproduction.

PARR said he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said he knew JACK RUBY only as a speaking acquaintance from infrequent visits to RUBY's club. He said he had no other association with JACK RUBY. PARR also stated that he had no information that would assist in the investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY.

DAVID O'H-OLLOWAY Date 5/22/64

DAVID PERCY HOLLOWAY, Reservations Agent, Trans-Texas Airways, Love Field, advised he resides in Apartment T, at 5739 Gaston Avenue, Dallas, Texas. HOLLOWAY stated he was born February 22, 1937, at Rochester, New York.

HOLLOWAY related that on November 21, 1963, he learned that the President of the United States was scheduled to arrive at Love Field at approximately 11:20 AM, November 22, 1963. He said he also learned that the President was to be accompanied by his wife, Vice President JOHNSON and Mrs. JOHNSON, and Governor JOHN CONNALLY and his wife. He said that upon arrival at Dallas, Texas, this group was to proceed by motorcade to the Trade Mart Building located at 2100 Stemmons Freeway, Dallas, Texas, where President KENNEDY was to make a public address. HOLLOWAY stated when he learned of this schedule he planned to go to Love Field on November 22, 1963, to see the President and to take movies of him and his entourage.

TEXAS

HOLLOWAY advised that on November 22, 1963, he left his parents' residence, Mr. & Mrs. P. D. HOLLOWAY, 604 Calyx Circle, Dallas, Texas, and proceeded in his mother's car to Love Field, arriving there at about 10:45 AM. At about 11 o'clock, HOLLOWAY stated he proceeded to Gate 28 at Love Field, where he understood the President was due to arrive. He said he had his 8 mm Keystone Camera, Model 60, loaded with Kodachrome II Film with him and, prior to the President's arrival, took some crowd scenes. He said he also took some film sequences of the arrival of Vice President JOHNSON's plane, as well as the arrival of the President's plane. HOLLOWAY stated he took about five feet of movie film as the President and Mrs. KENNEDY de-planed, and also got one short sequence of the President as he was shaking hands with some individuals in the crowd who were there to greet him. He said the motorcade left shortly thereafter.

Within a few minutes after the motorcade left Love

Field, HOLLOWAY stated he got into his mother's car to return it to her. He said on the road leading from the airport two young men were hitchhiking and he stopped and gave them a ride. HOLLOWAY related that at Industrial Boulevard and Stemmons Freeway there was a traffic tie-up and he was obliged to stop. He said that, while stopped, he noticed there were eight or ten pickets at this intersection. He said they were carrying anti-KENNEDY banners and had tape over their mouths. He said he did not know the significance of the tape over the mouths of the pickets. HOLLOWAY advised he was at this intersection for just a couple of minutes and was then directed by the police officer there to proceed. HOLLOWAY said he proceeded under Stemmons Freeway, turned left on the access road, and then onto Stemmons Freeway. He said he proceeded a few hundred feet and then stopped his car, recalling that the Presidential motorcade would be along on Stemmons Freeway proceeding in the opposite direction. He said he got out of his car with the intention of taking some movies of the Presidential motorcade from the median strip and was in the process of moving to this location when he saw the red lights and heard the sirens of the Presidential motorcade traveling north on Stemmons Freeway at a break-neck speed. He said he thought the speed they were traveling was unusual but, nevertheless, was able to get a short film sequence as the motorcade passed near his position.

HOLLOWAY advised he then returned to his car and proceeded to his parents' house. He said he dropped off the two young hitchhikers on Jefferson Street in Oak Cliff. Upon arriving home, HOLLOWAY said he was met by his mother, who informed him that President JOHN F. KENNEDY had been shot. HOLLOWAY stated he remained at home for awhile listening to the radio reports and then, as scheduled, returned to his employment at Trans-Texas Airways at Love Field.

HOLLOWAY advised that, a few days after Thanksgiving, he took the film of the Presidential motorcade for development to the Glendale Camera Shop, 4444 South Marsalis, Dallas, Texas, which camera shop is owned by WYMAN PARR. HOLLOWAY stated on leaving the film he informed PARR that the roll of film contained some sequences of the Presidential motorcade and told PARR, if he would like, he could review the film when it was returned after being developed.

HOLLOWAY advised that in early December, 1963, he went to the Glendale Camera Shop to pick up his film and, at that time, he and WYMAN PARR viewed the film. He said PARR expressed an interest in it and said he knew of some others who had some film sequences of the Presidential motorcade.

HOLLOWAY stated in the latter part of January, 1964, he was contacted by WYMAN PARR, who informed him that a number of people who had taken movies of the Presidential motorcade had joined together and planned to put the film sequences into one movie and to market it commercially. HOLLOWAY stated that PARR told him he could join the group and share in any profit made on the film. HOLLOWAY advised he was not interested and, when PARR said he would give him $50.00 for his film and take the gamble on making this money, he accepted PARR's offer and gave PARR his film, signing a release for any right to it. HOLLOWAY stated PARR also informed him that should he, PARR, make any money on the film, he would give HOLLOWAY an additional $100.00. He further stated that PARR gave him a duplicate roll of the film for his personal use.

A week or so following the above contact by PARR, HOLLOWAY said he was contacted by a woman, name unrecalled, who expressed an interest in his film. HOLLOWAY said he informed her that he had sold his film to WYMAN PARR.

HOLLOWAY stated he did not know, nor did he ever have any contact with either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

1 Date 4/22/64

BRYANT CARROLL BOREN, residence, 605 West Vista, Garland, Texas, was interviewed at his place of employment, Sanger-Harris Department Store, Main and Lamar Streets, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. BOREN advised he is employed as Associate Buyer for the Camera Department for the Sanger-Harris chain and, accordingly, buys for all Sanger-Harris Stores throughout the city; however, he maintains his offices at the Main and Lamar store. Mr. BOREN advised he was born January 4, 1927, in Ennis, Texas.

Mr. BOREN advised that on the morning of November 22, 1963, he left the Sanger-Harris Store at Main and Lamar in the company of RICK STEWART, a fellow store employee, at approximately 11:30 AM, intending to view the Presidential motorcade as it came west on Main Street. Mr. BOREN stated he took a Bolex P-1, 8 mm Movie Camera from stock, intending to obtain some film sequences of the motorcade and in order to give RICK STEWART some instruction in the use of that camera. Mr. BOREN advised he loaded the camera with Kodachrome II Color Film and he and STEWART took up a position on the southwest corner of Austin and Main Streets, across the street from the Sanger-Harris Store and, as the motorcade passed their position, STEWART, under the supervision of BOREN, took about ten feet of movie film of the passing motorcade. BOREN advised he did not personally take any of the pictures; however, he is now the owner of this film strip, as he subsequently purchased the film from STEWART.

Mr. BOREN advised that, approximately two weeks following the assassination of the President, a Mr. & Mrs. GEWERTZ, to whom BOREN had previously sold a movie camera, came into the store inquiring as to the possibility of BOREN's having film sequences of the motorcade, and Mr. & Mrs. GEWERTZ suggested they exchange duplicate copies of their film for their personal use. Mr. BOREN advised that he then purchased RICK STEWART's film strip and had a duplicate made, which he furnished to

ALAN RHODES Date 4/22/64

CHARLES ALAN RHODES, Head of Stock, Sanger-Harris Camera Department, Main and Lamar Streets, advised he resides at 4640 Cole Avenue, Apartment 27, Dallas, Texas, RHODES stated he has been in the United States for one and one-half years and has been employed at Sanger-Harris for this entire period. RHODES said he was born July 19, 1945, at Shipley, England, was reared in Australia and is a British subject.

RHODES said on November 22, 1963, at about 11:30 A.M., he took up a position on the southwest corner of Austin and Main Streets, Dallas, Texas, for the purpose of taking pictures of President KENNEDY as the motorcade passed his position. RHODES said he had a .35 mm Argus Camera with him and took three pictures of President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY as the motorcade passed his position at about 12:30 P.M.

RHODES advised that RICK STEWART, another employee in the Camera Department of Sanger-Harris, also took pictures of the Presidential Motorcade as it passed. He said STEWART was using an 8 mm movie camera. RHODES advised that STEWART is now employed by Sanger-Harris in the Camera Department at their Plymouth Park Store in Irving, Texas.

RHODES advised that Mr. and Mrs. IRVING GEWERTZ, 6422 Walnut Hill Lane, Dallas, Texas, were customers in the Camera Department at the Sanger-Harris Store. He said while they were in the store they had discussed the Presidential Motorcade and President KENNEDY's assassination with him and with his supervisor, BRYANT BOREN. He said all wanted to get as many pictures of the Presidential Motorcade as possible just as a collector's item. He said they finally "hit on the idea" of forming a group, putting a film of the motorcade together and selling it. He said in March 1964 this group incorporated and is composed of eighteen members, known as the Dallas Cinema Associates.

He said the film that the Dallas Cinema Associates put together is now at Technicolor, Inc., Burbank, California, RICHARD BECKER STEWART, Camera Department Manager, Sanger-Harris Department Store, Plymouth Park Shopping Center, advised he resides at 6720 Greenwich Street, Dallas, Texas. He said he was born October 31, 1943, at Staten Island, New York.

STEWART advised that on November 22, 1963, he was employed as a salesman in the Camera Department at the Sanger-Harris Department Store located at Main and Lamar Streets, Dallas, Texas. STEWART stated that on instruction of his supervisor, BRYANT BOREN, he was familiarizing himself with the operation of a Bolex 8 mm camera. He said he knew the Presidential motorcade was due to pass by Sanger-Harris Department Store and stated that shortly before noon or thereabouts he took up a position on the southwest corner of Austin at Main Street. He said as the Presidential motorcade passed he took about one or two feet of film of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY in the Presidential motorcade. He said after the motorcade passed he continued to take film of the general area to use up the film he had in the camera. About a week following the assassination of President KENNEDY, STEWART said he sent his film to Kodak for processing. He said when the film returned that he, BRYANT BOREN, and ALAN RHODES viewed the film. STEWART said BOREN wanted the film and he gave it to him.

STEWART advised that ALAN RHODES, also employed in the Camera Department of the Sanger-Harris Department Store located at Main and Lamar Streets, viewed the motorcade with him and took some 35 mm still pictures of the motorcade.

STEWART stated he learned from BRYANT BOREN that a number of people who had taken movies of the Presidential motorcade had joined together and incorporated under the name of the Dallas Cinema Associates. He said this organization made a film of the Presidential motorcade and planned to market it. He said that BOREN told him that if he, BOREN, made any money on the film he would give STEWART $50. STEWART said he is not in any way affiliated with the Dallas Cinema Associates.

STEWART stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never met JACK RUBY. He said he may have seen RUBY in the Sanger-Harris Department Store but could not recall any specific instance.

JULES ERNEST SPIEGEL

JULES ERNEST SPIEGEL, Salesman, Southwest Fixtures Company, 907 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his place of employment regarding film sequences of the Presidential motorcade taken by him on November 22, 1963. SPIEGEL advised he was born April 19, 1916, Frankfurt, Germany, and presently resides at 2723 Crest Ridge Drive, Dallas 28, Texas.

SPIEGEL advised that, per the instructions of the owner of Southwest Fixtures Company, the store was closed at about 11:55 AM, on the morning of November 22, 1963, for the purpose of allowing all employees to view the Presidential motorcade, which was scheduled at that time to pass a block from the store at approximately 12:15 PM.

SPIEGEL advised he, accompanied by GAYLORD ANGUISH, a fellow salesman at Southwest Fixtures, took up a position on the southeast corner of Main and Lamar Streets to await the motorcade. SPIEGEL advised that, as the motorcade approached, he climbed on top of a metal coin-operated newspaper dispenser to obtain a better view of the motorcade in order to secure some 8 mm movie shots with his camera. He advised he took about two to three feet of film, using a Bell & Howell Zoomatic, Director Series, utilizing Kodachrome II 8 mm Movie Film. SPIEGEL advised that, following the passing of the motorcade, he took the remainder of the roll of the crowds in the area and returned to the store about 12:30 to 12:35 PM. He advised he was unaware of the shooting of the President until about 12:45 PM, when a fellow employee turned on a store radio.

He stated that about the last of November, 1963, he mailed his roll of film to the Kodak Company for processing and received the processed roll the first week in December, 1963.

SPIEGEL advised that about the middle of December, 1963, he went to a camera store in the Casa Linda Section of Dallas to purchase some camera equipment and, during the course of conversation with the proprietor, he advised the proprietor he had some film sequences of the Presidential motorcade. SPIEGEL stated the proprietor told him he had received an inquiry from a Mrs. GEWERTZ inquiring of persons with film sequences of the Presidential motorcade, and the proprietor asked SPIEGEL for his name and address, in the event this party called again.

SPIEGEL advised that around the end of December, 1963, he received a call from a Mr. PARR, who asked him if he cared to exchange duplicate copies of film for personal use, to which SPIEGEL advised he agreed to attend a meeting to view other film sequences to see if he might be interested.

SPIEGEL stated that around the middle of January, 1964, he received a call from a Mrs. HAYS, who stated she would like to view his film and, accordingly, made an appointment to come to SPIEGEL's house to view the film. He advised Mrs. HAYS and a RUDY BRENK visited his home that evening and, after viewing his film, advised him they liked the sequences he had, and asked him to join a group of several film holders in making up a long film for which each participating member would receive a duplicate of the composite film.

SPIEGEL advised that, following several meetings of other film holders, a group, totaling eighteen in number, incorporated under the name "Dallas Cinema Associates, Inc.," for the purpose of distribution and sale of the completed film on the home-movie market.

SPIEGEL stated he has never at any time, to his knowledge or recollection, had any dealings either personal or business with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

ERNEST CHARLES MENTESANA was interviewed at his place of business, Mentesana's Grocery, 1814 Allen Street, Dallas, Texas, concerning film sequences taken by him of the Presidential motorcade. MENTESANA advised he was born April 7, 1918, Dallas, Texas, and presently resides at 5103 Vickery Boulevard, Dallas, Texas.

MENTESANA advised on the morning of November 22, 1963, he left his grocery store at approximately 11:30 AM, in company with ARDEN WILSON, a store employee, and rode to the intersection of Turtle Creek Road and Cedar Springs Road for the purpose of taking 8 mm movie film of the Presidential motorcade as it passed that point. He advised he and WILSON arrived at that intersection at about 11:40 AM and took up a position on the median strip on Turtle Creek Road, approximately one hundred feet north of the Cedar Springs intersection, to await the arrival of the motorcade. He stated that, as the motorcade passed his position, he was able to obtain about ten feet of 8 mm movie film of the motorcade procession, using a Wollensak Movie Camera, with a 1.9 lens, and utilizing Kodachrome II Film. MENTESANA estimated the time of the passing of the motorcade to be approximately 12:10 to 12:12 PM.

MENTESANA advised that, immediately following the passing of the motorcade, he and WILSON returned to the grocery store, where he let WILSON out of the car, and continued to the Katy Railroad Freight Depot near the Texas School Book Depository Building to pick up some salvaged food stuffs, which he had previously purchased, and it was then he learned of the shooting of President KENNEDY. He said he then took several feet more of film of the turmoil in and around the Depository Building. He advised he sent this film to the Fox Film Company of Dallas for processing.

MENTESANA advised he is a member of the "Dallas 8 mm Movie Club" and, sometime during the early part of January, 1964, a fellow movie club member, one ALBERT BUNNEL, called him at the store and told him that he, BUNNELL, had been contacted by a Mrs. IRVING GEWERTZ concerning the film sequences which he had taken of the motorcade. He stated BUNNELL told him Mrs. GEWERTZ likewise had a series of film sequences and was interested in exchanging duplicate copies of film with others who had film of the motorcade and Mrs. GEWERTZ desired to view MENTESANA's film. MENTESANA advised that, accordingly, he and BUNELL attended a meeting of several other film holders and, upon seeing his film on the screen, Mrs. GEWERTZ was interested in obtaining copies of his film in exchange for her copies, to which he agreed.

MENTESANA advised that, subsequent to this original arrangement, Mrs. GEWERTZ organized a group, totaling eighteen in number, of various film holders, including himself and ALBERT BUNNELL, and that this organization incorporated itself in March, 1964, under the name "Dallas Cinema Associates, Inc." MENTESANA advised he has attended all subsequent meetings of the corporation, and is under the impression the film is presently being prepared for marketing on the home-movie market.

MENTESANA stated he has never had any contact, either personal or business, at any time with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY, to the best of his knowledge or recollection.

C. W. (initials only) GRAY, 11627 Fernald Street, advised he is employed as a buyer in the Purchasing Department by Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries, telephone No. FLeetwood 2-4861, 6211 Lemmon Avenue, Dallas, Texas, and was so employed in this capacity on November 22, 1963. GRAY said he was born March 7, 1925, at McKinney, Texas.

GRAY said on November 22, 1963, he knew the Presidential motorcade was going to pass by his place of employment. As a consequence, he said he had brought his 8 mm Keystone Camera to work with him that day for the purpose of taking pictures of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and others in the Presidential motorcade. GRAY said that at about 11:30 a.m. on November 22, 1963, he took up a position on the median strip of Lemmon Avenue in front of Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries, 6211 Lemmon Avenue, Dallas, Texas. He said that at about 12:15 p.m. the Presidential motorcade passed by his position and he took some film of President KENNEDY as the motorcade passed. Several moments after the motorcade passed, GRAY said he returned to his office at Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries.

GRAY advised that ALBERT BUNNELL, a stockholder of Dallas Cinema Associates, and also employed by Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries, 6211 Lemmon Avenue, took some film shots of the Presidential motorcade from the roof of the building housing Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries.

GRAY said he believes it was shortly after Christmas that he had the film of the Presidential motorcade developed because he also had some film on the same roll of Christmas scenes and his family. He said the film, Kodachrome II, was processed by the Lockwood Pharmacy, Lockwood Shopping Center, Dallas, Texas.

GRAY advised that around early January, 1964, he believes, he was contacted by telephone by Mrs. IRVING GEWERIZ, who informed him that she had learned from ALBERT BUNNELL, mentioned above, that GRAY had taken some movies of the Presidential motorcade. She said she was interested in seeing the film and would be willing to exchange some film that she had for his. She also stated that a group of people who had taken film along the route of the Presidential motorcade were getting together and might possibly make a film showing views along the route of the Presidential motorcade.

Shortly after his contact by Mrs. GEWERTZ, GRAY said she viewed his film, liked it, and he subsequently joined the group which later incorporated under the name of the Dallas Cinema Associates, Incorporated. GRAY said the Dallas Cinema Associates, Incorporated, has put together a film of the Presidential motorcade and planned to market it commercially. He said the film at present has been sent to Technicolor, Incorporated, Burbank, California, and he understands that the proof copy, from which additional copies will subsequently be made, will be returned to the Dallas Cinema Associates, Incorporated, in about one week.

GRAY said he is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and to his knowledge has never had any contact with either.

ALBERT LEWIS BUNNELL, Assistant Purchasing Agent, Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries, Incorporated, 6211 Lemmon Avenue, advised he resides at 1314 English Street, Irving, Texas, and has residence telephone No. BLackburn 3-1427. BUNNELL said he was born May 23, 1921, at Portland, Oregon.

BUNNELL advised that on November 21, 1963, he learned that the Presidential motorcade was going to pass by Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries, Incorporated, on Lemmon Avenue at about noon on November 22, 1963. With this in mind, BUNNELL stated he brought his Canon Zoom 8 mm camera to work with him with the intention of taking movies of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and the Presidential motorcade as it passed by Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries, Incorporated. BUNNELL related that at about 11:50 a.m. on November 22, 1963, he took his camera and went to the roof of Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries, Incorporated, which is located approximately 50 yards west of Lemmon Avenue. From this point, BUNNELL said he took pictures of three four-engine jet aircraft as they passed over the building to land at Love Field. He said the building is directly in the final approach pattern for planes landing at Love Field. BUNNELL said he believes he got some movies of the Presidential aircraft which he estimated passed over the building a little before 12:00 noon.

Later, at approximately 12:10 p.m., according to BUNNELL's estimate, the Presidential motorcade passed by Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries, Incorporated, and he took movies of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and the motorcade. He said he was using Kodachrome II film and estimated that he took approximately seven feet of this film.

BUNNELL said around the early part of January, 1964, he was contacted by a Mrs. IRVING GEWERTZ who informed him she was trying to collect film sequences of the Presidential motorcade in order to have a record of the President's visit to Dallas. Subsequently, BUNNELL advised a group of people who had also taken movies of the Presidential motorcade at various points along the route joined together for the purpose of exchanging film so all would have a more complete record of the Presidential motorcade.

BUNNELL stated C. W. GRAY, a fellow employee of Campbell-Taggart Associated Bakeries, Incorporated, also took movies of the Presidential motorcade. BUNNELL said that GRAY was standing on the median strip of Lemmon Avenue while taking his movies. He said he informed Mrs. GEWERTZ of this and she later contacted C. W. GRAY.

BUNNELL informed that in the early part of March, 1964, the group who had joined together, and then numbered 18, incorporated under the name of the Dallas Cinema Associates when one of the members of the group got the idea that the film containing the sequences taken by members of the group would be marketable. BUNNELL stated he understands that this film which had been sent to Technicolor, Incorporated, Burbank, California, for processing would be ready for marketing within a few days. He said that Sanger-Harris was initially going to have exclusive rights for the sale of this film.

BUNNELL stated he did not know, and to his knowledge, had never had any contact with either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

DICK

RICHARD LEE ALLEN, residence 4222 Summit Ridge Drive, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at Hine Pontiac Company, 2100 Cedar Springs Road, Dallas, where he is employed as Assistant Service Manager. ALLEN advised he was born September 16, 1922, in Dayton, Ohio, and has been so employed at Hine Pontiac for the last 14 years.

ALLEN advised that on the morning of November 22, 1963, Hine Pontiac officials released their employees at about 11:45 a.m. to allow them to view the Presidential motorcade as it was anticipated it would pass in front of the Hine Pontiac showroom facing Cedar Springs Road. He advised that as he intended to view the motorcade he brought his movie camera to work with him that morning which he described as a Bell and Howell Director's Model having two lenses, a wide angle and zoom. ALLEN stated that at about 11:50 a.m. he took up a position on the east side of Cedar Springs Road directly in front of the Pontiac showroom to await the arrival of the motorcade and that as the motorcade passed his position at approximately 12:15 p.m. he shot one complete half roll of film, type Kodachrome II, which he stated consists of 25 full feet.

ALLEN advised that upon completion of the entire roll he took the roll to the Glendale Camera Shop, 4448 S. Marsalis, operated by WYMAN PARR, for processing.
